16 “For this is what Jehovah has said to the king sitting on the throne of David[f] and to all the people dwelling in this city, YOUR brothers that have not gone forth with YOU into exile,[g] 17 ‘This is what Jehovah of armies has said: “Here I am sending against them the sword,[h] the famine[i] and the pestilence,[j] and I will make them like the burst-open figs that cannot be eaten for badness.”’[k]

18 “‘And I will pursue after them with the sword, with the famine and with the pestilence, and I will give them for a quaking to all the kingdoms of the earth,[l] for a curse and for an object of astonishment and for a whistling at and for a reproach among all the nations to which I shall certainly disperse them,[m] 19 due to the fact that they have not listened to my words,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘that I have sent to them with my servants the prophets, getting up early and sending [them].’[n]

“‘But YOU have not listened,’[o] is the utterance of Jehovah.

20 “And as for YOU, hear the word of Jehovah, all you exiled people,[p] whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.[q] 21 This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said concerning A′hab the son of Ko·lai′ah and to Zed·e·ki′ah the son of Ma·a·sei′ah, who are prophesying to YOU falsehood in my own name,[a] ‘Here I am giving them into the hand of Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon, and he must strike them down before YOUR eyes.[b] 22 And from them a malediction will certainly be taken on the part of the entire body of exiles of Judah that is in Babylon, saying: “May Jehovah make you like Zed·e·ki′ah and like A′hab,[c] whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire!”[d] 23 for the reason that they have carried on senselessness in Israel,[e] and they keep committing adultery with the wives of their companions[f] and keep speaking falsely in my own name the word that I did not command them.[g]

29 And Zeph·a·ni′ah[r] the priest proceeded to read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

30 Then the word of Jehovah occurred to Jeremiah, saying: 31 “Send to all the exiled people,[a] saying, ‘This is what Jehovah has said concerning She·mai′ah of Ne·hel′am: “For the reason that She·mai′ah has prophesied to YOU people, but I myself did not send him, and he tried to make YOU trust in falsehood,[b] 32 therefore this is what Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am turning my attention upon She·mai′ah[c] of Ne·hel′am and upon his offspring.’[d]

“‘“‘He will not come to have a man dwelling in the midst of this people;[e] and he will not look upon the good that I am doing for my people,’[f] is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘for he has spoken outright revolt against Jehovah.’”’”[g]

The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: 2 “This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, ‘Write for yourself in a book all the words that I will speak to you.[h] 3 For, “look! there are days coming,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and I will gather the captive ones of my people, Israel and Judah,”[i] Jehovah has said, “and I will bring them back to the land that I gave to their forefathers, and they will certainly repossess it.”’”[j]

4 And these are the words that Jehovah has spoken to Israel and to Judah. 5 For this is what Jehovah has said: “The sound of trembling we have heard, dread,[k] and there is no peace. 6 Ask, please, O men, and see whether a male is giving birth. Why is it that I have seen every able-bodied man with his hands upon his loins like a female that is giving birth,[l] and all faces have turned pale?[m] 7 Alas! For that day is a great one,[a] so that there is no other like it,[b] and it is the time of distress for Jacob.[c] But he will be saved even out of it.”

8 “And it must occur in that day,” is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, “that I shall break one’s yoke from off your neck, and your bands I shall tear in two,[d] and no more will strangers exploit him as a servant. 9 And they will certainly serve Jehovah their God and David their king,[e] whom I shall raise up for them.”[f]

10 “And as for you, do not be afraid, O my servant Jacob,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and do not be struck with terror, O Israel.[g] For here I am saving you from far off and your offspring from the land of their captivity.[h] And Jacob will certainly return and be free of disturbance and be at ease, and there will be no one causing trembling.”[i]

11 “For I am with you,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “to save you;[j] but I shall make an extermination among all the nations to which I have scattered you.[k] However, in your case I shall make no extermination.[l] And I shall have to correct you to the proper degree, as I shall by no means leave you unpunished.”[m]

12 For this is what Jehovah has said: “There is no cure for your breakdown.[n] Your stroke is chronic.[o] 13 There is no one pleading your cause, for [your] ulcer.[p] There are no means of healing, no mending, for you.[q] 14 All those intensely loving you are the ones that have forgotten you.[r] You are not the one for whom they keep searching. For with the stroke of an enemy I have struck you,[s] with the chastisement of someone cruel,[t] on account of the abundance of your error;[u] your sins have become numerous.[v] 15 Why do you cry out on account of your breakdown?[w] Your pain is incurable on account of the abundance of your error; your sins have become numerous.[a] I have done these things to you. 16 Therefore all those devouring you will themselves be devoured;[b] and as for all your adversaries, into captivity they will all of them go.[c] And those pillaging you will certainly come to be for pillaging, and all those plundering you I shall give over to plundering.”[d]

18 This is what Jehovah has said: “Here I am gathering the captive ones of the tents of Jacob,[h] and for his tabernacles I shall have pity. And the city will actually be rebuilt upon her mound;[i] and upon its rightful site the dwelling tower itself will sit.[j] 19 And from them there will certainly go forth thanksgiving, and the sound of those who are laughing.[k] And I will multiply them, and they will not become few;[l] and I will make them heavy in number, and they will not become insignificant.[m] 20 And his sons must become as in former times, and before me his own assembly will be firmly established.[n] And I will turn my attention upon all his oppressors.[o] 21 And his majestic one will certainly come to be from him,[p] and from the midst of him his own ruler will go forth;[q] and I will cause him to come near, and he must approach to me.”[r]

hovah. 22 "And YOU will certainly become my people,[a] and I myself shall become YOUR God."[b]

23 Look! A windstorm of Jehovah, rage itself, has gone forth, an onward-sweeping tempest.[c] Upon the head of the wicked ones it will whirl.[d] 24 The burning anger of Jehovah will not turn back until he will have executed and until he will have carried out the ideas of his heart.[e] In the final part of the days YOU people will give YOUR consideration to it.[f]

31 "At that time," is the utterance of Jehovah, "I shall become God to all the families of Israel; and as for them, they will become my people."[g]

2 This is what Jehovah has said: "The people made up of survivors from the sword found favor in the wilderness,[h] when Israel was walking to get his repose."[i] 3 From far away Jehovah himself appeared to me, [saying:] "And with a love to time indefinite I have loved you.[j] That is why I have drawn you with loving-kindness.[k] 4 Yet shall I rebuild you and you will actually be rebuilt,[l] O virgin of Israel. You will yet deck yourself with your tambourines and actually go forth in the dance of those who are laughing.[m] 5 You will yet plant vineyards in the mountains of Sa·mar′i·a.[n] The planters will certainly plant and start to use [them].[o] 6 For there exists a day when the lookouts in the mountainous region of E′phra·im will actually call out, 'Rise up, O men, and let us go up to Zion, to Jehovah our God.'"[p]

7 For this is what Jehovah has said: "CRY out loudly to Jacob with rejoicing, and CRY shrilly at the head of the nations.[q] PUBLISH [it].[r] GIVE praise and SAY, 'Save, O Jehovah, your people, the remnant of Israel.'[s] 8 Here I am bringing them from the land of the north,[a] and I will collect them together from the remotest parts of the earth.[b] Among them will be the blind and the lame, the pregnant woman and the one giving birth, all together.[c] As a great congregation they will return here.[d] 9 With weeping they will come,[e] and with [their] entreaties for favor I shall bring them. I shall make them walk to torrent valleys of water,[f] in a right way in which they will not be caused to stumble. For I have become to Israel a Father;[g] and as for E′phra·im, he is my firstborn."[h]

10 Hear the word of Jehovah, O YOU nations, and tell [it] among the islands far away,[i] and say: "The One scattering Israel will himself collect him together,[j] and he will certainly keep him as a shepherd does his drove.[k] 11 For Jehovah will actually redeem Jacob[l] and reclaim him out of the hand of the one stronger than he is.[m] 12 And they will certainly come and cry out joyfully on the height of Zion[n] and become radiant over the goodness of Jehovah,[o] over the grain and over the new wine[p] and over the oil and over the young ones of the flock and the cattle.[q] And their soul will simply become like a well-watered garden,[r] and no more will they languish again."[s]

13 "At that time the virgin will rejoice in the dance, also the young men and the old men, all together.[t] And I will change their mourning into exultation, and I will comfort them and make them rejoice away from their grief.[u] 14 And I will saturate the soul of the priests with fatness,[v] and with my goodness my own people will become satisfied,"[a] is the utterance of Jehovah.

15 "This is what Jehovah has said, 'In Ra′mah[b] a voice is being heard, lamentation and bitter weeping;[c] Rachel[d] weeping over her sons.[e] She has refused to be comforted over her sons,[f] because they are no more.'"[g]

16 This is what Jehovah has said: "'Hold back your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears,[h] for there exists a reward for your activity,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and they will certainly return from the land of the enemy.'[i]

17 "'And there exists a hope[j] for your future,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and the sons will certainly return to their own territory.'"[k]

18 "I have positively heard E′phra·im bemoaning himself,[l] 'You have corrected me, that I may be corrected,[m] like a calf that has not been trained.[n] Cause me to turn back, and I shall readily turn back,[o] for you are Jehovah my God.[p] 19 For after my turning back I felt regret;[q] and after my being led to know I made a slap upon the thigh.[r] I became ashamed, and I also felt humiliated,[s] for I had carried the reproach of my youth.'"[t]

20 "Is E′phra·im a precious son to me, or a fondly treated child?[u] For to the extent of my speaking against him I shall without fail remember him further.[v] That is why my intestines have become boisterous for him.[w] By all means I shall have pity upon him,"[x] is the utterance of Jehovah.

21 "Set up road marks for yourself. Place signposts for yourself.[y] Fix your heart upon the highway, the way that you will have to go.[z] Come back, O virgin of Israel. Come back to these cities of yours.[a] 22 How long will you turn this way and that,[b] O unfaithful daughter?[c] For Jehovah has created a new thing in the earth: A mere female will press around an able-bodied man."

23 This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: "They will yet say this word in the land of Judah and in his cities, when I shall gather their captives, 'May Jehovah bless you,[a] O righteous dwelling place,[b] O holy mountain.'[c] 24 And in it Judah and all his cities will certainly dwell all together, farmers and those who have set out with the drove.[d] 25 For I will saturate the tired soul, and every languishing soul I will fill."[e]

26 At this thing I awoke and began to see; and as for my sleep, it had been pleasurable to me.

27 "Look! There are days coming," is the utterance of Jehovah, "and I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and with the seed of domestic animal."[f]

28 "And it must occur that just as I had kept alert toward them[g] to uproot and to pull down and to tear down and to destroy and to do damage,[h] so I shall keep alert toward them to build up and to plant,"[i] is the utterance of Jehovah. 29 "In those days they will no more say, 'The fathers were the ones that ate the unripe grape, but it was the teeth of the sons that got set on edge.'[j] 30 But it will be each one for his own error that one will die.[k] Any man eating the unripe grape, his will be the teeth that will be set on edge."

31 "Look! There are days coming," is the utterance of Jehovah, "and I will conclude with the house of Israel[l] and with the house of Judah[m] a new covenant;[n] 32 not one like the covenant that I concluded with their forefathers in the day of my taking hold of their hand

34 "And they will no more teach each one his companion and each one his brother,[i] saying, 'KNOW Jehovah!'[j] for they will all of them know me, from the least one of them even to the greatest one of them,"[k] is the utterance of Jehovah. "For I shall forgive their error, and their sin I shall remember no more."[l]

35 This is what Jehovah, the Giver of the sun for light by day,[m] the statutes[n] of the moon[o] and the stars for light by night,[p] the One stirring up the sea that its waves may become boisterous,[q] the One whose name is Jehovah of armies,[r] has said: 36 "'If these regulations could be removed from before me,'[s] is the utterance of Jehovah, 'those who are the seed of Israel could likewise cease from proving to be a nation before me always.'"[t]

37 This is what Jehovah has said: "'If the heavens up above could be measured and the foundations of the earth below could be searched out,[u] I myself also could reject the entire seed of Israel on account of all that they have done,'[v] is the utterance of Jehovah."

38 "Look! There are days coming," is the utterance of Jehovah, "and the city will certainly be built[w] to Jehovah from the Tower of Ha·nan'el[x] to the Corner Gate.[y] 39 And the line for measurement[z] will yet actually go forth straight ahead to the hill of Ga'reb, and it will certainly go around to Go'ah. 40 And all the low plain of the carcasses[a] and of the fatty ashes,[b] and all the terraces as far as the torrent valley of Kid'ron,[c] clear to the corner of the Horse Gate[d] toward the sunrising, will be something holy to Jehovah.[e] It will not be uprooted, neither will it be torn down anymore to time indefinite."[f]

The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah in the tenth year of Zed·e·ki'ah the king of Judah,[g] that is, the eighteenth year of Neb·u·chad·rez'zar.[h] 2 And at that time the military forces of the king of Babylon were laying siege to Jerusalem;[i] and as for Jeremiah the prophet, he happened to be under restraint in the Courtyard of the Guard[j] that is in the house of the king of Judah; 3 because Zed·e·ki'ah the king of Judah had restrained him,[k] saying:

"Why is it that you are prophesying,[l] saying, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Here I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will certainly capture it;[m] 4 and Zed·e·ki'ah himself, the king of Judah, will not escape from the hand of the Chal·de'ans, for he will without fail be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and his mouth will actually speak with the mouth of that one, and his own eyes will see even the eyes of that one"';[n] 5 'and to Babylon he will take Zed·e·ki'ah, and there he will continue until I turn my attention to him,'[o] is the utterance of Jehovah; 'although YOU men keep warring against the Chal·de'ans, YOU will not succeed'?"[p]

6 And Jeremiah proceeded to say: "The word of Jehovah has occurred to me, saying, 7 'Here is Han'a·mel the son of Shal'lum your paternal uncle coming in to you, saying: "Buy for yourself the field of mine that is in An'a·thoth,[a] because the right of repurchase belongs to you for buying [it]."'"[b]

8 In time Han'a·mel the son of my paternal uncle came in to me, according to the word of Jehovah, into the Courtyard of the Guard,[c] and proceeded to say to me: "Buy, please, the field of mine that is in An'a·thoth,[d] which is in the land of Benjamin,[e] for the right of hereditary possession is yours, and the repurchasing power is yours. Buy [it] for yourself." At that I knew that it had been the word of Jehovah.[f]

9 So I proceeded to buy from Han'a·mel[g] the son of my paternal uncle the field that was in An'a·thoth.[h] And I began to weigh out to him the money,[i] seven shekels and ten silver pieces. 10 Then I wrote in a deed[j] and affixed the seal[k] and took witnesses[l] as I went weighing[m] the money in the scales. 11 After that I took the deed of purchase, the one sealed according to the commandment and the regulations,[n] and the one left open; 12 and I then gave the deed of purchase to Bar'uch[o] the son of Ne·ri'ah[p] the son of Mah·sei'ah before the eyes of Han'a·mel [the son of] my paternal uncle and before the eyes of the witnesses, those writing in the deed of purchase,[q] before the eyes of all the Jews who were sitting in the Courtyard of the Guard.[r]

13 I now commanded Bar'uch before their eyes, saying: 14 "This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'Taking these deeds, this deed of purchase, even the sealed one, and the other deed left open,[s] you must also put them into an earthenware vessel, in order that they may last for many days.' 15 For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'Houses and fields and vineyards will yet be bought in this land.'"[a]

16 And I began to pray[b] to Jehovah after my having given the deed of purchase to Bar'uch[c] the son of Ne·ri'ah,[d] saying: 17 "Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah![e] Here you yourself have made the heavens and the earth by your great power[f] and by your outstretched arm.[g] The whole matter is not too wonderful for you yourself,[h] 18 the One exercising loving-kindness toward thousands,[i] and repaying the error of the fathers into the bosom of their sons after them,[j] the [true] God, the great One,[k] the mighty One,[l] Jehovah of armies[m] being his name,[n] 19 great in counsel[o] and abundant in acts,[p] you whose eyes are opened upon all the ways of the sons of men,[q] in order to give to each one according to his ways and according to the fruitage of his dealings;[r] 20 you who set signs and miracles in the land of Egypt down to this day and in Israel and among men,[s] that you might make a name for your own self, just as at this day.[t] 21 And you proceeded to bring forth your people Israel out of the land of Egypt,[u] with signs and with miracles[v] and with a strong hand and with a stretched-out arm and with great fearsomeness.[w]

22 "In time you gave them this land that you swore to their forefathers to give to them,[x] a land flowing with milk and honey.[y] 23 And they proceeded to come in and take possession of it,[z] but they did not obey your voice, and in your law they did not walk.[a] All the things that you commanded them to do they did not do,[a] so that you caused all this calamity to befall them.[b] 24 Look! With siege ramparts[c] men have come to the city to capture it,[d] and the very city will certainly be given into the hand of the Chal·de′ans who are fighting against it,[e] because of the sword[f] and the famine[g] and the pestilence;[h] and what you have said has happened, and here you are seeing [it].[i] 25 Yet you yourself have said to me, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'Buy for yourself the field with money[j] and take witnesses,'[k] although the city itself must be given into the hand of the Chal·de′ans."[l]

26 At that the word of Jehovah occurred to Jeremiah, saying: 27 "Here I am, Jehovah, the God of all flesh.[m] For me is there any matter at all too wonderful?[n] 28 Therefore this is what Jehovah has said, 'Here I am giving this city into the hand of the Chal·de′ans and into the hand of Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon, and he must capture it.[o] 29 And the Chal·de′ans who are fighting against this city must come in and set this city aflame with fire and must burn it down[p] and the houses upon the roofs of which they have made sacrificial smoke to Ba′al and have poured out drink offerings to other gods for the purpose of offending me.'[q]

30 "'For the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah have proved to be mere doers of what was bad in my eyes, from their youth on up;[r] for the sons of Israel are even offending me by the work of their hands,'[s] is the utterance of Jehovah. 31 'For this city, from the day that they built it, clear down to this day, has proved to be nothing but a cause of anger in me[t] and a cause of rage in me, in order to remove it from before my face,[u] 32 on account of all the badness of the sons of Israel[a] and of the sons of Judah[b] that they have done to offend me,[c] they, their kings,[d] their princes,[e] their priests[f] and their prophets,[g] and the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 33 And they kept turning to me the back and not the face;[h] though there was a teaching of them, a rising up early and teaching, but there were none of them listening to receive discipline.[i] 34 And they went putting their disgusting things in the house upon which my own name has been called, in order to defile it.[j] 35 Furthermore, they built the high places of Ba′al[k] that are in the valley of the son of Hin′nom,[l] in order to make their sons and their daughters pass through [the fire][m] to Mo′lech,[n] a thing that I did not command them,[o] neither did it come up into my heart to do this detestable thing,[p] for the purpose of making Judah sin.'[q]

36 "And now, therefore, this is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said concerning this city which YOU persons are saying will certainly be given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword and by the famine and by the pestilence,[r] 37 'Here I am collecting them together out of all the lands to which I shall have dispersed them in my anger and in my rage and in great indignation;[s] and I will bring them back to this place and make them dwell in security.[t] 38 And they will certainly become my people,[u] and I myself shall become their God.[v] 39 And I will give them one heart[w] and one way in order to fear me always, for good to them and to their sons after

42 "For this is what Jehovah has said, 'Just as I have brought in upon this people all this great calamity, so I am bringing in upon them all the goodness that I am speaking concerning them.[g] 43 And fields will certainly be bought in this land[h] of which YOU people will be saying: "It is a desolate waste[i] without man and domestic animal. 44 "'With money people will buy fields themselves, and there will be a recording in the deed[k] and a sealing and a taking of witnesses[l] in the land of Benjamin[m] and in the surroundings of Jerusalem[n] and in the cities of Judah[o] and in the cities of the mountainous region and in the cities of the lowland[p] and in the cities of the south,[q] because I shall bring back their captives,'[r] is the utterance of Jehovah."

And the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the Courtyard of the Guard,[s] saying: 2 "This is what Jehovah the Maker[t] of [earth] has said, Jehovah the Former[u] of it to establish it firmly,[v] Jehovah being his name,[w] 3 'Call to me, and I shall answer you[x] and readily tell you great and incomprehensible things that you have not known.'"[y]

10 "This is what Jehovah has said, 'In this place that YOU people will be saying is waste without man and without domestic animal, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem that are desolated[o] without man and without inhabitant and without domestic animal, there will yet be heard[p] 11 the sound of exultation and the sound of rejoicing,[q] the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those saying: “LAUD Jehovah of armies, for Jehovah is good;[a] for to time indefinite is his loving-kindness!”'[b]

"'They will be bringing a thanksgiving offering into the house of Jehovah,[c] for I shall bring back the captives of the land just as at the start,'[d] Jehovah has said."

12 "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'In this waste place without man and even domestic animal[e] and in all its cities there will yet come to be the pasture ground of the shepherds who are making the flock lie down.'[f]

13 "'In the cities of the mountainous region, in the cities of the lowland[g] and in the cities of the south[h] and in the land of Benjamin[i] and in the surroundings of Jerusalem[j] and in the cities of Judah[k] flocks will yet pass by under the hands of the one taking the count,'[l] Jehovah has said."

14 "'Look! There are days coming,'[m] is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and I shall certainly carry out the good word that I have spoken,[n] concerning the house of Israel[o] and concerning the house of Judah. 15 In those days and at that time I shall make sprout for David a righteous sprout,[p] and he will certainly execute justice and righteousness in the land.[q] 16 In those days Judah will be saved[r] and Jerusalem itself will reside in security.[s] And this is what she will be called, Jehovah Is Our Righteousness.'"[t]

17 "For this is what Jehovah has said, 'There will not be cut off in David's case a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel.[u] 18 And in the case of the priests, the Levites, there will not be cut off a man from before me to offer up whole burnt offering and to make smoke with a grain offering and to render sacrifice always.'"[a]

19 And the word of Jehovah came further to Jeremiah, saying: 20 "This is what Jehovah has said, 'If YOU people could break my covenant of the day and my covenant of the night, even in order for day and night not to occur in their time,[b] 21 likewise could my own covenant be broken with David my servant[c] so that he should not come to have a son ruling as king upon his throne;[d] also with the Levites, the priests, my ministers.[e] 22 Just as the army of the heavens cannot be counted, neither the sand of the sea be measured,[f] so I shall multiply the seed of David my servant and the Levites who are ministering to me.'"[g]

23 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to Jeremiah, saying: 24 "Have you not seen what those of this people have spoken, saying, 'The two families whom Jehovah has chosen,[h] he will also reject them'? And my own people they keep treating with disrespect,[i] so that it should no more continue being a nation before them.

25 "This is what Jehovah has said, 'If it was not a fact that I had appointed my own covenant of the day and night,[j] the statutes of heaven and earth,[k] 26 so too I would reject even the seed of Jacob and of David my servant,[l] so that I should not take from his seed rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. For I shall gather their captives[m] and will have pity upon them.'"[n]

under his hand,[a] and all the peoples were fighting against Jerusalem and against all her cities,[b] saying:

2 "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'Go, and you must say to Zed·e·ki'ah the king of Judah,[c] yes, you must say to him: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Here I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon,[d] and he must burn it with fire.[e] 3 And you yourself will not escape out of his hand, because you will without fail be caught and into his hand you will be given.[f] And your own eyes will see even the eyes of the king of Babylon,[g] and his own mouth will speak even with your mouth, and to Babylon you will come.' 4 However, hear the word of Jehovah, O Zed·e·ki'ah king of Judah,[h] 'This is what Jehovah has said concerning you: "You will not die by the sword. 5 In peace you will die;[i] and as with the burnings for your fathers, the former kings who happened to be prior to you,[j] so they will make a burning[k] for you, and 'Alas, O master!'[l] is what they will say in lament[m] for you, for 'I myself have spoken the very word,' is the utterance of Jehovah."'"'"

6 And Jeremiah the prophet proceeded to speak to Zed·e·ki'ah the king of Judah all these words[n] in Jerusalem, 7 when the military forces of the king of Babylon were fighting against Jerusalem and against all the cities of Judah that were left remaining,[o] against La'chish[p] and against A·ze'kah;[q] for they, the fortified cities,[r] were the ones that remained over among the cities of Judah.[s]

8 The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah after King Zed·e·ki'ah concluded a covenant with all the people who were in Jerusalem to proclaim to them liberty,[t] 9 to let each one his manservant and each one his maidservant, Hebrew[a] man and Hebrew woman, go free, in order not to use them as servants, that is, a Jew, who is his brother.[b] 10 So all the princes[c] obeyed, and all the people who had entered into the covenant to let each one his manservant and each one his maidservant go free, in order to use them no more as servants, and they proceeded to obey and to let [them] go.[d] 11 But they turned about[e] after that and began to bring back the menservants and the maidservants whom they had let go free, and they went subjecting them as menservants and as maidservants.[f] 12 Consequently the word of Jehovah occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying:

13 "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'I myself concluded a covenant with YOUR forefathers[g] in the day of my bringing them out of the land of Egypt,[h] out of the house of servants,[i] saying: 14 "At the end of seven years YOU men should let go each one his brother,[j] a Hebrew man,[k] who came to be sold to you[l] and who has served you six years; and you must let him go free from being with you." But YOUR forefathers did not listen to me, neither did they incline their ear.[m] 15 And YOU yourselves turn around today and do what is upright in my eyes in proclaiming liberty each one to his companion, and YOU conclude a covenant before me[n] in the house upon which my name has been called.[o] 16 Then YOU turn back[p] and profane my name[q] and bring back each one his manservant and each one his maidservant, whom YOU let go free agreeably to their soul, and YOU subject them to become YOUR menservants and maidservants.'[r]

17 "Therefore this is what Jehovah has said, 'YOU yourselves have not obeyed me in keeping on proclaiming liberty[a] each one to his brother and each one to his companion. Here I am proclaiming to YOU a liberty,'[b] is the utterance of Jehovah, 'to the sword,[c] to the pestilence[d] and to the famine,[e] and I shall certainly give YOU for a quaking to all the kingdoms of the earth.[f] 18 And I will give the men sidestepping my covenant,[g] in that they did not carry out the words of the covenant that they concluded before me [with] the calf that they cut in two[h] that they might pass between its pieces;[i] 19 [namely,] the princes of Judah and the princes of Jerusalem,[j] the court officials and the priests and all the people of the land who went passing between the pieces of the calf— 20 yes, I will give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those seeking for their soul;[k] and their dead bodies must become food for the flying creatures of the heavens and for the beasts of the earth.[l] 21 And Zed·e·ki′ah the king of Judah[m] and his princes I shall give into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those seeking for their soul and into the hand of the military forces of the king of Babylon[n] who are withdrawing from against YOU men.'[o]

22 "'Here I am commanding,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and I shall certainly bring them back to this city,[p] and they must fight against it and capture it and burn it with fire;[q] and the cities of Judah I shall make a desolate waste without an inhabitant.'"[r]

35 The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah in the days of Je·hoi′a·kim[s] the son of Jo·si′ah, the king of Judah, saying: 2 "Go to the house of the Re′cha·bites,[t] and you must speak with them and bring them into the house of Jehovah, to one of the dining rooms; and you must give them wine to drink."

3 So I took Ja·az·a·ni′ah the son of Jeremiah the son of Hab·az·zi·ni′ah and his brothers, and all his sons, and all the household of the Re′cha·bites, 4 and I proceeded to bring them into the house of Jehovah, to the dining room[a] of the sons of Ha′nan the son of Ig·da·li′ah, a man of the [true] God, which was beside the dining room of the princes that was above the dining room of Ma·a·sei′ah the son of Shal′lum[b] the doorkeeper. 5 Then I put before the sons of the house of the Re′cha·bites cups full of wine and goblets and said to them: "Drink wine."

6 But they said: "We shall drink no wine, because Jon′a·dab the son of Re′chab,[c] our forefather, was the one that laid the command upon us, saying, 'You must drink no wine, neither YOU nor YOUR sons, to time indefinite.[d] 7 And no house must YOU build, and no seed must YOU sow; and no vineyard must YOU plant, nor must it come to be YOURS. But in tents YOU should dwell all YOUR days, in order that YOU may keep living many days upon the surface of the ground where YOU are residing as aliens.'[e] 8 So we keep obeying the voice of Je·hon′a·dab the son of Re′chab our forefather in everything that he commanded[f] us by drinking no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons and our daughters,[g] 9 and by not building houses for us to dwell in, so that no vineyard or field or seed should become ours. 10 And we keep dwelling in tents and obeying and doing according to all that Jon′a·dab[h] our forefather commanded us.[i] 11 But it came about when Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon came up against the land[j] that we began to say, 'Come, and let us enter into Jerusalem because of the military force of the Chal·de′ans and because of the military force of the Syrians, and let us dwell in Jerusalem.'"[a]

12 And the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to Jeremiah, saying: 13 "This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'Go, and you must say to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem: "Did YOU not continually receive exhortation to obey my words?"[b] is the utterance of Jehovah. 14 "There has been a carrying out of the words of Je·hon′a·dab the son of Re′chab,[c] that he commanded his sons, to drink no wine, and they have drunk none down to this day, because they have obeyed the commandment of their forefather.[d] And as for me, I have spoken to YOU men, rising up early and speaking,[e] but YOU have not obeyed me.[f] 15 And I kept sending to YOU all my servants the prophets,[g] rising up early and sending [them], saying, 'Turn back, please, each one from his bad way,[h] and make YOUR dealings good,[i] and do not walk after other gods to serve them.[j] And keep dwelling on the ground that I have given to YOU and to YOUR forefathers.'[k] But YOU did not incline YOUR ear, nor did YOU listen to me.[l] 16 But the sons of Je·hon′a·dab the son of Re′chab[m] have carried out the commandment of their forefather that he commanded them;[n] but as for this people, they have not listened to me."'"[o]

17 "Therefore this is what Jehovah, the God of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'Here I am bringing upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the calamity that I have spoken against them,[p] for the reason that I have spoken to them but they did not listen, and I kept calling to them but they did not answer.'"[q]

18 And to the household of the Re′cha·bites Jeremiah said: "This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'For the reason that YOU have obeyed the commandment of Je·hon′a·dab[a] YOUR forefather and continue keeping all his commandments and doing according to all that he commanded YOU,[b] 19 therefore this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: "There will not be cut off from Jon′a·dab the son of Re′chab a man to stand[c] before me always."'"[d]

36 Now it came about in the fourth year of Je·hoi′a·kim[e] the son of Jo·si′ah, the king of Judah, that this word occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: 2 "Take for yourself a roll of a book,[f] and you must write in it all the words[g] that I have spoken to you against Israel and against Judah[h] and against all the nations,[i] since the day that I spoke to you, since the days of Jo·si′ah, clear down to this day.[j] 3 Perhaps those of the house of Judah will listen to all the calamity that I am thinking of doing to them,[k] to the end that they may return, each one from his bad way,[l] and that I may actually forgive their error and their sin."[m]

4 And Jeremiah proceeded to call Bar′uch[n] the son of Ne·ri′ah that Bar′uch might write at the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of Jehovah that He had spoken to him, on the roll of the book.[o] 5 Then Jeremiah commanded Bar′uch, saying: "I am shut up. I am unable to enter into the house of Jehovah.[p] 6 And you yourself must enter in and read aloud from the roll that you have written at my mouth the words of Jehovah[q] in the ears of the people at the house of Jehovah in the day of fast;[r] and also in the ears of all Judah who are coming in from their cities you should read them aloud.[a] 7 Perhaps their request for favor will fall before Jehovah[b] and they will return, each one from his bad way,[c] for great is the anger and the rage that Jehovah has spoken against this people."[d]

8 And Bar'uch[e] the son of Ne·ri'ah proceeded to do according to all that Jeremiah the prophet had commanded him, to read aloud from the book[f] the words of Jehovah at the house of Jehovah.[g]

9 Now it came about in the fifth year of Je·hoi'a·kim[h] the son of Jo·si'ah, the king of Judah, in the ninth month,[i] that all the people in Jerusalem and all the people that were coming in from the cities of Judah into Jerusalem proclaimed a fast before Jehovah.[j] 10 And Bar'uch began to read aloud from the book the words of Jeremiah at the house of Jehovah, in the dining room[k] of Gem·a·ri'ah[l] the son of Sha'phan[m] the copyist,[n] in the upper courtyard, at the entrance of the new gate of the house of Jehovah,[o] in the ears of all the people.

11 And Mi·cai'ah the son of Gem·a·ri'ah the son of Sha'phan[p] got to hear all the words of Jehovah from out of the book. 12 At that he went down to the house of the king, to the dining room of the secretary, and, look! there is where all the princes were sitting, E·lish'a·ma[q] the secretary and De·la'iah[r] the son of She·mai'ah and El·na'than[s] the son of Ach'bor[t] and Gem·a·ri'ah[u] the son of Sha'phan[v] and Zed·e·ki'ah the son of Han·a·ni'ah and all the other princes. 13 And Mi·cai'ah[w] proceeded to tell them all the words that he had heard when Bar'uch read aloud from the book in the ears of the people.[x]

14 Then all the princes sent out to Bar'uch[y] Je·hu'di[z] the son of Neth·a·ni'ah the son of Shel·e·mi'ah the son of Cush'i, saying: "The roll from which you read aloud in the ears of the people—take it in your hand and come." Accordingly Bar'uch the son of Ne·ri'ah took the roll in his hand and came in to them.[a] 15 Then they said to him: "Sit down, please, and read it aloud in our ears." So Bar'uch[b] read aloud in their ears.

16 Now it came about that as soon as they heard all the words, they looked at one another in dread; and they proceeded to say to Bar'uch: "We shall without fail tell the king all these words."[c] 17 And Bar'uch they asked, saying: "Tell us, please, How did you write all these words from his mouth?"[d] 18 Then Bar'uch said to them: "Out of his mouth he kept declaring to me all these words, and I was writing in the book with ink."[e] 19 Finally the princes said to Bar'uch: "Go, conceal yourself, you and Jeremiah, so that no one at all will know where YOU men are."[f]

20 Then they came in to the king, to the courtyard,[g] and the roll they entrusted to the dining room[h] of E·lish'a·ma[i] the secretary; and they began to tell all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Je·hu'di[j] out to get the roll. Accordingly he got it out of the dining room of E·lish'a·ma[k] the secretary.[l] And Je·hu'di began to read it aloud in the ears of the king and in the ears of all the princes standing by the king. 22 And the king was sitting in the winter house,[m] in the ninth month,[n] with a brazier[o] burning before him. 23 Then it came about that as soon as Je·hu'di had read three or four page-columns, he proceeded to tear it apart with the secretary's knife, pitching [it] also into the fire that was in the brazier until all the roll ended up in the fire that was in the brazier.[p]

24 And they felt no dread;[a] neither did the king and all his servants, who were listening to all these words, rip their garments apart.[b] 25 And even El·na'than[c] and De·la'iah[d] and Gem·a·ri'ah[e] themselves pleaded with the king not to burn the roll, but he did not listen to them.[f] 26 Further, the king commanded Je·rah'me·el the son of the king and Se·rai'ah the son of Az'ri·el and Shel·e·mi'ah the son of Ab'de·el to get Bar'uch the secretary and Jeremiah the prophet.[g] But Jehovah kept them concealed.[h]

27 And the word of Jehovah occurred further to Jeremiah after the king had burned up the roll with the words that Bar'uch[i] had written at the mouth of Jeremiah,[j] saying: 28 "Take again for yourself a roll, another one, and write on it all the first words that proved to be on the first roll, which Je·hoi'a·kim the king of Judah burned up.[k] 29 And against Je·hoi'a·kim the king of Judah you should say, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "You yourself have burned up this roll,[l] saying, 'Why is it that you have written on it,[m] saying: "The king of Babylon will come without fail and will certainly bring this land to ruin and cause man and beast to cease from it"?'[n] 30 Therefore this is what Jehovah has said against Je·hoi'a·kim the king of Judah, 'He will come to have no one sitting upon the throne of David,[o] and his own dead body will become something thrown out[p] to the heat by day and to the frost by night. 31 And I will call to account against him[q] and against his offspring and against his servants their error,[r] and I will bring upon them and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem and upon the men of Judah all the calamity that I have spoken against them,[s] and they did not listen.'"'"[t]

32 And Jeremiah himself took another roll and then gave it to Bar'uch the son of Ne·ri'ah, the secretary,[a] who proceeded to write upon it at the mouth[b] of Jeremiah all the words of the book that Je·hoi'a·kim the king of Judah had burned in the fire;[c] and there were added to them many more words like those.

37 And King Zed·e·ki'ah[d] the son of Jo·si'ah[e] began to reign in place of Co·ni'ah[f] the son of Je·hoi'a·kim,[g] whom Neb·u·chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.[h] 2 And he himself and his servants and the people of the land did not listen to the words of Jehovah[i] that he spoke by means of Jeremiah the prophet.[j]

3 And King Zed·e·ki'ah proceeded to send Je·hu'cal[k] the son of Shel·e·mi'ah and Zeph·a·ni'ah[l] the son of Ma·a·sei'ah[m] the priest to Jeremiah the prophet, saying: "Pray, please, in our behalf to Jehovah our God."[n] 4 And Jeremiah was coming in and going out into the midst of the people,[o] as they had not put him in the house of detention. 5 And there was a military force of Phar'aoh that came out of Egypt;[p] and the Chal·de'ans that were laying siege to Jerusalem got to hear the report about them. So they withdrew from against Jerusalem.[q] 6 Then the word of Jehovah occurred to Jeremiah the prophet, saying: 7 "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'This is what YOU men should say to the king of Judah, the one sending YOU to me to inquire of me:[r] "Look! The military force of Phar'aoh that is coming forth to YOU people for the purpose of assistance will have to go back to their land, Egypt.[s] 8 And the Chal·de'ans will certainly come back and fight against this city and capture it and burn it with fire."[a] 9 This is what Jehovah has said: "Do not deceive YOUR souls,[b] saying, 'The Chal·de'ans will without fail go away from against us,' because they will not go away. 10 For if YOU men had struck down all the military force of the Chal·de'ans who are fighting YOU[c] and there remained over among them men pierced through,[d] they would each one in his tent rise up and actually burn this city with fire."'"

11 And it occurred when the military force of the Chal·de'ans had withdrawn themselves from against Jerusalem[e] because of the military force of Phar'aoh,[f] 12 that Jeremiah began to go forth from Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin[g] and to get [his] portion from there in the midst of the people. 13 So it came about when he was in the Gate of Benjamin[h] that the officer holding the oversight, whose name was I·ri'jah the son of Shel·e·mi'ah the son of Han·a·ni'ah, was there. At once he took hold of Jeremiah the prophet, saying: "It is to the Chal·de'ans that you are falling away!" 14 But Jeremiah said: "It is false![i] I am not falling away to the Chal·de'ans." But he did not listen to him. So I·ri'jah kept hold of Jeremiah and brought him in to the princes. 15 And the princes[j] began to get indignant at Jeremiah,[k] and they struck him[l] and put him into the house of fetters,[m] in the house of Je·hon'a·than[n] the secretary, for this was what they had made the house of detention.[o] 16 When Jeremiah came into the house of the cistern[p] and into the vaulted rooms, then Jeremiah continued dwelling there many days.

17 And King Zed·e·ki'ah proceeded to send and take him, and the king began asking him questions in his house in a place of concealment.[q] And he went on to say: "Does there exist a word from Jehovah?" To this Jeremiah said: "There does exist!" And he said further: "Into the hand of the king of Babylon you will be given!"[a]

18 Then Jeremiah said to King Zed·e·ki'ah: "In what way have I sinned against you and against your servants and against this people,[b] so that YOU men have put me into the house of detention? 19 Where, now, are YOUR prophets who prophesied to YOU, saying, 'The king of Babylon will not come against YOU men and against this land'?[c] 20 And now listen, please, O my lord the king. May my request for favor,[d] please, fall before you, and do not send me back to the house of Je·hon'a·than[e] the secretary, that I may not die there."[f] 21 Accordingly King Zed·e·ki'ah commanded, and they then put Jeremiah in custody in the Courtyard of the Guard;[g] and there was a giving of a round loaf of bread to him daily from the street of the bakers,[h] until all the bread was exhausted from the city.[i] And Jeremiah continued dwelling in the Courtyard of the Guard.[j]

38 And Sheph·a·ti'ah the son of Mat'tan and Ged·a·li'ah the son of Pash'hur and Ju'cal[k] the son of Shel·e·mi'ah and Pash'hur the son of Mal·chi'jah[l] got to hear the words that Jeremiah was speaking to all the people,[m] saying: 2 "This is what Jehovah has said, 'The one continuing to dwell in this city is the one that will die by the sword,[n] by the famine[o] and by the pestilence.[p] But the one going out to the Chal·de'ans is the one that will keep living and that will certainly come to have his soul as a spoil and alive.'[q] 3 This is what Jehovah has said, 'Without fail this city will be given into the hand of the military force of the king of Babylon, and he will certainly capture it.'"[a]

4 And the princes began to say to the king: "Let this man, please, be put to death,[b] for that is how he is weakening the hands of the men of war who are left remaining in this city and the hands of all the people, by speaking to them according to these words.[c] For this man is one seeking not for the peace of this people but for calamity." 5 So King Zed·e·ki'ah said: "Look! He is in YOUR hands. For there is nothing at all in which the king himself can prevail against YOU."[d]

6 And they proceeded to take Jeremiah and throw him into the cistern of Mal·chi'jah[e] the son of the king, which was in the Courtyard of the Guard.[f] So they let Jeremiah down by means of ropes. Now in the cistern there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah began to sink down into the mire.[g]

7 And E'bed-mel'ech the E·thi·o'pi·an,[h] a man who was a eunuch and who was in the house of the king, got to hear that they had put Jeremiah into the cistern; and the king was sitting in the Gate of Benjamin.[i] 8 So E'bed-mel'ech went out of the house of the king and spoke to the king, saying: 9 "O my lord the king, these men have done bad in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have thrown into the cistern, so that he will die[j] where he is because of the famine.[k] For there is no bread anymore in the city."

14 And King Zed·e·ki'ah proceeded to send and take Jeremiah the prophet to him[d] to the third entryway,[e] which is in the house of Jehovah,[f] and then the king said to Jeremiah: "I am asking something of you. Do not hide from me anything."[g] 15 At this Jeremiah said to Zed·e·ki'ah: "In case I should tell you, will you not without fail put me to death? And in case I advise you, you will not listen to me."[h] 16 At that King Zed·e·ki'ah swore to Jeremiah in the place of concealment, saying: "As Jehovah is alive, who has made for us this soul,[i] I will not put you to death, and I will not give you into the hand of these men who are seeking for your soul."[j]

17 Jeremiah now said to Zed·e·ki'ah: "This is what Jehovah, the God of armies,[k] the God of Israel,[l] has said, 'If you will without fail go out to the princes of the king of Babylon, your soul will also certainly keep living and this city itself will not be burned with fire, and you yourself and your household will certainly keep living.[m] 18 But if you will not go out to the princes of the king of Babylon, this city must also be given into the hand of the Chal·de'ans, and they will actually burn it with fire,[n] and you yourself will not escape out of their hand.'"[o]

19 Then King Zed·e·ki′ah said to Jeremiah: “I am in fright of the Jews that have fallen away to the Chal·de′ans,[a] for fear that they might give me into their hand and they might actually deal abusively with me.”[b] 20 But Jeremiah said: “They will do no such giving. Obey, please, the voice of Jehovah in what I am speaking to you, and it will go well with you,[c] and your soul will continue to live. 21 But if you are refusing to go out,[d] this is the thing that Jehovah has caused me to see: 22 And, look! all the women that have been left remaining in the house of the king of Judah[e] are being brought out to the princes of the king of Babylon,[f] and they are saying,

‘The men at peace with you have allured you[g] and prevailed over you.[h]
They have caused your foot to sink down into the very ooze; they have retreated in the opposite direction.’[i]

23 And all your wives and your sons they are bringing out to the Chal·de′ans, and you yourself will not escape out of their hand,[j] but by the hand of the king of Babylon you will be seized, and because of you this city will be burned with fire.”[k]

24 And Zed·e·ki′ah proceeded to say to Jeremiah: “May no man at all get to know about these things, so that you do not die. 25 And in case the princes[l] hear that I have spoken with you and they actually come in to you and say to you, ‘Do tell us, please, What did you speak about to the king? Do not hide anything from us, and we shall not put you to death. And what did the king speak about to you?’ 26 you must also say to them, ‘I was letting my request for favor fall before the king, that he should not send me back to the house of Je·hon′a·than[a] to die there.’”

27 In time all the princes came in to Jeremiah and began questioning him. In turn, he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded.[b] So they became silent before him, for the matter was not heard. 28 And Jeremiah continued to dwell in the Courtyard of the Guard[c] until the day that Jerusalem was captured.[d] And it occurred just when Jerusalem was captured.[e]

39 In the ninth year of Zed·e·ki′ah the king of Judah, in the tenth month,[f] Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon and all his military force came to Jerusalem and began to lay siege to it.[g]

2 In the eleventh year of Zed·e·ki′ah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the city was broken through.[h] 3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon proceeded to come in and sit down in the Middle Gate,[i] [namely,] Ner′gal-shar·e′zer, Sam′gar-ne′bo, Sar′se·chim, Rab′sa·ris, Ner′gal-shar·e′zer the Rab′mag and all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 Now it came about that as soon as Zed·e·ki′ah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, they began to run away[j] and to go out by night from the city by the way of the garden of the king,[k] by the gate between the double wall; and they kept going out by the way of the Ar′a·bah.[l] 5 And a military force of the Chal·de′ans went chasing after them,[m] and they got to overtake Zed·e·ki′ah in the desert plains of Jer′i·cho.[n] Then they took him and brought him up to Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon at Rib′lah[o] in the land of Ha′math[p] that he might pronounce upon him judicial decisions.[q] 6 And the king of Babylon proceeded to slaughter[r] the sons of Zed·e·ki′ah in

Rib′lah before his eyes,[a] and all the nobles of Judah the king of Babylon slaughtered.[b] 7 And the eyes of Zed·e·ki′ah he blinded,[c] after which he bound him with copper fetters, in order to bring him to Babylon.

8 And the house of the king and the houses of the people the Chal·de′ans burned with fire,[d] and the walls of Jerusalem they pulled down.[e] 9 And the rest of the people who were left remaining in the city, and the deserters that had fallen away to him, and the rest of the people who were left remaining Neb·u·zar·ad′an[f] the chief of the bodyguard[g] took into exile to Babylon.[h]

10 And some of the people, the lowly ones who had nothing at all, Neb·u·zar·ad′an the chief of the bodyguard let remain in the land of Judah;[i] and he went on to give them vineyards and compulsory services on that day.[j]

11 Furthermore, Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon gave command concerning Jeremiah by means of Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the bodyguard, saying: 12 “Take him and keep your own eyes set upon him, and do not do to him anything bad at all.[k] But just as he may speak to you, so do with him.”[l]

13 Accordingly Neb·u′zar·ad′an[m] the chief of the bodyguard and Neb·u·shaz′ban the Rab′sa·ris, and Ner′gal-shar·e′zer the Rab′mag and all the principal men of the king of Babylon sent; 14 they even proceeded to send and take Jeremiah out of the Courtyard of the Guard[n] and give him over to Ged·a·li′ah[o] the son of A·hi′kam[p] the son of Sha′phan,[q] in order to bring him forth to [his] house, that he might dwell in the midst of the people.

15 And to Jeremiah the word of Jehovah occurred while he happened to be shut up in the Courtyard of the Guard,[a] saying: 16 “Go, and you must say to E′bed-mel′ech[b] the E·thi·o′pi·an, ‘This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “Here I am bringing true my words upon this city for calamity and not for good,[c] and they will certainly happen before you in that day.”’[d]

17 “‘And I will deliver you in that day,’[e] is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and you will not be given into the hand of the men of whom you yourself are scared.’[f]

18 “‘For I shall without fail furnish you an escape, and by the sword you will not fall; and you will certainly come to have your soul as a spoil,[g] because you have trusted in me,’[h] is the utterance of Jehovah.”

40 The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah after Neb·u′zar·ad′an[i] the chief of the bodyguard sent him from Ra′mah,[j] when he took him while he was bound with handcuffs in the midst of all the exiles of Jerusalem and of Judah, who were being taken into exile in Babylon.[k] 2 Then the chief of the bodyguard took Jeremiah and said to him: “Jehovah your God himself spoke this calamity against this place,[l] 3 that Jehovah might bring [it] true and do just as he has spoken, because you people have sinned against Jehovah and have not obeyed his voice. And this thing has happened to you.[m] 4 And now, look! I have let you loose today from the handcuffs that were upon your hands. If it is good in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, come, and I shall keep my eye upon you.[n] But if it is bad in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, refrain. See! The entire land is before you. To wherever it is good and right in your eyes to go, go there.”[o]

that would return, when [Neb·u'zar·ad'an said]: "Do return to Ged·a·li'ah[a] the son of A·hi'kam[b] the son of Sha'phan,[c] whom the king of Babylon has commissioned over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him in the midst of the people; or to wherever it is right in your eyes to go, go."[d]

And the chief of the bodyguard then gave him a food allowance and a present and let him go.[e] 6 Accordingly Jeremiah came to Ged·a·li'ah[f] the son of A·hi'kam at Miz'pah[g] and took up dwelling with him in the midst of the people who were left remaining in the land.

7 In time all the chiefs of the military forces who were in the field,[h] they and their men, got to hear that the king of Babylon had commissioned Ged·a·li'ah the son of A·hi'kam over the land and that he had commissioned him [over] the men and women and little children and some of the lowly people of the land, who had not been taken into exile in Babylon.[i] 8 So they came to Ged·a·li'ah at Miz'pah, even Ish'ma·el[j] the son of Neth·a·ni'ah and Jo·ha'nan[k] and Jon'a·than, the sons of Ka·re'ah, and Se·rai'ah the son of Tan·hu'meth and the sons of E'phai the Ne·toph'a·thite[l] and Jez·a·ni'ah[m] the son of the Ma·ac'a·thite,[n] they and their men.[o] 9 And Ged·a·li'ah[p] the son of A·hi'kam[q] the son of Sha'phan[r] proceeded to swear[s] to them and to their men, saying: "Do not be afraid of serving the Chal·de'ans. Continue dwelling in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with YOU.[t] 10 And as for me, here I am dwelling in Miz'pah,[u] in order to stand before the Chal·de'ans who will come to us. And as for YOU yourselves, gather wine[v] and summer fruits and oil and put [them] in YOUR vessels and dwell in YOUR cities that YOU have seized."

11 And all the Jews that were in Mo'ab and among the sons of Am'mon and in E'dom and those who were in all the [other] lands,[a] they also heard that the king of Babylon had given a remnant to Judah and that he had commissioned over them Ged·a·li'ah[b] the son of A·hi'kam the son of Sha'phan. 12 And all the Jews began to return from all the places to which they had been dispersed, and they kept coming into the land of Judah to Ged·a·li'ah at Miz'pah.[c] And they went gathering wine and summer fruits in very great quantity.

13 As for Jo·ha'nan[d] the son of Ka·re'ah[e] and all the chiefs of the military forces who were in the field,[f] they came to Ged·a·li'ah at Miz'pah. 14 And they proceeded to say to him: "Do you not at all know that Ba'a·lis, the king of the sons of Am'mon,[g] himself has sent Ish'ma·el[h] the son of Neth·a·ni'ah[i] to strike you to the soul?" But Ged·a·li'ah the son of A·hi'kam did not believe them.[j]

15 And Jo·ha'nan[k] the son of Ka·re'ah himself said to Ged·a·li'ah, in a place of concealment in Miz'pah: "I want to go, now, and strike down Ish'ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni'ah, as no one at all will know.[l] Why should he strike you to the soul, and why must all those of Judah who are being collected together to you be scattered and the remnant of Judah perish?"[m] 16 But Ged·a·li'ah[n] the son of A·hi'kam[o] said to Jo·ha'nan the son of Ka·re'ah: "Do not do this thing, for it is a falsehood that you are speaking concerning Ish'ma·el."[p]

41 So it came about in the seventh month that Ish'ma·el[q] the son of Neth·a·ni'ah the son of E·lish'a·ma[r] of the royal offspring[s] and [of the] principal men of the king and ten other men with him[t] came to Ged·a·li'ah the son of A·hi'kam at Miz'pah.[u] And there they began to eat bread together in Miz'pah.[a] 2 Then Ish'ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni'ah and the ten men that happened to be with him rose up and struck down Ged·a·li'ah the son of A·hi'kam the son of Sha'phan with the sword.[b] So he put to death the one whom the king of Babylon had commissioned over the land.[c] 3 And all the Jews who happened to be with him, that is, with Ged·a·li'ah, in Miz'pah, and the Chal·de'ans who were found there, that is, the men of war, Ish'ma·el struck down.

4 And it came about on the second day of the putting of Ged·a·li'ah to death, when there was no one at all that knew [it],[d] 5 then there came men from She'chem,[e] from Shi'loh[f] and from Sa·mar'i·a,[g] eighty men with their beards shaved off[h] and with their garments ripped apart and with cuts made upon themselves,[i] and there were grain offering and frankincense[j] in their hand to bring to the house of Jehovah. 6 So Ish'ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni'ah went out from Miz'pah to meet them, weeping while he was walking along.[k] And it came about that as soon as he encountered them he proceeded to say to them: "Come to Ged·a·li'ah the son of A·hi'kam." 7 But it occurred that as soon as they came into the midst of the city, Ish'ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni'ah went slaughtering them [and throwing them] into the midst of the cistern, he and the men that were with him.[l]

8 But there were ten men that were found among them who immediately said to Ish'ma·el: "Do not put us to death, for there exist in our possession hidden treasures in the field, wheat and barley and oil and honey."[m] So he refrained, and he did not put them to death in the midst of their brothers. 9 Now the cistern into which Ish'ma·el[n] threw all the carcasses of the men that he had struck down was a great cistern, the one that King A'sa had made because of Ba'a·sha the king of Israel.[a] It was the one that Ish'ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni'ah filled with those slain.

10 Then Ish'ma·el took captive all the remnant of the people who were in Miz'pah,[b] the daughters of the king[c] and all the people who were remaining over in Miz'pah,[d] whom Neb·u'zar·ad'an the chief of the bodyguard had put in the custody of Ged·a·li'ah the son of A·hi'kam.[e] So Ish'ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni'ah took them captive and went off to cross over to the sons of Am'mon.[f]

11 In time Jo·ha'nan[g] the son of Ka·re'ah and all the chiefs of the military forces[h] who were with him got to hear all the bad that Ish'ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni'ah had done. 12 Consequently they took all the men and went off to fight against Ish'ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni'ah and found him by the abundant waters that were in Gib'e·on.[i]

13 Then it came about that as soon as all the people that were with Ish'ma·el saw Jo·ha'nan the son of Ka·re'ah and all the chiefs of the military forces who were with him, they began to rejoice. 14 And all the people whom Ish'ma·el had led captive from Miz'pah[j] proceeded to turn around and return and go to Jo·ha'nan the son of Ka·re'ah. 15 And as for Ish'ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni'ah, he escaped[k] with eight men from before Jo·ha'nan, that he might go to the sons of Am'mon.

16 Jo·ha'nan[l] the son of Ka·re'ah and all the chiefs of the military forces who were with him now took all the remnant of the people whom they brought back from Ish'ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni'ah, from Miz'pah, after he had struck down Ged·a·li'ah[m] the son of A·hi'kam, able-bodied men, men of war, and the wives and the little children and the court officials, whom he brought back from Gib'e·on. 17 So they went and took up dwelling in the lodging place of Chim'ham that was beside Beth'le·hem,[a] in order to go on and enter into Egypt,[b] 18 because of the Chal·de'ans;[c] for they had become afraid because of them,[d] since Ish'ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni'ah had struck down Ged·a·li'ah the son of A·hi'kam,[e] whom the king of Babylon had commissioned over the land.[f]

42 Then all the chiefs of the military forces and Jo·ha'nan[g] the son of Ka·re'ah and Jez·a·ni'ah[h] the son of Ho·shai'ah[i] and all the people, from the smallest one even to the greatest one, approached 2 and said to Jeremiah the prophet: "May our request for favor, please, fall before you, and do you pray in our behalf to Jehovah your God,[j] in behalf of all this remnant, for we have been left remaining, a few out of many,[k] just as your eyes are seeing us. 3 And may Jehovah your God tell us the way in which we should walk and the thing that we should do."[l]

4 At that Jeremiah the prophet said to them: "I have heard. Here I am praying to Jehovah YOUR God according to YOUR words;[m] and it will certainly occur that every word that Jehovah gives in answer to YOU I shall tell YOU.[n] I shall not hold back from YOU a word."[o]

5 And they, for their part, said to Jeremiah: "May Jehovah prove to be a true and faithful witness against us[p] if it is not according to every word with which Jehovah your God sends you to us that we shall exactly do.[q] 6 Whether good or bad, it is the voice of Jehovah our God to whom we are sending you that we shall obey, to the intent that it may go well with us because we obey the voice of Jehovah our God."[r]

7 Now it came about at the end of ten days that the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to Jeremiah.[a] 8 So he called for Jo·ha'nan the son of Ka·re'ah and for all the chiefs of the military forces who were with him and for all the people, from the smallest one even to the greatest one;[b] 9 and he went on to say to them: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel, to whom YOU sent me to cause YOUR request for favor to fall before him,[c] has said, 10 'If YOU will without fail keep dwelling in this land,[d] I will also build YOU up and I shall not tear [YOU] down, and I will plant YOU and I shall not uproot [YOU];[e] for I shall certainly feel regret over the calamity that I have caused to YOU.[f] 11 Do not be afraid because of the king of Babylon, of whom YOU are in fear.'[g]

"'Do not be afraid because of him,'[h] is the utterance of Jehovah, 'for I am with YOU, in order to save YOU and to deliver YOU out of his hand.[i] 12 And I shall give to YOU mercies, and he will certainly have mercy upon YOU and return YOU to YOUR own soil.[j]

13 "'But if YOU are saying: "No; we are not going to dwell in this land!" in order to disobey the voice of Jehovah YOUR God,[k] 14 saying: "No, but into the land of Egypt we shall enter,[l] where we shall see no war and the sound of the horn we shall not hear and for bread we shall not go hungry; and there is where we shall dwell";[m] 15 even now therefore hear the word of Jehovah, O remnant of Judah. This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: "If YOU yourselves positively set YOUR faces to enter into Egypt and YOU actually enter in to reside there as aliens,[n] 16 it must also occur that the very sword of which YOU are afraid will there catch up with YOU in the land of Egypt,[o] and the very famine at which YOU are in a fright will there closely follow after YOU to Egypt;[a] and there is where YOU will die.[b] 17 And it will come about that all the men that have set their faces to enter into Egypt to reside there as aliens will be the ones to die by the sword, by the famine and by the pestilence;[c] and they will not come to have a survivor or an escapee, because of the calamity that I am bringing in upon them."'[d]

18 "For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'Just as my anger and my rage have been poured out upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem,[e] so my rage will be poured out upon YOU because of YOUR entering into Egypt, and YOU will certainly become a curse and an object of astonishment and a malediction and a reproach,[f] and YOU will no more see this place.'[g]

19 "Jehovah has spoken against YOU, O remnant of Judah. Do not enter into Egypt.[h] YOU should positively know that I have borne witness against YOU today,[i] 20 that YOU have committed error against YOUR souls;[j] for YOU yourselves have sent me to Jehovah YOUR God, saying, 'Pray in our behalf to Jehovah our God; and according to everything that Jehovah our God says tell us that way, and we shall certainly do.'[k] 21 And I tell YOU today, but YOU will certainly not obey the voice of Jehovah YOUR God or anything with which he has sent me to YOU.[l] 22 And now YOU should positively know that by the sword,[m] by the famine and by the pestilence YOU will die in the place into which YOU do delight to enter to reside as aliens."[n]

43 Now it came about that as soon as Jeremiah finished speaking to all the people all the words of Jehovah their God with which Jehovah their God had sent him to them, even all these words,[a] 2 Az·a·ri'ah the son of Ho·shai'ah[b] and Jo·ha'nan[c] the son of Ka·re'ah and all the presumptuous men[d] proceeded to say to Jeremiah: "It is a falsehood that you are speaking.[e] Jehovah our God has not sent you, saying, 'Do not enter into Egypt to reside there as aliens.'[f] 3 But Bar'uch[g] the son of Ne·ri'ah is instigating you against us for the purpose of giving us into the hand of the Chal·de'ans, to put us to death or to take us into exile in Babylon."[h]

4 And Jo·ha'nan the son of Ka·re'ah and all the chiefs of the military forces and all the people did not obey the voice of Jehovah,[i] to keep on dwelling in the land of Judah.[j] 5 So Jo·ha'nan the son of Ka·re'ah and all the chiefs of the military forces took all the remnant of Judah that had returned from all the nations to which they had been dispersed, in order to reside for a while in the land of Judah,[k] 6 even the able-bodied men and the wives and the little children and the daughters of the king[l] and every soul that Neb·u·zar·ad'an[m] the chief of the bodyguard had let stay with Ged·a·li'ah[n] the son of A·hi'kam[o] the son of Sha'phan,[p] and Jeremiah the prophet and Bar'uch[q] the son of Ne·ri'ah. 7 And they finally came into the land of Egypt,[r] for they did not obey the voice of Jehovah; and they came gradually as far as Tah'pan·hes.[s]

8 Then the word of Jehovah occurred to Jeremiah in Tah'pan·hes, saying: 9 "Take in your hand great stones, and you must hide them in the mortar in the terrace of bricks that is at the entrance of the house of Phar'aoh in Tah'pan·hes before the eyes of the Jewish men.[t] 10 And you must say to them, 'This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: "Here I am sending and I will take Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon,[a] my servant,[b] and I will place his throne right above these stones that I have hidden, and he will certainly extend his state tent over them. 11 And he must come in and strike the land of Egypt.[c] Whoever is [due] for deadly plague will be for deadly plague, and whoever is [due] for captivity will be for captivity, and whoever is [due] for the sword will be for the sword.[d] 12 And I will set a fire ablaze in the houses of the gods of Egypt;[e] and he will certainly burn them and lead them captive and wrap himself up in the land of Egypt, just as a shepherd wraps himself up in his garment,[f] and he will actually go out from there in peace. 13 And he will certainly break to pieces the pillars of Beth-she′mesh, which is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt he will burn with fire."'"

44 The word that occurred to Jeremiah for all the Jews that were dwelling in the land of Egypt,[g] the ones dwelling in Mig′dol[h] and in Tah′pan·hes[i] and in Noph[j] and in the land of Path′ros,[k] saying: 2 "This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'You yourselves have seen all the calamity that I have brought in upon Jerusalem[l] and upon all the cities of Judah, and here they are a devastated place this day, and in them there is no inhabitant.[m] 3 It is because of their badness that they did in order to offend me by going and making sacrificial smoke[n] and rendering service to other gods whom they themselves had not known, neither YOU nor YOUR forefathers.[o] 4 And I kept sending to YOU all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending,[p] saying: "Do not do, please, this detestable sort of thing that I have hated."[a] 5 But they did not listen,[b] nor did they incline their ear to turn back from their badness by not making sacrificial smoke to other gods.[c] 6 So my rage, and my anger, was poured out and it burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem;[d] and they came to be a devastated place, a desolate waste, as at this day.'[e]

7 "And now this is what Jehovah, the God of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'Why are YOU causing a great calamity to YOUR souls,[f] in order to cut off from yourselves man and woman, child and suckling,[g] out of the midst of Judah, so that YOU do not leave over for yourselves a remnant; 8 by offending me with the works of YOUR hands by making sacrificial smoke to other gods[h] in the land of Egypt, into which YOU are entering to reside as aliens; for the purpose of causing a cutting off of yourselves and for the purpose of YOUR becoming a malediction and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?[i] 9 Have YOU forgotten the bad deeds of YOUR forefathers[j] and the bad deeds of the kings of Judah[k] and the bad deeds of their wives[l] and YOUR own bad deeds and the bad deeds of YOUR wives,[m] that they have done in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 10 And down to this day they did not feel crushed,[n] and they did not become afraid,[o] nor did they walk in my law[p] and in my statutes that I put before YOU and before YOUR forefathers.'[q]

11 "Therefore this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'Here I am setting my face against YOU for calamity and for cutting off all Judah.[r] 12 And I will take the remnant of Judah who set their faces to enter into the land of Egypt to reside there as aliens,[a] and they will all certainly come to their finish in the land of Egypt.[b] They will fall by the sword; [and] by the famine[c] they will come to their finish, from the smallest one even to the greatest one; by the sword and by the famine they will die. And they must become a curse, an object of astonishment and a malediction and a reproach.[d] 13 And I will hold an accounting against those dwelling in the land of Egypt, just as I held an accounting against Jerusalem, with the sword, with the famine and with the pestilence.[e] 14 And there will come to be no escapee or survivor for the remnant of Judah who are entering in to reside there as aliens, in the land of Egypt,[f] even to return to the land of Judah to which they are lifting up their soul[ful desire] to return in order to dwell;[g] for they will not return, except some escaped ones.'"

15 And all the men who were knowing that their wives had been making sacrificial smoke to other gods,[h] and all the wives who were standing as a great congregation, and all the people who were dwelling in the land of Egypt,[i] in Path′ros,[j] proceeded to answer Jeremiah, saying: 16 "As regards the word that you have spoken to us in the name of Jehovah, we are not listening to you;[k] 17 but we shall positively do every word that has gone forth from our mouth,[l] in order to make sacrificial smoke to the 'queen of the heavens'[m] and to pour out to her drink offerings,[n] just as we ourselves[o] and our forefathers,[p] our kings[q] and our princes did in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, when we used to be satisfied with bread and to be well off, and we did not see any calamity at all.[a] 18 And from the time that we ceased to make sacrificial smoke to the 'queen of the heavens'[b] and pour out drink offerings to her we have lacked everything, and by the sword and by the famine we have come to our finish.[c]

19 "Also, when we were making sacrificial smoke to the 'queen of the heavens'[d] and [were disposed] to pour out drink offerings to her,[e] did we without asking our husbands make for her sacrificial cakes, in order to make an image of her, and to pour out drink offerings to her?"[f]

20 In turn Jeremiah said to all the people, to the able-bodied men and to the wives and to all the people, who were answering him with a word, saying: 21 "As for the sacrificial smoke that YOU made in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem,[g] YOU[h] and YOUR forefathers,[i] YOUR kings[j] and YOUR princes[k] and the people of the land, was it not this that Jehovah remembered and that proceeded to come up into his heart?[l] 22 Finally Jehovah was no longer able to put up with it because of the badness of YOUR dealings, because of the detestable things that YOU had done,[m] and so YOUR land came to be a devastated place and an object of astonishment and a malediction, without an inhabitant, as at this day.[n] 23 Because of the fact that YOU made sacrificial smoke[o] and that YOU sinned against Jehovah[p] and did not obey the voice of Jehovah[q] and in his law[r] and in his statutes and in his reminders YOU did not walk, that is why there has befallen YOU this calamity as at this day."[s]

is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'As for YOU men and YOUR wives,[a] YOU women also speak with YOUR mouths, (and with YOUR hands YOU people have made a fulfillment,) saying: "We shall without fail perform our vows that we have vowed,[b] to make sacrificial smoke to the 'queen of the heavens'[c] and to pour out drink offerings to her."[d] You women will without fail carry out YOUR vows, and YOU will without fail perform YOUR vows.'

26 "Therefore hear the word of Jehovah, all Judah who are dwelling in the land of Egypt,[e] '"Here I myself have sworn by my great name,"[f] Jehovah has said, "that my name will no more prove to be something called out by the mouth of any man of Judah,[g] saying, 'As the Sovereign Lord Jehovah is alive!'[h] in all the land of Egypt. 27 Here I am keeping alert toward them for calamity and not for good;[i] and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt will certainly come to their finish by the sword and by the famine, until they cease to be.[j] 28 And as for the ones escaping from the sword, they will return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah, few in number;[k] and all those of the remnant of Judah, who are coming into the land of Egypt to reside there as aliens, will certainly know whose word comes true, that from me or that from them."'"[l]

29 "'And this is the sign for YOU,'[m] is the utterance of Jehovah, 'that I am turning my attention upon YOU in this place, in order that YOU may know that my words will without fail come true upon YOU for calamity:[n] 30 This is what Jehovah has said: "Here I am giving Phar'aoh Hoph'ra, the king of Egypt,[o] into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those seeking for his soul,[p] just as I have given Zed·e·ki'ah the king of Judah into the hand of Neb·u·chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon, his enemy and the one seeking for his soul."'"[a]

The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Bar'uch[b] the son of Ne·ri'ah when he wrote in a book these words from the mouth of Jeremiah[c] in the fourth year of Je·hoi'a·kim[d] the son of Jo·si'ah, the king of Judah, saying:

2 "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said concerning you, O Bar'uch, 3 'You have said: "Woe, now, to me,[e] for Jehovah has added grief to my pain! I have grown weary because of my sighing, and no resting-place have I found."'[f]

4 "This is what you should say to him, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Look! What I have built up I am tearing down, and what I have planted I am uprooting, even all the land itself.[g] 5 But as for you, you keep seeking great things for yourself.[h] Do not keep on seeking."'[i]

"'For here I am bringing in a calamity upon all flesh,'[j] is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and I will give you your soul as a spoil in all the places to which you may go.'"[k]

This is what occurred as the word of Jehovah to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations:[l] 2 For Egypt,[m] concerning the military force of Phar'aoh Ne'cho the king of Egypt,[n] who happened to be by the river Eu·phra'tes at Car'che·mish,[o] whom Neb·u·chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Je·hoi'a·kim[p] the son of Jo·si'ah, the king of Judah: 3 "Set in array, O men, buckler and large shield, and approach to battle.[q] 4 Harness the horses, and mount, O YOU horsemen, and station yourselves with the helmet. Polish the lances. Clothe yourselves with coats of mail.[a]

5 "'Why is it that I have seen them terror-stricken? They are turning back, and their mighty men themselves are crushed to pieces; and they have positively fled, and they have not turned around.[b] There is fright all around,'[c] is the utterance of Jehovah. 6 'Let not the swift one try to flee, and let not the mighty man try to escape.[d] Up north[e] by the bank of the river Eu·phra'tes they have stumbled and fallen.'[f]

7 "Who is this one that comes up just like the Nile River, like the rivers the waters of which toss themselves?[g] 8 Egypt itself comes up just like the Nile River,[h] and like rivers the waters toss themselves.[i] And it says, 'I shall go up. I shall cover the earth. I shall readily destroy the city and those inhabiting it.'[j] 9 Go up, O YOU horses; and drive madly, O YOU chariots! And let the mighty men go forth, Cush[k] and Put,[l] who are handling the shield, and the Lu'dim,[m] who are handling [and] treading the bow.

10 "And that day belongs to the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, the day of vengeance for avenging himself upon his adversaries.[n] And the sword will certainly devour and satisfy itself and take its fill of their blood, for the Sovereign[o] Lord, Jehovah of armies, has a sacrifice[p] in the land of the north by the river Eu·phra'tes.[q]

11 "Go up to Gil'e·ad and get some balsam,[r] O virgin daughter of Egypt.[s] In vain you have multiplied the means of healing. There is no mending for you.[t] 12 The nations have heard your dishonor[u] and your own outcry has filled the land.[v] For they have stumbled, mighty man against mighty man.[w] Together they have fallen down, both of them."

13 The word that Jehovah spoke to Jeremiah the prophet as regards the coming of Neb·u·chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon to strike down the land of Egypt:[a] 14 "Tell [it] in Egypt, O men, and publish [it] in Mig'dol,[b] and publish [it] in Noph[c] and in Tah'pan·hes.[d] Say, 'Station yourself, making preparation also for yourself,[e] for a sword will certainly devour all around you.[f] 15 Why is it that your powerful ones have been washed away?[g] They have made no stand, for Jehovah himself has pushed them away.[h] 16 In great numbers they are stumbling. They also actually fall. And they keep saying one to the other: "Do rise up, and do let us return to our people and to the land of our relatives because of the maltreating sword."' 17 There they have proclaimed, 'Phar'aoh the king of Egypt is a mere noise.[i] He has let the festal time pass by.'[j]

18 "'As I am alive,' is the utterance of the King, whose name is Jehovah of armies,[k] 'like Ta'bor[l] among the mountains and like Car'mel[m] by the sea he will come in. 19 Make for yourself mere baggage for exile,[n] O inhabitress, the daughter[o] of Egypt. For Noph[p] itself will become a mere object of astonishment and will actually be set afire, so as to be without an inhabitant.[q] 20 Egypt is as a very pretty heifer. From the north a mosquito itself will certainly come against her.[r] 21 Furthermore, her hired [soldiers] in the midst of her are like fattened calves.[s] But they themselves also have given way;[t] they have fled together. They have not made a stand.[u] For the very day of their disaster has come in upon them, the time of their being given attention.'[v]

47 This is what proved to be the word of Jehovah to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Phi·lis'tines[a] before Phar'aoh proceeded to strike down Ga'za.[b] 2 This is what Jehovah has said:

"Look! Waters are coming[c] up from the north[d] and have become a flooding torrent. And they will flood the land and what fills it, the city and those inhabiting it.[e] And the men will certainly cry out, and everyone dwelling in the land must howl.[f] 3 At the sound of the stamping of the hoofs of his stallions,[g] at the rattling of his war chariots,[h] the turmoil of his wheels,[i] the fathers will actually not turn around to the sons, because of the dropping down of [their] hands, 4 on account of the day that is coming to despoil all the Phi·lis'tines,[j] to cut off from Tyre[k] and from Si'don[l] every survivor that was helping.[m] For Jehovah is despoiling the Phi·lis'tines,[n] who are the remaining ones from the island of Caph'tor.[o] 5 Baldness[p] must come to Ga'za.[q] Ash'ke·lon[r] has been put to silence. O remnant of their low plain, how long will you keep making cuts upon yourself?[s]

6 "Aha, the sword of Jehovah![t] How long will you not stay quiet? Be shoved into your sheath.[u] Take your repose and keep silent.

7 "How can it stay quiet, when Jehovah himself has given a command to it? It is for Ash'ke·lon and for the coast of the sea.[v] There is where he has designated it to be."

48 For Mo'ab[w] this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said:[x] "Woe to Ne'bo,[y] for she has been despoiled! Kir·i·a·tha'im[a] has been put to shame, has been captured. The secure height has been put to shame and been put in terror.[b] 2 No more is there any praise of Mo'ab.[c] In Hesh'bon[d] they have thought out against her a calamity: 'Come, men, and let us cut her off from being a nation.'[e]

"You, too, O Mad'men, should keep silent. After you there walks a sword. 3 There is the sound of an outcry from Hor·o·na'im,[f] a despoiling and great breaking down. 4 Mo'ab has been broken down.[g] Her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. 5 For on the way up to Lu'hith[h] it is with weeping that one goes up—there is a weeping. For on the way down from Hor·o·na'im there is a distressing outcry over the breakdown[i] that people have heard.

6 "Take to flight; provide escape for YOUR souls,[j] and YOU should become like a juniper tree in the wilderness.[k] 7 Because your trust is in your works and in your treasures, you yourself will also be captured.[l] And Che'mosh[m] will certainly go forth into exile,[n] his priests and his princes at the same time.[o] 8 And the despoiler will come in on every city,[p] and there will be no city that can make its escape.[q] And the low plain will certainly perish and the level land be annihilated, a thing that Jehovah has said.

9 "Give a road mark to Mo'ab, YOU people, for at the falling in ruins she will go forth;[r] and her very cities will become a mere object of astonishment, with no one dwelling in them.[s]

30 "'I myself have known his fury,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and that is not the way it will be; his empty talk[v]—they will not actually do in just that way.[w] 31 That is why it is over Mo'ab that I shall howl, and for Mo'ab in his entirety I shall cry out.[x] For the men of Kir-he'res[y] one shall moan.

32 "'With more than the weeping for Ja'zer[z] I shall weep for you, O vine of Sib'mah.[a] Your own flourishing shoots have crossed over the sea. To the sea—[to] Ja'zer[b]—they have reached. Upon your summer fruitage[c] and upon your grape gathering the despoiler himself has fallen.[d] 33 And rejoicing and joyfulness have been taken away from the orchard and from the land of Mo'ab.[e] And from the winepresses I have caused the wine itself to cease.[f] No one will be doing the treading with shouting. The shouting will be no shouting.'"[g]

34 "'From the cry in Hesh'bon[h] clear to E·le·a'leh,[i] clear to Ja'haz[j] they have given forth their voice,[k] from Zo'ar[l] clear to Hor·o·na'im,[m] to Eg'lath-she·li'shi·yah;[n] for even the waters of Nim'rim[o] themselves will become mere desolations. 35 And I will cause to cease from Mo'ab,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'the one bringing up an offering upon the high place and the one making sacrificial smoke to his god.[p] 36 That is why my own heart will be boisterous for Mo'ab himself, just like flutes;[q] and for the men of Kir-he'res[r] my very heart will be boisterous, just like flutes. That is why the very abundance that he has produced will certainly perish.[s] 37 For upon every head there is baldness,[t] and every beard is clipped.[u] Upon all hands there are cuts,[v] and upon the hips there is sackcloth!'"[w]

38 "'On all the roofs of Mo'ab and in her public squares—all of it—there is wailing;[x] for I have broken Mo'ab just like a vessel in which there is no delight,'[y] is the utterance of Jehovah. 39 'O how she has become terrified! Howl, YOU people! O how Mo'ab has turned the back! He has become ashamed.[a] And Mo'ab has become an object of ridicule and something terrifying to all those round about him.'"

40 "For this is what Jehovah has said, 'Look! Just like an eagle that pounces,[b] someone must also spread his wings over Mo'ab.[c] 41 The towns will actually be captured, and her own strong places will certainly be seized. And the heart of the mighty men of Mo'ab must become in that day like the heart of a wife having childbirth distress.'"[d]

42 "'And Mo'ab will certainly be annihilated from being a people,[e] for it is against Jehovah that he has put on great airs.[f] 43 Dread and the hollow and the trap are upon you, O inhabitant of Mo'ab,'[g] is the utterance of Jehovah. 44 'Anyone fleeing because of the dread will fall into the hollow; and anyone coming up out of the hollow will be caught in the trap.'[h]

"'For I shall bring upon her, upon Mo'ab, the year of their being given attention,'[i] is the utterance of Jehovah. 45 'In the shadow of Hesh'bon those fleeing have stood still without power. For a very fire will certainly go forth out of Hesh'bon,[j] and a flame from the midst of Si'hon;[k] and it will devour the temples of Mo'ab and the crown of the head of the sons of uproar.'[l]

46 "'Woe to you, O Mo'ab![m] The people of Che'mosh[n] have perished. For your sons have been taken as captives and your daughters as captives. 47 And I will gather the captive ones of Mo'ab in the final part of the days,'[o] is the utterance of Jehovah. 'Down to this point is the judgment upon Mo'ab.'"[p]

49 For the sons of Am'mon[q] this is what Jehovah has said: "Are there no sons that Israel has, or is there no inheritor that he has? Why is it that Mal'cam[a] has taken possession of Gad,[b] and his own people have taken up dwelling in [Israel's] very cities?"[c]

2 "'Therefore, look! there are days coming,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and I will cause the alarm signal of war[d] to be heard even against Rab'bah[e] of the sons of Am'mon; and she will certainly become a mound of a desolate waste,[f] and her dependent towns[g] themselves will be set aflame in the very fire.'[h]

"'And Israel will actually take possession of those in possession of him,'[i] Jehovah has said.

3 "'Howl,[j] O Hesh'bon,[k] for A'i has been despoiled! Cry out, O dependent towns of Rab'bah. Gird sackcloth on yourselves.[l] Wail, and rove about among the stone pens, for Mal'cam himself will go even into exile,[m] his priests and his princes, all together.[n] 4 Why do you brag about the low plains, your flowing low plain,[o] O daughter unfaithful, you the one trusting in her treasures,[p] [saying:] "Who will come to me?"'"[q]

5 "'Here I am bringing in upon you a dreadful thing,'[r] is the utterance of the Sovereign[s] Lord, Jehovah of armies, 'from all those round about you. And YOU people will certainly be dispersed, each one in his own direction,[t] and there will be no one collecting together those running away.'"

6 "'But afterward I shall gather the captive ones of the sons of Am'mon,'[u] is the utterance of Jehovah."

7 For E'dom this is what Jehovah of armies has said: "Is there no longer any wisdom[v] in Te'man?[w] Has counsel perished from those having understanding? Has their wisdom gone to putrefying?[x] 8 Flee![y] Let yourselves give way! Go down deep in order to dwell,[a] O inhabitants of De'dan![b] For the disaster of E'sau I will bring in upon him, the time that I must turn my attention to him.[c] 9 If grape gatherers themselves actually came in to you, would they not let some gleanings remain? If thieves [came in] by night, they would certainly cause only as much ruin as they wanted.[d] 10 But as for me, I will strip E'sau bare.[e] I will uncover his places of concealment,[f] and one will not be able to hide oneself.[g] His offspring and his brothers and his neighbors will certainly be despoiled,[h] and he will not be.[i] 11 Do leave your fatherless boys.[j] I myself shall preserve [them] alive, and your own widows will trust even in me."[k]

12 For this is what Jehovah has said: "Look! Although it is not their custom to drink the cup, they will drink without fail.[l] And you yourself, will you be absolutely left unpunished? You will not be left unpunished, for you will drink without fail."[m]

13 "For by my own self I have sworn,"[n] is the utterance of Jehovah, "that nothing but an object of astonishment,[o] a reproach, a devastation and a malediction will Boz'rah[p] become; and all her own cities will become devastated places to time indefinite."[q]

14 There is a report that I have heard from Jehovah, and there is an envoy that is sent among the nations, [saying:] "Collect yourselves together, and come against her, and rise up to battle."[r]

15 "For, look! I have made you small indeed among the nations, despised among mankind.[s] 16 The shuddering you caused has deceived you, the presumptuousness of your heart,[t] O you who are residing in the retreats of the crag, holding the height of the hill. Although you build your nest high up just like an eagle,[a] down from there I shall bring you,"[b] is the utterance of Jehovah. 17 "And E'dom must become an object of astonishment.[c] Everyone passing along by her will stare in astonishment and whistle on account of all her plagues.[d] 18 Just as in the overthrow of Sod'om and Go·mor'rah and her neighbor [towns],"[e] Jehovah has said, "no man will dwell there, and no son of mankind will reside in her as an alien.[f]

19 "Look! Someone will come up just like a lion[g] from the proud [thickets] along the Jordan to the durable abiding place,[h] but in a moment I will make him run away from her.[i] And the one who is chosen I shall appoint over her. For who is like me,[j] and who will challenge me,[k] and who, now, is the shepherd that can stand before me?[l] 20 Therefore hear, O men, the counsel of Jehovah that he has formulated against E'dom,[m] and his thoughts that he has thought out against the inhabitants of Te'man:[n] Surely the little ones of the flock will be dragged about. Surely on account of them he will make their dwelling place become desolate.[o] 21 At the sound of their falling the earth has begun to rock.[p] There is an outcry![q] The sound of it has been heard even at the Red Sea.[r] 22 Look! Just like an eagle someone will ascend and pounce down,[s] and he will spread out his wings over Boz'rah;[t] and the heart of the mighty men of E'dom will actually become in that day like the heart of the wife having distress in childbirth."[u]

23 For Damascus:[v] "Ha'math[w] and Ar'pad[x] have become ashamed, for it is a bad report that they have heard. They have disintegrated.[a] In the sea there is anxious care; it is not able to keep undisturbed.[b] 24 Damascus has lost courage. She has turned to flee, and sheer panic has seized her.[c] Distress and birth pangs themselves have taken hold of her, as with a woman that is giving birth.[d] 25 How is it that the city of praise has not been abandoned, the town of exultation?[e]

26 "Therefore her young men will fall in her public squares, and all the men of war themselves will be brought to silence in that day,"[f] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies. 27 "And I will set a fire ablaze on the wall of Damascus, and it will certainly devour the dwelling towers of Ben-ha'dad."[g]

28 For Ke'dar[h] and the kingdoms of Ha'zor,[i] which Neb·u·chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon struck down,[j] this is what Jehovah has said: "Rise up, go up to Ke'dar, O men, and despoil the sons of the East.[k] 29 Their own tents[l] and their own flocks[m] will be taken, their tent cloths[n] and all their articles. And their own camels[o] will be carried off from them. And they will certainly cry out to them, 'Fright is all around!'"[p]

30 "Flee, take flight far away; go down deep in order to dwell, O inhabitants of Ha'zor,"[q] is the utterance of Jehovah. "For Neb·u·chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon[r] has formulated a counsel even against YOU and has thought out against YOU a thought."

31 "Rise up, O men, go up against the nation that is at ease,[s] dwelling in security!"[t] is the utterance of Jehovah.

"No doors and no bar does it have. Solitary they reside.[u] 32 And their camels[v] must become a plunder, and the multitude of their livestock a spoil. And I will scatter them to every wind,[w] those who have their hair clipped at the temples;[x] and from all regions near it I shall bring in their disaster," is the utterance of Jehovah. 33 "And Ha'zor[a] must become the lair of jackals,[b] a desolate waste to time indefinite. No man will dwell there, and in her no son of mankind will reside as an alien."[c]

34 This is what occurred as the word of Jehovah to Jeremiah the prophet concerning E'lam[d] in the beginning of the kingship of Zed·e·ki'ah[e] the king of Judah, saying: 35 "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'Here I am breaking the bow of E'lam,[f] the beginning of their mightiness. 36 And I will bring in upon E'lam the four winds from the four extremities of the heavens.[g] And I will scatter them to all these winds,[h] and there will prove to be no nation to which the dispersed[i] ones of E'lam will not come.'"

37 "And I will shatter the E'lam·ites before their enemies and before those seeking for their soul; and I will bring upon them a calamity, my burning anger,"[j] is the utterance of Jehovah. "And I will send after them the sword until I shall have exterminated them."[k]

38 "And I will set my throne in E'lam,[l] and I will destroy out of there the king and the princes," is the utterance of Jehovah.

39 "And it will certainly occur in the final part of the days[m] that I shall gather the captive ones of E'lam,"[n] is the utterance of Jehovah.

50 The word that Jehovah spoke concerning Babylon,[o] concerning the land of the Chal·de'ans,[p] by means of Jeremiah the prophet: 2 "Tell [it] among the nations and publish [it].[q] And lift up a signal;[r] publish [it]. Hide nothing, O men. Say, 'Babylon has been captured.[s] Bel has been put to shame.[t] Mer'o·dach has become terrified. Her images have been put to shame.[a] Her dungy idols have become terrified.' 3 For against her a nation has come up from the north.[b] It is the one that makes her land an object of astonishment, so that there proves to be no one dwelling in her.[c] Both man and domestic animal have taken flight.[d] They have gone away."[e]

4 "In those days and at that time,"[f] is the utterance of Jehovah, "the sons of Israel, they and the sons of Judah together, will come.[g] They will walk, weeping as they walk,[h] and for Jehovah their God they will seek.[i] 5 To Zion they will keep asking the way, with their faces in that direction,[j] [saying,] 'Come and let us join ourselves to Jehovah in an indefinitely lasting covenant that will not be forgotten.'[k] 6 A flock of perishing creatures my people has become.[l] Their own shepherds have caused them to wander about.[m] On the mountains they have led them away.[n] From mountain to hill they have gone. They have forgotten their resting-place.[o] 7 All those finding them have eaten them up,[p] and their own adversaries have said,[q] 'We shall not become guilty,[r] due to the fact that they have sinned against Jehovah the abiding place of righteousness[s] and the hope of their forefathers,[t] Jehovah.'"

8 "Take YOUR flight out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth even out of the land of the Chal·de'ans,[u] and become like the leading animals before the flock.[v] 9 For here I am arousing and bringing up against Babylon a congregation of great nations from the land of the north,[w] and they will certainly array themselves against her.[x] From there she will be captured.[y] One's arrows are like those of a mighty man causing bereavement of children, who does not come back without results.[a] 10 And Chal·de'a must become a spoil.[b] All those making spoil of her will satisfy themselves,"[c] is the utterance of Jehovah.

11 "For YOU men kept rejoicing,[d] for YOU men kept exulting when pillaging my own inheritance.[e] For YOU kept pawing like a heifer in the tender grass,[f] and YOU kept neighing like stallions.[g] 12 The mother of YOU men has become very much ashamed.[h] She that gave YOU birth has been disappointed.[i] Look! She is the least important of the nations, a waterless wilderness and a desert plain.[j] 13 Because of the indignation of Jehovah she will not be inhabited,[k] and she must become a desolate waste in her entirety.[l] As for anyone passing along by Babylon, he will stare in astonishment and whistle on account of all her plagues.[m]

14 "Array yourselves against Babylon on every side,[n] all YOU who are treading the bow.[o] Shoot at her.[p] Spare no arrow, for it is against Jehovah that she has sinned.[q] 15 Shout a war cry against her on every side.[r] She has given her hand.[s] Her pillars have fallen. Her walls have been torn down.[t] For it is the vengeance of Jehovah.[u] Take YOUR vengeance on her. Just as she has done, do to her.[v] 16 Cut off the sower from Babylon,[w] and the one handling the sickle in the time of harvest. Because of the maltreating sword they will turn each one to his own people, and they will flee each one to his own land.[x]

chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon has gnawed on his bones.[a] 18 Therefore this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'Here I am turning my attention upon the king of Babylon and upon his land in the same way that I turned my attention upon the king of As·syr'i·a.[b] 19 And I will bring Israel back to his pasture ground,[c] and he will certainly graze on Car'mel[d] and on Ba'shan;[e] and in the mountainous region of E'phra·im[f] and of Gil'e·ad[g] his soul will be satisfied.'"

20 "And in those days and at that time,"[h] is the utterance of Jehovah, "the error of Israel will be searched for,[i] but it will not be; and the sins of Judah,[j] and they will not be found, for I shall forgive those whom I let remain."[k]

21 "Against the land of Mer·a·tha'im—come up against her[l] and against the inhabitants of Pe'kod.[m] Let there be a massacre and a devoting to destruction close upon them," is the utterance of Jehovah, "and do according to all that I have commanded you.[n] 22 There is the sound of war in the land, and a great breakdown.[o] 23 O how the forge hammer[p] of all the earth has been cut down and gets broken![q] O how Babylon has become a mere object of astonishment among the nations![r] 24 I have laid a snare for you and you have also been caught, O Babylon, and you yourself did not know [it].[s] You were found and also taken hold of, for it was against Jehovah that you excited yourself.[t]

25 "Jehovah has opened his storehouse, and he brings forth the weapons of his denunciation.[u] For there is a work that the Sovereign[v] Lord, Jehovah of armies, has in the land of the Chal·de'ans.[w] 26 Come in to her from the farthest part.[x] Open up her granaries.[y] Bank her up, just like those making heaps,[a] and devote her to destruction.[b] May she not come to have any remaining ones.[c] 27 Massacre all her young bulls.[d] May they go down to the slaughter.[e] Woe to them, for their day has come, the time for their being given attention![f]

28 "There is the sound of those fleeing and those escaping from the land of Babylon[g] to tell out in Zion the vengeance of Jehovah our God,[h] the vengeance for his temple.[i]

29 "SUMMON against Babylon archers, all who are treading the bow.[j] Encamp against her all around. May there prove to be no escapees.[k] Pay back to her according to her activity.[l] According to all that she has done, do to her.[m] For it is against Jehovah that she has acted presumptuously, against the Holy One of Israel.[n] 30 Therefore her young men will fall in her public squares,[o] and even all her men of war will be brought to silence in that day,"[p] is the utterance of Jehovah.

31 "Look! I am against you,[q] O Presumptuousness,"[r] is the utterance of the Sovereign[s] Lord, Jehovah of armies, "for your day must come, the time that I must give you attention. 32 And Presumptuousness will certainly stumble and fall,[t] and it will have no one to cause it to rise up.[u] And I will set a fire ablaze in its cities, and it must devour all its surroundings."[v]

33 This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "The sons of Israel and the sons of Judah are being oppressed together, and all those taking them captive have laid hold on them.[w] They have refused to let them go.[x] 34 Their Repurchaser is strong,[y] Jehovah of armies being his name.[z] Without fail he will conduct their legal case,[a] in order that he may actually give repose to the land[b] and cause agitation to the inhabitants of Babylon."[a]

35 "There is a sword against the Chal·de′ans,"[b] is the utterance of Jehovah, "and against the inhabitants of Babylon[c] and against her princes[d] and against her wise ones.[e] 36 There is a sword against the empty talkers,[f] and they will certainly act foolishly.[g] There is a sword against her mighty men,[h] and they will actually become terrified.[i] 37 There is a sword against their horses[j] and against their war chariots and against all the mixed company that are in the midst of her,[k] and they will certainly become women.[l] There is a sword against her treasures,[m] and they will actually be plundered. 38 There is a devastation upon her waters, and they must be dried up.[n] For it is a land of graven images,[o] and because of [their] frightful visions they keep acting crazy. 39 Therefore the haunters of waterless regions will dwell with the howling animals, and in her the ostriches must dwell;[p] and she will nevermore be dwelt in, nor will she reside for generation after generation."[q]

40 "Just as with God's overthrow of Sod′om and of Go·mor′rah[r] and of her neighbor [towns],"[s] is the utterance of Jehovah, "no man will dwell there, nor will the son of mankind reside in her as an alien.[t]

41 "Look! A people is coming in from the north; and a great nation[u] and grand kings[v] themselves will be roused up from the remotest parts of the earth.[w] 42 Bow and javelin they handle.[x] They are cruel and will show no mercy.[y] The sound of them is like the sea that is boisterous,[z] and upon horses they will ride;[a] set in array as one man for war against you, O daughter of Babylon.[b]

43 "The king of Babylon has heard the report about them,[a] and his hands have dropped down.[b] There is distress! Severe pains have seized hold of him, just like a woman giving birth.[c]

44 "Look! Someone will come up just like a lion from the proud [thickets] along the Jordan to the durable abiding place,[d] but in a moment I shall make them run away from her.[e] And the one who is chosen I shall appoint over her.[f] For who is like me,[g] and who will challenge me,[h] and who, now, is the shepherd that can stand before me?[i] 45 Therefore hear, O men, the counsel[j] of Jehovah that he has formulated against Babylon[k] and his thoughts that he has thought out against the land of the Chal·de′ans.[l] Surely the little ones of the flock will be dragged about.[m] Surely on account of them he will cause their abiding place to be desolated.[n] 46 At the sound [when] Babylon has been seized, the earth will certainly be set rocking,[o] and among the nations an outcry itself be heard."[p]

51 This is what Jehovah has said: "Here I am rousing up against Babylon[q] and against the inhabitants of Leb-ka′mai a ruinous wind;[r] 2 and I will send to Babylon winnowers who will certainly winnow her and who will make her land empty;[s] for they will actually prove to be against her on all sides in the day of calamity.[t]

3 "Let the one treading his bow do no treading.[u] And let no one raise himself up in his coat of mail.

"And do not YOU men show any compassion for her young men.[v] Devote to destruction all her army.[w] 4 And they must fall slain in the land of the Chal·de′ans[x] and pierced through in her streets.[y]

not widowed from their God, from Jehovah of armies.[a] For the land of those has been full of guilt from the standpoint of the Holy One of Israel.[b]

6 "FLEE out of the midst of Babylon,[c] and provide escape each one for his own soul.[d] Do not be rendered inanimate through her error.[e] For it is the time of vengeance belonging to Jehovah.[f] There is treatment that he is paying back to her.[g] 7 Babylon has been a golden cup in the hand of Jehovah,[h] she making all the earth drunk.[i] From her wine the nations have drunk.[j] That is why the nations keep acting crazed.[k] 8 Suddenly Babylon has fallen, so that she is broken.[l] Howl over her, YOU people.[m] Take balsam for her pain.[n] Perhaps she may be healed."

9 "We would have healed Babylon, but she has not been healed. Leave her, YOU people,[o] and let us go each one to his own land.[p] For clear to the heavens her judgment has reached, and it has been lifted up to the cloudy skies.[q] 10 Jehovah has brought forth deeds of righteousness for us.[r] Come and do let us recount in Zion the work of Jehovah our God."[s]

11 "Polish the arrows.[t] Fill the circular shields, O men. ty rulers to pieces. 24 And I will pay back to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chal·de'a all their badness that they have committed in Zion before the eyes of YOU people,"[a] is the utterance of Jehovah.

25 "Here I am against you,[b] O ruinous mountain,"[c] is the utterance of Jehovah, "you ruiner of the whole earth;[d] and I will stretch out my hand against you and roll you away from the crags and make you a burnt-out mountain."[e]

26 "And people will not take from you a stone for a corner or a stone for foundations,[f] because desolate wastes to time indefinite are what you will become,"[g] is the utterance of Jehovah.

30 "The mighty men of Babylon have ceased to fight. They have kept sitting in the strong places. Their mightiness has run dry.[p] They have become women.[q] Her residences have been set on fire. Her bars have been broken.[r]

31 "One runner runs to meet another runner, and one reporter to meet another reporter,[s] to report to the king of Babylon that his city has been captured at every end,[t] 32 and that the fords themselves have been seized,[a] and the papyrus boats they have burned with fire, and the men of war themselves have become disturbed."[b]

33 For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: "The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor.[c] It is the time to tread her down solid. Yet a little while and the time of the harvest must come for her."[d]

34 "Neb·u·chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon has eaten me up;[e] he has thrown me into confusion. He has set me as an empty vessel. He has swallowed me down like a big snake;[f] he has filled his abdomen with my pleasant things. He has rinsed me away. 35 'The violence done to me and [to] my organism be upon Babylon!' the inhabitress of Zion will say.[g] 'And my blood be upon the inhabitants of Chal·de'a!' Jerusalem will say."[h]

36 Therefore this is what Jehovah has said: "Here I am conducting your legal case,[i] and I shall certainly execute vengeance for you.[j] And I will dry up her sea, and I will make her wells dry.[k] 37 And Babylon must become piles of stones,[l] the lair of jackals,[m] an object of astonishment and something to whistle at, without an inhabitant.[n] 38 All together they will roar just like maned young lions. They will certainly growl like the whelps of lions."

39 "When they are heated I shall set their banquets and I will make them drunk, in order that they may exult;[o] and they must sleep an indefinitely lasting sleep, from which they will not wake up,"[p] is the utterance of Jehovah. 40 "I shall bring them down like male sheep to the slaughtering, like rams along with the he-goats."[q]

to be seized![a] How Babylon has become a mere object of astonishment among the nations![b] 42 The sea has come up even over Babylon. By the multitude of its waves she has been covered.[c] 43 Her cities have become an object of astonishment, a waterless land and a desert plain.[d] As a land, in them no man will dwell, and through them no son of mankind will pass.[e] 44 And I will turn my attention upon Bel[f] in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth what he has swallowed.[g] And to him nations will stream no more.[h] Also, the wall itself of Babylon must fall.[i]

45 "Get out of the midst of her, O my people,[j] and provide each one his soul with escape[k] from the burning anger of Jehovah.[l] 46 Or otherwise YOUR heart will be timid,[m] and YOU will become afraid because of the report that is to be heard in the land. And in one year the report will actually come, and after it in another year there will be the report and violence in the earth and ruler against ruler. 47 Therefore, look! there are days coming, and I will turn my attention upon the graven images of Babylon;[n] and all her own land will become ashamed, and all her own slain ones will fall in the midst of her.[o]

48 "And over Babylon the heavens and the earth and all that is in them will certainly cry out joyfully,[p] for out of the north there will come to her the despoilers,"[q] is the utterance of Jehovah. 49 "Not only was Babylon the cause for the slain ones of Israel to fall[r] but also at Babylon the slain ones of all the earth have fallen.[s]

50 "YOU escapees from the sword, keep going. Do not stand still.[t] From far away remember Jehovah,[u] and may Jerusalem herself come up into YOUR heart."[v]

51 "We have been put to shame,[a] for we have heard reproach.[b] Humiliation has covered our faces,[c] for strangers have come against the holy places of the house of Jehovah."[d]

52 "Therefore, look! there are days coming," is the utterance of Jehovah, "and I will turn my attention upon her graven images,[e] and throughout all her land the pierced one will groan."[f]

53 "Even if Babylon should ascend to the heavens[g] and even if she should make the height of her strength unapproachable,[h] from me the despoilers will come to her,"[i] is the utterance of Jehovah.

54 "Listen! There is an outcry from Babylon,[j] and a great crash from the land of the Chal·de'ans,[k] 55 for Jehovah is despoiling Babylon, and he will certainly destroy out of her the great voice,[l] and their waves will actually be boisterous like many waters.[m] The noise of their voice will certainly be given out. 56 For there must come upon her, upon Babylon, the despoiler,[n] and her mighty men will certainly be captured.[o] Their bows must be shattered,[p] for Jehovah is a God of recompenses.[q] Without fail he will repay.[r] 57 And I will make her princes and her wise ones, her governors and her deputy rulers and her mighty men drunk,[s] and they must sleep an indefinitely lasting sleep, from which they will not wake up,"[t] is the utterance of the King,[u] whose name is Jehovah of armies.[v]

58 This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "The wall of Babylon, although broad, will without fail be demolished;[w] and her gates, although high, will be set aflame with fire.[x] And the peoples will have to toil for simply nothing,[y] and national groups simply for the fire;[a] and they will just tire themselves out."

59 The word that Jeremiah the prophet commanded Se·rai'ah the son of Ne·ri'ah[b] the son of Mah·sei'ah[c] when he went with Zed·e·ki'ah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his being king; and Se·rai'ah was the quartermaster. 60 And Jeremiah proceeded to write in one book[d] all the calamity that would come upon Babylon, even all these words written against Babylon. 61 Furthermore, Jeremiah said to Se·rai'ah: "As soon as you come to Babylon and actually see [her], you must also read aloud all these words.[e] 62 And you must say, 'O Jehovah, you yourself have spoken against this place, in order to cut it off so that there may come to be in it no inhabitant,[f] either man or even domestic animal, but that she may become mere desolate wastes to time indefinite.' 63 And it must occur that when you will have completed reading this book, you will tie to it a stone, and you must pitch it into the midst of the Eu·phra'tes.[g] 64 And you must say, 'This is how Babylon will sink down and never rise up because of the calamity that I am bringing in upon her;[h] and they will certainly tire themselves out.'"[i]

Down to this point are the words of Jeremiah.

52 Zed·e·ki'ah[j] was twenty-one years old when he began to reign,[k] and for eleven years he reigned in Jerusalem.[l] And the name of his mother was Ha·mu'tal[m] the daughter of Jeremiah of Lib'nah.[n] 2 And he continued to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah,[o] according to all that Je·hoi'a·kim[p] had done. 3 For on account of the anger of Jehovah it occurred in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from before his face.[a] And Zed·e·ki'ah proceeded to rebel against the king of Babylon.[b] 4 Finally it came about in the ninth year of his being king,[c] in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Neb·u·chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon came, he and all his military force, against Jerusalem,[d] and they began to camp against her and to build against her a siege wall all around.[e] 5 So the city came under siege until the eleventh year of King Zed·e·ki'ah.[f]

6 In the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month,[g] the famine also got to be severe in the city and there proved to be no bread for the people of the land.[h] 7 Finally the city was broken through;[i] and as regards all the men of war, they began to run away[j] and go forth from the city by night by the way of the gate between the double wall that is by the king's garden,[k] while the Chal·de'ans were all around against the city; and they kept going by the way of the Ar'a·bah.[l] 8 And a military force of the Chal·de'ans went chasing after the king,[m] and they got to overtake Zed·e·ki'ah[n] in the desert plains of Jer'i·cho; and all his own military force was scattered from his side.[o] 9 Then they seized the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon[p] at Rib'lah[q] in the land of Ha'math,[r] that he might pronounce upon him judicial decisions.[s] 10 And the king of Babylon proceeded to slaughter the sons of Zed·e·ki'ah before his eyes,[t] and also all the princes of Judah he slaughtered in Rib'lah.[u] 11 And the eyes of Zed·e·ki'ah he blinded,[v] after which the king of Babylon bound him with copper fetters and brought him to Babylon[w] and put him in the house of custody until the day of his death.

12 And in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, that is, [in] the nineteenth year of King Neb·u·chad·rez'zar,[a] the king of Babylon, Neb·u'zar·ad'an[b] the chief of the bodyguard, who was standing before the king of Babylon, came into Jerusalem. 13 And he proceeded to burn the house of Jehovah[c] and the house of the king and all the houses of Jerusalem;[d] and every great house he burned with fire.[e] 14 And all the walls of Jerusalem, round about, all the military forces of the Chal·de'ans that were with the chief of the bodyguard pulled down.[f]

15 And some of the lowly ones of the people and the rest of the people that were left remaining in the city[g] and the deserters that had fallen away to the king of Babylon and the rest of the master workmen Neb·u'zar·ad'an the chief of the bodyguard took into exile.[h] 16 And some of the lowly ones of the land Neb·u'zar·ad'an the chief of the bodyguard let remain as vinedressers and as compulsory laborers.[i]

17 And the copper pillars[j] that belonged to the house of Jehovah and the carriages[k] and the copper sea[l] that was in the house of Jehovah the Chal·de'ans broke to pieces and went carrying all the copper of them to Babylon.[m] 18 And the cans and the shovels[n] and the extinguishers[o] and the bowls[p] and the cups and all the copper utensils with which they used to minister they took.[q] 19 And the basins[r] and the fire holders and the bowls[s] and the cans and the lampstands[t] and the cups and the bowls that were of genuine gold,[u] and those that were of genuine silver,[v] the chief of the bodyguard took.[w] 20 And the two pillars,[x] the one sea,[y] and the twelve copper bulls[z] that were under [the sea], the carriages, that King Sol'o·mon had made for the house of Jehovah.[a] There happened to be no weight [taken] of the copper of them—all these articles.[a]

21 And as regards the pillars, eighteen cubits in height was each pillar,[b] and a thread of twelve cubits itself would go around it;[c] and its thickness was four fingerbreadths, it being hollow. 22 And the capital upon it was of copper,[d] and the height of the one capital was five cubits;[e] and as regards the network and the pomegranates upon the capital, all around,[f] the whole was of copper; and the second pillar had just the same as these, also the pomegranates.[g] 23 And the pomegranates came to be ninety-six, on the sides, all the pomegranates being one hundred upon the network round about.[h]

24 Furthermore, the chief of the bodyguard took Se·rai'ah[i] the chief priest and Zeph·a·ni'ah[j] the second priest and the three doorkeepers,[k] 25 and from the city he took one court official that happened to be commissioner over the men of war, and seven men of those having access to the king,[l] who were found in the city, and the secretary of the chief of the army, the one mustering the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the midst of the city.[m] 26 So these Neb·u'zar·ad'an[n] the chief of the bodyguard took and conducted them to the king of Babylon at Rib'lah.[o] 27 And these the king of Babylon proceeded to strike down[p] and to put them to death in Rib'lah[q] in the land of Ha'math.[r] Thus Judah went into exile from off its soil.[s]

28 These are the people whom Neb·u·chad·rez'zar took into exile: in the seventh year, three thousand and twenty-three Jews.[t]

29 In the eighteenth year of Neb·u·chad·rez'zar,[u] from Jerusalem there were eight hundred and thirty-two souls.

30 In the twenty-third year of Neb·u·chad·rez′zar, Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the bodyguard took Jews into exile, seven hundred and forty-five souls.[a]

All the souls were four thousand and six hundred.

31 At length it came about in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Je·hoi′a·chin[b] the king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, that E′vil-mer′o·dach the king of Babylon, in the year of his becoming king, raised up the head[a] of Je·hoi′a·chin the king of Judah and proceeded to bring him forth from the prison house. 32 And he began to speak with him good things and to put his throne higher than the thrones of the [other] kings that were with him in Babylon.[b] 33 And he took off his prison garments,[c] and he ate bread[d] before him constantly all the days of his life.[e] 34 And as for his allowance, there was a constant allowance given him from the king of Babylon, daily as due, until the day of his death,[f] all the days of his life.

LAMENTATIONS

א [’A′leph]

1 O how she has come to sit solitary,[a] the city that was abundant with people![b]
How she has become like a widow,[c] she that was populous among the nations![d]
How she that was a princess among the jurisdictional districts has come to be for forced labor![e]

ב [Behth]

2 Profusely she weeps during the night,[f] and her tears are upon her cheeks.[g]
She has no one to comfort her from among all her lovers.[h]
All her very own companions have dealt treacherously with her.[i]
They have become enemies to her.[j]

ג [Gi′mel]

3 Judah has gone into exile because of the affliction[k] and because of the abundance of servitude.[l]
She herself has had to dwell among the nations.[a] No resting-place has she found.
All those who were persecuting her have overtaken her among distressing circumstances.[b]

ד [Da′leth]

4 The ways of Zion are mourning, because there are none coming to the festival.[c]
All her gates are laid desolate;[d] her priests are sighing.[e]
Her virgins are grief-stricken, and she herself has bitterness.[f]

ה [He′]

5 Her adversaries have become the head.[g] Those who are her enemies are unconcerned.[h]
Because Jehovah himself has brought grief to her on account of the abundance of her transgressions,[i]
Her own children have walked captive before the adversary.[j]

6 And from the daughter of Zion there goes out all her splendor.[a]
Her princes have proved to be like stags that have found no pasturage;[b]
And they keep walking without power before the pursuer.[c]

ז [Za′yin]

7 Jerusalem has remembered [in] the days of her affliction and of her homeless people
All her desirable things that happened to be from days of long ago.[d]
When her people fell into the hand of the adversary and she had no helper,[e]
The adversaries saw her. They laughed over her collapse.[f]

ח [Chehth]

8 Jerusalem has committed outright sin.[g] That is why she has become a mere abhorrent thing.[h]
All who were honoring her have treated her as something cheap,[i] for they have seen her nakedness.[j]
She herself is also sighing[k] and turns her back.

ט [Tehth]

9 Her uncleanness is in her skirts.[l] She did not remember the future for her,[m]
And down she goes in a wondrous manner. No comforter does she have.[n] O Jehovah, see my affliction,[o] for the enemy has put on great airs.[p]

י [Yohdh]

10 The adversary has spread out his own hand against all her desirable things.[q]
For she has seen nations that have come into her sanctuary,[a] Whom you commanded that they should not come into the congregation belonging to you.

כ [Kaph]

11 All her people are sighing; they are looking for bread.[b]
They have given their desirable things for something to eat, in order to refresh the soul.[c]
See, O Jehovah, and do look, for I have become as a valueless woman.[d]

ל [La′medh]

12 Is it nothing to all you who are passing along the way? Look and see.[e]
Does there exist any pain like my pain that has been severely dealt out to me,[f]
With which Jehovah has caused grief in the day of his burning anger?[g]

מ [Mem]

13 From the height he has sent fire into my bones,[h] and he subdues each one.
He has spread out a net for my feet.[i] He has turned me backward.
He has made me a woman laid desolate. All the day I am ill.[j]

נ [Nun]

14 He has kept himself alert against my transgressions.[k] In his hand they intertwine one another.
They have come up upon my neck.[l] My power has stumbled.
Jehovah has given me into the hand of those against whom I am unable to rise up.[m]

break my young men to pieces.[a] Jehovah has trodden the very winepress[b] belonging to the virgin daughter of Judah.[c]

ע [ʽA'yin]

16 Over these things I am weeping as a woman.[d] My eye, my eye is running down with waters.[e]
For a comforter has become far away from me, someone to refresh my soul.
My sons have become those laid desolate,[f] for the enemy has put on great airs.[g]

פ [Pe']

17 Zion has spread out her hands.[h] No comforter does she have.[i] Jehovah has given a command concerning Jacob to all who are around him as his adversaries.[j]
Jerusalem has become an abhorrent thing in among them.[k]

צ [Tsa·dheh']

18 Jehovah is righteous,[l] for it is against his mouth that I have rebelled.[m]
Listen, now, all YOU peoples, and see my pain.
My own virgins and my own young men have gone into captivity.[n]

ק [Qohph]

19 I have called to those intensely loving me.[o] They themselves have tricked me.
In the city my own priests and my own old men have expired,[p]
While they had to look for something to eat for themselves that they might refresh their soul.[q]

ר [Rehsh]

20 See, O Jehovah, for I am in sore straits. My very intestines are in a ferment.[a]
My heart has been overturned in the midst of me,[b] for I have been absolutely rebellious.[c]
Outside the sword caused bereavement of children.[d] Within the house it is the same as death.[e]

ש [Shin]

21 People have heard how I myself am sighing as a woman.[f] There is no comforter for me.[g]
All my enemies themselves have heard of my calamity.[h] They have exulted, because you yourself have done [it].[i]
You will certainly bring the day that you have proclaimed,[j] that they may become like me.[k]

ת [Taw]

22 May all their badness come before you, and deal severely with them,[l]
Just as you have dealt severely with me on account of all my transgressions.[m]
For my sighs are many,[n] and my heart is ill.[o]

א [ʼA'leph]

2 O how Jehovah in his anger beclouds the daughter of Zion![p]
He has thrown down from heaven to earth[q] the beauty of Israel.[r]
And he has not remembered his footstool[s] in the day of his anger.

ב [Behth]

2 Jehovah has swallowed up, he has shown no compassion upon any abiding places[t] of Jacob.
In his fury he has torn down the fortified places[u] of the daughter of Judah.
He has brought into contact with the earth,[a] he has profaned the kingdom[b] and her princes.[c]

ג [Gi'mel]

3 In the heat of anger he has cut down every horn of Israel.[d]
He has turned his right hand back from before the enemy;[e]
And in Jacob he keeps burning like a flaming fire that has devoured all around.[f]

ד [Da'leth]

4 He has trodden his bow like an enemy.[g] His right hand[h] has taken its position
Like an adversary,[i] and he kept killing all those desirable to the eyes.[j]
Into the tent[k] of the daughter of Zion he has poured out his rage, just like fire.[l]

ה [He']

5 Jehovah has become like an enemy.[m] He has swallowed down Israel.[n]
He has swallowed down all her dwelling towers;[o] he has brought his fortified places to ruin.[p]
And in the daughter of Judah he makes mourning and lamentation abound.[q]

ו [Waw]

6 And he treats his booth[r] violently like that in a garden.[s] He has brought his festival to ruin.
Jehovah has caused to be forgotten in Zion festival[t] and sabbath,
And in his angry denunciation he shows no respect for king and priest.[u]

ז [Za'yin]

7 Jehovah has cast off his altar.[v] He has spurned his sanctuary.[w]
Into the hand of the enemy he has surrendered the walls of her dwelling towers.[a]
In the house of Jehovah they have let out [their] own voice, as in the day of a festival.[b]

ח [Chehth]

8 Jehovah has thought of bringing the wall[c] of the daughter of Zion to ruin.
He has stretched out the measuring line.[d] He has not turned back his hand from swallowing up.[e]
And he causes rampart and wall to go mourning.[f] Together they have faded away.

ט [Tehth]

9 Her gates[g] have sunk down into the very earth. He has destroyed and broken her bars in pieces.
Her king and her princes are among the nations.[h] There is no law.[i]
Her own prophets also have found no vision from Jehovah.[j]

י [Yohdh]

10 The older men of the daughter of Zion sit down on the earth, [where] they keep silence.[k]
They have brought up dust upon their head.[l] They have girded on sackcloth.[m]
The virgins of Jerusalem have brought their head down to the very earth.[n]

כ [Kaph]

11 My eyes have come to their end in sheer tears.[o] My intestines are in a ferment.[p]
My liver has been poured out to the very earth,[q] on account of the crash of the daughter of my people,[r]

Because of the fainting away of child and suckling in the public squares of the town.[a]

ל [La'medh]

12 To their mothers they kept saying: "Where are grain and wine?"[b]
Because of their fainting away like someone slain in the public squares of the city, Because of their soul being poured out into the bosom of their mothers.

מ [Mem]

13 Of what shall I use you as a witness? What shall I liken to you, O daughter of Jerusalem?[c]
What shall I make equal to you, that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion?[d]
For your breakdown[e] is just as great as the sea. Who can bring healing to you?[f]

נ [Nun]

14 Your own prophets have visioned for you worthless and unsatisfying things,[g]
And they have not uncovered your error in order to turn back your captivity,[h]
But they kept visioning for you worthless and misleading pronouncements.[i]

ס [Sa'mekh]

15 At you all those passing along on the road have clapped their hands.[j]
They have whistled[k] and kept wagging their head[l] at the daughter of Jerusalem, [saying:]
"Is this the city of which they used to say, 'It is the perfection of prettiness, an exultation for all the earth'?"[m]

פ [Pe']

16 At you all your enemies have opened their mouth.[a]
They have whistled and kept grinding the teeth.[b] They have said: "We will swallow [her] down.[c]
This indeed is the day that we have hoped for.[d] We have found! We have seen!"[e]

ע ['A'yin]

17 Jehovah has done what he had in mind.[f] He has accomplished his saying,[g]
What he had commanded from the days of long ago.[h] He has torn down and shown no compassion.[i]
And over you he causes the enemy to rejoice.[j] He has made the horn of your adversaries high.[k]

צ [Tsa·dheh']

18 Their heart has cried out to Jehovah,[l] O wall of the daughter of Zion.[m]
Cause tears to descend just like a torrent day and night.[n]
Give no numbness to yourself. May the pupil of your eye not keep quiet.

19 Rise up! Whine during the night at the start of the morning watches.[o]
Pour out your heart[p] before the face[q] of Jehovah just like water.
Raise to him your palms[r] on account of the soul of your children,
Who are fainting away because of famine at the head of all the streets.[s]

20 See, O Jehovah, and do look[t] to the one to whom you have dealt severely in this manner.

21 Boy and old man[c] have lain down on the earth of the streets.[d]
My virgins and my young men themselves have fallen by the sword.[e]
You have killed in the day of your anger.[f] You have slaughtered;[g] you have had no compassion.[h]

ת [Taw]

22 As in the day of a festival[i] you proceeded to call out my places of alien residence all around.
And in the day of the wrath of Jehovah there proved to be no escapee or survivor;[j]
Those whom I brought forth fully formed and reared, my enemy himself exterminated them.[k]

א ['A'leph]

3 1 I am the able-bodied man that has seen affliction[l] because of the staff of his fury.
2 It is I whom he has led and makes to walk in darkness and not in light.[m]
3 Indeed, it is against me that he repeatedly turns his hand all day long.[n]

ב [Behth]

4 He has caused my flesh and my skin to wear away.[o] He has broken my bones.[p]
5 He has built against me, that he may encircle[q] [me] with poisonous plant[r] and hardship.
6 In dark places[s] he has made me sit like men dead for a long time.[t]

ג [Gi'mel]

7 He has blocked me up as with a stone wall, that I may not go forth.[a] He has made my copper fetters[b] heavy.
8 Also, when I call for aid and cry for help, he actually hampers my prayer.[c]
9 He has blocked up my ways with hewn stone.[d] My roadways he has twisted.[e]

ד [Da'leth]

11 My ways he has disarranged, and he makes me lie fallow. He has made me one laid desolate.[h]

EZEKIEL

1 Now it came about in the thirtieth year, in the fourth [month], on the fifth [day] of the month, while I was in the midst of the exiled[a] people by the river Che'bar,[b] that the heavens were opened[c] and I began to see visions of God.[d] 2 On the fifth [day] of the month, that is, [in] the fifth year of the exile of King Je·hoi'a·chin,[e] 3 the word of Jehovah occurred[a] specifically to Ezekiel[b] the son of Bu'zi the priest in the land of the Chal·de'ans[c] by the river Che'bar, and upon him in that place the hand of Jehovah came to be.[d]

4 And I began to see, and, look! there was a tempestuous wind[a] coming from the north, a great cloud mass[b] and quivering fire,[c] and it had a brightness all around, and out of the midst of it there was something like the look of electrum, out of the midst of the fire.[d] 5 And out of the midst of it there was the likeness of four living creatures,[e] and this was how they looked: they had the likeness of earthling man. 6 And [each] one had four faces,[f] and [each] one of them four wings.[g] 7 And their feet were straight feet, and the sole of their feet was like the sole of the foot of a calf;[h] and they were gleaming as with the glow of burnished copper.[i] 8 And there were the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides,[j] and the four of them had their faces and their wings.[k] 9 Their wings were joining one to the other. They would not turn when they went; they would go each one straight forward.[l]

10 And as for the likeness of their faces, the four of them had a man's[m] face with a lion's[n] face to the right,[o] and the four of them had a bull's[p] face on the left;[q] the four of them also had an eagle's face.[r] 11 That is the way their faces were. And their wings[s] were spreading out upward. Each one had two joining to each other, and two were covering their bodies.[t]

12 And they would go each one straight forward.[u] To wherever the spirit would incline to go, they would go.[v] They would not turn as they went.[w] 13 And as for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire.[x] Something like the appearance of torches[y] was moving back and forth between the living creatures, and the fire was bright, and out of the fire there was lightning going forth.[z] 14 And on the part of the living creatures there was a going forth and a returning as with the appearance of the lightning.[a]

15 As I kept seeing the living creatures, why, look! there was one wheel on the earth beside the living creatures,[b] by the four faces of each.[c] 16 As for the appearance of the wheels[d] and their structure, it was like the glow of chrys'o·lite;[e] and the four of them had one likeness. And their appearance and their structure were just as when a wheel proved to be in the midst of a wheel.[f] 17 When they went they would go on their four respective sides.[g] They would not turn another way when they went.[h] 18 And as for their rims, they had such height that they caused fearfulness; and their rims were full of eyes all around the four of them.[i] 19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels would go beside them, and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels would be lifted up.[j] 20 Wherever the spirit inclined to go, they would go, the spirit [inclining] to go there; and the wheels themselves would be lifted up close alongside them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. 21 When they went, these would go; and when they stood still, these would stand still; and when they were lifted up from the earth, the wheels would be lifted up close alongside them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.[k]

22 And over the heads of the living creatures there was the likeness of an expanse[l] like the sparkle of awesome ice, stretched out over their heads up above.[m] 23 And under the expanse their wings were straight, one to the other. Each one had two wings covering on this side and each one had two covering on that side their bodies. 24 And I got to hear the sound of their wings, a sound like that of vast waters,[a] like the sound of the Almighty One, when they went, the sound of a tumult,[b] like the sound of an encampment.[c] When they stood still, they would let their wings down.

25 And there came to be a voice above the expanse that was over their head. (When they stood still, they would let their wings down.) 26 And above the expanse that was over their head there was something in appearance like sapphire stone,[d] the likeness of a throne.[e] And upon the likeness of the throne there was a likeness of someone in appearance like an earthling man upon it,[f] up above. 27 And I got to see something like the glow of electrum,[g] like the appearance of fire all around inside thereof,[h] from the appearance of his hips and upward; and from the appearance of his hips and downward I saw something like the appearance of fire, and he had a brightness all around. 28 There was something like the appearance of the bow[i] that occurs in a cloud mass on the day of a pouring rain. That is how the appearance was of the brightness round about. It was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Jehovah.[j] When I got to see [it], then I fell upon my face,[k] and I began to hear the voice of one speaking.

2 And he proceeded to say to me: "Son of man,[l] stand up upon your feet that I may speak with you."[m] 2 And spirit began to come into me as soon as he spoke to me,[n] and it finally made me stand up upon my feet that I might hear the One speaking to me.[o]

3 And he went on to say to me: "Son of man, I am sending you to the sons of Israel,[p] to rebellious nations that have rebelled against me.[a] They themselves and their forefathers have transgressed against me down to this selfsame day.[b] 4 And the sons insolent of face[c] and hard of heart[d]—I am sending you to them, and you must say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said.' 5 And as for them, whether they will hear[e] or will refrain[f]—for they are a rebellious house[g]—they will certainly know also that a prophet himself happened to be in the midst of them.[h]

6 "And you, O son of man, do not be afraid of them;[i] and of their words do not be afraid, because there are obstinate ones[j] and things pricking[k] you and it is among scorpions[l] that you are dwelling. Of their words do not you be afraid,[m] and at their faces do not you be struck with terror,[n] for they are a rebellious house.[o] 7 And you must speak my words to them, regardless of whether they hear or they refrain, for they are a case of rebellion.[p]

8 "And you, O son of man, hear what I am speaking to you. Do not become rebellious like the rebellious house.[q] Open your mouth and eat what I am giving you."[r]

9 And I began to see, and, look! there was a hand thrust out to me,[s] and, look! in it there was the roll of a book.[t] 10 And he gradually spread it out before me, and it was written upon in front and on the back;[u] and there were written in it dirges and moaning and wailing.[v]

3 And he proceeded to say to me: "Son of man, what you find, eat. Eat this roll,[w] and go, speak to the house of Israel."

2 So I opened my mouth, and he gradually made me eat this roll.[x] 3 And he went on to say to me: "Son of man, you should cause your own belly to eat, that you may fill your very intestines with this roll that I am giving you." And I began to eat it, and it came to be in my mouth like honey for sweetness.[a]

4 And he continued saying to me: "Son of man, go, enter in among the house[b] of Israel, and you must speak with my words to them. 5 For it is not to a people who are unintelligible in language[c] or heavy of tongue[d] that you are being sent—to the house of Israel, 6 not to numerous peoples unintelligible in language or heavy in tongue, whose words you cannot hear [understandingly].[e] If it was to them that I had sent you, those very ones would listen to you.[f] 7 But as for the house of Israel, they will not want to listen to you, for they are not wanting to listen to me;[g] because all those of the house of Israel are hardheaded and hardhearted.[h] 8 Look! I have made your face exactly as hard as their faces[i] and your forehead exactly as hard as their foreheads.[j] 9 Like a diamond, harder than flint,[k] I have made your forehead. You must not be afraid of them,[l] and you must not be struck with terror at their faces,[m] for they are a rebellious house."[n]

10 And he went on to say to me: "Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you, take into your heart[o] and hear with your own ears. 11 And go, enter in among the exiled people,[p] among the sons of your people, and you must speak to them and say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said,' regardless of whether they hear or they refrain."[q]

12 And a spirit proceeded to bear me along[r] and I began to hear behind me the sound of a great rushing:[s] "Blessed be the glory of Jehovah from his place."[a] 13 And there was the sound of the wings of the living creatures that were closely touching each other,[b] and the sound of the wheels close beside them,[c] and the sound of a great rushing. 14 And [the] spirit bore me along[d] and proceeded to take me, so that I went bitterly in the rage of my spirit, and the hand of Jehovah upon me was strong.[e] 15 So I entered in among the exiled people at Tel-a′bib, who were dwelling[f] by the river Che′bar,[g] and I began to dwell where they were dwelling; and I kept dwelling there for seven days, stunned in the midst of them.[h]

16 And it came about at the end of seven days that the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to me, saying:

17 "Son of man, a watchman is what I have made you to the house of Israel,[i] and you must hear from my mouth speech and you must warn them from me.[j] 18 When I say to someone wicked, 'You will positively die,'[k] and you do not actually warn him and speak in order to warn the wicked one from his wicked way to preserve him alive,[l] he being wicked, in his error he will die,[m] but his blood I shall ask back from your own hand.[n] 19 But as for you, in case you have warned someone wicked[o] and he does not actually turn back from his wickedness and from his wicked way, he himself for his error will die;[p] but as for you, you will have delivered your own soul.[q] 20 And when someone righteous turns back from his righteousness[r] and actually does injustice and I must put a stumbling block before him,[s] he himself will die because you did not warn him. For his sin he will die,[t] and his righteous acts that he did will not be remembered,[u] but his blood I shall ask back from your own hand.[a] 21 And as for you, in case you have warned someone righteous that the righteous one should not sin,[b] and he himself does not actually sin, he will without fail keep on living because he had been warned,[c] and you yourself will have delivered your own soul."[d]

22 And the hand of Jehovah came to be upon me there and he proceeded to say to me: "Get up, go forth to the valley plain,[e] and there I shall speak with you." 23 So I got up and went forth to the valley plain, and, look! the glory of Jehovah was standing there,[f] like the glory that I had seen by the river Che'bar,[g] and I went falling upon my face.[h] 24 Then spirit entered into me[i] and made me stand up on my feet,[j] and he began to speak with me and say to me:
"Come, be shut up inside your house. 25 And you, O son of man, look! they will certainly put cords upon you and bind you with them so that you cannot go forth into the midst of them.[k] 26 And your very tongue I will make stick to the roof of your mouth,[l] and you will certainly become mute,[m]
and you will not become to them a man administering reproof,[n] because they are a rebellious[o] house. 27 And when I speak with you I shall open your mouth, and you must say to them,[p] 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said.'
Let the one hearing hear,[q] and let the one refraining refrain, because they are a rebellious house.[r]

4 "And you, O son of man, take for yourself a brick,
and you must put it before you and engrave upon it a city, even Jerusalem.[s] 2 And you must lay siege against it[t] and build a siege wall against it[u] and throw up a siege rampart against it[v] and set encampments against it and put battering rams all around against it.[a] 3 And as for you, take to yourself an iron griddle, and you must put it as an iron wall between you and the city, and you must fix your face against it, and it must get to be in a siege, and you must besiege it. It is a sign to the house of Israel.[b] 4 "And as for you, lie upon your left side, and you must lay the error of the house of Israel upon it.[c] For the number of the days that you will lie upon it you will carry their error. 5 And I myself must give to you the years of their error[d]
to the number of three hundred and ninety days,[e] and you must carry the error of the house of Israel. 6 And you must complete them.
"And you must lie upon your right side in the second case, and you must carry the error of the house of Judah forty days.[f]
A day for a year, a day for a year, is what I have given you.[g] 7 And to the siege of Jerusalem you will fix your face,[h] with your arm bared, and you must prophesy against it.
8 "And, look! I will put cords[i] upon you that you may not turn yourself from your one side to your other side, until you will have completed the days of your siege.
9 "And as for you, take for yourself wheat[j] and barley and broad beans[k] and lentils[l] and millet and spelt,[m] and you must put them in one utensil and make them into bread for you, for the number of the days that you are lying upon your side; three hundred and ninety days you will eat it.[n] 10 And your food that you will eat will be by weight—twenty shekels
a day.[o] From time to time you will eat it.
11 "And water you will drink merely by measure, the sixth part of a hin. From time to time you will drink.

12 "And as a round cake of barley[a] you will eat it; and as for it, upon dung cakes of the excrement[b] of mankind you will bake it before their eyes."
13 And Jehovah went on to say:
"Just like this the sons of Israel will eat their bread unclean[c] among the nations to which I shall disperse them."[d] 14 And I proceeded to say:
"Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah! Look! My soul is not a defiled one;[e] neither a body [already] dead nor a torn animal have I eaten from my youth up,[f] even until now, and into my mouth there has come no foul flesh."[g] 15 Accordingly he said to me: "See, I have given you cattle manure instead of the dung cakes of mankind, and you must make your bread upon it." 16 And he continued saying to me: "Son of man, here
I am breaking the rods around which ring-shaped loaves are suspended,[h] in Jerusalem, and they will have to eat bread by weight and in anxious care,[i]
and it will be by measure and in horror that they will drink that they may be lacking bread astonished at one another and

5 "And as for you, O son of along upon your head and upon your beard,[l] and you must take for yourself weighing scales and must take another third. You will strike [it] with the sword

third you will scatter to the 3 "And you must take therefrom a few in number and wrap them up in your skirts.[a] 4 And others of them you will take and you must pitch them into the midst of the fire and incinerate them in the fire. From one a fire will go forth to all

5 "This is what the Sovereign lands all around her. 6 And she proceeded to behave rebelliously against my judicial decisions in wickedness more than the nations,[c] and against my statutes more than the lands judicial decisions they rejected

7 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'For the reason that YOU people were more turbulent[e]

around YOU, in my statutes YOU did not walk and my judicial decisions YOU did not perform;[f] but according to the judicial decisions of the nations that are

is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Here I am against you, [O city,] even I,[h]

of you judicial decisions in the eyes of the nations.[i] 9 And I will do in you that which I have not done and the like of which I shall not do anymore things.[j]

10 "'"Therefore fathers themselves will eat sons in the

8 "'Now shortly I shall pour out my rage upon you,[i] and I will bring my anger against you to its finish,[j] and I will judge you according to your ways[k] and bring upon you all your detestable things. 9 Neither will my eye feel sorry[l] nor shall I feel compassion.[m] According to your ways shall I do the bringing upon you yourself, and your own detestable things will come to be right in the midst of you;[n] and YOU people will have to know that I am Jehovah doing the smiting.[o]

10 "'Look! The day! Look! It is coming.[p] The garland has gone forth.[q] The rod has blossomed.[r] Presumptuousness has sprouted.[s] 11 Violence itself has risen up into a rod of wickedness.[t] It is not from them, nor is it from their wealth; and it is not from their own selves, nor is there any eminency in them. 12 The time must come, the day must arrive. As regards the buyer, let him not rejoice;[u] and as regards the seller, let him not go into mourning, for there is hot feeling against all its crowd.

13 For to what was sold the seller himself will not return, while their life is yet among the living ones; for the vision is for all its crowd. No one will return, and they will not possess themselves each one of his own life by his own error.

14 "'They have blown the trumpet[a] and there has been a preparing of everybody, but there is no one going to the battle, because my hot feeling is against all its crowd.[b] 15 The sword[c] is outside, and the pestilence and the famine are inside.[d] Whoever is in the field, by the sword he will die, and whoever are in the city, famine and pestilence themselves will devour them.[e] 16 And their escapees will certainly make their escape[f] and become on the mountains like the doves of the valleys,[g] all of which are moaning, each one in his own error. 17 As for all the hands, they keep dropping down;[h] and as for all knees, they keep dripping with water.[i] 18 And they have girded on sackcloth,[j] and shuddering has covered them;[k] and on all faces there is shame[l] and on all their heads there is baldness.[m]

19 "'Into the streets they will throw their very silver, and an abhorrent thing their own gold will become. Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of Jehovah's fury.[n] Their souls they will not satisfy, and their intestines they will not fill, for it has become a stumbling block causing their error.[o] 20 And the decoration of one's ornament—one has set it as reason for pride; and their detestable images,[p] their disgusting things,[q] they have made with it. That is why I will make it to them an abhorrent thing.[r] 21 And I will give it into the hand of the strangers for plunder and to the wicked ones of the earth for spoil,[a] and they will certainly profane it.

there was something like the appearance of a shining, like the glow of electrum.[a] 3 Then he thrust out the representation of a hand[b] and took me by a tuft of hair of my head, and a spirit[c] carried me between the earth and the heavens and brought me to Jerusalem in the visions of God,[d] to the entrance of the inner gate[e] that is facing northward, where the dwelling place is of the symbol of jealousy that is inciting to jealousy.[f] 4 And, look! the glory of the God of Israel was there,[g] like the appearance that I had seen in the valley plain.

5 And he proceeded to say to me: "Son of man, please, raise your eyes in the direction of the north." So I raised my eyes in the direction of the north, and, look! to the north of the gate of the altar there was this symbol of jealousy[h] in the entranceway. 6 And he went on to say to me: "Son of man, are you seeing what great detestable things they are doing,[i] the things that the house of Israel are doing here [for me] to become far off from my sanctuary?[j] And yet you will see again great detestable things."

7 Accordingly he brought me to the entrance of the courtyard, and I began to see, and, look! a certain hole in the wall. 8 He now said to me: "Son of man, bore, please, through the wall."[k] And I gradually bored through the wall, and, look! there was a certain entrance. 9 And he further said to me: "Go in and see the bad detestable things that they are doing here."[l] 10 So I went in and began to see, and, look! there was every representation[m] of creeping things and loathsome beasts,[n] and all the dungy idols of the house of Israel,[o] the carving being upon the wall all round about. 11 And seventy men[p] of the elderly ones of the house of Israel, with Ja·az·a·ni'ah the son of Sha'phan[a] standing in among them, were standing before them, each one with his censer in his hand, and the perfume of the cloud of the incense was ascending.[b] 12 And he proceeded to say to me: "Have you seen, O son of man, what the elderly ones of the house of Israel are doing in the darkness,[c] each one in the inner rooms of his showpiece? For they are saying, 'Jehovah is not seeing us.[d] Jehovah has left the land.'"

13 And he continued on to say to me: "You will yet see again great detestable things that they are doing."[e] 14 So he brought me to the entrance of the gate of the house of Jehovah, which is toward the north, and, look! there the women were sitting, weeping over the [god] Tam'muz.

15 And he further said to me: "Have you seen [this], O son of man? You will yet see again great detestable[f] things worse than these." 16 So he brought me to the inner courtyard of the house of Jehovah,[g] and, look! at the entrance of the temple of Jehovah, between the porch and the altar,[h] there were about twenty-five men[i] with their backs to the temple of Jehovah[j] and their faces to the east, and they were bowing down to the east, to the sun.[k]

17 And he went on to say to me: "Have you seen [this], O son of man? Is it such a light thing to the house of Judah to do the detestable things that they have done here, that they have to fill the land with violence[l] and that they should offend me again, and here they are thrusting out the shoot to my nose? 18 And I myself also shall act in rage.[m] My eye will not feel sorry, neither shall I feel compassion.[n] And they will certainly call out in my ears with a loud voice, but I shall not hear them."[o]

9 And he proceeded to call out in my ears with a loud voice, saying: "HAVE those giving their attention to the city come near, each one with his weapon in his hand for bringing ruin!"

2 And, look! there were six men coming from the direction of the upper[a] gate that faces to the north, each one with his weapon for smashing in his hand; and there was one man in among them clothed with linen,[b] with a secretary's inkhorn at his hips, and they proceeded to come in and stand beside the copper altar.[c]

3 And as regards the glory of the God of Israel,[d] it was taken up from over the cherubs[e] over which it happened to be to the threshold of the house,[f] and he began calling out to the man that was clothed with the linen,[g] at whose hips there was the secretary's inkhorn. 4 And Jehovah went on to say to him: "Pass through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and you must put a mark on the foreheads of the men that are sighing and groaning[h] over all the detestable things that are being done in the midst of it."[i]

5 And to these [others] he said in my ears: "Pass through the city after him and strike. Let not your eye feel sorry, and do not feel any compassion.[j] 6 Old man, young man and virgin and little child and women[k] YOU should kill off—to a ruination. But to any man upon whom there is the mark do not go near,[l] and from my sanctuary YOU should start."[m] So they started with the old men that were before the house.[n] 7 And he said further to them: "Defile the house and fill the courtyards with the slain ones.[o] Go forth!" And they went forth and struck in the city.

8 And it came about that, while they were striking and I was left remaining, I proceeded to fall upon my face[a] and cry out and say: "Alas,[b] O Sovereign Lord Jehovah! Are you bringing to ruin all the remaining ones of Israel while you are pouring out your rage upon Jerusalem?"[c]

9 So he said to me: "The error of the house of Israel and Judah[d] is very, very great,[e] and the land is filled with bloodshed[f] and the city is full of crookedness;[g] for they have said, 'Jehovah has left the land,[h] and Jehovah is not seeing.'[i] 10 And as for me also, my eye will not feel sorry,[j] neither shall I show compassion.[k] Their way I shall certainly bring upon their own head."[l]

11 And, look! the man clothed with the linen, at whose hips there was the inkhorn, was bringing back word, saying: "I have done just as you have commanded me."[m]

10 And I continued to see, and, look! upon the expanse[n] that was over the head of the cherubs there was something like sapphire stone,[o] like the appearance of the likeness of a throne,[p] appearing above them. 2 And he proceeded to say to the man clothed with the linen,[q] even to say: "Enter in between the wheelwork,[r] in under the cherubs, and fill the hollows of both your hands with coals[s] of fire from between the cherubs and toss [them] over the city."[t] So he entered in before my eyes.

3 And the cherubs were standing to the right of the house when the man entered, and the cloud was filling the inner courtyard.[u] 4 And the glory of Jehovah[v] proceeded to rise up from the cherubs to the threshold of the house, and the house gradually became filled with the cloud,[w] and the courtyard itself was full of the brightness of the glory of Jehovah. 5 And the very sound of the wings of the cherubs[a] made itself heard to the outer courtyard, like the sound of God Almighty when he speaks.[b]

6 And it came about, when he commanded the man clothed with the linen, saying: "Take fire from between the wheelwork, from between the cherubs," that he proceeded to enter and stand beside the wheel. 7 Then the cherub thrust his hand out from between the cherubs to the fire[c] that was between the cherubs[d] and carried and put [it] into the hollows of the hands of the one clothed with the linen,[e] who now took [it] and went out. 8 And there was seen belonging to the cherubs the representation of a hand of earthling man under their wings.[f]

9 And I continued to see, and, look! there were four wheels beside the cherubs, one wheel beside the one cherub and one wheel beside the other cherub,[g] and the appearance of the wheels was like the glow of a chrys'o·lite stone. 10 And as for their appearance, the four of them had one likeness, just as when a wheel proves to be in the midst of a wheel.[h] 11 When they would go, to their four sides they would go. They would not change direction when they went, because the place to which the head would face, after it they would go. They would not change direction when they went.[i] 12 And all their flesh and their backs and their hands and their wings and the wheels were full of eyes all around.[j] The four of them had their wheels. 13 As regards the wheels, to them it was called out in my ears, "O wheelwork!"

14 And [each] one had four faces.[k] The first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of earthling man,[l] and the third was the face of a lion, and the fourth was the face of an eagle.[a]

15 And the cherubs would rise[b]—it was the [same] living creature that I had seen at the river Che'bar[c]— 16 and when the cherubs went, the wheels would go alongside them;[d] and when the cherubs lifted up their wings to be high above the earth, the wheels would not change direction, even they themselves, from alongside them.[e] 17 When these stood still, they would stand still; and when these rose,[f] they would rise with them, for the spirit of the living creature was in them.[g]

18 And the glory[h] of Jehovah proceeded to go forth from over the threshold of the house and to stand still over the cherubs.[i] 19 And the cherubs now lifted up their wings and rose from the earth[j] before my eyes. When they went forth, the wheels also were close alongside them; and they began standing at the eastern entrance of the gate of the house of Jehovah, and the glory of the God of Israel was over them, from above.

20 This is the living creature[k] that I had seen under the God of Israel at the river Che'bar,[l] so that I came to know that they were cherubs. 21 As for the four, [each] one had four faces[m] and [each] one had four wings, and the likeness of the hands of earthling man was under their wings. 22 And as for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces the appearance of which I had seen by the river Che'bar, the very ones.[n] They would go each one straight forward.[o]

11 And a spirit[p] proceeded to lift me up[q] and bring me to the eastern gate of the house of Jehovah that is facing eastward,[r] and, look! in the entrance of the gate there were twenty-five men,[s] and I got to see in the midst of them

Ja·az·a·ni′ah the son of Az′zur and Pel·a·ti′ah the son of Be·nai′ah, princes of the people.[a] 2 Then he said to me: "Son of man, these are the men that are scheming hurtfulness and advising bad counsel against this city;[b] 3 that are saying, 'Is not the building of houses close at hand?[c] She is the widemouthed cooking pot,[d] and we are the flesh.'

4 "Therefore prophesy against them. Prophesy, O son of man."[e]

5 Then the spirit of Jehovah fell upon me,[f] and he went on to say to me: "Say, 'This is what Jehovah has said:[g] "You people said the right thing, O house of Israel; and as regards the things that come up in YOUR spirit, I myself have known[h] it. 6 YOU have caused YOUR slain ones in this city to be many, and YOU have filled her streets with the slain [ones]."'[i] 7 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'As regards YOUR slain ones whom YOU people have put in the midst of her, they are the flesh,[j] and she is the widemouthed cooking pot;[k] and there will be a bringing forth of YOU yourselves out of the midst of her.'"[l]

8 "'A sword YOU have feared,[m] and a sword I shall bring upon YOU,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.[n] 9 'And I shall certainly bring YOU forth out of the midst of her and give YOU into the hand of strangers[o] and execute upon YOU acts of judgment.[p] 10 By the sword YOU will fall.[q] On the border of Israel[r] I shall judge YOU people; and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah.[s] 11 She herself will not prove to be for YOU a widemouthed cooking pot,[t] and YOU yourselves will not prove to be flesh in the midst of her. On the border of Israel I shall judge YOU, 12 and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah, because in my regulations YOU did not walk and my judgments YOU did not do,[a] but according to the judgments of the nations that are round about YOU, YOU have done.'"[b]

13 And it came about that as soon as I prophesied Pel·a·ti′ah the son of Be·nai′ah himself died,[c] and I proceeded to fall upon my face and cry with a loud voice[d] and say: "Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah![e] Is it an extermination that you are executing with the remaining ones of Israel?"[f]

14 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 15 "Son of man, as regards your brothers,[g] your brothers, the men concerned with your right to repurchase, and all the house of Israel, all of it, are the ones to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'Get far away from Jehovah. To us it belongs; the land has been given [us] as a thing to possess';[h] 16 therefore say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Although I have put them far away among the nations, and although I have scattered them among the lands,[i] yet I shall become to them a sanctuary for a little while among the lands to which they have come."'[j]

17 "Therefore say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "I will also collect YOU from the peoples and gather YOU from the lands among which YOU have been scattered, and I will give YOU the soil of Israel.[k] 18 And they will certainly come there and remove all its disgusting things and all its detestable things out of it.[l] 19 And I will give them one heart,[m] and a new spirit I shall put inside them;[n] and I shall certainly remove the heart of

22 And the cherubs[h] now lifted up their wings, and the wheels were close by them,[i] and the glory[j] of the God of Israel was over them, from above.[k] 23 And the glory of Jehovah[l] went ascending from over the midst of the city and began to stand over the mountain[m] that is to the east of the city.[n] 24 And a spirit[o] itself lifted me up[p] and finally brought me to Chal·de′a to the exiled people,[q] in the vision by the spirit of God; and the vision that I had seen went ascending from upon me. 25 And I began to speak to the exiled people all the things of Jehovah that he had caused me to see.[r]

12 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, in the midst of a rebellious house[s] is where you are dwelling, that have eyes to see but they actually do not see,[t] that have ears to hear but they actually do not hear,[u] for they are a rebellious house.[v] 3 As for you, O son of man, make up for yourself luggage for exile and go into exile in the daytime before their eyes, and you must go into exile from your place to another place before their eyes. Perhaps they will see, though they are a rebellious house.[w] 4 And you must bring out your luggage like luggage for exile in the daytime before their eyes, and you yourself will go out in the evening before their eyes like those being brought forth for exile.[a]

5 "Before their eyes, bore your way through the wall, and you must do the bringing out through it.[b] 6 Before their eyes you will do the carrying on the shoulder itself. During the darkness you will do the bringing out. You will cover your very face that you may not see the earth, because a portent[c] is what I have made you to the house of Israel."[d]

7 And I proceeded to do just the way that I had been commanded.[e] My luggage I brought out, just like luggage for exile, in the daytime; and in the evening I bored my way through the wall by hand. During the darkness I did the bringing out. On my shoulder I did the carrying, before their eyes.

8 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me in the morning, saying: 9 "Son of man, did not those of the house of Israel, the rebellious house,[f] say to you, 'What are you doing?' 10 Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "As regards the chieftain,[g] there is this pronouncement against Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are in the midst of them."'

11 "Say, 'I am a portent[h] for YOU. Just as I have done, that is the way it will be done to them. ylon, to the land of the Chalde'ans,[a] but it he will not see; and there he will die.[b] 14 And all who are round about him as a help, and all his military bands, I shall scatter to every wind;[c] and a sword I shall draw out after them.[d] 15 And they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I disperse them among the nations and I actually scatter them among the lands.[e] 16 And I will leave remaining from them a few men from the sword,[f] from the famine and from the pestilence, in order that they may recount all their detestable[g] things among the nations to whom they must come in;[h] and they will have to know that I am Jehovah."

17 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 18 "Son of man, with quaking your bread you should eat, and with agitation and with anxious care your water you should drink.[i] 19 And you must say to the people of the land, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said to the inhabitants of Jerusalem upon the soil of Israel:[j] "With anxious care their bread they will eat, and with horror their water they will drink, in order that its land may be laid desolate of its fullness[k] because of the violence of all those dwelling in it.[l] 20 And the inhabited cities themselves will be devastated,[m] and the land itself will become a mere desolate waste;[n] and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah."'"[o]

21 And the word of Jehovah occurred further to me, saying: 22 "Son of man, what is this proverbial saying that YOU people have on the soil of Israel,[p] saying, 'The days are prolonged,[q] and every vision has perished'?[r] 23 Therefore say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "I shall certainly cause this proverbial saying to cease, and they will no more say it as a proverb in Israel."'[a] But speak to them, 'The days have drawn near,[b] and the matter of every vision.' 24 For there will no more prove to be any valueless vision[c] nor double-faced divination in the midst of the house of Israel.[d] 25 '"For I myself, Jehovah, shall speak what word I shall speak, and it will be done.[e] There will be no postponement anymore,[f] for in YOUR days,[g] O rebellious house, I shall speak a word and certainly do it," is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.'"

26 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 27 "Son of man, look! those of the house of Israel are saying, 'The vision that he is visioning is many days off, and respecting times far off he is prophesying.'[h] 28 Therefore say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "'There will be no postponement anymore as to any words of mine.[i] What word I shall speak, it will even be done,'[j] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."'"[k]

And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, prophesy concerning the prophets of Israel who are prophesying,[l] and you must say to those prophesying out of their own heart,[m] 'Hear the word of Jehovah.[n] 3 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Woe to the stupid[o] prophets, who are walking after their own spirit,[p] when there is nothing that they have seen![q] 4 Like foxes in the devastated places are what your own prophets have become, O Israel.[r] 5 YOU men will certainly not go up into the gaps,[s] neither will YOU build up a stone wall[t] in behalf of the house of Israel, in order to stand in the battle in

8 "'Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "'For the reason that YOU men have spoken untruth and YOU have visioned a lie, therefore here I am against YOU,'[e] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah." 9 And my hand has come to be against the prophets that are visioning untruth and that are divining a lie.[f] In the intimate[g] group of my people they will not continue on, and in the register of the house of Israel they will not be written,[h] and to the soil of Israel they will not come;[i] and YOU people will have to know that I am the Sovereign Lord Jehovah,[j] 10 for the reason, yes, for the reason that they have led my people astray, saying, "There is peace!" when there is no peace,[k] and there is one that is building a partition wall, but in vain[l] there are those plastering it with whitewash.'[m]

11 "Say to those plastering with whitewash that it will fall. A flooding downpour will certainly occur, and YOU, O hailstones, will fall, and a blast of windstorms itself will cause a splitting.[n] 12 And, look! the wall must fall. Will it not be said to YOU men, 'Where is the coating with which YOU did the plastering?'[o]

13 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'I will also cause a blast of windstorms to burst forth in my rage, and in my anger there will occur a flooding downpour, and in rage there will be hailstones for an extermination.[a] 14 And I will tear down the wall that YOU men have plastered with whitewash and bring it into contact with the earth, and its foundation must be exposed.[b] And she will certainly fall, and YOU must come to an end in the midst of her; and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah.'[c]

15 "'And I will bring my rage to its finish upon the wall and upon those plastering it with whitewash, and I shall say to YOU men: "The wall is no more, and those plastering it are no more,[d] 16 the prophets of Israel that are prophesying to Jerusalem and that are visioning for her a vision of peace,[e] when there is no peace,"' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.[f]

17 "And as for you, O son of man, set your face[g] against the daughters of your people who are acting as prophetesses[h] out of their own heart,[i] and prophesy against them. 18 And you must say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Woe to the women sewing bands together upon all elbows and making veils upon the head of every size in order to hunt souls![j] Are the souls that YOU women hunt down the ones belonging to my people, and the souls belonging to YOU the ones that YOU preserve alive? 19 And will YOU profane me toward my people for the handfuls of barley and for the morsels of bread,[k] in order to put to death the souls that ought not to die[l] and in order to preserve alive the souls that ought not to live by YOUR lie to my people, the hearers of a lie?"'[m]

9 " 'And as for the prophet, in case he gets fooled and actually speaks a word, I myself, Jehovah, have fooled that prophet;[k] and I will stretch out my hand against him and annihilate him from the midst of my people Israel.[l] 10 And they will have to bear their error.[m] The error of the inquirer will prove to be just the same as the error of the prophet,[n] 11 in order that those of the house of Israel may no more go wandering off from following me[o] and may no more go defiling themselves with all their transgressions. 21 "For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'So, too, [it will be] when there will be my four injurious acts of judgment[b]—sword and famine and injurious wild beast and pestilence[c]—that I shall actually send upon Jerusalem in order to cut off from it earthling man and domestic animal.[d] 22 But, look! there will certainly be left remaining in it an escaped company, those being brought forth.[e] Sons and daughters, here they are! 23 " 'And they will certainly comfort YOU people when YOU see their way and their dealings; and YOU will have to know that it was not without cause that I shall have done all that I must do against her,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."[g]

15 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, in what way does the vine[h] tree happen to be different from every other tree, the shoot, that has come to be among the trees of the forest? 3 Is there taken from it a pole with which to do some work? Or do people take from it a peg on which to hang any kind of utensil? 4 Look! Into the fire is where it must be put for fuel.[i] Both ends of it the fire certainly devours, and the very middle of it does get scorched.[j] Is it fit for any work? 5 Look! his it came to be. 16 And you proceeded to take some of your garments and make for yourself high places[b] of varied colors and you would prostitute yourself on them[c]—such things are not coming in, and it should not happen. 17 And you would take your beautiful articles from my gold and from my silver that I had given to you[d] and you would make for yourself images of a male[e] and prostitute yourself with them.[f] 18 And you would take your embroidered garments and cover them; and my oil and my incense[g] you would actually put before them. 19 And my bread that I had given to you—fine flour and oil and honey that I had had you eat[h]—you also actually put it before them as a restful odor,[i] and it continued to occur,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

20 "'And you would take your sons and your daughters whom you had borne to me,[j] and you would sacrifice these to them to be devoured[k]—is that not enough of your acts of prostitution? 21 And you would slaughter my sons,[l] and by making them pass through [the fire] you would give these to them.[m] 22 And in all your detestable things and your acts of prostitution you did not remember the days of your youth when you happened to be naked and nude; kicking about in your blood you happened to be.[n] 23 So it came about after all your badness ("woe, woe to you,"[o] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah) 24 that you went building for yourself a mound and making for yourself a height in every public square.[p] 25 At every head of the way you built your height[q] and you began to make your prettiness something detestable[r] and sprawl out your feet to every passerby[s] and multiply your acts of prostitution.[t] 26 And you went prostituting yourself to the sons of Egypt,[a] your neighbors great of flesh,[b] and you continued making your prostitution abound in order to offend me. 27 And, look! I shall certainly stretch out my hand against you[c] and I shall diminish your allowance[d] and give you to the soul[ful desire][e] of the women hating you,[f] the daughters of the Phi·lis'tines,[g] the women humiliated on account of your way as regards loose conduct.[h]

28 "'And you went on to prostitute yourself to the sons of As·syr'i·a because there was no satisfying of you,[i] and you kept prostituting yourself with them and also did not get satisfaction. 29 So you kept making your prostitution abound toward the land of Ca'naan,[j] toward the Chal·de'ans;[k] and even in this you did not get satisfaction. 30 O how I am filled up with rage[l] against you,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'by your doing all these things, the work of a woman,[m] a domineering prostitute![n] 31 When you built your mound at the head of every way and you made your own height in every public square, yet you became unlike a prostitute in disdaining hire. 32 In the case of the wife that commits adultery, she takes strangers instead of her own husband.[o] 33 To all prostitutes they are accustomed to give a present,[p] but you—you have given your presents to all those passionately loving you,[q] and you offer a bribe to them to come in to you from all around in your acts[r] of prostitution. 34 And in your case the opposite thing takes place from that of other women in your acts of prostitution, and after your style no prostitution has been committed, even in your giving hire when no hire has been given

35 "Therefore, O prostitute,[a] hear the word of Jehovah.[b] 36 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'For the reason that your lustfulness has been poured out[c] and your private parts[d] are uncovered in your acts of prostitution toward those passionately loving you[e] and toward all your detestable dungy idols,[f] even with the blood of your sons whom you gave to them,[g] 37 therefore here I am collecting together all those passionately loving you toward whom you were pleasurable and all those whom you loved along with all those whom you hated, and I will collect them together against you from all around and uncover your private parts to them, and they must see all your private parts.[h]

38 "'And I will judge you with the judgments of adulteresses[i] and women shedding blood,[j] and I will give you the blood of rage and jealousy.[k] 39 And I will give you into their hand, and they will certainly tear down your mound[l] and your heights will certainly be pulled down,[m] and they must strip you of your garments[n] and take your beautiful articles[o] and leave you behind naked and nude. 40 And they must bring up against you a congregation[p] and pelt you with stones[q] and slaughter you with their swords.[r] 41 And they must burn your houses with fire[s] and execute in you acts of judgment before the eyes of many women;[t] and I will cause you to cease from [being] a prostitute,[u] and also no more hire will you give. 42 And I will bring my rage to its rest in you,[v] and my jealousy must turn away from you;[w] and I will stay quiet and I shall no more feel offended.'

43 "'For the reason that you did not remember the days of your youth[a] and you would cause me agitation because of all these things,[b] even here I also, for my part, will put your own way upon [your] very head,'[c] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'and you will certainly not carry on any loose conduct alongside all your detestable things.

44 "'Look! Everyone using a proverb[d] against you will use the proverb, saying: "Like mother is her daughter!"[e] 45 You are the daughter of your mother,[f] one abhorring her husband[g] and her sons. And you are the sister of your sisters, who abhorred their husbands and their sons. The mother of YOU women was a Hit'tite,[h] and YOUR father was an Am'or·ite.'"[i]

51 "'And as for Sa·mar'i·a,[d] she has not sinned even up to half of your sins, but you kept making your detestable things abound more than they did, so that you made your sisters appear righteous because of all your detestable things that you carried on.[e] 52 You also, bear your humiliation when you must argue in favor of your sisters. Because of your sins in which you acted more detestably than they did, they are more righteous than you.[f] And you also, be ashamed and bear your humiliation in that you make your sisters appear righteous.'

53 "'And I will gather their captive ones,[g] the captive ones of Sod'om and of her dependent towns, and the captive ones of Sa·mar'i·a and of her dependent towns; I will also gather your captive ones in the midst of them,[h] 54 in order that you may bear your humiliation;[i] and you must feel humiliated owing to all that you have done, in that you comforted them.[j] 55 And your own sisters, Sod'om and her dependent towns, will return to their former state, and Sa·mar'i·a and her dependent towns will return to their former state, and you yourself and your own dependent towns will return to YOUR former state.[k] 56 And Sod'om your sister did not prove to be anything worth hearing about from your mouth in the day of your pride,[l] 57 before your own badness got to be exposed,[m] just as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria[n] and of all round about her, the daughters of the Phi·lis'tines,[o] those treating you with scorn on all sides.[p] 58 Your loose conduct[q] and your detestable things, you yourself must bear them,'[a] is the utterance of Jehovah."

59 "For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'I also must do with you just as you have done,[b] because you despised the oath in breaking [my] covenant.[c] 60 And I, I myself, must remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth,[d] and I must establish for you an indefinitely lasting covenant.[e] 61 And you will certainly remember your ways[f] and feel humiliated when you receive your sisters, the ones older than you as well as the ones younger than you, and I shall certainly give them to you as daughters,[g] but not owing to your covenant.'[h]

vast waters,[a] as a willow tree
he placed it. 6 And it began to sprout and gradually became a luxuriantly growing vine low in height,[b] inclined to turn its foliage inward; and as for its roots, they gradually came to be under it. And it finally became a vine and produced shoots and sent forth branches.[c] 7 "'"And there came to be another great eagle,[d] having great wings, and having large pinions,[e] and, look! this very vine stretched its roots hungrily toward him.[f] And its foliage it thrust out to him in order [for him] to irrigate it, away from the garden beds where it was planted.[g] 8 Into a good field, by vast waters, it was already transplanted,[h] in order to produce boughs and to bear fruit,
to become a majestic vine."' 9 "Say, 'This is what the Sovereign
Lord Jehovah has said:
"Will it have success?[i] Will not someone tear out its very roots[j]
and make its very fruit scaly?
And must [not] all its freshly plucked sprouts become dry?[k]
It will become dry. Neither by a great arm nor by a multitudinous people will it have to be lifted up from its roots.
10 And, look! although transplanted, will it have success?
Will it not dry up completely,
even as when the east wind touches it?[l] In the garden beds of its sprout it will dry up."'"[m] 11 And the word of Jehovah
continued to occur to me, saying:
12 "Say, please, to the rebellious house,[n] 'Do YOU people actually not know what these things mean?' Say, 'Look! The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and proceeded to take its king[o] and its princes and bring them to himself at Babylon.[p] 13 Furthermore, he took one of the royal seed[q] and concluded a covenant with him and brought him into an oath;[r] and the foremost men of the land he took away,[s] 14 in order that the kingdom might become low,[a] unable to lift itself up, that by keeping his covenant it might stand.[b] 15 But he finally rebelled[c] against him in sending his messengers to Egypt, [for it] to give him horses[d] and a multitudinous people. Will he have success? Will he escape, he who is doing these things, and who has broken a covenant? And will he actually escape?'[e] 16 "'"As I am alive,"[f] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, "in the place of the king who put in as king the one that despised his oath[g] and that broke his covenant, with him in the midst of Babylon he will die.[h] 17 And by a great military force and by a multitudinous congregation Phar'aoh will not make him effective in the war,[i] by throwing up a siege rampart and by building a siege wall, in order to cut off many souls.[j] 18 And he has despised an oath[k] in breaking a covenant, and, look! he had given his hand[l] and has done even all these things. He will not make his escape."'[m] 19 "'Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "As I am alive, surely my oath that he has despised[n]
and my covenant that he has broken—I will even bring it upon his head. 20 And I will spread over him my net, and he will certainly be caught in my hunting net;[o] and I will bring him to Babylon and put myself on judgment with him there respecting his unfaithfulness with which he acted against me.[p] 21 And as regards all the fugitives of his in all his bands, by the sword they will fall, and the ones left remaining will be spread abroad
even to every wind.[q] And YOU people will have to know that I myself, Jehovah, have spoken

defiled;[a] 16 and no man has he maltreated,[b] no pledge has he seized,[c] and nothing has he taken in robbery;[d] to the hungry one he has given his own bread,[e] and the naked one he has covered with a garment;[f] 17 from the afflicted one he has drawn back his hand; no usury[g] and interest[h] has he taken; my judicial decisions he has carried out;[i] in my statutes he has walked;[j] he himself will not die because of the error of his father.[k] He will positively keep living.[l] 18 As for his father, because he committed outright defrauding,[m] wrested something away in robbery of a brother,[n] and whatever is not good he has done in the midst of his peoples,[o] look! then he must die for his error.[p]

19 "'And you people will certainly say: "Why is it that the son does not have to bear anything because of the error of the father?"[q] Now as regards the son, justice and righteousness he has executed,[r] all the statutes of mine he has kept and he keeps doing them.[s] He will positively keep living.[t] 20 The soul that is sinning—it itself will die.[u] A son himself will bear nothing because of the error of the father, and a father himself will bear nothing because of the error of the son.[v] Upon his own self the very righteousness of the righteous one will come to be,[w] and upon his own self the very wickedness of a wicked one will come to be.[x]

21 "'Now as regards someone wicked, in case he should turn back from all his sins that he has committed[y] and he should actually keep all my statutes and execute justice and righteousness,[z] he will positively keep living. He will not die.[a] 22 All his transgressions that he has committed—they will not be remembered against him.[b] For his righteousness that he has done he will keep living.'[a]

23 "'Do I take any delight at all in the death of someone wicked,'[b] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, '[and] not in that he should turn back from his ways and actually keep living?'[c]

24 "'Now when someone righteous turns back from his righteousness and actually does injustice;[d] according to all the detestable things that the wicked one has done he keeps doing[e] and he is living, none of all his righteous acts that he has done will be remembered.[f] For his unfaithfulness that he has committed and for his sin with which he has sinned, for them he will die.[g]

25 "'And you people will certainly say: "The way of Jehovah is not adjusted right."[h] Hear, please, O house of Israel. Is not my own way adjusted right?[i] Are not the ways of YOU people not adjusted right?[j]

26 "'When someone righteous turns back from his righteousness and he actually does injustice[k] and dies on account of them, for his injustice that he has done he will die.[l]

19 "And as for you, raise a dirge[k] concerning the chieftains of Israel,[l] 2 and you must say, 'What was your mother? A lioness among lions.[m] She lay down in among maned young lions. She reared her cubs.

3 "'And gradually she brought up one of her cubs.[n] A maned young lion is what he became, and he began to learn how to tear apart prey.[o] He devoured even earthling man. 4 And nations kept hearing about him. In their pit he was caught, and they proceeded to bring him by means of hooks to the land of Egypt.[p]

5 "'When she got to see that she had waited [and] her hope had perished, then she took another of her cubs.[q] As a maned young lion she put him forth. 6 And he began to walk about in the midst of lions. A maned young lion is what he became. A bearer of fruit and full of branches she became because of abundant water.[h] 11 And they came to be for her strong rods, meant for the scepters of rulers.[i] And its height gradually became tall up among branches, and it got to be visible because of its tallness, because of the abundance of its foliage.[j] 12 But she was finally uprooted in fury.[k] To the earth she was thrown, and there was an east wind that dried up her fruit.[l] Her strong rod was torn off and became dry.[m] Fire itself devoured it.[n] 13 And now she is planted in the wilderness,[o] in a waterless and thirsty land.[p] 14 And fire proceeded to come forth from [her] rod.[q] It devoured her very shoots, her very fruit, and there proved to be in her no strong rod, no scepter for ruling.[r]

the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Is it in order to inquire of me that YOU men are coming?[a] ‘As I am alive, I will not be inquired of by YOU,’[b] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”’

4 “Will you judge them? Will you judge [them], O son of man?[c] Cause them to know the detestable things of their forefathers.[d] 5 And you must say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “In the day of my choosing Israel,[e] I also proceeded to lift up my hand[f] [in an oath] to the seed of the house of Jacob[g] and to make myself known to them in the land of Egypt.[h] Yes, I proceeded to lift up my hand [in an oath] to them, saying, ‘I am Jehovah YOUR God.’[i] 6 In that day I lifted up my hand[j] [in an oath] to them to bring them forth from the land of Egypt to a land that I had spied out for them, one flowing with milk and honey.[k] It was the decoration of all the lands.[l] 7 And I went on to say to them, ‘Throw away, each one of YOU, the disgusting things of his eyes,[m] and with the dungy idols of Egypt do not defile yourselves.[n] I am Jehovah YOUR God.’[o]

8 “‘“And they began to rebel against me,[p] and they did not consent to listen to me. The disgusting things of their eyes they did not individually throw away, and the dungy idols of Egypt they did not leave,[q] so that I promised to pour out my rage upon them, in order to bring my anger to its finish upon them in the midst of the land of Egypt.[r] 9 And I went acting for the sake of my own name that [it] might not be profaned before the eyes of the nations in among whom they were,[s] because I had made myself known to them before their eyes on bringing them forth from the land of Egypt.[t] 10 So I brought them forth from the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness.[a]

11 “‘“And I proceeded to give them my statutes;[b] and my judicial decisions[c] I made known to them, in order that the man who keeps doing them might also keep living by them.[d] 12 And my sabbaths I also gave to them,[e] to become a sign between me and them,[f] in order [for them] to know that I am Jehovah who is sanctifying them.

13 “‘“But they, the house of Israel, rebelled against me in the wilderness.[g] In my statutes they did not walk,[h] and my judicial decisions they rejected,[i] which, should the man keep doing, he will also keep living by them.[j] And my sabbaths they profaned very much,[k] so that I promised to pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, in order to exterminate them.[l] 14 But I acted for the sake of my own name that [it] might not be profaned before the eyes of the nations, before whose eyes I had brought them forth.[m] 15 And I myself also lifted up my hand [in an oath] to them in the wilderness,[n] not to bring them into the land that I had given, one flowing with milk and honey,[o] (it is the decoration of all the lands,)[p] 16 for the reason that they rejected my own judicial decisions; and as regards my statutes, they did not walk in them, and my sabbaths they profaned, because it was after their dungy idols that their heart was going.[q]

39 "And YOU, O house of Israel, this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Go serve each one of YOU his own dungy idols.[l] And afterward if YOU are not listening to me, then my holy name YOU will no more profane by YOUR gifts and by YOUR dungy idols.'[m]

40 "'For in my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel,'[n] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'there is where they, the whole house of Israel in its entirety, will serve me, in the land.[o] There I shall take pleasure in them, and there I shall require YOUR contributions and the firstfruits of YOUR presentations in all YOUR holy things.[p] 41 Because of the restful odor I shall take pleasure in YOU,[q] when I bring YOU forth from the peoples and I actually collect YOU together from the lands to which YOU have been scattered,[a] and I will be sanctified in YOU before the eyes of the nations.'[b]

42 "'And YOU people will have to know that I am Jehovah,[c] when I bring YOU onto the soil of Israel,[d] into the land that I lifted up my hand [in an oath] to give to YOUR forefathers. 43 And YOU will certainly remember there YOUR ways[e] and all YOUR dealings by which YOU defiled yourselves,[f] and YOU will actually feel a loathing at YOUR own faces because of all YOUR bad things that YOU did.[g] 44 And YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah[h] when I take action with YOU for the sake of my name,[i] not according to YOUR bad ways or according to YOUR corrupted dealings,[j] O house of Israel,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

45 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 46 "Son of man, set your face[k] in the direction of the southern quarter and drip[l] [words] to the south, and prophesy to the forest of the field of [the] south. 47 And you must say to the forest of the south, 'Hear the word of Jehovah. This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Here I am setting a fire ablaze against you,[m] and it must devour in you every still-moist tree and every dry tree.[n] The kindling flame will not be extinguished,[o] and by it all faces must be scorched from [the] south to the north.[p] 48 And all those of flesh must see that I myself, Jehovah, have set it afire, so that it will not be extinguished."'"[q]

21 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem and drip[a] [words] toward the holy places,[b] and prophesy against the soil of Israel.[c] 3 And you must say to the soil of Israel, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Here I am against you,[d] and I will bring forth my sword out of its sheath[e] and cut off from you righteous one and wicked one.[f] 4 In order that I may actually cut off from you righteous one and wicked one, therefore my sword will go forth from its sheath against all flesh from south to north.[g] 5 And all those of flesh will have to know that I myself, Jehovah, have brought forth my sword from its sheath.[h] No more will it go back."'[i]

6 "And as for you, O son of man, sigh with shaking hips.[j] Even with bitterness you should sigh before their eyes.[k] 7 And it must occur that, in case they say to you, 'On account of what are you sighing?'[l] you must say, 'At a report.'[m] For it will certainly come,[n] and every heart must melt[o] and all hands must drop down and every spirit must become dejected and all knees themselves will drip with water.[p] 'Look! It will certainly come[q] and be brought to occur,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

8 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 9 "Son of man, prophesy, and you must say, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Say, 'A sword, a sword![r] It has been sharpened,[s] and it is also polished. 10 For the purpose of organizing a slaughter it has been sharpened; for the purpose of its getting a glitter it has been polished.'"'"[t]

"Or shall we exult?"[u]

"'Is it rejecting the scepter[v] of my own son,[w] as [it does] every tree?[x]

11 "'And one gives it to be polished, in order to wield [it] with the hand. It—a sword has been sharpened, and it—it has been polished, in order to give it into the hand of a killer.[a]

12 "'Cry out and howl,[b] O son of man, for it itself has come to be against my people;[c] it is against all the chieftains of Israel.[d] The very ones hurled to the sword have come to be with my people.[e] Therefore make a slap on [the] thigh.[f] 13 For an extermination has been made,[g] and what [of it] if it is rejecting also the scepter?[h] This will not continue existing,'[i] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

14 "And you, O son of man—prophesy, and strike palm against palm,[j] and 'A sword!' should be repeated for three times.[k] The sword of the slain ones it is. It is the sword of someone slain who is great, which is making an encirclement of them.[l] 15 In order for the heart to melt[m] and [in order] to multiply those who are overthrown at all their gates,[n] I will make a slaughter by the sword. Alas, it is made for a glittering, polished for a slaughter![o] 16 Show yourself sharp;[p] go to the right! Set your position; go to the left! To wherever your face is directed! 17 And I myself also shall strike my one palm against my other palm,[q] and I will bring my rage[r] to its rest.[s] I myself, Jehovah, have spoken."

18 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 19 "And as for you, O son of man, set for yourself two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to enter.[t] From the one land both of them should go forth, and an [index] hand should be cut out;[u] at the head of the way to the city it should be cut out. 20 A way you should set for [the] sword to enter against Rab'bah[v] of the sons of Am′mon, and [one] against Judah, against Jerusalem fortified.[a] 21 For the king of Babylon stood still at the crossways, at the head of the two ways, in order to resort to divination.[b] He has shaken the arrows. He has asked by means of the teraphim;[c] he has looked into the liver. 22 In his right hand the divination proved to be for Jerusalem, to set battering rams,[d] to open one's mouth for a slaying, to raise the sound in an alarm signal,[e] to set battering rams against gates, to throw up a siege rampart, to build a siege wall.[f] 23 And it has become to them like an untrue divination in their eyes[g]—those who are sworn with oaths to them;[h] and he is calling error to remembrance,[i] in order [for them] to be caught.[j]

24 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'By reason of YOUR causing YOUR error to be remembered by YOUR transgressions being uncovered, in order that YOUR sins may be seen according to all YOUR dealings, by reason of YOUR being called to remembrance[k] YOU people will be seized even by the hand.'[l]

25 "And as for you, O deadly wounded, wicked chieftain[m] of Israel,[n] whose day has come in the time of the error of [the] end,[o] 26 this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Remove the turban, and lift off the crown.[p] This will not be the same.[q] Put on high even what is low,[r] and bring low even the high one.[s] 27 A ruin, a ruin, a ruin I shall make it.[t] As for this also, it will certainly become no [one's] until he comes who has the legal right,[u] and I must give [it] to him.'[v]

28 "And you, O son of man, prophesy, and you must say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said concerning the sons of Am′mon and concerning the reproach from them.' And you must say, 'A sword, a sword drawn for a slaughter, polished to cause [it] to devour, in order to glitter,[a] 29 because of [their] beholding for you an unreality, because of [their] divining for you a lie,[b] in order to put you on the necks of the slain ones, the wicked men whose day has come in the time of the error of [the] end.[c] 30 Return [it] to its sheath. In the place that you were created, in the land of your origin,[d] I shall judge you. 31 And I will pour out upon you my denunciation. With the fire of my fury I shall blow upon you,[e] and I will give you into the hand of men who are unreasoning, the craftsmen of ruination.[f] 32 For the fire you will become fuel.[g] Your own blood will prove to be in the midst of the land. You will not be remembered, for I myself, Jehovah, have spoken.'"[h]

22 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 "And as for you, O son of man, will you judge,[i] will you judge the bloodguilty city[j] and certainly cause her to know all her detestable things?[k] 3 And you must say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "O city that is shedding blood[l] in her midst till her time comes,[m] and that has made dungy idols within herself in order to become unclean,[n] 4 by your blood that you have shed you have become guilty,[o] and by your dungy idols that you have made you have become unclean.[p] And you bring your days near, and you will come to your years. for them with whitewash,[m] visioning an unreality[n]

saying: "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said," when Jehovah himself has not spoken. 29 The people of the land themselves have carried on a scheme of defrauding[p] and they have defrauded without the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

23 And the word of Jehovah
proceeded to come to me,[z] saying: 2 "Son of man, two women, the daughters of one mother, there happened to be.[a] 3 And they began to prostitute themselves in Egypt.[b] In their youth they committed prostitution.[a] There their breasts were squeezed,[b] and there they pressed the bosoms of their virginity. 4 And their names were O·ho′lah the older one and O·hol′i·bah her sister, and they came to be mine[c] and began to give birth to sons and daughters.[d] And as for their names, O·ho′lah is Sa·mar′i·a,[e] and O·hol′i·bah is Jerusalem.[f]

5 "And O·ho′lah began to prostitute herself,[g] while subject to me, and kept lusting
after those passionately loving her,[h] after the As·syr′i·ans,[i] who were near, 6 governors clothed with blue material, and deputy rulers—desirable young men all of them, cavalrymen riding horses. 7 And she continued giving forth her prostitutions upon them, the choicest sons of As·syr′i·a all of them; and with all those after whom she lusted—with their dungy idols—she defiled herself.[j]
8 And her prostitutions [carried] from Egypt she did not leave, for with her they had lain down in her youth, and they were the ones that pressed the bosoms of her virginity and they kept pouring out their immoral intercourse upon her.[k] 9 Therefore I gave her into the hand of those passionately loving her,[l] into the hand of the sons of As·syr′i·a, toward whom she had lusted.[m] 10 They were the ones that uncovered her nakedness.[n] Her sons and her daughters they took,[o] and her they killed even with sword. And she came to be judgment were what they executed upon her.

she exercised her sensual desire and her prostitution more than the fornication of her sister.[a] 12 For the sons of As·syr′i·a she lusted,[b] governors and deputy rulers who were near, clothed with perfect taste, cavalrymen riding horses—desirable young men all of them.[c] 13 And I got to see that, because she had defiled herself, both of them had one way.[d] 14 And she kept adding to her acts of prostitution when she got to see the men in carvings upon the wall,[e] images[f] of Chal·de′ans carved in vermilion,[g] 15 girded with belts[h] on their hips, with pendant turbans on their heads,

having the appearance of warriors,
all of them, the likeness of the sons of Babylon, Chal·de′ans as respects the land of their birth. 16 And she began to lust after them at the sight of her eyes[i] and proceeded to send messengers to them in Chal·de′a.[j] 17 And the sons of Babylon kept coming in to her, to the bed of expressions of love, and defiling her with their immoral intercourse;[k] and she continued getting defiled by them, and her soul began to turn away disgusted from them.

18 "And she went on uncovering her acts of prostitution and uncovering her nakedness,[l]
so that my soul turned away disgusted from company with her, just as my soul had turned away disgusted from company with her sister.[m] 19 And she kept multiplying her acts of prostitution[n] to the point of calling to mind the days of her youth,[o] when she prostituted herself in the land of Egypt.[p] 20 And she kept lusting in the style of concubines belonging to those whose fleshly member is as the fleshly member of male asses and whose genital organ is as the genital organ of male horses.[q] 21 And you continued calling attention to the loose conduct of your youth by the pressing of your bosoms from Egypt[a] onward, for the sake of the breasts of your youth.[b]

22 "Therefore, O O·hol′i·bah, this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Here I am rousing up your passionate lovers against you,[c] those from whom your soul has turned away in disgust, and I will bring them in against you on all sides,[d] 23 the sons of Babylon[e]
and all the Chal·de′ans,[f] Pe′kod[g] and Sho′a and Ko′a, all the sons of As·syr′i·a with them, desirable young men, governors and deputy rulers all of them, warriors and summoned ones, riding on horses, all of them. 24 And they must come in against you with rattling of war chariots and wheels,[h] and with a congregation of peoples, with large shield and buckler and helmet. They will set themselves against you all around, and I will give judgment over to them, and they must judge you with their judgments.[i] 25 And I will express my ardor against you,[j] and they must take action against you in rage.[k] Your nose and your ears they will remove, and the remainder of you will fall even by the sword. Your sons and your daughters[l] they themselves will take,[m] and the remainder of you will be devoured by the fire.[n] 26 And they will certainly strip off you your garments[o] and take away your beautiful articles.[p] 27 And I shall actually cause your loose conduct to cease from you,[q] and your prostitution [carried] from the land of Egypt;[r] and you will not raise your eyes to them, and Egypt
you will remember no more.'

28 "For this is what the Sovereign
Lord Jehovah has said,
'Here I am giving you into the hand of those whom you have hated, into the hand of those from whom your soul has turned away disgusted.[s] 29 And they must take action against you in hatred and take away all your product of toil and leave you naked and nude;[a] and the nudeness of your acts of fornication and your loose conduct and your acts of prostitution must be uncovered.[b] 30 There will be a doing of these things to you because of your going like a prostitute after [the] nations,[c] on account of the fact that you defiled yourself with their dungy idols.[d] 31 In the way of your sister you have walked;[e] and I shall have to give her cup into your hand.'[f]

32 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'The cup of your sister you will drink, the deep and wide one.[g] You will become an object of laughter and derision, [the cup] containing much.[h] 33 With drunkenness and grief you will be filled, with the cup of astonishment and of desolation, the cup of your sister Sa·mar′i·a. 34 And you will have to drink it and drain [it] out,[i] and its earthenware fragments you will gnaw, and your breasts you will tear out.[j] "For I myself have spoken," is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.'

35 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'For the reason that you have forgotten me[k] and you proceeded to cast me behind your back,[l] then you yourself also bear your loose conduct and your acts of prostitution.'"

36 And Jehovah went on to say to me: "Son of man, will you judge[m] O·ho′lah and O·hol′i·bah[n] and tell them their detestable things?[o] 37 For they have committed adultery[p] and there is blood on their hands,[q] and with their dungy idols they have committed adultery.[r] And, besides that, their sons whom they had borne to me they made pass through [the fire] to them as food.[s] 38 What is more, this is what they have done to me: They have defiled[a] my sanctuary[b] in that day, and my sabbaths they have profaned.[c] 39 And when they had slaughtered their sons to their dungy idols[d] they even proceeded to come into my sanctuary on that day to profane it,[e] and, look! that is what they have done in the midst of my house.[f] 40 And in addition to that, when they began to send to the men coming from far away, to whom there was sent a messenger,[g] then, look! they came,[h] for whom you had washed yourself,[i] painted your eyes[j] and decked yourself with ornaments.[k] 41 And you sat down upon a glorious couch,[l] with a table set in order before it,[m] and my incense[n] and my oil you put upon it.[o] 42 And the sound of a crowd at ease was in her,[p] and to the men out of the mass of mankind there were drunkards[q] being brought in from the wilderness, and they proceeded to put bracelets on the hands of the women and beautiful crowns upon their heads.[r]

43 "Then I said respecting her who was worn out with adultery,[s] 'Now she will keep on committing her prostitution, even she herself.'[t] 44 And they kept on coming in to her, just as one comes in to a woman that is a prostitute; in that manner they came in to O·ho′lah and to O·hol′i·bah as women of loose conduct.[u] 45 But as regards righteous[v] men, they are the ones that will judge her with the judgment for adulteresses[w] and with the judgment for female shedders of blood;[x] for adulteresses are what they are, and there is blood on their hands.[y] of a congregation against them[a] and a making of them a frightful object and something to plunder.[b] 47 And the congregation must pelt them with stones,[c] and there will be a cutting of them down with their swords. Their sons and their daughters they will kill,[d] and with fire their houses they will burn.[e] 48 And I shall certainly cause loose conduct[f] to cease out of the land,[g] and all the women will have to let themselves be corrected, so that they will not do according to YOUR loose conduct.[h] 49 And they must bring YOUR loose conduct upon YOU,[i] and the sins of YOUR dungy idols YOU will bear; and YOU people will have to know that I am the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.'"[j]

24 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth [day] of the month, saying: 2 "Son of man, write down for yourself the name of the day, this selfsame day. The king of Babylon has thrown himself against Jerusalem on this selfsame day.[k] 3 And compose a proverbial saying concerning the rebellious house,[l] and you must say concerning them,

"'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Put the widemouthed cooking pot on; put [it] on, and also pour water into it.[m] 4 Gather pieces in it,[n] every good piece, thigh and shoulder; fill [it] even with the choicest bones. 5 Let there be a taking of the choicest sheep,[o] and also stack the logs in a circle under it. Boil its pieces, also cook its bones in the midst of it."'[p]

6 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Woe to the city of deeds of bloodshed,[q] the widemouthed cooking pot, the rust of which is in it, and the very rust of which has not gone forth from it! Piece by piece of it, bring it out;[a] no lot must be cast over it.[b] 7 For its very blood has come to be right in the midst of it.[c] Upon the shining, bare surface of a crag she placed it. She did not pour it out upon the earth, in order to cover it over with dust.[d] 8 In order to bring up rage for the executing of vengeance,[e] I have put her blood upon the shining, bare surface of a crag, in order that it may not be covered over.'[f]

9 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Woe to the city of deeds of bloodshed![g] I myself also shall make the pile great.[h] 10 Make the logs many. Kindle the fire. Boil the flesh thoroughly. And empty out the broth, and let the bones themselves become piping hot. 11 Stand it empty upon its coals in order that it may get hot; and its copper must become heated up, and its uncleanness must be liquefied in the midst of it.[i] Let its rust get consumed.[j] 12 Troubles! It has made [one] tired, but the great amount of its rust does not go forth from it.[k] Into [the] fire with its rust!'

13 "'There was loose conduct in your uncleanness.[l] For that reason I had to cleanse you, but you did not become clean from your uncleanness.[m] You will become clean no more until I cause my rage to come to its rest in your case.[n] 14 I myself, Jehovah, have spoken.[o] It must come,[p] and I will act. I shall not neglect,[q] neither shall I feel sorry[r] nor feel regret.[s] According to your ways and according to your dealings they will certainly judge you,'[t] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

15 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 16 "Son of man, here I am taking away from you the thing desirable[u] to your eyes

by a blow,[a] and you should not beat your breast, neither should you weep nor should your tears come on.[b] 17 Sigh without words. For the dead ones no mourning should you make.[c] Your headdress bind on yourself,[d] and your sandals you should put upon your feet.[e] And you should not cover over [the] mustache,[f] and the bread of men you should not eat."[g]

18 And I proceeded to speak to the people in the morning, and my wife gradually died in the evening. So I did in the morning just as I had been commanded. 19 And the people kept saying to me: "Will you not tell us what these things have to do with us, that you are doing?"[h] 20 Then I said to them: "The very word of Jehovah has occurred to me, saying, 21 'Say to the house of Israel: "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Here I am profaning my sanctuary,[i] the pride of YOUR strength,[j] the thing desirable to YOUR eyes[k] and the object of YOUR soul's compassion, and YOUR sons and YOUR daughters whom YOU people have left behind—by the sword they will fall.[l] 22 And YOU will have to do just as I have done. Mustaches YOU will not cover over,[m] and the bread of men YOU will not eat.[n] 23 And YOUR headdress will be on YOUR heads, and YOUR sandals be upon YOUR feet. YOU will not beat yourselves nor will YOU weep,[o] and YOU will have to rot away in YOUR errors,[p] and YOU will actually groan over one another.[q] 24 And Ezekiel has become for YOU a portent.[r] In accord with all that he has done, YOU will do. When it comes,[s] YOU will also have to know that I am the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.'"'"[t]

25 "And as for you, O son of man, will it not be in the day of my taking away from them their fortress, the beautiful object of their exultation, the thing desirable to their eyes[a] and the longing of their soul, their sons and their daughters,[b] that 26 in that day there will come to you the escaped one for making the ears hear?[c] 27 In that day your mouth will be opened to the escaped one,[d] and you will speak and be mute no longer;[e] and you will certainly become to them a portent,[f] and they will have to know that I am Jehovah."[g]

25 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, set your face toward the sons of Am'mon and prophesy against them.[h] 3 And you must say concerning the sons of Am'mon, 'Hear the word of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "For the reason that you have said Aha! against my sanctuary, because it has been profaned, and against the soil of Israel, because it has been laid desolate, and against the house of Judah, because they have gone into exile,[i] 4 therefore here I am giving you to the Orientals as something to possess,[j] and they will set up their walled camps in you and will certainly put in you their tabernacles. They themselves will eat your fruitage, and they themselves will drink your milk.[k] 5 And I will make Rab'bah[l] a pasture ground of camels and the sons of Am'mon a resting-place of a flock;[m] and YOU people will have to know that I am Jehovah."'"[n]

6 "For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'For the reason that you clapped the hands[o] and you stamped with the feet and you kept rejoicing with all scorn on your part in [your] soul against the soil of Israel,[p] 7 therefore here I am; I have stretched out my hand against you,[q] and I will give you as something to plunder to the nations; and I will cut you off from the peoples and destroy you from the lands.[a] I shall annihilate you,[b] and you will have to know that I am Jehovah.'

8 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'For the reason that Mo'ab[c] and Se'ir[d] have said: "Look! The house of Judah is like all the other nations,"[e] 9 therefore here I am opening the slope of Mo'ab at the cities, at his cities to his frontier, the decoration of [the] land, Beth-jesh'i·moth,[f] Ba'al-me'on,[g] even to Kir·i·a·tha'im,[h] 10 to the Orientals,[i] alongside the sons of Am'mon;[j] and I will make it something to possess, in order that it may not be remembered,[k] [that is,] the sons of Am'mon, among the nations. 11 And in Mo'ab I shall execute acts of judgment;[l] and they will have to know that I am Jehovah.'[m]

12 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'For the reason that E'dom has acted in taking vengeance upon the house of Judah and they kept doing wrong extensively and avenged themselves on them,[n] 13 therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "I will also stretch out my hand against E'dom[o] and cut off from it man and domestic animal,[p] and I will make it a devastated place from Te'man,[q] even to De'dan.[r] By the sword they will fall. 14 'And I will bring my vengeance on E'dom by the hand of my people Israel;[s] and they must do in E'dom according to my anger and according to my rage; and they will have to know what my vengeance is,'[t] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."'

15 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'For the reason that the Phi·lis'tines have acted with vengeance[u] and they kept avenging themselves with a vengeance with scorn in [the] soul, in order to cause ruin,[a] with an indefinitely lasting enmity,[b] 16 therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Here I am stretching out my hand against the Phi·lis'tines,[c] and I will cut off the Cher'e·thites[d] and destroy the rest of the seacoast.[e] 17 And I will execute in them great acts of vengeance, with raging reproofs;[f] and they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I bring my vengeance on them."'"[g]

26 And it came about in the eleventh year, on the first [day] of the month, that the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, for the reason that Tyre[h] has said against Jerusalem,[i] 'Aha! She has been broken,[j] the doors of the peoples![k] The trend will certainly be to me. I shall be filled—she has been devastated,'[l] 3 therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Here I am against you, O Tyre, and I will bring up against you many nations,[m] just as the sea brings up its waves.[n] 4 And they will certainly bring the walls of Tyre to ruin[o] and tear down her towers,[p] and I will scrape her dust away from her and make her a shining, bare surface of a crag. 5 A drying yard for dragnets[q] is what she will become in the midst of the sea.'[r]

"'For I myself have spoken,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'and she must become an object of plunder for the nations. 6 And her dependent towns that are in the field—by the sword they will be killed, and people will have to know that I am Jehovah.'[s]

7 "For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Here I am bringing against Tyre Neb·u·chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon from the north,[t] a king of kings,[u] with horses[v] and war chariots[a] and cavalrymen and a congregation,[b] even a multitudinous people. 8 Your dependent towns in the field he will kill even with the sword, and he must make against you a siege wall and throw up against you a siege rampart[c] and raise up against you a large shield; 9 and the strike of his attack engine he will direct against your walls, and your towers he will pull down, with his swords. 10 Owing to the heaving mass of his horses their dust will cover you.[d] Owing to the sound of cavalryman and wheel and war chariot your walls will rock, when he comes in through your gates, as in the cases of entering into a city opened by breaches. 11 With the hoofs of his horses he will trample down all your streets.[e] Your people he will kill even with the sword, and to the earth your own pillars of strength will go down. 12 And they will certainly spoil your resources[f] and plunder your sales goods,[g] and tear down your walls, and your desirable houses they will pull down. And your stones and your woodwork and your dust they will place in the very midst of the water.'

13 "'And I will cause the turmoil of your singing to cease,[h] and the very sound of your harps will be heard no more.[i] 14 And I will make you a shining, bare surface of a crag.[j] A drying yard for dragnets is what you will become.[k] Never will you be rebuilt; for I myself, Jehovah, have spoken,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.[l]

15 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said to Tyre, 'At the sound of your downfall, when the fatally wounded one groans, when there is a killing with slaughter in the midst of you, will not the islands rock?[m] 16 And down from their thrones[n] all the chieftains of the sea will certainly come[a] and remove their sleeveless coats, and they will strip off their own embroidered garments. They will put on trembling spells. Upon the earth they will sit down,[b] and they will certainly tremble every moment[c] and stare in amazement at you. 17 And they must raise up over you a dirge[d] and say to you:

"'"How you have perished, that used to be inhabited from the seas,[e] O praised city, who became a strong one in the sea,[f] she and those inhabiting her, those who gave their terror to all the inhabitants [of the earth]! 18 Now the islands will tremble in the day of your downfall. And the islands that are in the sea must be disturbed owing to your going out."'[g]

19 "For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'When I make you a devastated city, like the cities that are actually not inhabited, when [I] bring up over you the watery deep, and the vast waters will have covered you,[h] 20 I will also bring you down with those going down into the pit to the people of long ago,[i] and I will cause you to dwell in the lowest land,[j] like places devastated for a long time, with those going down into the pit,[k] in order that you may not be inhabited; and I will put decoration in the land of those alive.[l]

21 "'Sudden terrors are what I shall make you,[m] and you will not be; and you will be sought for,[n] but you will no more be found to time indefinite,'[o] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

27 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 "And as for you, O son of man, raise up concerning Tyre a dirge,[p] 3 and you must say to Tyre, at the entrances of [the] sea,[a] the tradeswoman of the peoples for many islands,[b] this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "O Tyre, you yourself have said, 'I am perfect in prettiness.'[c] 4 In the heart of [the] seas are your territories.[d] Your own builders have perfected your prettiness.[e] 5 Out of juniper timbers from Se'nir[f] they built for you all the planks. A cedar from Leb'a·non[g] they took to make a mast upon you. 6 Out of massive trees from Ba'shan they made your oars. Your prow they made with ivory in cypress wood, from the islands of Kit'tim.[h] 7 Linen in various colors from Egypt[i] your cloth expanse happened to be, in order for [it] to serve as your sail. Blue thread[j] and wool dyed reddish purple[k] from the islands of E·li'shah[l] are what your deck covering proved to be.

8 "'"The inhabitants of Si'don[m] and of Ar'vad[n] themselves became rowers for you. Your skilled ones,[o] O Tyre, happened to be in you; they were your sailors.[p] 9 Even old men of Ge'bal[q] and her skilled ones happened to be in you as caulkers for your seams.[r] All the ships of the sea and their mariners themselves proved to be in you, in order to exchange articles of merchandise. 10 Persians[s] and Lu'dim[t] and men of Put[u]—they happened to be in your military force, your men of war. Shield and helmet they hung up in you.[v] They were the ones that caused your splendor. 11 The sons of Ar'vad,[w] even your military force, were upon your walls all around, and valorous men were the ones that happened to be in your own towers. Their circular shields they hung up on your walls all around.[x] They themselves perfected your prettiness.

12 "'"Tar'shish[y] was your merchant because of the abundance of all sorts of valuable things.[a] For [its] silver, iron, tin and lead, your stores were given.[b] 13 Ja'van,[c] Tu'bal[d] and Me'shech[e] themselves were your traders. For the souls of mankind[f] and articles of copper your articles of exchange were given. 14 From the house of To·gar'mah[g] there were horses and steeds and mules, [for which] your stores were given. 15 The sons of De'dan[h] were your traders; many islands were merchants in your employ; horns of ivory[i] and ebony they have paid back as gift to you. 16 E'dom was your merchant because of the abundance of your works. For turquoise,[j] wool dyed reddish purple and material of various colors and fine fabric and corals and rubies, your stores were given in exchange.

17 "'"Judah and the land of Israel themselves were your traders. For the wheat[k] of Min'nith[l] and special foodstuff and honey[m] and oil and balsam,[n] your articles of exchange were given.[o]

18 "'"Damascus[p] was your merchant in the abundance of your works, because of the abundance of all your valuable things, with the wine[q] of Hel'bon and the wool of reddish gray. 19 Ve'dan and Ja'van from U'zal—for your stores they gave. Iron in wrought works, cassia and cane[r]—for your articles of exchange they proved to be. 20 De'dan[s] was your trader in garments of woven material for riding. 21 The Arabs[t] and all the chieftains of Ke'dar[u] themselves were merchants in your employ. In male lambs and rams and he-goats[v]—in them they were your merchants. 22 The traders of She'ba[w] and Ra'a·mah[x] themselves were your traders; for the finest of all sorts of perfumes and for all sorts of precious stones and gold, your stores were given.[a] 23 Ha'ran[b] and Can'neh and E'den,[c] the traders of She'ba,[d] As'shur[e] [and] Chil'mad were your traders. 24 They were your traders in gorgeous garments, in wraps of blue material and material of various colors and in carpets of two-colored stuff, in ropes twined and solidly made, in your trading center.

25 "'"The ships of Tar'shish[f] were your caravans for your articles of exchange, so that you get filled and become very glorious in the heart of the open sea.[g]

26 "'"Into vast waters those rowing you have brought you.[h] The east wind itself has broken you in the heart of the open sea.[i] 27 Your valuable things and your stores,[j] your articles of exchange,[k] your mariners and your sailors,[l] the caulkers of your seams[m] and those exchanging your articles of merchandise and all your men of war,[n] who are in you and in all your congregation, who are in the midst of you,—they will fall in the heart of the open sea in the day of your downfall.[o]

28 "'"At the sound of the outcry of your sailors the open country will rock.[p] 29 And all those handling an oar, mariners, all the sailors of the sea, will certainly go down from their ships; upon the land they will stand.[q] 30 And over you they will certainly let themselves be heard with their voice and will cry out bitterly.[r] And they will bring up dust upon their heads.[s] In the ashes they will wallow.[t] 31 And they will have to make [themselves] bald with a baldness for you,[u] and gird on sackcloth[v] and weep over you in bitterness of soul,[w] with bitter wailing. 32 And for you in their lamentation they will certainly lift up a dirge and chant over you,[x]

"'"'Who is like Tyre,[y] like her that has been brought to silence in the midst of the sea?[a] 33 When your stores[b] went forth from the open sea,[c] you satisfied many peoples.[d] With the abundance of your valuable things and your articles of exchange you made earth's kings rich.[e] 34 Now you have been broken by the open sea, in the depths of the waters.[f] As for your articles of exchange and all your congregation,[g] in the midst of you they have fallen. 35 All the inhabitants of the islands[h]—in amazement they will certainly stare at you, and their kings themselves will have to shudder in horror.[i] Faces must become perturbed.[j] 36 As for merchants among the peoples, they will certainly whistle over you.[k] Sudden terrors are what you must become, and you will be no more to time indefinite.'"'"[l]

28 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, say to the leader of Tyre, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said:

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth [month], on the twelfth [day] of the month, the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, set your face against Phar'aoh the king of Egypt[j] and prophesy against him and against Egypt in its entirety.[k] 3 Speak, and you must say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Here I am against you, O Phar'aoh, king of Egypt,[l] the great sea monster[m] lying stretched out in the midst of his Nile canals,[n] that has said, 'My Nile River belongs to me, and I—I have made [it] for myself.'[o] 4 And I will put hooks in your jaws[p] and cause the fish of your Nile canals to cling to your scales. And I will bring you up out of the midst of your Nile canals and all the fish of your Nile canals that cling to your very scales. 5 And I will abandon you to the wilderness, you and all the fish of your Nile canals.[q] Upon the surface of the field you will fall.[r] You will not be gathered up nor be collected together. To the wild beasts of the earth and to the flying creatures of the heavens I will give you for food.[a] 6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt will have to know that I am Jehovah,[b] for the reason that they proved to be, as a support, a reed to the house of Israel.[c] 7 When they took hold of you by the hand, you got to be crushed,[d] and you caused a split in their entire shoulder. And when they supported themselves upon you, you got to be broken,[e] and you caused all their hips to wobble."[f]

8 "'Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Here I am bringing upon you a sword,[g] and I will cut off from you earthling man and domestic animal.[h] 9 And the land of Egypt must become a desolate waste and a devastated place;[i] and they will have to know that I am Jehovah, for the reason that he has said, 'To me the Nile River belongs, and I myself have made [it].'[j] 10 Therefore here I am against you and against your Nile canals,[k] and I will make the land of Egypt devastated places, dryness, a desolated waste,[l] from Mig'dol[m] to Sy·e'ne[n] and to the boundary of E·thi·o'pi·a. 11 There will not pass through it the foot of earthling man,[o] nor will the foot of domestic animal pass through it,[p] and for forty years it will not be inhabited.[q] 12 And I will make the land of Egypt a desolate waste in the midst of desolated lands;[r] and its own cities will become a desolate waste in the very midst of devastated cities for forty years;[s] and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the lands."[t]

been scattered,[a] 14 and I will bring back the captive group of the Egyptians; and I will bring them back to the land of Path'ros,[b] to the land of their origin, and there they must become a lowly kingdom. 15 Lower than the [other] kingdoms it will become, and it will no more lift itself up over the [other] nations,[c] and I will make them so few as not to have the [other] nations in subjection.[d] 16 And it will no more prove to be the house of Israel's confidence,[e] bringing error to remembrance by their turning after them.[f] And they will have to know that I am the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."'"

17 Now it came about in the twenty-seventh year, in the first [month], on the first [day] of the month, that the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: 18 "Son of man, Neb·u·chad·rez'zar himself,[g] the king of Babylon, made his military force perform a great service against Tyre.[h] Every head was one made bald, and every shoulder was one rubbed bare.[i] But as for wages,[j] there proved to be none for him and his military force from Tyre for the service that he had performed against her.

19 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Here I am giving to Neb·u·chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon the land of Egypt,[k] and he must carry off its wealth and make a big spoil of it[l] and do a great deal of plundering of it; and it must become wages for his military force.'

20 "'As his compensation for service that he did against her I have given him the land of Egypt, because they acted for me,'[m] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

21 "In that day I shall cause a horn to sprout for the house of Israel,[n] and to you I shall give occasion to open the mouth in the midst of them;[a] and they will have to know that I am Jehovah."

30 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, prophesy, and you must say,[b] 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Howl, you people, 'Alas for the day!'[c] 3 for a day is near, yes, a day belonging to Jehovah is near.[d] A day of clouds,[e] an appointed time of nations it will prove to be.[f] 4 And a sword will certainly come into Egypt,[g] and severe pains must occur in E·thi·o'pi·a when one falls slain in Egypt and they actually take its wealth and its foundations are actually torn down.[h] 5 E·thi·o'pi·a[i] and Put[j] and Lud and all the mixed company[k] and Chub and the sons of the land of the covenant—with them they will fall by the very sword."'[l]

6 "This is what Jehovah has said, 'The supporters of Egypt must also fall, and the pride of its strength must come down.'[m]

"'From Mig'dol[n] to Sy·e'ne[o] they will fall in it even by the sword,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. 7 'They must also be made desolate in the midst of desolated lands, and its own cities will come to be right in the midst of devastated cities.[p] 8 And they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I set a fire in Egypt and all its helpers are actually broken.[q] 9 In that day messengers will go forth from before me in the ships, in order to drive self-confident E·thi·o'pi·a into trembling.[r] And severe pains must occur among them in the day of Egypt, for, look! it must come.'[s]

10 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'I will also cause the crowd of Egypt to cease by the hand of Neb·u·chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon.[t] 11 He and his people with him, the tyrants of [the] nations,[a] are being brought in to reduce the land to ruin. And they must draw their swords against Egypt and fill the land with the slain.[b] 12 And I will make the Nile canals[c] dry ground and will sell the land into the hand of bad men,[d] and I will cause the land and its fullness to be desolated by the hand of strangers.[e] I myself, Jehovah, have spoken.'[f]

13 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'I will also destroy the dungy idols[g] and cause the valueless gods to cease out of Noph,[h] and there will no more prove to be a chieftain out of the land of Egypt; and I shall certainly put fear in the land of Egypt.[i] 14 And I will bring Path′ros[j] to desolation and set a fire in Zo′an[k] and execute acts of judgment in No.[l] 15 And I will pour out my rage[m] upon Sin, the fortress of Egypt, and cut off the crowd of No.[n] 16 And I will set a fire in Egypt. Sin will without fail be in severe pains, and No itself will come to be for capture by breaches; and as regards Noph—there will be adversaries during the daytime! 17 As for the young men of On[o] and Pi-be′seth, by the sword they will fall, and into captivity the [cities] themselves will go. 18 And in Te·haph′ne·hes[p] the day will actually grow dark, when I break there the yoke bars of Egypt.[q] And in her the pride of her strength will actually be made to cease.[r] As for her, clouds themselves will cover her,[s] and into captivity her own dependent towns will go.[t] 19 And I will execute acts of judgment in Egypt;[u] and they will have to know that I am Jehovah.'"

20 And it occurred further that in the eleventh year, in the first [month], on the seventh [day] of the month, the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: 21 "Son of man, the arm of Phar′aoh the king of Egypt I shall certainly break,[a] and, look! it will not be bound up at all in order to give [it] healing by putting a bandage on for binding it up,[b] for it to become strong to take hold of the sword."

22 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Here I am against Phar′aoh the king of Egypt,[c] and I will break his arms,[d] the strong one and the broken one,[e] and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.[f] 23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the lands.[g] 24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon[h] and give my sword into his hand,[i] and I will break the arms of Phar′aoh, and as a deadly wounded one he will certainly do a great deal of groaning before him.[j] 25 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the very arms of Phar′aoh will fall; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I give my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he actually extends it out against the land of Egypt.[k] 26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations[l] and disperse them among the lands; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah.'"

31 And it occurred further that in the eleventh year, in the third [month], on the first [day] of the month, the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, say to Phar′aoh the king of Egypt and to his crowd,[m]

"'Whom have you come to resemble in your greatness? 3 Look! An As·syr′i·an, a cedar in Leb′a·non,[n] pretty in bough,[o] with a woody thicket offering shadow, and high in stature,[p] so that among the clouds its treetop proved to be.[q] 4 Waters were what made it get big;[r] the watery deep caused it to grow high. With its streams it was going all around its planting place; and its channels it sent forth to all the trees of the field. 5 That is why it grew higher in its stature than all the [other] trees of the field.[a]

"'And its boughs kept multiplying, and its branches continued getting longer because of much water in its watercourses.[b] 6 On its boughs all the flying creatures of the heavens made their nests,[c] and under its branches all the wild beasts of the field gave birth,[d] and in its shade all the populous nations would dwell. 7 And it came to be pretty in its greatness,[e] in the length of its foliage, for its root system proved to be over many waters. 8 [Other] cedars were no match for it in the garden of God.[f] As for juniper trees, they bore no resemblance as respects its boughs. And plane trees themselves did not prove to be like it in branches. No [other] tree in the garden of God resembled it in its prettiness.[g] 9 Pretty is the way that I made it in the abundance of its foliage,[h] and all the [other] trees of E′den that were in the garden of the [true] God kept envying it.'[i]

10 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'For the reason that you became high in stature, so that it put its treetop even among the clouds[j] and its heart became exalted because of its height,[k] 11 I shall also give it into the hand of the despot of [the] nations.[l] Without fail he will act against it. According to its wickedness I will drive it out.[m] 12 And strangers, the tyrants of [the] nations, will cut it down, and people will abandon it upon the mountains; and in all the valleys its foliage will certainly fall, and its branches will be broken among all the streambeds of the earth.[n] And out from its shade all the peoples of the earth will come down and abandon it.[a] 13 Upon its fallen trunk all the flying creatures of the heavens will reside, and upon its branches there will certainly come to be all the wild beasts of the field;[b] 14 to the end that none of the watered trees may become high in their stature, or put their treetops even among the clouds, and that none drinking water may stand up against them in their height, for they will certainly all of them be given to death,[c] to the land down below,[d] in the midst of the sons of mankind, to those going down into the pit.'

15 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'On the day of its going down to She′ol I shall certainly cause a mourning.[e] On its account I will cover the watery deep, that I may hold back its streams and [that] the many waters may be restrained; and on its account I shall darken Leb′a·non, and on its account the trees of the field will all swoon away. 16 At the sound of its downfall I shall certainly cause nations to rock when I bring it down to She′ol with those going down into the pit,[f] and in the land down below all the trees of E′den,[g] the choicest and the best of Leb′a·non, all those drinking water, will be comforted.[h] 17 With him they themselves also have gone down to She′ol,[i] to those slain by the sword, and those who as his seed have dwelt in his shadow in the midst of nations.'[j]

18 "'Whom have you come to resemble thus in glory[k] and greatness among the trees of E′den?[l] But you will certainly be brought down with the trees of E′den to the land down below.[m] In the midst of the uncircumcised ones you will lie down with those slain by the sword. This is Phar′aoh and all

32 And it occurred further that in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first [day] of the month, the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, lift up a dirge concerning Phar'aoh the king of Egypt, and you must say to him, 'As a maned young lion of nations you have been silenced.[a]

3 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'I will also spread over you my net[c] by means of a congregation of many peoples, and they will certainly bring you in my dragnet.[d] 4 And I must abandon you on the land. Upon the surface of the field I shall hurl you.[e] And on you I will cause all the flying creatures of the heavens to reside, and off you I will satisfy the wild beasts of the whole earth.[f] 5 And I will put your flesh upon the mountains and fill the valleys with the refuse of you.[g] 6 And I will cause [the] land to drink up your discharged matter, from your blood,[h] upon the mountains; and streambeds themselves will be filled up from you.'

7 "'And when you get extinguished I will cover [the] heavens and darken their stars. As for [the] sun, with clouds I shall cover it, and [the] moon itself will not let its light shine.[i] 8 All the luminaries of light in the heavens—I shall darken them on your account, and I will put darkness upon your land,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

9 "'And I will offend the heart of many peoples when I bring the captives from you among the nations to lands that you have not known.[a] 10 And at you I shall certainly cause many peoples to be awestruck,[b] and their kings themselves will shudder in horror at you when I brandish my sword in their faces,[c] and they will have to tremble every moment, each one for his own soul, on the day of your downfall.'[d]

11 "For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'The very sword of the king of Babylon will come upon you.[e] 12 I shall cause your crowd to fall by the very swords of mighty ones, the tyrants of [the] nations, all of them;[f] and they will actually despoil the pride of Egypt, and all her crowd must be annihilated.[g] 13 And I will destroy all her domestic animals from beside many waters,[h] and the foot of earthling man will no more muddy[i] them, nor will even the hoofs of a domestic animal muddy them.'

14 "'At that time I shall make their waters clear up, and their rivers I shall make go just like oil,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

15 "'When I make the land of Egypt a desolate waste and the land is desolated of its fullness,[j] when I strike down all the inhabitants in it, they will also have to know that I am Jehovah.[k]

16 "This is a dirge, and people will certainly chant it. Even the daughters of the nations will chant it; over Egypt and over all its crowd they will chant it,'[l] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

17 And it occurred further that in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth [day] of the month, the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: 18 "Son of man, lament over the crowd of Egypt and bring it down,[m] her and the daughters of majestic nations, to the land down below,[n] with

And they will put their swords under their heads, and their errors will come to be upon their bones,[b] because mighty ones were a terror in the land of those alive.[c] 28 And as for you, in the midst of uncircumcised ones you will be broken, and you will lie down with those slain by the sword.

29 "'There is where E'dom,[d] her kings and all her chieftains are, who, in their mightiness, were put with those slain by the sword;[e] they themselves will lie down even with the uncircumcised[f] ones and with those going down into [the] pit.

6 "'Now as regards the watchman, in case he sees the sword coming and he actually does not blow the horn[g] and the people itself gets no warning at all and a sword comes and takes away from them soul, for its own error it itself must be taken away,[h] but its blood I shall ask back from the hand of the watchman himself.'[i]

7 "Now as regards you, O son of man, a watchman is what I have made you to the house of Israel,[j] and at my mouth you must hear [the] word and give them warning from me.[k] 8 When I say to someone wicked, 'O wicked one, you will positively die!'[l] but you actually do not speak out to warn the wicked one from his way,[m] he himself as a wicked one will die in his own error,[n] but his blood I shall ask back at your own hand. 9 But as regards you, in case you actually warn someone wicked from his way [for him] to turn back from it but he actually does not turn back from his way, he himself will die in his own error,[o] whereas you yourself will certainly deliver your own soul.[p]

17 "And the sons of your people have said, 'The way of Jehovah is not adjusted right,'[a] but, as for them, it is their way that is not adjusted right.

18 "When someone righteous turns back from his righteousness and actually does injustice, he must also die for them.[b] 19 And when someone wicked turns back from his wickedness and actually carries on justice and righteousness, it will be on account of them that he himself will keep living.[c]

20 "And YOU people have said, 'The way of Jehovah is not adjusted right.'[d] It will be each one according to his ways that I shall judge YOU,[e] O house of Israel."

21 At length it occurred in the twelfth year, in the tenth [month], on the fifth day of the month of our exile, that there came to me the escaped one from Jerusalem,[f] saying: "The city has been struck down!"[g]

22 Now the very hand of Jehovah had come to be upon me in the evening before the coming of the escaped one,[h] and He proceeded to open my mouth prior to [that one's] coming to me in the morning, and my mouth was opened and I proved to be speechless no longer.[i]

23 And the word of Jehovah began to occur to me, saying: 24 "Son of man, the inhabitants of these devastated places[j] are saying even concerning the soil of Israel, 'Abraham happened to be just one and yet he took possession of the land.[k] And we are many; to us the land has been given as something to possess.'[l]

25 "Therefore say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "With the blood YOU keep eating,[m] and YOUR eyes YOU keep lifting to YOUR dungy idols,[n] and blood YOU keep pouring out.[o] So should YOU possess the land?[p] 26 YOU have depended upon YOUR sword.[a] YOU have done a detestable thing,[b] and YOU have defiled each one the wife of his companion.[c] So should YOU possess the land?"'[d]

27 "This is what you should say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "As I am alive, surely the ones who are in the devastated places will fall by the sword itself;[e] and the one who is upon the surface of the field, to the wild beast I shall certainly give him for food;[f] and those who are in the strong places and in the caves[g] will die by the pestilence itself. 28 And I shall actually make the land a desolate waste,[h] even a desolation, and the pride of its strength must be made to cease[i] and the mountains of Israel must be laid desolate,[j] with no one passing through. 29 And they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I make the land a desolate waste,[k] even a desolation, on account of all their detestable things that they have done."'[l]

30 "And as for you, O son of man, the sons of your people are speaking with one another about you beside the walls and in the entrances of the houses,[m] and the one has spoken with the other, each one with his brother, saying, 'COME, please, and hear what the word is that is going forth from Jehovah.'[n] 31 And they will come in to you, like the coming in of people, and sit before you as my people;[o] and they will certainly hear your words but these they will not do,[p] for with their mouth they are expressing lustful desires [and] after their unjust gain is where their heart is going.[q] 32 And, look! you are to them like a song of sensuous loves, like one with a pretty voice and playing a stringed instrument well.[r] And they will certainly hear your words, but there are none doing them.[a] 33 And when it comes true—look! it must come true[b]—they will also have to know that a prophet himself had proved to be in the midst of them.”[c]

34 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 “Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy, and you must say to them, to the shepherds, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Woe to the shepherds of Israel,[d] who have become feeders of themselves![e] Is it not the flock that the shepherds ought to feed?[f] 3 The fat is what YOU eat,[g] and with the wool YOU clothe your own selves. The plump[h] animal is what YOU slaughter.[i] The flock itself YOU do not feed. 4 The sickened ones YOU have not strengthened,[j] and the ailing one YOU have not healed, and the broken one YOU have not bandaged, and the dispersed one YOU have not brought back, and the lost one YOU have not sought to find,[k] but with harshness YOU have had them in subjection, even with tyranny.[l] 5 And they were gradually scattered because of there being no shepherd,[m] so that they became food for every wild beast of the field, and they continued to be scattered.[n] 6 My sheep kept straying on all the mountains and on every high hill;[o] and on all the surface of the earth my sheep[p] were scattered, with no one making a search and with no one seeking to find.

7 “‘Therefore, YOU shepherds, hear the word of Jehovah, 8 ‘“As I am alive,” is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, “surely for the reason that my sheep became something for plunder and my sheep continued to be food for every wild beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, and my shepherds did not search for my sheep, but the shepherds kept feeding themselves,[a] and my own sheep they did not feed,”’ 9 therefore, YOU shepherds, hear the word of Jehovah. 10 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am against the shepherds,[b] and I shall certainly ask back my sheep from their hand and make them cease from feeding [my] sheep,[c] and the shepherds will no longer feed themselves;[d] and I will deliver my sheep out of their mouth, and they will not become food for them.’”[e]

11 “‘For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am, I myself, and I will search for my sheep and care for them.[f] 12 According to the care of one feeding his drove[g] in the day of his coming to be in the midst of his sheep that have been spread abroad,[h] that is the way that I shall care for my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all the places to which they have been scattered in the day of clouds and thick gloom.[i] 13 And I will bring them out[j] from the peoples and collect them together from the lands and bring them in onto their soil[k] and feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the streambeds and by all the dwelling places of the land.[l] 14 In a good pasturage I shall feed them, and on Israel's high mountains their abiding place will come to be.[m] There they will lie down in a good abiding place,[n] and on a fat pasturage they will feed upon the mountains of Israel.”

15 “‘“I myself shall feed my sheep,[o] and I myself shall make them lie down,”[p] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. 16 “The lost one I shall search for,[q] and the dispersed one I shall bring back, and the broken one I shall bandage and the ailing one I shall strengthen, but the fat one[a] and the strong one I shall annihilate. I shall feed that one with judgment.”[b]

17 “‘And as for YOU my sheep, this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am judging between a sheep and a sheep, between the rams and the he-goats.[c] 18 Is it such a little thing for YOU men that on the very best pasturage YOU feed[d] but the rest of YOUR pasturages YOU should trample down with YOUR feet, and that the clear waters YOU drink but the ones left over YOU should foul by stamping with YOUR very feet? 19 And as for my sheep, on the pasture ground trampled by YOUR feet should they feed and the water befouled by the stamping of YOUR feet should they drink?”

20 “‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said to them: “Here I am, I myself, and I shall certainly judge between a plump sheep and a lean sheep, 21 for the reason that with flank and with shoulder YOU kept pushing and with YOUR horns YOU kept shoving all the sickened ones until YOU had scattered them to the outside.[e] 22 And I will save my sheep, and they will no longer become something for plunder;[f] and I will judge between a sheep and a sheep. 23 And I will raise up over them one shepherd,[g] and he must feed them, even my servant David.[h] He himself will feed them, and he himself will become their shepherd.[i] 24 And I myself, Jehovah, will become their God,[j] and my servant David a chieftain in the midst of them.[k] I myself, Jehovah, have spoken.

25 “‘“And I will conclude with them a covenant of peace,[l] and I shall certainly cause the injurious wild beast to cease out of the land,[m] and they will actually dwell in the wilderness in security and sleep in the forests.[a] 26 And I will make them and the surroundings of my hill a blessing,[b] and I will cause the pouring rain to descend in its time. Pouring rains of blessing there will prove to be.[c] 27 And the tree of the field must give its fruitage,[d] and the land itself will give its yield,[e] and they will actually prove to be on their soil in security.[f] And they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I break the bars of their yoke[g] and I have delivered them out of the hand of those who had been using them as slaves.[h] 28 And they will no longer become something to plunder for the nations;[i] and as regards the wild beast of the earth, it will not devour them, and they will actually dwell in security, with no one to make [them] tremble.[j]

29 “‘“And I will raise up for them a planting for a name,[k] and they will no more become those taken away by famine in the land,[l] and they will no longer bear the humiliation by the nations.[m] 30 ‘And they will have to know that I, Jehovah their God, am with them[n] and that they are my people, the house of Israel,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”’[o]

31 “‘And as regards YOU my sheep,[p] the sheep of my pasturing, YOU are earthling men. I am YOUR God,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

35 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 “Son of man, set your face[q] against the mountainous region of Se'ir[r] and prophesy against it.[s] 3 And you must say to it, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am against you, O mountainous region of Se'ir,[t] and I will stretch out my hand against you[a] and make you a desolate waste, even a desolation.[b] 4 Your cities I shall set as a devastated place, and you yourself will become a sheer desolate waste;[c] and you will have to know that I am Jehovah,[d] 5 for the reason that you proved to have an indefinitely lasting enmity[e] and you kept delivering the sons of Israel over to the power of the sword,[f] in the time of their disaster,[g] in the time of [their] final error."'[h]

6 "'Therefore as I am alive,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'because it was for blood that I was preparing you, blood itself will also pursue you.[i] Surely it was blood that you hated, and blood itself will pursue you.[j] 7 And I shall certainly make the mountainous region of Se'ir a desolate waste, even a desolation,[k] and I will cut off from it the one passing through and the one returning.[l] 8 And I will fill its mountains with its slain ones; as for your hills and your valleys and all your streambeds, the very ones slain by [the] sword will fall in them.[m] 9 Indefinitely lasting desolate wastes are what I shall make you, and your own cities will not be inhabited;[n] and YOU people will have to know that I am Jehovah.'[o]

10 "By reason of your saying, 'These two nations and these two lands—they will become my own, and we shall certainly take possession of each [land],'[p] whereas Jehovah himself happened to be right there,[q] 11 'therefore as I am alive,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'I will act also according to your anger and according to your jealousy that you have expressed owing to your feelings of hatred toward them;[r] and I will make myself known among them when I judge you.[s] 12 And you will have to know that I myself, Jehovah, have heard all your disrespectful things that you have said concerning the mountains of Israel,[a] saying: "They have been laid desolate. To us they have been given for food."[b] 13 And YOU people kept acting in great style against me with YOUR mouths,[c] and YOU have multiplied against me YOUR words.[d] I myself have heard [them].'[e]

14 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'At the same time that all the earth rejoices, a desolate waste is what I shall make of you. 15 Just as there was rejoicing on your part at the inheritance of the house of Israel because it was laid desolate, the same thing I shall make of you.[f] A desolate waste is what you will become, O mountainous region of Se'ir, even all E'dom, all of it;[g] and they will have to know that I am Jehovah.'"[h]

"And as for you, O son of man, prophesy concerning the mountains of Israel, and you must say, 'O mountains of Israel,[i] hear the word of Jehovah. 2 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "For the reason that the enemy has said against YOU,[j] 'Aha! Even the high places of old time[k]—as a possession it has become ours!'"'[l]

3 "Therefore prophesy, and you must say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "For the reason, even for the reason that there has been a lying desolate[m] and a snapping at YOU from all sides,[n] in order for YOU to become a possession to the remaining ones of the nations[o] and YOU continue being talked about with the tongue[p] and there is a bad report among people,[q] 4 therefore, O mountains of Israel,[r] hear the word of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah! This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said to the mountains and to the hills, to the streambeds and to the valleys and to the devastated places that were laid desolate[a] and to the abandoned cities that have come to be for plunder and for ridicule to the remaining ones of the nations that are round about;[b] 5 therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Certainly in the fire of my zeal I will speak[c] against the remaining ones of the nations and against E'dom, all of it,[d] those who have given my land to themselves as a possession with the rejoicing of all the heart,[e] with scorn in [the] soul,[f] for the sake of its pasture ground [and] for the plunder.'"'[g]

6 "Therefore prophesy concerning the soil of Israel, and you must say to the mountains and to the hills, to the streambeds and to the valleys, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Look! I myself in my zeal and in my rage must speak, for the reason that humiliation by nations is what YOU have borne."'[h]

7 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'I myself have raised my hand [in an oath][i] that the nations that YOU have round about—they themselves will bear their own humiliation.[j] 8 And YOU yourselves, O mountains of Israel, will give forth YOUR very own boughs and bear YOUR own fruitage for my people Israel,[k] for they have drawn near to the point of coming in.[l] 9 For here I am in favor of YOU, and I shall certainly turn toward YOU,[m] and YOU will actually be cultivated and sown with seed.[n] 10 And I will multiply upon YOU humankind, the whole house of Israel, all of it,[o] and the cities must become inhabited,[p] and the devastated places themselves will be rebuilt.[q] 11 Yes, I will multiply upon YOU humankind and animalkind,[a] and they will certainly multiply and become fruitful, and I shall actually cause YOU to be inhabited as in YOUR former condition[b] and I will do more good than in YOUR initial state;[c] and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah.[d] 12 And upon YOU I will cause humankind to walk, even my people Israel, and they must take possession of YOU,[e] and YOU must become a hereditary possession to them,[f] and YOU will not bereave[g] them again of any more children.'"

13 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'For the reason that there are those saying to YOU: "A devourer of humankind is what you yourself are, and [a land] bereaving your nations of children is what you have become,"'[h] 14 'therefore humankind you will no more devour,[i] and your nations you will no more bereave of children,'[j] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. 15 'And I shall cause no further humiliating talk by the nations to be heard concerning you,[k] and reproach by peoples you will bear no more,[l] and your nations you will no more cause to stumble,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

16 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 17 "Son of man, the house of Israel [were] dwelling upon their soil, and they kept making it unclean with their way and with their dealings.[m] Like the uncleanness of menstruation their way has become before me.[n] 18 And I proceeded to pour out my rage upon them on account of the blood that they had poured out upon the land,[o] which [land] they had made unclean with their dungy idols.[p] 19 And I proceeded to scatter them among the nations, so that they were dispersed among the lands.[a] According to their way and according to their dealings I judged them.[b] 20 So they came in to the nations where they came in, and people proceeded to profane my holy name[c] in saying with reference to them, 'These are the people of Jehovah, and from his land they have gone out.'[d] 21 And I shall have compassion on my holy name, which the house of Israel have profaned among the nations where they have come in."[e]

22 "Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Not for YOUR sakes am I doing [it], O house of Israel, but for my holy name, which YOU have profaned among the nations where YOU have come in."'[f] 23 'And I shall certainly sanctify my great name,[g] which was being profaned among the nations, which YOU profaned in the midst of them; and the nations will have to know that I am Jehovah,'[h] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'when I am sanctified among YOU before their eyes.[i] 24 And I will take YOU out of the nations and collect YOU together out of all the lands and bring YOU in upon YOUR soil.[j] 25 And I will sprinkle upon YOU clean water, and YOU will become clean;[k] from all YOUR impurities[l] and from all YOUR dungy idols I shall cleanse YOU.[m] 26 And I will give YOU a new heart,[n] and a new spirit I shall put inside YOU,[o] and I will take away the heart of stone from YOUR flesh and give YOU a heart of flesh.[p] 27 And my spirit I shall put inside YOU,[q] and I will act so that in my regulations YOU will walk,[r] and my judicial decisions YOU will keep and actually carry out.[s] 28 And YOU will certainly dwell in the land that I gave to YOUR forefathers,[t] and YOU must become my people and I myself shall become YOUR God.'[a]

29 "'And I will save YOU from all YOUR impurities[b] and call to the grain and make it abound, and I shall put upon YOU no famine.[c] 30 And I shall certainly make the fruitage of the tree abound, and the produce of the field, in order that YOU may no more receive among the nations the reproach of famine.[d] 31 And YOU will be bound to remember YOUR bad ways and YOUR dealings that were not good,[e] and YOU will be bound to feel a loathing at YOUR own person on account of YOUR errors and on account of YOUR detestable things.[f] 32 Not for YOUR sakes am I doing [this],'[g] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'let it be known to YOU. of Israel to do for them:[a] I shall multiply them like a flock with men.[b] 38 Like a flock of holy persons, like the flock of Jerusalem in her festal seasons,[c] thus the cities that had been a waste will become full of a flock of men;[d] and people will have to know that I am Jehovah.'"

37 The hand of Jehovah proved to be upon me,[e] so that he brought me forth in the spirit of Jehovah[f] and set me down in the midst of the valley plain, and it was full of bones.[g] 2 And he had me pass along by them all round about, and, look! there were very many on the surface of the valley plain and, look! they were very dry.[h] 3 And he began to say to me: "Son of man, can these bones come to life?" To that I said: "Sovereign Lord Jehovah, you yourself well know."[i] 4 And he went on to say to me: "Prophesy over these bones, and you must say to them, 'O YOU dry bones, hear the word of Jehovah:

5 "'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said to these bones: "Here I am bringing into YOU breath, and YOU must come to life.[j] 6 And I will put upon YOU sinews and cause to come upon YOU flesh, and I will overlay upon YOU skin and put in YOU breath, and YOU must come to life;[k] and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah."'"[l]

7 And I prophesied just as I had been commanded.[m] And a sound began to occur as soon as I prophesied, and here there was a rattling, and bones began to approach, bone to its bone. 8 And I saw, and, look! upon them sinews themselves and flesh itself came up and skin began to be overlaid upon them above. But as regards breath, there was none in them.

9 And he went on saying to me: "Prophesy to the wind. Prophesy, O son of man, and you must say to the wind, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "From the four winds come in, O wind, and blow upon these killed[a] people, that they may come to life."'"[b]

10 And I prophesied just as he had commanded me, and the breath proceeded to come into them, and they began to live and stand upon their feet,[c] a very, very great military force.

11 And he went on to say to me: "Son of man, as regards these bones, they are the whole house of Israel.[d] Here they are saying, 'Our bones have become dry, and our hope has perished.[e] We have been severed off to ourselves.' 12 Therefore prophesy, and you must say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Here I am opening YOUR burial places,[f] and I will bring YOU up out of YOUR burial places, O my people, and bring YOU in upon the soil of Israel.[g] 13 And YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah when I open YOUR burial places and when I bring YOU up out of YOUR burial places, O my people."'[h] 14 'And I will put my spirit in YOU, and YOU must come to life,[i] and I will settle YOU upon YOUR soil; and YOU will have to know that I myself, Jehovah, have spoken and I have done [it],' is the utterance of Jehovah."[j]

15 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 16 "And as for you, O son of man, take for yourself a stick[k] and write upon it, 'For Judah and for the sons of Israel his partners.'[l] And take another stick and write upon it, 'For Joseph, the stick of E'phraim,[m] and all the house of Israel his partners.'[n] 17 And cause them to approach each other into one stick for yourself, and they will actually become just one in your hand.[o] 18 And when the sons of your people begin to say to you, 'Will you

21 "And speak to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Here I am taking the sons of Israel from among the nations to which they have gone, and I will collect them together from round about and bring them onto their soil.[d] 22 And I shall actually make them one nation in the land,[e] on the mountains of Israel, and one king is what all of them will come to have as king,[f] and they will no longer continue to be two nations, nor will they be divided any longer into two kingdoms.[g] 23 And they will no longer defile themselves with their dungy idols and with their disgusting things and with all their transgressions;[h] and I shall certainly save them from all their dwelling places in which they have sinned, and I will cleanse them,[i] and they must become my people, and I myself shall become their God.[j]

26 "'"And I will conclude with them a covenant of peace;[c] an indefinitely lasting covenant is what there will come to be with them.[d] And I will place them and multiply them[e] and place my sanctuary in the midst of them to time indefinite.[f] 27 And my tabernacle will actually prove to be over them,[g] and I shall certainly become their God, and they themselves will become my people.[h] 28 And the nations will have to know that I, Jehovah,[i] am sanctifying Israel when my sanctuary comes to be in the midst of them to time indefinite."'"[j]

38 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 "Son of man,[k] set your face against Gog [of] the land of Ma'gog,[l] the head chieftain of Me'shech[m] and Tu'bal,[n] and prophesy against him. 3 And you must say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Here I am against you, O Gog, you head chieftain of Me'shech and Tu'bal. 4 And I shall certainly turn you around and put hooks in your jaws[o] and bring you forth with all your military force,[p] horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in perfect taste,[q] a numerous congregation, with large shield and buckler, all of them handling swords;[r] 5 Persia,[s] E·thi'o·pi·a[t] and Put[u] with them, all of them with buckler and helmet; 6 Go'mer[v] and all its bands, the house of To·gar'mah,[w] [of] the remotest parts of the north, and all its bands, many peoples with you.[x] side you, and you must become their guard.

8 "'"After many days you will be given attention. In the final part of the years you will come to the land[a] [of people] brought back from the sword, collected together out of many peoples,[b] onto the mountains of Israel, that have proved to be a constantly devastated place; even [a land] that has been brought forth from the peoples, [where] they have dwelt in security, all of them.[c] 9 And you will be bound to come up. Like a storm you will come in.[d] Like clouds to cover the land you will become,[e] you and all your bands and many peoples with you."'

10 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'And it must occur in that day that things will come up into your heart,[f] and you will certainly think up an injurious scheme;[g] 11 and you must say: "I shall go up against the land of open rural country.[h] I shall come in upon those having no disturbance, dwelling in security, all of them dwelling without wall,[i] and they do not have even bar and doors." 12 It will be to get a big spoil[j] and to do much plundering, in order to turn your hand back upon devastated places reinhabited[k] and upon a people gathered together out of the nations,[l] [one] that is accumulating wealth and property,[m] [those] who are dwelling in the center[n] of the earth.

13 "'She'ba[o] and De'dan[p] and the merchants of Tar'shish[q] and all its maned young lions[r]—they will say to you: "Is it to get a big spoil that you are coming in? Is it to do much plundering that you have congregated your congregation, in order to carry off silver and gold, to take wealth and property, to get a very great spoil?"'

14 "Therefore prophesy, O son of man, and you must say to Gog, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Will it not be in that day when my people Israel are dwelling in security that you will know [it]?[a] 15 And you will certainly come from your place, from the remotest parts of the north,[b] you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great congregation, even a numerous military force.[c] 16 And you will be bound to come up against my people Israel, like clouds to cover the land.[d] In the final part of the days it will occur, and I shall certainly bring you against my land,[e] for the purpose that the nations may know me when I sanctify myself in you before their eyes, O Gog."'[f]

17 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Are you the same one of whom I spoke in the former days by the hand of my servants the prophets of Israel, who were prophesying in those days—years—as to bringing you in upon them?'

18 "'And it must occur in that day, in the day when Gog comes in upon the soil of Israel,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'that my rage will come up into my nose.[g] 19 And in my ardor,[h] in the fire of my fury, I shall have to speak.[i] Surely in that day a great quaking will occur in the soil of Israel.[j] 20 And because of me the fish of the sea and the flying creatures of the heavens and the wild beasts of the field and all the creeping things that are creeping on the ground and all mankind that are upon the surface of the ground will be bound to shiver,[k] and the mountains will actually be thrown down[l] and the steep ways will have to fall, and to the earth even every wall will fall.'

against him throughout all my mountainous region a sword,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.[a] 'Against his own brother the sword of each one will come to be.[b] 22 And I will bring myself into judgment[c] with him, with pestilence[d] and with blood;[e] and a flooding downpour and hailstones,[f] fire[g] and sulphur I shall rain down upon him and upon his bands and upon the many peoples that will be with him.[h] 23 And I shall certainly magnify myself and sanctify myself[i] and make myself known before the eyes of many nations; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah.'[j]

39 "And as regards you, O son of man, prophesy against Gog,[k] and you must say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Here I am against you, O Gog, you head chieftain of Me'shech[l] and Tu'bal.[m] 2 And I will turn you around and lead you on[n] and cause you to come up from the remotest parts of the north[o] and bring you in upon the mountains of Israel. 3 And I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and your arrows I shall cause to fall out of your own right hand. 4 On the mountains of Israel you will fall,[p] you and all your bands and the peoples that will be with you. To birds of prey, birds of every sort of wing, and the wild beasts of the field I will give you for food."'[q]

5 "'Upon the surface of the field you will fall,[r] for I myself have spoken,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

6 "'And I will send fire upon Ma'gog[s] and upon those who are inhabiting the islands in security;[t] and people will have to know that I am Jehovah. 7 And my holy name I shall make known in the midst of my people Israel, and I shall no more let my holy name be profaned;[a] and the nations will have to know that I am Jehovah,[b] the Holy One in Israel.'[c]

8 "'Look! It must come and it must be brought to be,'[d] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. 'This is the day of which I have spoken.[e] 9 And the inhabitants of the cities of Israel will certainly go forth and burn and build fires with the armor and bucklers and large shields,—with the bows and with the arrows and with the handstaves and with the lances; and with them they will have to light fires[f] seven years. 10 And they will not carry sticks of wood from the field, nor will they gather firewood out of the forests, for with the armor they will light fires.'

"'And they will certainly make spoil of those who had been making spoil of them,[g] and plunder those who had been plundering them,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

11 "'And it must occur in that day that I shall give to Gog[h] a place there, a burial place in Israel, the valley of those passing through on the east of the sea, and it will be stopping up those passing through. And there they will have to bury Gog and all his crowd, and they will be certain to call [it] the Valley of Gog's Crowd.[i] 12 And those of the house of Israel will have to bury them for the purpose of cleansing the land, for seven months.[j] 13 And all the people of the land will have to do the burying, and it will certainly become for them a matter of fame in the day that I glorify myself,'[k] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

14 "'And there will be men for continual [employment] whom they will divide off, passing along through the land, burying, with those passing through, those left remaining on the surface of the earth, in order to cleanse it. To the end of seven months they will keep making search. 15 And those passing through must pass along through the land, and should one actually see the bone of a man he must also build beside it a marker, until those who do the burying will have buried it in the Valley of Gog's Crowd.[a] 16 And the name of [the] city will also be Ha·mo'nah. And they will have to cleanse the land.'[b]

17 "And as regards you, O son of man, this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Say to the birds of every sort of wing and to all the wild beasts of the field:[c] "Collect yourselves together and come. Gather yourselves together all around to my sacrifice, which I am sacrificing for YOU, a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel.[d] And YOU will certainly eat flesh and drink blood.[e] 18 The flesh of mighty ones YOU will eat,[f] and the blood of the chieftains of the earth YOU will drink, rams, young male sheep,[g] and he-goats, young bulls,[h] the fatlings of Ba'shan all of them.[i] 19 And YOU will be certain to eat fat to satisfaction[j] and to drink blood to drunkenness, from my sacrifice that I will sacrifice for YOU."'

21 "'And I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations will have to see my judgment that I have executed[l] and my hand that I have placed among them.[m] 22 And those of the house of Israel will have to know that I am Jehovah their God from that day and forward.[n] 23 And the nations will have to know that it was because of their error that they, the house of Israel, went into exile,[a] on account of the fact that they behaved unfaithfully toward me, so that I concealed my face from them[b] and gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they kept falling, all of them, by the sword.[c] 24 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions I did with them,[d] and I kept concealing my face from them.'

25 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Now is when I shall bring back the captive ones of Jacob[e] and actually have mercy upon all the house of Israel;[f] and I will show exclusive devotion for my holy name.[g] 26 And they will have borne their humiliation[h] and all their unfaithfulness with which they have acted toward me,[i] when they dwell on their soil in security,[j] with no one to make [them] tremble.[k] 27 When I bring them back from the peoples and I actually collect them together out of the lands of their enemies,[l] I will also sanctify myself among them before the eyes of many nations.'[m]

28 "'And they will have to know that I am Jehovah their God, when I send them in exile to the nations and actually bring them together upon their soil,[n] so that I shall leave none of them remaining there any longer.[o] 29 And I shall no longer conceal my face from them,[p] because I will pour out my spirit upon the house of Israel,'[q] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile,[r] in the start of the year, on the tenth [day] of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city had been struck down,[s] on this very same day the hand of Jehovah proved to be upon me,[t] so that he brought me to that place.[u] 2 In the visions of God he brought me to the land of Israel and gradually set me down upon a very high mountain,[a] on which there was something like the structure of a city to the south.[b]

3 And he proceeded to bring me there, and, look! there was a man. His appearance was like the appearance of copper,[c] and there was a flax cord in his hand, and a measuring reed,[d] and he was standing in the gate. 4 And the man began to speak to me: "Son of man,[e] see with your eyes, and with your ears hear, and set your heart upon all that I am showing you, because for the purpose of [my] showing you, you have been brought here. Tell everything that you are seeing to the house of Israel."[f]

5 And, look! there was a wall outside the house all round about. And in the hand of the man there was the measuring reed of six cubits, by a cubit and a handbreadth. And he began to measure the breadth of the thing built, one reed; and the height, one reed.

6 Then he came to the gate, the front of which is toward the east,[g] and went up by its steps. And he began to measure the threshold of the gate,[h] one reed in width, and the other threshold, one reed in width. 7 And the guard chamber was one reed in length and one reed in width, and between the guard chambers[i] there were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate beside the porch of the gate toward the interior was one reed.

8 And he proceeded to measure the porch of the gate toward the interior, one reed.[j] 9 So he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its side pillars, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the interior.

10 And the guard chambers of the gate toward the east were three on this side and three on that side. The three of them were of the same measurement, and the side pillars were of the same measurement, on this side and on that side.

11 Then he measured the width of the entrance of the gate, ten cubits; the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 And the fenced area in front of the guard chambers was one cubit, and there was a fenced area of one cubit on [either] side. And the guard chamber was six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side.

13 And he went on to measure the gate from the roof of the [one] guard chamber to the roof of the other, a width of twenty-five cubits;[a] entrance was across from entrance. 14 Then he made side pillars of sixty cubits, even to the side pillar[s] of the courtyard in the gate[s] all around. 15 And by the front of the gate of the entryway [to] by the front of the porch of the inner gate was fifty cubits.

16 And there were windows of narrowing frames[b] for the guard chambers and for their side pillars toward the inside of the gate all around, and that is the way it was for the porches. And the windows were all around toward the inside, and on the side pillars there were palm-tree figures.[c]

17 And he gradually brought me into the outer courtyard, and, look! there were dining rooms,[d] and a pavement made for the courtyard all around. There were thirty dining rooms upon the pavement.[e] 18 And the pavement at the side of the gates was exactly as the length of the gates—the lower pavement.

19 And he proceeded to measure the width from in front of the lower gate to the front of the inner courtyard. Outside it was a hundred cubits, to the east and to the north.

20 And the outer courtyard had a gate the front of which was toward the north. He measured its length and its width. 21 And its guard chambers were three on this side and three on that side. And its own side pillars and its own porch proved to be according to the measurement of the first gate. Fifty cubits was its length, and its width was twenty-five in cubits. 22 And its windows and its porch and its palm-tree figures[a] were of the same measurement as those of the gate the front of which is toward the east. And by seven steps people could go up into it, and its porch was to their front.

24 And he gradually brought me toward the south, and, look! there was a gate toward the south,[b] and he measured its side pillars and its porch as of the same measurements as these. 25 And it and its porch had windows all around, like these windows. Fifty cubits was the length, and the breadth was twenty-five cubits. 26 And there were seven steps for going up to it,[c] and its porch was to their front. And it had palm-tree figures, one on this side and one on that side on its side pillars.

27 And the inner courtyard had a gate toward the south. And he measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits. 28 And he gradually brought me into the inner courtyard by the gate of the south. And he proceeded to measure the gate of the south as of the same measurements as these. 29 And its guard chambers and its side pillars and its porch were of the same measurements as these. And it and its porch had windows round about. Fifty cubits was the length, and the width was twenty-five cubits.[a] 30 And there were porches all around; the length was twenty-five cubits, and the width five cubits. 31 And its porch was to the outer courtyard, and palm-tree figures were on its side pillars,[b] and its ascent was eight steps.[c]

32 And he gradually brought me into the inner courtyard by way of the east, and he proceeded to measure the gate as of the same measurements as these. 33 And its guard chambers and its side pillars and its porch were of the same measurements as these, and it and its porch had windows all around. The length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. 34 And its porch was toward the outer courtyard, and palm-tree figures were on its side pillars on this side and on that side. And its ascent was eight steps.

35 And he proceeded to bring me into the north gate,[d] and he measured, with the same measurements as these,[e] 36 its guard chambers, its side pillars and its porch. And it had windows all around. The length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. 37 And to the outer courtyard were its side pillars, and palm-tree figures were on its side pillars on this side and on that side.[f] And its ascent was eight steps.

38 And a dining room with its entrance was by the side pillars of the gates. There it was that they would rinse the whole burnt offering.[g]

39 And in the porch of the gate there were two tables on this side and two tables on that side, for slaughtering upon them the whole burnt offering[h] and the sin offering[i] and the guilt offering.[a] 40 And on the outer side, as one goes up to the entrance of the north gate, there were two tables. And on the other side that belongs to the porch of the gate there were two tables. 41 There were four tables over here and four tables over there at the side of the gate—eight tables, upon which they would do the slaughtering. 42 And the four tables for the whole burnt offering were of hewn stone. The length was one cubit and a half, and the width one cubit and a half, and the height one cubit. Upon them they would also deposit the implements with which they would slaughter the whole burnt offering and the sacrifice. 43 And the ledges for setting down things were of one handbreadth, firmly fixed on the interior, all around; and upon the tables [they would deposit] the flesh of the gift offering.[b]

44 And on the outside of the inner gate there were the dining rooms of the singers,[c] in the inner courtyard, which is on the side of the north gate. And their front side was toward the south. There was one on the side of the east gate. The front was toward the north.

45 And he proceeded to speak to me: "This one, the dining room the front of which is toward the south, is for the priests who are taking care of the obligation of the house.[d] 46 And the dining room the front of which is toward the north is for the priests who are taking care of the obligation of the altar.[e] They are the sons of Za'dok,[f] who, from the sons of Le'vi, are approaching Jehovah to minister to him."[g]

47 And he went measuring the [inner] courtyard. The length was a hundred cubits, and the width a hundred cubits, foursquare. And the altar was before the house.

48 And he proceeded to bring me into the porch of the house,[a] and he went measuring the side pillar of the porch, five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side. And the width of the gate was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits. And by steps was how they would go up to it. And there were pillars by the side posts, one over here and one over there.[b]

41 And he proceeded to bring me into the temple, and he went measuring the side pillars, six cubits being the width over here and six cubits the width over there, the width of the side pillar. 2 And the width of the entrance was ten cubits, and the sides of the entrance were five cubits over here and five cubits over there. And he went measuring its length, forty cubits; and the width, twenty cubits.

3 And he went inside and proceeded to measure the side pillar of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the width of the entrance was seven cubits. 4 And he went measuring its length, twenty cubits; and [its] width, twenty cubits,[c] before the temple. Then he said to me: "This is the Most Holy."[d]

5 And he proceeded to measure the wall of the house, six cubits. And the width of the side chamber was four cubits, round about; all around the house it was, round about.[e] 6 And the side chambers were side chamber upon side chamber, three [stories], and for thirty times; and they were entering into the wall that belonged to the house, that is, the side chambers all around, in order that they might be held in, but they were not held in in the wall of the house.[f] 7 And there was a widening out and turning around upward and upward to the side chambers, for the winding passage of the house was upward and upward all around the house.[a] Therefore there was a widening to the house upward, and from the lowest [story] one could go up to the uppermost [story],[b] by the middle [story].

8 And I saw that there was a high platform for the house all around. As regards the foundations of the side chambers, there was a full reed of six cubits to the joining.[c] 9 The width of the wall that belonged to the side chamber, to the outside, was five cubits. And there was a space left open [by] the construction of the side chambers that belonged to the house.

10 And between the dining rooms[d] the width was twenty cubits round about the house, all around. 11 And the entrance of the side chamber was to the space left open, one entrance being toward the north and one entrance to the south; and the width of the area of the space left open was five cubits, all around.

12 And the building that was before the separated area, the side [of which] was toward the west, was seventy cubits wide. And the wall of the building was five cubits in width, it being all around; and its length was ninety cubits.

13 And he measured the house, a hundred cubits in length; and the separated area and the building and its walls, a hundred cubits in length. 14 And the width of the front of the house and the separated area to the east was a hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building before the separated area that was behind it and its galleries on this side and on that side, a hundred cubits.

Also the temple [and] the inner place[a] and the porches of the courtyard; 16 the thresholds, and the windows with narrowing frames,[b] and the galleries were round about the three of them. In front of the threshold there was paneling of wood all around,[c] and [from] the floor up to the windows; and the windows were covered ones. 17 To above the entrance and as far as the inner house and on the outside and upon the whole wall all around, on the inner [house] and on the outside, there were measurements, 18 even carved cherubs[d] and palm-tree figures,[e] with a palm-tree figure between a cherub and a cherub, and the cherub had two faces.[f] 19 And the face of a man was toward the palm-tree figure on this side, and the face of a maned young lion was toward the palm-tree figure on that side,[g] they being carved on the whole house all around. 20 From the floor to above the entrance there were carved cherubs and palm-tree figures, [on] the wall of the temple.

21 As for the temple, the doorpost was squared;[h] and [in] front of the holy place there was an appearance like the [following] appearance: 22 the wooden altar was three cubits high, and its length was two cubits, and it had its corner posts.[i] And its length and its walls were of wood. And he proceeded to speak to me: "This is the table that is before Jehovah."[j]

23 And the temple and the holy place had two doors.[k] 24 And two door leaves belonged to the doors, the two being turnable. One door had two door leaves, and the other had two door leaves. 25 And there were made upon them, upon the doors of the temple, cherubs and palm-tree figures,[l] like those made for the walls, and there was a canopy of wood over the front of the porch outside. 26 And there were windows of narrowing frames[a] and palm-tree figures over here and over there along the sides of the porch and the side chambers of the house and the canopies.

42 And he gradually brought me forth[b] to the outer courtyard by the way toward the north.[c] And he proceeded to bring me to the dining-room[d] [block] that was in front of the separated area[e] and that was in front of the building to the north. 2 Before the length of a hundred cubits there was the north entrance, and the width was fifty cubits. 3 In front of the twenty [cubits] that belonged to the inner courtyard[f] and in front of the pavement[g] that belonged to the outer courtyard there was gallery[h] opposite gallery in three [stories]. 4 And before the dining rooms there was a walkway ten cubits in width to the inside,[i] a way of one cubit, and their entrances were to the north. 5 And as for the dining rooms, the uppermost ones were shorter, for the galleries took away from them, more than the lowest ones and than the middle ones, as regards [the] building. 6 For they were in three stories,[j] and they had no pillars like the pillars of the courtyards. That is why more room was taken away than from the lowest ones and from the middle ones from the floor.

7 And the stone wall that was outside was close by the dining rooms toward the outer courtyard before the [other] dining rooms. Its length was fifty cubits. 8 For the length of the dining rooms that were toward the outer courtyard was fifty cubits, and, look! before the temple it was a hundred cubits. 9 And from below these dining rooms the entryway was to the east, when one comes in to them from the outer courtyard.

10 In the width of the stone wall of the courtyard toward the east, before the separated area[a] and before the building, there were dining rooms.[b] 11 And there was a way before them like the appearance of the dining rooms that were toward the north,[c] so their length was [and] so their width was; and all their exits [were alike], and their plans alike and their entrances alike. 12 And like the entrances of the dining rooms that were toward the south was the entrance at the head of the way, the way before the corresponding stone wall toward the east, when one comes in to them.[d]

13 And he proceeded to say to me: "The dining rooms of the north [and] the dining rooms of the south that are before the separated area,[e] they are the holy dining rooms, where the priests who are approaching[f] Jehovah eat the most holy things.[g] There they deposit the most holy things and the grain offering and the sin offering and the guilt offering, because the place is holy.[h] 14 When they, the priests, have come in, they will not also go out from the holy place to the outer courtyard, but there they will deposit their garments in which they customarily minister,[i] for they are something holy. They will clothe themselves with other garments,[j] and must approach to what has to do with the people."

15 And he finished the measurements of the inner house, and he brought me out by the way of the gate the front of which was toward the east,[k] and he measured it all around.

16 He measured the eastern side with the measuring reed. It was five hundred reeds, by the measuring reed,[l] round about.

17 He measured the northern side, five hundred reeds, by the measuring reed, round about.

18 The southern side he measured, five hundred reeds, by the measuring reed.

19 He went around to the western side. He measured five hundred reeds, by the measuring reed.

20 For the four sides he measured it. It had a wall all around,[a] with a length of five hundred [reeds] and a width of five hundred [reeds],[b] to make a division between what is holy and what is profane.[c]

43 Then he made me go to the gate, the gate that is facing toward the east.[d] 2 And, look! the glory[e] of the God of Israel was coming from the direction of the east,[f] and his voice was like the voice of vast waters;[g] and the earth itself shone because of his glory.[h] 3 And it was like the appearance of the vision that I had seen,[i] like the vision that I saw when I came to bring the city to ruin;[j] and there were appearances like the appearance that I saw by the river Che′bar,[k] and I went falling upon my face.

4 And the glory[l] of Jehovah itself came into the House by way of the gate the front of which was toward the east.[m] 5 And a spirit proceeded to raise me up[n] and bring me into the inner courtyard, and, look! the House had become full of the glory of Jehovah.[o] 6 And I began to hear someone speaking to me out of the House,[p] and [the] man himself had come to be standing beside me.[q] 7 And He went on to say to me:

"Son of man, [this is] the place of my throne[r] and the place of the soles of my feet,[s] where I shall reside in the midst of the sons of Israel to time indefinite;[t] and no more will they, the house of Israel, defile my holy name,[u] they and their kings,[v] by their fornication and by the carcasses[w] of their kings at their death, 8 by their putting their threshold with my

And this is the base of the altar. 14 And from the bottom on the floor to the lower surrounding ledge there are two cubits, and the width is one cubit. And from the small surrounding ledge to the big surrounding ledge there are four cubits, and [its] width is a cubit. 15 And the altar hearth is four cubits, and out from the altar hearth and upward there are the four horns.[n] 16 And the altar hearth is twelve [cubits] in length, with twelve [cubits] of width,[a] squared on its four sides.[b] 17 And the surrounding ledge is fourteen [cubits] in length, with fourteen [cubits] of width, on its four sides; and the border surrounding it is half a cubit, and its bottom is a cubit round about.

18 And he proceeded to say to me: "Son of man, this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'These are the statutes of the altar on the day of its being made, in order to offer upon it whole burnt offerings[c] and to sprinkle upon it blood.'[d]

19 "'And you must give to the Levitical priests,[e] who are of the offspring of Za'dok,[f] the ones approaching me,'[g] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'to minister to me, a young bull, the son of [the] herd, as a sin offering.[h] 20 And you must take some of its blood and put [it] upon its four horns and upon the four corners of the surrounding ledge and upon the border round about and purify it from sin[i] and make atonement for it.[j] 21 And you must take the young bull, the sin offering, and one must burn it in the appointed place of the House, outside the sanctuary.[k] 22 And on the second day you will bring near a buck of the goats, a sound one, as a sin offering; and they must purify the altar from sin the same as they purified [it] from sin with the young bull.'

23 "'On your making an end of the purifying from sin you will bring near a young bull, the son of [the] herd, a sound one, and a ram from the flock, a sound one. 24 And you must bring them near before Jehovah, and the priests must throw salt upon them and offer them[l] up as a whole burnt offering to Jehovah. 25 For seven days you will render up a he-goat as a sin offering for the day;[a] and a young bull, the son of [the] herd, and a ram out of the flock, perfect ones, they will render up. 26 For seven days they will make atonement[b] for the altar, and they must cleanse it and install it. 27 And they will complete the days. And it must occur on the eighth day[c] and from then on that the priests will render upon the altar the whole burnt offerings of YOU people and YOUR communion sacrifices; and I shall certainly find pleasure in YOU,'[d] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

44 And he proceeded to bring me back by way of the gate of the sanctuary, the outer one facing east,[e] and it was shut.[f] 2 Then Jehovah said to me: "As regards this gate, shut is how it will continue. It will not be opened, and no mere man will come in by it; for Jehovah himself, the God of Israel,[g] has come in by it, and it must continue shut. 3 However, the chieftain[h]—as chieftain he himself will sit in it, in order to eat bread before Jehovah.[i] By way of the porch of the gate he will come in, and by way of it he will go out."[j]

4 And he now brought me by way of the north gate to before the House, that I might see, and, look! the glory of Jehovah had filled the house of Jehovah.[k] And I went falling on my face.[l] 5 Then Jehovah said to me: "Son of man, set your heart[m] and see with your eyes, and with your ears hear all that I am speaking with you regarding all the statutes of the house of Jehovah and regarding all its laws, and you must set your heart upon the entryway of the House with all the exits of the sanctuary. 6 And you must say to Rebelliousness,[n] to the house of Israel, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "That is enough of you because of all YOUR detestable things, O house of Israel,[a] 7 when YOU bring in the foreigners uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh,[b] in order to come to be in my sanctuary so as to profane it, even my house; when YOU present my bread,[c] fat[d] and blood,[e] while they keep breaking my covenant on account of all YOUR detestable things.[f] 8 Neither have YOU taken care of the obligation of my holy things,[g] nor would YOU post [others] as caretakers of my obligation in my sanctuary for yourselves."'[h]

9 "'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, may come into my sanctuary, that is, any foreigner who is in the midst of the sons of Israel."'[i]

10 "'But as for the Levites who got far away from me[j] when Israel, who wandered away from me, wandered after their dungy idols, they must also bear their error.[k] 11 And in my sanctuary they must become ministers at posts of oversight over the gates of the House and ministers at the House.[l] They themselves will slaughter the whole burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people,[m] and they themselves will stand before them to minister to them.[n] 12 For the reason that they kept ministering to them before their dungy idols[o] and became to the house of Israel a stumbling block into error,[p] that is why I have raised my hand against them,'[q] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'and they must bear their error. 13 And they will not approach to me to act as priest to me or to approach to any holy things of mine, to the most holy things,[r] and they must bear their humiliation and their detestable things that they did.[s] 14 And I shall certainly make them caretakers of the obligation of the House, as regards all its service and as regards all that should be done in it.'[a]

15 "'And as for the Levitical priests,[b] the sons of Za'dok,[c] who took care of the obligation of my sanctuary when the sons of Israel wandered away from me,[d] they themselves will come near to me to minister to me, and they must stand before me[e] to present to me fat[f] and the blood,'[g] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. 16 'They are the ones that will come into my sanctuary,[h] and they themselves will come near to my table to minister to me,[i] and they must take care of the obligation to me.[j]

17 "'And it must occur that when they come into the gates of the inner courtyard, linen garments they should wear, and no wool should come up on them when they minister in the gates of the inner courtyard and inside.[k] 18 Linen headdresses are what should prove to be on their head,[l] and linen drawers are what should prove to be upon their hips.[m] They should not gird themselves with [what causes] sweat. 19 And when they go forth to the outer courtyard, [even] to the outer courtyard to the people, they should strip off their garments in which they were ministering,[n] and they must deposit them in the holy dining rooms[o] and put on other garments, that they may not sanctify the people with their garments.[p] 20 And their head they should not shave,[q] and the hair of the head they should not wear loose. They should by all means clip [the hair of] their heads.[r] 21 And no wine should any priests drink when they come into the inner courtyard.[s] 22 And no widow or divorced woman should they take for themselves as wives,[t] but virgins of the offspring of the house of Israel[u] or the widow

28 "'And it must become theirs as an inheritance: I am their inheritance.[i] And no possession should YOU people give them in Israel: I am their possession. 29 The grain offering and the sin offering and the guilt offering—they are the ones who will eat them.[j] And every devoted thing in Israel—theirs it will become.[k] 30 And the first of all the first ripe fruits of everything and every contribution of everything out of all YOUR contributions—to the priests it will come to belong;[l] and the firstfruits of YOUR coarse meals YOU should give to the priest,[m] in order to cause a blessing to rest upon your house.[n] 31 No body [already] dead and no creature torn to pieces of the flying creatures or of the beasts should the priests eat.'[a]

45 "'And when YOU people allot the land as an inheritance,[b] YOU should offer a contribution to Jehovah,[c] a holy portion out of the land;[d] as to length, twenty-five thousand [cubits] in length, and as to width, ten thousand.[e] It will be a holy portion in all its boundaries round about. 2 From this there will prove to be for the holy place five hundred by five hundred, it being made square round about;[f] and fifty cubits it will have as pasture ground on each side.[g] 3 And out of this measurement you should measure the length of twenty-five thousand and the width of ten thousand, and in it the sanctuary will come to be, something most holy.[h] 4 As a holy portion out of the land it will come to be for the priests themselves,[i] the ministers of the sanctuary, those approaching to minister to Jehovah.[j] And for them it must prove to be a place for houses, and a sacred place for the sanctuary.

19 And he proceeded to bring me in by the entryway[d] that was by the side of the gate to the holy dining rooms, those belonging to the priests, that were facing to the north,[e] and, look! there was a place there on both rear sides to the west. 20 And he proceeded to say to me: "This is the place where the priests will boil the guilt offering[f] and the sin offering,[g] [and] where they will bake the grain offering,[h] in order to carry nothing out to the outer courtyard so as to sanctify the people."[i]

21 And he proceeded to bring me out to the outer courtyard and make me pass along to the four corner posts of the courtyard, and, look! there was a courtyard by [this] corner post of the courtyard, a courtyard by [that] corner post of the courtyard. 22 At the four corner posts of the courtyard there were small courtyards, forty [cubits] in length and thirty in width. The four of them with corner structures had the same measurement. 23 And there was a row round about them, round about the four of them, and there were boiling places[a] made beneath the rows round about. 24 Then he said to me: "These are the houses of those doing the boiling, where the ministers of the House boil the sacrifice of the people."[b]

47 And gradually he brought me back to the entrance of the House,[c] and, look! there was water[d] going forth from under the threshold of the House eastward,[e] for the front of the House was east. And the water was going down from under, from the right-hand side of the House, south of the altar.

2 And he gradually brought me forth by the way of the north gate[f] and took me around by the way outside to the outer gate that is facing toward the east,[g] and, look! water[h] was trickling from the right-hand side.

3 When the man went forth eastward with a measuring line in his hand,[i] he also proceeded to measure a thousand in cubits and to make me pass through the water, water [up] to the ankles.

4 And he continued measuring a thousand and then made me pass through the water, water [up] to the knees.

And he continued measuring a thousand and now made me pass through—water [up] to the hips.

5 And he continued measuring a thousand. It was a torrent that I was not able to pass through, for the water had got high, water [permitting] swimming, a torrent that could not be passed through.

6 At that he said to me:

"Have you seen [this], O son of man?"

Then he had me walk and had me return [to] the bank of the torrent. 7 When I returned, why, look! on the bank of the torrent there were very many trees, on this side and on that side.[a] 8 And he went on to say to me: "This water is going forth to the eastern region and must go down through the Ar′a·bah.[b] And it must come to the sea.[c] It being brought forth into the sea itself,[d] [its] water is also actually healed. 9 And it must occur that every living soul that swarms,[e] in every place to which the double-size torrent comes, will get life. And it must occur that there will be very many fish, because there is where this water will certainly come, and the [seawater] will be healed,[f] and everything will be alive where the torrent comes.

10 "And it must occur that fishers will actually stand alongside it from En-ge′di[g] even up to En-eg′la·im. There will come to be a drying yard for dragnets. In their kinds their fish will prove to be, like the fish of the Great Sea,[h] very many.

11 "There are its swampy places, and its marshy places, and they will not be healed.[i] To salt they will certainly be given.[j]

12 "And alongside the torrent there will come up, along its bank on this side and on that side, all sorts of trees for food.[k] Their leafage will not wither,[l] nor will their fruitage be consumed.[m] In their months they will bear new fruit, because the water for them—it is coming forth from the very sanctuary.[n] And their fruitage must prove to be for food and their leafage for healing."[o]

13 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "This is the territory that YOU will assign to yourselves for inheritance as the land for the twelve tribes of Israel, with two pieces of field to Joseph.[a] 14 And YOU people must inherit it, each one the same as his brother, which [land] I raised my hand [in an oath][b] to give to YOUR forefathers;[c] and this land must fall to YOU [by lot] for inheritance.[d]

15 "And this is the boundary of the land to the northern side, from the Great Sea by the way to Heth′lon,[e] as one comes to Ze′dad,[f] 16 Ha′math,[g] Be·ro′thah,[h] Sib′ra·im, which is between the boundary of Damascus[i] and the boundary of Ha′math; Ha′zer-hat′ti·con, which is toward the boundary of Ha·u·ran′.[j] 17 And the boundary from the sea must prove to be Ha′zar-e′non,[k] the boundary of Damascus and north—northward, and the boundary of Ha′math.[l] This is the northern side.

18 "And the eastern side is from between Ha·u·ran′[m] and Damascus[n] and between Gil′e·ad[o] and the land of Israel; the Jordan,[p] from the boundary to the eastern sea YOU people should measure. This is the eastern side.

19 "And the southern side is to the south, from Ta′mar[q] to the waters of Mer′i·bath-ka′desh,[r] the torrent valley[s] to the Great Sea. This is the side to the south, toward the Neg′eb.

20 "And the western side is the Great Sea, from the boundary straight ahead to the entering in to Ha′math.[t] This is the western side."

21 "And YOU must apportion this land to yourselves, to the twelve tribes of Israel. 22 And it must occur that YOU should allot it for inheritance to yourselves[u] and to the alien residents who are residing as aliens in YOUR midst,[v] who have become father to sons in the midst of YOU. And they must become to YOU like a native among the sons of Israel. With YOU people they will fall [by lot] into an inheritance in the midst of the tribes of Israel.[a] 23 And it must occur that in the tribe with which the alien resident has taken up residence as an alien, there is where you should give his inheritance," is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

48 "And these are the names of the tribes. From the northern extremity, on the side by the way of Heth′lon[b] to the entering in to Ha′math,[c] Ha′zar-e′nan,[d] the boundary of Damascus northward, on the side of Ha′math; and it must prove to have an eastern border [and] the western, Dan[e] one [portion]. 2 And on the boundary of Dan, from the eastern border to the western border, Ash′er[f] one. 3 And on the boundary of Ash′er, from the eastern border even to the western border, Naph′ta·li[g] one. 4 And on the boundary of Naph′ta·li, from the eastern border to the western border, Ma·nas′seh[h] one. 5 And on the boundary of Ma·nas′seh, from the eastern border to the western border, E′phra·im[i] one. 6 And on the boundary of E′phra·im, from the eastern border even to the western border, Reu′ben[j] one. 7 And on the boundary of Reu′ben, from the eastern border to the western border, Judah[k] one. 8 And on the boundary of Judah, from the eastern border to the western border, the contribution that YOU people should contribute should prove to be twenty-five thousand [cubits] in width,[l] and [the] length according to one of the portions from the eastern border to the western border. And the sanctuary must prove to be in the midst of it.[m]

9 "As regards the contribution that YOU should contribute to Jehovah, [the] length will be twenty-five thousand [cubits] and [the] width ten thousand. 10 And as to these there should prove to be the holy contribution for the priests,[a] to the north twenty-five thousand [cubits], and to the west a width of ten thousand, and to the east a width of ten thousand, and to the south a length of twenty-five thousand. And the sanctuary of Jehovah must prove to be in the midst of it.[b] 11 It will be for the priests, those who are sanctified from the sons of Za′dok,[c] who took care of the obligation toward me, who did not wander away when the sons of Israel wandered away, just as the Levites wandered away.[d] 12 And they must come to have a contribution from the contribution of the land as something most holy, on the boundary of the Levites.[e]

13 "And the Levites should have,[f] right next to the territory of the priests, twenty-five thousand [cubits] in length, and in width ten thousand; the whole length being twenty-five thousand and width being ten thousand.[g] 14 And they should not sell any of it, nor should one make an exchange, nor should one cause the choicest of the land to pass away [from them]; for it is something holy to Jehovah.[h]

15 "As regards the five thousand [cubits] that is left remaining in width alongside the twenty-five thousand, it is something profane for the city,[i] for a dwelling place and for pasture ground. And the city must come to be in the midst of it.[j] 16 And these are the [city's] measurements: the northern border four thousand five hundred [cubits], and the southern border four thousand five hundred, and the eastern border four thousand five hundred, and the western border four thousand five hundred. 17 And the city must come to have a pasture ground,[k] to the north two hundred and fifty [cubits], and to the south two hundred and fifty, and to the 20 "The whole contribution is twenty-five thousand [cubits] by twenty-five thousand. A foursquare part YOU people should contribute as the holy contribution with the possession of the city.

21 "And what is left over will belong to the chieftain,[d] on this side and on that side of the holy contribution and of the possession of the city,[e] alongside the twenty-five thousand [cubits] [of] the contribution to the eastern boundary; and on the west alongside the twenty-five thousand [cubits] to the western boundary.[f] Exactly like the portions, [it will be] for the chieftain. 29 "This will be the land that YOU people should cause to fall [by lot] for inheritance to the tribes of Israel,[h] and these will be their shares,"[i] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

30 "And these will be the outlets of the city: On the northern border, four thousand five hundred [cubits] will be [the] measurement.[j]

31 "And the gates of the city will be according to the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates being on the north, the gate of Reu'ben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Le'vi, one.

32 "And on the eastern border there will be four thousand five hundred [cubits], and three gates, even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one.

33 "And the southern border will be four thousand five hundred [cubits] as to measurement, with three gates, the gate of Sim'e·on, one; the gate of Is'sa·char, one; the gate of Zeb'u·lun, one.

34 "The western border will be four thousand five hundred [cubits], there being three gates, the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Ash'er, one; the gate of Naph'ta·li, one.

DANIEL

1 In the third year of the kingship of Je·hoi'a·kim[a] the king of Judah, Neb·u·chad·nez'zar the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and proceeded to lay siege to it.[b] 2 In time Jehovah gave into his hand Je·hoi'a·kim the king of Judah[c] and a part of the utensils[d] of the house of the [true] God, so that he brought them to the land of Shi'nar[e] to the house of his god; and the utensils he brought to the treasure-house of his god.[f]

3 Then the king said to Ash'pe·naz his chief court official[g] to bring some of the sons of Israel and of the royal offspring and of the nobles,[h] 4 children in whom there was no defect[i] at all, but good in appearance and having insight into all wisdom[j] and being acquainted with knowledge, and having discernment of what is known,[k] in whom also there was ability to stand in the palace of the king;[l] and to teach them the writing and the tongue of the Chal·de'ans. 5 Furthermore, to them the king appointed a daily allowance from the delicacies[m] of the king and from his drinking wine, even to nourish them for three years, that at the end of these they might stand before the king.

6 Now there happened to be among them some of the sons of Judah, Daniel,[n] Han·a·ni'ah, Mish'a·el and Az·a·ri'ah.[o] 7 And to them the principal court official went assigning names.[p] So he assigned to Daniel [the name of] Bel·te·shaz'zar;[q] and to Han·a·ni'ah, Sha'drach; and to Mish'a·el, Me'shach; and to Az·a·ri'ah, A·bed'ne·go.[r]

8 But Daniel determined in his heart that he would not pollute[a] himself with the delicacies of the king and with his drinking wine. And he kept requesting of the principal court official that he might not pollute himself.[b] 9 Accordingly the [true] God gave Daniel over to loving-kindness and to mercy before the principal court official.[c] 10 So the principal court official said to Daniel: "I am in fear of my lord the king, who has appointed YOUR food and YOUR drink.[d] Why, then, should he see YOUR faces dejected-looking in comparison with the children who are of the same age as YOURS, and [why] should YOU have to make my head guilty to the king?" 11 But Daniel said to the guardian whom the principal court official[e] had appointed over Daniel, Han·a·ni'ah, Mish'a·el and Az·a·ri'ah: 12 "Please, put your servants to the test for ten days, and let them give us some vegetables[f] that we may eat and water that we may drink; 13 and let our countenances and the countenance of the children who are eating the delicacies of the king appear before you, and according to what you see do with your servants."

14 Finally he listened to them as regards this matter and put them to the test for ten days. 15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared better and fatter in flesh than all the children who were eating the delicacies of the king.[g] 16 So the guardian kept on taking away their delicacies and their drinking wine and giving them vegetables.[h] 17 And as for these children, the four of them, to them the [true] God gave knowledge and insight in all writing and wisdom;[a] and Daniel himself had understanding in all sorts of visions and dreams.[b]

18 And at the end of the days that the king had said to bring them in,[c] the principal court official also proceeded to bring them in before Neb·u·chad·nez′zar. 19 And the king began to speak with them, and out of them all no one was found like Daniel, Han·a·ni′ah, Mish′a·el and Az·a·ri′ah;[d] and they continued to stand before the king.[e] 20 And as regards every matter of wisdom [and] understanding[f] that the king inquired about from them, he even got to find them ten times better than all the magic-practicing priests[g] [and] the conjurers[h] that were in all his royal realm. 21 And Daniel continued on until the first year of Cyrus the king.[i]

2 And in the second year of the kingship of Neb·u·chad·nez′zar, Neb·u·chad·nez′zar dreamed dreams;[j] and his spirit began to feel agitated,[k] and his very sleep was made to be something beyond him. 2 So the king said to call the magic-practicing priests[l] and the conjurers and the sorcerers and the Chal·de′ans to tell the king his dreams.[m] And they proceeded to come in and to stand before the king. 3 Then the king said to them: "There is a dream that I have dreamed, and my spirit is agitated to know the dream." 4 At that the Chal·de′ans spoke to the king in the Ar·a·ma′ic language:[n] "O king, live on even for times indefinite.[o] Say what the dream is to your servants, and we shall show the very interpretation."[p]

5 The king was answering and saying to the Chal·de′ans: "The word is being promulgated by me: If YOU men do not make the dream known to me, and its interpretation, dismembered[q] is what YOU will be, and into public privies YOUR own houses will be turned.[r] 6 But if the dream and its interpretation YOU will show, gifts and a present and much dignity YOU will receive on my part.[a] Therefore show me the very dream and its interpretation."

7 They answered a second time and were saying: "Let the king say what the dream is to his servants, and we shall show its very interpretation."

8 The king was answering and saying: "For a fact, I am aware that time is what YOU men are trying to gain, forasmuch as YOU have perceived that the word is being promulgated by me. 9 For if YOU do not make known to me the very dream, this one and only sentence[b] is upon YOU. But it is a lying and wrong word that YOU have agreed to say before me,[c] until the time itself is changed. Therefore tell me the very dream, and I shall know that YOU can show the very interpretation of it."

10 The Chal·de′ans answered before the king, and they were saying: "There does not exist a man on the dry land that is able to show the matter of the king, forasmuch as no grand king or governor has asked such a thing as this of any magic-practicing priest or conjurer or Chal·de′an. 11 But the thing that the king himself is asking is difficult, and nobody else exists who can show it before the king except the gods,[d] whose own dwelling does not exist with flesh at all."[e]

12 Because of this the king himself became angry and got very furious,[f] and he said to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.[g] 13 And the order itself went out, and the wise men were about to be killed; and they looked for Daniel and his companions, for them to be killed.

14 At that time Daniel, for his part, addressed himself with counsel and sensibleness[h] to Ar′i·och the chief of the king's bodyguard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon. 15 He was answering and saying to Ar′i·och the officer of the king: "For what reason is there such a harsh order on the part of the king?" Then it was that Ar′i·och made known the matter itself to Daniel.[a] 16 So Daniel himself went in and asked from the king that he should give him time expressly to show the very interpretation to the king.[b]

17 After that Daniel went to his own house; and to Han·a·ni′ah, Mish′a·el and Az·a·ri′ah his companions he made known the matter, 18 even [for them] to ask for mercies[c] on the part of the God of heaven[d] concerning this secret,[e] in order that they might not destroy Daniel and his companions with the remainder of the wise men of Babylon.[f]

19 Then it was that to Daniel in a night vision the secret was revealed.[g] Consequently Daniel himself blessed[h] the God of heaven. 20 Daniel was answering and saying: "Let the name of God become blessed[i] from time indefinite even to time indefinite, for wisdom and mightiness—for they belong to him.[j] 21 And he is changing times and seasons,[k] removing kings and setting up kings,[l] giving wisdom to the wise ones and knowledge to those knowing discernment.[m] 22 He is revealing the deep things and the concealed things,[n] knowing what is in the darkness;[o] and with him the light[p] does dwell. 23 To you, O God of my forefathers, I am giving praise and commendation,[q] because wisdom[r] and mightiness you have given to me. And now you have made known to me what we requested of you, for you have made known to us the very matter of the king."[s]

24 Because of this Daniel himself went in to Ar′i·och,[t] whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon.[a] He went, and this is what he said to him: "Do not destroy any wise men of Babylon. Take me in before the king,[b] that I may show the interpretation itself to the king."

25 Then it was that Ar′i·och, in a hurry, took Daniel in before the king, and this is what he said to him: "I have found an able-bodied man of the exiles[c] of Judah who can make known the interpretation itself to the king." 26 The king was answering and saying to Daniel, whose name was Bel·te·shaz′zar:[d] "Are you competent enough to make known to me the dream that I beheld, and its interpretation?"[e] 27 Daniel was answering before the king and saying: "The secret that the king himself is asking, the wise men, the conjurers, the magic-practicing priests [and] the astrologers themselves are unable to show to the king.[f] 28 However, there exists a God in the heavens who is a Revealer of secrets,[g] and he has made known to King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar what is to occur in the final part of the days.[h] Your dream and the visions of your head upon your bed—this it is:

29 "As for you, O king, on your bed[i] your own thoughts came up as regards what is to occur after this, and the One who is the Revealer of secrets has made known to you what is to occur.[j] 30 And as for me, it is not through any wisdom that exists in me more than in any others alive that this secret is revealed to me,[k] except to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king himself and that the thoughts of your heart you may know.[l]

31 "You, O king, happened to be beholding, and, look! a certain immense image. That image, which was large and the brightness of which was extraordinary, was standing in front of you, and its appearance was dreadful. 32 As regards that image, its head was of good gold,[a] its breasts and its arms were of silver,[b] its belly and its thighs were of copper,[c] 33 its legs were of iron,[d] its feet were partly of iron and partly of molded clay.[e] 34 You kept on looking until a stone was cut out not by hands,[f] and it struck the image on its feet of iron and of molded clay and crushed them.[g] 35 At that time the iron, the molded clay, the copper, the silver and the gold were, all together, crushed and became like the chaff from the summer threshing floor,[h] and the wind carried them away so that no trace at all was found of them.[i] And as for the stone that struck the image, it became a large mountain and filled the whole earth.[j]

36 "This is the dream, and its interpretation we shall say before the king.[k] 37 You, O king, the king of kings, you to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom,[l] the might, and the strength and the dignity, 38 and into whose hand he has given,[m] wherever the sons of mankind are dwelling, the beasts of the field and the winged creatures of the heavens, and whom he has made ruler over all of them, you yourself are the head of gold.[n]

39 "And after you there will rise another kingdom[o] inferior to you;[p] and another kingdom, a third one, of copper, that will rule over the whole earth.[q]

40 "And as for the fourth kingdom,[r] it will prove to be strong like iron.[s] Forasmuch as iron is crushing and grinding everything else, so, like iron that shatters, it will crush and shatter even all these.[t]

41 "And whereas you beheld the feet and the toes to be partly of molded clay of a potter and partly of iron,[u] the kingdom itself will prove to be divided,[a] but somewhat of the hardness of iron will prove to be in it, forasmuch as you beheld the iron mixed with moist clay.[b] 42 And as for the toes of the feet being partly of iron and partly of molded clay, the kingdom will partly prove to be strong and will partly prove to be fragile. 43 Whereas you beheld iron mixed with moist clay, they will come to be mixed with the offspring of mankind; but they will not prove to be sticking together, this one to that one, just as iron is not mixing with molded clay.

44 "And in the days of those kings[c] the God of heaven[d] will set up a kingdom[e] that will never be brought to ruin.[f] And the kingdom itself will not be passed on to any other people.[g] It will crush and put an end to all these kingdoms,[h] and it itself will stand to times indefinite;[i] 45 forasmuch as you beheld that out of the mountain a stone was cut not by hands,[j] and [that] it crushed the iron, the copper, the molded clay, the silver and the gold.[k] The grand God[l] himself has made known to the king what is to occur after this.[m] And the dream is reliable, and the interpretation of it is trustworthy."[n]

46 At that time King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar himself fell down upon his face, and to Daniel he paid homage, and he said to offer even a present and incense to him.[o] 47 The king was answering Daniel and saying: "Truly the God of YOU men is a God of gods[p] and a Lord of kings[q] and a Revealer of secrets, because you were able to reveal this secret."[r] 48 Consequently the king made Daniel someone great,[s] and many big gifts he gave to him, and he made him the ruler over all the jurisdictional district of Babylon[a] and the chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon. 49 And Daniel, for his part, made a request of the king, and he appointed over the administration of the jurisdictional district of Babylon Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go,[b] but Daniel was in the court[c] of the king.

3 Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king made an image[d] of gold, the height of which was sixty cubits [and] the breadth of which was six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Du′ra in the jurisdictional district of Babylon.[e] 2 And Neb·u·chad·nez′zar himself as king sent to assemble the satraps, the prefects[f] and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the police magistrates[g] and all the administrators of the jurisdictional districts to come to the inauguration[h] of the image that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king had set up.

3 At that time the satraps,[i] the prefects and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the police magistrates and all the administrators of the jurisdictional districts were assembling themselves for the inauguration of the image that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king had set up, and they were standing in front of the image that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had set up. 4 And the herald[j] was crying out loudly: "To YOU it is being said, O peoples, national groups and languages,[k] 5 that at the time that YOU hear the sound of the horn, the pipe, the zither, the triangular harp, the stringed instrument, the bagpipe and all sorts of musical instruments,[l] YOU fall down and worship the image of gold that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king has set up. 6 And whoever does not fall down and worship[m] will at the same moment[a] be thrown into the burning fiery furnace."[b] 7 Because of this, at the same time as all the peoples were hearing the sound of the horn, the pipe, the zither, the triangular harp, the stringed instrument and all sorts of musical instruments, all the peoples,[c] national groups and languages were falling down [and] worshiping the image of gold that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king had set up.

8 Because of this, at that same time certain Chal·de′ans approached and accused the Jews.[d] 9 They answered, and they were saying to Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king: "O king, live on even for times indefinite.[e] 10 You yourself, O king, set forth the command that every man that hears the sound of the horn, the pipe, the zither, the triangular harp, the stringed instrument, and the bagpipe and all sorts of musical instruments,[f] should fall down and worship the image of gold; 11 and that whoever would not fall down and worship should be thrown into the burning fiery furnace.[g] 12 There exist certain Jews whom you appointed over the administration of the jurisdictional district of Babylon,[h] Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go; these able-bodied men have paid no regard to you, O king, they are not serving your own gods, and the image of gold that you have set up they are not worshiping."[i]

13 At that time Neb·u·chad·nez′zar, in a rage and fury,[j] said to bring in Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go.[k] Consequently these able-bodied men were brought in before the king. 14 Neb·u·chad·nez′zar was answering and saying to them: "Is it really so, O Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go, that YOU are not serving my own gods,[l] and the image of gold that I have set up YOU are not worshiping?[a] 15 Now if YOU are ready so that when YOU hear the sound of the horn, the pipe, the zither, the triangular harp, the stringed instrument, and the bagpipe and all sorts of musical instruments,[b] YOU fall down and worship the image that I have made, [all right]. But if YOU do not worship, at that same moment YOU will be thrown into the burning fiery furnace. And who is that god that can rescue YOU out of my hands?"[c]

16 Sha'drach, Me'shach and A·bed'ne·go answered, and they were saying to the king: "O Neb·u·chad·nez'zar, we are under no necessity in this regard to say back a word to you.[d] 17 If it is to be, our God whom we are serving is able to rescue us. Out of the burning fiery furnace and out of your hand, O king, he will rescue [us].[e] 18 But if not, let it become known to you, O king, that your gods are not the ones we are serving, and the image of gold that you have set up we will not worship."[f]

19 Then it was that Neb·u·chad·nez'zar himself got filled with fury, and the very expression of his face was changed toward Sha'drach, Me'shach and A·bed'ne·go. He was answering and saying to heat up the furnace seven times more than it was customary to heat it up. 20 And to certain able-bodied men of vital energy[g] who were in his military force he said to bind Sha'drach, Me'shach and A·bed'ne·go, in order to throw [them] into the burning fiery furnace.[h]

21 Then it was that these able-bodied men were bound in their mantles, their garments and their caps and their other clothing and were thrown into the burning fiery furnace. 22 Just because the king's word was harsh and the furnace was heated to excess, these able-bodied men that took up Sha'drach, Me'shach and A·bed'ne·go were the ones that the fiery flame killed. 23 But these [other] able-bodied men, the three of them, Sha'drach, Me'shach and A·bed'ne·go, fell down bound in the midst of the burning fiery furnace.[a]

24 At that time Neb·u·chad·nez'zar the king himself became frightened and he rose up in a hurry. He was answering and saying to his high royal officials: "Was it not three able-bodied men that we threw bound into the midst of the fire?"[b] They were answering and saying to the king: "Yes, O king." 25 He was answering and saying: "Look! I am beholding four able-bodied men walking about free in the midst of the fire, and there is no hurt to them, and the appearance of the fourth one is resembling a son of the gods."[c]

26 Then it was that Neb·u·chad·nez'zar approached the door of the burning fiery furnace.[d] He was answering and saying: "Sha'drach, Me'shach and A·bed'ne·go, YOU servants of the Most High God,[e] step out and come here!" At that time Sha'drach, Me'shach and A·bed'ne·go were stepping out from the midst of the fire. 27 And the satraps, the prefects and the governors and the high officials[f] of the king that were assembled were beholding these able-bodied men, that the fire had had no power over their bodies,[g] and not a hair of their head[h] had been singed, and even their mantles had not been changed and the smell of fire itself had not come onto them.

28 Neb·u·chad·nez'zar was answering and saying: "Blessed be the God of Sha'drach, Me'shach and A·bed'ne·go,[i] who sent his angel[j] and rescued his servants that trusted in him[k] and that changed the very word of the king and gave over their bodies, because they would not serve[a] and would not worship[b] any god at all except their own God.[c] 29 And from me an order is being put through,[d] that any people, national group or language that says anything wrong against the God of Sha'drach, Me'shach and A·bed'ne·go should be dismembered,[e] and its house should be turned into a public privy;[f] forasmuch as there does not exist another god that is able to deliver like this one."[g]

30 At that time the king himself caused Sha'drach, Me'shach and A·bed'ne·go to prosper in the jurisdictional district of Babylon.[h]

4 "Neb·u·chad·nez'zar the king, to all the peoples, national groups and languages that are dwelling in all the earth:[i] May YOUR peace grow great.[j] 2 The signs and wonders that the Most High God has performed with me, it has seemed good to me to declare.[k] 3 How grand his signs are, and how mighty his wonders are![l] His kingdom is a kingdom to time indefinite,[m] and his rulership is for generation after generation.[n]

4 "I, Neb·u·chad·nez'zar, happened to be at ease[o] in my house and flourishing in my palace.[p] 5 There was a dream that I beheld, and it began to make me afraid.[q] And there were mental images upon my bed and visions of my head that began to frighten me.[r] 6 And from me an order was being put through to bring in before me all the wise men of Babylon, that they might make known to me the very interpretation of the dream.[s]

7 "At that time the magic-practicing priests, the conjurers, the Chal·de'ans[t] and the astrologers[u] were entering; and I was saying before them what the dream was, but its interpretation they were not making known to me.[a] 8 And at last there came in before me Daniel, whose name is Bel·te·shaz'zar[b] according to the name of my god[c] and in whom there is the spirit of the holy gods;[d] and before him I said what the dream was:

9 "'O Bel·te·shaz'zar the chief of the magic-practicing priests,[e] because I myself well know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you[f] and that there is no secret at all that is troubling you,[g] tell [me] the visions of my dream that I have beheld and its interpretation.[h]

10 "'Now the visions of my head upon my bed I happened to be beholding,[i] and, look! a tree[j] in the midst of the earth, the height of which was immense.[k] 11 The tree grew up and became strong, and its very height finally reached the heavens, and it was visible to the extremity of the whole earth.[l] 12 Its foliage was fair, and its fruit was abundant, and there was food for all on it. Under it the beast[m] of the field would seek shade,[n] and on its boughs the birds of the heavens would dwell,[o] and from it all flesh would feed itself.

13 "'I continued beholding in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, look! a watcher,[p] even a holy one,[q] coming down from the heavens themselves. 14 He was calling out loudly, and this is what he was saying: "CHOP the tree down,[r] and cut off its boughs. SHAKE off its foliage, and scatter its fruitage. Let the beast flee from under it, and the birds from its boughs.[s] 15 However, LEAVE its rootstock itself in the earth, even with a banding of iron and of copper, among the grass of the field; and with the dew of the heavens let it be wet, and with the beast let its portion be among the vegetation of the earth.[a] 16 Let its heart be changed from that of mankind, and let the heart of a beast be given to it,[b] and let seven times[c] pass over it. 17 By the decree of watchers[d] the thing is, and [by] the saying of holy ones the request is, to the intent that people living may know that the Most High is Ruler in the kingdom of mankind[e] and that to the one whom he wants to, he gives it[f] and he sets up over it even the lowliest one of mankind."[g]

18 "'This was the dream that I myself, King Neb·u·chad·nez'zar, beheld; and you yourself, O Bel·te·shaz'zar, say what the interpretation is, forasmuch as all the [other] wise men of my kingdom are unable to make known to me the interpretation itself.[h] But you are competent, because the spirit of holy gods is in you.'[i]

19 "At that time Daniel himself, whose name is Bel·te·shaz'zar,[j] was astonished for a moment, and his very thoughts began to frighten him.[k]

"The king was answering and saying, 'O Bel·te·shaz'zar, do not let the dream and the interpretation themselves frighten you.'[l]

23 "'And because the king beheld a watcher, even a holy one,[c] coming down from the heavens, who was also saying: "CHOP the tree down, and RUIN it. However, LEAVE its rootstock itself in the earth, but with a banding of iron and of copper, among the grass of the field, and with the dew of the heavens let it become wet, and with the beasts of the field let its portion be until seven times themselves pass over it,"[d] 24 this is the interpretation, O king, and the decree[e] of the Most High[f] is that which must befall my lord the king.[g] 25 And you they will be driving away from men, and with the beasts of the field your dwelling will come to be,[h] and the vegetation is what they will give even to you to eat just like bulls;[i] and with the dew of the heavens you yourself will be getting wet, and seven times[j] themselves will pass over you, until you know that the Most High is Ruler in the kingdom of mankind,[k] and that to the one whom he wants to he gives it.[l]

26 "'And because they said to leave the rootstock of the tree,[m] your kingdom will be sure to you after you know that the heavens are ruling.[n] 27 Therefore, O king, may my counsel seem good to you,[o] and remove your own sins by righteousness,[p] and your iniquity by showing mercy to the poor ones.[q] Maybe there will occur a lengthening of your prosperity.'"[r]

28 All this befell Neb·u·chad·nez'zar the king.[s]

29 At the end of twelve lunar months he happened to be walking upon the royal palace of Babylon. 30 The king was answering and saying:[t] "Is not

this Babylon the Great, that I myself have built for the royal house with the strength of my might[a] and for the dignity of my majesty?"[b]

31 While the word was yet in the king's mouth, there was a voice that fell from the heavens: "To you it is being said, O Neb·u·chad·nez'zar the king, 'The kingdom itself has gone away from you,[c] 32 and from mankind they are driving even you away, and with the beasts of the field your dwelling will be.[d] Vegetation they will give even to you to eat just like bulls, and seven times themselves will pass over you, until you know that the Most High is Ruler in the kingdom of mankind, and that to the one whom he wants to he gives it.'"[e]

33 At that moment[f] the word itself was fulfilled upon Neb·u·chad·nez'zar, and from mankind he was being driven away, and vegetation he began to eat just like bulls, and with the dew of the heavens his own body got to be wet, until his very hair grew long just like eagles' [feathers] and his nails like birds' [claws].[g]

34 "And at the end of the days[h] I, Neb·u·chad·nez'zar, lifted up to the heavens my eyes,[i] and my own understanding began to return to me; and I blessed the Most High himself,[j] and the One living to time indefinite I praised and glorified,[k] because his rulership is a rulership to time indefinite and his kingdom is for generation after generation.[l] 35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are being considered as merely nothing,[m] and he is doing according to his own will among the army of the heavens and the inhabitants of the earth.[n] And there exists no one that can check his hand[o] or that can say to him, 'What have you been doing?'[p]

36 "At the same time my understanding itself began to return to me, and for the dignity of my kingdom my majesty and my brightness themselves began to return to me;[a] and for me even my high royal officers and my grandees began eagerly searching, and I was reestablished upon my own kingdom, and greatness extraordinary was added to me.[b]

37 "Now I, Neb·u·chad·nez'zar, am praising and exalting and glorifying the King of the heavens,[c] because all his works are truth and his ways are justice,[d] and because those who are walking in pride he is able to humiliate."[e]

5 As regards Bel·shaz'zar[f] the king, he made a big feast for a thousand of his grandees, and in front of the thousand he was drinking wine.[g] 2 Bel·shaz'zar, under the influence of the wine,[h] said to bring in the vessels of gold and of silver[i] that Neb·u·chad·nez'zar his father had taken away from the temple that was in Jerusalem, that from them the king and his grandees, his concubines and his secondary wives might drink.[j] 3 At that time they brought in the vessels of gold that they had taken away from the temple of the house of God that was in Jerusalem, and from them the king and his grandees, his concubines and his secondary wives drank. 4 They drank wine, and they praised the gods of gold and of silver, copper, iron, wood and stone.[k]

5 At that moment the fingers of a man's hand came forth and were writing in front of the lampstand upon the plaster of the wall of the palace of the king,[l] and the king was beholding the back of the hand that was writing. 6 At that time, as regards the king, his very complexion was changed in him, and his own thoughts began to frighten him,[m] and his hip joints were loosening[a] and his very knees were knocking each other.[b]

7 The king was calling out loudly to bring in the conjurers, the Chal·de′ans and the astrologers.[c] The king was answering and saying to the wise men of Babylon: "Any man that will read this writing and show me its very interpretation, with purple he will be clothed,[d] with a necklace of gold about his neck, and as the third one in the kingdom he will rule."[e]

8 At that time all the wise men of the king were coming in, but they were not competent enough to read the writing itself or to make known to the king the interpretation.[f] 9 Consequently King Bel·shaz′zar was very much frightened and his complexion was changing within him; and his grandees were perplexed.[g]

10 As regards the queen, because of the words of the king and his grandees she entered right into the banqueting hall. The queen answered and said: "O king, keep living even to times indefinite.[h] Do not let your thoughts frighten you, nor let your complexion be changed. 11 There exists a capable man in your kingdom in whom there is the spirit of holy gods;[i] and in the days of your father illumination and insight and wisdom like the wisdom of gods were found in him, and King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar your father himself set him up as chief[j] of the magic-practicing priests, the conjurers, the Chal·de′ans [and] the astrologers, [even] your father, O king; 12 forasmuch as an extraordinary spirit and knowledge and insight to interpret dreams[k] and the explanation of riddles and the untying of knots had been found in him,[l] in Daniel, whom the king himself named Bel·te·shaz′zar.[m] Now let Daniel himself be called, that he may show the very interpretation."

13 Accordingly Daniel himself was brought in before the king. The king was speaking up and saying to Daniel: "Are you the Daniel that is of the exiles of Judah,[a] whom the king my father brought out of Judah?[b] 14 I have also heard concerning you that the spirit of gods is in you,[c] and illumination and insight and wisdom[d] extraordinary have been found in you. 15 And now there have been brought in before me the wise men [and] the conjurers, that they may read this very writing, even to make known to me its interpretation; but they are not competent enough to show the very interpretation of the word.[e] 16 And I myself have heard concerning you, that you are able to furnish interpretations[f] and to untie knots themselves. Now, if you are able to read the writing and to make known to me its very interpretation, with purple you will be clothed, with a necklace of gold around your neck, and as the third one in the kingdom you will rule."[g]

17 At that time Daniel was answering and saying before the king: "Let your gifts prove to be to you yourself, and your presents do you give to others.[h] However, I shall read the writing itself to the king, and the interpretation I shall make known to him.[i] 18 As for you, O king, the Most High God[j] himself gave to Neb·u·chad·nez′zar your father[k] the kingdom and the greatness and the dignity and the majesty.[l] 19 And because of the greatness that He gave him, all peoples, national groups and languages proved to be quaking and showing fear before him.[m] Whom he happened to want to, he was killing; and whom he happened to want to, he was striking; and whom he happened to want to, he was exalting; and whom he happened to want to, he was humiliating.[a] 20 But when his heart became haughty and his own spirit became hard, so as to act presumptuously,[b] he was brought down from the throne of his kingdom, and his own dignity was taken away from him.[c] 21 And from the sons of mankind he was driven away, and his very heart was made like that of a beast, and with the wild asses his dwelling was.[d] Vegetation they would give him to eat just like bulls, and with the dew of the heavens his own body got to be wet,[e] until he knew that the Most High God is Ruler in the kingdom of mankind, and that the one whom he wants to, he sets up over it.[f]

22 "And as for you, his son Bel·shaz′zar,[g] you have not humbled your heart,[h] although you knew all this.[i] 23 But against the Lord of the heavens you exalted yourself,[j] and they brought before you even the vessels of his house;[k] and you yourself and your grandees, your concubines and your secondary wives have been drinking wine from them, and you have praised mere gods of silver and of gold, copper, iron, wood and stone,[l] that are beholding nothing or hearing nothing or knowing nothing;[m] but the God in whose hand your breath is[n] and to whom all your ways belong[o] you have not glorified.[p] 24 Consequently from before him there was being sent the back of a hand, and this very writing was inscribed.[q] 25 And this is the writing that was inscribed: ME′NE, ME′NE, TE′KEL and PAR′SIN.

26 "This is the interpretation of the word: ME′NE, God has numbered [the days of] your kingdom and has finished it.[r]

27 "TE′KEL, you have been weighed in the balances and have been found deficient.[s]

28 "PE′RES, your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and the Persians."[a]

29 At that time Bel·shaz′zar commanded, and they clothed Daniel with purple, with a necklace of gold about his neck; and they heralded concerning him that he was to become the third ruler in the kingdom.[b]

30 In that very night Bel·shaz′zar the Chal·de′an king was killed[c] 31 and Da·ri′us[d] the Mede himself received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

6 It seemed good to Da·ri′us, and he set up over the kingdom one hundred and twenty satraps, who were to be over the whole kingdom;[e] 2 and over them three high officials, of whom Daniel was one,[f] in order that these satraps[g] might continually be giving to them the report and the king himself might not become the loser.[h] 3 Then it was that this Daniel was steadily distinguishing himself[i] over the high officials and the satraps, forasmuch as an extraordinary spirit was in him;[j] and the king was intending to elevate him over all the kingdom.

4 At that time the high officials and the satraps themselves were constantly seeking to find some pretext against Daniel respecting the kingdom;[k] but there was no pretext or corrupt thing at all that they were able to find, forasmuch as he was trustworthy and no negligence or corrupt thing at all was found in him.[l] 5 Consequently these able-bodied men were saying: "We shall find in this Daniel no pretext at all, except we have to find [it] against him in the law of his God."[m]

6 Accordingly these high officials and satraps themselves entered as a throng to the king,[n]

and this is what they were saying to him: "O Da·ri′us the king, live on even for times indefinite.[a] 7 All the high officials of the kingdom, the prefects and the satraps, the high royal officers and the governors, have taken counsel together to establish a royal statute[b] and to enforce an interdict, that whoever makes a petition to any god or man for thirty days except to you, O king, should be thrown to the lions' pit.[c] 8 Now, O king, may you establish the statute and sign the writing,[d] in order for [it] not to be changed, according to the law of the Medes and the Persians,[e] which is not annulled."[f]
9 In accord with this, King Da·ri′us himself signed the writing and the interdict.[g] 10 But Daniel, as soon as he knew that the writing had been signed, entered into his house, and, the windows in his roof chamber being open for him toward Jerusalem,[h] even three times in a day[i] he was kneeling on his knees and praying[j] and offering praise before his God,[k]
as he had been regularly doing prior to this.[l] 11 At that time
these able-bodied men themselves crowded in and found Daniel petitioning and imploring favor before his God.[m] 12 Then it was that they approached and were saying before the king concerning the interdict of the king: "Is there not an interdict that you have signed that any man that asks a petition from any god or man for thirty days except from you, O king, he should be thrown to the lions' pit?"[n] The king was answering and saying:
"The matter is well established according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, which is not annulled."[o] 13 Immediately they answered, and they were saying before the king:
"Daniel,[p] who is of the exiles of Judah,[q] has paid no regard to you, O king, nor to the interdict that you signed, but three times in a day he is making his petition."[a] 14 Consequently the king, as soon as he heard the word, it was very displeasing to him,[b] and toward Daniel he set [his] mind in order to rescue him;[c] and till the setting of the sun he kept on striving to deliver him. 15 Finally
these able-bodied men themselves entered as a throng to the king, and they were saying to the king: "Take note, O king, that the law belonging to the Medes and the Persians is that any interdict[d] or statute that the king himself establishes is not to be changed."[e] 16 Accordingly the king himself commanded, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the pit of the lions.[f] The king was answering and saying to Daniel: "Your God whom you are serving with constancy, he himself will rescue you."[g] 17 And a stone was brought and placed on the mouth of the pit, and the king sealed it with his signet ring and with the signet ring of his grandees, in order that nothing should be changed in the case of Daniel.[h] 18 At that time the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting,[i] and no musical instruments were brought in before him, and his very sleep fled from him.[j] 19 Finally the king himself, at dawn,
proceeded to get up in the daylight,
and in a hurry he went right to the lions' pit. 20 And as he got near to the pit, he cried out with a sad voice even to Daniel.
The king was speaking up and saying to Daniel: "O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God whom you are serving with constancy[k] been able to rescue
you from the lions?"[l] 21 Immediately Daniel himself spoke even with the king: "O king, live on even to times indefinite. 22 My own God[m] sent his angel[a] and shut the mouth of the lions,[b] and they have not brought me to ruin, forasmuch

as before him innocence itself was found in me;[c] and also before you, O king, no hurtful act have I done."[d]
23 Then it was that the king himself became very glad,[e] and Daniel himself he commanded to be lifted up out of the pit.
And Daniel was lifted up out of the pit, and there was no hurt at all found on him, because he had trusted in his God.[f] 24 And the king commanded, and they brought these able-bodied men who had accused Daniel,[g] and into the lions' pit
they threw them,[h] their sons and their wives;[i] and they had not reached the bottom of the pit before the lions had got the mastery over them, and all their bones they crushed.[j] 25 Then it was that Da·ri′us the king himself wrote to all the peoples, the national groups and the tongues that are dwelling in all the earth:[k] "May YOUR peace grow very much![l] 26 From before me there has been put through an order[m] that, in every dominion of my kingdom, people are to be quaking and fearing before the God of Daniel.[n] For he is the living God and One enduring to times indefinite,[o] and his kingdom[p] is one that will not be brought to ruin,[q] and his dominion is forever.[r] 27 He is rescuing and delivering[s] and performing signs and wonders in the heavens[t] and on the earth,[u] for he has rescued Daniel from the paw of the lions."
28 And as for this Daniel, he prospered in the kingdom of Da·ri′us[v] and in the kingdom of Cyrus the Persian.[w]

7 In the first year of Bel·shaz′zar[x] the king of Babylon, Daniel himself beheld a dream and visions of his head upon his bed.[y] At that time he wrote down the dream itself.[z]
The complete account of the matters he told. 2 Daniel was speaking up and saying:
"I happened to be beholding
in my visions during the night, and, see there! the four winds[a]
of the heavens were stirring up the vast sea.[b] 3 And four huge beasts[c] were coming up out of the sea,[d] each one being different[e] from the others.
4 "The first one was like a lion,[f] and it had the wings of an eagle.[g] I kept on beholding until its wings were plucked out, and it was lifted up from the earth[h] and was made to stand up on two feet just like a man, and there was given to it the heart of a man.[i] 5 "And, see there! another beast, a second one, it being like a bear.[j] And on one side it was raised up,[k] and there were three ribs in its mouth between its teeth; and this is what they were saying to it, 'Get up, eat much flesh.'[l]
6 "After this I kept on beholding, and, see there!
another [beast], one like a leopard,[m]
but it had four wings of a flying creature on its back. And the beast had four heads,[n] and there was given to it rulership indeed.
7 "After this I kept on beholding in the visions of the night, and, see there! a fourth beast, fearsome and terrible and unusually strong.[o] And it had teeth of iron, big ones. It was devouring and crushing, and what was left it was treading down with its feet. And it was something different from all the [other] beasts that were prior to it, and it had ten horns.[p] 8 I kept on considering the horns, and, look! another horn, a small one,[q] came up in among them, and there were three of the first horns that were plucked

9 "I kept on beholding until there were thrones placed[b] and the Ancient of Days[c] sat down. His clothing was white just like snow,[d] and the hair of his head was like clean wool.[e] His throne was flames of fire;[f] its wheels were a burning fire.[g] 10 There was a stream of fire flowing and going out from before him.[h] There were a thousand thousands that kept ministering to him,[i] and ten thousand times ten thousand that kept standing right before him.[j] The Court[k] took its seat, and there were books that were opened.

11 "I kept on beholding at that time because of the sound of the grandiose words that the horn was speaking;[l] I kept on beholding until the beast was killed and its body was destroyed and it was given to the burning fire.[m] 12 But as for the rest of the beasts,[n] their rulerships were taken away, and there was a lengthening in life given to them for a time and a season.[o]

13 "I kept on beholding in the visions of the night, and, see there! with the clouds[p] of the heavens someone like a son of man[q] happened to be coming; and to the Ancient of Days[r] he gained access, and they brought him up close even before that One.[s] 14 And to him there were given rulership[t] and dignity[u] and kingdom,[v] that the peoples, national groups and languages should all serve even him.[w] His rulership is an indefinitely lasting rulership that will not pass away, and his kingdom one that will not be brought to ruin.[x]

15 "As for me, Daniel, my spirit was distressed within on account of it, and the very visions of my head began to frighten me.[a] 16 I went up close to one of those who were standing, that I might request from him reliable information on all this.[b] And he said to me, as he went on to make known to me the very interpretation of the matters,

17 "'As for these huge beasts, because they are four,[c] there are four kings that will stand up from the earth.[d] 18 But the holy ones[e] of the Supreme One[f] will receive the kingdom, and they will take possession of the kingdom[g] for time indefinite, even for time indefinite upon times indefinite.'

19 "Then it was that I desired to make certain concerning the fourth beast, which proved to be different from all the others, extraordinarily fearsome, the teeth of which were of iron and the claws of which were of copper, which was devouring [and] crushing, and which was treading down even what was left with its feet;[h] 20 and concerning the ten horns that were on its head,[i] and the other [horn][j] that came up and before which three fell,[k] even that horn that had eyes and a mouth speaking grandiose things[l] and the appearance of which was bigger than that of its fellows.

21 "I kept on beholding when that very horn made war upon the holy ones, and it was prevailing against them,[m] 22 until the Ancient of Days[n] came and judgment itself was given in favor of the holy ones of the Supreme One,[o] and the definite time arrived that the holy ones took possession of the kingdom itself.[p]

23 "This is what he said, 'As for the fourth beast, there is a fourth kingdom that will come to be on the earth, that will be different from all the [other] kingdoms; and it will devour all the earth and will trample it down and crush it.[a] 24 And as for the ten horns, out of that kingdom there are ten kings that will rise up;[b] and still another one will rise up after them, and he himself will be different from the first ones,[c] and three kings he will humiliate.[d] 25 And he will speak even words against the Most High,[e] and he will harass continually the holy ones themselves of the Supreme One.[f] And he will intend to change times[g] and law,[h] and they will be given into his hand for a time, and times and half a time.[i] 26 And the Court itself proceeded to sit,[j] and his own rulership they finally took away, in order to annihilate [him] and to destroy [him] totally.[k]

27 "'And the kingdom and the rulership and the grandeur of the kingdoms under all the heavens were given to the people who are the holy ones of the Supreme One.[l] Their kingdom is an indefinitely lasting kingdom,[m] and all the rulerships will serve and obey even them.'[n]

28 "Up to this point is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my own thoughts kept frightening me a great deal, so that my very complexion changed in me; but the matter itself I kept in my own heart."[o]

8 In the third year of the kingship of Bel·shaz′zar[p] the king, there was a vision that appeared to me, even me, Daniel, after the one appearing to me at the start.[q] 2 And I began to see in the vision; and it came about, while I was seeing, that I was in Shu′shan[r] the castle, which is in E′lam[s] the jurisdictional district; and I proceeded to see in the vision, and I myself happened to be by the watercourse of U′lai.[t] 3 When I raised my eyes, then I saw, and, look! a ram[a] standing before the watercourse, and it had two horns. And the two horns were tall, but the one was taller than the other, and the taller was the one that came up afterward.[b] 4 I saw the ram making thrusts to the west and to the north and to the south, and no wild beasts kept standing before it, and there was no one doing any delivering out of its hand.[c] And it did according to its will, and it put on great airs.

5 And I, for my part, kept on considering, and, look! there was a male of the goats[d] coming from the sunset upon the surface of the whole earth, and it was not touching the earth. And as regards the he-goat, there was a conspicuous horn between its eyes.[e] 6 And it kept coming all the way to the ram possessing the two horns, which I had seen standing before the watercourse; and it came running toward it in its powerful rage.

7 And I saw it coming into close touch with the ram, and it began showing bitterness toward it, and it proceeded to strike down the ram and to break its two horns, and there proved to be no power in the ram to stand before it. So it threw it to the earth and trampled it down, and the ram proved to have no deliverer out of its hand.[f]

8 And the male of the goats, for its part, put on great airs[g] to an extreme; but as soon as it became mighty, the great horn was broken, and there proceeded to come up conspicuously four instead of it, toward the four winds of the heavens.[h]

9 And out of one of them there came forth another horn, a small one,[i] and it kept getting very much greater toward the south and toward the sunrising and toward the Decoration.[j]

10 And it kept getting greater all the way to the army of the heavens,[a] so that it caused some of the army and some of the stars[b] to fall to the earth, and it went trampling them down.[c] 11 And all the way to the Prince[d] of the army it put on great airs, and from him the constant [feature][e] was taken away, and the established place of his sanctuary was thrown down.[f] 12 And an army itself was gradually given over,[g] together with the constant [feature],[h] because of transgression;[i] and it kept throwing truth[j] to the earth,[k] and it acted and had success.[l]

13 And I got to hear a certain holy one[m] speaking, and another holy one proceeded to say to the particular one who was speaking: "How long will the vision be of the constant [feature][n] and of the transgression causing desolation,[o] to make both [the] holy place and [the] army things to trample on?"[p] 14 So he said to me: "Until two thousand three hundred evenings [and] mornings; and [the] holy place will certainly be brought into its right condition."[q]

15 Then it came about that, while I myself, Daniel, was seeing the vision and seeking an understanding,[r] why, look! there was standing in front of me someone in appearance like an able-bodied man.[s] 16 And I began to hear the voice of an earthling man in the midst of the U'lai,[t] and he proceeded to call out and say: "Ga'bri·el,[u] make that one there understand the thing seen."[v] 17 So he came beside where I was standing, but when he came I got terrified so that I fell upon my face. And he proceeded to say to me: "Understand,[w] O son of man,[x] that the vision is for the time of [the] end."[y] 18 And while he was speaking with me, I had become fast asleep on my face on the earth.[a] So he touched me and made me stand up where I had been standing.[b] 19 And he went on to say: "Here I am causing you to know what will occur in the final part of the denunciation, because it is for the appointed time of [the] end.[c]

20 "The ram that you saw possessing the two horns [stands for] the kings of Me'di·a and Persia.[d] 21 And the hairy he-goat [stands for] the king of Greece;[e] and as for the great horn that was between its eyes, it [stands for] the first king.[f] 22 And that one having been broken, so that there were four that finally stood up instead of it,[g] there are four kingdoms from [his] nation that will stand up, but not with his power.

23 "And in the final part of their kingdom, as the transgressors act to a completion, there will stand up a king fierce in countenance and understanding ambiguous sayings.[h] 24 And his power must become mighty, but not by his own power.[i] And in a wonderful way he will cause ruin,[j] and he will certainly prove successful and do effectively. And he will actually bring mighty ones to ruin, also the people made up of [the] holy ones.[k] 25 And according to his insight he will also certainly cause deception to succeed in his hand.[l] And in his heart he will put on great airs,[m] and during a freedom from care[n] he will bring many to ruin. And against the Prince of princes[o] he will stand up, but it will be without hand that he will be broken.[p]

26 "And the thing seen concerning the evening and the morning, which has been said, it is true.[q] And you, for your part, keep secret the vision, because it is yet for many days."[r]

27 And as for me, Daniel, I felt exhausted and was made sick for [some] days.[a] Then I got up and did the work of the king;[b] but I kept showing myself numbed on account of the thing seen, and there was nobody understanding [it].[c]

"Ah Jehovah the [true] God, the great One[n] and the fear-inspiring One, keeping the covenant[o] and the loving-kindness[p] to those loving him and to those keeping his commandments,[q] 5 we have sinned[r] and done wrong and acted wickedly and rebelled;[s] and there has been a turning aside from your commandments and from your judicial decisions.[t] 6 And we have not listened to your servants the prophets,[u] who have spoken in your name to our kings, our princes and our forefathers and to all the people of the land.[v] 7 To you, O Jehovah, there belongs the righteousness, but to us the shame of face as at this day,[w] to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to all those of Israel, those nearby and those far away in all the lands to which you dispersed them because of their unfaithfulness with which they acted against you.[x]

8 "O Jehovah, to us belongs the shame of face, to our kings, to our princes and to our forefathers, because we have sinned against you.[a] 9 To Jehovah our God belong the mercies[b] and the acts of forgiveness,[c] for we have rebelled against him.[d] 10 And we have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah our God by walking in his laws that he set before us by the hand of his servants the prophets.[e] 11 And all those of Israel have overstepped your law, and there has been a turning aside by not obeying your voice,[f] so that you poured out upon us the curse and the sworn oath[g] that is written in the law of Moses the servant of the [true] God, for we have sinned against Him. 12 And he proceeded to carry out his words that he had spoken against us[h] and against our judges who judged us,[i] by bringing upon us great calamity, such as was not done under the whole heavens as what has been done in Jerusalem.[j] 13 Just as it is written in the law of Moses,[k] all this calamity—it has come upon us,[l] and we have not softened the face of Jehovah our God by turning back from our error[m] and by showing insight into your trueness.[n]

14 "And Jehovah kept alert to the calamity and finally brought it upon us,[o] for Jehovah our God is righteous in all his works that he has done; and we have not obeyed his voice.[p]

15 "And now, O Jehovah our God, you who brought your people out from the land of Egypt by a strong hand[q] and proceeded to make a name for yourself as at this day,[r] we have sinned,[s] we have acted wickedly. 16 O Jehovah, according to all your acts of righteous-

"O Daniel, now I have come forth to make you have insight with understanding.[v] 23 At the start of your entreaties a word went forth, and I myself have come to make report, because you are someone very desirable.[w] So give consideration[x] to the matter, and have understanding in the thing seen.

Bel·te·shaz'zar;[a] and the matter was true, and there was a great military service.[b] And he understood the matter, and he had understanding in the thing seen.[c]

2 In those days I myself, Daniel, happened to be mourning[d] for three full weeks. 3 Dainty bread I did not eat, and no flesh or wine entered into my mouth, and in no way did I grease myself until the completing of the three full weeks.[e] 4 And on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, while I myself happened to be on the bank of the great river, that is, Hid'de·kel,[f] 5 I also proceeded to raise my eyes and see, and here was a certain man clothed in linen,[g] with his hips[h] girded with gold of U'phaz.[i] 6 And his body was like chrys'o·lite,[j] and his face like the appearance of lightning,[k] and his eyes like fiery torches,[l] and his arms and the place of his feet were like the sight of burnished copper,[m] and the sound of his words was like the sound of a crowd. 7 And I saw, I Daniel by myself, the appearance; but as for the men that happened to be with me, they did not see the appearance.[n] However, there was a great trembling that fell upon them, so that they went running away in hiding themselves.

8 And I—I was left remaining by myself, so that I saw this great appearance. And there was left remaining in me no power, and my own dignity became changed upon me to ruination, and I retained no power.[o] 9 And I began hearing the sound of his words; and while I was hearing the sound of his words, I myself also happened to be fast asleep[p] upon my face, with my face to the earth.[q] 10 And, look! there was a hand that touched me,[r] and it gradually stirred me up to [get] upon my knees and the palms of my hands. 11 And he proceeded to say to me:

"O Daniel, you very desirable man,[a] have understanding in the words that I am speaking to you,[b] and stand up where you were standing, for now I have been sent to you."

And when he spoke with me this word, I did stand up, shivering.

12 And he went on to say to me: "Do not be afraid,[c] O Daniel, for from the first day that you gave your heart to understanding[d] and humbling yourself before your God[e] your words have been heard, and I myself have come because of your words.[f] 13 But the prince[g] of the royal realm of Persia[h] was standing in opposition[i] to me for twenty-one days, and, look! Mi'cha·el,[j] one of the foremost princes,[k] came to help me; and I, for my part, remained there beside the kings of Persia.[l] 14 And I have come to cause you to discern what will befall your people[m] in the final part of the days,[n] because it is a vision[o] yet for the days [to come]."[p]

15 Now when he spoke with me words like these, I had set my face to the earth[q] and had become speechless. 16 And, look! one similar to the likeness of the sons of mankind was touching my lips,[r] and I began to open my mouth and speak[s] and say to the one who was standing in front of me: "O my lord,[t] because of the appearance my convulsions were turned within me, and I did not retain any power.[u] 17 So how was the servant of this my lord able to speak with this my lord?[v] And as for me, up to now there kept standing in me no power, and no breath at all was left remaining in me."[w]

18 And the one like the appearance of an earthling man proceeded to touch me again and strengthen me.[x] 19 Then he said: "Do not be afraid,[y] O

very desirable man.[a] May you have peace.[b] Be strong, yes, be strong."[c] And as soon as he spoke with me I exerted
my strength and finally said:
"Let my lord speak,[d] because you have strengthened me."[e] 20 So he went on to say:

"Do you really know why I have come to you? And now
I shall go back to fight with the prince of Persia.[f] When I am going forth, look! also the prince of Greece is coming.[g] 21 However, I shall tell you the things noted down in the writing of truth,[h] and there is no one holding strongly with me in these [things] but Mi'cha·el,[i] the prince of YOU people.[j]

11 "And as for me, in the first year of Da·ri'us the Mede[k] I stood up as a strengthener
and as a fortress to him.
2 And now what is truth I shall tell to you:[l]

"Look! There will yet be three kings standing up for Persia,[m] and the fourth one[n] will amass greater riches than all [others].[o]
And as soon as he has become strong in his riches, he will rouse up everything against the kingdom of Greece.[p]

3 "And a mighty king will certainly stand up and rule with extensive dominion[q] and do according to his will.[r] 4 And when he will have stood up,[s] his kingdom will be broken and be divided toward the four winds[t]
of the heavens,[u] but not to his posterity[v] and not according to his dominion with which he had ruled; because his kingdom will be uprooted, even for others than these.

5 "And the king of the south will become strong, even [one] of his princes; and he will prevail against him and will certainly rule with extensive dominion [greater than] that one's ruling power.

6 "And at the end of [some] years they will ally themselves with each other, and the very daughter of the king of the south will come to the king of the north in order to make an equitable arrangement. But she will not retain the power of her arm;[a] and he will not stand, neither his arm; and she will be given up, she herself, and those bringing her in, and he who caused her birth, and the one making her strong in [those] times. 7 And one from the sprout[b] of her roots will certainly stand up in his position, and he will come to the military force and come against the fortress of the king of the north and will certainly act against them and prevail. 8 And also with their gods,[c] with their molten images, with their desirable articles of silver and of gold, [and] with the captives he will come to Egypt. And he himself will for [some] years stand off from the king of the north.

9 "And he will actually come into the kingdom of the king of the south and go back to his own soil.

10 "Now as for his sons, they will excite themselves and actually gather together a crowd of large military forces. And in coming he will certainly come and flood over and pass through. But he will go back, and he will excite himself all the way to his fortress.

11 "And the king of the south will embitter himself and will have to go forth and fight with him, [that is,] with the king of the north; and he will certainly have a large crowd stand up, and the crowd will actually be given into the hand of that one.[d] 12 And the crowd will certainly be carried away. His heart will become exalted,[e] and he will actually cause tens of thousands to fall; but he will not use his strong position.

13 "And the king of the north
must return and set up a crowd larger than the first; and at the end of the times, [some] years,

he will come, doing so with a great military[a] force and with a great deal of goods.[b] 14 And in those times there will be many who will stand up against the king of the south.

"And the sons of the robbers belonging to your people will,
for their part, be carried along to try making a vision come true;[c] and they will have to stumble.[d]

15 "And the king of the north will come and throw up a siege rampart[e] and actually capture a city with fortifications. And as for the arms of the south, they will not stand, neither the people of his picked ones; and there will be no power to keep standing.
16 And the one coming against him will do according to his will, and there will be no one standing before him. And he will stand in the land of the Decoration,[f] and there will be extermination in his hand.[g] 17 And he will set his face[h] to come with the forcefulness of his entire kingdom, and there will be equitable[i] [terms] with him; and he will act effectively.[j]
And as regards the daughter of womankind, it will be granted to him to bring her to ruin. And she will not stand, and she will not continue to be his.[k] 18 And he will turn his face back to the coastlands[l] and will actually capture many.
And a commander will have to make the reproach from him cease for himself, [so that] his reproach will not be. He will make it turn back upon that one. 19 And he will turn his face back to the fortresses of his [own] land, and he will certainly stumble and fall, and he will not be found.[m]

20 "And there must stand up in his position one[n] who is causing an exactor[o] to pass through the splendid kingdom, and in a few days he will be broken, but not in anger nor in warfare.

21 "And there must stand up in his position one who is to be despised,[a] and they will certainly not set upon him the dignity of [the] kingdom; and he will actually come in during a freedom from care[b] and take hold of [the] kingdom by means of smoothness.[c] 22 And as regards
the arms[d] of the flood,
they will be flooded over on account of him, and they will be broken;[e] as will also[f] the Leader[g]
of [the] covenant.[h] 23 And because of their allying themselves with him he will carry on deception and actually come up and become mighty by means of a little nation.[i] 24 During freedom from care,[j] even into the fatness of the jurisdictional district he will enter in and actually do what his fathers and the fathers of his fathers have not done. Plunder and spoil and goods he will scatter among them; and against fortified places he will scheme out his schemes,[k] but only until a time.

25 "And he will arouse his power and his heart against the king of the south with a great military force; and the king of the south, for his part, will excite himself for the war with an exceedingly great and mighty military force. And he will not stand, because they will scheme out against him schemes. 26 And the very ones eating his delicacies will bring his breakdown.

"And as for his military force, it will be flooded away, and many will certainly fall down slain.

27 "And as regards these two kings, their heart will be inclined to doing what is bad, and at one table[l] a lie is what they will keep speaking.[m] But nothing will succeed,[n] because [the] end is yet for the time appointed.[o]

28 "And he will go back to his land with a great amount of goods, and his heart will be against the holy covenant.[a] And he will act effectively[b] and certainly go back to his land.

29 "At the time appointed[c] he will go back, and he will actually come against the south;[d] but it will not prove to be at the last the same as at the first. 30 And there will certainly come against him the ships of Kit′tim,[e] and he will have to become dejected.

"And he will actually go back and hurl denunciations[f] against the holy covenant[g] and act effectively; and he will have to go back and will give consideration to those leaving the holy covenant. 31 And there will be arms that will stand up, proceeding from him; and they will actually profane the sanctuary,[h] the fortress, and remove the constant [feature].[i]

"And they will certainly put in place the disgusting thing[j] that is causing desolation.[k]

32 "And those who are acting wickedly against [the] covenant,[l] he will lead into apostasy[m] by means of smooth words.[n] But as regards the people who are knowing their God,[o] they will prevail[p] and act effectively. 33 And as regards those having insight[q] among the people, they will impart understanding to the many.[r] And they will certainly be made to stumble by sword and by flame, by captivity and by plundering,[s] for [some] days. 34 But when they are made to stumble they will be helped with a little help;[t] and many will certainly join themselves to them by means of smoothness.[u] 35 And some of those having insight will be made to stumble,[v] in order to do a refining work because of them and to do a cleansing and to do a whitening,[w] until the time of [the] end;[x] because it is yet for the time appointed.[y]

36 "And the king will actually do according to his own will, and he will exalt himself and magnify himself above every god;[a] and against the God of gods[b] he will speak marvelous things. And he will certainly prove successful until [the] denunciation will have come to a finish;[c] because the thing decided upon must be done. 37 And to the God of his fathers he will give no consideration; and to the desire of women and to every other god he will give no consideration, but over everyone he will magnify himself.[d] 38 But to the god of fortresses, in his position he will give glory; and to a god that his fathers did not know he will give glory by means of gold and by means of silver and by means of precious stone and by means of desirable things. 39 And he will act effectively against the most fortified strongholds, along with a foreign god. Whoever has given [him] recognition he will make abound with glory, and he will actually make them rule among many; and [the] ground he will apportion out for a price.

40 "And in the time of [the] end the king of the south[e] will engage with him in a pushing, and against him the king of the north will storm with chariots and with horsemen and with many ships; and he will certainly enter into the lands and flood over and pass through. 41 He will also actually enter[f] into the land of the Decoration,[g] and there will be many [lands] that will be made to stumble.[h] But these are the ones that will escape out of his hand, E′dom and Mo′ab[i] and the main part of the sons of Am′mon. 42 And he will keep thrusting out his hand against the lands; and as regards the land of Egypt,[j] she will not prove to be an escapee. 43 And he will actually rule over the hidden treasures of the gold and the silver and over all the desirable things of Egypt.

And the Lib′y·ans and the E·thi·o′pi·ans will be at his steps.

44 "But there will be reports that will disturb him,[a] out of the sunrising[b] and out of the north, and he will certainly go forth in a great rage in order to annihilate and to devote many to destruction.[c] 45 And he will plant his palatial tents between [the] grand sea and the holy mountain of Decoration;[d] and he will have to come all the way to his end,[e] and there will be no helper for him.[f]

12 "And during that time Mi′cha·el[g] will stand up,[h] the great prince[i] who is standing in behalf of the sons of your people.[j] And there will certainly occur a time of distress such as has not been made to occur since there came to be a nation until that time.[k] And during that time your people will escape,[l] every one who is found written down in the book.[m] 2 And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up,[n] these to indefinitely lasting life[o] and those to reproaches [and] to indefinitely lasting abhorrence.[p]

3 "And the ones having insight will shine like the brightness of the expanse;[q] and those who are bringing the many to righteousness,[r] like the stars to time indefinite, even forever.

4 "And as for you, O Daniel, make secret the words and seal up the book,[s] until the time of [the] end.[t] Many will rove about, and the [true] knowledge will become abundant."[u]

5 And I saw, I Daniel, and, look! there were two others standing,[v] one on the bank here of the stream and the other on the bank there of the stream.[w] 6 Then one said to the man clothed with the linen,[x] who was up above the waters of the stream: "How long will it be to the end of the wonderful things?"[a] 7 And I began to hear the man clothed with the linen, who was up above the waters of the stream, as he proceeded to raise his right [hand] and his left [hand] to the heavens and to swear[b] by the One who is alive for time indefinite:[c] "It will be for an appointed time, appointed times and a half.[d] And as soon as there will have been a finishing of the dashing of the power of the holy people to pieces,[e] all these things will come to their finish."

8 Now as for me, I heard, but I could not understand;[f] so that I said: "O my lord, what will be the final part of these things?"[g]

9 And he went on to say: "Go, Daniel, because the words are made secret and sealed up until the time of [the] end.[h] 10 Many will cleanse themselves[i] and whiten themselves[j] and will be refined.[k] And the wicked ones will certainly act wickedly,[l] and no wicked ones at all will understand;[m] but the ones having insight will understand.[n]

HOSEA

1 The word of Jehovah[a] that occurred to Ho·se'a[b] the son of Be·e'ri in the days[c] of Uz·zi'ah,[d] Jo'tham,[e] A'haz[f] [and] Hez·e·ki'ah,[g] kings of Judah, and in the days of Jer·o·bo'am[h] the son of Jo'ash,[i] the king of Israel. 2 There was a start of the word of Jehovah by Ho·se'a, and Jehovah proceeded to say to Ho·se'a: "Go,[j] take to yourself a wife of fornication and children of fornication, because by fornication the land positively turns from following Jehovah."[k]

3 And he proceeded to go and take Go'mer the daughter of Dib·la'im, so that she became pregnant and in time bore to him a son.[l]

4 And Jehovah went on to say to him: "Call his name Jez're·el,[m] for yet a little while and I must hold an accounting for the acts of bloodshed of Jez're·el against the house of Je'hu,[n] and I must cause the royal rule of the house of Israel to cease.[o] 5 And it must occur in that day that I must break the bow[p] of Israel in the low plain of Jez're·el."

6 And she proceeded to become pregnant another time and to give birth to a daughter. And He went on to say to him: "Call her name Lo-ru·ha'mah,[q] for I shall no more show mercy[r] again to the house of Israel, because I shall positively take them away.[s] 7 But to the house of Judah I shall show mercy,[t] and I will save them by Jehovah their God;[u] but I shall not save them by a bow or by a sword or by war, by horses or by horsemen."[v]

8 And she gradually weaned Lo-ru·ha'mah, and she proceeded to become pregnant and give birth to a son. 9 So He said: "Call his name Lo-am'mi, because YOU men are not my people and I myself shall prove to be not YOURS.

10 "And the number of the sons of Israel must become like the grains of the sand of the sea that cannot be measured or numbered.[a] And it must occur that in the place in which it used to be said to them, 'YOU men are not my people,'[b] it will be said to them, 'The sons of the living God.'[c] 11 And the sons of Judah and the sons of Israel will certainly be collected together into a unity[d] and will actually set up for them*selves one head and go up out* of the land,[e] because great will be the day of Jez're·el.[f]

2 "SAY to YOUR brothers, 'My people!'[g] and to YOUR sisters, 'O woman shown mercy!'[h] 2 Carry on a legal case with YOUR mother;[i] carry on a legal case, for she is not my wife[j] and I am not her husband.[k] And she should put away her fornication from before herself and her acts of adultery from between her breasts,[l] 3 that I may not strip her naked[m] and actually place her as in the day of her being born,[n] and actually set her like a wilderness[o] and place her like a waterless land[p] and put her to death with thirst.[q] 4 And to her sons I shall not show mercy,[r] for they are the sons of fornication.[s] 5 For their mother has committed fornication.[t] She that was pregnant with them has acted shamefully,[u] for she has said, 'I want to go after those passionately loving me,[v] those giving my bread and my water, my wool and my linen, my oil and my drink.'[a]

6 "Therefore here I am hedging your way about with thorns; and I will heap up a stone wall against her,[b] so that her own roadways she will not find.[c] 7 And she will actually chase after her passionate lovers, but she will not overtake them;[d] and she will certainly look for them, but she will not find [them]. And she will have to say, 'I want to go and return to my husband,[e] the first one,[f] for I had it better at that time than now.'[g] 8 But she herself did not recognize[h] that it was I who had given to her the grain[i] and the sweet wine and the oil, and that I had made silver it*self abound for her, and gold,* [which] they made use of for Ba'al.[j]

9 "'Therefore I shall turn back and certainly take away my grain in its time and my sweet wine in its season,[k] and I will snatch away my wool and my linen for covering her nakedness.[l] 10 And now I shall uncover her private parts to the eyes of her passionate lovers,[m] and there will be no man to snatch her out of my hand.[n] 11 And I shall certainly cause all her exultation,[o] her festival,[p] her new moon[q] and her sabbath and her every festal season to cease. 12 And I will lay desolate her vine[r] and her fig tree,[s] of which she has said: "They are a gift to me, which my passionate lovers have given to me"; and I will set them as a forest,[t] and the wild beast of the field will certainly devour them. 13 And I will hold an accounting[u] against her for the days of the Ba'al images[v] to which she kept making sac*rificial smoke,*[w] when she kept decking herself with her ring and her ornament[x] and kept going after her passionate lovers,[y] and I was the one that she forgot,'[a] is the utterance of Jehovah.

14 "'Therefore here I am pre*vailing upon her,* and I will cause her to go into the wilderness,[b] and I will speak to her heart.[c] 15 And I will give her her vineyards from then onward,[d] and the low plain of A'chor[e] as an entrance to hope; and she will certainly answer there as in the days of her youth[f] and as in the day of her coming up out of the land of Egypt.[g] 16 And it must occur in that day,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'that you will call [me] My husband, and you will no longer call me My owner.'[h]

17 "'And I will remove the names of the Ba'al images from her mouth,[i] and they will no longer be remembered by their name.[j] 18 And for them I shall certainly conclude a covenant in that day in connection with the wild beast of the field[k] and with the flying creature of the heavens and the creeping thing of the ground, and the bow and the sword and war I shall break out of the land,[l] and I will make them lie down in security.[m] 19 And I will engage you to me for time indefinite,[n] and I will engage you to me in righteousness and in justice and in loving-kindness and in mercies.[o] 20 And I will engage you to me in faithfulness; and you will certainly know Jehovah.'[p]

21 "'And it must occur in that day that I shall answer,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'I shall answer the heavens, and they, for their part, will answer the earth;[q] 22 and the earth, for its part, will answer the grain[r] and the sweet wine and the oil; and they, for their part, will answer Jez're·el ['God will sow seed'].[s] 23 And I shall certainly sow her like seed for me in the earth,[a] and I will show mercy to her who was not shown mercy,[b] and I will say to those not my people: “You are my people”;[c] and they, for their part, will say: “[You are] my God.”’”[d]

3 And Jehovah went on to say to me: “Go once again, love a woman loved by a companion[e] and committing adultery, as in the case of Jehovah's love for the sons of Israel[f] while they are turning to other gods[g] and are loving raisin cakes.”[h]

2 And I proceeded to purchase her for myself for fifteen silver [pieces][i] and a ho'mer measure of barley and a half-ho'mer of barley. 3 Then I said to her: “For many days you will dwell as mine.[j] You must not commit fornication,[k] and you must not come to belong to [another] man;[l] and I also will be for you.”

4 It is because for many days the sons of Israel will dwell without a king[m] and without a prince and without a sacrifice[n] and without a pillar and without an eph'od[o] and teraphim.[p] 5 Afterwards the sons of Israel will come back and certainly look for Jehovah their God,[q] and for David their king;[r] and they will certainly come quivering to Jehovah[s] and to his goodness in the final part of the days.[t]

4 Hear the word of Jehovah, O sons of Israel, for Jehovah has a legal case with the inhabitants of the land,[u] for there is no truth[v] nor loving-kindness nor knowledge of God in the land.[w] 2 There are the pronouncing of curses[x] and practicing of deception[y] and murdering[z] and stealing[a] and committing of adultery[b] that have broken forth, and acts of bloodshed have touched other acts of bloodshed.[c] 3 That is why the land will mourn[d] and every inhabitant in it will have to fade away with the wild beast of the field and with the flying creature of the heavens, and even the fishes of the sea themselves will be gathered [in death].[a]

4 “However, let no man contend,[b] neither let a man reprove, as your people are like those who are contending against a priest.[c] 5 And you will certainly stumble in the daytime,[d] and even a prophet must stumble with you, as at night.[e] And I will put your mother to silence.[f] 6 My people will certainly be silenced, because there is no knowledge.[g] Because the knowledge is what you yourself have rejected,[h] I shall also reject you from serving as a priest to me;[i] and [because] you keep forgetting the law of your God,[j] I shall forget your sons, even I.[k] 7 In proportion to the multitude of them, so they have sinned against me.[l] My own glory they have exchanged for mere dishonor.[m] 8 The sin of my people is what they keep devouring, and to their error they keep lifting up their soul.[n]

9 “And it will have to become for the people the same as for the priest;[o] and I shall certainly hold an accounting against them for their ways;[p] and their dealings I shall bring back upon them.[q] 10 And they will actually eat, but will not get satisfied.[r] They will actually treat [women] as harlots; but they will not increase,[s] because they have left off paying regard to Jehovah himself.[t] 11 Fornication and wine and sweet wine are what take away good motive.[u] 12 Of their wooden[v] [idol] my own people keep inquiring,[w] and their own [hand]

staff keeps telling them; because the very spirit of fornication has caused them to wander off,[a] and by fornication they go out from under their God.[b] 13 On the tops of the mountains they sacrifice,[c] and on the hills they make sacrificial smoke,[d] under massive tree and storax tree and big tree, because its shade is good.[e] That is why YOUR daughters commit fornication and YOUR own daughters-in-law commit adultery.

14 “I shall not hold an accounting against YOUR daughters because they commit fornication, and against YOUR daughters-in-law because they commit adultery. For, as to the [men], it is with the harlots that they get off to themselves,[f] and with the female temple prostitutes[g] that they sacrifice; and a people [that] does not understand[h] will be trodden down. 15 Although you are committing fornication, O Israel,[i] let not Judah become guilty,[j] and do not YOU people come to Gil'gal,[k] neither go up to Beth-a'ven[l] nor swear ‘As Jehovah is alive!’[m] 16 For, like a stubborn cow, Israel has become stubborn.[n] Is it now that Jehovah will shepherd them like a young ram in a roomy place? 17 E'phra·im is joined with idols.[o] Let him be to himself![p] 18 Their wheat beer being gone,[q] they have positively treated [woman] as a harlot.[r] Her shielders[s] have positively loved dishonor.[t] 19 A wind has wrapped her up in its wings.[u] And they will be ashamed of their sacrifices.”[v]

5 “Hear this, O priests,[w] and pay attention, O house of Israel, and YOU, O house of the king,[x] give ear, for with YOU people the judgment has to do; because a trap[y] is what YOU have become to Miz'pah and as a net spread over Ta'bor.[z] 2 And in slaughter work those falling away have gone deep down,[a] and I was an exhortation to all of them.[b] 3 I personally have known E'phra·im,[c] and Israel itself has not been hidden from me.[d] For now, O E'phra·im, you have treated [women] like harlots;[e] Israel has defiled itself.[f] 4 Their dealings do not permit of a returning to their God,[g] because there is a spirit of fornication[h] in the midst of them; and Jehovah himself they have not acknowledged.[i] 5 And the pride of Israel has testified to his face;[j] and Israel and E'phra·im themselves are made to stumble in their error.[k] Judah has also stumbled with them.[l] 6 With their flock and with their herd they proceeded to go and look for Jehovah, but they could not find [him].[m] He had drawn away from them. 7 With Jehovah himself they have dealt treacherously,[n] for it is to strange sons that they have become father.[o] Now a month will devour them with their portions.[p]

8 “BLOW a horn[q] in Gib'e·ah,[r] a trumpet in Ra'mah! SHOUT a war cry at Beth-a'ven[s]—after you, O Benjamin![t] 9 O E'phra·im, a mere object of astonishment you will become in the day of rebuke.[u] Among the tribes of Israel I have made known trustworthy words.[v] 10 The princes of Judah have become just like those moving back a boundary.[w] Upon them I shall pour out my fury just like water. 11 E'phra·im is oppressed, crushed in justice,[x] for he had taken it upon himself to walk after his adversary.[y] 12 And I was like the moth[z] to E'phra·im and just like rottenness to the house of Judah.

cer.[a] And E′phra·im proceeded to go to As·syr′i·a[b] and send to a great king.[c] But that one himself was unable to give healing to YOU people,[d] and he could not take from YOU an ulcer with any cure.[e] 14 For I shall be like a young lion to E′phra·im[f] and like a maned young lion to the house of Judah. I, I myself shall tear to pieces and I shall go [and] carry off, and there will be no deliverer.[g] 15 I shall go, I will return to my place until they bear their guilt;[h] and they will certainly seek my face.[i] When they are in sore straits,[j] they will seek me.”[k]

6 “Come, YOU people, and do let us return to Jehovah,[l] for he himself has torn in pieces[m] but he will heal us.[n] He kept striking, but he will bind us up.[o] 2 He will make us alive after two days.[p] On the third day he will make us get up, and we shall live before him.[q] 3 And we will know, we will pursue to know Jehovah.[r] Like dawn,[s] his going forth is firmly established.[t] And he will come in like a pouring rain to us;[u] like a spring rain that saturates [the] earth.”[v]

4 “What shall I do to you, O E′phra·im? What shall I do to you, O Judah,[w] when the loving-kindness of YOU people is like the morning clouds and like the dew that early goes away? 5 That is why I shall have to hew [them] by the prophets;[x] I shall have to kill them by the sayings of my mouth.[y] And the judgments upon you will be as the light that goes forth.[z] 6 For in loving-kindness I have taken delight,[a] and not in sacrifice;[b] and in the knowledge of God rather than in whole burnt offerings.[c] 7 But they themselves, like earthling man, have overstepped [the] covenant.[d] There is where they have dealt treacherously with me.[e] 8 Gil′e·ad[f] is a town of practicers of what is harmful; their footprints are blood.[a] 9 And as in the lying in wait for a man,[b] the association of priests are marauding bands.[c] By the wayside they commit murder at She′chem,[d] because they have carried on nothing but loose conduct.[e] 10 In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing.[f] There there is fornication on the part of E′phra·im.[g] Israel has defiled itself.[h] 11 Furthermore, O Judah, a harvest has been fixed for you, when I gather back the captive ones of my people.”[i]

7 “At the time that I would bring healing to Israel,[j] the error of E′phra·im is also actually uncovered,[k] and the bad things of Sa·mar′i·a;[l] for they have practiced falsehood,[m] and a thief himself comes in; a marauder band actually makes a dash on the outside.[n] 2 And they do not say to their own heart[o] that all their badness I will remember.[p] Now their dealings have surrounded them.[q] In front of my face they have come to be.[r] 3 By their badness they make [the] king rejoice, and, by their deceptions, princes.[s] 4 All of them are adulterers,[t] like a furnace set burning by a baker, [who] ceases poking after kneading dough until it is leavened. 5 On the day of our king, princes have sickened themselves[u]—there is a rage because of wine.[v] He has drawn his hand along with deriders. 6 For they have brought their heart near as to a furnace;[w] it is burning inside them.[x] All night long their baker is sleeping; by morning [the furnace] is burning as with a flaming fire.[y] 7 They get hot, all of them, like the furnace, and they actually devour their judges. Their own kings have all fallen;[a] none among them is calling out to me.[b]

8 “As for E′phra·im, it is among the peoples that he personally mingles himself.[c] E′phra·im himself has become a round cake not turned on the other side.[d] 9 Strangers have eaten up his power,[e] and he himself has not come to know [it].[f] Also, gray hairs themselves have become white on him, but he himself has not come to know [it]. 10 And the pride of Israel has testified to his face,[g] and they have not returned to Jehovah their God,[h] nor have they looked for him because of all this.[i] 11 And E′phra·im proves to be like a simpleminded dove[j] without heart.[k] To Egypt they have called;[l] to As·syr′i·a they have gone.[m]

12 “Whichever way they go, I shall spread out over them my net.[n] Like flying creatures of the heavens I shall bring them down.[o] I shall discipline them in agreement with the report to their assembly.[p] 13 Woe to them,[q] for they have fled from me![r] Despoiling to them, for they have transgressed against me! And I myself proceeded to redeem them,[s] but they themselves have spoken lies even against me.[t] 14 And they did not call to me for aid with their heart,[u] although they kept howling on their beds. On account of their grain and sweet wine they kept loafing about;[v] they kept turning against me.[w] 15 And I, for my part, did disciplining;[x] I strengthened their arms,[y] but against me they kept scheming what was bad.[z] 16 And they proceeded to return, not to anything higher;[a] they had become like a loose bow.[b] By the sword their princes will fall because of the denunciation of their tongue.[c] This will be their derision in the land of Egypt.”[a]

8 “To your mouth—a horn![b] [One comes] like an eagle[c] against the house of Jehovah, for the reason that they have overstepped my covenant,[d] and against my law they have transgressed.[e] 2 To me they keep crying, ‘O my God, we, Israel, have known you.’[f]

3 “Israel has cast off good.[g] Let one who is an enemy pursue him.[h] 4 They themselves have set up kings,[i] but not because of me. They have set up princes, but I did not know [it]. With their silver and their gold they have made for themselves idols,[j] to the end that they may be cut off.[k] 5 Your calf has been cast off,[l] O Sa·mar′i·a. My anger has grown hot against them.[m] How long will they be incapable of innocency?[n] 6 For from Israel was even this.[o] A mere craftsman made it,[p] and it is not God; because the calf of Sa·mar′i·a will become mere splinters.[q]

7 “For it is wind that they keep sowing, and a storm wind is what they will reap.[r] Nothing has standing grain.[s] No sprout produces flour.[t] Should any perhaps produce [it], strangers themselves will swallow it down.[u]

8 “Israel must be swallowed down.[v] Now they must come to be among the nations,[w] like a vessel in which there is no delight.[x] 9 For they themselves have gone up to As·syr′i·a,[y] as a zebra isolated to itself.[z] In E′phra·im’s case, they have hired lovers.[a] 10 Also, although they keep hiring [them] among the nations,[b] I shall now collect them together; and they will be a little while in severe pains[a] because of the burden of king [and] princes.

11 "For E'phra·im has multiplied altars in order to sin.[b] He has come to have altars in order to sin.[c] 12 I proceeded to write for him many things of my law;[d] just like something strange they have been accounted.[e] 13 As my gift sacrifices they kept sacrificing flesh,[f] and they kept eating what Jehovah himself took no pleasure in.[g] Now he will remember their error and hold an accounting for their sins.[h] To Egypt they themselves proceeded to return.[i] 14 And Israel began forgetting his Maker[j] and building temples;[k] and Judah, for his part, multiplied fortified cities.[l] And I shall certainly send fire into his cities and it must devour the dwelling towers of [each] one."[m]

9 "Do not rejoice, O Israel.[n] Do not act joyful like the peoples.[o] For by fornication you have gone from alongside your God.[p] You have loved gifts of hire on all the threshing floors of grain.[q] 2 Threshing floor and winepress do not feed them,[r] and sweet wine itself proves disappointing to her.[s] 3 They will not continue dwelling in the land of Jehovah,[t] and E'phra·im must return to Egypt,[u] and in As·syr'i·a they will eat what is unclean.[v] 4 They will not continue pouring out wine to Jehovah.[w] And their sacrifices will not be gratifying to him;[x] they are like the bread of times of mourning[y] to them; all those eating it will defile themselves. For their bread is for their own soul; it will not come into the house of Jehovah.[z] 5 What will YOU people do in the day of meeting and in the day of the festival of Jehovah?[a] 6 For, look! they will have to go because of despoiling.[b] Egypt itself will collect them together;[c] Memphis,[a] for its part, will bury them. As for their desirable things of silver, nettles themselves will take possession of them;[b] thorny bushes will be in their tents.[c]

7 "The days of being given attention must come;[d] the days of the due payment must come.[e] Those of Israel will know [it].[f] The prophet will be foolish,[g] the man of inspired expression will be maddened on account of the abundance of your error,[h] even animosity being abundant."

8 The watchman[i] of E'phra·im was with my God.[j] As regards a prophet,[k] there is the trap of a birdcatcher on all his ways;[l] there is an animosity in the house of his God. 9 They have gone down deep in bringing ruin,[m] as in the days of Gib'e·ah.[n] He will remember their error;[o] he will give attention to their sins.

10 "Like grapes in the wilderness I found Israel.[p] Like the early fig on a fig tree in its beginning I saw the forefathers of YOU people.[q] They themselves went in to Ba'al of Pe'or,[r] and they proceeded to dedicate themselves to the shameful thing,[s] and they came to be disgusting like [the thing of] their love.[t] 11 As regards E'phra·im, like a flying creature their glory flies away,[u] so that there is no giving birth, and no [pregnant] belly and no conception.[v] 12 For although they bring up their sons, I will also bereave them of children so that there will be no man;[w] because—woe also to them when I turn away from them![x] 13 E'phra·im, whom I have seen like Tyre planted in a pasture ground,[y] even E'phra·im is destined to a bringing out of his sons even to a killer."[z]

14 Give to them, O Jehovah, what you should give.[a] Give them a miscarrying womb[b] and breasts shriveling up.

15 "All their badness was in Gil'gal,[c] for there I had to hate them.[d] On account of the evil of their dealings I shall drive them away from my own house.[e] I will not continue on loving them.[f] All their princes are acting stubborn.[g] 16 E'phra·im must be struck down.[h] Their very root must dry up.[i] There will be no fruit that they produce.[j] Also, in case they bring to birth, I will even put to death the desirable things of their belly."[k]

17 My God[l] will reject them, for they have not listened to him,[m] and they will become fugitives among the nations.[n]

10 "Israel is a degenerating vine.[o] Fruit he keeps putting forth for himself.[p] In proportion to the abundance of his fruit he has multiplied [his] altars.[q] In proportion to the goodness of his land, they put up good pillars.[r] 2 Their heart has become hypocritical;[s] now they will be found guilty.

"There is one who will break their altars; he will despoil their pillars.[t] 3 For now they will say, 'We have no king,[u] for we have not feared Jehovah. And as regards the king, what will he do for us?'

4 "They speak words, making false oaths,[v] concluding a covenant;[w] and judgment has sprouted like a poisonous plant in the furrows of the open field.[x] 5 For the calf [idol] of Beth-a'ven[y] the residents of Sa·mar'i·a will get frightened; for over it its people will certainly mourn, as well as its foreign-god priests [who] used to be joyful over it, on account of its glory, because it will have gone into exile away from it.[z] 6 Even it someone will bring to As·syr'i·a itself as a gift to a great king.[a] Shame is what E'phra·im himself will get,[a] and Israel will be ashamed of its counsel.[b] 7 Sa·mar'i·a [and] her king will certainly be silenced,[c] like a snapped-off twig on the surface of waters. 8 And the high places of [Beth-]a'ven,[d] the sin of Israel,[e] will actually be annihilated. Thorns and thistles[f] themselves will come up upon their altars.[g] And people will in fact say to the mountains, 'Cover us!' and to the hills, 'Fall over us!'[h]

9 "From the days of Gib'e·ah[i] you have sinned,[j] O Israel. There they stood still. In Gib'e·ah war against the sons of unrighteousness did not get to overtake them.[k] 10 When it is my craving I shall also discipline them.[l] And against them peoples will certainly be gathered when there is a harnessing of them to their two errors.[m]

11 "And E'phra·im was a trained heifer loving to thresh;[n] and I, for my part, passed over her good-looking neck. I make [someone] ride E'phra·im.[o] Judah plows;[p] Jacob harrows[q] for him. 12 Sow seed for yourselves in righteousness;[r] reap in accord with loving-kindness.[s] Till for yourselves arable land,[t] when there is time for searching for Jehovah until he comes[u] and gives instruction in righteousness to YOU.[v]

13 "YOU people have plowed wickedness.[w] Unrighteousness is what YOU have reaped.[x] YOU have eaten the fruitage of deception,[y] for you have trusted in your way,[z] in the multitude of your mighty ones.[a] 14 And an uproar has risen among your people,[b] and your own fortified cities will all be despoiled,[c] as with the despoiling by Shal'man of the house of Ar'bel, in the day of battle [when] a mother herself was dashed to pieces alongside [her] own sons.[a] 15 In this way one will certainly do to you people, O Beth'el, because of YOUR extreme badness.[b] In the dawn the king of Israel will positively have to be silenced."[c]

"When Israel was a boy, then I loved him,[d] and out of Egypt I called my son.[e]

2 "They called them.[f] To that same extent they went away from before them.[g] To the Ba'al images they took up sacrificing,[h] and to the graven images they began making sacrificial smoke.[i] 3 But as for me, I taught E'phra·im to walk,[j] taking them upon [my] arms;[k] and they did not recognize that I had healed them.[l] 4 With the ropes of earthling man I kept drawing them, with the cords of love,[m] so that I became to them as those lifting off a yoke on their jaws,[n] and gently I brought food to [each] one.[o] 5 He will not return to the land of Egypt, but As·syr'i·a will be his king,[p] because they refused to return.[q] 6 And a sword will certainly whirl about in his cities[r] and make an end of his bars and devour[s] because of their counsels.[t] 7 And my people are tending toward unfaithfulness to me.[u] And upward they call it; no one at all does any rising up.

8 "How can I give you up, O E'phra·im?[v] [How] can I deliver you up, O Israel?[w] How can I set you as Ad'mah?[x] [How] can I place you like Ze·boi'im?[y] My heart has changed within me;[z] at the same time my compassions have grown hot. 9 I shall not express my burning anger.[a] I shall not bring E'phra·im to ruin again,[b] for I am God[c] and not man, the Holy One in the midst of you;[d] and I shall not come in excitement. 10 After Jehovah they will walk.[e] Like a lion he will roar;[f] for he himself will roar,[g] and sons will come trembling from the west.[a] 11 Like a bird they will come trembling out of Egypt,[b] and like a dove out of the land of As·syr'i·a;[c] and I shall certainly make them dwell in their houses," is the utterance of Jehovah.[d]

12 "With lying, E'phra·im has surrounded me,[e] and with deception the house of Israel. But Judah is yet roaming with God,[f] and with the Most Holy One he is trustworthy."

"E'phra·im is feeding on wind[g] and chasing after the east wind all day long.[h] Lying and despoiling are what he multiplies.[i] And a covenant with As·syr'i·a they conclude,[j] and to Egypt oil itself is brought.

2 "And Jehovah has a legal case with Judah,[k] even to hold an accounting against Jacob according to his ways;[l] according to his dealings he will repay him.[m] 3 In the belly he seized his brother by the heel,[n] and with his dynamic energy he contended with God.[o] 4 And he kept contending with an angel and gradually prevailed.[p] He wept, that he might implore favor for himself."[q]

At Beth'el He got to find him,[r] and there He began talking with us.[s] 5 And Jehovah the God of the armies,[t] Jehovah is his memorial.[u]

6 "And as respects you, to your God you should return,[v] keeping loving-kindness[w] and justice;[x] and let there be a hoping in your God constantly.[y] 7 As regards [the] tradesman, in his hand are the scales of deception;[z] to defraud is what he has loved.[a] 8 And E'phra·im keeps saying, 'Indeed, I have become rich;[a] I have found valuable things for myself.[b] As regards all my toiling, they will find, on my part, no error that is sin.'[c]

9 "But I am Jehovah your God from the land of Egypt.[d] Yet I shall make you dwell in the tents as in the days of an appointed time. 10 And I spoke to the prophets,[e] and visions I myself multiplied, and by the hand of the prophets I kept making likenesses.[f]

11 "With Gil'e·ad what is uncanny,[g] also untruth,[h] have occurred. In Gil'gal they have sacrificed even bulls.[i] Moreover, their altars are like piles of stones in the furrows of the open field.[j] 12 And Jacob proceeded to run away to the field of Syria,[k] and Israel[l] kept serving for a wife,[m] and for a wife he guarded [sheep].[n] 13 And by a prophet Jehovah brought up Israel out of Egypt,[o] and by a prophet he was guarded.[p] 14 E'phra·im caused offense to bitterness,[q] and his deeds of bloodshed he leaves upon his own self,[r] and his reproach his grand Master will repay to him."[s]

"When E'phra·im spoke, there was trembling; he himself carried [weight] in Israel.[t] But he proceeded to become guilty in regard to Ba'al[u] and die.[v] 2 And now they commit additional sin and make for themselves a molten statue from their silver,[w] idols according to their own understanding,[x] the work of craftsmen, all of it.[y] To them they are saying, 'Let the sacrificers who are men kiss mere calves.'[z] 3 Therefore they will become like the clouds of morning[a] and like the dew that early goes away; like chaff that is stormed away from the threshing floor[b] and like smoke from the [roof] hole.

4 "But I am Jehovah your God from the land of Egypt,[a] and there was no God except me that you used to know; and there was no savior but I.[b] 5 I myself knew you in the wilderness,[c] in the land of fevers.[d] 6 According to their pasturage they also came to be satisfied.[e] They became satisfied and their heart began to be exalted.[f] That is why they forgot me.[g] 7 And I shall become to them like a young lion.[h] Like a leopard by [the] way I shall keep looking.[i] 8 I shall encounter them like a bear that has lost its cubs,[j] and I shall rip apart the enclosure of their heart. And I shall devour them there like a lion;[k] a wild beast of the field itself will tear them to pieces.[l] 9 It will certainly bring you to ruin,[m] O Israel, because it was against me, against your helper.[n]

10 "Where, then, is your king, that he may save you in all your cities,[o] and your judges, [concerning] whom you said, 'Do give me a king and princes'?[p] 11 I proceeded to give you a king in my anger,[q] and I shall take [him] away in my fury.[r]

12 "The error of E'phra·im is wrapped up, his sin is treasured up.[s] 13 The labor pangs of a woman giving birth are what will come to him.[t] He is a son not wise,[u] for in season he will not stand still at the breaking forth of sons [from the womb].[v]

14 "From the hand of She'ol I shall redeem them;[w] from death I shall recover them.[x] Where are your stings, O Death?[y] Where is your destructiveness, O She'ol?[z] Compassion itself will be concealed from my eyes.[a]

15 "In case he himself as the son of reed plants should show fruitfulness,[b] an east wind, the wind of Jehovah, will come.[c] From a wilderness it is coming up, and it will dry up his well and drain his spring.[a] That one will pillage the treasure of all desirable articles.[b]

16 "Sa·mar′i·a will be held guilty,[c] for she is actually rebellious against her God.[d] By the sword they will fall.[e] Their own children will be dashed to pieces,[f] and their pregnant women themselves will be ripped up."[g]

14 "Do come back, O Israel, to Jehovah your God,[h] for you have stumbled in your error.[i] 2 Take with yourselves words and come back to Jehovah.[j] Say to him, all YOU people, 'May you pardon error;[k] and accept what is good, and we will offer in return the young bulls of our lips.[l] 3 As·syr′i·a itself will not save us.[m] Upon horses we shall not ride.[n] And no more shall we say: "O our God!" to the work of our hands, because it is by you that a fatherless boy is shown mercy.'[o]

4 "I shall heal their unfaithfulness.[p] I shall love them of [my] own free will,[q] because my anger has turned back from him.[a] 5 I shall become like the dew to Israel.[b] He will blossom like the lily, and will strike his roots like Leb′a·non. 6 His twigs will go forth, and his dignity will become like that of the olive tree,[c] and his fragrance will be like that of Leb′a·non. 7 They will again be dwellers in his shadow.[d] They will grow grain, and will bud like the vine.[e] His memorial will be like the wine of Leb′a·non.

JOEL

1 The word of Jehovah that occurred[a] to Joel the son of Pe·thu′el:

2 "Hear this, YOU older men, and give ear, all YOU inhabitants of the land.[b] Has this occurred in YOUR days, or even in the days of YOUR forefathers?[c] 3 Concerning it give an account to YOUR own sons, and YOUR sons to their sons, and their sons to the following generation.[d] 4 What was left by the caterpillar, the locust has eaten;[e] and what was left by the locust, the creeping, unwinged locust has eaten; and what was left by the creeping, unwinged locust has left, the cockroach has eaten.[a]

5 "Wake up, YOU drunkards,[b] and weep; and howl,[c] all YOU wine drinkers, on account of sweet wine,[d] for it has been cut off from YOUR mouths.[e] 6 For there is a nation that has come up into my land, mighty and without number.[f] Its teeth are the teeth of a lion,[g] and it has the jawbones of a lion. 7 It has set my vine as an object of astonishment,[h] and my fig tree as a stump.[i] It has positively stripped it bare and thrown [it] away.[j] The twigs of it have become white. 8 Wail, as a virgin girded with sackcloth[a] does over the owner of her youth.

9 "Grain offering[b] and drink offering[c] have been cut off from the house of Jehovah; the priests, the ministers[d] of Jehovah, have mourned.[e] 10 [The] field has been despoiled,[f] [the] ground has gone to mourning;[g] for [the] grain has been despoiled, [the] new wine has been dried up,[h] [the] oil has faded away.[i] 11 Farmers have felt shame;[j] vinedressers have howled, on account of wheat and on account of barley; for the harvest of [the] field has perished.[k] 12 The vine itself has shown dryness, and even the fig tree has faded away. As for [the] pomegranate tree, also [the] palm tree and [the] apple tree, all the trees of the field, they have dried up;[l] for exultation has gone ashamed away from the sons of mankind.[m]

13 "Gird yourselves, and beat YOUR breasts,[n] YOU priests. Howl, YOU ministers of [the] altar.[o] Come in, spend the night in sackcloth, YOU ministers of my God; for from the house of YOUR God grain offering[p] and drink offering have been withheld.[q] 14 Sanctify a time of fasting.[r] Call together a solemn assembly.[s] Gather together [the] older men, all the inhabitants of the land, to the house of Jehovah YOUR God,[t] and cry to Jehovah for aid.[u]

15 "Alas for the day;[v] because the day of Jehovah is near,[w] and like a despoiling from the Almighty One it will come! 16 Has not food itself been cut off before our very eyes; from the house of our God, rejoicing and joyfulness?[x] 17 Dried figs have shriveled under their shovels. Storehouses have been laid desolate. Barns have been torn down, for [the] grain has dried up. 18 O how the domestic animal has sighed! [How] the droves of cattle have wandered in confusion! For there is no pasturage for them.[a] Also, the droves of the sheep have been the ones made to bear guilt.

19 "To you, O Jehovah, I shall call;[b] for fire itself has devoured the pasture grounds of [the] wilderness, and a very flame has consumed all the trees of the field.[c] 20 The beasts of the field also keep longing for you,[d] because the channels of water have dried up,[e] and fire itself has devoured the pasture grounds of the wilderness."

2 "Blow a horn in Zion,[f] O men, and shout a war cry[g] in my holy mountain.[h] Let all the inhabitants of the land get agitated;[i] for the day of Jehovah is coming,[j] for it is near! 2 It is a day of darkness and gloominess,[k] a day of clouds and thick gloom, like light of dawn spread out upon the mountains.[l]

"There is a people numerous and mighty;[m] one like it has not been made to exist from the indefinite past,[n] and after it there will be none again to the years of generation after generation. 3 Ahead of it a fire has devoured,[o] and behind it a flame consumes.[p] Like the garden of E′den the land is ahead of it;[q] but behind it is a desolate wilderness, and there has also proved to be nothing thereof escaping.

4 "Its appearance is like the appearance of horses, and like steeds is the way they keep running.[r] 5 As with the sound of chariots on the tops of the mountains they keep skipping about,[s] as with the sound of a flaming fire that is devouring stubble.[t] It is like a mighty people, drawn up in battle order.[u] 6 Because of it, peoples will be in severe pains.[v] As for all faces, they will certainly collect a glow [of excitement].[w]

As an able-bodied man in his course, they keep going; and should some fall even among the missiles, the [others] do not break off course.

9 "Into the city they rush. On the wall they run. On the houses they go up. Through the windows they go in like the thief. 10 Before it [the] land has become agitated, [the] heavens have rocked. Sun and moon themselves have become dark,[c] and the very stars have withdrawn their brightness.[d] 11 And Jehovah himself will certainly give forth his voice[e] before his military force,[f] for his camp is very numerous.[g] For he who is carrying out his word is mighty; for the day of Jehovah is great[h] and very fear-inspiring, and who can hold up under it?"[i]

12 "And now also," the utterance of Jehovah is, "come back to me with all YOUR hearts,[j] and with fasting[k] and with weeping and with wailing.[l] 13 And rip apart YOUR hearts,[m] and not YOUR garments;[n] and come back to Jehovah YOUR God, for he is gracious and merciful,[o] slow to anger[p] and abundant in loving-kindness,[q] and he will certainly feel regret on account of the calamity.[r] 14 Who is there knowing whether he will turn back and actually feel regret[s] and let remain after it a blessing,[t] a grain offering and a drink offering for Jehovah YOUR God?

AMOS

1 The words of A′mos, who happened to be among the sheep raisers from Te·ko′a,[a] which he visioned concerning Israel[b] in the days of Uz·zi′ah[c] the king of Judah and in the days of Jer·o·bo′am[d] the son of Jo′ash,[e] the king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.[f] 2 And he proceeded to say:

"Jehovah—out of Zion he will roar,[g] and out of Jerusalem he will give forth his voice;[h] and the pasture grounds of the shepherds must go to mourning, and the summit of Car′mel must dry up."[a]

3 "This is what Jehovah has said, '"On account of three revolts of Damascus,[b] and on account of four, I shall not turn it back, on account of their threshing Gil′e·ad[c] even with iron threshing instruments. 4 And I will send a fire[a] onto the house of Haz′a·el,[b] and it must devour the dwelling towers of Ben-ha′dad.[c] 5 And I will break the bar of Damascus[d] and cut off [the] inhabitant from Bik′ath-a′ven, and the holder of [the] scepter from Beth-e′den; and the people of Syria will have to go as exiles to Kir,"[e] Jehovah has said.'

13 "'HEAR and give witness[f] in the house of Jacob,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, the God of the armies. 14 'For, in the day of my holding an accounting[g] for the revolts of Israel against him, I will also hold an accounting against the altars of Beth'el;[h] and the horns of the altar will certainly be cut off and must fall to the earth.[i] 15 And I will strike down the winter house[j] in addition to the summer house.'[k]

11 "'I caused an overthrow among YOU people, like God's overthrow of Sod'om and Go-mor'rah.[a] And YOU came to be like a log snatched out of [the] burning;[b] but YOU did not come back to me,'[c] is the utterance of Jehovah.

12 "Therefore that is what I shall do to you, O Israel. As a consequence of the fact that I shall do this very thing to you, get ready to meet your God,[d] O Israel. 13 For, look! the Former of [the] mountains[e] and the Creator of [the] wind,[f] and the One telling to earthling man what his mental concern is,[g] the One making dawn into obscurity,[h] and the One treading on earth's high places,[i] Jehovah the God of armies is his name."[j]

5 "Hear this word that I am taking up over YOU people as a dirge,[k] O house of Israel:

2 "The virgin,[l] Israel, has fallen;[m]
She cannot get up again.[n]
She has been forsaken upon her own ground;
There is no one raising her up.[o]

3 "For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'The very city that was going forth with a thousand will have a hundred left; and the one going forth with a hundred will have ten left, for the house of Israel.'[p]

4 "For this is what Jehovah has said to the house of Israel, 'Search for me,[q] and keep living.[r] 5 And do not search for Beth'el,[s] and to Gil'gal[t] YOU must not come, and to Be'er-she'ba YOU must not pass over;[u] because Gil'gal itself will without fail go into exile;[v] and as regards Beth'el, it will become something uncanny.[w] 6 Search for Jehovah, and keep living,[x] that he may not become operative just like fire,[y] O house of Joseph,[z] and it may not actually devour, and Beth'-el may not be with no one to extinguish[a] [it]. 7 O YOU who are turning justice into mere wormwood,[b] and the ones who have cast righteousness itself to the earth.[c] 8 The Maker of the Ki'mah[d] constellation and the Ke'sil[e] constellation,[f] and the One turning deep shadow[g] into the morning itself, and the One who has made day itself dark as night,[h] the One calling for the waters of the sea, that he may pour them out upon the surface of the earth[i]—Jehovah is his name;[j] 9 he who is causing a despoiling to flash forth upon someone strong, that despoiling itself may come upon even a fortified place.

10 "'In the gate they have hated a reprover,[k] and a speaker of perfect things they detest.[l] 11 Therefore, for the reason that YOU are extracting farm rent from someone lowly, and the tribute of grain YOU keep taking from him;[m] houses of hewn stone YOU have built,[n] but YOU will not keep dwelling in them; and desirable vineyards YOU have planted, but YOU will not keep drinking the wine of them.[o] 12 For I have known how many YOUR revolts[p] are and how mighty YOUR sins are,[q] O YOU who are showing hostility toward someone righteous,[r] YOU who are taking hush money,[s] and the ones who have turned aside poor people[t] even in the gate.[u] 13 Therefore the very one having insight will in that time keep silent, for it will be a calamitous time.[v]

14 "'Search for what is good, and not what is bad,[w] to the end that YOU people may keep living;[x] and that thus Jehovah the God of armies may come to be with YOU, just as YOU have said.[y] 15 Hate what is bad, and love what is good,[a] and give justice a place in the gate.[b] It may be that Jehovah the God of armies will show favor[c] to the remaining ones of Joseph.'[d]

16 "Therefore this is what Jehovah the God of armies, Jehovah, has said, 'In all the public squares there will be wailing,[e] and in all the streets people will be saying: "Ah! Ah!" And they will have to call a farmer to mourning,[f] and to wailing those experienced in lamentation.'[g] 17 'And in all vineyards there will be wailing;[h] for I shall pass through the midst of you,'[i] Jehovah has said.

18 "'Woe to those who are craving the day of Jehovah![j] What, then, will the day of Jehovah mean to YOU people?[k] It will be darkness, and no light,[l] 19 just as when a man flees because of the lion, and the bear actually meets him; and [as when] he went into the house and supported his hand against the wall, and the serpent bit him.[m] 20 Will not the day of Jehovah be darkness, and not light; and will it not have gloom, and not brightness?[n] 21 I have hated, I have rejected YOUR festivals,[o] and I shall not enjoy the smell of YOUR solemn assemblies.[p] 22 But if YOU people offer up to me whole burnt offerings,[q] even in YOUR gift offerings I shall find no pleasure,[r] and on YOUR communion sacrifices of fatlings I shall not look.[s] 23 Remove from me the turmoil of your songs; and the melodious sound of your stringed instruments may I not hear.[t] 24 And let justice roll forth just like waters,[u] and righteousness like a constantly flowing torrent.[v] 25 Was it sacrifices and gift offerings that YOU people brought near to me in the wilderness for forty years, O house of Israel?[w] 26 And YOU will certainly carry Sak'kuth YOUR king[x] and Kai'wan, YOUR images, the star of YOUR god, whom YOU made for yourselves.[a] 27 And I will cause YOU to go into exile beyond Damascus,'[b] he whose name is Jehovah the God of armies has said."[c]

6 "Woe to those who are at ease[d] in Zion and to those trusting in the mountain of Samar'i·a! They are the distinguished ones of the chief part of the nations, and to them the house of Israel have come. 2 Make YOUR way over to Cal'neh, and see; and go from there to populous Ha'math,[e] and go down to Gath[f] of the Philis'tines. Are they better than these kingdoms, or is their territory bigger than YOUR territory?[g] 3 [Are YOU] putting out of [YOUR] mind the calamitous day,[h] and do YOU bring near the dwelling of violence?[i] 4 [You men] that are lying down on couches of ivory[j] and are sprawling on their divans, and are eating the rams out of a flock and the young bulls from among fattened calves;[k] 5 that are improvising according to the sound of the stringed instrument;[l] that, like David, have devised for themselves instruments for song;[m] 6 that are drinking out of bowls of wine,[n] and that with the choicest oils[o] do their anointing, and that have not been made sick at the catastrophe of Joseph.[p]

7 "Therefore now they will go into exile at the head of those going into exile,[q] and the revelry of sprawling ones must depart.

8 "'The Sovereign Lord Jehovah has sworn by his own soul,'[r] is the utterance of Jehovah the God of armies, '"I am detesting the pride of Jacob,[s] and his dwelling towers I have hated,[t] and I will deliver up [the] city and what fills it.[u]

9 And it must occur that if ten men should be left remaining in one house, they must also die.[a] 10 And his father's brother will have to carry them forth one by one, and will be burning them one by one, in order to bring out [the] bones from the house.[b] And he will have to say to whoever is in the innermost parts of the house, 'Are there any more with you?' And he will certainly say, 'Nobody!' And he will have to say, 'Keep silence! For it is not the occasion for making any mention of the name of Jehovah.'"[c]

12 "'On a crag will horses run, or will one plow [there] with cattle? For into a poisonous plant YOU people have turned justice,[f] and the fruitage of righteousness into wormwood, 13 [you who] are rejoicing in a thing that is not;[g] who are saying: "Have we not in our strength taken horns to ourselves?"[h] 14 Look! I am raising up against YOU, O house of Israel,' is the utterance of Jehovah the God of the armies, 'a nation,[i] and they must oppress YOU people from the entering in of Ha'math[j] down to the torrent valley of the Ar'a·bah.'"

7 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah caused me to see, and, look! he was forming a [locust] swarm at the start of the coming up of the later sowing.[k] And, look! it was the later sowing after the mown grass of the king. 2 And it occurred that when it had finished eating up the vegetation of the land, I proceeded to say: "O Sovereign Lord Jehovah, forgive, please.[l] Who will rise up of Jacob? For he is small!"[m]

3 Jehovah felt regret over this.[n] "It shall not occur," Jehovah said.

4 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah caused me to see, and, look! the Sovereign Lord Jehovah was calling for a contention by means of fire;[a] and it went eating up the vast watery deep and ate up the tract of land. 5 And I proceeded to say: "O Sovereign Lord Jehovah, hold off, please.[b] Who will rise up of Jacob? For he is small!"[c]

6 Jehovah felt regret over this.[d] "That, too, will not occur," the Sovereign Lord Jehovah said.

7 This is what he caused me to see, and, look! Jehovah was stationed on a wall [made with] a plummet,[e] and there was a plummet in his hand. 8 Then Jehovah said to me: "What are you seeing, A'mos?" So I said: "A plummet." And Jehovah went on to say: "Here I am setting a plummet in the midst of my people Israel.[f] I shall no more do any further excusing of it.[g] 9 And the high places of Isaac[h] will certainly be laid desolate, and the sanctuaries[i] themselves of Israel will be devastated;[j] and I will rise up against the house of Jer·o·bo'am with a sword."[k]

10 And Am·a·zi'ah the priest of Beth'el[l] proceeded to send to Jer·o·bo'am[m] the king of Israel, saying: "A'mos has conspired against you right inside the house of Israel.[n] The land is not able to put up with all his words.[o] 11 For this is what A'mos has said, 'By the sword Jer·o·bo'am will die; and as regards Israel, it will without fail go into exile from its own ground.'"[p]

12 And Am·a·zi'ah proceeded to say to A'mos: "O visionary,[q] go, run your way off to the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and there you may prophesy. 13 But at Beth'el you must no longer do any further prophesying,[r] for it is the sanctuary of a king[s] and it is the house of a kingdom."

14 Then A'mos answered and said to Am·a·zi'ah: "I was not a prophet, neither was I the son of a prophet;[a] but I was a herdsman[b] and a nipper of figs of sycamore trees. 15 And Jehovah proceeded to take me from following the flock, and Jehovah went on to say to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.'[c] 16 And now hear the word of Jehovah, 'Are you saying: "You must not prophesy against Israel,[d] and you must let no [word] drop[e] against the house of Isaac"? 17 Therefore this is what Jehovah has said: "As regards your wife, in the city she will become a prostitute.[f] And as regards your sons and your daughters, by the sword they will fall. And as regards your ground, by the measuring rope it will be apportioned out. And as regards you yourself, on unclean ground you will die;[g] and as regards Israel, it will without fail go into exile from its own ground."'"[h]

8 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah caused me to see, and, look! there was a basket of summer fruit.[i] 2 Then he said: "What are you seeing,[j] A'mos?" So I said: "A basket of summer fruit."[k] And Jehovah went on to say to me: "The end has come to my people Israel.[l] I shall no more do any further excusing of them.[m] 3 'And the songs of [the] temple will actually be a howling in that day,'[n] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. 'There will be many a carcass.[o] In every place one will certainly throw [them] out—hush!'

7 "Jehovah has sworn by the Superiority of Jacob,[d] 'Never will I forget all their works.[e] 8 Will it not be on this account that the land will be agitated,[f] and every inhabitant in it will have to mourn;[g] and it will, all of it, certainly come up just like the Nile and be tossed and sink down like the Nile of Egypt?'[h]

9 "'And it must occur in that day,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'that I will make the sun go down at high noon,[i] and I will cause darkness for the land on a bright day. 10 And I will turn YOUR festivals into mourning[j] and all YOUR songs into a dirge, and I will bring up upon all hips sackcloth and upon every head baldness;[k] and I will make the situation like the mourning for an only [son],[l] and the end result of it as a bitter day.'

11 "'Look! There are days coming,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'and I will send a famine into the land, a famine, not for bread, and a thirst, not for water, but for hearing the words of Jehovah.[m] 12 And they will certainly stagger from sea all the way to sea, and from north even to the sunrise. They will keep roving about while searching for the word of Jehovah, but they will not find [it].[n] 13 In that day the pretty virgins will swoon away, also the young men, because of the thirst;[o] 14 those who are swearing by the guiltiness of Sa·mar'i·a,[p] and who actually say: "As your god is alive, O Dan!"[q] and, "As the way of Be'er-she'ba[r] is alive!" 9 I saw Jehovah stationed above the altar,[a] and he proceeded to say: "Strike the pillar head, so that the thresholds will rock. And cut them off at the head, all of them.[b] And the last part of them I shall kill with the sword itself. No one fleeing of them will make good his flight, and no one escaping of them will make his getaway.[c] 2 If they dig down into She'ol, from there my own hand will take them;[d] and if they go up to the heavens, from there I shall bring them down.[e] 3 And if they hide themselves on the top of Car'mel, from there I shall carefully search and be certain to take them.[f] And if they conceal themselves from in front of my eyes on the floor of the sea,[g] down there I shall command the serpent, and it must bite them. 4 And if they go into captivity before their enemies, from there I shall command the sword, and it must kill them;[h] and I will set my eyes upon them for bad, and not for good.[i] 5 And the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of the armies, is the One touching the land, so that it melts;[j] and all the inhabitants in it will have to mourn;[k] and it will certainly come up like the Nile, all of it, and sink down like the Nile of Egypt.[l]

6 "'He who is building in the heavens his stairs,[m] and his structure over the earth that he founded;[n] he who is calling for the waters of the sea,[o] that he may pour them out upon the surface of the earth[p]—Jehovah is his name.'[q]

7 "'Are YOU not like the sons of the Cush'ites to me, O sons of Israel?' is the utterance of Jehovah. 'Did I not bring Israel itself up out of the land of Egypt,[r] and the Phi·lis'tines[s] out of Crete, and Syria out of Kir?'[t]

8 "'Look! The eyes of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah are upon the sinful kingdom,[a] and he will certainly annihilate it from upon the surface of the ground.[b] Nevertheless, I shall not completely annihilate the house of Jacob,'[c] is the utterance of Jehovah. 9 'For, look! I am commanding, and I will jiggle the house of Israel among all the nations,[d] just as one jiggles the sieve, so that not a pebble falls to the earth. 10 By the sword they will die—all the sinners of my people,[e] those who are saying: "The calamity will not come near or reach as far as us."'[f]

11 "'In that day I shall raise up[g] the booth[h] of David that is fallen,[i] and I shall certainly repair their breaches. And its ruins I shall raise up, and I shall certainly build it up as in the days of long ago,[j] 12 to the end that they may take possession of what is left remaining of E'dom,[k] and all the nations upon whom my name has been called,'[l] is the utterance of Jehovah, who is doing this.

13 "'Look! There are days coming,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and the plowman will actually overtake the harvester,[m] and the treader of grapes, the carrier of the seed;[n] and the mountains must drip with sweet wine,[o] and the very hills will all find themselves melting.[p] 14 And I will gather back the captive ones of my people Israel,[q] and they will actually build [the] desolated cities and inhabit [them],[r] and plant vineyards and drink the wine of them, and make gardens and eat the fruit of them.'[s]

OBADIAH

1 The vision of O·ba·di'ah:

This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said regarding E'dom:[a] "There is a report that we have heard from Jehovah, and there is an envoy that has been sent among the nations, 'Rise up, YOU people, and let us rise up against her in battle.'"[b]

2 "Look! Small is what I have made you among the nations.[c] You are despised very much.[d] 3 The presumptuousness of your heart is what has deceived you,[e] you who are residing in the retreats of the crag,[f] the height where he dwells, saying in his heart, 'Who will bring me down to [the] earth?' 4 If you should make your position high like the eagle, or if among the stars there were a placing of your nest, down from there I would bring you,"[g] is the utterance of Jehovah.

5 "If it were thieves that came in to you, if despoilers [came in] by night, to what extent would you have been silenced?[h] Would they not steal as much as they wanted? Or if it were grape gatherers that came in to you, would they not let some gleanings remain?[i] 6 O the extent to which those of E'sau have been searched out![j] [How] his concealed treasures have been sought out! 7 As far as the boundary they have sent you. The very men in covenant with you have all deceived[k] you. The men at peace with you have prevailed against you.[l] Those [eating] food with you will place a net under you as one in whom there is no discernment.[m] 8 Will it not be in that day?" is the utterance of Jehovah.

"And I shall certainly destroy the wise ones out of E'dom,[a] and discernment out of the mountainous region of E'sau. 9 And your mighty men must become terrified,[b] O Te'man,[c] for the reason that each one will be cut off[d] from the mountainous region of E'sau, because of a killing.[e] 10 Because of the violence to your brother Jacob,[f] shame will cover you,[g] and you will have to be cut off to time indefinite.[h] 11 In the day when you stood off on the side, in the day when strangers took his military force into captivity[i] and [when] outright foreigners entered his gate[j] and over Jerusalem they cast lots,[k] you also were like one of them.

12 "And you ought not to watch the sight in the day of your brother,[l] in the day of his misfortune; and you ought not to rejoice at the sons of Judah in the day of their perishing;[m] and you ought not to maintain a big mouth in the day of [their] distress. 13 You ought not to come into the gate of my people in the day of their disaster.[n] You, even you, ought not to peer at his calamity in the day of his disaster; and you ought not to thrust out a hand upon his wealth in the day of his disaster.[o] 14 And you ought not to stand at the parting of the ways, in order to cut off his escapees;[p] and you ought not to hand over his survivors in the day of distress.[q] 15 For the day of Jehovah against all the nations is near.[r] In the way that you have done, it will be done to you.[s] Your sort of treatment will return upon your own head.[t] 16 For in the way that YOU people have drunk upon my holy mountain, all the nations will keep drinking constantly.[u] And they will certainly drink

And there will prove to be no survivor to the house of E'sau;[f] for Jehovah himself has spoken [it]. 19 And they must take possession of the Neg'eb, even of the mountainous region of E'sau,[a] and of the She·phe'lah, even of the Phi·lis'tines.[b] And they must take possession of the field of E'phra·im[c] and of the field of Sa·mar'i·a;[d] and Benjamin [must take possession of] Gil'e·ad.[e] 20 And as for the exiles of this rampart,[f] to the sons of Israel will belong what the Ca'naan·ites[g] [possessed] as far as Zar'e·phath.[h] And the exiles of Jerusalem, who were in Se·phar'ad, will take possession of the cities of the Neg'eb.[i]

JONAH

1 And the word of Jehovah began to occur to Jo'nah[a] the son of A·mit'tai, saying: 2 "Get up, go to Nin'e·veh[b] the great city, and proclaim against her that their badness has come up before me."[c]

3 And Jo'nah proceeded to get up and run away to Tar'shish[d] from before Jehovah;[e] and he finally came down to Jop'pa[f] and found a ship going to Tar'shish. So he paid its fare and went down into it, in order to go with them to Tar'shish from before Jehovah.

4 And Jehovah himself hurled forth a great wind at the sea,[g] and there came to be a great tempest[h] on the sea; and as for the ship, it was about to be wrecked. 5 And the mariners began to fear and to call for aid, each one to his god.[i] And they kept hurling out the articles that were in the ship to the sea, in order to lighten [it] of them.[a] But Jo'nah himself had gone down to the innermost parts of the decked vessel, and he proceeded to lie down and go fast asleep.[b] 6 At length the ship captain came near to him and said to him: "What is the matter with you, sleeper? Get up, call out to your god![c] Perhaps the [true] God will show himself caring about us, and we shall not perish."[d]

7 And they began to say to one another: "Come, and let us cast lots,[e] that we may know on whose account we have this calamity."[f] And they kept casting lots, and finally the lot fell upon Jo'nah.[g] 8 So they said to him: "Do tell us, please, on whose account it is that we are having this calamity?[h] What is your work, and from where do you come? What is your country, and from which people are you?"

9 At that he said to them: "I am a Hebrew,[a] and Jehovah the God of the heavens[b] I am fearing,[c] the One who made the sea and the dry land."[d]

10 And the men began to fear greatly, and they went on to say to him: "What is this that you have done?"[e] For the men had come to know that it was from before Jehovah that he was running away, because he had told them. 11 Finally they said to him: "What should we do to you,[f] in order that the sea may become still for us?" For the sea was continually growing more tempestuous. 12 So he said to them: "Lift me up and hurl me into the sea, and the sea will become still for YOU; because I am aware that it is on my account that this great tempest is upon YOU."[g] 13 But the men tried to work their way through, in order to bring [the ship] back to the dry land; yet they were unable, because the sea was continually growing more tempestuous against them.[h]

14 And they proceeded to call out to Jehovah and to say:[i] "Ah, now, O Jehovah, may we, please, not perish because of the soul of this man! And do not put upon us innocent blood,[j] since you yourself, O Jehovah, have done according to what you have delighted in!"[k] 15 Then they lifted up Jo'nah and hurled him into the sea; and the sea began to halt from its raging.[l] 16 At that the men began to fear Jehovah greatly,[m] and so they offered a sacrifice to Jehovah[n] and made vows.[o]

17 Now Jehovah appointed a great fish to swallow Jo'nah,[p] so that Jo'nah came to be in the inward parts of the fish three days and three nights.[q]

2 Then Jo'nah prayed to Jehovah his God from the inward parts of the fish[a] 2 and said:

"Out of my distress I called out to Jehovah,[b] and he proceeded to answer me.[c]
Out of the belly of She'ol I cried for help.[d]
You heard my voice.[e]
3 When you threw me [to] the depths, into the heart of the open sea,[f]
Then a very river encircled me.
All your breakers and your waves—over me they passed on.[g]
4 And as for me, I said, 'I have been driven away from in front of your eyes![h]
How shall I gaze again upon your holy temple?'[i]
5 Waters encircled me clear to [the] soul;[j] the watery deep itself kept enclosing me.
Weeds were wound around my head.
6 To the bottoms of [the] mountains I went down.
As for the earth, its bars were upon me for time indefinite.
But out of [the] pit you proceeded to bring up my life, O Jehovah my God.[k]
7 When my soul fainted away within me,[l] Jehovah was the One whom I remembered.[m]
Then my prayer came in to you, into your holy temple.[n]
8 As for those who are observing the idols of untruth, they leave their own loving-kindness.[o]
9 But as for me, with the voice of thanksgiving I will sacrifice to you.[p]
What I have vowed, I will pay.[a] Salvation belongs to Jehovah."[b]

10 In time Jehovah commanded the fish, so that it vomited out Jo'nah onto the dry land.[c]

3 Then the word of Jehovah occurred to Jo'nah the second time, saying:[d] 2 "Get up, go to Nin'e·veh the great city, and proclaim to her the proclamation[e] that I am speaking to you."

3 At that, Jo'nah got up and went to Nin'e·veh in accord with the word of Jehovah.[f] Now Nin'e·veh herself proved to be a city great to God,[g] with a walking distance of three days. 4 Finally Jo'nah started to enter into the city the walking distance of one day, and he kept proclaiming and saying: "Only forty days more, and Nin'e·veh will be overthrown."[h]

5 And the men of Nin'e·veh began to put faith in God,[i] and they proceeded to proclaim a fast and to put on sackcloth,[j] from the greatest one of them even to the least one of them. 6 When the word reached the king of Nin'e·veh,[k] then he rose up from his throne and put off his official garment from himself and covered himself with sackcloth and sat down in the ashes.[l] 7 Furthermore, he had the cry made, and he had it said in Nin'e·veh, by the decree of the king and his great ones, saying:

"No man and no domestic animal, no herd and no flock, should taste anything at all. None should take food. Even water they should not drink.[m] 8 And let them cover themselves with sackcloth, man and domestic animal; and let them call out to God with strength and come back,[n] each one from his bad way and from the violence that was in their hands. 9 Who is there knowing whether the [true] God may turn back and actually feel regret[a] and turn back from his burning anger, so that we may not perish?"[b]

10 And the [true] God got to see their works,[c] that they had turned back from their bad way;[d] and so the [true] God felt regret[e] over the calamity that he had spoken of causing to them; and he did not cause [it].[f]

4 To Jo'nah, though, it was highly displeasing,[g] and he got to be hot with anger. 2 Hence he prayed to Jehovah and said: "Ah, now, O Jehovah, was not this an affair of mine, while I happened to be on my own ground? That is why I went ahead and ran away to Tar'shish;[h] for I knew that you are a God gracious and merciful,[i] slow to anger and abundant in loving-kindness,[j] and feeling regret over the calamity.[k] 3 And now, O Jehovah, take away, please, my soul[l] from me, for my dying is better than my being alive."[m]

4 In turn Jehovah said: "Have you rightly become hot with anger?"[n]

5 Then Jo'nah went out of the city and sat down east of the city; and gradually he made for himself there a booth, that he might sit under it in the shade[o] until he would see what would become of the city.[p] 6 Accordingly Jehovah God appointed a bottle-gourd plant, that it should come up over Jo'nah, in order to become a shade over his head, to deliver him from his calamitous state.[q] And Jo'nah began to rejoice greatly over the bottle-gourd plant.

7 But the [true] God appointed a worm[r] at the ascending of the dawn on the next day, that it should strike the bottle-gourd plant; and it gradually dried up.[s] 8 And it came about that, as soon as the sun shone forth, God also went on to appoint a parching east wind,[t] and the sun kept striking upon the head of Jo'nah, so that he was swooning away;[a] and he kept asking that his soul might die, and he repeatedly said: "My dying off is better than my being alive."[b]

MICAH

1 The word of Jehovah that occurred to Mi'cah[a] of Mo'resh·eth, in the days of Jo'tham,[b] A'haz,[c] Hez·e·ki'ah,[d] kings of Judah,[e] that he visioned concerning Sa·mar'i·a[f] and Jerusalem:[g]

2 "Hear, O YOU peoples, all of YOU; pay attention, O earth and what fills you,[h] and let the Sovereign Lord Jehovah serve against YOU as a witness,[i] Jehovah from his holy temple.[j] 3 For, look! Jehovah is going forth from his place,[k] and he will certainly come down and tread upon earth's high places.[l] 4 And the mountains must melt under him,[m] and the low plains themselves will split apart, like wax because of the fire,[n] like waters being poured down a steep place.

5 "It is because of the revolt of Jacob that there is all this, even because of the sins of the house of Israel.[o] What is the revolt of Jacob? Is it not Sa·mar'i·a?[p] And what are the high places of Judah?[q] Are they not Jerusalem? 6 And I shall certainly make Sa·mar'i·a a heap of ruins of the field,[r] the planting places of a vineyard; and I will pour down into the valley her stones, and her foundations I shall lay bare.[a] 7 And her graven images will all be crushed to pieces,[b] and all the gifts [made] to her as her hire will be burned in the fire;[c] and all her idols I shall make a desolate waste. For from the things given as the hire of a prostitute she collected [them], and to the thing given as the hire of a prostitute they will return."[d]

8 On this account I will wail and howl;[e] I will walk barefoot and naked.[f] I shall make a wailing like the jackals, and a mourning like female ostriches. 9 For the stroke upon her is unhealable;[g] for it has come as far as Judah,[h] [the] plague as far as the gate of my people, as far as Jerusalem.[i]

10 "In Gath do not YOU men tell [it] out; positively do not weep.[j]

"In the house of Aph'rah wallow in the very dust.[k] 11 Make your way across, O inhabitress of Sha'phir, in shameful nudity.[l] The inhabitress of Za'a·nan has not gone forth. The wailing of Beth-e'zel will take from YOU people its standing place. 12 For the inhabitress of Ma′roth has waited for good,[a] but what is bad has come down from Jehovah to the gate of Jerusalem.[b] 13 Attach the chariot to the team of horses, O inhabitress of La′chish.[c] The beginning of sin was what she was to the daughter of Zion,[d] for in you the revolts of Israel have been found.[e] 14 Therefore you will give parting gifts to Mo′resh·eth-gath.[f] The houses of Ach′zib[g] were as something deceitful to the kings of Israel. 15 The dispossessor I shall yet bring to you,[h] O inhabitress of Ma·re′shah.[i] As far as A·dul′lam[j] the glory of Israel will come. 16 Cause baldness, and shear [your hair] off on account of your sons of exquisite delight.[k] Broaden out your baldness like [that of] the eagle, because they have gone away from you into exile."[l]

2 "Woe to those who are scheming what is harmful, and to those practicing what is bad, upon their beds![m] By the light of the morning they proceed to do it,[n] because it is in the power of their hand.[o] 2 And they have desired fields and have seized [them];[p] also houses, and have taken [them]; and they have defrauded an able-bodied man and his household,[q] a man and his hereditary possession.[r]

3 "Therefore this is what Jehovah has said, 'Here I am thinking up against this family[s] a calamity[t] from which YOU people will not remove YOUR necks,[u] so that YOU will not walk haughtily;[v] because it is a time of calamity.[w] 4 In that day one will raise up concerning YOU people a proverbial saying[x] and will certainly lament a lamentation, even a lamentation.[y] One will have to say: "We have positively been despoiled![z] The very portion of my people he alters.[a] How he removes [it] from me! To the unfaithful one he apportions out our own fields." 5 Therefore you will come to have no one casting out the cord, by lot,[a] in the congregation of Jehovah. 6 Do not YOU people let [words] drop.[b] They let [words] drop. They will not let [words] drop concerning these [things]. Humiliations will not move away.[c]

7 "'Is it being said, O house of Jacob:[d] "Has the spirit of Jehovah become discontented, or are these his dealings?"[e] Do not my own words do good[f] in the case of the one walking uprightly?[g]

8 "'And yesterday my own people proceeded to rise up as an outright enemy.[h] From the front of a garment YOU men strip off the majestic ornament, from the ones passing by confidently, [like] those returning from war. 9 The women of my people YOU drive out from the house in which a woman has exquisite delight. From off her children YOU take my splendor,[i] to time indefinite.[j] 10 Get up and go,[k] because this is not a resting-place.[l] Because of the fact that she has become unclean,[m] there is a wrecking; and [the] wrecking work is painful.[n] 11 If a man, walking by wind and falsehood, has told the lie:[o] "I shall let [words] drop to you concerning wine and concerning intoxicating liquor," he also will certainly become the one letting [words] drop for this people.[p]

12 "'I shall positively gather Jacob, all of you;[q] I shall without fail collect the remaining ones of Israel together.[r] In unity I shall set them, like a flock in the pen, like a drove in the midst of its pasture;[s] they will be noisy with men.'[t]

13 "The one making a breakthrough will certainly come up before them:[a] they will actually break through. And they will pass through a gate, and they will go out by it.[b] And their king will pass through before them, with Jehovah at the head of them."[c]

3 And I proceeded to say: "Hear, please, YOU heads of Jacob and YOU commanders of the house of Israel.[d] Is it not YOUR business to know justice?[e] 2 You haters of what is good[f] and lovers of badness,[g] tearing off their skin from people and their organism from off their bones;[h] 3 YOU the ones who have also eaten the organism of my people,[i] and have stripped their very skin from off them, and smashed to pieces their very bones, and crushed [them] to pieces like what is in a widemouthed pot and like flesh in the midst of a cooking pot.[j] 4 At that time they will call to Jehovah for aid, but he will not answer them.[k] And he will conceal his face from them in that time,[l] according as they committed badness in their dealings.[m]

5 "This is what Jehovah has said against the prophets that are causing my people to wander,[n] that are biting with their teeth[o] and that actually call out, 'Peace!'[p] that, when anyone does not put [something] into their mouths, also actually sanctify war against him,[q] 6 'Therefore YOU men will have night,[r] so that there will be no vision;[s] and darkness YOU will have, so as not to practice divination. And the sun will certainly set upon the prophets, and the day must get dark upon them.[t] 7 And the visionaries[u] will have to be ashamed,[v] and the diviners[w] will certainly be disappointed. And they will have to cover over the mustache,[x] all of them, for there is no answer from God.'"[y]

8 And, on the other hand, I myself have become full of power, with the spirit of Jehovah, and of justice and mightiness,[a] in order to tell to Jacob his revolt and to Israel his sin.[b]

9 Hear, please, this, YOU head ones of the house of Jacob and YOU commanders of the house of Israel,[c] the ones detesting justice and the ones who make even everything that is straight crooked;[d] 10 building Zion with acts of bloodshed and Jerusalem with unrighteousness.[e] 11 Her own head ones judge merely for a bribe,[f] and her own priests instruct just for a price,[g] and her own prophets practice divination simply for money;[h] yet upon Jehovah they keep supporting themselves, saying: "Is not Jehovah in the midst of us?[i] There will come upon us no calamity."[j] 12 Therefore on account of YOU men Zion will be plowed up as a mere field, and Jerusalem herself will become mere heaps of ruins,[k] and the mountain of the house will be as the high places of a forest.

4 And it must occur in the final part of the days[l] [that] the mountain[m] of the house[n] of Jehovah will become firmly established above the top of the mountains, and it will certainly be lifted up above the hills;[o] and to it peoples must stream.[p] 2 And many nations will certainly go and say: "Come,[q] YOU people, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah and to the house of the God of Jacob;[r] and he will instruct us about his ways,[s] and we will walk in his paths."[t] For out of Zion law will go forth, and the word of Jehovah out of Jerusalem.[u] 3 And he will certainly render judgment among many peoples,[a] and set matters straight[b] respecting mighty nations far away.[c] And they will have to beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning shears.[d] They will not lift up sword, nation against nation, neither will they learn war anymore.[e] 4 And they will actually sit, each one under his vine and under his fig tree,[f] and there will be no one making [them] tremble;[g] for the very mouth of Jehovah of armies has spoken [it].[h]

5 For all the peoples, for their part, will walk each one in the name of its god;[i] but we, for our part, shall walk in the name of Jehovah our God[j] to time indefinite, even forever.[k]

6 "In that day," is the utterance of Jehovah, "I will gather her that was limping;[l] and her that was dispersed I will collect together,[m] even her whom I have treated badly. 7 And I shall certainly make her that was limping a remnant,[n] and her that was removed far off a mighty nation;[o] and Jehovah will actually rule as king over them in Mount Zion, from now on and into time indefinite.[p]

8 "And as for you, O tower of the drove, the mound of the daughter of Zion,[q] as far as to you it will come, yes, the first dominion will certainly come,[r] the kingdom belonging to the daughter of Jerusalem.[s]

9 "Now why is it that you keep shouting loudly?[t] Is there no king in you, or has your own counselor perished, so that pangs like those of a woman giving birth have grabbed hold of you?[u] 10 Be in severe pains and burst forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman giving birth,[v] for now you will go forth from a town, and you will have to reside in the field.[w] And you will have to come as far as to Babylon.[x] There you will be delivered.[y] There Jehovah will buy you back out of the palm of your enemies.[a]

11 "And now there will certainly be gathered against you many nations, those who are saying, 'Let her be polluted, and may our eyes look upon Zion.'[b] 12 But as for them, they have not come to know the thoughts of Jehovah, and they have not come to understand his counsel;[c] because he will certainly collect them together like a row of newly cut grain to the threshing floor.[d]

13 "Get up and thresh, O daughter of Zion;[e] for your horn I shall change into iron, and your hoofs I shall change into copper, and you will certainly pulverize many peoples;[f] and by a ban you will actually devote to Jehovah their unjust profit,[g] and their resources to the [true] Lord of the whole earth."[h]

5 "At this time you make cuttings upon yourself,[i] O daughter of an invasion; a siege he has laid against us.[j] With the rod they will strike upon the cheek the judge of Israel.[k]

2 "And you, O Beth'le·hem Eph'ra·thah,[l] the one too little to get to be among the thousands of Judah,[m] from you[n] there will come out to me the one who is to become ruler in Israel,[o] whose origin is from early times, from the days of time indefinite.[p]

3 "Therefore he will give them up[q] until the time that she who is giving birth actually gives birth.[r] And the rest of his brothers will return to the sons of Israel.

tainly keep dwelling,[a] for now he will be great as far as the ends of the earth.[b] 5 And this one must become peace.[c] As for the As·syr'i·an, when he comes into our land and when he treads upon our dwelling towers,[d] we shall also have to raise up against him seven shepherds, yes, eight dukes of mankind. 6 And they will actually shepherd the land of As·syr'i·a with the sword,[e] and the land of Nim'rod[f] in its entrances. And he will certainly bring about deliverance from the As·syr'i·an,[g] when he comes into our land and when he treads upon our territory.

7 "And the remaining ones of Jacob[h] must become in the midst of many peoples like dew from Jehovah,[i] like copious showers upon vegetation,[j] that does not hope for man or wait for the sons of earthling man.[k] 8 And the remaining ones of Jacob must become among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the beasts of a forest, like a maned young lion among droves of sheep, which, when it actually passes through, certainly both tramples down and tears in pieces;[l] and there is no deliverer. 9 Your hand will be high above your adversaries,[m] and all enemies of yours will be cut off."[n]

10 "And it must occur in that day," is the utterance of Jehovah, "that I will cut off your horses from the midst of you and destroy your chariots.[o] 11 And I will cut off the cities of your land and tear down all your fortified places.[p] 12 And I will cut off sorceries out of your hand, and no practicers of magic will you continue to have.[q] 13 And I will cut off your graven images and your pillars from the midst of you, and you will no more bow down to the work of your hands.[r] 14 And I will uproot your sacred poles[a] from the midst of you and annihilate your cities. 15 And in anger and in rage I will execute vengeance upon the nations that have not obeyed."[b]

6 Hear, please, YOU people, what Jehovah is saying.[c] Get up, conduct a legal case with the mountains, and may the hills hear your voice.[d] 2 Hear, O YOU mountains, the legal case of Jehovah, also YOU durable objects, YOU foundations of [the] earth;[e] for Jehovah has a legal case with his people, and it is with Israel that he will argue:[f]

3 "O my people,[g] what have I done to you? And in what way have I tired you out?[h] Testify against me.[i] 4 For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt,[j] and from the house of slaves I redeemed you;[k] and I proceeded to send before you Moses, Aaron and Mir'i·am.[l] 5 O my people, remember,[m] please, what Ba'lak the king of Mo'ab counseled,[n] and what Ba'laam the son of Be'or answered him.[o] From Shit'tim[p] it was, all the way to Gil'gal,[q] to the intent that the righteous acts of Jehovah might be known."[r]

6 With what shall I confront[s] Jehovah? [With what] shall I bow myself to God on high?[t] Shall I confront him with whole burnt offerings,[u] with calves a year old? 7 Will Jehovah be pleased with thousands of rams, with tens of thousands of torrents of oil?[v] Shall I give my firstborn son for my revolt, the fruitage of my belly for the sin of my soul?[w] 8 He has told you, O earthling man, what is good.[x] And what is Jehovah asking back from you but to exercise justice[y] and to love kindness[z]

and to be modest[a] in walking with your God?[b]

9 To the city the very voice of Jehovah calls out,[c] and [the person of] practical wisdom will fear your name.[d] Hear [the] rod and who it was that designated it,[e] O YOU people. 10 Do there yet exist [in] the house of a wicked one the treasures of wickedness,[f] and the scrimped e'phah measure that is denounced? 11 Can I be [morally] clean with wicked scales and with a bag of deceptive stone weights?[g] 12 For her own rich men have become full of violence, and her own inhabitants have spoken falsehood,[h] and their tongue is tricky in their mouth.[i]

13 "And I also, for my part, shall certainly make [you] sick by striking you;[j] there will be a desolating [of you], on account of your sins.[k] 14 You, for your part, will eat and not get satisfied, and your emptiness will be in the midst of you.[l] And you will remove [things], but you will not carry [them] safely away; and whatever you would carry away safely, I shall give to the sword itself.[m] 15 You, for your part, will sow seed, but you will not reap. You, for your part, will tread olives, but you will not grease yourself with oil; also sweet wine, but you will not drink wine.[n] 16 And the statutes of Om'ri[o] and all the work of the house of A'hab are observed,[p] and YOU people walk in their counsels;[q] to the end that I may make you an object of astonishment and her inhabitants something to be whistled at;[r] and the reproach of peoples YOU men will bear."[s]

7 Too bad for me,[t] for I have become like the gatherings of summer fruit, like the gleaning of a grape gathering![u] There is no grape cluster to eat, no early fig, that my soul would desire![v] 2 The loyal one has perished from the earth, and among mankind there is no upright one.[a] All of them, for bloodshed they lie in wait.[b] They hunt, everyone his own brother, with a dragnet.[c] 3 [Their] hands are upon what is bad, to do [it] well;[d] the prince is asking [for something], and the one who is judging [does so] for the reward,[e] and the great one is speaking forth the craving of his soul, his very own;[f] and they interweave it. 4 Their best one is like a brier, [their] most upright one is worse than a thorn hedge.[g] The day of your watchmen, [of] your being given attention, must come.[h] Now will occur the confounding of them.[i]

5 Do not put YOUR faith in a companion. Do not put YOUR trust in a confidential friend.[j] From her who is lying in your bosom guard the openings of your mouth.[k] 6 For a son is despising a father; a daughter is rising up against her mother;[l] a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;[m] a man's enemies are the men of his household.[n]

7 But as for me, it is for Jehovah that I shall keep on the lookout.[o] I will show a waiting attitude for the God of my salvation.[p] My God will hear me.[q]

8 Do not rejoice over me, O you woman enemy of mine.[r] Although I have fallen, I shall certainly rise up;[s] although I dwell in the darkness,[t] Jehovah will be a light to me.[u] 9 The raging of Jehovah I shall bear—for I have sinned against him[v]—until he conducts my legal case and actually executes justice for me.[w] He will bring me forth to the light; I shall look upon his righteousness.[x]

NAHUM

1 The pronouncement against Nin'e·veh:[a] The book of the vision of Na'hum the El'kosh·ite:

2 Jehovah is a God exacting exclusive devotion[b] and taking vengeance; Jehovah is taking vengeance[c] and is disposed to rage.[d] Jehovah is taking vengeance against his adversaries,[e] and he is resentful toward his enemies.[f]

3 Jehovah is slow to anger[g] and great in power,[h] and by no means will Jehovah hold back from punishing.[i]

In destructive wind and in storm is his way, and the cloud mass is the powder of his feet.[a]

4 He is rebuking the sea,[b] and he dries it up; and all the rivers he actually makes run dry.[c]

Ba'shan and Car'mel have withered,[d] and the very blossom of Leb'a·non has withered.

5 Mountains themselves have rocked because of him, and the very hills found themselves melting.[a]

And the earth will be upheaved because of his face; the productive land also, and all those dwelling in it.[b]

6 In the face of his denunciation who can stand?[c] And who can rise up against the heat of his anger?[d]

His own rage will certainly be poured out like fire,[e] and the very rocks will actually be pulled down because of him.

7 Jehovah is good,[f] a stronghold[g] in the day of distress.[h]

And he is cognizant of those seeking refuge in him.[i]

8 And by the flood that is passing along he will make an outright extermination of her place,[j] and darkness will pursue his very enemies.[k]

9 What will YOU men think up against Jehovah?[l] He is causing an outright extermination.

Distress will not rise up a second time.[m]

10 Although they are being interwoven even as thorns[n] and they are drunken as with their wheat beer,[o] they will certainly be devoured like stubble fully dry.[p]

12 This is what Jehovah has said: "Although they were in complete form and there were many in that state, even in that state they must be cut down;[s] and one must pass through. And I shall certainly afflict you, so that I shall not afflict you anymore.[t] 13 And now I shall break his carrying bar from upon you,[u] and the bands upon you I shall tear in two.[v] 14 And concerning you Jehovah has commanded, 'Nothing of your name will be sown anymore.[w] Out of the house of your gods I shall cut off carved image and molten statue.[a] I shall make a burial place for you,[b] because you have been of no account.'

15 "Look! Upon the mountains the feet of one bringing good news, one publishing peace.[c] O Judah, celebrate your festivals.[d] Pay your vows;[e] because no more will any good-for-nothing person pass again through you.[f] In his entirety he will certainly be cut off."[g]

2 One that does a scattering has come up before your face.[h] Let there be a safeguarding of the fortified place. Watch [the] way. Strengthen [the] hips. Reinforce power very much.[i]

2 For Jehovah will certainly gather the pride of Jacob,[j] like the pride of Israel, because those emptying out have emptied them out;[k] and the shoots of them they have ruined.[l]

3 The shield of his mighty men is dyed red; [his] men of vital energy are dressed in crimson stuff.[m] With the fire of iron [fittings] is the war chariot in the day of his getting ready, and the juniper[n] tree [spears] have been made to quiver. 4 In the streets the war chariots keep driving madly.[o] They keep rushing up and down in the public squares. Their appearances are like torches. Like the lightnings[p] they keep running.

5 He will remember his majestic ones.[q] They will stumble in their walking.[r] They will hasten to her wall, and the barricade will have to be firmly established. 6 The very gates of the rivers will certainly be opened, and the palace itself will actually be dissolved. 7 And it has been fixed; she has been uncovered; she will certainly be carried away,[s] and her slave girls will be moaning, like the sound of doves,[t] beating repeatedly upon their hearts.[a] 8 And Nin′e·veh, from the days [that] she [has been],[b] was like a pool of waters;[c] but they are fleeing. "Stand still, YOU men! Stand still!" But there is no one turning back.[d]

9 Plunder silver, YOU men; plunder gold;[e] as there is no limit to the [things in] arrangement. There is a heavy amount of all sorts of desirable articles.[f]

10 Emptiness and voidness, and [a city] laid waste![g] And the heart is melting,[h] and there is a tottering of [the] knees,[i] and severe pains are in all hips;[j] and as for the faces of all of them, they have collected a glow [of excitement].[k] 11 Where is the lair of lions, and the cave that belongs to the maned young lions, where the lion walked and entered,[l] where the lion's cub was, and no one was making [them] tremble?[m] 12 [The] lion was tearing to pieces enough for his whelps, and was strangling for his lionesses. And he kept his holes filled with prey and his hiding places with animals torn to pieces.[n]

13 "Look! I am against you," is the utterance of Jehovah of armies,[o] "and I will burn up her war chariot in the smoke.[p] And a sword will devour your own maned young lions.[q] And I will cut off from the earth your prey, and no more will the voice of your messengers be heard."[r]

3 Woe to the city of bloodshed.[s] She is all full of deception [and] of robbery. Prey does not depart! 2 There is the sound of [the] whip[t] and the sound of the rattling of [the] wheel, and the dashing horse and the leaping chariot.[u] 3 The mounted horseman, and the flame of [the] sword, and the lightning of [the] spear,[v] and the multitude of slain ones, and the heavy mass of carcasses; and there is no end to the dead bodies. They keep stumbling among their dead bodies; 4 owing to the abundance of the acts of prostitution of the prostitute,[a] attractive with charm, a mistress of sorceries, she who is ensnaring nations by her acts of prostitution and families by her sorceries.[b]

5 "Look! I am against you,"[c] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, "and I will put the covering of your skirts over your face, and I will cause nations to see your nakedness,[d] and kingdoms your dishonor. 6 And I will throw disgusting things upon you,[e] and I will make you despicable; and I will set you as a spectacle.[f] 7 And it must occur that everyone seeing you will flee away from you[g] and will certainly say, 'Nin′e·veh has been despoiled! Who will sympathize with her?' From where shall I seek comforters for you? 8 Are you better than No-a′mon,[h] that was sitting by the Nile canals?[i] Waters were all around her, whose wealth was [the] sea, whose wall was from [the] sea. 9 E·thi·o′pi·a was her full might, also Egypt;[j] and that without limit. Put and the Lib′y·ans themselves proved to be of assistance to you.[k] 10 She, too, was meant for exile; she went into captivity.[l] Her own children also came to be dashed to pieces at the head of all the streets;[m] and over her glorified men they cast lots,[n] and her great ones have all been bound with fetters.[o]

11 "You yourself will also become drunk;[p] you will become something hidden.[q] You yourself also will seek a stronghold from [the] enemy.[r] 12 All your fortified places are as fig trees with the first ripe fruits, which, if they get wiggled, will certainly fall into the mouth of an eater.[s]

HABAKKUK

1 The pronouncement that Ha·bak′kuk the prophet visioned: 2 How long, O Jehovah, must I cry for help, and you do not hear?[a] [How long] shall I call to you for aid from violence, and you do not save?[b] 3 Why is it that you make me see what is hurtful, and you keep looking upon mere trouble? And [why] are despoiling and violence in front of me, and [why] does quarreling occur, and [why] is strife carried?[c] 4 Therefore law grows numb, and justice never goes forth.[d] Because the wicked one is surrounding the righteous one, for that reason justice goes forth crooked.[e]

5 "See, YOU people, among the nations, and look on, and stare in amazement at one another.[f] Be amazed; for there is an activity that one is carrying on in YOUR days, [which] YOU people will not believe although it is related.[g] 6 For here I am raising up the Chal·de′ans,[a] the nation bitter and impetuous, which is going to the wide-open places of earth in order to take possession of residences not belonging to it.[b] 7 Frightful and fear-inspiring it is. From itself its own justice and its own dignity go forth.[c] 8 And its horses have proved swifter than leopards, and they have proved fiercer than evening wolves.[d] And its steeds have pawed the ground, and from far away its own steeds come. They fly like the eagle speeding to eat [something].[e] 9 In its entirety it comes for mere violence.[f] The assembling of their faces is as [the] east wind,[g] and it gathers up captives just like the sand. 10 And for its part, it jeers kings themselves, and high officials are something laughable to it.[h] For its part, it laughs even at every fortified place,[a] and it piles up dust and captures it. 11 At that time it will certainly move onward [like] wind and will pass through and will actually become guilty.[b] This its power is due to its god."[c]

12 Are you not from long ago, O Jehovah?[d] O my God, my Holy One, you do not die.[e] O Jehovah, for a judgment you have set it; and, O Rock,[f] for a reproving[g] you have founded it.

13 You are too pure in eyes to see what is bad; and to look on trouble you are not able.[h] Why is it that you look on those dealing treacherously,[i] that you keep silent when someone wicked swallows up someone more righteous than he is?[j] 14 And [why] do you make earthling man like the fishes of the sea, like creeping things over whom no one is ruling?[k] 15 All these he has brought up with a mere fishhook;[l] he drags them away in his dragnet, and he gathers them in his fishing net.[m] That is why he rejoices and is joyful.[n] 16 That is why he offers sacrifice to his dragnet and makes sacrificial smoke to his fishing net; for by them his portion is well oiled, and his food is healthful.[o] 17 Is that why he will empty out his dragnet, and does he have to kill nations constantly, while he shows no compassion?[p]

2 At my guard post I will keep standing,[q] and I will keep myself stationed upon [the] bulwark; and I shall keep watch,[r] to see what he will speak by me[s] and what I shall reply at the reproof of me.[t]

2 And Jehovah proceeded to answer me and to say: "Write down [the] vision, and set [it] out plainly upon tablets,[u] in order that the one reading aloud from it may do so fluently.[v] 3 For [the] vision is yet for the appointed time,[w] and it keeps panting on to the end, and it will not tell a lie. Even if it should delay, keep in expectation of it; for it will without fail come true.[a] It will not be late.

4 "Look! His soul has been swelled up;[b] it has not been upright within him. But as for the righteous one, by his faithfulness he will keep living.[c] 5 And, indeed, because the wine is dealing treacherously,[d] an able-bodied man is self-assuming;[e] and he will not reach his goal,[f] he who has made his soul spacious just like She′ol, and who is like death and cannot be satisfied.[g] And he keeps gathering to himself all the nations and collecting together to himself all the peoples.[h] 6 Will not these very ones, all of them, lift up against him a proverbial saying[i] and an alluding remark, insinuations at him? And one will say,

"'Woe to him who is multiplying what is not his own[j]—O how long![k]—and who is making debt heavy against himself! 7 Will not those claiming interest of you rise up suddenly, and those wake up who are violently shaking you, and you certainly become to them something to pillage?[l] 8 Because you yourself despoiled many nations, all the remaining ones of [the] peoples will despoil you,[m] because of the shedding of blood of mankind and the violence to [the] earth, [the] town and all those dwelling in it.[n]

9 "'Woe to the one that is making evil gain for his house,[o] in order to set his nest on the height, so as to be delivered from the grasp of what is calamitous![p] 10 You have counseled something shameful to your house, the cutting off of many peoples;[q] and your soul is sinning.[r] 11 For out of [the] plaintively, and from the woodwork

a rafter itself will answer it.[a]

12 "'Woe to the one that is building a city by bloodshed,

a town by unrighteousness![b] 13 Look! Is it not from Jehovah of armies that peoples will toil on only for the fire, and that national groups will tire themselves out merely for nothing?[c] 14 For the earth will be filled with the knowing of the glory of Jehovah as the waters themselves cover over [the] sea.[d]

15 "'Woe to the one giving his companions something to rage and anger, in order to make [them] drunk,[e] for the purpose of looking upon their parts of yourself,[h] and be considered uncircumcised.[i]

The cup of the

of it has carved it, a molten falsehood?[o] when the former of its form has trusted in it,[p] to the extent of making valueless gods that are speechless?[q]

to the piece of wood: "O do awake!" to a dumb stone: "O wake up! It itself will give instruction"![r] Look! It is sheathed in gold and silver,[s] and there is

3 The prayer of Ha·bak'kuk
the prophet in dirges: 2 O Jehovah, I have heard the report about you.[a] I have become afraid, O Jehovah, of your activity.[b]

In the midst of [the] years
O bring it to life! In the midst of [the] years may you make it known. During the agitation, to show mercy may you remember.[c]

3 God himself proceeded to come from Te'man, even a Holy One from Mount Pa'ran.[d] Se'lah.[e]

His dignity covered [the] heavens;[f] and with his praise
the earth became filled.[g]

4 As for [his] brightness, it got to be just like the light.[h]
He had two rays [issuing] out of his hand, and there the hiding of his strength was.[i]

5 Before him pestilence kept going,[j] and burning fever would go forth at his feet.[k]

6 He stood still, that he might shake up [the] earth.[l] He saw, and then caused nations to leap.[m]

And the eternal mountains got to be smashed;[n] the indefinitely lasting hills bowed down.[o] The walkings of long ago are his.

7 Under what is hurtful I saw the tents of Cu'shan. The tent cloths of the land of Mid'i·an[p] began to be agitated.[q]

8 Is it against the rivers, O
Jehovah, is it against the rivers that your anger has become hot,[r] or is your fury against the sea?[s] For you went riding upon your horses;[t] your chariots were salvation.[u]

9 In [its] nakedness your bow comes to be uncovered.[v] The sworn oaths of [the] tribes are the thing said.[w] Se'lah. With 10 Mountains saw you; they got to be in severe pains.[b] A thunderstorm of waters passed through. The watery deep gave forth its sound.[c] On high its hands it lifted up.

11 Sun—moon—stood still,[d] in the lofty abode thereof.[e] Like light your own arrows kept going.[f] The lightning of your spear served for brightness.[g]

12 With denunciation you went marching [through] the earth. In anger you went threshing [the] nations.[h]

13 And you went forth for the salvation of your people,[i] to save your anointed one. You broke to pieces the head one one.[j] There was a laying of the

[with] your horses, [through] the heap of vast waters.[o]

16 I heard, and my belly began to be agitated; at the sound
my lips quivered; rottenness began to enter into my bones;[a]
and in my situation I was agitated, that I should quietly wait for the day of distress,[b] for [his] coming up to the people,[c] [that] he may raid them.

17 Although [the] fig tree

there may be no yield on the tree may actually turn out a failure, and the terraces themselves may actually produce no food;[e] [the] flock may actually be severed from [the] pen, and there may be no herd in the enclosures;[f]

18 Yet, as for me, I will exult in Jehovah himself;[g] I will be joyful in the God of my salvation.[h]

Lord is my vital energy;[i] and he will make my feet like those tread.[k]

ZEPHANIAH

1 The word of Jehovah that occurred to Zeph·a·ni'ah the son of Cush'i the son of Ged·a·li'ah
the son of Am·a·ri'ah the son of Hez·e·ki'ah in the days of Jo·si'ah[a] the son of A'mon[b] the king of Judah:

2 "I shall without fail finish everything off the surface of the ground," is the utterance of Jehovah.[c]

3 "I shall finish off earthling man and beast.[d] I shall finish off the flying creature of the heavens and the fishes of the sea,[e]
and the stumbling blocks with the wicked ones;[a] and I will cut off mankind from the surface of the ground,"[b] is the utterance of Jehovah. 4 "And I will stretch out my hand against Judah and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem,[c] and I will cut off from this place the remaining ones of the Ba'al,[d] the name of the foreign-god priests along with the priests,[e] 5 and 7 Keep silence before the Sovereign Lord Jehovah;[g] for the day of Jehovah is near,[h] for Jehovah has prepared a sacrifice;[i] he has sanctified[j] his invited ones.

8 "And it must occur on the day of Jehovah's sacrifice that I will give attention to the princes, and to the sons of the king,[k] and to all those wearing foreign attire.[l] 9 And I will give attention to everyone that is climbing upon the platform in that day, those who are filling the house of their masters with violence and deception.[m] 10 And there must occur on that day," is the utterance of Jehovah, "the sound of an outcry from the Fish Gate,[n] and a howling from the second quarter,[o] and a great crashing from the hills.[p] 11 Howl,[q] YOU inhabitants of Mak′tesh, for all the people who are tradesmen have been silenced;[r] all those weighing out silver have been cut off.

12 "And it must occur at that time that I shall carefully search Jerusalem with lamps,[s] and I will give attention to the men who are congealing upon their dregs[t] [and] who are saying in their heart, 'Jehovah will not do good, and he will not do bad.'[u] 13 And their wealth must come to be for pillage and their houses for a desolate waste.[v] And they will build houses, but they will not have occupancy;[w] and they will plant vineyards, but they will not drink the wine of them.[x]

14 "The great day[y] of Jehovah is near.[a] It is near, and there is a hurrying [of it] very much.[b] The sound of the day of Jehovah is bitter.[c] There a mighty man is letting out a cry.[d] 15 That day is a day of fury, a day of distress and of anguish,[e] a day of storm and of desolation, a day of darkness and of gloominess,[f] a day of clouds and of thick gloom, 16 a day of horn and of alarm signal,[g] against the fortified cities and against the high corner towers.[h] 17 And I will cause distress to mankind, and they will certainly walk like blind men;[i] because it is against Jehovah that they have sinned.[j] And their blood will actually be poured out like dust,[k] and their bowels like the dung.[l] 18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of Jehovah's fury;[m] but by the fire of his zeal the whole earth will be devoured,[n] because he will make an extermination, indeed a terrible one, of all the inhabitants of the earth."[o]

2 Gather yourselves together, yes, do the gathering,[p] O nation not paling in shame.[q] 2 Before [the] statute gives birth to [anything],[r] [before the] day has passed by just like chaff, before there comes upon YOU people the burning anger of Jehovah,[s] before there comes upon YOU the day of Jehovah's anger,[t] 3 seek Jehovah,[u] all YOU meek ones of the earth,[v] who have practiced His own judicial decision. Seek righteousness,[w] seek meekness.[x] Probably[y] YOU may be concealed in the day of Jehovah's anger.[z] 4 For, as regards Ga′za, an abandoned [city] is what she will become;[a] and Ash′ke·lon is to be a desolate waste.[b] As regards Ash′dod,[c] at high noon they will drive her out;[d] and as regards Ek′ron, she will be uprooted.[e]

5 "Woe to those inhabiting the region of the sea, the nation of Cher′e·thites![f] The word of Jehovah is against YOU people. O Ca′naan, the land of the Phi·lis′tines, I will also destroy you, so that there will be no inhabitant.[g] 6 And the region of the sea must become pasture grounds,[h] [with] wells for shepherds and stone pens for sheep. 7 And it must become a region for the remaining ones of the house of Judah.[i] Upon them they will feed. In the houses of Ash′ke·lon, in the evening, they will lie stretched out. For Jehovah their God will turn his attention to them[j] and certainly gather back the captive ones of them."[k]

8 "I have heard the reproach by Mo′ab[l] and the abusive words of the sons of Am′mon,[m] with which they have reproached my people and kept putting on great airs against their territory. 9 Therefore, as I am alive,"[n] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, "Mo′ab herself will become just like Sod′om,[o] and the sons of Am′mon[p] like Go·mor′rah, a place possessed by nettles, and a salt pit, and a desolate waste, even to time indefinite.[q] The remaining ones of my people will plunder them, and the remnant of my own nation will take possession of them.[r] 10 This is what they will have instead of their pride,[s] because they reproached and kept putting on great airs against the people of Jehovah of armies.[t] 11 Jehovah will be fear-inspiring against them;[u] for he will certainly emaciate all the gods of the earth,[v] and people will bow down to him,[w] each one from his place, all the islands of the nations.[a]

12 "YOU also, YOU E·thi·o′pi·ans,[b] YOU yourselves will be people slain by my sword.[c]

13 "And he will stretch out his hand toward the north, and he will destroy As·syr′i·a.[d] And he will make Nin′e·veh a desolate waste,[e] a waterless region like the wilderness. 14 And in the midst of her, droves will certainly lie stretched out, all the wild animals of a nation.[f] Both pelican and porcupine[g] will spend the night right among her pillar capitals.[h] A voice will keep singing in the window. There will be devastation at the threshold; for he will certainly lay bare the very wainscoting.[i] 15 This is the exultant city that was sitting in security,[j] that was saying in her heart, 'I am, and there is nobody else.'[k] O how she has become an object of astonishment, a place for the wild animals to lie stretched out! Everyone passing along by her will whistle; he will wag his hand."[l] judicial decision.[a] At daylight it did not prove lacking.[b] But the unrighteous one was knowing no shame.[c]

6 "I cut off nations; their corner towers were desolated. I devastated their streets, so that there was no one passing through. Their cities were laid waste, so that there was no man, so that there was no inhabitant.[d] 7 I said, 'Surely you will fear me; you will accept discipline';[e] so that her dwelling might not be cut off[f]—all that I must call to account against her.[g] Truly they acted promptly in making all their dealings ruinous.[h]

8 "'Therefore keep yourselves in expectation of me,'[i] is the utterance of Jehovah, 'till the day of my rising up to [the] booty,[j] for my judicial decision is to gather nations,[k] for me to collect together kingdoms, in order to pour out upon them my denunciation,[l] all my burning anger; for by the fire of my zeal all the earth will be devoured.[m] 9 For then I shall give to peoples the change to a pure language,[n] in order for them all to call upon the name of Jehovah,[o] in order to serve him shoulder to shoulder.'[p]

10 "From the region of the rivers of E·thi·o'pi·a the ones entreating me, [namely,] the daughter of my scattered ones, will bring a gift to me.[q] 11 In that day you will not be ashamed because of all your dealings with which you transgressed against me,[r] for then I shall remove from the midst of you your haughtily exultant ones;[s] and you will never again be haughty in my holy mountain.[t] 12 And I shall certainly let remain in the midst of you a people humble and lowly,[u] and they will actually take refuge in the name of Jehovah.[v] 13 As regards the remaining ones of Israel,[w] they will do no unrighteousness,[x] nor speak a lie,[a] nor will there be found in their mouths a tricky tongue;[b] for they themselves will feed and actually lie stretched out,[c] and there will be no one making [them] tremble."[d]

14 Joyfully cry out, O daughter of Zion! Break out in cheers,[e] O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem![f] 15 Jehovah has removed the judgments upon you.[g] He has turned away your enemy.[h] The king of Israel, Jehovah, is in the midst of you.[i] You will fear calamity no more.[j] 16 In that day it will be said to Jerusalem: "Do not be afraid, O Zion.[k] May your hands not drop down.[l] 17 Jehovah your God is in the midst of you. As a mighty One, he will save.[m] He will exult over you with rejoicing.[n] He will become silent in his love. He will be joyful over you with happy cries.

18 "The ones grief-stricken[o] in absence from [your] festal season I shall certainly gather together;[p] absent from you they happened to be, because of bearing reproach on her account.[q] 19 Here I am acting against all those afflicting you, at that time;[r] and I will save her that is limping,[s] and her that is dispersed I shall collect together.[t] And I will set them as a praise and as a name in all the land of their shame. 20 At that time I shall bring YOU people in, even in the time of my collecting YOU together. For I shall make YOU people to be a name and a praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I gather back YOUR captive ones before YOUR eyes," Jehovah has said.[u]

1 In the second year of Da·ri'us the king,[a] in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of Jehovah occurred by means of Hag'gai[b] the prophet to Ze·rub'ba·bel[c] the son of She·al'ti·el,[d] the governor of Judah,[e] and to Joshua[f] the son of Je·hoz'a·dak[g] the high priest, saying:

2 "This is what Jehovah of armies[h] has said, 'As regards this people, they have said: "The time has not come, the time of the house of Jehovah, for [it] to be built."'"[i]

3 And the word of Jehovah continued to come by means of Hag'gai the prophet, saying: 4 "Is it the time for YOU yourselves to dwell in YOUR paneled houses,[j] while this house is waste?[k] 5 And now this is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'Set YOUR heart upon YOUR ways.[l] 6 You have sown much seed, but there is a bringing of little in.[m] There is an eating, but it is not to satisfaction.[n] There is a drinking, but not to the point of getting intoxicated. There is a putting on of clothes, but it is not with anyone's getting warm; and he that is hiring himself out is hiring himself out for a bag having holes.'"[o]

7 "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'Set YOUR heart upon YOUR ways.'[p]

8 "'Go up to the mountain, and YOU must bring in lumber.[q] And build the house,[r] that I may take pleasure in it[s] and I may be glorified,'[t] Jehovah has said."

9 "'There was a looking for much, but here there was just a little;[u] and YOU have brought [it] into the house, and I blew upon it[v]—for what reason?'[w] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies. 'By reason of my house that is waste, while YOU are on the run, each one in behalf of his own house.[a] 10 Therefore over YOU [the] heavens kept back [their] dew, and the earth itself kept back its yield.[b] 11 And I kept calling for dryness upon the earth, and upon the mountains, and upon the grain, and upon the new wine,[c] and upon the oil, and upon what the ground would bring forth, and upon earthling man, and upon domestic animal, and upon all the toil of [the] hands.'"[d]

12 And Ze·rub'ba·bel[e] the son of She·al'ti·el, and Joshua the son of Je·hoz'a·dak[f] the high priest, and all the remaining ones of the people began to listen to the voice of Jehovah their God,[g] and to the words of Hag'gai[h] the prophet, as Jehovah their God had sent him; and the people began to fear because of Jehovah.[i]

13 And Hag'gai the messenger[j] of Jehovah went on to say to the people according to the messenger's commission from Jehovah,[k] saying: "'I am with YOU people,'[l] is the utterance of Jehovah."

14 And Jehovah proceeded to rouse up the spirit[m] of Ze·rub'ba·bel the son of She·al'ti·el, the governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua[n] the son of Je·hoz'a·dak the high priest, and the spirit of all the remaining ones of the people; and they began to enter in and to do the work in the house of Jehovah of armies their God.[o] 15 It was on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month in the second year of Da·ri'us[a] the king.

2 In the seventh[b] [month], on the twenty-first [day] of the month, the word of Jehovah occurred by means of Hag'gai[c] the prophet, saying: 2 "Say, please, to Ze·rub'ba·bel[d] the son of She·al'ti·el,[e] the governor of Judah,[f] and to Joshua[g] the son of Je·hoz'a·dak[h] the high priest, and to the remaining ones of the people, saying, 3 'Who is there among YOU that is remaining over who saw this house in its former glory?[i] And how are YOU people seeing it now? Is it not, in comparison with that, as nothing in YOUR eyes?'[j]

4 "'But now be strong, O Ze·rub'ba·bel,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and be strong,[k] O Joshua the son of Je·hoz'a·dak the high priest.'

"'And be strong, all YOU people of the land,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and work.'[l]

"'For I am with YOU people,'[m] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies. 5 '[Remember] the thing that I concluded with YOU people when YOU came forth from Egypt,[n] and [when] my spirit[o] was standing in among YOU. Do not be afraid.'"[p]

6 "For this is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'Yet once—it is a little while[q]—and I am rocking the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry ground.'[r]

7 "'And I will rock all the nations, and the desirable things of all the nations must come in;[s] and I will fill this house with glory,'[t] Jehovah of armies has said.

8 "'The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,'[u] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies.

9 "'Greater will the glory of this later house become than [that of] the former,'[v] Jehovah of armies has said.

"'And in this place I shall give peace,'[a] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies."

10 In the twenty-fourth [day] of the ninth [month], in the second year of Da·ri'us, the word of Jehovah occurred to Hag'gai[b] the prophet, saying: 11 "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'Ask, please, the priests as to [the] law,[c] saying: 12 "If a man carries holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and he actually touches with his skirt bread or stew or wine or oil or any sort of food, will it become holy?"'"[d]

And the priests proceeded to answer and say: "No!"

13 And Hag'gai went on to say: "If someone unclean by a deceased soul touches any of these things, will it become unclean?"[e]

In turn the priests answered and said: "It will become unclean."

14 Accordingly Hag'gai answered and said: "'That is how this people is, and that is how this nation is before me,'[f] is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and that is how all the work of their hands is, and whatever they present there. It is unclean.'[g]

15 "'But now, please, set YOUR heart[h] [on this] from this day and forward, before there was the placing of a stone upon a stone in the temple of Jehovah,[i] 16 from when those things happened to be—one came to a heap of twenty [measures], and it proved to be ten; one came to the press vat to draw off fifty [measures] of the wine trough, and it proved to be twenty;[j] 17 I struck YOU people with scorching[k] and with mildew[l] and with hail,[m] even all the work of YOUR hands,[n] and there was no one with YOU [turning] to me,'[o] is the utterance of Jehovah—

18 "'Set YOUR heart,[p] please,

ZECHARIAH

1 In the eighth month in the second year of Da·ri'us[a] the word of Jehovah occurred to Zech·a·ri'ah[b] the son of Ber·e·chi'ah the son of Id'do[c] the prophet, saying: 2 "Jehovah grew indignant at YOUR fathers—very much so.[d]

3 "And you must say to them, 'This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "'Return to me,'[e] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, 'and I shall return to YOU,'[f] Jehovah of armies has said."'

4 "'Do not become like YOUR fathers[g] to whom the former prophets called,[h] saying: "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'Return, please, from YOUR bad ways and from YOUR bad dealings.'"'[i]

"'But they did not listen, and they paid no attention to me,'[j] is the utterance of Jehovah.

5 "'As for YOUR fathers, where are they?[k] And as for the prophets,[l] was it to time indefinite that they continued to live? 6 However, as regards my words and my regulations that I commanded my servants, the prophets,[a] did they not catch up with YOUR fathers?'[b] So they returned and said: 'According to what Jehovah of armies had in mind to do to us,[c] according to our ways and according to our dealings, that is how he has done with us.'"[d]

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, that is, the month She'bat, in the second year of Da·ri'us,[e] the word of Jehovah occurred to Zech·a·ri'ah[f] the son of Ber·e·chi'ah the son of Id'do[g] the prophet, saying: 8 "I saw [in] the night, and, look! a man[h] riding on a red horse,[i] and he was standing still among the myrtle trees[j] that were in the deep place; and behind him there were horses red, bright red, and white."[k]

9 And so I said: "Who are these, my lord?"[a]

At that the angel who was speaking with me said[b] to me: "I myself shall show you who these very ones are."

10 Then the man who was standing still among the myrtle trees answered and said: "These are the ones whom Jehovah has sent forth to walk about in the earth."[c] 11 And they proceeded to answer the angel of Jehovah who was standing among the myrtle trees and to say: "We have walked about in the earth,[d] and, look! the whole earth is sitting still and having no disturbance."[e]

12 So the angel of Jehovah answered and said: "O Jehovah of armies, how long will you yourself not show mercy to Jerusalem and to the cities of Judah,[f] whom you have denounced these seventy years?"[g]

13 And Jehovah proceeded to answer the angel who was speaking with me, with good words, comforting words;[h] 14 and the angel who was speaking with me went on to say to me: "Call out, saying, 'This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "I have been jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with great jealousy.[i] 15 With great indignation I am feeling indignant against the nations that are at ease;[j] because I, for my part, felt indignant to only a little extent,[k] but they, for their part, helped toward calamity."'[l]

16 "Therefore this is what Jehovah has said, '"I shall certainly return to Jerusalem with mercies.[m] My own house will be built in her,"[n] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, "and a measuring line itself will be stretched out over Jerusalem."'[o]

17 "Call out further, saying, 'This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "My cities will yet overflow with goodness;[p] and Jehovah will yet certainly feel regrets over Zion[a] and yet actually choose Jerusalem."'"[b]

18 And I proceeded to raise my eyes and see; and, look! there were four horns.[c] 19 So I said to the angel who was speaking with me: "What are these?" In turn he said to me: "These are the horns that dispersed Judah,[d] Israel[e] and Jerusalem."[f]

20 Furthermore, Jehovah showed me four craftsmen. 21 At that I said: "What are these coming to do?"

And he went on to say: "These are the horns[g] that dispersed Judah to such an extent that no one at all raised his head; and these others will come to set them trembling, to cast down the horns of the nations that are lifting up a horn against the land of Judah, in order to disperse her."[h]

2 And I proceeded to raise my eyes and see; and, look! there was a man, and in his hand a measuring rope.[i] 2 So I said: "Where are you going?"

In turn he said to me: "To measure Jerusalem, in order to see what her breadth amounts to and what her length amounts to."[j]

3 And, look! the angel who was speaking with me was going forth, and there was another angel going forth to meet him. 4 Then he said to him: "Run, speak to the young man over there, saying, '"As open rural country Jerusalem will be inhabited,[k] because of the multitude of men and domestic animals in the midst of her.[l] 5 And I myself shall become to her," is the utterance of Jehovah, "a wall of fire all around,[m] and a glory is what I shall become in the midst of her."'"[n]

6 "Hey there! Hey there! Flee, then, YOU people, from the land of the north,"[o] is the utterance of Jehovah.

"For in the direction of the four winds of the heavens I have spread YOU people abroad,"[a] is the utterance of Jehovah.

7 "Hey there, Zion![b] Make your escape, you who are dwelling with the daughter of Babylon.[c] 8 For this is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'Following after [the] glory[d] he has sent me to the nations that were despoiling YOU people;[e] for he that is touching YOU[f] is touching my eyeball.[g] 9 For here I am waving my hand against them,[h] and they will have to become spoil to their slaves.'[i] And YOU people will certainly know that Jehovah of armies himself has sent me.[j]

10 "Cry out loudly and rejoice, O daughter of Zion;[k] for here I am coming,[l] and I will reside in the midst of you,"[m] is the utterance of Jehovah. 11 "And many nations will certainly become joined to Jehovah in that day,[n] and they will actually become my people;[o] and I will reside in the midst of you." And you will have to know that Jehovah of armies himself has sent me to you.[p] 12 And Jehovah will certainly take possession of Judah as his portion upon the holy ground,[q] and he must yet choose Jerusalem.[r] 13 Keep silence, all flesh, before Jehovah,[s] for he has aroused himself[t] from his holy dwelling.[u]

3 And he proceeded to show me Joshua[v] the high priest standing before the angel of Jehovah, and Satan[w] standing at his right hand in order to resist[x] him. 2 Then [the angel[y] of] Jehovah said to Satan: "Jehovah rebuke[z] you, O Satan, yes, Jehovah rebuke you, he who is choosing Jerusalem![a] Is this one not a log snatched out of the fire?"[b]

3 Now as for Joshua, he happened to be clothed in befouled garments[c] and standing before the angel. 4 Then he answered and said to those standing before him: "Remove the befouled garments from upon him." And he went on to say to him: "See, I have caused your error to pass away from upon you,[a] and there is a clothing of you with robes of state."[b]

5 At that I said: "Let them put a clean turban upon his head."[c] And they proceeded to put the clean turban upon his head and to clothe him with garments; and the angel of Jehovah was standing by. 6 And the angel of Jehovah began to bear witness to Joshua, saying: 7 "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'If it is in my ways that you will walk, and if it is my obligation that you will keep,[d] then also it will be you that will judge my house[e] and also keep my courtyards; and I shall certainly give you free access among these who are standing by.'

8 "'Hear, please, O Joshua the high priest, you and your companions who are sitting before you, for they are men [serving] as portents;[f] for here I am bringing in my servant[g] Sprout![h] 9 For, look! the stone[i] that I have put before Joshua! Upon the one stone there are seven eyes.[j] Here I am engraving its engraving,'[k] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, 'and I will take away the error of that land in one day.'[l]

10 "'In that day,' is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, 'YOU will call, each one to the other, while under [the] vine and while under [the] fig tree.'"[m]

4 And the angel who was speaking with me proceeded to come back and wake me up, like a man that is awakened from his sleep.[n] 2 Then he said to me: "What are you seeing?"[o]

So I said: "I have seen, and, look! there is a lampstand, all of it of gold,[a] with a bowl on top of it. And its seven lamps are upon it, even seven;[b] and the lamps that are at the top of it have seven pipes. 3 And there are two olive trees alongside it,[c] one on the right side of the bowl and one on its left side."

4 Then I answered and said to the angel who was speaking with me, saying: "What do these [things] mean, my lord?"[d] 5 So the angel who was speaking with me answered and said to me: "Do you not really know what these things mean?"

In turn I said: "No, my lord."[e]

6 Accordingly he answered and said to me: "This is the word of Jehovah to Ze·rub′ba·bel, saying, '"Not by a military force,[f] nor by power,[g] but by my spirit,"[h] Jehovah of armies has said. 7 Who are you, O great mountain?[i] Before Ze·rub′ba·bel[j] [you will become] a level land. And he will certainly bring forth the headstone.[k] There will be shoutings[l] to it: "How charming! How charming!"'"[m]

8 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 9 "The very hands of Ze·rub′ba·bel have laid the foundation of this house,[n] and his own hands will finish [it].[o] And you will have to know that Jehovah of armies himself has sent me to YOU people.[p] 10 For who has despised the day of small things?[q] And they will certainly rejoice[r] and see the plummet in the hand of Ze·rub′ba·bel. These seven are the eyes of Jehovah.[s] They are roving about in all the earth."[t]

11 And I proceeded to answer and say to him: "What do these two olive trees on the right side of the lampstand and on its left side mean?"[u] 12 Then I answered the second time and said to him: "What are the two bunches of twigs of the olive trees that, by means of the two golden tubes, are pouring forth from within themselves the golden [liquid]?"

13 So he said to me: "Do you not really know what these [things] mean?"

In turn I said: "No, my lord."[a]

14 Accordingly he said: "These are the two anointed ones[b] who are standing alongside the Lord of the whole earth."[c]

5 Then I raised my eyes again and saw; and, look! a flying scroll.[d] 2 So he said to me: "What are you seeing?"[e]

In turn I said: "I am seeing a flying scroll, the length of which is twenty cubits, and the breadth of which is ten cubits."

3 Then he said to me: "This is the curse that is going forth over the surface of all the earth,[f] because everyone that is stealing,[g] according to it on this side, has gone free of punishment; and everyone making a sworn oath,[h] according to it on that side,[i] has gone free of punishment. 4 'I have caused it to go forth,' is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, 'and it must enter into the house of the thief and into the house of the one making a sworn oath in my name falsely;[j] and it must lodge in the midst of his house and exterminate it and its timbers and its stones.'"[k]

5 Then the angel who was speaking with me went forth and said to me: "Raise your eyes, please, and see what this is that is going forth."

6 So I said: "What is it?"

In turn he said: "This is the e′phah measure that is going forth." And he went on to say: "This is their aspect in all the earth." 7 And, look! the circular lid of lead was lifted up; and this is a certain woman sitting in the midst of the e′phah. 8 So he said: "This is Wickedness." And he proceeded to throw her [back] into the midst of the e′phah,[a] after which he threw the lead weight upon its mouth.

9 Then I raised my eyes and saw, and here there were two women coming forth, and wind was in their wings. And they had wings like the wings of the stork. And they gradually raised the e′phah up between the earth and the heavens. 10 So I said to the angel who was speaking with me: "Where are they taking the e′phah?"

11 In turn he said to me: "In order to build[b] for her a house in the land of Shi′nar;[c] and it must be firmly established, and she must be deposited there upon her proper place."

6 Then I raised my eyes again and saw; and, look! there were four chariots coming forth from between two mountains, and the mountains were copper mountains. 2 In the first chariot there were red horses;[d] and in the second chariot, black horses.[e] 3 And in the third chariot there were white horses;[f] and in the fourth chariot, horses speckled, parti-colored.[g]

4 And I proceeded to answer and say to the angel who was speaking with me: "What are these, my lord?"[h]

5 So the angel answered and said to me: "These are the four spirits[i] of the heavens that are going forth[j] after having taken their station before the Lord[k] of the whole earth.[l] 6 As for the one in which the black horses are, they are going forth to the land of the north;[m] and as for the white ones, they must go forth to behind the sea; and as for the speckled ones, they must go forth to the land of the south.[n] 7 And as for the parti-colored[o] ones, they must go forth and keep seeking [where] to go, in order to walk about in the earth."[p] Then he said: "Go, walk about in the earth." And they began walking about in the earth.

8 And he proceeded to cry out to me and speak to me, saying: "See, those going forth to the land of the north are the ones that have caused the spirit[a] of Jehovah to rest in the land of the north."[b]

9 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 10 "Let there be a taking of something from the exiled people,[c] [even] from Hel′dai and from To·bi′jah and from Je·da′iah; and you yourself must come in that day, and you must come into the house of Jo·si′ah the son of Zeph·a·ni′ah[d] [with these] who have come from Babylon. 11 And you must take silver and gold and make a grand crown[e] and put [it] upon the head of Joshua[f] the son of Je·hoz′a·dak the high priest. 12 And you must say to him,

"'This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "Here is the man[g] whose name is Sprout.[h] And from his own place he will sprout, and he will certainly build the temple of Jehovah.[i] 13 And he himself will build the temple of Jehovah, and he, for his part, will carry [the] dignity;[j] and he must sit down and rule on his throne, and he must become a priest upon his throne,[k] and the very counsel of peace[l] will prove to be between both of them. 14 And the grand crown itself will come to belong to He′lem and to To·bi′jah and to Je·da′iah[m] and to Hen the son of Zeph·a·ni′ah as a memorial[n] in the temple of Jehovah. 15 And those who are far away will come and actually build in the temple of Jehovah."[o] And YOU people will have to know that Jehovah of armies himself has sent me to YOU.[p] And it must occur—if YOU will without fail listen to the voice of Jehovah YOUR God.'"[q]

ah, on the fourth [day] of the ninth month, [that is,] in Chis′lev.[a] 2 And Beth′el proceeded to send Shar·e′zer and Re′gem-mel′ech and his men to soften[b] the face of Jehovah, 3 saying to the priests[c] who belonged to the house of Jehovah of armies, and to the prophets, even saying: "Shall I weep in the fifth[d] month, practicing an abstinence, the way I have done these O how many years?"[e]

4 And the word of Jehovah of armies continued to occur to me, saying: 5 "Say to all the people of the land and to the priests, 'When YOU fasted[f] and there was a wailing in the fifth [month] and in the seventh[g] [month], and this for seventy years,[h] did YOU really fast to me, even me?[i] 6 And when YOU would eat and when YOU would drink, were not YOU the ones doing the eating, and were not YOU the ones doing the drinking? 7 [Should YOU] not [obey] the words[j] that Jehovah called out by means of the former prophets,[k] while Jerusalem happened to be inhabited, and at ease, with her cities all around her, and [while] the Neg′eb[l] and the She·phe′lah[m] were inhabited?'"

8 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to Zech·a·ri′ah, saying: 9 "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'With true justice do YOUR judging;[n] and carry on with one another loving-kindness[o] and mercies;[p] 10 and defraud no widow[q] or fatherless boy,[r] no alien resident[s] or afflicted one,[t] and scheme out nothing bad against one another in YOUR hearts.'[u] 11 But they kept refusing to pay attention,[v] and they kept giving a stubborn shoulder,[w] and their ears they made too unresponsive to hear.[x] 12 And their heart[y] they set as an emery stone to keep from obeying the law[z] and the words that Jehovah of armies sent by his spirit,[a] by means of the former prophets;[b] so that there occurred great indignation on the part of Jehovah of armies."[c]

13 "'And so it occurred that, just as he called and they did not listen,[d] so they would call and I would not listen,'[e] Jehovah of armies has said. 14 'And I proceeded tempestuously to hurl them throughout all the nations[f] that they had not known;[g] and the land itself has been left desolate behind them, with no one passing through and with no one returning;[h] and they proceeded to make the desirable land[i] an object of astonishment.'"

8 And the word of Jehovah of armies continued to occur, saying: 2 "This is what Jehovah of armies[j] has said, 'I will be jealous for Zion with great jealousy,[k] and with great rage[l] I will be jealous for her.'"

3 "This is what Jehovah has said, 'I will return to Zion[m] and reside in the midst of Jerusalem;[n] and Jerusalem will certainly be called the city of trueness,[o] and the mountain of Jehovah[p] of armies, the holy mountain.'"[q]

4 "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'There will yet sit old men and old women in the public squares of Jerusalem,[r] each one also with his staff[s] in his hand because of the abundance of [his] days. 5 And the public squares of the city themselves will be filled with boys and girls playing in her public squares.'"[t] in my eyes?'[a] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies."

7 "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'Here I am saving my people from the land of the sunrise and from the land of the setting of the sun.[b] 8 And I shall certainly bring them in, and they must reside in the midst of Jerusalem;[c] and they must become my people,[d] and I myself shall become their God in trueness and in righteousness.'"[e]

9 "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'Let the hands of YOU people be strong,[f] YOU who are hearing in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets,[g] on the day on which the foundation of the house of Jehovah of armies was laid, for the temple to be built.[h] 10 For before those days there were no wages for mankind made to exist;[i] and as for the wages of domestic animals, there was no such thing; and to the one going out and to the one coming in there was no peace because of the adversary,[j] as I kept thrusting all mankind against one another.'[k]

11 "'And now I shall not be as in the former days to the remaining ones of this people,'[l] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies. 12 'For there will be the seed of peace;[m] the vine itself will give its fruitage,[n] and the earth itself will give its yield,[o] and the heavens themselves will give their dew;[p] and I shall certainly cause the remaining ones[q] of this people to inherit all these [things].[r] 13 And it must occur that just as YOU became a malediction among the nations,[s] O house of Judah and house of Israel,[t] so I shall save YOU, and YOU must become a blessing.[u] Do not be afraid.[v] May YOUR hands be strong.'[w]

14 "For this is what Jehovah of armies has said, '"Just as I had in mind to do what was calamitous to YOU people because of YOUR forefathers' making me indignant,"[a] Jehovah of armies has said, "and I felt no regret,[b] 15 so I will again have in mind in these days to deal well with Jerusalem and with the house of Judah.[c] Do not be afraid."'[d]

16 "'These are the things that YOU people should do:[e] Speak truthfully with one another.[f] With truth and the judgment of peace do YOUR judging in YOUR gates.[g] 17 And calamity to one another do not YOU scheme up in YOUR hearts,[h] and do not love any false oath;[i] for these are all things that I have hated,'[j] is the utterance of Jehovah."

18 And the word of Jehovah of armies continued to occur to me, saying: 19 "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'The fast of the fourth[k] [month], and the fast of the fifth[l] [month], and the fast of the seventh[m] [month], and the fast of the tenth[n] [month] will become for the house of Judah an exultation and a rejoicing and good festal seasons.[o] So love truth and peace.'[p]

20 "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'It will yet be that peoples and the inhabitants of many cities will come;[q] 21 and the inhabitants of one [city] will certainly go to [those of] another, saying: "Let us earnestly go[r] to soften the face[s] of Jehovah and to seek Jehovah of armies. I myself will go also."[t] 22 And many peoples and mighty nations will actually come to seek Jehovah of armies in Jerusalem[u] and to soften the face of Jehovah.'

23 "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'It will be in those days that ten men out of all the languages of the nations[v] will take hold,[w] yes, they will actually take hold of the skirt of a man who is a Jew,[a] saying: “We will go with YOU people,[b] for we have heard [that] God is with YOU people.”’”[c]

9 A pronouncement:[d] “The word of Jehovah is against the land of Ha'drach, and Damascus[e] is where it rests; for Jehovah has an eye on earthling man[f] and on all the tribes of Israel. 2 And Ha'math[g] itself will also border upon her; Tyre[h] and Si'don,[i] for she is very wise.[j] 3 And Tyre proceeded to build a rampart for herself, and to pile up silver like dust and gold like the mire of [the] streets.[k] 4 Look! Jehovah himself will dispossess her, and into the sea he will certainly strike down her military force;[l] and in the fire she herself will be devoured.[m] 5 Ash'ke·lon will see and get afraid; and as for Ga'za, she will also feel very severe pains; Ek'ron[n] also, because her looked-for hope[o] will have to experience shame. And a king will certainly perish from Ga'za, and Ash'ke·lon herself will not be inhabited.[p] 6 And an illegitimate[q] son will actually seat himself in Ash'dod,[r] and I shall certainly cut off the pride of the Phi·lis'tine.[s] 7 And I will remove his bloodstained things from his mouth and his disgusting things from between his teeth,[t] and he himself also will certainly be left remaining for our God; and he must become like a sheik[u] in Judah,[v] and Ek'ron like the Jeb'u·site.[w] 8 And I will encamp as an outpost for my house,[x] so that there will be no one passing through and no one returning; and there will no more pass through them a taskmaster,[y] for now I have seen [it] with my eyes.[z]

9 “Be very joyful, O daughter of Zion.[a] Shout in triumph,[b] O daughter of Jerusalem. Look! Your king[c] himself comes to you.[d] He is righteous, yes, saved;[a] humble,[b] and riding upon an ass, even upon a full-grown animal the son of a she-ass.[c] 10 And I shall certainly cut off [the] war chariot from E'phra·im and [the] horse from Jerusalem.[d] And the battle bow[e] must be cut off. And he will actually speak peace to the nations;[f] and his rulership will be from sea to sea and from the River to the ends of [the] earth.[g]

11 “Also, you, [O woman,] by the blood of your covenant[h] I will send your prisoners[i] out of the pit in which there is no water.

12 “Return to the stronghold,[j] YOU prisoners of the hope.[k]

“Also, today [I am] telling [you], ‘I shall repay to you, [O woman,] a double portion.[l] 13 For I will tread as my [bow] Judah. The bow I will fill with E'phra·im, and I will awaken your sons,[m] O Zion, against your sons, O Greece,[n] and I will make you as the sword of a mighty man.’[o] 14 And over them Jehovah himself will be seen,[p] and his arrow will certainly go forth just like lightning.[q] And on the horn the Sovereign Lord Jehovah himself will blow,[r] and he will certainly go with the windstorms of the south.[s] 15 Jehovah of armies himself will defend them, and they will actually devour[t] and subdue the slingstones. And they will certainly drink[u]—be boisterous—as if there were wine; and they will actually become filled like the bowl, like the corners of [the] altar.[v]

16 “And Jehovah their God will certainly save them[w] in that day like the flock of his people;[x] for they will be as the stones of a diadem glittering over his soil.[a] 17 For O how [great] his goodness is,[b] and how [great] his handsomeness is![c] Grain is what will make the young men thrive, and new wine the virgins.”[d]

10 “Make YOUR requests of Jehovah for rain[e] in the time of the spring rain,[f] even of Jehovah who is making the storm clouds,[g] and [who] gives a downpour of rain to them,[h] to each one vegetation in the field.[i] 2 For the teraphim[j] themselves have spoken what is uncanny; and the practicers of divination, for their part, have visioned falsehood,[k] and valueless dreams are what they keep speaking, and in vain they try to comfort.[l] That is why they will certainly depart like a flock;[m] they will become afflicted, because there is no shepherd.[n]

3 “Against the shepherds my anger has grown hot,[o] and against the goatlike leaders[p] I shall hold an accounting;[q] for Jehovah of armies has turned his attention to his drove,[r] the house of Judah, and has made them like his horse[s] of dignity in the battle. 4 Out of him is the keyman,[t] out of him is the supporting ruler,[u] out of him is the battle bow;[v] out of him goes forth every taskmaster,[w] all together. 5 And they must become like mighty men[x] stamping down in the mire of [the] streets in the battle.[y] And they must get engaged in battle, for Jehovah is with them;[z] and the riders of horses will have to experience shame.[a] 6 And I will make the house of Judah superior, and the house of Joseph I shall save.[b] And I will give them a dwelling, for I will show them mercy;[c] and they must become like those whom I had not cast off;[d] for I am Jehovah their God, and I shall answer them.[e] 7 And those of E'phra·im must become just like a mighty man,[f] and their heart must rejoice as though from wine.[a] And their own sons will see and certainly rejoice;[b] their heart will be joyful in Jehovah.[c]

8 “‘I will whistle[d] for them and collect them together; for I shall certainly redeem[e] them, and they must become many, just like those who have become many.[f] 9 And I shall scatter them like seed among the peoples,[g] and in the distant places they will remember me;[h] and they must revive with their sons and return.[i] 10 And I must bring them back from the land of Egypt;[j] and from As·syr'i·a I shall collect them together;[k] and to the land of Gil'e·ad[l] and Leb'a·non I shall bring them, and no [room] will be found for them.[m] 11 And he must pass through the sea [with] distress;[n] and in the sea he must strike down [the] waves,[o] and all the depths of the Nile must dry up.[p] And the pride of As·syr'i·a must be brought down,[q] and the very scepter[r] of Egypt will depart.[s] 12 And I will make them superior in Jehovah,[t] and in his name they will walk about,’[u] is the utterance of Jehovah.”

11 “Open up your doors, O Leb'a·non,[v] that a fire may devour among your cedars.[w] 2 Howl, O juniper tree, for the cedar has fallen; because the majestic ones themselves have been despoiled![x] Howl, YOU massive trees of Ba'shan, for the impenetrable forest has come down![y] 3 Listen! The howling of shepherds,[z] for their majesty has been despoiled.[a] Listen! The roaring of maned young lions, for the proud [thickets] along the Jordan have been despoiled.[b] to kill[a] [them] although they are not held guilty.[b] And those who are selling[c] them say: "May Jehovah be blessed, while I shall gain riches."[d] And their own shepherds do not show any compassion upon them.'[e]

6 "'For I shall show compassion no more upon the inhabitants of the land,'[f] is the utterance of Jehovah. 'So here I am causing mankind to find themselves, each one in the hand of his companion[g] and in the hand of his king;[h] and they will certainly crush to pieces the land, and I shall do no delivering out of their hand.'"[i]

7 And I proceeded to shepherd the flock[j] [meant] for the killing,[k] in YOUR behalf, O afflicted ones of the flock.[l] So I took for myself two staffs.[m] The one I called Pleasantness,[n] and the other I called Union,[o] and I went shepherding the flock. 8 And I finally effaced three shepherds in one lunar month,[p] as my soul gradually became impatient with them,[q] and also their own soul felt a loathing toward me. 9 At length I said: "I shall not keep shepherding YOU.[r] The one that is dying, let her die. And the one that is being effaced, let her be effaced.[s] And as for the ones left remaining, let them devour, each one the flesh of her companion."[t] 10 So I took my staff Pleasantness[u] and cut it to pieces,[v] in order to break my covenant that I had concluded with all the peoples.[w] 11 And it came to be broken in that day, and the afflicted ones of the flock[x] who were watching[y] me got to know in this way that it was the word of Jehovah.

12 Then I said to them: "If it is good in YOUR eyes,[z] give [me] my wages; but if not, refrain." And they proceeded to pay my wages, thirty pieces of silver.[a]

13 At that, Jehovah said to me: "Throw it to the treasury[b]—the majestic value with which I have been valued from their standpoint."[a] Accordingly I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw it into the treasury at the house of Jehovah.[b]

14 Then I cut in pieces my second staff, the Union,[c] in order to break the brotherhood[d] between Judah and Israel.[e]

15 And Jehovah went on to say to me: "Take yet for yourself the implements of a useless shepherd.[f] 16 For here I am letting a shepherd rise up in the land.[g] To the [sheep] being effaced he will give no attention.[h] The young one he will not seek, and the broken [sheep] he will not heal.[i] The one stationing herself he will not supply [with food], and the flesh of the fat one he will eat,[j] and the hoofs of the [sheep] he will tear off.[k] 17 Woe to my valueless shepherd,[l] who is leaving the flock![m] A sword will be upon his arm and upon his right eye. His own arm will without fail dry up,[n] and his own right eye will without fail grow dim."

12 A pronouncement:

"The word of Jehovah concerning Israel," is the utterance of Jehovah, the One who is stretching out [the] heavens[o] and laying the foundation of [the] earth[p] and forming the spirit[q] of man inside him. 2 "Here I am making Jerusalem[r] a bowl [causing] reeling to all the peoples round about;[s] and also against Judah he will come to be in the siege, [even] against Jerusalem.[t] 3 And it must occur in that day[u] [that] I shall make Jerusalem a burdensome stone[v] to all the peoples. All those lifting it will without fail get severe scratches for themselves; and against her all the nations of the earth will certainly be gathered.[w] 4 In that day,"[a] is the utterance of Jehovah, "I shall strike every horse[b] with bewilderment and its rider with madness;[c] and upon the house of Judah I shall open my eyes,[d] and every horse of the peoples I shall strike with loss of sight. 5 And the sheiks[e] of Judah will have to say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are a strength to me by Jehovah of armies their God.'[f] 6 In that day I shall make the sheiks of Judah like a firepot among trees[g] and like a fiery torch in a row of newly cut grain,[h] and they must devour on the right [hand] and on the left all the peoples round about;[i] and Jerusalem must yet be inhabited in her [own] place, in Jerusalem.[j]

7 "And Jehovah will certainly save the tents of Judah first, to the end that the beauty of the house of David and the beauty of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not become too great over Judah. 8 In that day Jehovah will be a defense around the inhabitants of Jerusalem;[k] and the one that is stumbling among them must become in that day like David,[l] and the house of David like God,[m] like Jehovah's angel before them.[n] 9 And it must occur in that day [that] I shall seek to annihilate all the nations that are coming against Jerusalem.[o]

10 "And I will pour out upon the house of David and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem the spirit of favor[p] and entreaties,[q] and they will certainly look to the One whom they pierced[r] through, and they will certainly wail over Him as in the wailing over an only [son]; and there will be a bitter lamentation over him as when there is bitter lamentation over the firstborn [son].[s] 11 In that day the wailing in Jerusalem will be great, like the wailing of Ha·dad·rim'mon in the valley plain of Me·gid'do.[a] 12 And the land will certainly wail,[b] each family by itself; the family of the house of David by itself, and their women by themselves;[c] the family of the house of Nathan[d] by itself, and their women by themselves; 13 the family of the house of Le'vi[e] by itself, and their women by themselves; the family of the Shim'e·ites[f] by itself, and their women by themselves; 14 all the families that are left remaining, each family by itself, and their women by themselves.[g]

13 "In that day[h] there will come to be a well[i] opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin[j] and for an abhorrent thing.[k]

2 "And it must occur in that day," is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, "[that] I shall cut off the names of the idols out of the land,[l] and they will no more be remembered; and also the prophets[m] and the spirit of uncleanness I shall cause to pass out of the land.[n] 3 And it must occur [that] in case a man should prophesy anymore, his father and his mother, the ones who caused his birth, must also say to him, 'You will not live, because falsehood is what you have spoken in the name of Jehovah.' And his father and his mother, the ones who caused his birth, must pierce him through because of his prophesying.[o]

4 "And it must occur in that day [that] the prophets will become ashamed,[p] each one of his vision when he prophesies; and they will not wear an official garment of hair[q] for the purpose of deceiving. 5 And he will certainly say, 'I am no prophet. I am a man cultivating [the] soil, because an earthling man himself acquired me from my youth on.' 6 And one must say to him, 'What are these wounds [on your person] between your hands?' And he will have to say, 'Those with which I was struck in the house of my intense lovers.'"

7 "O sword, awake against my shepherd,[a] even against the able-bodied man who is my associate,"[b] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies. "Strike the shepherd,[c] and let those of the flock be scattered;[d] and I shall certainly turn my hand back upon those who are insignificant."[e]

8 "And it must occur in all the land," is the utterance of Jehovah, "[that] two parts in it are what will be cut off [and] expire;[f] and as for the third [part], it will be left remaining in it.[g] 9 And I shall certainly bring the third [part] through the fire;[h] and I shall actually refine them as in the refining of silver,[i] and examine them as in the examining of gold.[j] It, for its part, will call upon my name, and I, for my part, will answer it.[k] I will say, 'It is my people,'[l] and it, in its turn, will say, 'Jehovah is my God.'"[m]

14 "Look! There is a day coming, belonging to Jehovah,[n] and the spoil of you will certainly be apportioned out in the midst of you. 2 And I shall certainly gather all the nations against Jerusalem for the war;[o] and the city will actually be captured[p] and the houses be pillaged, and the women themselves will be raped.[q] And half of the city must go forth into the exile;[r] but as for the remaining ones of the people,[s] they will not be cut off from the city.[t]

3 "And Jehovah will certainly go forth and war against those nations[u] as in the day of his warring, in the day of fight.[v] 4 And his feet will actually stand in that day upon the mountain of the olive trees, which is in front of Jerusalem, on the east;[a] and the mountain of the olive trees[b] must be split at its middle,[c] from the sunrising and to the west. There will be a very great valley; and half of the mountain will actually be moved to the north, and half of it to the south. 5 And YOU people will certainly flee to the valley of my mountains;[d] because the valley of [the] mountains will reach all the way to A'zel. And YOU will have to flee, just as YOU fled because of the [earth]quake in the days of Uz·zi'ah the king of Judah.[e] And Jehovah my God will certainly come,[f] all the holy ones being with him.[g]

6 "And it must occur in that day [that] there will prove to be no precious light[h]—things will be congealed.[i] 7 And it must become one day that is known as belonging to Jehovah.[j] It will not be day, neither will it be night;[k] and it must occur [that] at evening time it will become light.[l] 8 And it must occur in that day [that] living waters[m] will go forth from Jerusalem,[n] half of them to the eastern sea[o] and half of them to the western sea.[p] In summer and in winter it will occur.[q] 9 And Jehovah must become king over all the earth.[r] In that day Jehovah will prove to be one,[s] and his name one.[t]

10 "The whole land will be changed like the Ar'a·bah,[u] from Ge'ba[v] to Rim'mon[w] to the south of Jerusalem; and she must rise and become inhabited in her place,[x] from the Gate of Benjamin[y] all the way to the place of the First Gate, all the way to the Corner Gate, and [from] the Tower of Ha·nan'el[z] all the way to the press vats of the king. 11 And people will certainly inhabit her; and there will occur no more any banning [to destruction],[a] and Jerusalem must be inhabited in security.[b]

12 "And this is what will prove to be the scourge with which Jehovah will scourge all the peoples that will actually do military service against Jerusalem:[c] There will be a rotting away of one's flesh, while one is standing upon one's feet;[d] and one's very eyes will rot away in their sockets, and one's very tongue will rot away in one's mouth.

13 "And it must occur in that day [that] confusion from Jehovah will become widespread among them;[e] and they will actually grab hold, each one of the hand of his companion, and his hand will actually come up against the hand of his companion. 14 And Judah itself also will be warring at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the nations round about will certainly be gathered, gold and silver and garments in excessive abundance.[f]

15 "And this is how the scourge of the horse, the mule, the camel, and the male ass, and every sort of domestic animal that happens to be in those camps, will prove to be, like this scourge.

16 "And it must occur [that], as regards everyone who is left remaining out of all the nations that are coming against Jerusalem,[g] they must also go up from year to year[a] to bow down to the King,[b] Jehovah of armies,[c] and to celebrate the festival of the booths.[d] 17 And it must occur that, as regards anyone that does not come up[e] out of the families[f] of the earth to Jerusalem to bow down to the King, Jehovah of armies, even upon them no pouring rain will occur.[g] 18 And if the family of Egypt itself does not come up and does not actually enter, upon them also there shall be none. The scourge will occur with which Jehovah scourges the nations that do not come up to celebrate the festival of the booths. 19 This itself will prove to be the [punishment for the] sin of Egypt and the sin of all the nations that do not come up to celebrate the festival of the booths.[h]

20 "In that day there will prove to be[i] upon the bells of the horse 'Holiness belongs to Jehovah!'[j] And the widemouthed cooking pots[k] in the house of Jehovah must become like the bowls[l] before the altar.[m] 21 And every widemouthed cooking pot in Jerusalem and in Judah must become something holy belonging to Jehovah of armies, and all those who are sacrificing must come in and take from them and must do boiling in them.[n] And there will no more prove to be a Ca'naan·ite[o] in the house of Jehovah of armies in that day."[p]

MALACHI

1 A pronouncement:
The word of Jehovah[a] concerning Israel by means of Mal'a·chi:

2 "I have loved YOU people,"[b] Jehovah has said.

And YOU have said: "In what way have you loved us?"[a]

"Was not E'sau the brother of Jacob?"[b] is the utterance of Jehovah. "But I loved Jacob,[c]

I finally made his mountains a desolated waste[b] and his inheritance for the jackals of [the] wilderness."[c]

4 "Because E'dom keeps saying,
'We have been shattered,
but we shall return and build [the] devastated places,' this is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'They, for their part, will build; but I, for my part, shall tear down.[d] And people will certainly call them "the territory of wickedness" and "the people whom Jehovah has denounced[e] to time indefinite."
5 And YOUR own eyes will see [it], and YOU yourselves will say: "May Jehovah be magnified over the territory of Israel."'"[f]

6 "'A son, for his part, honors
a father;[g] and a servant,
his grand master.[h] So if I am a father,[i] where is the honor to me?[j] And if I am a grand master,
where is the fear[k] of me?'
Jehovah of armies has said to YOU, O priests who are despising
my name.[l]

"'And YOU have said: "In what way have we despised your name?"'

7 "'[By] presenting upon my

"Bring it near, please, to your governor. Will he find pleasure in you, or will he receive you kindly?" Jehovah of armies has said.

9 "And now, please, soften the face[q] of God, that he may show us favor.[r] From YOUR hand this has occurred. Will he receive any of YOU men kindly?"
Jehovah of armies has said.

And YOU men will not light my altar—for nothing.[b] No delight do I have in YOU," Jehovah of armies has said, "and in the gift offering from YOUR hand I take no pleasure."[c]

11 "For from the sun's rising of armies has said.

something to be despised, its food.'[i] 13 And YOU have said,

"And YOU have brought something have brought [it] as a gift. Can I take pleasure in it at YOUR hand?"[l] Jehovah has said.

exists in his drove a male animal,
and he is making a vow

among the nations."[o]

is to YOU, O priests.[p]

YOU will not lay [it] to heart[r]

of armies has said, "I and I will scatter dung upon festivals; and someone will actually carry YOU away to it.

4 And YOU will have to know that I have sent to YOU this commandment,[b] in order that my covenant[c] with Le'vi may continue,"[d] Jehovah of armies has said.

5 "As for my covenant, it proved to be with him, [one] of life and of peace,[e] and I kept giving them to him, with fear.
And he continued fearing me;[f]
yes, because of my name he himself was struck with terror.[g] 6 The very law of truth proved to be in his mouth,[h] and there was no unrighteousness to be found on his lips. In peace and in uprightness he walked with me,[i] and many were those whom he turned back from error.[j] 7 For the lips of a priest are the ones that should keep knowledge, and [the] law is what people should seek from his mouth;[k] for he is the messenger of Jehovah of armies.[l]

8 "But YOU men—YOU have turned aside from the way.[m]
YOU have caused many to stumble in the law.[n] YOU have ruined the covenant of Le'vi,"[o] Jehovah of armies has said. 9 "And I also, for my part, shall certainly make YOU to be despised and low to all the people,[p] according as YOU were not keeping my ways, but were showing partiality
in the law."[q]

10 "Is it not one father that all of us have?[r] Is it not one God that has created us?[s] Why is it that we deal treacherously with one another,[t] in profaning the covenant of our forefathers?[u] 11 Judah has dealt treacherously, resulting in] covering with tears

the altar of Jehovah, with weeping and sighing, so that there is no more a turning toward the gift offering or a taking of pleasure [in anything]

have said, 'On what account?'[e]
On this account, that Jehovah himself has borne witness between you and the wife of your youth,[f] with whom you yourself
have dealt treacherously,
although she is your partner and the wife of your covenant.[g] 15 And there was one who did has covered over his garment,"[l] Jehovah of armies has said.

respecting YOUR spirit,
and YOU must not deal treacherously.[m]

He will certainly come," Jehovah of armies has said.[h]

2 "But who will be putting up with the day of his coming,[i] and who will be the one standing when he appears?[j] For he will be like the fire of a refiner[k] and like the lye[l] of laundrymen.[m] 3 And he must sit as a refiner and cleanser of silver[n] and must cleanse the sons of Le'vi;[o] and he must clarify them like gold[p] and like silver, and they will certainly become to Jehovah people presenting a gift offering[q] in righteousness. 4 And the gift offering of Judah and of Jerusalem will actually be gratifying to Jehovah,[r] as in the days of long ago and as in the years of antiquity.[s]

5 "And I will come near to YOU people for the judgment,[t] and I will become a speedy witness[u] against the sorcerers,[v] and against the adulterers,[w] and against those swearing falsely,[x] and against those acting fraudulently with the wages of a wage worker,[y] with [the] widow[z] and with [the] fatherless boy,[a] and those turning away the alien resident,[b] while they have not feared me,"[c] Jehovah of armies has said.

6 "For I am Jehovah; I have not changed.[d] And YOU are sons of Jacob; YOU have not come to YOUR finish.[e] 7 From the days of YOUR forefathers YOU have turned aside from my regulations and have not kept [them].[f] Return to me, and I will return to YOU,"[g] Jehovah of armies has said.

And YOU have said: "In what way shall we return?"

8 "Will earthling man rob God? But YOU are robbing me."

And YOU have said: "In what way have we robbed you?"

"In the tenth parts and in the contributions. 9 With the curse YOU are cursing[a] [me], and me YOU are robbing—the nation in its entirety. 10 Bring all the tenth parts[b] into the storehouse, that there may come to be food in my house;[c] and test me out, please, in this respect,"[d] Jehovah of armies has said, "whether I shall not open to YOU people the floodgates of the heavens[e] and actually empty out upon YOU a blessing until there is no more want."[f]

11 "And I will rebuke for YOU the devouring one,[g] and it will not ruin for YOU the fruit of the ground, nor will the vine in the field prove fruitless for YOU,"[h] Jehovah of armies has said.

12 "And all the nations will have to pronounce YOU happy,[i] for YOU yourselves will become a land of delight,"[j] Jehovah of armies has said.

13 "Strong have been YOUR words against me,"[k] Jehovah has said.

And YOU have said: "What have we spoken with one another against you?"[l]

14 "YOU have said, 'It is of no value to serve God.[m] And what profit is there in that we have kept the obligation to him, and that we have walked dejectedly on account of Jehovah of armies?[n] 15 And at present we are pronouncing presumptuous people happy.[o] Also, the doers of wickedness have been built up.[p] Also, they have tested God out and keep getting away.'"[q]

16 At that time those in fear of Jehovah[r] spoke with one another, each one with his companion, and Jehovah kept paying attention and listening.[s]

O′bed became father to Jes′se;[n]
6 Jes′se became father to David[o] the king.[p]
David became father to Sol′o·mon[q] by the wife of U·ri′ah;
7 Sol′o·mon became father to Re·ho·bo′am;[r]
Re·ho·bo′am became father to A·bi′jah;
A·bi′jah[s] became father to A′sa;[t]
8 A′sa became father to Je·hosh′a·phat;[u]

Je·ho′ram became father to Uz·zi′ah;
9 Uz·zi′ah became father to Jo′tham;

A′haz became father to Hez·e·ki′ah;[y]
10 Hez·e·ki′ah became father to Ma·nas′seh;[a] Ma·nas′seh[b] became father to A′mon;[c]
A′mon[d] became father to Jo·si′ah;
11 Jo·si′ah[e] became father to Jec·o·ni′ah[f] and to his brothers at the time of the deportation to Babylon.[g]
12 After the deportation to Babylon Jec·o·ni′ah became father to She·al′ti·el;[h]
She·al′ti·el became father to Ze·rub′ba·bel;[i] 13 Ze·rub′ba·bel became father to A·bi′ud;
A·bi′ud became father to E·li′a·kim;
E·li′a·kim became father to A′zor;
14 A′zor became father to Za′dok;
Za′dok became father to A′chim;
A′chim became father to E·li′ud;
15 E·li′ud became father to El·e·a′zar;
El·e·a′zar became father to Mat′than;
Mat′than became father to Jacob;
16 Jacob became father to Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom Jesus was born,[j] who is called Christ.[k]

17 All the generations, then, from Abraham until David were fourteen generations, and from David until the deportation to Babylon fourteen generations, and from the deportation to Babylon until the Christ fourteen generations.

18 But the birth of Jesus Christ was in this way. During the time his mother Mary was promised[a] in marriage to Joseph, she was found to be pregnant by holy spirit[b] before they were united. 19 However, Joseph her husband, because he was righteous and did not want to make her a public spectacle,[c] intended to divorce[d] her secretly. 20 But after he had thought these things over, look! Jehovah's angel appeared to him in a dream, saying: "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife home, for that which has been begotten in her is by holy spirit.[e] 21 She will give birth to a son, and you must call his name Jesus,[f] for he will save[g] his people[h] from their sins."[i] 22 All this actually came about for that to be fulfilled which was spoken by Jehovah[j] through his prophet,[k] saying: 23 "Look! The virgin[l] will become pregnant and will give birth to a son, and they will call his name Im·man′u·el,"[m] which means, when translated, "With Us Is God."[n]

2 After Jesus had been born in Beth′le·hem[r] of Ju·de′a in the days of Herod[s] the king, look! astrologers[t] from eastern parts came to Jerusalem, 2 saying: "Where is the one born king[u] of the Jews? For we saw his star[v] [when we were] in the east, and we have come to do him obeisance." 3 At hearing this King Herod was agitated, and all Jerusalem along with him; 4 and on gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people he began to inquire of them where the Christ was to be born. 5 They said to him: "In Beth′le·hem[w] of Ju·de′a; for this is how it has been written through the prophet, 6 'And you, O Beth′le·hem[a] of the land of Judah, are by no means the most insignificant [city] among the governors of Judah; for out of you will come forth a governing one,[b] who will shepherd[c] my people, Israel.'"

7 Then Herod secretly summoned the astrologers and carefully ascertained from them the time of the star's appearing; 8 and, when sending them to Beth′le·hem, he said: "Go make a careful search for the young child, and when you have found it report back to me, that I too may go and do it obeisance."[d] 9 When they had heard the king, they went their way; and, look! the star they had seen [when they were] in the east[e] went ahead of them, until it came to a stop above where the young child was. 10 On seeing the star they rejoiced very much indeed. 11 And when they went into the house they saw the young child with Mary its mother, and, falling down, they did obeisance to it. They also opened their treasures and presented it with gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh. 12 However, because they were given divine warning[f] in a dream not to return to Herod, they withdrew to their country by another way.

13 After they had withdrawn, look! Jehovah's angel[g] appeared in a dream to Joseph, saying: "Get up, take the young child and its mother and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I give you word; for Herod is about to search for the young child to destroy it." 14 So he got up and took along the young child and its mother by night and withdrew into Egypt, 15 and he stayed there until the decease of Herod, for that to be fulfilled[h] which was spoken by Jehovah through his prophet, saying: “Out of Egypt[a] I called my son.”

16 Then Herod, seeing he had been outwitted by the astrologers, fell into a great rage, and he sent out and had all the boys in Beth′le·hem and in all its districts done away with, from two years of age and under, according to the time that he had carefully ascertained from the astrologers.[b] 17 Then that was fulfilled which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying: 18 “A voice was heard in Ra′mah,[c] weeping and much wailing; it was Rachel[d] weeping for her children, and she was unwilling to take comfort, because they are no more.”

19 When Herod had deceased, look! Jehovah’s angel appeared in a dream[e] to Joseph in Egypt 20 and said: “Get up, take the young child and its mother and be on your way into the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the soul of the young child are dead.” 21 So he got up and took the young child and its mother and entered into the land of Israel. 22 But hearing that Ar·che·la′us ruled as king of Ju·de′a instead of his father Herod, he became afraid to depart for there. Moreover, being given divine warning in a dream,[f] he withdrew into the territory of Gal′i·lee,[g] 23 and came and dwelt in a city named Naz′a·reth,[h] that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through the prophets: “He will be called a Naz·a·rene′.”[i]

3 In those days John the Baptist[j] came preaching in the wilderness[k] of Ju·de′a, 2 saying: “REPENT,[l] for the kingdom of the heavens has drawn near.”[m] 3 This, in fact, is the one spoken of through Isaiah the prophet[n] in these words: “Listen! Someone is crying out in the wilderness, ‘Prepare[o] the way of Jehovah, YOU people! Make his roads straight.’” 4 But this very John had his clothing of camel’s hair[a] and a leather girdle[b] around his loins; his food too was insect locusts[c] and wild honey.[d] 5 Then Jerusalem and all Ju·de′a and all the country around the Jordan made their way out to him, 6 and people were baptized by him in the Jordan River,[e] openly confessing their sins.

7 When he caught sight of many of the Pharisees and Sadducees[f] coming to the baptism, he said to them: “YOU offspring of vipers,[g] who has intimated to YOU to flee from the coming wrath?[h] 8 So then produce fruit that befits repentance;[i] 9 and do not presume to say to yourselves, ‘As a father we have Abraham.’[j] For I say to YOU that God is able to raise up children to Abraham[k] from these stones. 10 Already the ax[l] is lying at the root of the trees; every tree, then, that does not produce fine fruit is to be cut down[m] and thrown into the fire.[n] 11 I, for my part, baptize YOU with water[o] because of YOUR repentance;[p] but the one coming[q] after me is stronger than I am, whose sandals I am not fit to take off.[r] That one will baptize YOU people with holy spirit[s] and with fire.[t] 12 His winnowing shovel is in his hand, and he will completely clean up his threshing floor, and will gather his wheat into the storehouse,[u] but the chaff he will burn[v] up with fire that cannot be put out.”

13 Then Jesus came from Gal′i·lee[w] to the Jordan to John, in order to be baptized[x] by him. 14 But the latter tried to prevent him, saying: “I am the one needing to be baptized by you, and are you coming to me?” 15 In reply Jesus said to him: “Let it be, this time, for in that way it is suitable for us to carry out all that is righteous.”[y] Then he quit preventing him.

16 After being baptized Jesus immediately came up from the water; and, look! the heavens were opened up,[a] and he saw descending like a dove[b] God’s spirit coming upon him.[c] 17 Look! Also, there was a voice[d] from the heavens that said: “This is my Son,[e] the beloved,[f] whom I have approved.”[g]

4 Then Jesus was led by the spirit up into the wilderness[h] to be tempted[i] by the Devil. 2 After he had fasted forty days and forty nights,[j] then he felt hungry. 3 Also, the Tempter[k] came and said to him: “If you are a son of God,[l] tell these stones to become loaves of bread.” 4 But in reply he said: “It is written, ‘Man must live, not on bread alone, but on every utterance coming forth through Jehovah’s mouth.’”[m]

5 Then the Devil took him along into the holy city,[n] and he stationed him upon the battlement of the temple 6 and said to him: “If you are a son of God, hurl yourself down;[o] for it is written, ‘He will give his angels a charge concerning you, and they will carry you on their hands, that you may at no time strike your foot against a stone.’”[p] 7 Jesus said to him: “Again it is written, ‘You must not put Jehovah your God to the test.’”[q]

8 Again the Devil took him along to an unusually high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world[r] and their glory, 9 and he said to him: “All these things I will give you[s] if you fall down and do an act of worship to me.”[t] 10 Then Jesus said to him: “Go away, Satan! For it is written, ‘It is Jehovah your God you must worship,[u] and it is to him alone[v] you must render sacred service.’”[w] 11 Then the Devil left him,[x] and, look! angels came and began to minister to him.[y]

12 Now when he heard that John had been arrested,[a] he withdrew into Gal′i·lee.[b] 13 Further, after leaving Naz′a·reth, he came and took up residence in Ca·per′na·um[c] beside the sea in the districts of Zeb′u·lun and Naph′ta·li,[d] 14 that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying: 15 “O land of Zeb′u·lun and land of Naph′ta·li, along the road of the sea, on the other side of the Jordan, Gal′i·lee[e] of the nations! 16 the people sitting in darkness[f] saw a great light,[g] and as for those sitting in a region of deathly shadow, light[h] rose[i] upon them.” 17 From that time on Jesus commenced preaching and saying: “Repent,[j] YOU people, for the kingdom[k] of the heavens has drawn near.”

18 Walking alongside the sea of Gal′i·lee he saw two brothers, Simon[l] who is called Peter[m] and Andrew his brother, letting down a fishing net into the sea, for they were fishers. 19 And he said to them: “Come after me, and I will make YOU fishers of men.”[n] 20 At once abandoning the nets,[o] they followed him. 21 Going on also from there he saw two others[p] [who were] brothers, James [the son] of Zeb′e·dee[q] and John his brother, in the boat with Zeb′e·dee their father, mending their nets, and he called them. 22 At once leaving the boat and their father, they followed him.

23 Then he went around[r] throughout the whole of Gal′i·lee,[s] teaching in their synagogues[t] and preaching the good news of the kingdom and curing every sort of disease[u] and every sort of infirmity among the people. 24 And the report about him went out into all Syria;[v] and they brought him all those faring badly,[a] distressed with various diseases and torments, demon-possessed and epileptic[b] and paralyzed persons, and he cured them. 25 Consequently great crowds followed him from Gal′i·lee[c] and De·cap′o·lis and Jerusalem[d] and Ju·de′a and from the other side of the Jordan.

5 When he saw the crowds he went up into the mountain; and after he sat down his disciples came to him; 2 and he opened his mouth and began teaching them, saying:

3 "Happy are those conscious of their spiritual need,[e] since the kingdom of the heavens belongs to them.[f]

4 "Happy are those who mourn, since they will be comforted.[g]

5 "Happy are the mild-tempered[h] ones, since they will inherit the earth.[i]

6 "Happy are those hungering and thirsting[j] for righteousness, since they will be filled.[k]

7 "Happy are the merciful,[l] since they will be shown mercy.

8 "Happy are the pure in heart,[m] since they will see God.[n]

9 "Happy are the peaceable,[o] since they will be called 'sons[p] of God.'

10 "Happy are those who have been persecuted[q] for righteousness' sake, since the kingdom of the heavens belongs to them.

11 "Happy are YOU when people reproach[r] YOU and persecute[s] YOU and lyingly say every sort of wicked thing against YOU for my sake. 12 Rejoice and leap for joy,[t] since YOUR reward[u] is great in the heavens; for in that way they persecuted the prophets[v] prior to YOU.

13 "YOU are the salt[w] of the earth; but if the salt loses its strength, how will its saltness be restored? It is no longer usable for anything but to be thrown outside[x] to be trampled on by men.

14 "YOU are the light of the world.[a] A city cannot be hid when situated upon a mountain. 15 People light a lamp and set it, not under the measuring basket,[b] but upon the lampstand, and it shines upon all those in the house. 16 Likewise let YOUR light[c] shine before men, that they may see YOUR fine works[d] and give glory[e] to YOUR Father who is in the heavens.

17 "Do not think I came to destroy the Law[f] or the Prophets. I came, not to destroy, but to fulfill;[g] 18 for truly I say to YOU that sooner would heaven and earth pass away[h] than for one smallest letter or one particle of a letter to pass away from the Law by any means and not all things take place.[i] 19 Whoever, therefore, breaks[j] one of these least commandments and teaches mankind to that effect, he will be called 'least' in relation to the kingdom of the heavens.[k] As for anyone who does them and teaches[l] them, this one will be called 'great'[m] in relation to the kingdom of the heavens. 20 For I say to YOU that if YOUR righteousness does not abound more than that of the scribes and Pharisees,[n] YOU will by no means enter[o] into the kingdom of the heavens.

21 "YOU heard that it was said to those of ancient times, 'You must not murder;[p] but whoever commits a murder[q] will be accountable to the court of justice.'[r] 22 However, I say to YOU that everyone who continues wrathful[s] with his brother will be accountable[t] to the court of justice; but whoever addresses his brother with an unspeakable word of contempt will be accountable to the Supreme Court; whereas whoever says, 'You despicable fool!' will be liable to the fiery Ge·hen′na.[u]

23 "If, then, you are bringing your gift to the altar[a] and you there remember that your brother has something against you,[b] 24 leave your gift there in front of the altar, and go away; first make your peace with your brother,[c] and then, when you have come back, offer up your gift.[d]

25 "Be about settling matters quickly with the one complaining against you at law, while you are with him on the way there, that somehow the complainant[e] may not turn you over to the judge, and the judge to the court attendant, and you get thrown into prison. 26 I say to you for a fact, You will certainly not come out from there until you have paid over the last coin of very little value.[f]

27 "YOU heard that it was said, 'You must not commit adultery.'[g] 28 But I say to YOU that everyone that keeps on looking at a woman[h] so as to have a passion for her has already committed adultery[i] with her in his heart.[j] 29 If, now, that right eye of yours is making you stumble, tear it out and throw it away from you.[k] For it is more beneficial to you for one of your members to be lost to you than for your whole body to be pitched[l] into Ge·hen′na. 30 Also, if your right hand is making you stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you.[m] For it is more beneficial to you for one of your members to be lost than for your whole body to land in Ge·hen′na.

31 "Moreover it was said, 'Whoever divorces[n] his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.'[o] 32 However, I say to YOU that everyone divorcing his wife, except on account of fornication,[p] makes her a subject for adultery,[q] and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.[r]

33 "Again YOU heard that it was said to those of ancient times, 'You must not swear[a] without performing, but you must pay your vows to Jehovah.'[b] 34 However, I say to YOU: Do not swear[c] at all, neither by heaven, because it is God's throne;[d] 35 nor by earth, because it is the footstool[e] of his feet; nor by Jerusalem, because it is the city[f] of the great King. 36 Nor by your head must you swear, because you cannot turn one hair white or black. 37 Just let YOUR word Yes mean Yes, YOUR No, No;[g] for what is in excess of these is from the wicked one.[h]

38 "YOU heard that it was said, 'Eye for eye and tooth for tooth.'[i] 39 However, I say to YOU: Do not resist him that is wicked; but whoever slaps you on your right cheek,[j] turn the other also to him. 40 And if a person wants to go to court with you and get possession of your inner garment, let your outer garment also go to him;[k] 41 and if someone under authority impresses you into service for a mile, go with him two miles.[l] 42 Give to the one asking you, and do not turn away from one that wants to borrow from you [without interest].[m]

43 "YOU heard that it was said, 'You must love your neighbor[n] and hate your enemy.'[o] 44 However, I say to YOU: Continue to love YOUR enemies[p] and to pray for those persecuting YOU;[q] 45 that YOU may prove yourselves sons of YOUR Father who is in the heavens,[r] since he makes his sun rise upon wicked people and good and makes it rain upon righteous people and unrighteous.[s] 46 For if YOU love those loving YOU, what reward do YOU have?[t] Are not also the tax collectors doing the same thing? 47 And if YOU greet YOUR brothers only, what extraordinary thing are YOU doing? Are not also the people of the nations doing the same thing? 48 You must accordingly be perfect, as YOUR heavenly Father is perfect.[a]

6 "Take good care not to practice YOUR righteousness[b] in front of men in order to be observed by them; otherwise YOU will have no reward with YOUR Father who is in the heavens. 2 Hence when you go making gifts of mercy,[c] do not blow a trumpet[d] ahead of you, just as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may be glorified by men. Truly I say to YOU, They are having their reward in full. 3 But you, when making gifts of mercy, do not let your left hand know what your right is doing, 4 that your gifts of mercy may be in secret; then your Father who is looking on in secret will repay you.[e]

5 "Also, when YOU pray, YOU must not be as the hypocrites; because they like to pray standing[f] in the synagogues and on the corners of the broad ways to be visible to men.[g] Truly I say to YOU, They are having their reward in full. 6 You, however, when you pray, go into your private room[h] and, after shutting your door, pray to your Father who is in secret;[i] then your Father who looks on in secret will repay you. 7 But when praying, do not say the same things over and over again,[j] just as the people of the nations do, for they imagine they will get a hearing for their use of many words. 8 So, do not make yourselves like them, for God YOUR Father knows what things YOU are needing[k] before ever YOU ask him.

9 "YOU must pray, then, this way:[l]

"'Our Father in the heavens, let your name[m] be sanctified.[n] 10 Let your kingdom[o] come. Let your will[p] take place, as in heaven, also upon earth.[q] 11 Give us today our bread for this day;[a] 12 and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.[b] 13 And do not bring us into temptation,[c] but deliver us from the wicked one.'[d]

14 "For if YOU forgive men their trespasses, YOUR heavenly Father will also forgive YOU;[e] 15 whereas if YOU do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will YOUR Father forgive YOUR trespasses.[f]

16 "When YOU are fasting,[g] stop becoming sad-faced like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces that they may appear to men to be fasting.[h] Truly I say to YOU, They are having their reward in full. 17 But you, when fasting, grease your head and wash your face,[i] 18 that you may appear to be fasting, not to men, but to your Father who is in secrecy;[j] then your Father who is looking on in secrecy will repay you.

19 "Stop storing up for yourselves treasures[k] upon the earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves break in and steal. 20 Rather, store up for yourselves treasures in heaven,[l] where neither moth nor rust consumes,[m] and where thieves do not break in and steal. 21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

22 "The lamp of the body is the eye.[n] If, then, your eye is simple, your whole body will be bright; 23 but if your eye is wicked,[o] your whole body will be dark. If in reality the light that is in you is darkness, how great that darkness is![p]

24 "No one can slave for two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other,[q] or he will stick to the one and despise the other. YOU cannot slave for God and for Riches.[r]

25 "On this account I say to

YOU: Stop being anxious[a] about YOUR souls as to what YOU will eat or what YOU will drink, or about YOUR bodies as to what YOU will wear.[b] Does not the soul mean more than food and the body than clothing?[c] 26 Observe intently the birds[d] of heaven, because they do not sow seed or reap or gather into storehouses; still YOUR heavenly Father feeds them. Are YOU not worth more than they are?[e] 27 Who of YOU by being anxious can add one cubit to his life span?[f] 28 Also, on the matter of clothing, why are YOU anxious? Take a lesson from the lilies[g] of the field, how they are growing; they do not toil, nor do they spin; 29 but I say to YOU that not even Sol'o·mon[h] in all his glory was arrayed as one of these. 30 If, now, God thus clothes the vegetation of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much rather clothe YOU, YOU with little faith?[i] 31 So never be anxious[j] and say, 'What are we to eat?' or, 'What are we to drink?' or, 'What are we to put on?' 32 For all these are the things the nations are eagerly pursuing. For YOUR heavenly Father knows YOU need all these things.[k]

33 "Keep on, then, seeking first the kingdom and his righteousness,[l] and all these [other] things will be added to YOU.[m] 34 So, never be anxious about the next day,[n] for the next day will have its own anxieties. Sufficient for each day is its own badness.

7 "Stop judging[o] that YOU may not be judged; 2 for with what judgment YOU are judging, YOU will be judged;[p] and with the measure that YOU are measuring out, they will measure out to YOU.[q] 3 Why, then, do you look at the straw in your brother's eye, but do not consider the rafter in your own eye?[a] 4 Or how can you say to your brother, 'Allow me to extract the straw from your eye'; when, look! a rafter is in your own eye?[b] 5 Hypocrite! First extract the rafter from your own eye, and then you will see clearly how to extract the straw from your brother's eye.

6 "Do not give what is holy to dogs,[c] neither throw YOUR pearls before swine, that they may never trample[d] them under their feet and turn around and rip YOU open.

7 "Keep on asking,[e] and it will be given YOU; keep on seeking, and YOU will find; keep on knocking,[f] and it will be opened to YOU. 8 For everyone asking receives,[g] and everyone seeking finds, and to everyone knocking it will be opened. 9 Indeed, who is the man among YOU whom his son[h] asks for bread—he will not hand him a stone, will he? 10 Or, perhaps, he will ask for a fish—he will not hand him a serpent, will he? 11 Therefore, if YOU, although being wicked,[i] know how to give good gifts to YOUR children, how much more so will YOUR Father who is in the heavens give good things[j] to those asking him?

12 "All things, therefore, that YOU want men to do to YOU,[k] YOU also must likewise do to them; this, in fact, is what the Law and the Prophets mean.[l]

13 "Go in through the narrow gate;[m] because broad and spacious is the road leading off into destruction, and many are the ones going in through it; 14 whereas narrow is the gate and cramped the road leading off into life, and few are the ones finding it.[n]

15 "Be on the watch for the false prophets[o] that come to YOU in sheep's covering,[p] but inside they are ravenous wolves.[q] 16 By their fruits YOU will recognize[a] them. Never do people gather grapes from thorns or figs from thistles, do they?[b] 17 Likewise every good tree produces fine fruit, but every rotten tree produces worthless fruit;[c] 18 a good tree cannot bear worthless fruit, neither can a rotten tree produce fine fruit. 19 Every tree not producing fine fruit gets cut down and thrown into the fire.[d] 20 Really, then, by their fruits YOU will recognize those [men].[e]

21 "Not everyone saying to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter into the kingdom of the heavens, but the one doing[f] the will of my Father who is in the heavens will.[g] 22 Many will say to me in that day, 'Lord, Lord,[h] did we not prophesy in your name, and expel demons in your name, and perform many powerful works in your name?'[i] 23 And yet then I will confess to them: I never knew YOU![j] Get away from me, YOU workers of lawlessness.[k]

24 "Therefore everyone that hears these sayings of mine and does them will be likened to a discreet man, who built his house upon the rock-mass.[l] 25 And the rain poured down and the floods came and the winds blew and lashed against that house, but it did not cave in, for it had been founded upon the rock-mass. 26 Furthermore, everyone hearing these sayings of mine and not doing[m] them will be likened to a foolish man,[n] who built his house upon the sand. 27 And the rain poured down and the floods came and the winds blew and struck against that house[o] and it caved in, and its collapse was great."[p]

28 Now when Jesus finished these sayings, the effect was that the crowds were astounded[q] at his way of teaching; 29 for he was teaching them as a person having authority,[r] and not as their scribes.

8 After he had come down from the mountain great crowds followed him. 2 And, look! a leprous man[a] came up and began doing obeisance to him, saying: "Lord, if you just want to, you can make me clean." 3 And so, stretching out [his] hand, he touched him, saying: "I want to. Be made clean."[b] And immediately his leprosy was cleansed away.[c] 4 Then Jesus said to him: "See that you tell no one,[d] but go, show yourself to the priest,[e] and offer the gift[f] that Moses appointed, for the purpose of a witness to them."

5 When he entered into Ca·per'na·um,[g] an army officer came to him, entreating him 6 and saying: "Sir, my manservant is laid up in the house with paralysis, being terribly tormented." 7 He said to him: "When I get there I will cure him." 8 In reply the army officer said: "Sir, I am not a fit man for you to enter under my roof, but just say the word and my manservant will be healed. 9 For I too am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me, and I say to this one, 'Be on your way!'[h] and he is on his way, and to another, 'Come!' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this!' and he does it." 10 Hearing that, Jesus became amazed and said to those following him: "I tell YOU the truth, With no one in Israel have I found so great a faith.[i] 11 But I tell YOU that many from eastern parts and western[j] parts will come and recline at the table with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom[k] of the heavens;[l] 12 whereas the sons of the kingdom[m] will be thrown into the darkness outside. There is where [their] weeping and the gnashing of [their] teeth will be."[n] 13 Then Jesus said to the army officer: "Go. Just as it has been your faith, so let it come to pass for you."[a] And the manservant was healed in that hour.

14 And Jesus, on coming into Peter's house, saw his mother-in-law[b] lying down and sick with fever.[c] 15 So he touched her hand,[d] and the fever left her, and she got up and began ministering to him.[e] 16 But after it became evening, people brought him many demon-possessed persons; and he expelled the spirits with a word, and he cured all who were faring badly; 17 that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying: "He himself took our sicknesses and carried our diseases."[f]

18 When Jesus saw a crowd around him, he gave the command to shove off for the other side.[g] 19 And a certain scribe came up and said to him: "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you are about to go."[h] 20 But Jesus said to him: "Foxes have dens and birds of heaven have roosts, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay down his head."[i] 21 Then another of the disciples said to him: "Lord, permit me first to leave and bury my father." 22 Jesus said to him: "Keep following me, and let the dead bury their dead."[j]

23 And when he got aboard a boat,[k] his disciples followed him. 24 Now, look! a great agitation arose in the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves; he, however, was sleeping.[l] 25 And they came and woke[m] him up, saying: "Lord, save us, we are about to perish!" 26 But he said to them: "Why are YOU fainthearted, YOU with little faith?"[n] Then, getting up, he rebuked the winds and the sea, and a great calm set in.[o] 27 So the men became amazed and said: "What sort of person is this,[p] that even the winds and the sea obey him?"

28 When he got to the other side, into the country of the Gad·a·renes',[a] there met him two demon-possessed men[b] coming out from among the memorial tombs, unusually fierce, so that nobody had the courage to pass by on that road. 29 And, look! they screamed, saying: "What have we to do with you, Son of God?[c] Did you come here to torment us[d] before the appointed time?"[e] 30 But a long way off from them a herd of many swine was at pasture. 31 So the demons began to entreat him, saying: "If you expel us, send us forth into the herd of swine."[f] 32 Accordingly he said to them: "Go!" They came out and went off into the swine; and, look! the entire herd rushed over the precipice into the sea and died in the waters.[g] 33 But the herders fled and, going into the city, they reported everything, including the affair of the demon-possessed men. 34 And, look! all the city turned out to meet Jesus; and after having seen him, they earnestly urged him to move out from their districts.[h]

9 So, boarding the boat, he proceeded across and went into his own city.[i] 2 And, look! they were bringing him a paralyzed man lying on a bed.[j] On seeing their faith Jesus said to the paralytic: "Take courage, child; your sins are forgiven."[k] 3 And, look! certain of the scribes said to themselves: "This fellow is blaspheming."[l] 4 And Jesus, knowing their thoughts,[m] said: "Why are YOU thinking wicked things in YOUR hearts?[n] 5 For instance, which is easier, to say, Your sins are forgiven, or to say, Get up and walk?[o] 6 However, in order for YOU to know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins[p]—" then he said to the paralytic: "Get up, pick up your bed, and go to your home."[a] 7 And he got up and went off to his home. 8 At the sight of this the crowds were struck with fear, and they glorified God,[b] who gave such authority[c] to men.

9 Next, while passing along from there, Jesus caught sight of a man named Matthew seated at the tax office, and he said to him: "Be my follower."[d] Thereupon he did rise up and follow him.[e] 10 Later, while he was reclining at the table in the house,[f] look! many tax collectors and sinners came and began reclining with Jesus and his disciples. 11 But on seeing this the Pharisees began to say to his disciples: "Why is it that YOUR teacher eats with tax collectors and sinners?"[g] 12 Hearing [them], he said: "Persons in health do not need a physician,[h] but the ailing do. 13 Go, then, and learn what this means, 'I want mercy, and not sacrifice.'[i] For I came to call, not righteous people, but sinners."

14 Then John's disciples came to him and asked: "Why is it that we and the Pharisees practice fasting but your disciples do not fast?"[j] 15 At this Jesus said to them: "The friends of the bridegroom have no reason to mourn as long as the bridegroom[k] is with them, do they? But days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away[l] from them, and then they will fast.[m] 16 Nobody sews a patch of unshrunk cloth upon an old outer garment; for its full strength would pull from the outer garment and the tear would become worse.[n] 17 Neither do people put new wine into old wineskins; but if they do, then the wineskins burst and the wine spills out and the wineskins are ruined.[o] But people put new wine into new wineskins, and both things are preserved."[p]

18 While he was telling them these things, look! a certain ruler[a] who had approached began to do obeisance to him,[b] saying: "By now my daughter must be dead;[c] but come and lay your hand upon her and she will come to life."[d]

19 Then Jesus, getting up, began to follow him; also his disciples did. 20 And, look! a woman suffering twelve years from a flow of blood[e] came up behind and touched the fringe of his outer garment;[f] 21 for she kept saying to herself: "If I only touch his outer garment I shall get well."[g] 22 Jesus turned around and, noticing her, said: "Take courage, daughter; your faith has made you well."[h] And from that hour the woman became well.[i]

23 When, now, he came into the ruler's house[j] and caught sight of the flute players and the crowd in noisy confusion,[k] 24 Jesus began to say: "Leave the place, for the little girl did not die, but she is sleeping."[l] At this they began to laugh at him scornfully.[m] 25 As soon as the crowd had been sent outside, he went in and took hold of her hand,[n] and the little girl got up.[o] 26 Of course, the talk about this spread out into all that region.

27 As Jesus was passing along from there, two blind men[p] followed him, crying out and saying: "Have mercy on us,[q] Son of David." 28 After he had gone into the house, the blind men came to him, and Jesus asked them: "Do YOU have faith[r] that I can do this?" They answered him: "Yes, Lord." 29 Then he touched their eyes,[s] saying: "According to YOUR faith let it happen to YOU." 30 And their eyes received sight. Moreover, Jesus sternly charged them, saying: "See that nobody gets to know it."[t] 31 But they, after getting outside, made it public about him in all that region.[u]

32 Now when they were leaving, look! people brought him a dumb man possessed of a demon;[a] 33 and after the demon had been expelled the dumb man spoke.[b] Well, the crowds felt amazement[c] and said: "Never was anything like this seen in Israel." 34 But the Pharisees began to say: "It is by the ruler of the demons that he expels the demons."[d]

35 And Jesus set out on a tour of all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the good news of the kingdom and curing every sort of disease and every sort of infirmity.[e] 36 On seeing the crowds he felt pity[f] for them, because they were skinned and thrown about like sheep without a shepherd.[g] 37 Then he said to his disciples: "Yes, the harvest is great, but the workers are few.[h] 38 Therefore, beg the Master of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest."[i]

10 So he summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits,[j] in order to expel these and to cure every sort of disease and every sort of infirmity.

2 The names of the twelve apostles[k] are these:[l] First, Simon, the one called Peter,[m] and Andrew[n] his brother; and James the [son] of Zeb'e·dee[o] and John his brother; 3 Philip and Bar·thol'o·mew;[p] Thomas[q] and Matthew[r] the tax collector; James the [son] of Al·phae'us,[s] and Thad·dae'us; 4 Simon the Ca·na·nae'an,[t] and Judas Is·car'i·ot, who later betrayed[u] him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, giving them these orders:[v] "Do not go off into the road of the nations, and do not enter into a Sa·mar'i·tan city;[w] 6 but, instead, go continually to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.[x] 7 As YOU go, preach, saying, 'The kingdom of the heavens has drawn near.'[a] 8 Cure sick people,[b] raise up dead persons, make lepers clean, expel demons. YOU received free, give free.[c] 9 Do not procure gold or silver or copper for YOUR girdle purses,[d] 10 or a food pouch for the trip, or two undergarments, or sandals or a staff; for the worker deserves his food.[e]

11 "Into whatever city or village YOU enter, search out who in it is deserving, and stay there until YOU leave.[f] 12 When YOU are entering into the house, greet the household; 13 and if the house is deserving, let the peace YOU wish it come upon it;[g] but if it is not deserving, let the peace from YOU return upon YOU. 14 Wherever anyone does not take YOU in or listen to YOUR words, on going out of that house or that city shake the dust off YOUR feet.[h] 15 Truly I say to YOU, It will be more endurable for the land of Sod'om[i] and Go·mor'rah on Judgment Day than for that city.[j]

16 "Look! I am sending YOU forth as sheep amidst wolves;[k] therefore prove yourselves cautious as serpents[l] and yet innocent as doves.[m] 17 Be on YOUR guard against men;[n] for they will deliver YOU up to local courts,[o] and they will scourge[p] YOU in their synagogues.[q] 18 Why, YOU will be haled before governors and kings[r] for my sake, for a witness[s] to them and the nations. 19 However, when they deliver YOU up, do not become anxious about how or what YOU are to speak; for what YOU are to speak will be given YOU in that hour;[t] 20 for the ones speaking are not just YOU, but it is the spirit of YOUR Father that speaks by YOU.[u] 21 Further, brother[a] will deliver up brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise up against parents and will have them put to death.[b] 22 And YOU will be objects of hatred by all people on account of my name;[c] but he that has endured to the end is the one that will be saved.[d] 23 When they persecute YOU in one city, flee to another;[e] for truly I say to YOU, YOU will by no means complete the circuit[f] of the cities of Israel until the Son of man arrives.[g]

24 "A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a slave above his lord.[h] 25 It is enough for the disciple to become as his teacher, and the slave as his lord.[i] If people have called the householder Be·el′ze·bub,[j] how much more [will they call] those of his household so? 26 Therefore do not fear them; for there is nothing covered over that will not become uncovered, and secret that will not become known.[k] 27 What I tell YOU in the darkness, say in the light; and what YOU hear whispered, preach from the housetops.[l] 28 And do not become fearful[m] of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; but rather be in fear of him[n] that can destroy both soul and body in Ge·hen′na.[o] 29 Do not two sparrows sell for a coin of small value?[p] Yet not one of them will fall to the ground without YOUR Father's [knowledge].[q] 30 But the very hairs of YOUR head are all numbered.[r] 31 Therefore have no fear: YOU are worth more than many sparrows.[s]

32 "Everyone, then, that confesses union with me before men, I will also confess union[t] with him before my Father who is in the heavens; 33 but whoever disowns me before men, I will also disown[u] him before my Father who is in the heavens. 34 Do not think I came to put peace upon the earth; I came to put, not peace,[a] but a sword. 35 For I came to cause division, with a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a young wife against her mother-in-law.[b] 36 Indeed, a man's enemies will be persons of his own household. 37 He that has greater affection for father or mother than for me is not worthy of me; and he that has greater affection for son or daughter than for me is not worthy of me.[c] 38 And whoever does not accept his torture stake and follow after me is not worthy of me.[d] 39 He that finds his soul will lose it, and he that loses his soul for my sake will find it.[e]

40 "He that receives YOU receives me also, and he that receives me receives him also that sent me forth.[f] 41 He that receives a prophet because he is a prophet will get a prophet's reward,[g] and he that receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will get a righteous man's reward.[h] 42 And whoever gives one of these little ones only a cup of cold water to drink because he is a disciple, I tell YOU truly, he will by no means lose his reward."[i]

11 Now when Jesus had finished giving instructions to his twelve disciples, he set out from there to teach and preach in their cities.[j]

2 But John, having heard in jail[k] about the works of the Christ, sent by means of his own disciples 3 and said to him: "Are you the Coming One, or are we to expect a different one?"[l] 4 In reply Jesus said to them: "Go YOUR way and report to John what YOU are hearing and seeing: 5 The blind are seeing again,[m] and the lame[n] are walking about, the lepers[o] are being cleansed and the deaf[a] are hearing, and the dead[b] are being raised up, and the poor are having the good news[c] declared to them; 6 and happy is he that finds no cause for stumbling in me."[d]

7 While these were on their way, Jesus started to say to the crowds respecting John: "What did YOU go out into the wilderness to behold?[e] A reed being tossed by a wind?[f] 8 What, then, did YOU go out to see? A man dressed in soft garments? Why, those wearing soft garments are in the houses of kings.[g] 9 Really, then, why did YOU go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell YOU, and far more than a prophet.[h] 10 This is he concerning whom it is written, 'Look! I myself am sending forth my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way ahead of you!'[i] 11 Truly I say to YOU people, Among those born of women[j] there has not been raised up a greater than John the Baptist; but a person that is a lesser one in the kingdom[k] of the heavens is greater than he is. 12 But from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of the heavens is the goal toward which men press, and those pressing forward are seizing it.[l] 13 For all, the Prophets and the Law, prophesied until John;[m] 14 and if YOU want to accept it, He himself is 'E·li′jah who is destined to come.'[n] 15 Let him that has ears listen.[o]

16 "With whom shall I compare this generation?[p] It is like young children sitting in the marketplaces who cry out to their playmates,[q] 17 saying, 'We played the flute for YOU, but YOU did not dance; we wailed, but YOU did not beat yourselves in grief.'[r] 18 Correspondingly, John came neither eating nor drinking,[s] yet people say, 'He has a demon'; 19 the Son of man did come eating and drinking,[t] still people say, 'Look! A man gluttonous and given to drinking wine, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.'[a] All the same, wisdom is proved righteous by its works."[b]

20 Then he started to reproach the cities in which most of his powerful works had taken place, because they did not repent:[c] 21 "Woe to you, Cho·ra′zin! Woe to you, Beth·sa′i·da![d] because if the powerful works had taken place in Tyre and Si′don that took place in YOU, they would long ago have repented in sackcloth and ashes.[e] 22 Consequently I say to YOU, It will be more endurable for Tyre and Si′don on Judgment Day[f] than for YOU.[g] 23 And you, Ca·per′na·um,[h] will you perhaps be exalted to heaven? Down to Ha′des[i] you will come;[j] because if the powerful works that took place in you had taken place in Sod′om, it would have remained until this very day. 24 Consequently I say to YOU people, It will be more endurable for the land of Sod′om on Judgment Day than for you."[k]

25 At that time Jesus said in response: "I publicly praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and intellectual ones and have revealed them to babes.[l] 26 Yes, O Father, because to do thus came to be the way approved by you. 27 All things have been delivered to me by my Father,[m] and no one fully knows the Son but the Father,[n] neither does anyone fully know the Father but the Son and anyone to whom the Son is willing to reveal him.[o] 28 Come to me, all YOU who are toiling and loaded down,[p] and I will refresh YOU. 29 Take my yoke[q] upon YOU and learn from me,[r] for I am mild-tempered[s] and lowly in heart, and YOU will find refreshment[t] for YOUR souls.

30 For my yoke is kindly and my load is light."[a]

12 At that season Jesus went through the grainfields on the sabbath.[b] His disciples got hungry and started to pluck heads of grain and to eat.[c] 2 At seeing this the Pharisees said to him:[d] "Look! Your disciples are doing what it is not lawful to do on the sabbath."[e] 3 He said to them: "Have YOU not read what David did when he and the men with him got hungry?[f] 4 How he entered into the house of God and they ate the loaves of presentation,[g] something that it was not lawful[h] for him to eat, nor for those with him, but for the priests only?[i] 5 Or, have YOU not read in the Law[j] that on the sabbaths the priests in the temple treat the sabbath as not sacred and continue guiltless?[k] 6 But I tell YOU that something greater than the temple[l] is here. 7 However, if YOU had understood what this means, 'I want mercy,[m] and not sacrifice,'[n] YOU would not have condemned the guiltless ones. 8 For Lord of the sabbath[o] is what the Son of man is."[p]

9 After departing from that place he went into their synagogue; 10 and, look! a man with a withered hand![q] So they asked him, "Is it lawful to cure on the sabbath?" that they might get an accusation against him.[r] 11 He said to them: "Who will be the man among YOU that has one sheep and, if this falls into a pit[s] on the sabbath, will not get hold of it and lift it out?[t] 12 All considered, of how much more worth is a man than a sheep![u] So it is lawful to do a fine thing on the sabbath." 13 Then he said to the man: "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was restored sound like the other hand.[v] 14 But the Pharisees went out and took counsel against him that they might destroy him.[a] 15 Having come to know [this], Jesus withdrew from there. Many also followed him, and he cured them all,[b] 16 but he strictly charged them not to make him manifest;[c] 17 that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, who said:

18 "Look! My servant[d] whom I chose, my beloved,[e] whom my soul approved! I will put my spirit upon him,[f] and what justice is he will make clear to the nations. 19 He will not wrangle,[g] nor cry aloud, nor will anyone hear his voice in the broad ways. 20 No bruised reed will he crush, and no smoldering flaxen wick will he extinguish,[h] until he sends out justice[i] with success. 21 Indeed, in his name nations will hope."[j]

22 Then they brought him a demon-possessed man, blind and dumb; and he cured him, so that the dumb man spoke and saw. 23 Well, all the crowds were simply carried away and began to say:[k] "May this not perhaps be the Son of David?"[l] 24 At hearing this, the Pharisees said: "This fellow does not expel the demons except by means of Be·el′ze·bub, the ruler of the demons."[m] 25 Knowing their thoughts,[n] he said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself comes to desolation,[o] and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. 26 In the same way, if Satan expels Satan, he has become divided against himself; how, then, will his kingdom stand? 27 Moreover, if I expel the demons by means of Be·el′ze·bub,[p] by means of whom do YOUR sons expel them? This is why they will be judges of YOU. 28 But if it is by means of God's spirit that I expel the demons, the kingdom of God has really overtaken YOU.[q] 29 Or how can anyone invade the house of a strong man and seize his movable goods, unless first he binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house.[a] 30 He that is not on my side is against me, and he that does not gather with me scatters.[b]

31 "On this account I say to YOU, Every sort of sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the spirit will not be forgiven.[c] 32 For example, whoever speaks a word against the Son of man, it will be forgiven him;[d] but whoever speaks against the holy spirit, it will not be forgiven him, no, not in this system of things nor in that to come.[e]

33 "Either YOU people make the tree fine and its fruit fine or make the tree rotten and its fruit rotten; for by its fruit the tree is known.[f] 34 Offspring of vipers,[g] how can YOU speak good things, when YOU are wicked?[h] For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.[i] 35 The good man out of his good treasure sends out good things,[j] whereas the wicked man out of his wicked treasure sends out wicked things.[k] 36 I tell YOU that every unprofitable saying that men speak, they will render an account[l] concerning it on Judgment Day; 37 for by your words you will be declared righteous, and by your words you will be condemned."[m]

38 Then as an answer to him some of the scribes and Pharisees said: "Teacher, we want to see a sign from you."[n] 39 In reply he said to them: "A wicked and adulterous[o] generation keeps on seeking for a sign, but no sign will be given it except the sign of Jo′nah the prophet.[p] 40 For just as Jo′nah[q] was in the belly of the huge fish three days and three nights, so the Son of man[r] will be in the heart of the earth[s] three days and three nights.[t] 41 Men of Nin′e·veh will rise up in the judgment with this generation[a] and will condemn[b] it; because they repented at what Jo′nah[c] preached, but, look! something more than Jo′nah is here. 42 The queen of the south[d] will be raised up in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it; because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Sol′o·mon, but, look! something more than Sol′o·mon is here.[e]

43 "When an unclean spirit comes out of a man, it passes through parched places in search of a resting-place, and finds none.[f] 44 Then it says, 'I will go back to my house out of which I moved'; and on arriving it finds it unoccupied but swept clean and adorned. 45 Then it goes its way and takes along with it seven different spirits more wicked than itself,[g] and, after getting inside, they dwell there; and the final circumstances of that man become worse than the first.[h] That is how it will be also with this wicked generation."[i]

46 While he was yet speaking to the crowds, look! his mother and brothers[j] took up a position outside seeking to speak to him. 47 So someone said to him: "Look! Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak to you." 48 As an answer he said to the one telling him: "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?"[k] 49 And extending his hand toward his disciples, he said: "Look! My mother and my brothers![l] 50 For whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother."

13 On that day Jesus, having left the house, was sitting by the sea; 2 and great crowds gathered to him, so that he went aboard a boat and sat down,[m] and all the crowd was standing on the beach.

3 Then he told them many things by illustrations, saying: "Look! A sower went out to sow;[a] 4 and as he was sowing, some [seeds] fell alongside the road, and the birds came and ate them up.[b] 5 Others fell upon the rocky places where they did not have much soil, and at once they sprang up because of not having depth of soil.[c] 6 But when the sun rose they were scorched, and because of not having root they withered.[d] 7 Others, too, fell among the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them.[e] 8 Still others fell upon the fine soil and they began to yield fruit,[f] this one a hundredfold, that one sixty, the other thirty.[g] 9 Let him that has ears listen."[h]

10 So the disciples came up and said to him: "Why is it you speak to them by the use of illustrations?"[i] 11 In reply he said: "To YOU it is granted to understand the sacred secrets[j] of the kingdom of the heavens, but to those people it is not granted.[k] 12 For whoever has, more will be given him and he will be made to abound;[l] but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.[m] 13 This is why I speak to them by the use of illustrations, because, looking, they look in vain, and hearing, they hear in vain, neither do they get the sense of it;[n] 14 and toward them the prophecy of Isaiah is having fulfillment, which says, 'By hearing, YOU will hear but by no means get the sense of it; and, looking, YOU will look but by no means see.[o] 15 For the heart of this people has grown unreceptive, and with their ears they have heard without response, and they have shut their eyes; that they might never see with their eyes and hear with their ears and get the sense of it with their hearts and turn back, and I heal them.'[p]

16 "However, happy are YOUR eyes[a] because they behold, and YOUR ears because they hear. 17 For I truly say to YOU, Many prophets[b] and righteous men desired to see the things YOU are beholding and did not see them,[c] and to hear the things YOU are hearing and did not hear them.[d]

18 "YOU, then, listen to the illustration of the man that sowed.[e] 19 Where anyone hears the word of the kingdom but does not get the sense of it, the wicked one[f] comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart; this is the one sown alongside the road. 20 As for the one sown upon the rocky places, this is the one hearing the word and at once accepting it with joy.[g] 21 Yet he has no root in himself but continues for a time, and after tribulation or persecution has arisen on account of the word he is at once stumbled.[h] 22 As for the one sown among the thorns, this is the one hearing the word, but the anxiety of this system of things[i] and the deceptive power of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful.[j] 23 As for the one sown upon the fine soil, this is the one hearing the word and getting the sense of it, who really does bear fruit and produces, this one a hundredfold, that one sixty, the other thirty."[k]

24 Another illustration he set before them, saying: "The kingdom of the heavens has become like a man that sowed fine seed in his field.[l] 25 While men were sleeping, his enemy came and oversowed weeds in among the wheat, and left. 26 When the blade sprouted and produced fruit, then the weeds appeared also. 27 So the slaves of the householder came up and said to him, 'Master, did you not sow fine seed in your field?[m] How, then, does it come to have weeds?'[n] 28 He said to them, 'An enemy, a man, did this.'[a] They said to him, 'Do you want us, then, to go out and collect them?' 29 He said, 'No; that by no chance, while collecting the weeds, YOU uproot the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest; and in the harvest season I will tell the reapers, First collect the weeds and bind them in bundles to burn them up,[b] then go to gathering the wheat into my storehouse.'"[c]

31 Another illustration he set before them,[d] saying: "The kingdom of the heavens is like a mustard grain,[e] which a man took and planted in his field; 32 which is, in fact, the tiniest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the largest of the vegetables and becomes a tree, so that the birds of heaven[f] come and find lodging among its branches."[g]

33 Another illustration he spoke to them: "The kingdom of the heavens is like leaven,[h] which a woman took and hid in three large measures of flour, until the whole mass was fermented."

34 All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds by illustrations. Indeed, without an illustration he would not speak to them;[i] 35 that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet who said: "I will open my mouth with illustrations, I will publish things hidden since the founding."[j]

36 Then after dismissing the crowds he went into the house. And his disciples came to him and said: "Explain to us the illustration of the weeds in the field." 37 In response he said: "The sower of the fine seed is the Son of man; 38 the field is the world;[k] as for the fine seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; but the weeds are the sons of the wicked[l] one, 39 and the enemy that sowed them is the Devil.[a] The harvest[b] is a conclusion of a system of things,[c] and the reapers are angels. 40 Therefore, just as the weeds are collected and burned with fire, so it will be in the conclusion of the system of things.[d] 41 The Son of man will send forth his angels, and they will collect out from his kingdom all things that cause stumbling[e] and persons who are doing lawlessness, 42 and they will pitch them into the fiery furnace.[f] There is where [their] weeping and the gnashing of [their] teeth will be.[g] 43 At that time the righteous ones will shine[h] as brightly as the sun[i] in the kingdom of their Father. Let him that has ears listen.[j]

44 "The kingdom of the heavens is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found and hid; and for the joy he has he goes and sells[k] what things he has and buys that field.[l]

45 "Again the kingdom of the heavens is like a traveling merchant seeking fine pearls. 46 Upon finding one pearl of high value,[m] away he went and promptly sold all the things he had and bought it.[n]

47 "Again the kingdom of the heavens is like a dragnet let down into the sea and gathering up [fish] of every kind.[o] 48 When it got full they hauled it up onto the beach and, sitting down, they collected the fine[p] ones into vessels, but the unsuitable[q] they threw away. 49 That is how it will be in the conclusion of the system of things: the angels will go out and separate the wicked[r] from among the righteous[s] 50 and will cast them into the fiery furnace. There is where [their] weeping and the gnashing of [their] teeth will be.[t]

51 "Did YOU get the sense of all these things?" They said to him: "Yes." 52 Then he said to them: "That being the case, every public instructor, when taught respecting the kingdom of the heavens,[a] is like a man, a householder, who brings out of his treasure store things new and old."[b]

53 Now when Jesus had finished these illustrations he went across country from there. 54 And after coming into his home territory[c] he began to teach them in their synagogue,[d] so that they were astounded and said: "Where did this man get this wisdom and these powerful works? 55 Is this not the carpenter's son?[e] Is not his mother called Mary, and his brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Judas? 56 And his sisters, are they not all with us?[f] Where, then, did this man get all these things?"[g] 57 So they began to stumble at him.[h] But Jesus said to them: "A prophet is not unhonored except in his home territory and in his own house."[i] 58 And he did not do many powerful works there on account of their lack of faith.[j]

14 At that particular time Herod, the district ruler, heard the report about Jesus[k] 2 and said to his servants: "This is John the Baptist. He was raised up from the dead, and this is why the powerful works are operating in him."[l] 3 For Herod had arrested John and bound him and put him away in prison on account of He·ro'di·as the wife of Philip his brother.[m] 4 For John had been saying to him: "It is not lawful for you to be having her."[n] 5 However, although he wanted to kill him, he feared the crowd, because they took him for a prophet.[o] 6 But when Herod's birthday[p] was being celebrated the daughter of He·ro'di·as danced at it and pleased Herod so much 7 that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked.[q] 8 Then she, under her mother's coaching, said: "Give me here upon a platter the head of John the Baptist."[a] 9 Grieved though he was, the king out of regard for his oaths and for those reclining with him commanded it to be given;[b] 10 and he sent and had John beheaded in the prison. 11 And his head was brought on a platter and given to the maiden, and she brought it to her mother.[c] 12 Finally his disciples came up and removed the corpse and buried him[d] and came and reported to Jesus. 13 At hearing this Jesus withdrew from there by boat into a lonely place for isolation;[e] but the crowds, getting to hear of it, followed him on foot from the cities.

14 Now when he came forth he saw a great crowd; and he felt pity[f] for them, and he cured their sick ones.[g] 15 But when evening fell his disciples came to him and said: "The place is lonely and the hour is already far advanced; send the crowds away, that they may go into the villages and buy themselves things to eat."[h] 16 However, Jesus said to them: "They do not have to leave; YOU give them something to eat."[i] 17 They said to him: "We have nothing here but five loaves and two fishes."[j] 18 He said: "BRING them here to me." 19 Next he commanded the crowds to recline on the grass and took the five loaves and two fishes, and, looking up to heaven, he said a blessing[k] and, after breaking the loaves, he distributed them to the disciples, the disciples in turn to the crowds.[l] 20 So all ate and were satisfied, and they took up the surplus of fragments, twelve baskets full.[m] 21 Yet those eating were about five thousand men, besides women and young children.[n] 22 Then, without delay, he compelled his disciples to board the boat and go ahead of him to the other side, while he sent the crowds away.[a]

23 Eventually, having sent the crowds away, he went up into the mountain by himself to pray.[b] Though it became late, he was there alone. 24 By now the boat was many hundreds of yards away from land, being hard put to it by the waves,[c] because the wind was against them. 25 But in the fourth watch period of the night he came to them, walking over the sea.[d] 26 When they caught sight of him walking on the sea, the disciples were troubled, saying: "It is an apparition!"[e] And they cried out in their fear. 27 But at once Jesus spoke to them with the words: "Take courage, it is I;[f] have no fear." 28 In reply Peter said to him: "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you over the waters." 29 He said: "Come!" Thereupon Peter, getting down off the boat,[g] walked over the waters and went toward Jesus. 30 But looking at the windstorm, he got afraid and, after starting to sink, he cried out: "Lord, save me!" 31 Immediately stretching out his hand Jesus caught hold of him and said to him: "You with little faith, why did you give way to doubt?"[h] 32 And after they got up into the boat, the windstorm abated. 33 Then those in the boat did obeisance to him, saying: "You are really God's Son."[i] 34 And they got across and came to land in Gen·nes'a·ret.[j]

35 Upon recognizing him the men of that place sent forth into all that surrounding country, and people brought him all those who were ill.[k] 36 And they went entreating him that they might just touch the fringe of his outer garment;[l] and all those who touched it were made completely well.

15 Then there came to Jesus from Jerusalem[a] Pharisees and scribes, saying: 2 "Why is it your disciples overstep the tradition of the men of former times? For example, they do not wash their hands when about to eat a meal."[b]

3 In reply he said to them: "Why is it YOU also overstep the commandment of God because of YOUR tradition?[c] 4 For example, God said, 'Honor your father and your mother';[d] and, 'Let him that reviles father or mother end up in death.'[e] 5 But YOU say, 'Whoever says to his father or mother: "Whatever I have by which you might get benefit from me is a gift dedicated to God," 6 he must not honor his father at all.'[f] And so YOU have made the word of God invalid because of YOUR tradition.[g] 7 You hypocrites,[h] Isaiah[i] aptly prophesied about YOU, when he said, 8 'This people honors me with their lips, yet their heart is far removed from me.[j] 9 It is in vain that they keep worshiping me, because they teach commands of men as doctrines.'"[k] 10 With that he called the crowd near and said to them: "Listen and get the sense of it:[l] 11 Not what enters into [his] mouth defiles a man; but it is what proceeds out of [his] mouth that defiles a man."[m]

12 Then the disciples came up and said to him: "Do you know that the Pharisees stumbled at hearing what you said?"[n] 13 In reply he said: "Every plant that my heavenly Father did not plant will be uprooted.[o] 14 LET them be. Blind guides is what they are. If, then, a blind man guides a blind man, both will fall into a pit."[p] 15 By way of response Peter said to him: "Make the illustration plain to us."[q] 16 At this he said: "Are YOU also yet without understanding?[r] 17 Are YOU not aware that everything entering into the mouth passes along into the intestines and is discharged into the sewer? 18 However, the things proceeding out of the mouth come out of the heart, and those things defile a man.[a] 19 For example, out of the heart come wicked reasonings,[b] murders, adulteries, fornications, thieveries, false testimonies, blasphemies.[c] 20 These are the things defiling a man; but to take a meal with unwashed hands does not defile a man."[d]

21 Leaving there, Jesus now withdrew into the parts of Tyre and Si'don.[e] 22 And, look! a Phoe·ni'cian[f] woman from those regions came out and cried aloud, saying: "Have mercy on me,[g] Lord, Son of David. My daughter is badly demonized." 23 But he did not say a word in answer to her. So his disciples came up and began to request him: "Send her away; because she keeps crying out after us." 24 In answer he said: "I was not sent forth to any but to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."[h] 25 When the woman came she began doing obeisance to him, saying: "Lord, help me!"[i] 26 In answer he said: "It is not right to take the bread of the children and throw it to little dogs." 27 She said: "Yes, Lord; but really the little dogs do eat of the crumbs falling from the table of their masters."[j] 28 Then Jesus said in reply to her: "O woman, great is your faith; let it happen to you as you wish." And her daughter was healed from that hour on.[k]

29 Crossing country from there, Jesus next came near the sea of Gal'i·lee,[l] and, after going up into the mountain,[m] he was sitting there. 30 Then great crowds approached him, having along with them people that were lame, maimed, blind, dumb, and many otherwise, and they fairly threw them at his feet, and he cured them;[a] 31 so that the crowd felt amazement as they saw the dumb speaking and the lame walking and the blind seeing, and they glorified the God of Israel.[b]

32 But Jesus called his disciples to him and said:[c] "I feel pity[d] for the crowd, because it is already three days that they have stayed with me and they have nothing to eat; and I do not want to send them away fasting. They may possibly give out on the road." 33 However, the disciples said to him: "Where are we in this lonely place going to get sufficient loaves to satisfy a crowd of this size?"[e] 34 At this Jesus said to them: "How many loaves have YOU?" They said: "Seven, and a few little fishes." 35 So, after instructing the crowd to recline upon the ground, 36 he took the seven loaves and the fishes and, after offering thanks, he broke them and began distributing to the disciples, the disciples in turn to the crowds.[f] 37 And all ate and were satisfied, and as a surplus of fragments they took up seven provision baskets full.[g] 38 Yet those eating were four thousand men, besides women and young children. 39 Finally, after sending the crowds away, he got into the boat and came into the regions of Mag'a·dan.[h]

16 Here the Pharisees[i] and Sadducees approached him and, to tempt him, they asked him to display to them a sign from heaven.[j] 2 In reply he said to them: "[[When evening falls YOU are accustomed to say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is fire-red'; 3 and at morning, 'It will be wintry, rainy weather today, for the sky is fire-red, but gloomy-looking.' YOU know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but the signs of the times YOU cannot interpret.]][k] 4 A wicked and adulterous generation keeps on seeking for a sign, but no sign will be given it[a] except the sign of Jo'nah."[b] With that he went away, leaving them behind.[c]

5 Now the disciples crossed to the other side and forgot to take loaves along.[d] 6 Jesus said to them: "Keep YOUR eyes open and watch out for the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."[e] 7 So they began to reason among themselves, saying: "We did not take any loaves along." 8 Knowing this, Jesus said: "Why are YOU doing this reasoning among yourselves, because YOU have no loaves, YOU with little faith?[f] 9 Do YOU not yet see the point, or do YOU not remember the five loaves in the case of the five thousand and how many baskets YOU took up?[g] 10 Or the seven loaves in the case of the four thousand and how many provision baskets YOU took up?[h] 11 How is it YOU do not discern that I did not talk to YOU about loaves? But watch out for the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."[i] 12 Then they grasped that he said to watch out, not for the leaven of the loaves, but for the teaching[j] of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

13 Now when he had come into the parts of Caes·a·re'a Phi·lip'pi, Jesus went asking his disciples: "Who are men saying the Son of man is?"[k] 14 They said: "Some say John the Baptist,[l] others E·li'jah,[m] still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." 15 He said to them: "YOU, though, who do YOU say I am?"[n] 16 In answer Simon Peter said: "You are the Christ,[o] the Son of the living God."[p] 17 In response Jesus said to him: "Happy you are, Simon son of Jo'nah, because flesh and blood did not reveal [it] to you, but my Father who is in the heavens did.[q] 18 Also, I say to you, You are Peter,[r] and on this rock-mass[s] I will build my congregation, and the gates of Ha'des[a] will not overpower it.[b] 19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of the heavens, and whatever you may bind on earth will be the thing bound in the heavens, and whatever you may loose on earth will be the thing loosed in the heavens."[c] 20 Then he sternly charged the disciples not to say to anybody that he was the Christ.[d]

21 From that time forward Jesus Christ commenced showing his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the older men and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised up.[e] 22 At this Peter took him aside and commenced rebuking him, saying: "Be kind to yourself, Lord; you will not have this [destiny] at all."[f] 23 But, turning his back, he said to Peter: "Get behind me, Satan![g] You are a stumbling block to me, because you think, not God's thoughts,[h] but those of men."

24 Then Jesus said to his disciples: "If anyone wants to come after me, let him disown himself and pick up his torture stake and continually[i] follow me. 25 For whoever wants to save his soul will lose it; but whoever loses his soul for my sake will find it.[j] 26 For what benefit will it be to a man if he gains the whole world but forfeits his soul?[k] or what will a man give in exchange[l] for his soul? 27 For the Son of man is destined to come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will recompense each one according to his behavior.[m] 28 Truly I say to you that there are some of those standing here that will not taste death at all until first they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom."[n]

17 Six days later Jesus took Peter and James and John his brother along and brought them up into a lofty mountain by themselves.[a] 2 And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone as the sun,[b] and his outer garments became brilliant as the light.[c] 3 And, look! there appeared to them Moses and E·li′jah, conversing with him.[d] 4 Responsively Peter said to Jesus: "Lord, it is fine for us to be here. If you wish, I will erect three tents here, one for you and one for Moses and one for E·li′jah."[e] 5 While he was yet speaking, look! a bright cloud overshadowed them, and, look! a voice out of the cloud, saying: "This is my Son, the beloved, whom I have approved;[f] listen to him."[g] 6 At hearing this the disciples fell upon their faces and became very much afraid.[h] 7 Then Jesus came near and, touching them, said: "Get up and have no fear."[i] 8 When they raised their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus himself only.[j] 9 And as they were descending from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying: "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of man is raised up from the dead."[k]

10 However, the disciples put the question to him: "Why, then, do the scribes say that E·li′jah must come first?"[l] 11 In reply he said: "E·li′jah, indeed, is coming and will restore all things.[m] 12 However, I say to YOU that E·li′jah has already come and they did not recognize him but did with him the things they wanted. In this way also the Son of man is destined to suffer at their hands."[n] 13 Then the disciples perceived that he spoke to them about John the Baptist.[o]

14 And when they came toward the crowd,[p] a man approached him, kneeling down to him and saying: 15 "Lord, have mercy on my son, because he is an epileptic and is ill, for he falls often into the fire and often into the water;[q] 16 and I brought him to your disciples, but they could not cure him."[a] 17 In reply Jesus said: "O faithless and twisted generation,[b] how long must I continue with YOU? How long must I put up with YOU? Bring him here to me." 18 Then Jesus rebuked it, and the demon came out of him;[c] and the boy was cured from that hour.[d] 19 Thereupon the disciples came up to Jesus privately and said: "Why is it we could not expel it?"[e] 20 He said to them: "Because of YOUR little faith. For truly I say to YOU, If YOU have faith the size of a mustard grain, YOU will say to this mountain, 'Transfer from here to there,' and it will transfer, and nothing will be impossible for YOU."[f] 21 ——

22 It was while they were gathered together in Gal′i·lee that Jesus said to them: "The Son of man is destined to be betrayed into men's hands,[g] 23 and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up."[h] Consequently they were very much grieved.[i]

24 After they arrived in Ca·per′na·um the men collecting the two drachmas [tax] approached Peter and said: "Does YOUR teacher not pay the two drachmas [tax]?"[j] 25 He said: "Yes." However, when he entered the house Jesus got ahead of him by saying: "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive duties or head tax? From their sons or from the strangers?" 26 When he said: "From the strangers," Jesus said to him: "Really, then, the sons are tax-free. 27 But that we do not cause them to stumble,[k] you go to the sea, cast a fishhook, and take the first fish coming up and, when you open its mouth, you will find a stater coin. Take that and give it to them for me and you."[l]

18 In that hour the disciples came near to Jesus and said: "Who really is greatest in the kingdom of the heavens?"[a] 2 So, calling a young child to him, he set it in their midst[b] 3 and said: "Truly I say to YOU, Unless YOU turn around and become as young children,[c] YOU will by no means enter into the kingdom of the heavens.[d] 4 Therefore, whoever will humble[e] himself like this young child is the one that is the greatest in the kingdom of the heavens;[f] 5 and whoever receives one such young child on the basis of my name receives me [also].[g] 6 But whoever stumbles one of these little ones who put faith in me, it is more beneficial for him to have hung around his neck a millstone[h] such as is turned by an ass and to be sunk in the wide, open sea.[i]

7 "Woe to the world due to the stumbling blocks! Of course, the stumbling blocks must of necessity come,[j] but woe to the man through whom the stumbling block[k] comes! 8 If, then, your hand or your foot is making you stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you;[l] it is finer for you to enter into life maimed or lame than to be thrown with two hands or two feet into the everlasting fire.[m] 9 Also, if your eye is making you stumble, tear it out and throw it away from you; it is finer for you to enter one-eyed into life than to be thrown with two eyes into the fiery Ge·hen′na.[n] 10 See to it that YOU men do not despise one of these little ones; for I tell YOU that their angels[o] in heaven always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven.[p] 11 ——

12 "What do YOU think? If a certain man comes to have a hundred sheep and one of them gets strayed,[q] will he not leave the ninety-nine upon the mountains and set out on a search for the one that is straying?[a] 13 And if he happens to find it, I certainly tell YOU, he rejoices more over it than over the ninety-nine that have not strayed.[b] 14 Likewise it is not a desirable thing with my Father who is in heaven for one of these little ones to perish.[c]

15 "Moreover, if your brother commits a sin, go lay bare his fault between you and him alone.[d] If he listens to you, you have gained your brother.[e] 16 But if he does not listen, take along with you one or two more, in order that at the mouth of two or three witnesses every matter may be established.[f] 17 If he does not listen to them, speak to the congregation. If he does not listen even to the congregation, let him be to you just as a man of the nations[g] and as a tax collector.[h]

18 "Truly I say to YOU men, Whatever things YOU may bind on earth will be things bound in heaven, and whatever things YOU may loose on earth will be things loosed in heaven.[i] 19 Again I truly say to YOU, If two of YOU on earth agree concerning anything of importance that they should request, it will take place for them due to my Father in heaven.[j] 20 For where there are two or three gathered together in my name,[k] there I am in their midst."[l]

21 Then Peter came up and said to him: "Lord, how many times is my brother to sin against me and am I to forgive him?[m] Up to seven times?"[n] 22 Jesus said to him: "I say to you, not, Up to seven times, but, Up to seventy-seven times.[o]

23 "That is why the kingdom of the heavens has become like a man, a king,[p] that wanted to settle accounts[q] with his slaves. 24 When he started to settle them, there was brought in a man who owed him ten thousand talents [=60,000,000

de·nar′i·i]. 25 But because he did not have the means to pay [it] back, his master ordered him and his wife and his children and all the things he had to be sold and payment to be made.[a] 26 Therefore the slave fell down and began to do obeisance to him, saying, 'Be patient with me and I will pay back everything to you.' 27 Moved to pity at this, the master of that slave let him off[b] and canceled his debt.[c] 28 But that slave went out and found one of his fellow slaves that was owing him a hundred de·nar′i·i;[d] and, grabbing him, he began to choke him, saying, 'Pay back whatever you owe.' 29 Therefore his fellow slave fell down and began to entreat him, saying, 'Be patient[e] with me and I will pay you back.' 30 However, he was not willing, but went off and had him thrown into prison until he should pay back what was owing. 31 When, therefore, his fellow slaves saw the things that had happened, they became very much grieved, and they went and made clear to their master all the things that had happened.[f] 32 Then his master summoned him and said to him, 'Wicked slave, I canceled all that debt for you, when you entreated me. 33 Ought you not, in turn, to have had mercy[g] on your fellow slave, as I also had mercy[h] on you?' 34 With that his master, provoked to wrath,[i] delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay back all that was owing. 35 In like manner[j] my heavenly Father will also deal with YOU if you do not forgive each one his brother from YOUR hearts."[k]

19 Now when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Gal′i·lee and came to the frontiers of Ju·de′a across the Jordan.[l] 2 Also, great crowds followed him, and he cured them there.[m]

3 And Pharisees came up to him, intent on tempting him and saying: "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife on every sort of ground?"[a] 4 In reply he said: "Did you not read that he who created them from [the] beginning made them male and female[b] 5 and said, 'For this reason a man will leave his father and his mother[c] and will stick to his wife, and the two will be one flesh'?[d] 6 So that they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has yoked together let no man put apart."[e] 7 They said to him: "Why, then, did Moses prescribe giving a certificate of dismissal and divorcing her?"[f] 8 He said to them: "Moses, out of regard for YOUR hardheartedness,[g] made the concession to YOU of divorcing YOUR wives, but such has not been the case from [the] beginning.[h] 9 I say to YOU that whoever divorces his wife, except on the ground of fornication, and marries another commits adultery."[i]

10 The disciples said to him: "If such is the situation of a man with his wife, it is not advisable to marry."[j] 11 He said to them: "Not all men make room for the saying, but only those who have the gift.[k] 12 For there are eunuchs that were born such from their mother's womb,[l] and there are eunuchs that were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs that have made themselves eunuchs on account of the kingdom of the heavens. Let him that can make room for it make room for it."[m]

13 Then young children were brought to him, for him to put his hands upon them and offer prayer; but the disciples reprimanded them.[n] 14 Jesus, however, said: "Let the young children alone, and stop hindering them from coming to me, for the kingdom of the heavens belongs to suchlike ones."[a] 15 And he put his hands upon them and went from there.[b]

16 Now, look! a certain one came up to him and said: "Teacher, what good must I do in order to get everlasting life?"[c] 17 He said to him: "Why do you ask me about what is good? One there is that is good.[d] If, though, you want to enter into life, observe the commandments continually."[e] 18 He said to him: "Which ones?"[f] Jesus said: "Why, You must not murder,[g] You must not commit adultery,[h] You must not steal,[i] You must not bear false witness,[j] 19 Honor [your] father and [your] mother,[k] and, You must love your neighbor as yourself."[l] 20 The young man said to him: "I have kept all these; what yet am I lacking?" 21 Jesus said to him: "If you want to be perfect, go sell your belongings and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven,[m] and come be my follower."[n] 22 When the young man heard this saying, he went away grieved, for he was holding many possessions.[o] 23 But Jesus said to his disciples: "Truly I say to YOU that it will be a difficult thing for a rich man to get into the kingdom of the heavens.[p] 24 Again I say to YOU, It is easier for a camel to get through a needle's eye than for a rich man to get into the kingdom of God."[q]

25 When the disciples heard that, they expressed very great surprise, saying: "Who really can be saved?"[r] 26 Looking them in the face, Jesus said to them: "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."[s]

27 Then Peter said to him in reply: "Look! We have left all things and followed you; what actually will there be for us?"[t] 28 Jesus said to them: "Truly I say to YOU, In the re-creation, when the Son of man sits down upon his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also yourselves sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.[a] 29 And everyone that has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands for the sake of my name will receive many times more and will inherit everlasting life.[b]

30 "But many that are first will be last and the last first.[c]

20 "For the kingdom of the heavens is like a man, a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard.[d] 2 When he had agreed with the workers for a de·nar′i·us a day,[e] he sent them forth into his vineyard. 3 Going out also about the third hour,[f] he saw others standing unemployed in the marketplace;[g] 4 and to those he said, 'You also, go into the vineyard, and whatever is just I will give YOU.' 5 So off they went. Again he went out about the sixth[h] and the ninth hour[i] and did likewise. 6 Finally, about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing, and he said to them, 'Why have YOU been standing here all day unemployed?' 7 They said to him, 'Because nobody has hired us.' He said to them, 'YOU too go into the vineyard.'[j]

8 "When it became evening,[k] the master of the vineyard said to his man in charge, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages,[l] proceeding from the last to the first.' 9 When the eleventh-hour men came, they each received a de·nar′i·us. 10 So, when the first came, they concluded they would receive more; but they also received pay at the rate of a de·nar′i·us. 11 On receiving it they began to murmur against the householder[m] 12 and said, 'These last put in one hour's work; still you made them equal to us who bore the burden of the day and the burning heat!' 13 But in reply to one of them he said, 'Fellow, I do you no wrong. You agreed with me for a de·nar'i·us, did you not?[a] 14 Take what is yours and go. I want to give to this last one the same as to you.[b] 15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I want with my own things? Or is your eye wicked[c] because I am good?'[d] 16 In this way the last ones will be first, and the first ones last."[e]

17 Being now about to go up to Jerusalem, Jesus took the twelve disciples[f] off privately and said to them on the road: 18 "Look! We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be delivered up to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death,[g] 19 and will deliver him up to [men of] the nations to make fun of and to scourge and to impale,[h] and the third day he will be raised up."[i]

20 Then the mother of the sons of Zeb'e·dee[j] approached him with her sons, doing obeisance and asking for something from him.[k] 21 He said to her: "What do you want?" She said to him: "Give the word that these my two sons may sit down, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your kingdom."[l] 22 Jesus said in answer: "YOU men do not know what YOU are asking for. Can YOU drink the cup[m] that I am about to drink?" They said to him: "We can." 23 He said to them: "You will indeed drink my cup,[n] but this sitting down at my right hand and at my left is not mine to give, but it belongs to those for whom it has been prepared by my Father."[o]

24 When the ten others heard of this, they became indignant at the two brothers.[p] 25 But Jesus, calling them to him, said: "YOU know that the rulers of the nations lord it over them and the great men wield authority over them.[a] 26 This is not the way among YOU;[b] but whoever wants to become great among YOU must be YOUR minister,[c] 27 and whoever wants to be first among YOU must be YOUR slave.[d] 28 Just as the Son of man came, not to be ministered to, but to minister[e] and to give his soul a ransom in exchange for many."[f]

29 Now as they were going out of Jer'i·cho[g] a great crowd followed him. 30 And, look! two blind men sitting beside the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying: "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!"[h] 31 But the crowd sternly told them to keep silent; yet they cried all the louder, saying: "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!"[i] 32 So Jesus stopped, called them and said: "What do YOU want me to do for YOU?" 33 They said to him: "Lord, let our eyes be opened."[j] 34 Moved with pity, Jesus touched their eyes,[k] and immediately they received sight, and they followed him.[l]

21 Well, when they got close to Jerusalem and arrived at Beth'pha·ge on the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent forth two disciples,[m] 2 saying to them: "Be on YOUR way into the village that is within sight of YOU, and YOU will at once find an ass tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me.[n] 3 And if someone says anything to YOU, YOU must say, 'The Lord needs them.' At that he will immediately send them forth."

4 This actually took place that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet, saying: 5 "TELL the daughter of Zion, 'Look! Your King is coming to you,[o] mild-tempered,[p] and mounted upon an ass, yes, upon a colt, the offspring of a beast of burden.'"[q]

6 So the disciples got on their way and did just as Jesus ordered them. 7 And they brought the ass and its colt, and they put upon these their outer garments, and he seated himself upon them.[a] 8 Most of the crowd spread their outer garments[b] on the road, while others began cutting down branches from the trees and spreading them on the road.[c] 9 As for the crowds, those going ahead of him and those following kept crying out: "Save, we pray,[d] the Son of David![e] Blessed is he that comes in Jehovah's name![f] Save him, we pray, in the heights above!"[g]

10 Now when he entered into Jerusalem,[h] the whole city was set in commotion, saying: "Who is this?" 11 The crowds kept telling: "This is the prophet[i] Jesus, from Naz'a·reth of Gal'i·lee!"

12 And Jesus entered into the temple and threw out all those selling and buying in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves.[j] 13 And he said to them: "It is written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer,'[k] but YOU are making it a cave of robbers."[l] 14 Also, blind and lame persons came up to him in the temple, and he cured them.

15 When the chief priests and the scribes saw the marvelous things he did[m] and the boys that were crying out in the temple and saying: "Save, we pray,[n] the Son of David!"[o] they became indignant 16 and said to him: "Do you hear what these are saying?" Jesus said to them: "Yes. Did YOU never read[p] this, 'Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings you have furnished praise'?"[q] 17 And leaving them behind he went outside the city to Beth'a·ny and passed the night there.[r]

18 While returning to the city early in the morning, he got hungry.[a] 19 And he caught sight of a fig tree by the road and went to it, but he found nothing[b] on it except leaves only, and he said to it: "Let no fruit come from you anymore forever."[c] And the fig tree withered instantly. 20 But when the disciples saw this, they wondered, saying: "How is it that the fig tree withered instantly?"[d] 21 In answer Jesus said to them: "Truly I say to YOU, If only YOU have faith and do not doubt,[e] not only will YOU do what I did to the fig tree, but also if YOU say to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and cast into the sea,' it will happen.[f] 22 And all the things YOU ask in prayer, having faith, YOU will receive."[g]

23 Now after he went into the temple, the chief priests and the older men of the people came up to him while he was teaching and said:[h] "By what authority do you do these things? And who gave you this authority?"[i] 24 In reply Jesus said to them: "I, also, will ask YOU one thing. If YOU tell it to me, I also will tell YOU by what authority I do these things:[j] 25 The baptism by John, from what source was it? From heaven or from men?"[k] But they began to reason among themselves, saying: "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why, then, did YOU not believe him?'[l] 26 If, though, we say, 'From men,' we have the crowd to fear,[m] for they all hold John as a prophet."[n] 27 So in answer to Jesus they said: "We do not know." He, in turn, said to them: "Neither am I telling YOU by what authority I do these things.[o]

28 "What do YOU think? A man had two children.[p] Going up to the first, he said, 'Child, go work today in the vineyard.' 29 In answer this one said, 'I will, sir,'[q] but did not go out. 30 Approaching the second, he said the same. In reply this one said, 'I will not.' Afterwards he felt regret[a] and went out. 31 Which of the two did the will of [his] father?"[b] They said: "The latter." Jesus said to them: "Truly I say to YOU that the tax collectors and the harlots are going ahead of YOU into the kingdom of God. 32 For John came to YOU in a way of righteousness,[c] but YOU did not believe him.[d] However, the tax collectors and the harlots believed him,[e] and YOU, although YOU saw [this], did not feel regret afterwards so as to believe him.

33 "Hear another illustration: There was a man, a householder,[f] who planted a vineyard and put a fence around it and dug a winepress in it and erected a tower,[g] and let it out to cultivators, and traveled abroad.[h] 34 When the season of the fruits came around, he dispatched his slaves to the cultivators to get his fruits. 35 However, the cultivators took his slaves, and one they beat up, another they killed, another they stoned.[i] 36 Again he dispatched other slaves, more than the first, but they did the same to these.[j] 37 Lastly he dispatched his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 38 On seeing the son the cultivators said among themselves, 'This is the heir;[k] come, let us kill him and get his inheritance!'[l] 39 So they took him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.[m] 40 Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those cultivators?" 41 They said to him: "Because they are evil, he will bring an evil destruction[n] upon them and will let out the vineyard to other cultivators, who will render him the fruits when they become due."[o]

42 Jesus said to them: "Did YOU never read in the Scriptures, 'The stone that the builders rejected[a] is the one that has become the chief cornerstone.[b] From Jehovah this has come to be, and it is marvelous in our eyes'? 43 This is why I say to YOU, The kingdom of God will be taken from YOU and be given to a nation producing its fruits.[c] 44 Also, the person falling upon this stone will be shattered. As for anyone upon whom it falls, it will pulverize him."[d]

45 Now when the chief priests and the Pharisees had heard his illustrations, they took note that he was speaking about them.[e] 46 But, although they were seeking to seize him, they feared the crowds, because these held him to be a prophet.[f]

22 In further reply Jesus again spoke to them with illustrations, saying:[g] 2 "The kingdom of the heavens has become like a man, a king, that made a marriage feast[h] for his son. 3 And he sent forth his slaves to call those invited to the marriage feast,[i] but they were unwilling to come.[j] 4 Again he sent forth other slaves,[k] saying, 'Tell those invited: "Look! I have prepared my dinner,[l] my bulls and fattened animals are slaughtered, and all things are ready. Come to the marriage feast."'[m] 5 But unconcerned they went off, one to his own field, another to his commercial business;[n] 6 but the rest, laying hold of his slaves, treated them insolently and killed them.[o]

7 "But the king grew wrathful, and sent his armies and destroyed those murderers and burned their city.[p] 8 Then he said to his slaves, 'The marriage feast indeed is ready, but those invited were not worthy.[q] 9 Therefore go to the roads leading out of the city, and anyone YOU find invite to the marriage feast.'[r] 10 Accordingly those slaves went out to the roads and gathered together all they found, both wicked and good;[a] and the room for the wedding ceremonies was filled with those reclining[b] at the table.

11 "When the king came in to inspect the guests he caught sight there of a man not clothed with a marriage garment.[c] 12 So he said to him, 'Fellow, how did you get in here not having on a marriage garment?'[d] He was rendered speechless. 13 Then the king said to his servants, 'Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the darkness outside. There is where [his] weeping and the gnashing of [his] teeth will be.'[e]

14 "For there are many invited, but few chosen."[f]

15 Then the Pharisees went their way and took counsel together in order to trap him in his speech.[g] 16 So they dispatched to him their disciples, together with party followers of Herod,[h] saying: "Teacher, we know you are truthful and teach the way of God in truth, and you do not care for anybody, for you do not look upon men's outward appearance.[i] 17 Tell us, therefore, What do you think? Is it lawful to pay head tax to Caesar or not?"[j] 18 But Jesus, knowing their wickedness, said: "Why do YOU put me to the test, hypocrites?[k] 19 Show me the head tax coin." They brought him a de·nar′i·us. 20 And he said to them: "Whose image and inscription is this?"[l] 21 They said: "Caesar's." Then he said to them: "Pay back, therefore, Caesar's things to Caesar, but God's things to God."[m] 22 Well, when they heard [that], they marveled, and leaving him they went off.[n]

23 On that day Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came up to him and asked him:[o] 24 "Teacher, Moses said, 'If any man dies without having children, his brother must take his wife in marriage and raise up offspring for his brother.'[a] 25 Now there were seven brothers with us; and the first married and deceased, and, not having offspring, he left his wife for his brother.[b] 26 It went the same way also with the second and the third, until through all seven.[c] 27 Last of all the woman died. 28 Consequently, in the resurrection, to which of the seven will she be wife? For they all got her."[d]

29 In reply Jesus said to them: "YOU are mistaken, because YOU know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God;[e] 30 for in the resurrection neither do men marry nor are women given in marriage,[f] but are as angels in heaven. 31 As regards the resurrection of the dead, did YOU not read what was spoken to YOU by God, saying,[g] 32 'I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob'?[h] He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living."[i] 33 On hearing [that], the crowds were astounded at his teaching.[j]

34 After the Pharisees heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they came together in one group. 35 And one of them, versed in the Law,[k] asked, testing him: 36 "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?"[l] 37 He said to him: "'You must love Jehovah your God with your whole heart and with your whole soul and with your whole mind.'[m] 38 This is the greatest and first commandment. 39 The second, like it, is this, 'You must love your neighbor as yourself.'[n] 40 On these two commandments the whole Law hangs, and the Prophets."[o]

41 Now while the Pharisees were gathered together Jesus asked them:[p] 42 "What do YOU think about the Christ? Whose son is he?" They said to him: "David's."[a] 43 He said to them: "How, then, is it that David by inspiration[b] calls him 'Lord,' saying, 44 'Jehovah said to my Lord: "Sit at my right hand until I put your enemies beneath your feet"'?[c] 45 If, therefore, David calls him 'Lord,' how is he his son?"[d] 46 And nobody was able to say a word in reply to him, nor did anyone dare from that day on to question him any further.[e]

23 Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples,[f] saying: 2 "The scribes[g] and the Pharisees have seated themselves in the seat of Moses.[h] 3 Therefore all the things they tell[i] YOU, do and observe, but do not do according to their deeds,[j] for they say but do not perform. 4 They bind up heavy loads and put them upon the shoulders of men,[k] but they themselves are not willing to budge them with their finger.[l] 5 All the works they do they do to be viewed by men;[m] for they broaden the [scripture-containing] cases[n] that they wear as safeguards, and enlarge the fringes[o] [of their garments]. 6 They like the most prominent place[p] at evening meals and the front seats in the synagogues,[q] 7 and the greetings[r] in the marketplaces and to be called Rabbi by men.[s] 8 But YOU, do not YOU be called Rabbi, for one is YOUR teacher,[t] whereas all YOU are brothers. 9 Moreover, do not call anyone YOUR father on earth, for one is YOUR Father,[u] the heavenly One. 10 Neither be called 'leaders,'[v] for YOUR Leader is one, the Christ. 11 But the greatest one among YOU must be YOUR minister.[w] 12 Whoever exalts himself will be humbled,[x] and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.[y]

13 "Woe to YOU, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because YOU shut up[a] the kingdom of the heavens before men; for YOU[b] yourselves do not go in, neither do YOU permit those on their way in to go in. 14 ——

15 "Woe to YOU, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites![c] because YOU traverse sea and dry land to make one proselyte, and when he becomes one YOU make him a subject for Ge·hen'na twice as much so as yourselves.

16 "Woe to YOU, blind guides,[d] who say, 'If anyone swears by the temple, it is nothing; but if anyone swears by the gold of the temple, he is under obligation.'[e] 17 Fools and blind ones! Which, in fact, is greater, the gold or the temple that has sanctified the gold?[f] 18 Also, 'If anyone swears by the altar, it is nothing; but if anyone swears by the gift on it, he is under obligation.' 19 Blind ones! Which, in fact, is greater, the gift or the altar[g] that sanctifies the gift? 20 Therefore he that swears by the altar is swearing by it and by all the things on it; 21 and he that swears by the temple is swearing by it and by him that is inhabiting it;[h] 22 and he that swears by heaven is swearing by the throne of God[i] and by him that is sitting on it.

23 "Woe to YOU, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because YOU give the tenth[j] of the mint and the dill and the cumin, but YOU have disregarded the weightier matters of the Law, namely, justice[k] and mercy[l] and faithfulness.[m] These things it was binding to do, yet not to disregard the other things. 24 Blind guides,[n] who strain out the gnat[o] but gulp down the camel![p]

25 "Woe to YOU, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because YOU cleanse the outside of the cup[q] and of the dish, but inside they are full of plunder[r] and immoderateness. 26 Blind[s] Pharisee, cleanse first the inside of the cup[a] and of the dish, that the outside of it also may become clean.

27 "Woe to YOU, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites![b] because YOU resemble whitewashed[c] graves, which outwardly indeed appear beautiful but inside are full of dead men's bones and of every sort of uncleanness. 28 In that way YOU also, outwardly indeed, appear righteous to men,[d] but inside YOU are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

29 "Woe to YOU, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites![e] because YOU build the graves of the prophets and decorate the memorial tombs of the righteous ones,[f] 30 and YOU say, 'If we were in the days of our forefathers, we would not be sharers with them in the blood of the prophets.'[g] 31 Therefore YOU are bearing witness against yourselves that YOU are sons of those who murdered the prophets.[h] 32 Well, then, fill up the measure[i] of YOUR forefathers.

33 "Serpents, offspring of vipers,[j] how are YOU to flee from the judgment of Ge·hen'na?[k] 34 For this reason, here I am sending[l] forth to YOU prophets and wise men and public instructors.[m] Some of them YOU will kill[n] and impale, and some of them YOU will scourge[o] in YOUR synagogues and persecute from city to city; 35 that there may come upon YOU all the righteous blood spilled on earth,[p] from the blood of righteous[q] Abel[r] to the blood of Zech·a·ri'ah son of Bar·a·chi'ah, whom YOU murdered between the sanctuary and the altar.[s] 36 Truly I say to YOU, All these things will come upon this generation.[t]

37 "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the killer of the prophets[u] and stoner[v] of those sent forth to her,[w]—how often I wanted to gather your children together, the way a hen gathers her chicks together under her wings![a] But YOU people did not want it.[b] 38 Look! YOUR house[c] is abandoned to YOU.[d] 39 For I say to YOU, YOU will by no means see me from henceforth until YOU say, 'Blessed is he that comes in Jehovah's name!'"[e]

24 Departing now, Jesus was on his way from the temple, but his disciples approached to show him the buildings of the temple.[f] 2 In response he said to them: "Do YOU not behold all these things? Truly I say to YOU, By no means will a stone be left here upon a stone and not be thrown down."[g]

3 While he was sitting upon the Mount of Olives, the disciples approached him privately, saying: "Tell us, When will these things be, and what will be the sign of your presence[h] and of the conclusion of the system of things?"[i]

4 And in answer Jesus said to them: "Look out that nobody misleads YOU;[j] 5 for many will come on the basis of my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will mislead many.[k] 6 YOU are going to hear of wars and reports of wars; see that YOU are not terrified. For these things must take place, but the end is not yet.[l]

7 "For nation will rise against nation[m] and kingdom against kingdom,[n] and there will be food shortages[o] and earthquakes[p] in one place after another. 8 All these things are a beginning of pangs of distress.

9 "Then people will deliver YOU up to tribulation[q] and will kill[r] YOU, and YOU will be objects of hatred[s] by all the nations on account of my name.[t] 10 Then, also, many will be stumbled[a] and will betray one another and will hate one another.[b] 11 And many false prophets[c] will arise and mislead many;[d] 12 and because of the increasing of lawlessness[e] the love of the greater number will cool off.[f] 13 But he that has endured[g] to the end is the one that will be saved.[h] 14 And this good news[i] of the kingdom[j] will be preached in all the inhabited earth for a witness to all the nations;[k] and then the end[l] will come.

15 "Therefore, when YOU catch sight of the disgusting thing[m] that causes desolation, as spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in a holy place,[n] (let the reader use discernment,) 16 then let those in Ju·de′a begin fleeing[o] to the mountains. 17 Let the man on the housetop not come down to take the goods out of his house; 18 and let the man in the field not return to the house to pick up his outer garment. 19 Woe to the pregnant women and those suckling a baby in those days![p] 20 Keep praying that YOUR flight may not occur in wintertime, nor on the sabbath day; 21 for then there will be great tribulation[q] such as has not occurred since the world's beginning until now,[r] no, nor will occur again. 22 In fact, unless those days were cut short, no flesh would be saved; but on account of the chosen ones[s] those days will be cut short.[t]

23 "Then if anyone says to YOU, 'Look! Here is the Christ,'[u] or, 'There!' do not believe it.[v] 24 For false Christs[w] and false prophets[x] will arise and will give great signs[y] and wonders so as to mislead, if possible, even the chosen ones.[z] 25 Look! I have forewarned YOU.[a] 26 Therefore, if people say to YOU, 'Look! He is in the wilderness,' do not go out; 'Look! He is in the inner chambers,' do not believe it.[a] 27 For just as the lightning[b] comes out of eastern parts and shines over to western parts, so the presence of the Son of man will be.[c] 28 Wherever the carcass is, there the eagles[d] will be gathered together.[e]

29 "Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened,[f] and the moon[g] will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.[h] 30 And then the sign of the Son of man[i] will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will beat themselves in lamentation,[j] and they will see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.[k] 31 And he will send forth his angels with a great trumpet sound,[l] and they will gather his chosen ones[m] together from the four winds,[n] from one extremity of the heavens to their other extremity.

32 "Now learn from the fig tree as an illustration this point: Just as soon as its young branch grows tender and it puts forth leaves, YOU know that summer is near.[o] 33 Likewise also YOU, when YOU see all these things, know that he is near at the doors.[p] 34 Truly I say to YOU that this generation[q] will by no means pass away until all these things occur. 35 Heaven and earth will pass away,[r] but my words will by no means pass away.[s]

36 "Concerning that day and hour[t] nobody knows, neither the angels of the heavens nor the Son, but only the Father.[u] 37 For just as the days of Noah[v] were, so the presence of the Son of man will be.[w] 38 For as they were in those days before the flood, eating and drinking, men marrying and women being given in marriage, until the day that Noah[a] entered into the ark;[b] 39 and they took no note until the flood came and swept them all away,[c] so the presence of the Son of man will be. 40 Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken along and the other be abandoned; 41 two women will be grinding at the hand mill:[d] one will be taken along and the other be abandoned.[e] 42 Keep on the watch, therefore, because YOU do not know on what day YOUR Lord is coming.[f]

43 "But know one thing, that if the householder had known in what watch the thief was coming,[g] he would have kept awake and not allowed his house to be broken into. 44 On this account YOU too prove yourselves ready,[h] because at an hour that YOU do not think to be it, the Son of man is coming.

45 "Who really is the faithful and discreet slave[i] whom his master appointed over his domestics, to give them their food at the proper time?[j] 46 Happy[k] is that slave if his master on arriving finds him doing so. 47 Truly I say to YOU, He will appoint him over all his belongings.[l]

48 "But if ever that evil slave should say in his heart,[m] 'My master is delaying,'[n] 49 and should start to beat his fellow slaves and should eat and drink with the confirmed drunkards, 50 the master of that slave will come on a day that he does not expect and in an hour[o] that he does not know, 51 and will punish him with the greatest severity[p] and will assign him his part with the hypocrites. There is where [his] weeping and the gnashing of [his] teeth will be.[q]

25 "Then the kingdom of the heavens will become like ten virgins that took their lamps[r] and went out to meet the bridegroom.[s] 2 Five of them were foolish,[t] and five were discreet.[a] 3 For the foolish took their lamps but took no oil with them, 4 whereas the discreet took oil in their receptacles with their lamps. 5 While the bridegroom was delaying, they all nodded and went to sleep.[b] 6 Right in the middle of the night there arose a cry,[c] 'Here is the bridegroom! Be on YOUR way out to meet him.' 7 Then all those virgins rose and put their lamps[d] in order. 8 The foolish said to the discreet, 'Give us some of YOUR oil,[e] because our lamps are about to go out.' 9 The discreet[f] answered with the words, 'Perhaps there may not be quite enough for us and YOU. Be on YOUR way, instead, to those who sell it and buy for yourselves.' 10 While they were going off to buy, the bridegroom arrived, and the virgins that were ready went in with him to the marriage feast;[g] and the door was shut. 11 Afterwards the rest of the virgins also came, saying, 'Sir, sir, open to us!'[h] 12 In answer he said, 'I tell YOU the truth, I do not know YOU.'[i]

13 "Keep on the watch,[j] therefore, because YOU know neither the day nor the hour.[k]

14 "For it is just as when a man,[l] about to travel abroad,[m] summoned slaves of his and committed to them his belongings.[n] 15 And to one he gave five talents, to another two, to still another one, to each one according to his own ability,[o] and he went abroad. 16 Immediately the one that received the five talents went his way and did business with them and gained five more.[p] 17 In the same way the one that received the two gained two more. 18 But the one that received just one went off, and dug in the ground and hid the silver money of his master.

19 "After a long time[q] the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them.[r]

20 So the one that had received five talents came forward and brought five additional talents, saying, 'Master, you committed five talents to me; see, I gained five talents more.'[a] 21 His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave![b] You were faithful[c] over a few things. I will appoint you over many things.[d] Enter into the joy[e] of your master.' 22 Next the one that had received the two talents came forward and said, 'Master, you committed to me two talents; see, I gained two talents more.'[f] 23 His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave! You were faithful over a few things. I will appoint you over many things.[g] Enter into the joy[h] of your master.'

24 "Finally the one that had received the one talent came forward[i] and said, 'Master, I knew you to be an exacting man, reaping where you did not sow and gathering where you did not winnow. 25 So I grew afraid[j] and went off and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' 26 In reply his master said to him, 'Wicked and sluggish slave, you knew, did you, that I reaped where I did not sow and gathered where I did not winnow? 27 Well, then, you ought to have deposited my silver monies with the bankers, and on my arrival I would be receiving what is mine with interest.[k]

28 "'Therefore TAKE away the talent from him and give it to him that has the ten talents.[l] 29 For to everyone that has, more will be given and he will have abundance; but as for him that does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.[m] 30 And throw the good-for-nothing slave out into the darkness outside. There is where [his] weeping and the gnashing of [his] teeth will be.'[n]

31 "When the Son of man[o] arrives in his glory, and all the angels with him,[a] then he will sit down on his glorious throne.[b] 32 And all the nations will be gathered before him,[c] and he will separate[d] people one from another,[e] just as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. 33 And he will put the sheep on his right[f] hand, but the goats on his left.[g]

34 "Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, YOU who have been blessed by my Father,[h] inherit[i] the kingdom[j] prepared for YOU from the founding of the world.[k] 35 For I became hungry and YOU gave me something to eat;[l] I got thirsty and YOU gave me something to drink. I was a stranger and YOU received me hospitably;[m] 36 naked,[n] and YOU clothed me. I fell sick and YOU looked after me. I was in prison[o] and YOU came to me.' 37 Then the righteous ones will answer him with the words, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty,[p] and give you something to drink?[q] 38 When did we see you a stranger and receive you hospitably, or naked, and clothe you? 39 When did we see you sick or in prison and go to you?' 40 And in reply the king[r] will say to them, 'Truly I say to YOU, To the extent that YOU did it to one of the least[s] of these my brothers,[t] YOU did it to me.'[u]

41 "Then he will say, in turn, to those on his left, 'Be on YOUR way from me,[v] YOU who have been cursed, into the everlasting fire[w] prepared for the Devil and his angels.[x] 42 For I became hungry, but YOU gave me nothing to eat,[y] and I got thirsty,[z] but YOU gave me nothing to drink. 43 I was a stranger, but YOU did not receive me hospitably; naked, but YOU did not clothe[a] me; sick and in prison,[b] but YOU did not look after me.' 44 Then they also will answer with the words, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison and did not minister to you?' 45 Then he will answer them with the words, 'Truly I say to YOU, To the extent that YOU did not do it to one of these least ones,[a] YOU did not do[b] it to me.'[c] 46 And these will depart into everlasting cutting-off,[d] but the righteous ones into everlasting life."[e]

26 Now when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said to his disciples: 2 "YOU know that two days from now the passover occurs,[f] and the Son of man is to be delivered up to be impaled."[g]

3 Then the chief priests and the older men of the people gathered together in the courtyard of the high priest who was called Ca'ia·phas,[h] 4 and took counsel[i] together to seize Jesus by crafty device and kill him. 5 However, they kept saying: "Not at the festival, in order that no uproar may arise among the people."[j]

6 While Jesus happened to be in Beth'a·ny[k] in the house of Simon the leper,[l] 7 a woman with an alabaster case of costly perfumed oil[m] approached him, and she began pouring it upon his head as he was reclining at the table. 8 On seeing this the disciples became indignant and said: "Why this waste?[n] 9 For this could have been sold for a great deal and been given to poor[o] people." 10 Aware of this,[p] Jesus said to them: "Why do YOU try to make trouble for the woman? For she did a fine deed toward me.[q] 11 For YOU always have the poor[r] with YOU, but YOU will not always have me.[s] 12 For when this woman put this perfumed oil upon my body, she did it for the preparation of me for burial.[t] 13 Truly I say to YOU, Wherever this good news is preached in all the world, what this woman did shall also be told as a remembrance of her."[a]

14 Then one of the twelve, the one called Judas Is·car'i·ot,[b] went to the chief priests 15 and said: "What will YOU give me to betray him to YOU?"[c] They stipulated to him thirty silver pieces.[d] 16 So from then on he kept seeking a good opportunity to betray him.[e]

17 On the first day of the unfermented cakes[f] the disciples came up to Jesus, saying: "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the passover?"[g] 18 He said: "Go into the city to So-and-so[h] and say to him, The Teacher says, 'My appointed time is near; I will celebrate the passover with my disciples at your home.'"[i] 19 And the disciples did as Jesus ordered them, and they got things ready for the passover.[j]

20 When, now, it had become evening,[k] he was reclining at the table with the twelve disciples.[l] 21 While they were eating, he said: "Truly I say to YOU, One of YOU will betray me."[m] 22 Being very much grieved at this, they commenced each and every one to say to him: "Lord, it is not I, is it?"[n] 23 In reply he said: "He that dips his hand with me in the bowl is the one that will betray me.[o] 24 True, the Son of man is going away, just as it is written[p] concerning him, but woe[q] to that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed![r] It would have been finer for him if that man had not been born." 25 By way of reply Judas, who was about to betray him, said: "It is not I, is it, Rabbi?" He said to him: "You yourself said [it]."

26 As they continued eating, Jesus took a loaf[s] and, after saying a blessing, he broke it[t] and, giving it to the disciples, he said: "TAKE, eat. This means my body."[a] 27 Also, he took a cup[b] and, having given thanks, he gave it to them, saying: "Drink out of it, all of YOU;[c] 28 for this means[d] my 'blood[e] of the covenant,'[f] which is to be poured out in behalf of many[g] for forgiveness of sins.[h] 29 But I tell YOU, I will by no means drink henceforth any of this product of the vine until that day when I drink it new with YOU in the kingdom of my Father."[i] 30 Finally, after singing praises,[j] they went out to the Mount of Olives.[k]

31 Then Jesus said to them: "All of YOU will be stumbled in connection with me on this night, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered about.'[l] 32 But after I have been raised up, I will go ahead of YOU into Gal'i·lee."[m] 33 But Peter, in answer, said to him: "Although all the others are stumbled in connection with you, never will I be stumbled!"[n] 34 Jesus said to him: "Truly I say to you, On this night, before a cock crows, you will disown me three times."[o] 35 Peter said to him: "Even if I should have to die with you, I will by no means disown you." All the other disciples also said the same thing.[p]

36 Then Jesus came with them to the spot[q] called Geth·sem'a·ne, and he said to the disciples: "Sit down here while I go over there and pray."[r] 37 And taking along Peter and the two sons[s] of Zeb'e·dee, he started to be grieved and to be sorely troubled.[t] 38 Then he said to them: "My soul is deeply grieved, even to death.[u] Stay here and keep on the watch with me."[v] 39 And going a little way forward, he fell upon his face, praying[w] and saying: "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup[x] pass away from me. Yet, not as I will,[y] but as you will."[z]

40 And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter: "Could YOU men not so much as watch one hour with me?[a] 41 Keep on the watch[b] and pray[c] continually, that YOU may not enter into temptation.[d] The spirit, of course, is eager, but the flesh is weak."[e] 42 Again, for the second time,[f] he went off and prayed, saying: "My Father, if it is not possible for this to pass away except I drink it, let your will take place."[g] 43 And he came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.[h] 44 So leaving them, he again went off and prayed for the third time,[i] saying once more the same word. 45 Then he came to the disciples and said to them: "At such a time as this YOU are sleeping and taking YOUR rest! Look! The hour has drawn near for the Son of man to be betrayed into the hands of sinners.[j] 46 Get up, let us go. Look! My betrayer has drawn near."[k] 47 And while he was yet speaking, look! Judas,[l] one of the twelve, came and with him a great crowd with swords[m] and clubs from the chief priests and older men of the people.[n]

48 Now his betrayer had given them a sign, saying: "Whoever it is I kiss, this is he; take him into custody."[o] 49 And going straight up to Jesus he said: "Good day, Rabbi!"[p] and kissed[q] him very tenderly. 50 But Jesus[r] said to him: "Fellow, for what purpose are you present?" Then they came forward and laid hands on Jesus and took him into custody.[s] 51 But, look! one of those with Jesus reached out his hand and drew his sword and struck the slave of the high priest and took off his ear.[t] 52 Then Jesus said to him: "Return your sword to its place,[u] for all those who take the sword will perish by the sword.[a] 53 Or do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father to supply me at this moment more than twelve legions of angels?[b] 54 In that case, how would the Scriptures be fulfilled that it must take place this way?" 55 In that hour Jesus said to the crowds: "Have YOU come out with swords and clubs as against a robber to arrest me?[c] Day after day I used to sit in the temple[d] teaching, and yet YOU did not take me into custody. 56 But all this has taken place for the scriptures of the prophets to be fulfilled."[e] Then all the disciples abandoned him and fled.[f]

57 Those who took Jesus into custody led him away to Ca'ia·phas[g] the high priest, where the scribes and the older men were gathered together.[h] 58 But Peter kept following him at a good distance, as far as the courtyard[i] of the high priest, and, after going inside, he was sitting with the house attendants to see the outcome.[j]

59 Meantime the chief priests and the entire San'he·drin were looking for false witness against Jesus in order to put him to death,[k] 60 but they found none, although many false witnesses came forward.[l] Later on two came forward 61 and said: "This man said, 'I am able to throw down the temple of God and build it up in three days.'"[m] 62 With that the high priest stood up and said to him: "Have you no answer? What is it these are testifying against you?"[n] 63 But Jesus kept silent.[o] So the high priest said to him: "By the living God I put you under oath[p] to tell us whether you are the Christ[q] the Son of God!" 64 Jesus said[r] to him: "You yourself said [it].[s] Yet I say to YOU men, From henceforth[t] YOU will see the Son of man[u] sitting at the right hand[v] of power and coming on the clouds of heaven."[a] 65 Then the high priest ripped his outer garments, saying: "He has blasphemed![b] What further need do we have of witnesses?[c] See! Now YOU have heard the blasphemy.[d] 66 What is YOUR opinion?" They returned answer: "He is liable to death."[e] 67 Then they spit into his face[f] and hit[g] him with their fists. Others slapped him in the face,[h] 68 saying: "Prophesy to us, you Christ.[i] Who is it that struck you?"[j]

69 Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard; and a servant girl came up to him, saying: "You, too, were with Jesus the Gal·i·le'an!"[k] 70 But he denied it before them all, saying: "I do not know what you are talking about." 71 After he had gone out to the gatehouse, another girl noticed him and said to those there: "This man was with Jesus the Naz·a·rene'."[l] 72 And again he denied it, with an oath: "I do not know the man!"[m] 73 After a little while those standing around came up and said to Peter: "Certainly you also are one of them, for, in fact, your dialect gives you away."[n] 74 Then he started to curse and swear: "I do not know the man!" And immediately a cock crowed.[o] 75 And Peter called to mind the saying Jesus spoke, namely: "Before a cock crows, you will disown me three times."[p] And he went outside and wept bitterly.[q]

27 When it had become morning, all the chief priests and the older men of the people held a consultation against Jesus so as to put him to death.[r] 2 And, after binding him, they led him off and handed him over to Pilate the governor.[s]

been condemned, felt remorse and turned the thirty[a] silver pieces back to the chief priests and older men, 4 saying: "I sinned when I betrayed righteous blood."[b] They said: "What is that to us? You must see to that!"[c] 5 So he threw the silver pieces into the temple and withdrew, and went off and hanged himself.[d] 6 But the chief priests took the silver pieces and said: "It is not lawful to drop them into the sacred treasury, because they are the price of blood." 7 After consulting together, they bought with them the potter's field to bury strangers. 8 Therefore that field has been called "Field of Blood"[e] to this very day. 9 Then what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying: "And they took the thirty silver pieces,[f] the price upon the man that was priced, the one on whom some of the sons of Israel set a price, 10 and they gave them for the potter's[g] field, according to what Jehovah had commanded me."

11 Jesus now stood before the governor; and the governor put the question to him: "Are you the king of the Jews?"[h] Jesus replied: "You yourself say [it]."[i] 12 But, while he was being accused[j] by the chief priests and older men, he made no answer.[k] 13 Then Pilate said to him: "Do you not hear how many things they are testifying against you?"[l] 14 Yet he did not answer him, no, not a word, so that the governor wondered very much.[m]

15 Now from festival to festival it was the custom of the governor to release a prisoner to the crowd, the one they wanted.[n] 16 Just at that time they were holding a notorious prisoner called Bar·ab′bas.[o] 17 Hence when they were gathered together Pilate said to them: "Which one do YOU want me to release to YOU, Bar·ab′bas or Jesus the so-called Christ?"[a] 18 For he was aware that out of envy[b] they had handed him over.[c] 19 Moreover, while he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent out to him, saying: "Have nothing to do with that righteous[d] man, for I suffered a lot today in a dream[e] because of him." 20 But the chief priests and the older men persuaded the crowds to ask for Bar·ab′bas,[f] but to have Jesus destroyed. 21 Now in responding the governor said to them: "Which of the two do YOU want me to release to YOU?" They said: "Bar·ab′bas."[g] 22 Pilate said to them: "What, then, shall I do with Jesus the so-called Christ?" They all said: "Let him be impaled!"[h] 23 He said: "Why, what bad thing did he do?" Still they kept crying out all the more: "Let him be impaled!"[i]

24 Seeing that it did no good but, rather, an uproar was arising, Pilate took water[j] and washed his hands before the crowd, saying: "I am innocent of the blood of this [man]. YOU yourselves must see to it." 25 At that all the people said in answer: "His blood come upon us and upon our children."[k] 26 Then he released Bar·ab′bas to them, but he had Jesus whipped[l] and handed him over to be impaled.[m]

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the governor's palace and gathered the whole body of troops together to him.[n] 28 And disrobing him, they draped him with a scarlet cloak,[o] 29 and they braided a crown out of thorns and put it on his head and a reed in his right hand. And, kneeling before him, they made fun[p] of him, saying: "Good day, you King of the Jews!"[q] 30 And they spit[r] upon him and took the reed and began hitting him upon his head. 31 Finally, when they had made fun[s] of him, they took the cloak off and put his outer garments upon him and led him off for impaling.[a]

32 As they were going out they found a native of Cy·re′ne named Simon.[b] This man they impressed into service to lift up his torture stake. 33 And when they came to a place called Gol′go·tha,[c] that is to say, Skull Place, 34 they gave him wine mixed with gall[d] to drink; but, after tasting it, he refused to drink.[e] 35 When they had impaled[f] him they distributed his outer garments[g] by casting lots,[h] 36 and, as they sat, they watched over him there. 37 Also, they posted above his head the charge against him, in writing: "This is Jesus the King of the Jews."[i]

38 Then two robbers were impaled with him, one on his right and one on his left.[j] 39 So the passersby began speaking abusively[k] of him, wagging[l] their heads 40 and saying: "O you would-be thrower-down of the temple[m] and builder of it in three days, save yourself! If you are a son of God, come down off the torture stake!"[n] 41 In like manner also the chief priests with the scribes and older men began making fun of him and saying:[o] 42 "Others he saved; himself he cannot save! He is King[p] of Israel; let him now come down off the torture stake and we will believe on him.[q] 43 He has put his trust in God; let Him now rescue[r] him if He wants him, for he said, 'I am God's Son.'"[s] 44 In the same way even the robbers that were impaled together with him began reproaching him.[t]

45 From the sixth hour on a darkness fell[u] over all the land, until the ninth hour.[v] 46 About the ninth hour Jesus called out with a loud voice, saying: "E′li, E′li, la′ma sa·bach·tha′ni?" that is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"[w] 47 At hearing this, some of those standing there began to say: "This man is calling E·li′jah."[a] 48 And immediately one of them ran and took a sponge and soaked it with sour[b] wine and put it on a reed and went giving him a drink.[c] 49 But the rest of them said: "Let him be! Let us see whether E·li′jah comes to save him."[d] [[Another man took a spear and pierced his side, and blood and water came out.]][e] 50 Again Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and yielded up [his] spirit.[f]

51 And, look! the curtain[g] of the sanctuary was rent in two, from top to bottom,[h] and the earth quaked, and the rock-masses were split.[i] 52 And the memorial tombs were opened and many bodies of the holy ones that had fallen asleep were raised up, 53 (and persons, coming out from among the memorial tombs after his being raised up, entered into the holy city,)[j] and they became visible to many people. 54 But the army officer and those with him watching over Jesus, when they saw the earthquake and the things happening, grew very much afraid, saying: "Certainly this was God's Son."[k]

55 Moreover, many women were there viewing from a distance,[l] who had accompanied Jesus from Gal′i·lee to minister to him;[m] 56 among whom was Mary Mag′da·lene, also Mary the mother of James and Jo′ses, and the mother of the sons of Zeb′e·dee.[n]

57 Now as it was late in the afternoon, there came a rich man of Ar·i·ma·the′a, named Joseph, who had also himself become a disciple of Jesus.[o] 58 This man went up to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.[p] Then Pilate commanded it to be given over.[q] 59 And Joseph took the body, wrapped it up in clean fine linen,[r] 60 and laid it in his new memorial tomb,[a] which he had quarried in the rock-mass. And, after rolling a big stone to the door of the memorial tomb, he left.[b] 61 But Mary Mag′da·lene and the other Mary continued there, sitting before the grave.[c]

62 The next day, which was after the Preparation,[d] the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered together before Pilate, 63 saying: "Sir, we have called to mind that that impostor said while yet alive, 'After three days[e] I am to be raised up.' 64 Therefore command the grave to be made secure until the third day, that his disciples may never come and steal[f] him and say to the people, 'He was raised up from the dead!' and this last imposture will be worse than the first." 65 Pilate said to them: "You have a guard.[g] Go make it as secure as YOU know how." 66 So they went and made the grave secure by sealing the stone[h] and having the guard.

28 After the sabbath, when it was growing light on the first day of the week, Mary Mag′da·lene and the other Mary came to view the grave.[i]

2 And, notice! a great earthquake had taken place; for Jehovah's angel had descended from heaven and approached and rolled away the stone, and was sitting on it.[j] 3 His outward appearance was as lightning,[k] and his clothing as white as snow.[l] 4 Yes, for fear of him the watchmen trembled and became as dead men.

5 But the angel[m] in answer said to the women: "Do not YOU be fearful, for I know YOU are looking for Jesus[n] who was impaled. 6 He is not here, for he was raised up,[o] as he said. Come, see the place where he was lying. 7 And go quickly and tell his disciples that he was raised[p] up from the dead, and, look! he is going ahead of

YOU into Gal′i·lee;[a] there YOU will see him. Look! I have told YOU."[b]

8 So, quickly leaving the memorial tomb, with fear and great joy, they ran to report to his disciples.[c] 9 And, look! Jesus met them and said: "Good day!" They approached and caught him by his feet and did obeisance to him. 10 Then Jesus said to them: "Have no fear! Go, report to my brothers,[d] that they may go off into Gal′i·lee; and there they will see me."

11 While they were on their way, look! some of the guard[e] went into the city and reported to the chief priests all the things that had happened. 12 And after these had gathered together with the older men and taken counsel, they gave a sufficient number of silver pieces to the soldiers[f] 13 and said: "Say, 'His disciples[g] came in the night and stole him while we were sleeping.' 14 And if this gets to the governor's ears, we will persuade [him] and will set YOU free from worry." 15 So they took the silver pieces and did as they were instructed; and this saying has been spread abroad among the Jews up to this very day.

16 However, the eleven disciples went into Gal′i·lee[h] to the mountain where Jesus had arranged for them, 17 and when they saw him they did obeisance, but some doubted.[i] 18 And Jesus approached and spoke to them, saying: "All authority[j] has been given me in heaven and on the earth. 19 Go therefore and make disciples[k] of people of all the nations,[l] baptizing[m] them in the name of the Father[n] and of the Son[o] and of the holy spirit,[p] 20 teaching[q] them to observe[r] all the things I have commanded YOU.[s] And, look! I am with YOU[t] all the days until the conclusion of the system of things."[u]

ACCORDING TO

MARK

1 [The] beginning of the good news about Jesus Christ: 2 Just as it is written in Isaiah the prophet: "(Look! I am sending forth my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way;)[a] 3 listen! someone is crying out in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way of Jehovah, YOU people, make his roads straight,'"[b] 4 John the baptizer turned up in the wilderness, preaching baptism [in symbol] of repentance for forgiveness of sins.[c] 5 Consequently all the territory of Ju·de′a and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem made their way out to him, and they were baptized by him in the Jordan River, openly confessing their sins.[d] 6 Now John was clothed with camel's hair and with a leather girdle around his loins,[e] and was eating insect locusts[f] and wild honey.[g] 7 And he would preach, saying: "After me someone stronger than I am is coming; I am not fit to stoop and untie the laces of his sandals.[h] 8 I baptized YOU with water, but he will baptize YOU with holy spirit."[i]

9 In the course of those days Jesus came from Naz′a·reth of Gal′i·lee and was baptized in the Jordan by John.[j] 10 And immediately on coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being parted, and, like a dove, the spirit coming down upon him;[k] 11 and a voice came out of the heavens: "You are my Son, the beloved; I have approved you."[l]

12 And immediately the spirit impelled him to go into the wilderness.[m] 13 So he continued in the wilderness forty days,[n] being tempted by

Satan,[a] and he was with the wild beasts, but the angels were ministering to him.[b]

14 Now after John was put under arrest Jesus went into Gal′i·lee,[c] preaching the good news of God[d] 15 and saying: "The appointed time has been fulfilled,[e] and the kingdom of God has drawn near. Be repentant,[f] YOU people, and have faith in the good news."

16 While walking alongside the sea of Gal′i·lee he saw Simon[g] and Andrew the brother of Simon casting [their nets] about in the sea, for they were fishers.[h] 17 So Jesus said to them: "Come after me, and I shall cause YOU to become fishers of men."[i] 18 And at once they abandoned their nets and followed him.[j] 19 And after going a little farther he saw James the [son] of Zeb′e·dee and John his brother, in fact, while they were in their boat mending their nets;[k] 20 and without delay he called them. In turn they left their father Zeb′e·dee in the boat with the hired men and went off after him. 21 And they went their way into Ca·per′na·um.[l]

No sooner was it the sabbath than he entered into the synagogue and began to teach. 22 And they became astounded at his way of teaching,[m] for there he was teaching them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.[n] 23 Also, at that immediate time there was in their synagogue a man under the power of an unclean spirit, and he shouted,[o] 24 saying: "What have we to do with you, Jesus you Naz·a·rene′?[p] Did you come to destroy us? I know[q] exactly who you are, the Holy

One[a] of God."[b] 25 But Jesus rebuked it, saying: "Be silent, and come on out of him!"[c] 26 And the unclean spirit, after throwing him into a convulsion and yelling at the top of its voice, came on out of him.[d] 27 Well, the people were all so astonished that they began a discussion among themselves, saying: "What is this? A new teaching! He authoritatively orders even the unclean spirits, and they obey him."[e] 28 So the report about him spread out immediately in all directions through all the country round about in Gal′i·lee.[f]

29 And immediately they went out of the synagogue and went into the home of Simon[g] and Andrew with James and John. 30 Now Simon's mother-in-law[h] was lying down sick with a fever,[i] and they at once told him about her. 31 And going to her he raised her up, taking her by the hand; and the fever left her,[j] and she began ministering to them.[k]

32 After evening had fallen, when the sun had set, the people began bringing him all those who were ill[l] and those demon-possessed;[m] 33 and the whole city was gathered right at the door. 34 So he cured many that were ill with various sicknesses,[n] and he expelled many demons, but he would not let the demons speak, because they knew him to be Christ.[o]

35 And early in the morning, while it was still dark, he rose up and went outside and left for a lonely place,[p] and there he began praying.[q] 36 However, Simon and those with him hunted him down 37 and found him, and they said to him: "All are looking for you." 38 But he said to them: "Let us go somewhere else, into the village towns nearby, that I may preach[r] there also, for it is for this purpose I have gone out."[s] 39 And he did go, preaching in their synagogues throughout the whole of Gal′i·lee and expelling the demons.[a]

40 There also came to him a leper, entreating him even on bended knee, saying to him: "If you just want to, you can make me clean."[b] 41 At that he was moved with pity,[c] and he stretched out his hand and touched him, and said to him: "I want to. Be made clean."[d] 42 And immediately the leprosy vanished from him, and he became clean.[e] 43 Furthermore, he gave him strict orders and at once sent him away, 44 and said to him: "See that you tell nobody a thing, but go show yourself to the priest[f] and offer in behalf of your cleansing the things Moses directed,[g] for a witness to them."[h] 45 But after going away the man started to proclaim it a great deal and to spread the account abroad, so that [Jesus] was no longer able to enter openly into a city, but he continued outside in lonely places. Yet they kept coming to him from all sides.[i]

2 However, after some days he again entered into Ca·per′na·um and he was reported to be at home.[j] 2 Consequently many gathered, so much so that there was no more room, not even about the door, and he began to speak the word[k] to them. 3 And men came bringing him a paralytic carried by four.[l] 4 But not being able to bring him right to [Jesus] on account of the crowd, they removed the roof over where he was, and having dug an opening they lowered the cot on which the paralytic was lying.[m] 5 And when Jesus saw their faith[n] he said to the paralytic: "Child, your sins are forgiven."[o] 6 Now there were some of the scribes there, sitting and reasoning in their hearts:[p] 7 "Why is this man talking in this manner? He is blaspheming. Who can forgive sins except one, God?"[a]

8 But Jesus, having discerned immediately by his spirit that they were reasoning that way in themselves, said to them: "Why are YOU reasoning these things in YOUR hearts?[b] 9 Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and pick up your cot and walk'?[c] 10 But in order for YOU men to know that the Son of man[d] has authority to forgive sins upon the earth,"[e]—he said to the paralytic: 11 "I say to you, Get up, pick up your cot, and go to your home."[f] 12 At that he did get up, and immediately picked up his cot and walked out in front of them all,[g] so that they were all simply carried away, and they glorified God, saying: "We never saw the like of it."[h]

13 Again he went out beside the sea; and all the crowd kept coming to him, and he began to teach them. 14 But as he was passing along, he caught sight of Le′vi[i] the [son] of Al·phae′us sitting at the tax office, and he said to him: "Be my follower." And rising up he followed him.[j] 15 Later he happened to be reclining at the table in his house, and many tax collectors[k] and sinners were reclining with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many of them and they began following him.[l] 16 But the scribes of the Pharisees, when they saw he was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, began saying to his disciples: "Does he eat with the tax collectors and sinners?"[m] 17 Upon hearing this Jesus said to them: "Those who are strong do not need a physician, but those who are ill do. I came to call, not righteous people, but sinners."[n]

18 Now John's disciples and the Pharisees practiced fasting. So they came and said to him: "Why is it the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees practice fasting, but your disciples do not practice fasting?"[a] 19 And Jesus said to them: "While the bridegroom is with them the friends of the bridegroom cannot fast,[b] can they? As long as they have the bridegroom with them they cannot fast.[c] 20 But days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in that day.[d] 21 Nobody sews a patch of unshrunk cloth upon an old outer garment; if he does, its full strength pulls from it, the new from the old, and the tear becomes worse.[e] 22 Also, nobody puts new wine into old wineskins; if he does, the wine bursts the skins, and the wine is lost as well as the skins.[f] But people put new wine into new wineskins."[g]

23 Now it happened that he was proceeding through the grainfields on the sabbath, and his disciples started to make their way plucking[h] the heads of grain.[i] 24 So the Pharisees went saying to him: "Look here! Why are they doing on the sabbath what is not lawful?"[j] 25 But he said to them: "Have YOU never once read what David[k] did when he fell in need and got hungry, he and the men with him?[l] 26 How he entered into the house of God, in the account about A·bi′a·thar[m] the chief priest, and ate the loaves of presentation,[n] which it is not lawful[o] for anybody to eat except the priests, and he gave some also to the men who were with him?"[p] 27 So he went on to say to them: "The sabbath came into existence for the sake of man,[q] and not man for the sake of the sabbath;[r] 28 hence the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath."[s]

3 Once again he entered into a synagogue, and a man was there with a dried-up hand.[t] 2 So they were watching him closely to see whether he would cure the man on the sabbath, in order that they might accuse him.[a] 3 And he said to the man with the withered hand: "Get up [and come] to the center." 4 Next he said to them: "Is it lawful on the sabbath to do a good deed or to do a bad deed, to save or to kill a soul?"[b] But they kept silent. 5 And after looking around upon them with indignation, being thoroughly grieved at the insensibility of their hearts,[c] he said to the man: "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored.[d] 6 At that the Pharisees went out and immediately began holding council with the party followers of Herod[e] against him, in order to destroy him.[f]

7 But Jesus with his disciples withdrew to the sea; and a great multitude from Gal'i·lee and from Ju·de'a followed him.[g] 8 Even from Jerusalem and from Id·u·me'a and from across the Jordan and around Tyre[h] and Si'don, a great multitude, on hearing of how many things he was doing, came to him. 9 And he told his disciples to have a little boat continually at his service so that the crowd might not press upon him. 10 For he cured many, with the result that all those who had grievous diseases were falling upon him to touch him.[i] 11 Even the unclean spirits,[j] whenever they would behold him, would prostrate themselves before him and cry out, saying: "You are the Son of God."[k] 12 But many times he sternly charged them not to make him known.[l]

13 And he ascended a mountain and summoned those he wanted,[m] and they went off to him.[n] 14 And he formed [a group of] twelve, whom he also named "apostles," that they might continue with him and that he might send them out to preach[a] 15 and to have authority to expel the demons.[b]

16 And the [group of] twelve that he formed were Simon, to whom he also gave the surname Peter,[c] 17 and James the [son] of Zeb'e·dee and John the brother of James[d] (he also gave these the surname Bo·a·ner'ges, which means Sons of Thunder), 18 and Andrew and Philip and Bar·thol'o·mew and Matthew and Thomas and James the [son] of Al·phae'us and Thad·dae'us and Simon the Ca·na·nae'an 19 and Judas Is·car'i·ot, who later betrayed him.[e]

And he went into a house. 20 Once more the crowd gathered, so that they were not able even to eat a meal.[f] 21 But when his relatives[g] heard about it, they went out to lay hold of him, for they were saying: "He has gone out of his mind."[h] 22 Also, the scribes that came down from Jerusalem were saying: "He has Be·el'ze·bub, and he expels the demons by means of the ruler of the demons."[i] 23 So, after calling them to him, he began to say to them with illustrations: "How can Satan expel Satan? 24 Why, if a kingdom becomes divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand;[j] 25 and if a house becomes divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.[k] 26 Also, if Satan has risen up against himself and become divided, he cannot stand, but is coming to an end.[l] 27 In fact, no one that has got into the house of a strong man is able to plunder[m] his movable goods unless first he binds the strong man, and then he will plunder his house.[n] 28 Truly I say to you that all things will be forgiven the sons of men, no matter what sins and blasphemies they blasphemously commit.[o] 29 However, whoever blasphemes against the holy spirit has no forgiveness forever, but is guilty of everlasting sin."[a] 30 This, because they were saying: "He has an unclean spirit."[b]

31 Now his mother and his brothers[c] came, and, as they were standing on the outside, they sent in to him to call him.[d] 32 As it was, a crowd was sitting around him, so they said to him: "Look! Your mother and your brothers outside are seeking you."[e] 33 But in reply he said to them: "Who are my mother and my brothers?"[f] 34 And having looked about upon those sitting around him in a circle, he said: "See, my mother and my brothers![g] 35 Whoever does the will of God, this one is my brother and sister and mother."[h]

4 And he again started teaching beside the sea.[i] And a very great crowd gathered near him, so that he went aboard a boat and sat out on the sea, but all the crowd beside the sea were on the shore.[j] 2 So he began to teach them many things with illustrations[k] and to say to them in his teaching:[l] 3 "Listen. Look! The sower went out to sow.[m] 4 And as he was sowing, some [seed] fell alongside the road, and the birds came and ate it up.[n] 5 And other [seed] fell upon the rocky place where it, of course, did not have much soil, and it immediately sprang up because of not having depth of soil.[o] 6 But when the sun rose, it was scorched, and for not having root it withered.[p] 7 And other [seed] fell among the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.[q] 8 But others fell upon the fine soil,[r] and, coming up and increasing, they began to yield fruit, and they were bearing thirtyfold, and sixty and a hundred."[s] 9 So he added the word: "Let him that has ears to listen listen."[t]

10 Now when he got to be alone, those around him with the twelve began questioning him on the illustrations.[a] 11 And he proceeded to say to them: "To you the sacred secret[b] of the kingdom of God has been given, but to those outside all things occur in illustrations,[c] 12 in order that, though looking, they may look and yet not see, and, though hearing, they may hear and yet not get the sense of it, nor ever turn back and forgiveness be given them."[d] 13 Further, he said to them: "You do not know this illustration, and so how will you understand all the other illustrations?

14 "The sower sows the word.[e] 15 These, then, are the ones alongside the road where the word is sown; but as soon as they have heard [it] Satan comes[f] and takes away the word that was sown in them.[g] 16 And likewise these are the ones sown upon the rocky places: as soon as they have heard the word, they accept it with joy.[h] 17 Yet they have no root in themselves, but they continue for a time; then as soon as tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, they are stumbled.[i] 18 There are still others who are sown among the thorns; these are the ones that have heard the word,[j] 19 but the anxieties[k] of this system of things and the deceptive power of riches[l] and the desires[m] for the rest of the things make inroads and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.[n] 20 Finally, the ones that were sown on the fine soil are those who listen to the word and favorably receive it and bear fruit thirtyfold and sixty and a hundred."[o]

21 And he went on to say to them: "A lamp is not brought to be put under a measuring basket or under a bed, is it? It is brought to be put upon a lampstand, is it not?[a] 22 For there is nothing hidden except for the purpose of being exposed; nothing has become carefully concealed but for the purpose of coming into the open.[b] 23 Whoever has ears to listen, let him listen."[c]

24 He further said to them: "Pay attention to what YOU are hearing.[d] With the measure that YOU are measuring out, YOU will have it measured out to YOU,[e] yes, YOU will have more added to YOU.[f] 25 For he that has will have more given to him; but he that does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him."[g]

26 So he went on to say: "In this way the kingdom of God is just as when a man casts the seed upon the ground,[h] 27 and he sleeps at night and rises up by day, and the seed sprouts and grows tall, just how he does not know.[i] 28 Of its own self the ground bears fruit gradually, first the grass-blade, then the stalk head, finally the full grain in the head. 29 But as soon as the fruit permits it, he thrusts in the sickle, because the harvesttime has come."

30 And he went on to say: "With what are we to liken the kingdom of God, or in what illustration shall we set it out?[j] 31 Like a mustard grain, which at the time it was sown in the ground was the tiniest of all the seeds that are on the earth[k]— 32 but when it has been sown, it comes up and becomes greater than all other vegetables and produces great branches,[l] so that the birds of the heaven[m] are able to find lodging under its shadow."[n]

33 So with many illustrations[o] of that sort he would speak the word to them, as far as they were able to listen. 34 Indeed, without an illustration he would not speak to them, but privately to his disciples he would explain all things.[a]

35 And on that day, when evening had fallen, he said to them: "Let us cross to the other shore."[b] 36 So, after they had dismissed the crowd, they took him in the boat, just as he was, and there were other boats with him.[c] 37 Now a great violent windstorm broke out, and the waves kept dashing into the boat, so that the boat was close to being swamped.[d] 38 But he was in the stern, sleeping upon a pillow. So they woke him up and said to him: "Teacher, do you not care that we are about to perish?"[e] 39 With that he roused himself and rebuked the wind and said to the sea: "Hush! Be quiet!"[f] And the wind abated, and a great calm set in.[g] 40 So he said to them: "Why are YOU fainthearted? Do YOU not yet have any faith?" 41 But they felt an unusual fear, and they would say to one another: "Who really is this, because even the wind and the sea obey him?"[h]

5 Well, they got to the other side of the sea into the country of the Ger'a·senes.[i] 2 And immediately after he got out of the boat a man under the power of an unclean spirit met him from among the memorial tombs.[j] 3 He had his haunt among the tombs; and up to that time absolutely nobody was able to bind him fast even with a chain, 4 because he had oftentimes been bound with fetters and chains, but the chains were snapped apart by him and the fetters were actually smashed; and nobody had the strength to subdue him. 5 And continually, night and day, he was crying out in the tombs and in the mountains and slashing himself with stones. 6 But on catching sight of Jesus from a distance he ran and did obeisance to him, 7 and, when he had cried out with a loud voice,[a] he said: "What have I to do with you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God?[b] I put you under oath[c] by God not to torment me."[d] 8 For he had been telling it: "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit."[e] 9 But he began to ask him: "What is your name?" And he said to him: "My name is Legion,[f] because there are many of us."[g] 10 And he entreated him many times not to send the spirits out of the country.[h]

11 Now a great herd of swine[i] was there at the mountain feeding.[j] 12 So they entreated him, saying: "Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them." 13 And he permitted them. With that the unclean spirits came out and entered into the swine; and the herd rushed over the precipice into the sea, about two thousand of them, and they drowned one after another in the sea.[k] 14 But the herders of them fled and reported it in the city and in the countryside; and people came to see what it was that had happened.[l] 15 So they came to Jesus, and they beheld the demon-possessed [man] sitting clothed and in his sound mind, this [man] that had had the legion; and they grew fearful. 16 Also, those who had seen it related to them how this had happened to the demon-possessed [man] and about the swine. 17 And so they started to entreat him to go away from their districts.[m]

18 Now as he was boarding the boat, the [man] that had been demon-possessed began entreating him that he might continue with him.[n] 19 However, he did not let him, but said to him: "Go home to your relatives,[o] and report to them all the things Jehovah[p] has done for you and the mercy[q] he had on you." 20 And he went away and started to proclaim in the De·cap'o·lis[a] all the things Jesus did for him, and all the people began to wonder.[b]

21 After Jesus had crossed back again in the boat to the opposite shore a great crowd gathered together to him; and he was beside the sea.[c] 22 Now one of the presiding officers of the synagogue, Ja'i·rus by name, came and, on catching sight of him, he fell at his feet[d] 23 and entreated him many times, saying: "My little daughter is in an extreme condition. Would you please come and put your hands[e] upon her that she may get well and live."[f] 24 At that he went off with him. And a great crowd was following him and pressing against him.[g]

25 Now there was a woman subject to a flow of blood[h] twelve years,[i] 26 and she had been put to many pains by many physicians[j] and had spent all her resources and had not been benefited but, rather, had got worse. 27 When she heard the things about Jesus, she came behind in the crowd and touched[k] his outer garment; 28 for she kept saying: "If I touch just his outer garments I shall get well."[l] 29 And immediately her fountain of blood dried up, and she sensed in her body that she had been healed of the grievous sickness.[m]

30 Immediately, also, Jesus recognized in himself that power[n] had gone out of him, and he turned about in the crowd and began to say: "Who touched my outer garments?"[o] 31 But his disciples began to say to him: "You see the crowd pressing in upon you,[p] and do you say, 'Who touched me?'" 32 However, he was looking around to see her that had done this. 33 But the woman, frightened and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before him and told him the whole truth.[q] 34 He said to her: "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace,[a] and be in good health from your grievous sickness."[b]

35 While he was yet speaking, some men from the home of the presiding officer of the synagogue came and said: "Your daughter died! Why bother the teacher any longer?"[c] 36 But Jesus, overhearing the word being spoken, said to the presiding officer of the synagogue: "Have no fear, only exercise faith."[d] 37 Now he did not let anyone follow along with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James.[e]

38 So they came to the house of the presiding officer of the synagogue, and he beheld the noisy confusion and those weeping and letting out many wails, 39 and, after stepping in, he said to them: "Why are YOU causing noisy confusion and weeping? The young child has not died, but is sleeping."[f] 40 At this they began to laugh scornfully at him. But, having put them all out, he took along the young child's father and mother and those with him, and he went in where the young child was.[g] 41 And, taking the hand of the young child, he said to her: "Tal'i·tha cu'mi," which, translated, means: "Maiden, I say to you, Get up!"[h] 42 And immediately the maiden rose and began walking, for she was twelve years old. And at once they were beside themselves with great ecstasy.[i] 43 But he ordered them again and again to let no one learn[j] of this, and he said that something should be given her to eat.

6 And he departed from there and came into his home territory, and his disciples followed him.[k] 2 When it became sabbath, he started teaching in the synagogue; and the greater number of those listening were astounded and said: "Where did this man get these things?[a] And why should this wisdom have been given this man, and such powerful works be performed through his hands? 3 This is the carpenter[b] the son of Mary[c] and the brother of James[d] and Joseph and Judas and Simon,[e] is it not? And his sisters are here with us, are they not?" So they began to stumble at him.[f] 4 But Jesus went on to say to them: "A prophet is not unhonored except in his home territory[g] and among his relatives and in his own house."[h] 5 So he was able to do no powerful work there except to lay his hands upon a few sickly ones and cure them. 6 Indeed, he wondered at their lack of faith. And he went round about to the villages in a circuit, teaching.[i]

7 Now he summoned the twelve, and he initiated sending them out two by two,[j] and he began to give them authority over the unclean spirits.[k] 8 Also, he gave them orders to carry nothing for the trip except a staff alone, no bread, no food pouch,[l] no copper money in their girdle purses,[m] 9 but to bind on sandals, and not to wear two undergarments.[n] 10 Further, he said to them: "Wherever YOU enter into a home,[o] stay there until YOU go out of that place.[p] 11 And wherever a place will not receive YOU nor hear YOU, on going out from there shake off the dirt that is beneath YOUR feet for a witness to them."[q] 12 So they set out and preached in order that people might repent;[r] 13 and they would expel many demons[s] and grease many sickly people with oil[t] and cure them.[u]

14 Now it got to the ears of King Herod, for the name of [Jesus] became public, and people were saying: "John the baptizer has been raised from the dead, and on that account the powerful works are operating in him."[a] 15 But others were saying: "It is E·li'jah."[b] Still others were saying: "It is a prophet like one of the prophets."[c] 16 But when Herod heard it he began to say: "The John that I beheaded, this one has been raised up."[d] 17 For Herod himself had sent out and arrested John and bound him in prison on account of He·ro'di·as the wife of Philip his brother, because he had married her.[e] 18 For John had repeatedly said to Herod: "It is not lawful for you to be having the wife of your brother."[f] 19 But He·ro'di·as was nursing a grudge[g] against him and was wanting to kill him, but could not.[h] 20 For Herod stood in fear[i] of John, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man;[j] and he was keeping him safe. And after hearing[k] him he was at a great loss what to do, yet he continued to hear him gladly.

21 But a convenient day[l] came along when Herod spread an evening meal on his birthday[m] for his top-ranking men and the military commanders and the foremost ones of Gal'i·lee. 22 And the daughter of this very He·ro'di·as came in and danced and pleased Herod and those reclining[n] with him. The king said to the maiden: "Ask me for whatever you want, and I will give it to you." 23 Yes, he swore to her: "Whatever you ask me for, I will give it to you,[o] up to half my kingdom."[p] 24 And she went out and said to her mother: "What should I ask for?" She said: "The head of John the baptizer."[q] 25 Immediately she went in with haste to the king and made her request, saying: "I want you to give me right away on a platter the head of John the Baptist." 26 Although he became deeply grieved, yet the king did not want to disregard her, in view of the oaths and those reclining at the table.[a] 27 So the king immediately dispatched a body guardsman and commanded him to bring his head. And he went off and beheaded him in the prison[b] 28 and brought his head on a platter, and he gave it to the maiden, and the maiden gave it to her mother.[c] 29 When his disciples heard of it they came and took up his corpse and laid it in a memorial tomb.[d]

30 And the apostles gathered together before Jesus and reported to him all the things they had done and taught.[e] 31 And he said to them: "Come, YOU yourselves, privately into a lonely place[f] and rest up a bit."[g] For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure time even to eat a meal.[h] 32 So off they went in the boat for a lonely place to themselves.[i] 33 But people saw them going and many got to know it, and from all the cities they ran there together on foot and got ahead of them.[j] 34 Well, on getting out, he saw a great crowd, but he was moved with pity[k] for them, because they were as sheep without a shepherd.[l] And he started to teach them many things.[m]

35 By now the hour had grown late, and his disciples came up to him and began to say: "The place is isolated, and the hour is already late.[n] 36 Send them away, that they may go off into the countryside and villages round about and buy themselves something to eat."[o] 37 In reply he said to them: "You give them something to eat." At this they said to him: "Shall we go off and buy two hundred de·nar'i·i worth of loaves and give [them] to the people to eat?"[p] 38 He said to them: "How many loaves have YOU? Go see!" After ascertaining it, they said: "Five, besides two fishes."[q] 39 And he instructed all the people to recline by companies[a] on the green grass.[b] 40 And they laid themselves down in groups of a hundred and of fifty.[c] 41 Taking now the five loaves and the two fishes he looked up to heaven and said a blessing,[d] and broke[e] the loaves up and began giving them to the disciples, that these might place them before the people; and he divided up the two fishes for all. 42 So they all ate and were satisfied;[f] 43 and they took up fragments, twelve baskets full, aside from the fishes. 44 Furthermore, those who ate of the loaves were five thousand men.[g]

45 And, without delay, he compelled his disciples to board the boat and go on ahead to the opposite shore toward Beth·sa'i·da, while he himself dismissed the crowd.[h] 46 But after saying good-bye to them he went off into a mountain to pray.[i] 47 Evening having now fallen, the boat was in the midst of the sea, but he was alone on the land.[j] 48 And when he saw them being hard put[k] to it in their rowing, for the wind was against them, about the fourth watch of the night he came toward them, walking on the sea; but he was inclined to pass them by. 49 At catching sight of him walking on the sea they thought: "It is an apparition!" and they cried aloud.[l] 50 For they all saw him and were troubled. But immediately he spoke with them, and he said to them: "Take courage, it is I; have no fear."[m] 51 And he got up into the boat with them, and the wind abated. At this they were very much amazed within themselves,[n] 52 for they had not grasped the meaning of the loaves, but their hearts continued dull of understanding.[o]

53 And when they got across to land, they came into Gen·nes'a·ret and anchored ship nearby.[a] 54 But as soon as they got out of the boat, people recognized him, 55 and they ran around all that region and started to carry about on cots those who were ailing to where they heard he was. 56 And wherever he would enter into villages or cities or countryside[b] they would place the sick ones in the marketplaces, and they would plead with him that they might touch[c] just the fringe[d] of his outer garment. And as many as did touch it were made well.[e]

7 Now the Pharisees and some of the scribes that had come from Jerusalem gathered about him.[f] 2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat their meal with defiled hands, that is, unwashed ones[g]— 3 for the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands up to the elbow, holding fast the tradition of the men of former times, 4 and, when back from market, they do not eat unless they cleanse themselves by sprinkling; and there are many other traditions[h] that they have received to hold fast, baptisms of cups and pitchers and copper vessels;[i]— 5 so these Pharisees and scribes asked him: "Why is it your disciples do not conduct themselves according to the tradition of the men of former times, but they take their meal with defiled hands?"[j] 6 He said to them: "Isaiah aptly prophesied about YOU hypocrites, as it is written,[k] 'This people honor me with [their] lips, but their hearts are far removed from me.[l] 7 It is in vain that they keep worshiping me, because they teach as doctrines commands of men.'[m] 8 Letting go the commandment of God, YOU hold fast the tradition of men."[n]

9 Further, he went on to say to them: "Adroitly YOU set aside the commandment[o] of God in order to retain YOUR tradition. 10 For example, Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother,'[a] and, 'Let him that reviles father or mother end up in death.'[b] 11 But YOU men say, 'If a man says to his father or his mother: "Whatever I have by which you may get benefit from me is corban,[c] (that is, a gift dedicated[d] to God,)" '— 12 YOU men no longer let him do a single thing for his father or his mother,[e] 13 and thus YOU make the word of God[f] invalid by YOUR tradition which YOU handed down. And many things[g] similar to this YOU do." 14 So, calling the crowd to him again, he proceeded to say to them: "Listen to me, all of YOU, and get the meaning.[h] 15 There is nothing from out*side a man* that passes into him that can defile him; but the things that issue forth out of a man are the things that defile a man."[i] 16 ——

17 Now when he had entered a house away from the crowd, his disciples began to question him respecting the illustration.[j] 18 So he said to them: "Are YOU also without perception like them?[k] Are YOU not aware that nothing from outside that passes into a man can defile him, 19 since it passes, not into [his] heart, but into [his] intestines, and it passes out into the sewer?"[l] Thus he declared all foods clean.[m] 20 Further, he said: "That which issues forth out of a man is what defiles a man;[n] 21 for from inside, out of the heart of men,[o] injurious reasonings issue forth: fornications,[p] thieveries, murders,[q] 22 adulteries, covetings,[r] acts of wickedness, deceit, loose conduct,[s] an envious eye, blasphemy, haughtiness, unreasonableness. 23 All these wicked things issue forth from within and defile a man."[t]

24 From there he rose up and went into the regions of Tyre and Si'don.[a] And he entered into a house and did not want anyone to get to know it. Yet he could not escape notice;[b] 25 but immediately a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit heard about him and came and prostrated herself at his feet.[c] 26 The woman was a Grecian, a Sy*ro·phoe·ni'cian* nationally; and she kept asking him to expel the demon from her daughter.[d] 27 But he began by saying to her: "First let the children be satisfied, for it is not right to take the bread of the children[e] and throw it to the little dogs."[f] 28 In reply, however, she said to him: "Yes, sir, and yet the little dogs underneath the table eat of the crumbs[g] of the little children."[h] 29 At that he said to her: "Because of saying this, go; the demon has gone out of your daughter."[i] 30 So she went away to her home and found[j] the young child laid on the bed and the demon gone out.

31 Now coming back out of the regions of Tyre he went through Si'don to the sea of Gal'i·lee up through the midst of the regions of De·cap'o·lis.[k] 32 Here they brought him a man deaf and with a speech impediment, and they entreated him to lay his hand upon him.[l] 33 And he took him away from the crowd privately and put his fingers into the man's ears and, after spitting, he touched his tongue.[m] 34 And with a look up into heaven[n] he sighed[o] deeply and said to him: "Eph'pha·tha," that is, "Be opened." 35 Well, his hearing powers were opened,[p] and the impediment of his tongue was loosed, and he began speaking normally. 36 With that he charged them not to tell anyone;[q] but the more he would charge them, that much more they would proclaim it.[r] 37 Indeed, they were being astounded[s] in a most extraordinary way and they said: "He has done all things well. He even makes the deaf hear and the speechless speak."[a]

8 In those days, when there was again a big crowd and they had nothing to eat, he summoned the disciples and said to them:[b] 2 "I feel pity[c] for the crowd, because it is already three days that they have remained near me and they have nothing to eat; 3 and if I should send them off to their homes fasting, they will give out on the road. Indeed, some of them are from far away." 4 But his disciples answered him: "From where will anybody here in an isolated place be able to satisfy these people with loaves?"[d] 5 Still he went on to ask them: "How many loaves have YOU?" They said: "Seven."[e] 6 And he instructed the crowd to recline on the ground, and he took the seven loaves, gave thanks,[f] broke them, and began to give them to his disciples to serve, and they served them to the crowd.[g] 7 They also had a few little fishes; and, having blessed these, he told them also to serve these.[h] 8 Accordingly they ate and were satisfied, and they took up surpluses of fragments, seven provision baskets full.[i] 9 Yet there were about four thousand [men]. Finally he sent them away.[j]

10 And immediately he boarded the boat with his disciples and came into the parts of Dal·ma·nu'tha.[k] 11 Here the Pharisees came out and started disputing with him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, to put him to the test.[l] 12 So he groaned deeply[m] with his spirit, and said: "Why does this generation seek a sign? Truly I say, No sign will be given to this generation."[n] 13 With that he left them, got aboard again, and went off to the opposite shore.

14 As it was, they forgot to take loaves along, and except for one loaf they had nothing with them in the boat.[a] 15 And he began to order them expressly and say: "Keep YOUR eyes open, look out for the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod."[b] 16 So they went arguing with one another over the fact that they had no loaves.[c] 17 Noting this, he said to them: "Why do YOU argue over your having no loaves?[d] Do YOU not yet perceive and get the meaning? Do YOU have YOUR hearts dull of understanding?[e] 18 'Though having eyes, do YOU not see; and though having ears, do YOU not hear?'[f] And do YOU not remember, 19 when I broke the five loaves[g] for the five thousand [men], how many baskets full of fragments YOU took up?" They said to him: "Twelve."[h] 20 "When I broke the seven for the four thousand [men], how many provision baskets full of fragments did YOU take up?" And they said to him: "Seven."[i] 21 With that he said to them: "Do YOU not yet get the meaning?"[j]

22 Now they put in at Beth·sa'i·da. Here people brought him a blind man, and they entreated him to touch[k] him. 23 And he took the blind man by the hand, brought him outside the village, and, having spit[l] upon his eyes, he laid his hands upon him and began to ask him: "Do you see anything?" 24 And the man looked up and began saying: "I see men, because I observe what seem to be trees, but they are walking about." 25 Then he laid his hands again upon the man's eyes, and the man saw clearly, and he was restored, and he was seeing everything distinctly. 26 So he sent him off home, saying: "But do not enter into the village."[m]

a·re'a Phi·lip'pi, and on the way he began questioning his disciples, saying to them: "Who are men saying that I am?"[a] 28 They said to him: "John the Baptist,[b] and others, E·li'jah,[c] still others, One of the prophets."[d] 29 And he put the question to them: "YOU, though, who do YOU say I am?" In answer Peter said to him: "You are the Christ."[e] 30 At that he strictly charged them not to tell anyone about him.[f] 31 Also, he started teaching them that the Son of man must undergo many sufferings and be rejected by the older men and the chief priests and the scribes and be killed,[g] and rise three days later.[h] 32 Indeed, with outspokenness he was making that statement. But Peter took him aside and started rebuking him.[i] 33 He turned, looked at his disciples and rebuked Peter, and said: "Get behind me, Satan, because you think, not God's thoughts, but those of men."[j]

34 He now called the crowd to him with his disciples and said to them: "If anyone wants to come after me, let him disown himself and pick up his torture stake and follow me continually.[k] 35 For whoever wants to save his soul will lose it; but whoever loses his soul for the sake of me and the good news will save it.[l] 36 Really, of what benefit is it for a man to gain the whole world and to forfeit his soul?[m] 37 What, really, would a man give in exchange for his soul?[n] 38 For whoever becomes ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of man will also be ashamed[o] of him when he arrives in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."[p]

9 Furthermore, he went on to say to them: "Truly I say to YOU, There are some of those standing here that will not taste death at all until first they see the kingdom of God already come in power."[a] 2 Accordingly six days later Jesus took Peter and James and John along, and brought them up into a lofty mountain to themselves alone. And he was transfigured before them,[b] 3 and his outer garments became glistening, far whiter than any clothes cleaner on earth could whiten them.[c] 4 Also, E·li'jah with Moses appeared to them, and they were conversing with Jesus.[d] 5 And responsively Peter said to Jesus: "Rabbi, it is fine for us to be here, so let us erect three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for E·li'jah."[e] 6 In fact, he did not know what response he should make, for they became quite fearful. 7 And a cloud formed, overshadowing them, and a voice[f] came out of the cloud: "This is my Son,[g] the beloved; listen to him."[h] 8 Suddenly, however, they looked around and saw no one with them any longer, except Jesus alone.[i]

9 As they were coming down out of the mountain, he expressly ordered them not to relate[j] to anybody what they saw, until after the Son of man had risen from the dead.[k] 10 And they took the word to heart, but discussed among themselves what this rising from the dead meant. 11 And they began to question him, saying: "Why do the scribes say that first E·li'jah[l] must come?"[m] 12 He said to them: "E·li'jah does come first and restore all things;[n] but how is it that it is written respecting the Son of man that he must undergo many sufferings[o] and be treated as of no account?[p] 13 But I say to YOU, E·li'jah,[q] in fact, has come, and they did to him as many things as they wanted, just as it is written respecting him."[a]

14 When, now, they came toward the other disciples, they noticed a great crowd about them and scribes disputing with them.[b] 15 But as soon as all the crowd caught sight of him they were stunned, and, running up to him, they began to greet him. 16 And he asked them: "What are YOU disputing with them?" 17 And one of the crowd answered him: "Teacher, I brought my son to you because he has a speechless spirit;[c] 18 and wherever it seizes him it dashes him to the ground, and he foams and grinds his teeth and loses his strength. And I told your disciples to expel it, but they were not capable."[d] 19 In response he said to them: "O faithless generation,[e] how long must I continue with YOU? How long must I put up with YOU? Bring him to me."[f] 20 So they brought him to him. But at the sight of him the spirit at once threw [the child] into convulsions, and after falling on the ground he kept rolling about, foaming.[g] 21 And he asked his father: "How long has this been happening to him?" He said: "From childhood on; 22 and time and again it would throw him both into the fire and into the water to destroy him.[h] But if you can do anything, have pity on us and help us." 23 Jesus said to him: "That expression, 'If you can'! Why, all things can be to one if one has faith."[i] 24 Immediately crying out, the father of the young child was saying: "I have faith! Help me out where I need faith!"[j]

25 Jesus, now noticing that a crowd was running together upon [them], rebuked[k] the unclean spirit, saying to it: "You speechless and deaf spirit, I order you, get out of him and enter into him no more."

26 And after crying out and going through many convulsions it got out;[a] and he became as dead, so that the greater number of them were saying: "He is dead!" 27 But Jesus took him by the hand and raised him up, and he rose.[b] 28 So after he entered into a house his disciples proceeded to ask him privately: "Why could we not expel it?"[c] 29 And he said to them: "This kind cannot get out by anything except by prayer."[d]

30 From there they departed and went their way through Gal'i·lee, but he did not want anyone to get to know it. 31 For he was teaching his disciples and telling them: "The Son of man is to be delivered into men's hands, and they will kill him,[e] but, despite being killed, he will rise three days later."[f] 32 However, they were not understanding the saying, and they were afraid to question him.[g]

33 And they came into Ca·per'na·um. Now when he was inside the house he put the question to them: "What were YOU arguing over on the road?"[h] 34 They kept silent, for on the road they had argued among themselves who is greater.[i] 35 So he sat down and called the twelve and said to them: "If anyone wants to be first, he must be last of all and minister of all."[j] 36 And he took a young child, stood it in their midst and put his arms around it and said to them:[k] 37 "Whoever receives one of such young children on the basis of my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives, not me only, but also him that sent me forth."[l]

38 John said to him: "Teacher, we saw a certain man expelling demons by the use of your name and we tried to prevent him,[m] because he was not accompanying us."[n] 39 But Jesus said: "Do not try to prevent him, for there is no one that will do a powerful work on the basis of my name that will quickly be able to revile me;[a] 40 for he that is not against us is for us.[b] 41 For whoever gives YOU a cup[c] of water to drink on the ground that YOU belong to Christ,[d] I truly tell YOU, he will by no means lose his reward. 42 But whoever stumbles one of these little ones that believe, it would be finer for him if a millstone such as is turned by an ass were put around his neck and he were actually pitched into the sea.[e]

43 "And if ever your hand makes you stumble, cut it off; it is finer for you to enter into life maimed than with two hands to go off into Ge·hen'na, into the fire that cannot be put out.[f] 44 —— 45 And if your foot makes you stumble, cut it off; it is finer for you to enter into life lame[g] than with two feet to be pitched into Ge·hen'na.[h] 46 —— 47 And if your eye makes you stumble, throw it away;[i] it is finer for you to enter one-eyed into the kingdom of God than with two eyes to be pitched into Ge·hen'na,[j] 48 where their maggot does not die and the fire is not put out.[k]

49 "For everyone must be salted[l] with fire. 50 Salt is fine; but if ever the salt loses its strength, with what will YOU season it itself?[m] Have salt[n] in yourselves, and keep peace[o] between one another."

10 From there he rose and came to the frontiers of Ju·de'a and across the Jordan, and again crowds came together to him, and as he was accustomed to do he again went teaching them.[p] 2 Pharisees now approached and, to put him to the test, began questioning him whether it was lawful for a man to divorce a wife.[q] 3 In answer he said to them: "What did Moses command YOU?" 4 They said: "Moses allowed the writing of a certificate of dismissal and divorcing [her]."[a] 5 But Jesus said to them: "Out of regard for YOUR hardheartedness[b] he wrote YOU this commandment. 6 However, from [the] beginning of creation 'He made them male and female.[c] 7 On this account a man will leave his father and mother, 8 and the two will be one flesh';[d] so that they are no longer two, but one flesh. 9 Therefore what God yoked together let no man put apart."[e] 10 When again in the house[f] the disciples began to question him concerning this. 11 And he said to them: "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery[g] against her, 12 and if ever a woman, after divorcing her husband, marries another, she commits adultery."[h]

13 Now people began bringing him young children for him to touch these; but the disciples reprimanded them.[i] 14 At seeing this Jesus was indignant and said to them: "Let the young children come to me; do not try to stop them, for the kingdom of God belongs to suchlike ones.[j] 15 Truly I say to YOU, Whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a young child will by no means enter into it."[k] 16 And he took the children into his arms and began blessing them, laying his hands upon them.[l]

17 And as he was going out on his way, a certain man ran up and fell upon his knees before him and put the question to him: "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit everlasting life?"[m] 18 Jesus said to him: "Why do you call me good?[n] Nobody is good, except one, God.[o] 19 You know the commandments, 'Do not murder,[p] Do not commit adultery,[q] Do not steal,[r] Do not bear false witness,[s] Do not defraud,[t] Honor your father and mother.'"[a] 20 The man said to him: "Teacher, all these things I have kept from my youth on." 21 Jesus looked upon him and felt love for him and said to him: "One thing is missing about you: Go, sell what things you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven, and come be my follower."[b] 22 But he grew sad at the saying and went off grieved, for he was holding many possessions.[c]

23 After looking around Jesus said to his disciples: "How difficult a thing it will be for those with money[d] to enter into the kingdom of God!"[e] 24 But the disciples gave way to surprise[f] at his words. In response Jesus again said to them: "Children, how difficult a thing it is to enter into the kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God."[g] 26 They became still more astounded and said to him: "Who, in fact, can be saved?"[h] 27 Looking straight at them Jesus said: "With men it is impossible, but not so with God, for all things are possible with God."[i] 28 Peter started to say to him: "Look! We left all things and have been following you."[j] 29 Jesus said: "Truly I say to YOU men, No one has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for my sake and for the sake of the good news[k] 30 who will not get a hundredfold[l] now in this period of time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and fields, with persecutions,[m] and in the coming system of things everlasting life. 31 However, many that are first will be last, and the last first."[n]

32 Now they were advancing on the road up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going in front of them, and they felt amazement; but those who followed began to fear. Once again he took the twelve aside and started to tell them these things destined to befall him:[a] 33 "Here we are, advancing up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death and will deliver him to [men of] the nations,[b] 34 and they will make fun of him and will spit upon him and scourge him and kill him, but three days later he will rise."[c]

35 And James and John, the two sons of Zeb'e·dee,[d] stepped up to him and said to him: "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever it is we ask you for."[e] 36 He said to them: "What do YOU want me to do for YOU?" 37 They said to him: "Grant us to sit down, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory."[f] 38 But Jesus said to them: "YOU do not know what YOU are asking for. Are YOU able to drink the cup which I am drinking, or to be baptized with the baptism with which I am being baptized?"[g] 39 They said to him: "We are able." At that Jesus said to them: "The cup I am drinking YOU will drink, and with the baptism with which I am being baptized YOU will be baptized.[h] 40 However, this sitting down at my right or at my left is not mine to give,[i] but it belongs to those for whom it has been prepared."

41 Well, when the ten others heard about it, they started to be indignant at James and John.[j] 42 But Jesus, after calling them to him, said to them: "YOU know that those who appear to be ruling the nations lord it over them and their great ones wield authority over them.[k] 43 This is not the way among YOU; but whoever wants to become great among YOU must be YOUR minister,[l]

44 and whoever wants to be first among YOU must be the slave of all.[a] 45 For even the Son of man came, not to be ministered to,[b] but to minister and to give his soul a ransom[c] in exchange for many."[d]

46 And they came into Jer'i·cho. But as he and his disciples and a considerable crowd were going out of Jer'i·cho, Bar·ti·mae'us (the son of Ti·mae'us), a blind beggar, was sitting beside the road.[e] 47 When he heard that it was Jesus the Naz·a·rene', he started shouting and saying: "Son of David,[f] Jesus, have mercy on me!"[g] 48 At this many began sternly telling him to be silent; but he kept shouting that much more: "Son of David, have mercy on me!"[h] 49 So Jesus stopped and said: "CALL him." And they called the blind man, saying to him: "Take courage, get up, he is calling you."[i] 50 Throwing off his outer garment, he leaped to his feet and went to Jesus. 51 And in answer to him Jesus said: "What do you want me to do for you?"[j] The blind man said to him: "Rab·bo'ni, let me recover sight."[k] 52 And Jesus said to him: "Go, your faith has made you well."[l] And immediately he recovered sight,[m] and he began to follow him on the road.[n]

11 Now when they were getting near to Jerusalem, to Beth'pha·ge and Beth'a·ny[o] at the Mount of Olives, he dispatched two of his disciples[p] 2 and told them: "Go into the village that is within sight of YOU, and as soon as YOU pass into it YOU will find a colt tied, on which none of mankind has yet sat; loose it and bring it.[q] 3 And if anyone says to YOU, 'Why are YOU doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs it, and will at once send it off back here.'"[r] 4 So they went away and found the colt tied at the door, outside on the side street, and they loosed it.[a] 5 But some of those standing there began to say to them: "What are YOU doing loosing the colt?"[b] 6 They said to these just as Jesus had said; and they let them go.[c]

7 And they brought the colt[d] to Jesus, and they put their outer garments upon it, and he sat on it.[e] 8 Also, many spread their outer garments[f] on the road, but others cut down foliage[g] from the fields.[h] 9 And those going in front and those coming behind kept crying out: "Save, we pray![i] Blessed is he that comes in Jehovah's name![j] 10 Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David![k] Save, we pray, in the heights above!" 11 And he entered into Jerusalem, into the temple; and he looked around upon all things, and, as the hour was already late, he went out to Beth'a·ny with the twelve.[l]

12 The next day, when they had come out from Beth'a·ny, he became hungry.[m] 13 And from a distance he caught sight of a fig tree that had leaves, and he went to see whether he would perhaps find something on it. But, on coming to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season of figs.[n] 14 So, in response, he said to it: "Let no one eat fruit from you anymore forever."[o] And his disciples were listening.

15 Now they came to Jerusalem. There he entered into the temple and started to throw out those selling and buying in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves;[p] 16 and he would not let anyone carry a utensil through the temple, 17 but he kept teaching and saying: "Is it not written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer[q] for all the nations'?[r] But YOU have made it a cave of robbers."[s] 18 And the chief priests and the scribes heard it, and they began to seek how to destroy him;[a] for they were in fear of him, for all the crowd was continually being astounded at his teaching.[b]

19 And when it became late in the day, they would go out of the city. 20 But when they were passing by early in the morning, they saw the fig tree already withered up from the roots.[c] 21 So Peter, remembering it, said to him: "Rabbi, see! the fig tree that you cursed has withered up."[d] 22 And in reply Jesus said to them: "Have faith in God. 23 Truly I say to YOU that whoever tells this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart but has faith that what he says is going to occur, he will have it so.[e] 24 This is why I tell YOU, All the things YOU pray and ask for have faith that YOU have practically received, and YOU will have them.[f] 25 And when YOU stand praying, forgive[g] whatever YOU have against anyone; in order that YOUR Father who is in the heavens may also forgive YOU YOUR trespasses."[h]

27 And they came again to Jerusalem. And as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the older men came to him[i] 28 and began to say to him: "By what authority do you do these things? or who gave you this authority to do these things?"[j] 29 Jesus said to them: "I will ask YOU one question. You answer me, and I will also tell YOU by what authority I do these things.[k] 30 Was the baptism[l] by John from heaven or from men? Answer me."[m] 31 So they began to reason among themselves, saying: "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why is it, therefore, YOU did not believe him?'[n] 32 But dare we say, 'From men'?"—They were in fear of the crowd, for these all held that John had really been a prophet.[a] 33 Well, in reply to Jesus they said: "We do not know." And Jesus said to them: "Neither am I telling YOU by what authority I do these things."[b]

12 Also, he started to speak to them with illustrations: "A man planted a vineyard,[c] and put a fence around it, and dug a vat for the winepress and erected a tower,[d] and let it out to cultivators,[e] and traveled abroad.[f] 2 Now in due season he sent forth a slave to the cultivators, that he might get some of the fruits of the vineyard from the cultivators.[g] 3 But they took him, beat him up and sent him away empty.[h] 4 And again he sent forth another slave to them; and that one they struck on the head and dishonored.[i] 5 And he sent forth another, and that one they killed; and many others, some of whom they beat up and some of whom they killed. 6 One more he had, a beloved son.[j] He sent him forth last to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'[k] 7 But those cultivators said among themselves, 'This is the heir.[l] Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.'[m] 8 So they took him and killed him,[n] and threw him outside the vineyard.[o] 9 What will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the cultivators, and will give the vineyard[p] to others.[q] 10 Did YOU never read this scripture, 'The stone[r] that the builders rejected, this has become the chief cornerstone.[s] 11 From Jehovah this has come to be, and it is marvelous in our eyes'?"[t]

12 At that they began seeking how to seize him, but they feared the crowd, for they took note that he spoke the illustration with them in mind. So they left him and went away.[a]

13 Next they sent forth to him some of the Pharisees and of the party followers of Herod,[b] to catch him in his speech.[c] 14 On arrival these said to him: "Teacher, we know you are truthful and you do not care for anybody, for you do not look upon men's outward appearance, but you teach the way of God in line with truth:[d] Is it lawful to pay head tax to Caesar or not? 15 Shall we pay, or shall we not pay?"[e] Detecting their hypocrisy, he said to them: "Why do YOU put me to the test? Bring me a denar'i·us to look at."[f] 16 They brought one. And he said to them: "Whose image and inscription is this?" They said to him: "Caesar's."[g] 17 Jesus then said: "Pay back Caesar's things to Caesar,[h] but God's things to God."[i] And they began to marvel at him.[j]

18 Now Sadducees came to him, who say there is no resurrection, and they put the question to him:[k] 19 "Teacher, Moses wrote us that if someone's brother dies and leaves a wife behind but does not leave a child, his brother[l] should take the wife and raise up offspring from her for his brother.[m] 20 There were seven brothers; and the first took a wife, but when he died he left no offspring.[n] 21 And the second took her, but died without leaving offspring; and the third the same way. 22 And the seven did not leave any offspring. Last of all the woman also died.[o] 23 In the resurrection to which of them will she be wife? For the seven got her as wife."[p] 24 Jesus said to them: "Is not this why YOU are mistaken, YOUR not knowing either the Scriptures or the power of God?[q] 25 For when they rise from the dead, neither do men marry nor are women given in marriage, but are as angels in the heavens.[a] 26 But concerning the dead, that they are raised up, did YOU not read in the book of Moses, in the account about the thornbush, how God said to him, 'I am the God of Abraham and God of Isaac and God of Jacob'?[b] 27 He is a God, not of the dead, but of the living. YOU are much mistaken."[c]

28 Now one of the scribes that had come up and heard them disputing, knowing that he had answered them in a fine way, asked him: "Which commandment is first of all?"[d] 29 Jesus answered: "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel, Jehovah our God is one Jehovah,[e] 30 and you must love Jehovah your God with your whole heart and with your whole soul and with your whole mind and with your whole strength.'[f] 31 The second is this, 'You must love your neighbor as yourself.'[g] There is no other commandment greater than these." 32 The scribe said to him: "Teacher, you well said in line with truth, 'He is One, and there is no other than He';[h] 33 and this loving him with one's whole heart and with one's whole understanding and with one's whole strength and this loving one's neighbor as oneself is worth far more than all the whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."[i] 34 At this Jesus, discerning he had answered intelligently, said to him: "You are not far from the kingdom of God." But nobody had the courage anymore to question him.[j]

35 However, when making a reply, Jesus began to say as he taught in the temple: "How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is David's son?[k] 36 By the holy spirit[l] David himself said, 'Jehovah said to my Lord: "Sit at my right hand until I put your enemies beneath your feet."'[m] 37 David himself calls him 'Lord,' but how does it come that he is his son?"[a]

And the great crowd was listening to him with pleasure.[b] 38 And in his teaching he went on to say: "Look out for the scribes[c] that want to walk around in robes and want greetings in the marketplaces 39 and front seats in the synagogues and most prominent places at evening meals.[d] 40 They are the ones devouring the houses[e] of the widows and for a pretext making long prayers; these will receive a heavier judgment."[f]

41 And he sat down with the treasury chests[g] in view and began observing how the crowd was dropping money into the treasury chests; and many rich people were dropping in many coins.[h] 42 Now a poor widow came and dropped in two small coins, which have very little value.[i] 43 So he called his disciples to him and said to them: "Truly I say to YOU that this poor widow dropped in more than all those dropping money into the treasury chests;[j] 44 for they all dropped in out of their surplus, but she, out of her want, dropped in all of what she had, her whole living."[k]

13 As he was going out of the temple one of his disciples said to him: "Teacher, see! what sort of stones and what sort of buildings!"[l] 2 However, Jesus said to him: "Do you behold these great buildings?[m] By no means will a stone be left here upon a stone[n] and not be thrown down."[o]

3 And as he was sitting on the Mount of Olives with the temple in view, Peter[p] and James and John and Andrew began to ask him privately:[q] 4 "Tell us, When will these things be, and what will be the sign when all these things are destined to come to a conclusion?"[r] 5 So Jesus started to say to them: "Look out that nobody misleads YOU.[a] 6 Many will come on the basis of my name, saying, 'I am he,' and will mislead many.[b] 7 Moreover, when YOU hear of wars and reports of wars, do not be terrified; [these things] must take place, but the end is not yet.[c]

8 "For nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom,[d] there will be earthquakes[e] in one place after another, there will be food shortages.[f] These are a beginning of pangs of distress.[g]

9 "As for YOU, look out for yourselves; people will deliver YOU up to local courts,[h] and YOU will be beaten in synagogues[i] and be put on the stand before governors and kings for my sake, for a witness to them.[j] 10 Also, in all the nations the good news[k] has to be preached first.[l] 11 But when they are leading YOU along to deliver YOU up, do not be anxious beforehand about what to speak;[m] but whatever is given YOU in that hour, speak this, for YOU are not the ones speaking, but the holy spirit is.[n] 12 Furthermore, brother will deliver brother over to death, and a father a child,[o] and children will rise up against parents and have them put to death;[p] 13 and YOU will be objects of hatred by all people on account of my name.[q] But he that has endured to the end[r] is the one that will be saved.[s]

14 "However, when YOU catch sight of the disgusting thing[t] that causes desolation[u] standing where it ought not (let the reader use discernment),[v] then let those in Ju·de'a begin fleeing to the mountains.[w] 15 Let the man on the housetop not come down, nor go inside to take anything out of his house;[x] 16 and let the man in the field not return to the things behind to pick up his outer garment.[y]

17 Woe to the pregnant women and those suckling a baby in those days![a] 18 Keep praying that it may not occur in wintertime;[b] 19 for those days will be [days of] a tribulation[c] such as has not occurred from [the] beginning of the creation which God created until that time, and will not occur again.[d] 20 In fact, unless Jehovah[e] had cut short the days, no flesh would be saved. But on account of the chosen[f] ones whom he has chosen[g] he has cut short the days.[h]

21 "Then, too, if anyone says to YOU, 'See! Here is the Christ,' 'See! There he is,'[i] do not believe [it].[j] 22 For false Christs and false prophets will arise[k] and will give signs and wonders[l] to lead astray, if possible, the chosen ones.[m] 23 YOU, then, watch[n] out; I have told YOU all things beforehand.[o]

24 "But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, 25 and the stars will be falling out of heaven, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.[p] 26 And then they will see the Son of man[q] coming in clouds with great power and glory.[r] 27 And then he will send forth the angels and will gather his chosen[s] ones together from the four winds, from earth's extremity to heaven's extremity.[t]

28 "Now from the fig tree learn the illustration: Just as soon as its young branch grows tender and puts forth its leaves, YOU know that summer is near.[u] 29 Likewise also YOU, when YOU see these things happening, know that he is near, at the doors.[v] 30 Truly I say to YOU that this generation will by no means pass away until all these things happen.[w] 31 Heaven[x] and earth will pass away, but my words[y] will not pass away.[z]

32 "Concerning that day or the hour nobody knows, neither the angels in heaven nor the Son, but the Father.[a] 33 Keep looking, keep awake,[b] for YOU do not know when the appointed time is.[c] 34 It is like a man traveling abroad[d] that left his house and gave the authority to his slaves, to each one his work, and commanded the doorkeeper to keep on the watch. 35 Therefore keep on the watch,[e] for YOU do not know when the master of the house is coming, whether late in the day or at midnight or at cockcrowing or early in the morning;[f] 36 in order that when he arrives suddenly, he does not find YOU sleeping.[g] 37 But what I say to YOU I say to all, Keep on the watch."[h]

14 Now the passover[i] and the [festival[j] of] unfermented cakes was two days later.[k] And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how to seize him by crafty device and kill him;[l] 2 for they repeatedly said: "Not at the festival; perhaps there might be an uproar of the people."[m]

3 And while he was at Beth'a·ny in the house of Simon the leper,[n] as he was reclining at the meal, a woman came with an alabaster case of perfumed oil, genuine nard, very expensive. Breaking open the alabaster case she began to pour it upon his head.[o] 4 At this there were some expressing indignation among themselves: "Why has this waste of the perfumed oil taken place?[p] 5 For this perfumed oil could have been sold for upward of three hundred de·nar'i·i and been given to the poor!" And they were feeling great displeasure at her.[q] 6 But Jesus said: "Let her alone. Why do YOU try to make trouble for her? She did a fine deed toward me.[r] 7 For

YOU always have the poor[a] with YOU, and whenever YOU want to YOU can always do them good, but me YOU do not have always.[b] 8 She did what she could; she undertook beforehand to put perfumed oil on my body in view of the burial.[c] 9 Truly I say to YOU, Wherever the good news is preached in all the world,[d] what this woman did shall also be told as a remembrance of her."[e]

10 And Judas Is·car′i·ot, one of the twelve, went off to the chief priests in order to betray him to them.[f] 11 When they heard it, they rejoiced and promised to give him silver money.[g] So he began seeking how to betray him conveniently.[h]

12 Now on the first day of unfermented[i] cakes, when they customarily sacrificed the passover [victim], his disciples[j] said to him: "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the passover?"[k] 13 With that he sent forth two of his disciples and said to them: "Go into the city, and a man carrying an earthenware vessel of water will encounter YOU.[l] Follow him, 14 and wherever he goes inside say to the householder, 'The Teacher says: "Where is the guest room for me where I may eat the passover[m] with my disciples?"'[n] 15 And he will show YOU a large upper room, furnished in preparation; and there prepare for us."[o] 16 So the disciples went out, and they entered the city and found it just as he said to them; and they prepared for the passover.[p]

17 After evening had fallen he came with the twelve.[q] 18 And as they were reclining at the table and eating, Jesus said: "Truly I say to YOU, One of YOU, who is eating[r] with me, will betray me."[s] 19 They started to be grieved and to say to him one by one: "It is not I, is it?"[t] 20 He said to them: "It is one of the twelve, who is dipping with me into the common bowl.[a] 21 True, the Son of man is going away, just as it is written concerning him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would have been finer for that man if he had not been born."[b]

22 And as they continued eating, he took a loaf, said a blessing, broke it and gave it to them, and said: "Take it, this means my body."[c] 23 And taking a cup, he offered thanks and gave it to them, and they all drank out of it.[d] 24 And he said to them: "This means my 'blood[e] of the covenant,'[f] which is to be poured[g] out in behalf of many.[h] 25 Truly I say to YOU, I shall by no means drink anymore of the product of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."[i] 26 Finally, after singing praises,[j] they went out to the Mount of Olives.[k]

27 And Jesus said to them: "YOU will all be stumbled, because it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd,[l] and the sheep will be scattered about.'[m] 28 But after I have been raised up I will go ahead of YOU into Gal′i·lee."[n] 29 But Peter said to him: "Even if all the others are stumbled, yet I will not be."[o] 30 At that Jesus said to him: "Truly I say to you, You today, yes, this night, before a cock crows twice, even you will disown me three times."[p] 31 But he began to say profusely: "If I have to die with you, I will by no means disown you." Also, all the others began saying the same thing.[q]

32 So they came to a spot named Geth·sem′a·ne, and he said to his disciples: "Sit down here while I pray."[r] 33 And he took Peter and James and John[s] along with him, and he started to be stunned and to be sorely troubled.[a] 34 And he said to them: "My soul is deeply grieved,[b] even to death. Stay here and keep on the watch."[c] 35 And going a little way forward he proceeded to fall on the ground and began praying that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him.[d] 36 And he went on to say: "Abba, Father,[e] all things are possible to you; remove this cup from me. Yet not what I want, but what you want."[f] 37 And he came and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter: "Simon, are you sleeping? Did you not have strength to keep on the watch one hour?[g] 38 Men, keep on the watch and praying,[h] in order that YOU do not come into temptation. The spirit, of course, is eager, but the flesh is weak."[i] 39 And he went away again and prayed, saying the same word.[j] 40 And again he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were weighed down, and so they did not know what to answer him.[k] 41 And he came the third time and said to them: "At such a time as this YOU are sleeping and taking YOUR rest! It is enough! The hour has come![l] Look! The Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.[m] 42 Get up, let us go.[n] Look! My betrayer has drawn near."[o]

43 And immediately, while he was yet speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, arrived and with him a crowd with swords and clubs from the chief priests and the scribes and the older men.[p] 44 Now his betrayer had given them an agreed sign, saying: "Whoever it is I kiss, this is he; take him into custody and lead him away safely."[q] 45 And he came straight up and approached him and said: "Rabbi!" and kissed[r] him very tenderly. 46 So they laid their hands upon him and took him into custody.[s] 47 However, a certain one of those standing by drew his sword and struck the slave of the high priest and took his ear off.[a] 48 But in response Jesus said to them: "Did YOU come out with swords and clubs as against a robber to arrest me?[b] 49 Day after day I was with YOU in the temple teaching,[c] and yet YOU did not take me into custody. Nevertheless, it is in order that the Scriptures[d] may be fulfilled."[e]

50 And they all abandoned[f] him and fled.[g] 51 But a certain young man wearing a fine linen garment over his naked body began to follow him nearby; and they tried to seize him,[h] 52 but he left his linen garment behind and got away naked.

53 They now led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests and the older men and the scribes assembled.[i] 54 But Peter, from a good distance, followed him[j] as far as in the courtyard of the high priest; and he was sitting together with the house attendants and warming himself before a bright fire. 55 Meantime the chief priests and the whole San′he·drin were looking for testimony against Jesus to put him to death,[k] but they were not finding any.[l] 56 Many, indeed, were giving false witness against him,[m] but their testimonies were not in agreement.[n] 57 Also, certain ones were rising and bearing false witness against him, saying: 58 "We heard him say, 'I will throw down this temple that was made with hands and in three days I will build another not made with hands.'"[o] 59 But neither on these grounds was their testimony in agreement.

60 Finally the high priest rose in their midst and questioned Jesus, saying: "Do you say nothing in reply? What is it these are testifying against you?"[a] 61 But he kept silent and made no reply at all.[b] Again the high priest began to question him and said to him: "Are you the Christ the Son of the Blessed One?"[c] 62 Then Jesus said: "I am; and YOU persons will see the Son of man[d] sitting at the right hand[e] of power and coming with the clouds of heaven."[f] 63 At this the high priest ripped his inner garments[g] and said: "What further need do we have of witnesses?[h] 64 YOU heard the blasphemy.[i] What is evident to YOU?" They all condemned him to be liable to death. 65 And some started to spit[j] on him and to cover his whole face and hit him with their fists and say to him: "Prophesy!" And, slapping him in the face, the court attendants took him.[k]

66 Now while Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came,[l] 67 and, seeing Peter warming himself, she looked straight at him and said: "You, too, were with the Naz·a·rene′, this Jesus."[m] 68 But he denied it, saying: "Neither do I know him nor do I understand what you are saying," and he went outside to the vestibule.[n] 69 There the servant girl, at the sight of him, started again to say to those standing by: "This is one of them."[o] 70 Again he was denying it. And once more after a little while those standing by began saying to Peter: "Certainly you are one of them, for, in fact, you are a Gal·i·le′an."[p] 71 But he commenced to curse and swear:[q] "I do not know this man of whom YOU speak."[r] 72 And immediately a cock crowed a second time;[s] and Peter recalled the saying that Jesus spoke to him: "Before a cock crows twice, you will disown me three times."[t] And he broke down and gave way to weeping.[u]

15 And immediately at dawn the chief priests with the older men and the scribes, even the whole San′he·drin, conducted a consultation,[a] and they bound Jesus and led him off and handed him over to Pilate.[b] 2 So Pilate put the question to him: "Are you the king[c] of the Jews?" In answer to him he said: "You yourself say [it]."[d] 3 But the chief priests proceeded to accuse him of many things.[e] 4 Now Pilate began questioning him again, saying: "Have you no reply to make?[f] See how many charges they are bringing against you."[g] 5 But Jesus made no further answer, so that Pilate began to marvel.[h]

6 Well, from festival to festival he used to release to them one prisoner, whom they petitioned for.[i] 7 At the time there was the so-called Bar·ab′bas in bonds with the seditionists, who in their sedition had committed murder.[j] 8 So the crowd came on up and started to make petition according to what he used to do for them. 9 Pilate responded to them, saying: "Do YOU want me to release to YOU the king of the Jews?"[k] 10 For he was aware that because of envy[l] the chief priests had handed him over.[m] 11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release Bar·ab′bas to them, instead.[n] 12 Again in reply Pilate was saying to them: "What, then, shall I do with him whom YOU call the king[o] of the Jews?"[p] 13 Once more they cried out: "Impale him!"[q] 14 But Pilate went on to say to them: "Why, what bad thing did he do?" Still they cried out all the more: "Impale him!"[r] 15 At that Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd,[s] released Bar·ab′bas to them, and, after having Jesus whipped, he handed him over to be impaled.[t]

16 The soldiers now led him off into the courtyard, that is, into the governor's palace; and they called the whole body of troops together.[a] 17 And they decked him with purple and braided a crown of thorns and put it on him.[b] 18 And they started greeting him: "Good day,[c] you King of the Jews!" 19 Also, they would hit him on the head with a reed and spit upon him and, bending their knees, they would do obeisance to him.[d] 20 Finally, when they had made fun of him, they stripped him of the purple and put his outer garments upon him. And they led him out to impale him.[e] 21 Also, they impressed into service a passerby, a certain Simon of Cy·re′ne, coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Ru′fus, that he should lift up his torture stake.[f]

22 So they brought him to the place Gol′go·tha, which means, when translated, Skull Place.[g] 23 Here they tried to give him wine drugged with myrrh,[h] but he would not take it.[i] 24 And they impaled him and distributed his outer garments[j] by casting the lot over them as to who takes what.[k] 25 It was now the third hour,[l] and they impaled him. 26 And the inscription of the charge[m] against him was written above, "The King of the Jews."[n] 27 Moreover, they impaled two robbers with him, one on his right and one on his left.[o] 28 —— 29 And those going by would speak abusively[p] to him, wagging their heads and saying: "Bah! You would-be thrower-down of the temple and builder of it in three days' time,[q] 30 save yourself by coming down off the torture stake."[r] 31 In like manner also the chief priests were making fun among themselves with the scribes and saying: "Others he saved; himself he cannot save![a] 32 Let the Christ the King of Israel now come down off the torture stake, that we may see and believe."[b] Even those impaled together with him were reproaching him.[c]

33 When it became the sixth hour a darkness fell over the whole land until the ninth hour.[d] 34 And at the ninth hour Jesus called out with a loud voice: "E′li, E′li, la′ma sa·bach·tha′ni?" which means, when translated: "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"[e] 35 And some of those standing near, on hearing it, began to say: "See! He is calling E·li′jah."[f] 36 But a certain one ran, soaked a sponge with sour wine, put it on a reed, and began giving him a drink,[g] saying: "LET [him] be! Let us see whether E·li′jah comes to take him down."[h] 37 But Jesus let out a loud cry and expired.[i] 38 And the curtain[j] of the sanctuary was rent in two from top to bottom.[k] 39 Now, when the army officer that was standing by with him in view saw he had expired under these circumstances, he said: "Certainly this man was God's Son."[l]

40 There were also women viewing from a distance,[m] among them Mary Mag′da·lene as well as Mary the mother of James the Less and of Jo′ses, and Sa·lo′me,[n] 41 who used to accompany him[o] and minister to him when he was in Gal′i·lee, and many other women who had come up together with him to Jerusalem.[p]

42 Now as it was already late in the afternoon, and since it was Preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, 43 there came Joseph of Ar·i·ma·the′a, a reputable member of the Council, who also himself was waiting for the kingdom of God.[q] He took courage to go in before Pilate and asked for the body[a] of Jesus. 44 But Pilate wondered whether he was already dead, and, summoning the army officer, he asked him whether he had already died. 45 So after making certain from the army officer, he granted the corpse to Joseph.[b] 46 Accordingly he bought fine linen and took him down, wrapped him in the fine linen and laid him[c] in a tomb[d] which was quarried out of a rock-mass; and he rolled a stone up to the door of the memorial tomb.[e] 47 But Mary Mag′da·lene and Mary the mother of Jo′ses continued looking at where he had been laid.[f]

16 So when the sabbath[g] had passed, Mary Mag′da·lene,[h] and Mary the mother of James, and Sa·lo′me bought spices in order to come and grease him.[i] 2 And very early on the first day[j] of the week they came to the memorial tomb, when the sun had risen.[k] 3 And they were saying one to another: "Who will roll the stone away from the door of the memorial tomb for us?" 4 But when they looked up, they beheld that the stone had been rolled away, although it was very large.[l] 5 When they entered into the memorial tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side clothed in a white robe, and they were stunned.[m] 6 He said to them: "Stop being stunned. You are looking for Jesus the Naz·a·rene′, who was impaled.[n] He was raised[o] up, he is not here. See! The place where they laid him.[p] 7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of YOU into Gal′i·lee;[q] there YOU will see him, just as he told YOU.'"[r] 8 So when they came out they fled from the memorial tomb, for trembling and strong emotion were gripping them. And they told nobody anything, for they were in fear.[a]

LONG CONCLUSION

Certain ancient manuscripts (ACD) and versions (VgSy^{c,p}) add the following long conclusion, but which ℵBSy^{s}Arm omit:

9 After he rose early on the first day of the week he appeared first to Mary Mag′da·lene, from whom he had expelled seven demons. 10 She went and reported to those who had been with him, as they were mourning and weeping. 11 But they, when they heard he had come to life and had been viewed by her, did not believe. 12 Moreover, after these things he appeared in another form to two of them walking along, as they were going into the country; 13 and they came back and reported to the rest. Neither did they believe these. 14 But later he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were reclining at the table, and he reproached their lack of faith and hardheartedness, because they did not believe those who had beheld him now raised up from the dead. 15 And he said to them: "Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. 16 He that believes and is baptized will be saved, but he that does not believe will be condemned. 17 Furthermore, these signs will accompany those believing: By the use of my name they will expel demons, they will speak with tongues, 18 and with their hands they will pick up serpents, and if they drink anything deadly it will not hurt them at all. They will lay their hands upon sick persons, and these will become well."

19 So, then, the Lord Jesus, after having spoken to them, was taken up to heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. 20 They, accordingly, went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and backed up the message through the accompanying signs.

SHORT CONCLUSION

Some late manuscripts and versions contain a short conclusion after Mark 16:8, as follows:

But all the things that had been commanded they related briefly to those around Peter. Further, after these things, Jesus himself sent out through them from the east to the west the holy and incorruptible proclamation of everlasting salvation.

1 Whereas many have undertaken to compile a statement of the facts[a] that are given full credence among us, 2 just as those who from [the] beginning[b] became eyewitnesses[c] and attendants of the message[d] delivered these to us, 3 I resolved also, because I have traced all things from the start with accuracy, to write them in logical order[e] to you, most excellent[f] The·oph′i·lus,[g] 4 that you may know fully the certainty of the things that you have been taught orally.[h]

5 In the days of Herod,[i] king of Ju·de′a, there happened to be a certain priest named Zech·a·ri′ah of the division of A·bi′jah,[j] and he had a wife from the daughters of Aaron,[k] and her name was Elizabeth. 6 They both were righteous[l] before God because of walking blamelessly[m] in accord with all the commandments[n] and legal[o] requirements of Jehovah.[p] 7 But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren,[q] and they both were well along in years.

8 Now as he was acting as priest in the assignment of his division[r] before God, 9 according to the solemn practice of the priestly office it became his turn to offer incense[s] when he entered into the sanctuary of Jehovah;[t] 10 and all the multitude of the people was praying outside at the hour of offering incense.[u] 11 To him Jehovah's angel appeared, standing at the right side of the incense altar.[v] 12 But Zech·a·ri′ah became troubled at the sight, and fear fell upon him.[w] 13 However, the angel said to him: "Have no fear, Zech·a·ri′ah, because your supplication has been favorably heard,[a] and your wife Elizabeth will become mother to a son to you, and you are to call his name John.[b] 14 And you will have joy and great gladness, and many will rejoice[c] over his birth; 15 for he will be great before Jehovah.[d] But he must drink no wine and strong drink at all,[e] and he will be filled with holy spirit right from his mother's womb;[f] 16 and many of the sons of Israel will he turn back to Jehovah[g] their God. 17 Also, he will go before him with E·li′jah's[h] spirit and power, to turn back the hearts[i] of fathers to children and the disobedient ones to the practical wisdom of righteous ones, to get ready for Jehovah[j] a prepared people."[k]

18 And Zech·a·ri′ah said to the angel: "How am I to be sure of this? For I am aged[l] and my wife is well along in years." 19 In reply the angel said to him: "I am Ga′bri·el,[m] who stands near before God, and I was sent forth to speak[n] with you and declare the good news of these things to you. 20 But, look! you will be silent[o] and not able to speak until the day that these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their appointed time." 21 Meanwhile the people continued waiting for Zech·a·ri′ah,[p] and they began to wonder at his delaying in the sanctuary. 22 But when he came out he was not able to speak to them, and they perceived that he had just seen a supernatural[q] sight in the sanctuary; and he kept making signs to them, but remained dumb. 23 When, now, the days of his public service were fulfilled,[a] he went off to his home.

24 But after these days Elizabeth his wife became pregnant;[b] and she kept herself secluded for five months, saying: 25 "This is the way Jehovah has dealt with me in these days when he has given me his attention to take away my reproach among men."[c]

26 In her sixth month the angel Ga'bri·el[d] was sent forth from God to a city of Gal'i·lee named Naz'a·reth, 27 to a virgin promised in marriage to a man named Joseph of David's house; and the name of the virgin[e] was Mary.[f] 28 And when he went in before her he said: "Good day,[g] highly favored one, Jehovah[h] is with you."[i] 29 But she was deeply disturbed at the saying and began to reason out what sort of greeting this might be. 30 So the angel said to her: "Have no fear, Mary, for you have found favor[j] with God; 31 and, look! you will conceive in your womb and give birth to a son,[k] and you are to call his name Jesus.[l] 32 This one will be great[m] and will be called Son of the Most High;[n] and Jehovah God will give him the throne[o] of David his father,[p] 33 and he will rule as king over the house of Jacob forever, and there will be no end of his kingdom."[q]

34 But Mary said to the angel: "How is this to be, since I am having no intercourse[r] with a man?" 35 In answer the angel said to her: "Holy spirit[s] will come upon you, and power of the Most High will overshadow you. For that reason also what is born will be called holy,[t] God's Son.[u] 36 And, look! Elizabeth your relative has also herself conceived a son, in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her, the so-called barren woman;[v] 37 because with God no declaration will be an impossibility."[a] 38 Then Mary said: "Look! Jehovah's slave girl![b] May it take place with me according to your declaration." At that the angel departed from her.

39 So Mary rose in these days and went into the mountainous country with haste, to a city of Judah, 40 and she entered into the home of Zech·a·ri'ah and greeted Elizabeth. 41 Well, as Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the infant in her womb leaped; and Elizabeth was filled with holy spirit, 42 and she called out with a loud cry and said: "Blessed are you among women, and blessed[c] is the fruit of your womb! 43 So how is it that this [privilege] is mine, to have the mother of my Lord[d] come to me? 44 For, look! as the sound of your greeting fell upon my ears, the infant in my womb leaped with great gladness.[e] 45 Happy too is she that believed, because there will be a complete performance[f] of those things spoken to her from Jehovah."[g]

46 And Mary said: "My soul magnifies Jehovah,[h] 47 and my spirit cannot keep from being overjoyed[i] at God my Savior;[j] 48 because he has looked upon the low position of his slave girl.[k] For, look! from now on all generations will pronounce me happy;[l] 49 because the powerful One has done great deeds for me, and holy is his name;[m] 50 and for generations after generations his mercy is upon those who fear him.[n] 51 He has performed mightily with his arm,[o] he has scattered abroad those who are haughty in the intention of their hearts.[p] 52 He has brought down men of power[q] from thrones and exalted lowly ones;[r] 53 he has fully satisfied hungry ones with good things[s] and he has sent away empty those who had wealth.[a] 54 He has come to the aid of Israel his servant,[b] to call to mind mercy,[c] 55 just as he told to our forefathers, to Abraham and to his seed, forever."[d] 56 Then Mary remained with her about three months, and returned to her own home.

57 The time now became due for Elizabeth to give birth, and she became mother to a son. 58 And the neighbors and her relatives heard that Jehovah had magnified his mercy[e] to her, and they began to rejoice[f] with her. 59 And on the eighth day they came to circumcise the young child,[g] and they were going to call it by the name of its father, Zech·a·ri'ah. 60 But its mother answered and said: "No, indeed! but he shall be called John." 61 At this they said to her: "There is no one among your relatives that is called by this name." 62 Then they went asking its father by signs what he wanted it to be called. 63 And he asked for a tablet and wrote: "John[h] is its name." At this they all marveled. 64 Instantly his mouth was opened[i] and his tongue loosed and he began to speak, blessing God. 65 And fear fell upon all those living in their neighborhood; and in the whole mountainous country of Ju·de'a all these things began to be talked around, 66 and all that heard made note of it in their hearts,[j] saying: "What really will this young child be?" For the hand[k] of Jehovah was indeed with it.

67 And Zech·a·ri'ah its father was filled with holy spirit,[l] and he prophesied,[m] saying: 68 "Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel,[n] because he has turned his attention and performed deliverance[o] toward his people.[p] 69 And he has raised up a horn[q] of salvation for us in the house of David his servant, 70 just as he, through the mouth of his holy prophets from of old,[a] has spoken 71 of a salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all those hating us;[b] 72 to perform the mercy in connection with our forefathers and to call to mind his holy covenant,[c] 73 the oath that he swore to Abraham our forefather,[d] 74 to grant us, after we have been rescued from the hands of enemies,[e] the privilege of fearlessly rendering sacred service to him[f] 75 with loyalty and righteousness before him all our days.[g] 76 But as for you, young child, you will be called a prophet of the Most High, for you will go in advance before Jehovah to make his ways ready,[h] 77 to give knowledge of salvation to his people by forgiveness of their sins,[i] 78 because of the tender compassion of our God. With this [compassion] a daybreak[j] will visit us from on high,[k] 79 to give light to those sitting in darkness and death's shadow,[l] to direct our feet prosperously in the way of peace."

80 And the young child went on growing[m] and getting strong in spirit, and he continued in the deserts until the day of showing himself openly to Israel.

2 Now in those days a decree[n] went forth from Caesar Au·gus'tus for all the inhabited earth to be registered; 2 (this first registration took place when Qui·rin'i·us was governor of Syria;) 3 and all people went traveling to be registered,[o] each one to his own city. 4 Of course, Joseph also went up from Gal'i·lee, out of the city of Naz'a·reth, into Ju·de'a, to David's city, which is called Beth'le·hem,[p] because of his being a member of the house and family of David,[q] 5 to get registered with Mary,[r] who had been given him in marriage as promised,[s] at present heavy with child.[a] 6 While they were there, the days came to the full for her to give birth. 7 And she gave birth to her son, the firstborn,[b] and she bound him with cloth bands and laid him in a manger,[c] because there was no place for them in the lodging room.

8 There were also in that same country shepherds living out of doors and keeping watches in the night over their flocks. 9 And suddenly Jehovah's angel[d] stood by them, and Jehovah's glory[e] gleamed around them, and they became very fearful. 10 But the angel said to them: "Have no fear, for, look! I am declaring to YOU good news of a great joy that all the people will have,[f] 11 because there was born to YOU today a Savior,[g] who is Christ [the] Lord,[h] in David's city.[i] 12 And this is a sign for YOU: YOU will find an infant bound in cloth bands and lying in a manger." 13 And suddenly there came to be with the angel a multitude of the heavenly army,[j] praising God[k] and saying: 14 "Glory in the heights[l] above to God, and upon earth peace[m] among men of goodwill."[n]

15 So when the angels had departed from them into heaven, the shepherds began saying to one another: "Let us by all means go clear to Beth'le·hem and see this thing that has taken place, which Jehovah[o] has made known to us." 16 And they went with haste and found Mary as well as Joseph, and the infant lying in the manger. 17 When they saw it, they made known the saying that had been spoken to them concerning this young child. 18 And all that heard marveled over the things told them by the shepherds, 19 but Mary began to preserve all these sayings, drawing conclusions in her heart.[p] 20 Then the shepherds went back, glorifying and praising God for all the things they heard and saw, just as these had been told them.

21 Now when eight days[a] came to the full for circumcising[b] him, his name was also called Jesus,[c] the name called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.[d]

22 Also, when the days for purifying[e] them according to the law of Moses came to the full, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to Jehovah, 23 just as it is written in Jehovah's law: "Every male opening a womb must be called holy to Jehovah,"[f] 24 and to offer sacrifice according to what is said in the law of Jehovah: "A pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."[g]

25 And, look! there was a man in Jerusalem named Sim'e·on, and this man was righteous and reverent, waiting for Israel's consolation,[h] and holy spirit was upon him. 26 Furthermore, it had been divinely revealed to him by the holy spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Christ[i] of Jehovah. 27 Under the power of the spirit[j] he now came into the temple; and as the parents brought the young child Jesus in to do for it according to the customary practice of the law,[k] 28 he himself received it into his arms and blessed God and said: 29 "Now, Sovereign Lord, you are letting your slave go free in peace[l] according to your declaration; 30 because my eyes have seen your means of saving[m] 31 that you have made ready in the sight of all the peoples,[n] 32 a light[o] for removing the veil[p] from the nations[q] and a glory of your people Israel." 33 And its father and mother continued wondering at the things being spoken about it. 34 Also, Sim'e·on blessed them, but said to Mary its mother:

"Look! This one is laid for the fall[a] and the rising again of many in Israel[b] and for a sign to be talked against[c] 35 (yes, a long sword will be run through the soul of you yourself),[d] in order that the reasonings of many hearts may be uncovered."[e]

36 Now there was Anna a prophetess, Phan'u·el's daughter, of Ash'er's tribe (this woman was well along in years, and had lived with a husband for seven years from her virginity, 37 and she was a widow[f] now eighty-four years old), who was never missing from the temple, rendering sacred service night and day[g] with fastings and supplications. 38 And in that very hour she came near and began returning thanks to God and speaking about [the child] to all those waiting for Jerusalem's deliverance.[h]

39 So when they had carried out all the things according to the law[i] of Jehovah, they went back into Gal'i·lee to their own city Naz'a·reth.[j] 40 And the young child continued growing and getting strong,[k] being filled with wisdom, and God's favor[l] continued upon him.

41 Now his parents were accustomed to go from year to year to Jerusalem[m] for the festival of the passover. 42 And when he became twelve years old, they went up according to the custom[n] of the festival 43 and completed the days. But when they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, and his parents did not notice it. 44 Assuming that he was in the company traveling together, they covered a day's distance[o] and then began to hunt him up among the relatives and acquaintances. 45 But, not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem, making a diligent search for him. 46 Well, after three days they found him in the temple,[p] sitting in the midst of the teachers and listening to them and questioning them. 47 But all those listening to him were in constant amazement at his understanding and his answers.[a] 48 Now when they saw him they were astounded, and his mother said to him: "Child, why did you treat us this way? Here your father and I in mental distress have been looking for you." 49 But he said to them: "Why did you have to go looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in the [house] of my Father?"[b] 50 However, they did not grasp the saying that he spoke to them.[c]

51 And he went down with them and came to Naz'a·reth, and he continued subject[d] to them. Also, his mother carefully kept all these sayings in her heart.[e] 52 And Jesus went on progressing in wisdom[f] and in physical growth and in favor with God and men.[g]

3 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Ti·be'ri·us Caesar, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Ju·de'a, and Herod[h] was district ruler of Gal'i·lee, but Philip his brother was district ruler of the country of It·u·rae'a and Trach·o·ni'tis, and Ly·sa'ni·as was district ruler of Ab·i·le'ne, 2 in the days of chief priest An'nas and of Ca'ia·phas,[i] God's declaration came to John[j] the son of Zech·a·ri'ah in the wilderness.[k]

3 So he came into all the country around the Jordan, preaching baptism [in symbol] of repentance for forgiveness of sins,[l] 4 just as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet: "Listen! Someone is crying out in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way of Jehovah, you people, make his roads straight.[m] 5 Every gully must be filled up, and every mountain and hill leveled down, and the curves must become straight ways and the rough places smooth ways;[n] 6 and all flesh will see the saving means of God.'"[a]

7 Therefore he began to say to the crowds coming out to be baptized by him: "YOU offspring of vipers,[b] who has intimated to YOU to flee from the coming wrath?[c] 8 Therefore produce fruits that befit repentance.[d] And do not start saying within yourselves, 'As a father we have Abraham.' For I say to YOU that God has power to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. 9 Indeed, the ax is already in position at the root of the trees; every tree, therefore, not producing fine fruit is to be cut down and thrown into the fire."[e]

10 And the crowds would ask him: "What, then, shall we do?"[f] 11 In reply he would say to them: "Let the man that has two undergarments share with the man that has none, and let him that has things to eat do the same."[g] 12 But even tax collectors came to be baptized, and they said to him: "Teacher, what shall we do?"[h] 13 He said to them: "Do not demand anything more than the tax rate."[i] 14 Also, those in military service would ask him: "What shall we also do?" And he said to them: "Do not harass anybody or accuse[j] anybody falsely, but be satisfied with YOUR provisions."[k]

15 Now as the people were in expectation and all were reasoning in their hearts about John: "May he perhaps be the Christ?"[l] 16 John gave the answer, saying to all: "I, for my part, baptize YOU with water; but the one stronger than I am is coming, the lace of whose sandals I am not fit to untie.[m] He will baptize YOU people with holy spirit and fire.[n] 17 His winnowing shovel is in his hand to clean up his threshing floor completely and to gather[o] the wheat into his storehouse, but the chaff[a] he will burn up with fire[b] that cannot be put out."

18 Therefore he also gave many other exhortations and continued declaring good news to the people. 19 But Herod the district ruler, for being reproved by him concerning He·ro′di·as the wife of his brother and concerning all the wicked deeds that Herod did,[c] 20 added also this to all those [deeds]: he locked John up in prison.[d]

21 Now when all the people were baptized, Jesus[e] also was baptized and, as he was praying, the heaven[f] was opened up 22 and the holy spirit in bodily shape like a dove came down upon him, and a voice came out of heaven: "You are my Son, the beloved; I have approved you."[g]

4 Now Jesus, full of holy spirit, turned away from the Jordan, and he was led about by the spirit in the wilderness[i] 2 for forty days,[j] while being tempted[k] by the Devil. Furthermore, he ate nothing in those days, and so, when they were concluded, he felt hungry. 3 At this the Devil said to him: "If you are a son of God, tell this stone to become a loaf of bread." 4 But Jesus replied to him: "It is written, 'Man must not live by bread alone.'"[a]

5 So he brought him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the inhabited earth in an instant of time; 6 and the Devil said to him: "I will give you all this authority[b] and the glory of them, because it has been delivered to me, and to whomever I wish I give it.[c] 7 You, therefore, if you do an act[d] of worship before me, it will all be yours." 8 In reply Jesus said to him: "It is written, 'It is Jehovah your God[e] you must worship, and it is to him alone you must render sacred service.'"[f]

9 Now he led him into Jerusalem and stationed him upon the battlement[g] of the temple and said to him: "If you are a son of God, hurl yourself down from here;[h] 10 for it is written, 'He will give his angels a charge concerning you, to preserve you,'[i] 11 and, 'They will carry you on their hands, that you may at no time strike your foot against a stone.'"[j] 12 In answer Jesus said to him: "It is said, 'You must not put Jehovah your God to the test.'"[k] 13 So the Devil, having concluded all the temptation, retired from him until another convenient time.[l]

14 Now Jesus returned in the power of the spirit into Gal′i·lee.[m] And good talk concerning him spread out through all the surrounding country.[n] 15 Also, he began to teach in their synagogues, being held in honor by all.[o]

16 And he came to Naz′a·reth,[p] where he had been reared; and, according to his custom on the sabbath day, he entered into the synagogue,[q] and he stood up to read. 17 So the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed him, and he opened the scroll and found the place where it was written: 18 "Jehovah's spirit[a] is upon me, because he anointed me to declare good news to the poor, he sent me forth to preach a release to the captives and a recovery of sight to the blind, to send the crushed ones away with a release,[b] 19 to preach Jehovah's acceptable year."[c] 20 With that he rolled up the scroll, handed it back to the attendant and sat down; and the eyes of all in the synagogue were intently fixed upon him. 21 Then he started to say to them: "Today this scripture that YOU just heard is fulfilled."[d]

22 And they all began to give favorable witness about him and to marvel at the winsome words[e] proceeding out of his mouth, and they were saying: "This is a son of Joseph, is it not?"[f] 23 At this he said to them: "No doubt YOU will apply this illustration to me, 'Physician,[g] cure yourself; the things[h] we heard as having happened in Ca·per'na·um[i] do also here in your home territory.'"[j] 24 But he said: "Truly I tell YOU that no prophet is accepted in his home territory. 25 For instance, I tell YOU in truth, There were many widows in Israel in the days of E·li'jah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, so that a great famine fell upon all the land,[k] 26 yet E·li'jah was sent to none of those [women], but only to Zar'e·phath[l] in the land of Si'don to a widow. 27 Also, there were many lepers in Israel in the time of E·li'sha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed, but Na'a·man the man of Syria."[m] 28 Now all those hearing these things in the synagogue became filled with anger;[n] 29 and they rose up and hurried him outside the city, and they led him to the brow of the mountain upon which their city had been built, in order to throw him down headlong.[a] 30 But he went through the midst of them and continued on his way.[b]

31 And he went down to Ca·per'na·um,[c] a city of Gal'i·lee. And he was teaching them on the sabbath; 32 and they were astounded at his way of teaching,[d] because his speech was with authority.[e] 33 Now in the synagogue there was a man with a spirit,[f] an unclean demon, and he shouted with a loud voice: 34 "Ah! What have we to do with you,[g] Jesus you Naz·a·rene'?[h] Did you come to destroy us? I know[i] exactly who you are, the Holy One of God."[j] 35 But Jesus rebuked it, saying: "Be silent, and come out of him." So, after throwing the man down in their midst, the demon came out of him without hurting him.[k] 36 At this, astonishment fell upon all, and they began to converse with one another, saying: "What sort of speech is this, because with authority and power he orders the unclean spirits, and out they come?"[l] 37 So the news concerning him kept going out into every corner of the surrounding country.[m]

38 After getting up out of the synagogue he entered into Simon's home. Now Simon's mother-in-law was distressed with a high fever, and they made request of him for her.[n] 39 So he stood over her and rebuked the fever,[o] and it left her. Instantly she rose and began ministering to them.[p]

40 But when the sun was setting, all those who had people sick with various diseases brought them to him. By laying his hands upon each one of them he would cure them.[q] 41 Demons also would come out of many,[r] crying out and saying: "You are the Son[s] of God." But, rebuking them, he would not permit them to speak,[a] because they knew him[b] to be the Christ.[c]

42 However, when it became day, he went out and proceeded to a lonely place.[d] But the crowds began hunting about for him and came out as far as he was, and they tried to detain him from going away from them. 43 But he said to them: "Also to other cities I must declare the good news of the kingdom of God, because for this I was sent forth."[e] 44 Accordingly he went on preaching in the synagogues of Ju·de'a.[f]

5 On an occasion when the crowd was pressing close upon him and listening to the word of God, he was standing beside the lake of Gen·nes'a·ret.[g] 2 And he saw two boats docked at the lakeside, but the fishermen had got out of them and were washing off their nets.[h] 3 Going aboard one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to pull away a bit from land. Then he sat down, and from the boat[i] he began teaching the crowds. 4 When he ceased speaking, he said to Simon: "Pull out to where it is deep, and YOU men let down YOUR nets[j] for a catch." 5 But Simon in reply said: "Instructor, for a whole night we toiled and took nothing,[k] but at your bidding I will lower the nets." 6 Well, when they did this, they enclosed a great multitude of fish. In fact, their nets began ripping apart. 7 So they motioned to their partners in the other boat to come and assist them;[l] and they did come, and they filled both boats, so that these began to sink. 8 Seeing this, Simon Peter[m] fell down at the knees of Jesus, saying: "Depart from me, because I am a sinful man, Lord."[n] 9 For at the catch of fish which they took up astonishment overwhelmed him and all those with him, 10 and likewise both James and John, Zeb'e·dee's sons,[a] who were sharers with Simon. But Jesus said to Simon: "Stop being afraid. From now on you will be catching men alive."[b] 11 So they brought the boats back to land, and abandoned everything and followed him.[c]

12 On a further occasion while he was in one of the cities, look! a man full of leprosy! When he caught sight of Jesus he fell upon his face and begged him, saying: "Lord, if you just want to, you can make me clean."[d] 13 And so, stretching out his hand, he touched him, saying: "I want to. Be made clean." And immediately the leprosy vanished from him.[e] 14 And he gave the man orders to tell nobody:[f] "But go off and show yourself to the priest,[g] and make an offering[h] in connection with your cleansing, just as Moses directed, for a witness to them."[i] 15 But the word about him was spreading the more, and great crowds would come together to listen and to be cured of their sicknesses.[j] 16 However, he continued in retirement in the deserts and praying.[k]

17 In the course of one of the days he was teaching, and Pharisees and teachers of the law who had come out of every village of Gal'i·lee and Ju·de'a and Jerusalem were sitting there; and Jehovah's power was there for him to do healing.[l] 18 And, look! men carrying on a bed a man who was paralyzed, and they were seeking a way to bring him in and place him before him.[m] 19 So, not finding a way to bring him in on account of the crowd, they climbed up to the roof, and through the tiling they let him down with the little bed among those in front of Jesus.[n] 20 And when he saw their faith he said: "Man, your sins are forgiven you."[o] 21 Thereupon the scribes and the Pharisees started to reason, saying: “Who is this that is speaking blasphemies?[a] Who can forgive sins except God alone?”[b] 22 But Jesus, discerning their reasonings, said in answer to them: “What are YOU reasoning out in YOUR hearts?[c] 23 Which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’?[d] 24 But in order for YOU to know that the Son of man has authority on the earth to forgive sins—” he said to the paralyzed man: “I say to you, Get up and pick up your little bed and be on your way home.”[e] 25 And instantly he rose up before them, picked up what he used to lie on and went off to his home, glorifying God.[f] 26 Then an ecstasy[g] seized one and all, and they began to glorify God, and they became filled with fear, saying: “We have seen strange things today!”[h]

27 Now after these things he went out and beheld a tax collector named Le′vi sitting at the tax office, and he said to him: “Be my follower.”[i] 28 And leaving everything[j] behind he rose up and went following him. 29 Also, Le′vi spread a big reception feast for him in his house; and there was a great crowd of tax collectors and others who were with them reclining at the meal.[k] 30 At this the Pharisees and their scribes began murmuring to his disciples, saying: “Why is it YOU eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?”[l] 31 In reply Jesus said to them: “Those who are healthy do not need a physician,[m] but those who are ailing do.[n] 32 I have come to call, not righteous persons, but sinners to repentance.”[o]

33 They said to him: “The disciples of John fast frequently and offer supplications, and so do those of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink.”[p] 34 Jesus said to them: “YOU cannot make the friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them, can YOU?[a] 35 Yet days will come when the bridegroom[b] will indeed be taken away from them;[c] then they will fast in those days.”[d]

36 Further, he went on to give an illustration to them: “No one cuts a patch from a new outer garment and sews it onto an old outer garment; but if he does, then both the new patch tears away and the patch from the new garment does not match the old.[e] 37 Moreover, no one puts new wine into old wineskins; but if he does, then the new wine will burst the wineskins,[f] and it will be spilled out and the wineskins will be ruined.[g] 38 But new wine must be put into new wineskins. 39 No one that has drunk old wine wants new; for he says, ‘The old[h] is nice.’”

6 Now on a sabbath he happened to be passing through grainfields, and his disciples were plucking[i] and eating the heads of grain, rubbing them with their hands.[j] 2 At this some of the Pharisees said: “Why are YOU doing what is not lawful[k] on the sabbath?”[l] 3 But Jesus said in reply to them: “Have YOU never read the very thing David[m] did when he and the men with him got hungry?[n] 4 How he entered into the house of God and received the loaves of presentation[o] and ate and gave some to the men with him, which it is lawful for no one to eat but for the priests only?”[p] 5 And he went on to say to them: “Lord of the sabbath is what the Son of man is.”[q]

6 In the course of another sabbath[r] he entered into the synagogue and began teaching. And there was a man present whose right hand was withered.[s] 7 The scribes and the Pharisees were now watching[t] him closely to see whether he would cure on the sabbath, in order to find some way to accuse him.[a] 8 He, however, knew their reasonings,[b] yet he said to the man with the withered hand: “Get up and stand in the center.” And he rose and took his stand.[c] 9 Then Jesus said to them: “I ask YOU men, Is it lawful on the sabbath to do good[d] or to do injury, to save or to destroy a soul?”[e] 10 And after looking around at them all, he said to the man: “Stretch out your hand.” He did so, and his hand was restored.[f] 11 But they became filled with madness, and they began to talk over with one another what they might do to Jesus.[g]

12 In the progress of these days he went out into the mountain to pray,[h] and he continued the whole night in prayer to God.[i] 13 But when it became day he called his disciples to him and chose from among them twelve, whom he also named apostles:[j] 14 Simon, whom he also named Peter,[k] and Andrew his brother, and James and John,[l] and Philip[m] and Bar·thol′o·mew, 15 and Matthew and Thomas,[n] and James [the son] of Al·phae′us, and Simon who is called “the zealous one,”[o] 16 and Judas [the son] of James, and Judas Is·car′i·ot, who turned traitor.[p]

17 And he came down with them and took his station on a level place, and there was a great crowd of his disciples, and a great multitude of people[q] from all of Ju·de′a and Jerusalem and the maritime country of Tyre and Si′don, who came to hear him and be healed of their sicknesses.[r] 18 Even those troubled with unclean spirits were cured. 19 And all the crowd were seeking to touch[s] him, because power[t] was going out of him and healing them all.

20 And he lifted up his eyes upon his disciples and began to say:[a] “Happy are YOU poor,[b] because YOURS is the kingdom of God.

21 “Happy are YOU who hunger[c] now, because YOU will be filled.[d]

“Happy are YOU who weep now, because YOU will laugh.[e]

22 “Happy are YOU whenever men hate[f] YOU, and whenever they exclude YOU and reproach YOU and cast out[g] YOUR name as wicked for the sake of the Son of man. 23 Rejoice in that day and leap, for, look! YOUR reward is great in heaven, for those are the same things their forefathers used to do to the prophets.[h]

24 “But woe to YOU rich persons,[i] because YOU are having YOUR consolation in full.[j]

25 “Woe to YOU who are filled up now, because YOU will go hungry.[k]

“Woe, YOU who are laughing now, because YOU will mourn and weep.[l]

26 “Woe, whenever all men speak well of YOU, for things like these are what their forefathers did to the false prophets.[m]

27 “But I say to YOU who are listening, Continue to love YOUR enemies,[n] to do good[o] to those hating YOU, 28 to bless those cursing YOU, to pray for those who are insulting YOU.[p] 29 To him that strikes you on the one cheek,[q] offer the other also; and from him that takes away[r] your outer garment, do not withhold even the undergarment. 30 Give to everyone asking you,[s] and from the one taking your things away do not ask [them] back.

31 “Also, just as YOU want men to do to YOU, do the same way to them.[t]

32 “And if YOU love those loving YOU, of what credit is it to YOU? For even the sinners love those loving them.[u] 33 And if YOU do good to those doing good to YOU, really of what credit is it to YOU? Even the sinners do the same.[a] 34 Also, if YOU lend [without interest][b] to those from whom YOU hope to receive, of what credit is it to YOU? Even sinners lend [without interest] to sinners that they may get back as much.[c] 35 To the contrary, continue to love YOUR enemies and to do good and to lend[d] [without interest], not hoping for anything back; and YOUR reward will be great, and YOU will be sons of the Most High,[e] because he is kind[f] toward the unthankful and wicked. 36 Continue becoming merciful, just as YOUR Father is merciful.[g]

37 "Moreover, stop judging, and YOU will by no means be judged;[h] and stop condemning, and YOU will by no means be condemned. Keep on releasing, and YOU will be released.[i] 38 Practice giving, and people will give to YOU.[j] They will pour into YOUR laps a fine measure, pressed down, shaken together and overflowing. For with the measure that YOU are measuring out, they will measure out to YOU in return."[k]

39 Then he also spoke an illustration to them: "A blind man cannot guide a blind man, can he? Both will tumble into a pit, will they not?[l] 40 A pupil is not above his teacher, but everyone that is perfectly instructed will be like his teacher.[m] 41 Why, then, do you look at the straw that is in your brother's eye, but do not observe the rafter that is in your own eye?[n] 42 How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, allow me to extract the straw that is in your eye,' while you yourself are not looking at the rafter in that eye of yours?[o] Hypocrite! First extract the rafter from your own eye,[p] and then you will see clearly how to extract the straw that is in your brother's eye.[q]

46 "Why, then, do YOU call me 'Lord! Lord!' but do not do the things I say?[f] 47 Everyone that comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show YOU whom he is like:[g] 48 He is like a man building a house, who dug and went down deep and laid a foundation upon the rock-mass. Consequently, when a flood[h] arose, the river dashed against that house, but was not strong enough to shake it, because of its being well built.[i] 49 On the other hand, he who hears and does not do,[j] is like a man who built a house upon the ground without a foundation. Against it the river dashed, and immediately it collapsed, and the ruin[k] of that house became great."[l]

7 When he had completed all his sayings in the hearing of the people, he entered into Ca·per′na·um.[m] 2 Now a certain army officer's slave, who was dear to him, was ailing and was about to pass away.[n] 3 When he heard about Jesus, he sent forth older men of the Jews to him to ask him to come and bring his slave safely through. 4 Then those that came up to Jesus began to entreat him earnestly, saying: "He is worthy of your conferring this upon him, 5 for he loves our nation[o] and he himself built the synagogue for us." 6 So Jesus started off with them. But when he was not far from the house, the army officer had already sent friends to say to him: "Sir, do not bother, for I am not fit to have you come in under my roof.[a] 7 For that reason I did not consider myself worthy to come to you. But say the word, and let my servant be healed. 8 For I too am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me, and I say to this one, 'Be on your way!' and he is on his way, and to another, 'Come!' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this!' and he does it."[b] 9 Well, when Jesus heard these things he marveled at him, and he turned to the crowd following him and said: "I tell YOU, Not even in Israel have I found so great a faith."[c] 10 And those that had been sent, on getting back to the house, found the slave in good health.[d]

11 Closely following this he traveled to a city called Na′in, and his disciples and a great crowd were traveling with him. 12 As he got near the gate of the city, why, look! there was a dead man[e] being carried out, the only[f]-begotten son of his mother. Besides, she was a widow. A considerable crowd from the city was also with her. 13 And when the Lord caught sight of her, he was moved with pity[g] for her, and he said to her: "Stop weeping."[h] 14 With that he approached and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still, and he said: "Young man, I say to you, Get up!"[i] 15 And the dead man sat up and started to speak, and he gave him to his mother.[j] 16 Now fear[k] seized them all, and they began to glorify God, saying: "A great prophet[l] has been raised up among us," and, "God has turned his attention to his people."[m] 17 And this news concerning him spread out into all Ju·de′a and all the surrounding country.

18 Now John's disciples reported to him about all these things.[a] 19 So John summoned a certain two of his disciples and sent them to the Lord to say: "Are you the Coming One or are we to expect a different one?"[b] 20 When they came up to him the men said: "John the Baptist dispatched us to you to say, 'Are you the Coming One or are we to expect another?'" 21 In that hour he cured many of sicknesses[c] and grievous diseases and wicked spirits, and granted many blind persons the favor of seeing. 22 Hence in answer he said to the [two]: "Go YOUR way,[d] report to John what YOU saw and heard: the blind[e] are receiving sight, the lame are walking, the lepers are being cleansed and the deaf are hearing, the dead are being raised up, the poor are being told[f] the good news.[g] 23 And happy is he who has not stumbled over me."[h]

24 When the messengers of John had gone away, he started to say to the crowds concerning John: "What did YOU go out into the wilderness to behold? A reed being tossed by the wind?[i] 25 What, then, did YOU go out to see? A man dressed in soft outer garments?[j] Why, those in splendid dress and existing in luxury are in royal houses.[k] 26 Really, then, what did YOU go out to see? A prophet?[l] Yes, I tell YOU, and far more than a prophet.[m] 27 This is he concerning whom it is written, 'Look! I am sending forth my messenger before your face,[n] who will prepare your way ahead of you.'[o] 28 I tell YOU, Among those born of women there is none greater[p] than John; but a person that is a lesser one in the kingdom of God is greater than he is."[q] 29 (And all the people and the tax collectors, when they heard [this], declared God to be righteous,[r] they having been baptized with the baptism of John.[s] 30 But the Pharisees and those versed in the Law disregarded

31 "With whom, therefore, shall I compare the men of this generation, and whom are they like?[b] 32 They are like young children sitting in a marketplace and crying out to one another, and who say, 'We played the flute for YOU, but YOU did not dance; we wailed, but YOU did not weep.'[c] 33 Correspondingly, John the Baptist has come neither eating bread nor drinking wine, but YOU say, 'He has a demon.'[d] 34 The Son of man has come eating and drinking, but YOU say, 'Look! 36 Now a certain one of the Pharisees kept asking him to dine with him. Accordingly he entered into the house[h] of the Pharisee and reclined at the table. 37 And, look! a woman who was known in the city to be a sinner learned that he was reclining at a meal in the house of the Pharisee, and she brought an alabaster[i] case of perfumed oil, 38 and, taking a position behind at his feet, she wept and started to wet his feet with her tears and she would wipe them off with the hair of her head. Also, she tenderly kissed his feet and greased them with the perfumed oil. 39 At the sight the Pharisee that invited him said within himself: "This man, if he were a prophet,[j] would know who and what kind of woman it is that is touching him, that she is a sinner."[k] 40 But in reply Jesus said to him: "Simon, I have something to say to you." He said: "Teacher, say it!"

41 "Two men were debtors to a certain lender; the one was in debt for five hundred denar'i·i,[a] but the other for fifty. 42 When they did not have anything with which to pay back, he freely forgave[b] them both. Therefore, which of them will love him the more?" 43 In answer Simon said: "I suppose it is the one to whom he freely forgave the more." He said to him: "You judged correctly." 44 With that he turned to the woman and said to Simon: "Do you behold this woman? I entered into your house; you gave me no water[c] for my feet. But this woman wet my feet with her tears and wiped them off with her hair. 45 You gave me no kiss;[d] but this woman, from the hour that I came in, did not leave off tenderly kissing my feet. 46 You did not grease my head with oil;[e] but this woman greased my feet with perfumed oil. 47 By virtue of this, I tell you, her sins, many though they are, are forgiven,[f] because she loved much; but he who is forgiven little, loves little." 48 Then he said to her: "Your sins are forgiven."[g] 49 At this those reclining at the table with him started to say within themselves: "Who is this man who even forgives sins?"[h] 50 But he said to the woman: "Your faith has saved you;[i] go your way in peace."[j]

8 Shortly afterwards he went journeying from city to city and from village to village, preaching and declaring the good news of the kingdom of God.[k] And the twelve were with him, 2 and certain women[l] that had been cured of wicked spirits and sicknesses, Mary the so-called Mag'da·lene, from whom seven demons had come out,[m] 3 and Jo·an'na[n] the wife of Chu'za, Herod's man in charge, and Su·san'na and many other women, who were ministering to them from their belongings.

4 Now when a great crowd had collected together with those that went to him from city after city, he spoke by means of an illustration:[a] 5 "A sower went out to sow his seed. Well, as he was sowing, some of it fell alongside the road and was trampled down, and the birds of heaven ate it up.[b] 6 Some other landed upon the rock-mass, and, after sprouting, it dried up because of not having moisture.[c] 7 Some other fell among the thorns, and the thorns that grew up with it choked it off.[d] 8 Some other fell upon the good soil, and, after sprouting, it produced fruit a hundredfold."[e] As he told these things, he proceeded to call out: "Let him that has ears to listen, listen."[f]

9 But his disciples began to ask him what this illustration might mean.[g] 10 He said: "To YOU it is granted to understand the sacred secrets of the kingdom of God, but for the rest it is in illustrations,[h] in order that, though looking, they may look in vain and, though hearing, they may not get the meaning.[i] 11 Now the illustration[j] means this: The seed is the word of God.[k] 12 Those alongside the road are the ones that have heard,[l] then the Devil[m] comes and takes the word away from their hearts in order that they may not believe and be saved.[n] 13 Those upon the rock-mass are the ones who, when they hear it, receive the word with joy, but these have no root; they believe for a season, but in a season of testing they fall away.[o] 14 As for that which fell among the thorns, these are the ones that have heard, but, by being carried away by anxieties and riches and pleasures[p] of this life, they are completely choked and bring nothing to perfection.[q] 15 As for that on the fine soil, these are the ones that, after hearing the word with a fine and good heart,[r] retain it and bear fruit with endurance.[s]

16 "No one, after lighting a lamp, covers it with a vessel or puts it underneath a bed, but he puts it on a lampstand, that those stepping in may behold the light.[a] 17 For there is nothing hidden[b] that will not become manifest, neither anything carefully concealed that will never become known and never come into the open.[c] 18 Therefore, pay attention to how YOU listen; for whoever has, more will be given him,[d] but whoever does not have, even what he imagines he has will be taken away from him."[e]

19 Now his mother and brothers[f] came toward him, but they were unable to get to him because of the crowd.[g] 20 However, it was reported to him: "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside wanting to see you."[h] 21 In reply he said to them: "My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it."[i]

22 In the course of one of the days he and his disciples got into a boat, and he said to them: "Let us cross to the other side of the lake." So they set sail.[j] 23 But as they were sailing he fell asleep. Now a violent windstorm descended upon the lake, and they began to fill up with [water] and to be in danger.[k] 24 Finally they went to him and roused him, saying: "Instructor, Instructor, we are about to perish!"[l] Rousing himself, he rebuked[m] the wind and the raging of the water, and they subsided, and a calm set in. 25 Then he said to them: "Where is YOUR faith?" But struck with fear, they marveled, saying to one another: "Who really is this, for he orders even the winds and the water, and they obey him?"[n]

26 And they put in to shore in the country of the Ger'a·senes, which is on the side opposite Gal'i·lee.[o] 27 But as he got out onto land a certain man from the city who had demons met him. And for a considerable time he had not worn clothing, and he was staying, not at home, but among the tombs.[a] 28 At the sight of Jesus he cried aloud and fell down before him, and with a loud voice he said: "What have I to do with you,[b] Jesus Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me."[c] 29 (For he had been ordering the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For over a long time it had held him fast,[d] and he was repeatedly bound with chains and fetters under guard, but he would burst the bonds and be driven by the demon into the lonely places.) 30 Jesus asked him: "What is your name?" He said: "Legion," because many demons had entered into him.[e] 31 And they kept entreating[f] him not to order them to go away into the abyss.[g] 32 Now a herd of a considerable number of swine[h] was feeding there on the mountain; so they entreated him to permit them to enter into those.[i] And he gave them permission. 33 Then the demons went out of the man and entered into the swine, and the herd rushed over the precipice into the lake and drowned.[j] 34 But when the herders saw what had happened, they fled and reported it to the city and to the countryside.[k]

35 Then people turned out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons came out, clothed and in his sound mind, sitting at the feet of Jesus; and they became fearful.[l] 36 Those who had seen it reported to them how the demon-possessed man had been made well.[m] 37 So all the multitude from the surrounding country of the Ger′a·senes asked him to get away from them, because they were in the grip of great fear.[a] Then he went aboard the boat and turned away. 38 However, the man from whom the demons had gone out kept begging to continue with him; but he dismissed the man, saying:[b] 39 "Be on your way back home, and keep on relating what things God did for you."[c] Accordingly he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city what things Jesus did for him.[d]

40 When Jesus got back, the crowd received him kindly, for they were all expecting him.[e] 41 But, look! a man named Ja′i·rus came, and this man was a presiding officer of the synagogue. And he fell at the feet of Jesus and began to entreat him to enter into his house,[f] 42 because he had an only-begotten daughter about twelve years old and she was dying.[g]

As he was going the crowds thronged him.[h] 43 And a woman, subject to a flow of blood[i] for twelve years, who had not been able to get a cure from anyone,[j] 44 approached from behind and touched the fringe[k] of his outer garment,[l] and instantly her flow of blood stopped.[m] 45 So Jesus said: "Who was it that touched me?"[n] When they were all denying it, Peter said: "Instructor, the crowds are hemming you in and closely pressing you."[o] 46 Yet Jesus said: "Someone touched me, for I perceived that power[p] went out of me."[q] 47 Seeing that she had not escaped notice, the woman came trembling and fell down before him and disclosed before all the people the cause for which she touched him and how she was healed instantly.[r] 48 But he said to her: "Daughter, your faith has made you well;[s] go your way in peace."[t]

49 While he was yet speaking, a certain representative of the presiding officer of the synagogue came, saying: "Your daughter has died; do not bother the teacher any longer."[a] 50 On hearing this, Jesus answered him: "Have no fear, only put forth faith,[b] and she will be saved." 51 When he reached the house he did not let anyone go in with him except Peter and John and James and the girl's father and mother.[c] 52 But people were all weeping and beating themselves in grief for her. So he said: "STOP weeping,[d] for she did not die but is sleeping."[e] 53 At this they began to laugh at him scornfully, because they knew she had died.[f] 54 But he took her by the hand and called, saying: "Girl, get up!"[g] 55 And her spirit[h] returned, and she rose[i] instantly, and he ordered something to be given her to eat.[j] 56 Well, her parents were beside themselves; but he instructed them to tell no one what had happened.[k]

9 Then he called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all the demons and to cure sicknesses.[l] 2 And so he sent them forth to preach the kingdom of God and to heal, 3 and he said to them: "Carry nothing for the trip, neither staff nor food pouch, nor bread nor silver money; neither have two undergarments.[m] 4 But wherever YOU enter into a home, stay there and leave from there.[n] 5 And wherever people do not receive YOU, on going out of that city[o] shake the dust off YOUR feet for a witness against them."[p] 6 Then starting out they went through the territory from village to village, declaring the good news and performing cures everywhere.[q]

7 Now Herod the district ruler heard of all the things happening, and he was in great perplexity because of its being said by some that John had been raised up from the dead,[r] 8 but by others that E·li′jah had appeared, but by still others that a certain one of the ancient prophets had risen. 9 Herod said: "John I beheaded.[a] Who, then, is this about whom I am hearing such things?" So he was seeking[b] to see him.

10 And when the apostles returned they recounted to him what things they had done.[c] With that he took them along and withdrew to privacy[d] into a city called Beth·sa′i·da. 11 But the crowds, getting to know it, followed him. And he received them kindly and began to speak to them about the kingdom of God,[e] and he healed those needing a cure.[f] 12 Then the day started to decline. The twelve now came up and said to him: "Dismiss the crowd, that they may go into the villages and countryside round about and procure lodging and find provisions, because out here we are in a lonely place."[g] 13 But he said to them: "YOU give them something to eat."[h] They said: "We have nothing more than five loaves and two fishes,[i] unless perhaps we ourselves go and buy foodstuffs for all these people."[j] 14 They were, in fact, about five thousand men.[k] But he said to his disciples: "Have them recline as at meals, in groups of about fifty each."[l] 15 And they did so and had them all recline. 16 Then taking the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, blessed them and broke them up and began to give them to the disciples to set before the crowd.[m] 17 So they all ate and were satisfied, and the surplus that they had was taken up, twelve baskets of fragments.[n]

18 Later, while he was praying alone, the disciples came together to him, and he questioned them, saying: "Who are the crowds saying that I am?"[o]

o Mt 16:13; Mr 8:27.

19 In reply they said: "John the Baptist; but others, E·li′jah, and still others, that one of the ancient prophets has risen."[a] 20 Then he said to them: "YOU, though, who do YOU say I am?" Peter said in reply:[b] "The Christ[c] of God." 21 Then in a stern talk to them he instructed them not to be telling this to anybody,[d] 22 but said: "The Son of man must undergo many sufferings and be rejected by the older men and chief priests and scribes, and be killed,[e] and on the third day be raised up."[f]

23 Then he went on to say to all: "If anyone wants to come after me, let him disown himself[g] and pick up his torture stake day after day and follow me continually.[h] 24 For whoever wants to save his soul will lose it; but whoever loses his soul for my sake is the one that will save it.[i] 25 Really, what does a man benefit himself if he gains the whole world but loses his own self or suffers damage?[j] 26 For whoever becomes ashamed of me and of my words, the Son of man will be ashamed of this one when he arrives in his glory and that of the Father and of the holy angels.[k] 27 But I tell YOU truthfully, There are some of those standing here that will not taste death at all until first they see the kingdom of God."[l]

28 In actual fact, about eight days after these words, he took Peter and John and James along and climbed up into the mountain to pray.[m] 29 And as he was praying the appearance[n] of his face became different and his apparel became glitteringly white.[o] 30 Also, look! two men were conversing with him, who were Moses and E·li′jah.[p] 31 These appeared with glory and began talking about his departure that he was destined to fulfill at Jerusalem.[q] 32 Now Peter and those with him were weighed down with sleep; but when they got fully awake they saw his glory[a] and the two men standing with him. 33 And as these were being separated from him, Peter said to Jesus: "Instructor, it is fine for us to be here, so let us erect three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for E·li′jah," he not realizing what he was saying.[b] 34 But as he was saying these things a cloud formed and began to overshadow them. As they entered into the cloud, they became fearful.[c] 35 And a voice[d] came out of the cloud, saying: "This is my Son, the one that has been chosen.[e] Listen to him."[f] 36 And as the voice occurred Jesus was found alone.[g] But they kept quiet and did not report to anyone in those days any of the things they saw.[h]

37 On the succeeding day, when they got down from the mountain, a great crowd met him.[i] 38 And, look! a man cried out from the crowd, saying: "Teacher, I beg you to take a look at my son, because he is my only[j]-begotten,[k] 39 and, look! a spirit[l] takes him, and suddenly he cries out, and it throws him into convulsions with foam, and it scarcely withdraws from him after bruising him. 40 And I begged your disciples to expel it, but they could not."[m] 41 In response Jesus said: "O faithless and twisted generation,[n] how long must I continue with YOU and put up with YOU? Lead your son over here."[o] 42 But even as he was approaching, the demon dashed him to the ground and violently convulsed him. However, Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the boy and delivered him to his father.[p] 43 Well, they all began to be astounded at the majestic power[q] of God.

Now as they were all marveling at all the things he was doing, he said to his disciples: 44 "Give lodgment to these words in YOUR ears, for the Son of man is destined to be delivered into the hands of men."[a] 45 But they continued without understanding of this saying. In fact, it was concealed from them that they might not see through it, and they were afraid to question him about this saying.[b]

46 Then a reasoning entered among them as to who would be the greatest of them.[c] 47 Jesus, knowing the reasoning of their hearts, took a young child, set it beside him[d] 48 and said to them: "Whoever receives this young child on the basis of my name receives me [too], and whoever receives me receives him [also] that sent me forth.[e] For he that conducts himself as a lesser[f] one among all of YOU is the one that is great."[g]

49 In response John said: "Instructor, we saw a certain man expelling demons[h] by the use of your name and we tried to prevent[i] him, because he is not following with us."[j] 50 But Jesus said to him: "Do not YOU men try to prevent [him], for he that is not against YOU is for YOU."[k]

51 As the days were now coming to the full for him to be taken up,[l] he firmly set his face to go to Jerusalem. 52 So he sent forth messengers in advance of him. And they went their way and entered into a village of Sa·mar′i·tans,[m] to make preparation for him; 53 but they did not receive him, because his face was set for going to Jerusalem.[n] 54 When the disciples James and John[o] saw this they said: "Lord, do you want us to tell fire[p] to come down from heaven and annihilate them?" 55 But he turned and rebuked them. 56 So they went to a different village.

57 Now as they were going on the road, someone said to him: "I will follow you to wherever you may depart."[a] 58 And Jesus said to him: "Foxes have dens and birds of heaven have roosts, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay down his head."[b] 59 Then he said to another: "Be my follower." The man said: "Permit me first to leave and bury my father."[c] 60 But he said to him: "Let the dead[d] bury their dead, but you go away and declare abroad the kingdom of God."[e] 61 And still another said: "I will follow you, Lord; but first permit me to say good-bye[f] to those in my household." 62 Jesus said to him: "No man that has put his hand to a plow[g] and looks at the things behind[h] is well fitted for the kingdom of God."

10 After these things the Lord designated seventy[i] others and sent them forth by twos[j] in advance of him into every city and place to which he himself was going to come. 2 Then he began to say to them: "The harvest,[k] indeed, is great, but the workers[l] are few. Therefore beg[m] the Master of the harvest to send out workers[n] into his harvest. 3 Go forth. Look! I am sending YOU forth as lambs[o] in among wolves. 4 Do not carry a purse, nor a food pouch,[p] nor sandals, and do not embrace[q] anybody in greeting along the road. 5 Wherever YOU enter into a house say first, 'May this house have peace.'[r] 6 And if a friend of peace is there, YOUR peace will rest upon him.[s] But if there is not, it will turn back to YOU.[t] 7 So stay in that house,[u] eating and drinking the things they provide,[v] for the worker is worthy of his wages.[w] Do not be transferring from house to house.[x]

8 "Also, wherever YOU enter into a city and they receive YOU, eat the things set before YOU, 9 and cure[y] the sick ones in it, and go on telling them, 'The kingdom[z] of God has come near to YOU.' 10 But wherever YOU enter into a city and they do not receive[a] YOU, go out into its broad ways and say, 11 'Even the dust that got stuck to our feet from YOUR city we wipe off against YOU.[b] Nevertheless, keep this in mind, that the kingdom of God has come near.' 12 I tell YOU that it will be more endurable for Sod'om[c] in that day than for that city.

13 "Woe to you, Cho·ra'zin![d] Woe to you, Beth·sa'i·da![e] because if the powerful works that have taken place in YOU had taken place in Tyre and Si'don, they would long ago have repented sitting in sackcloth and ashes.[f] 14 Consequently it will be more endurable for Tyre and Si'don in the judgment than for YOU.[g] 15 And you, Ca·per'na·um, will you perhaps be exalted to heaven?[h] Down to Ha'des[i] you will come!

16 "He that listens[j] to YOU listens to me [too]. And he that disregards YOU disregards me [too]. Moreover, he that disregards me disregards[k] [also] him that sent me forth."

17 Then the seventy returned with joy, saying: "Lord, even the demons are made subject[l] to us by the use of your name." 18 At that he said to them: "I began to behold Satan already fallen[m] like lightning from heaven. 19 Look! I have given YOU the authority to trample underfoot serpents[n] and scorpions,[o] and over all the power of the enemy,[p] and nothing will by any means do YOU hurt. 20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice over this, that the spirits are made subject to YOU, but rejoice because YOUR names[q] have been inscribed in the heavens." 21 In that very hour he became overjoyed[r] in the holy spirit and said: "I publicly praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have carefully hidden these things from wise[s] and intellectual ones, and have revealed them to babes. Yes, O Father, because to do thus came to be the way approved by you. 22 All things have been delivered[a] to me by my Father, and who the Son is no one knows but the Father;[b] and who the Father is, no one [knows] but the Son,[c] and he to whom the Son is willing to reveal him."

23 With that he turned to the disciples by themselves and said: "Happy are the eyes that behold the things YOU are beholding.[d] 24 For I say to YOU, Many prophets and kings desired to see[e] the things YOU are beholding but did not see them, and to hear the things YOU are hearing but did not hear them."

25 Now, look! a certain man versed in the Law[f] rose up, to test him out, and said: "Teacher, by doing what shall I inherit everlasting life?"[g] 26 He said to him: "What is written in the Law?[h] How do you read?" 27 In answer he said: "'You must love Jehovah your God with your whole heart and with your whole soul and with your whole strength and with your whole mind,'[i] and, 'your neighbor as yourself.'"[j] 28 He said to him: "You answered correctly; 'keep on doing this and you will get life.'"[k]

29 But, wanting to prove himself righteous, the man said to Jesus: "Who really is my neighbor?"[l] 30 In reply Jesus said: "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jer'i·cho and fell among robbers, who both stripped him and inflicted blows, and went off, leaving him half-dead. 31 Now, by coincidence, a certain priest was going down over that road, but, when he saw him, he went by on the opposite side.[m] 32 Likewise, a Levite also, when he got down to the place and saw him, went by on the opposite side.[n] 33 But a certain Sa·mar'i·tan[o] traveling the road came upon him and, at seeing him, he was moved with pity. 34 So he approached him and bound up his wounds, pouring oil and wine upon them.[a] Then he mounted him upon his own beast and brought him to an inn and took care of him. 35 And the next day he took out two de·nar'i·i, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him, and whatever you spend besides this, I will repay you when I come back here.' 36 Who of these three seems to you to have made himself neighbor[b] to the man that fell among the robbers?" 37 He said: "The one that acted mercifully[c] toward him." Jesus then said to him: "Go your way and be doing[d] the same yourself."

38 Now as they were going their way he entered into a certain village. Here a certain woman named Martha[e] received him as guest into the house. 39 This woman also had a sister called Mary, who, however, sat down at the feet[f] of the Lord and kept listening to his word. 40 Martha, on the other hand, was distracted[g] with attending to many duties. So, she came near and said: "Lord, does it not matter to you that my sister has left me alone to attend to things?[h] Tell her, therefore, to join in helping me." 41 In answer the Lord said to her: "Martha, Martha, you are anxious[i] and disturbed about many things.[j] 42 A few things,[k] though, are needed, or just one. For her part, Mary chose the good portion,[l] and it will not be taken away from her."

11 Now on the occasion of his being in a certain place praying, when he stopped, a certain one of his disciples said to him: "Lord, teach us how to pray,[m] just as John also taught his disciples."[n] 2 Then he said to them: "Whenever YOU pray,[o] say, 'Father, let your name be sanctified.[a] Let your kingdom come.[b] 3 Give us our bread[c] for the day according to the day's requirement. 4 And forgive us our sins,[d] for we ourselves also forgive everyone that is in debt[e] to us; and do not bring us into temptation.'"[f]

5 Further, he said to them: "Who of YOU will have a friend and will go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, loan me three loaves, 6 because a friend of mine has just come to me on a journey and I have nothing to set before him'? 7 And that one from inside says in reply, 'Quit making me trouble.[g] The door is already locked, and my young children are with me in bed; I cannot rise up and give you anything.' 8 I tell YOU, Although he will not rise up and give him anything because of being his friend, certainly because of his bold persistence[h] he will get up and give him what things he needs. 9 Accordingly I say to YOU, Keep on asking,[i] and it will be given YOU; keep on seeking,[j] and YOU will find; keep on knocking, and it will be opened to YOU. 10 For everyone asking receives,[k] and everyone seeking finds, and to everyone knocking it will be opened. 11 Indeed, which father is there among YOU who, if his son[l] asks for a fish, will perhaps hand him a serpent instead of a fish? 12 Or if he also asks for an egg, will hand him a scorpion? 13 Therefore, if YOU, although being wicked, know how to give good gifts to YOUR children,[m] how much more so will the Father in heaven give holy spirit[n] to those asking him!"

14 Later he was expelling a dumb[o] demon. After the demon came out, the dumb man spoke. And the crowds marveled. 15 But certain ones of them said: "He expels the demons by means of Be·el′ze·bub the ruler of the demons."[a] 16 However, others, to tempt him, began seeking a sign[b] out of heaven from him. 17 Knowing their imaginations[c] he said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself comes to desolation, and a house [divided] against itself falls.[d] 18 So if Satan is also divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand?[e] Because YOU say I expel the demons by means of Be·el′ze·bub. 19 If it is by means of Be·el′ze·bub I expel the demons, by whom do YOUR sons[f] expel them? Because of this they will be judges of YOU. 20 But if it is by means of God's finger[g] I expel the demons, the kingdom of God has really overtaken YOU.[h] 21 When a strong man,[i] well armed, guards his palace, his belongings continue in peace. 22 But when someone stronger[j] than he is comes against him and conquers him,[k] he takes away his full armament in which he was trusting, and he divides out the things he despoiled him of. 23 He that is not on my side is against me, and he that does not gather with me scatters.[l]

24 "When an unclean spirit comes out of a man, it passes through parched places in search of a resting-place, and, after finding none, it says, 'I will return to my house out of which I moved.'[m] 25 And on arriving it finds it swept clean and adorned. 26 Then it goes its way and takes along seven[n] different spirits more wicked than itself, and, after getting inside, they dwell there; and the final circumstances of that man become worse than the first."[o]

27 Now as he was saying these things a certain woman out of the crowd raised her voice and said to him: "Happy is the womb[p] that carried you and the breasts that you sucked!" 28 But he said: "No, rather, Happy are those hearing the word of God and keeping it!"[a]

29 When the crowds were massing together, he started to say: "This generation is a wicked generation; it looks for a sign.[b] But no sign will be given it except the sign of Jo′nah.[c] 30 For just as Jo′nah[d] became a sign to the Nin′e·vites, in the same way will the Son of man be also to this generation. 31 The queen[e] of the south will be raised up in the judgment with the men of this generation and will condemn them; because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Sol′o·mon, but, look! something more[f] than Sol′o·mon is here. 32 The men of Nin′e·veh will rise in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it; because they repented at what Jo′nah preached;[g] but, look! something more[h] than Jo′nah is here. 33 After lighting a lamp, a person puts it, not in a vault nor under a measuring basket, but upon the lampstand,[i] that those stepping in may behold the light. 34 The lamp of the body is your eye. When your eye is simple, your whole body is also bright;[j] but when it is wicked, your body is also dark. 35 Be alert, therefore. Perhaps the light that is in you is darkness.[k] 36 Therefore, if your whole body is bright with no part at all dark, it will all be as bright[l] as when a lamp gives you light by its rays."

37 When he had spoken this, a Pharisee requested him to dine[m] with him. So he went in and reclined at the table. 38 However, the Pharisee was surprised at seeing that he did not first wash[n] before the dinner. 39 But the Lord said to him: "Now YOU Pharisees, YOU cleanse the outside of the cup and dish, but the inside[o] of YOU is full of plunder and wickedness.[a] 40 Unreasonable persons! He that made the outside[b] made also the inside, did he not? 41 Nevertheless, give as gifts of mercy[c] the things that are inside, and, look! all [other] things are clean about YOU. 42 But woe to YOU Pharisees, because YOU give the tenth[d] of the mint and the rue and of every [other] vegetable, but YOU pass by the justice and the love of God! These things YOU were under obligation to do, but those other things not to omit.[e] 43 Woe to YOU Pharisees, because YOU love the front seats in the synagogues and the greetings in the marketplaces![f] 44 Woe to YOU, because YOU are as those memorial tombs which are not in evidence, so that men walk upon them and do not know [it]!"[g]

45 In answer a certain one of those versed[h] in the Law said to him: "Teacher, in saying these things you also insult us." 46 Then he said: "Woe also to YOU who are versed in the Law, because YOU load men with loads hard to be borne, but YOU yourselves do not touch the loads with one of YOUR fingers![i]

47 "Woe to YOU, because YOU build the memorial tombs of the prophets, but YOUR forefathers killed them![j] 48 Certainly YOU are witnesses of the deeds of YOUR forefathers and yet YOU give consent[k] to them, because these killed[l] the prophets but YOU are building [their tombs]. 49 On this account the wisdom[m] of God also said, 'I will send forth to them prophets and apostles, and they will kill and persecute some of them, 50 so that the blood of all the prophets[n] spilled from the founding of the world may be required from this generation,[o] 51 from the blood of Abel[p] down to the blood of Zech·a·ri′ah,[q] who was slain between the altar and the house.'[a] Yes, I tell YOU, it will be required from this generation.

52 "Woe to YOU who are versed in the Law, because YOU took away the key of knowledge;[b] YOU yourselves did not go in, and those going in YOU hindered!"[c]

53 So when he went out from there the scribes and the Pharisees started in to press upon him terribly and to ply him with questions about further things, 54 lying in wait[d] for him, to catch[e] something out of his mouth.

12 In the meantime, when the crowd had gathered together in so many thousands that they were stepping upon one another, he started out by saying first to his disciples: "Watch out for the leaven[f] of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.[g] 2 But there is nothing carefully concealed that will not be revealed, and secret that will not become known.[h] 3 Wherefore what things YOU say in the darkness will be heard in the light, and what YOU whisper in private rooms will be preached from the housetops.[i] 4 Moreover, I say to YOU, my friends,[j] Do not fear those who kill the body and after this are not able to do anything more.[k] 5 But I will indicate to YOU whom to fear: Fear him[l] who after killing has authority to throw into Ge·hen′na.[m] Yes, I tell YOU, fear[n] this One. 6 Five sparrows sell for two coins of small value, do they not? Yet not one of them goes forgotten before God.[o] 7 But even the hairs[p] of YOUR heads are all numbered. Have no fear; YOU are worth more than many sparrows.[q]

8 "I say, then, to YOU, Everyone that confesses[r] union with me before men, the Son of man will also confess union with him before the angels of God.[s] 9 But he that disowns[t] me before men will be disowned before the angels of God.[a] 10 And everyone that says a word against the Son of man, it will be forgiven him; but he that blasphemes against the holy spirit will not be forgiven it.[b] 11 But when they bring YOU in before public assemblies and government officials and authorities, do not become anxious about how or what YOU will speak in defense or what YOU will say;[c] 12 for the holy spirit[d] will teach YOU in that very hour the things YOU ought to say."[e]

13 Then a certain one of the crowd said to him: "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me." 14 He said to him: "Man, who appointed me judge[f] or apportioner over YOU persons?" 15 Then he said to them: "Keep YOUR eyes open and guard against every sort of covetousness,[g] because even when a person has an abundance his life does not result from the things he possesses."[h] 16 With that he spoke an illustration to them, saying: "The land of a certain rich man produced well. 17 Consequently he began reasoning within himself, saying, 'What shall I do, now that I have nowhere to gather my crops?' 18 So he said, 'I will do this:[i] I will tear down my storehouses and build bigger ones, and there I will gather all my grain and all my good things;[j] 19 and I will say[k] to my soul: "Soul, you have many good things laid up for many years; take your ease, eat, drink, enjoy yourself."'[l] 20 But God said to him, 'Unreasonable one, this night they are demanding your soul from you.[m] Who, then, is to have the things you stored up?'[n] 21 So it goes with the man that lays up treasure for himself but is not rich toward God."[o]

22 Then he said to his disciples: "On this account I say to YOU, Quit being anxious about YOUR souls as to what YOU will eat or about YOUR bodies as to what YOU will wear.[a] 23 For the soul is worth more than food and the body than clothing. 24 Mark well that the ravens[b] neither sow seed nor reap, and they have neither barn nor storehouse, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more worth are YOU than birds?[c] 25 Who of YOU by being anxious can add a cubit to his life span?[d] 26 If, therefore, YOU cannot do the least thing, why be anxious[e] about the remaining things? 27 Mark well how the lilies grow;[f] they neither toil nor spin; but I tell YOU, Not even Sol'o·mon in all his glory was arrayed as one of these.[g] 28 If, now, God thus clothes the vegetation in the field that today exists and tomorrow is cast into an oven, how much rather will he clothe YOU, YOU with little faith![h] 29 So quit seeking what YOU might eat and what YOU might drink, and quit being in anxious suspense;[i] 30 for all these are the things the nations of the world are eagerly pursuing, but YOUR Father knows YOU need these things.[j] 31 Nevertheless, seek continually his kingdom, and these things will be added to YOU.[k]

32 "Have no fear,[l] little flock,[m] because YOUR Father has approved of giving YOU the kingdom.[n] 33 Sell[o] the things belonging to YOU and give gifts of mercy.[p] Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, a never-failing treasure in the heavens,[q] where a thief does not get near nor moth consumes. 34 For where YOUR treasure is, there YOUR hearts will be also.[r]

35 "Let YOUR loins[s] be girded and YOUR lamps[t] be burning, 36 and YOU yourselves be like men waiting for their master[u] when he returns from the marriage,[v] so that at his arriving and knocking[a] they may at once open to him. 37 Happy are those slaves whom the master on arriving finds watching![b] Truly I say to YOU, He will gird[c] himself and make them recline at the table and will come alongside and minister to them.[d] 38 And if he arrives in the second watch, even if in the third, and finds them thus, happy are they![e] 39 But know this, that if the householder had known at what hour the thief would come, he would have kept watching and not have let his house be broken into.[f] 40 YOU also, keep ready, because at an hour that YOU do not think likely the Son of man is coming."[g]

41 Then Peter said: "Lord, are you saying this illustration to us or also to all?" 42 And the Lord said: "Who really is the faithful steward,[h] the discreet[i] one, whom his master will appoint over his body of attendants to keep giving them their measure of food supplies at the proper time?[j] 43 Happy is that slave, if his master on arriving finds him doing so![k] 44 I tell YOU truthfully, He will appoint him over all his belongings.[l] 45 But if ever that slave should say in his heart, 'My master delays coming,'[m] and should start to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink and get drunk,[n] 46 the master of that slave will come on a day that he is not expecting [him] and in an hour that he does not know,[o] and he will punish him with the greatest severity and assign him a part with the unfaithful ones.[p] 47 Then that slave that understood the will of his master but did not get ready or do in line with his will will be beaten with many strokes.[q] 48 But the one that did not understand[r] and so did things deserving of strokes will be beaten with few.[s] Indeed, everyone to whom much was given, much will be demanded[a] of him; and the one whom people put in charge of much, they will demand more than usual of him.[b]

49 "I came to start a fire[c] on the earth, and what more is there for me to wish if it has already been lighted? 50 Indeed, I have a baptism with which to be baptized, and how I am being distressed until it is finished![d] 51 Do YOU imagine I came to give peace on the earth? No, indeed, I tell YOU, but rather division.[e] 52 For from now on there will be five in one house divided, three against two and two against three.[f] 53 They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against [her] mother, mother-in-law against [her] daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against [her] mother-in-law."[g]

54 Then he went on to say also to the crowds: "When YOU see a cloud rising in western parts, at once YOU say, 'A storm is coming,' and it turns out so.[h] 55 And when YOU see that a south wind is blowing, YOU say, 'There will be a heat wave,' and it occurs. 56 Hypocrites, YOU know how to examine the outward appearance of earth and sky, but how is it YOU do not know how to examine this particular time?[i] 57 Why do YOU not judge also for yourselves what is righteous?[j] 58 For example, when you are going with your adversary at law to a ruler, get to work, while on the way, to rid yourself of the dispute with him, that he may never hale you before the judge, and the judge deliver you to the court officer, and the court officer throw you into prison.[k] 59 I tell you, You will certainly not get out from there until you pay over the last small coin of very little value."[a]

13 At that very season there were certain ones present that reported to him about the Gal·i·le′ans[b] whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. 2 So in reply he said to them: "Do YOU imagine that these Gal·i·le′ans were proved worse sinners[c] than all other Gal·i·le′ans because they have suffered these things? 3 No, indeed, I tell YOU; but, unless YOU repent, YOU will all likewise be destroyed.[d] 4 Or those eighteen upon whom the tower in Si·lo′am fell, thereby killing them, do YOU imagine that they were proved greater debtors than all other men inhabiting Jerusalem? 5 No, indeed, I tell YOU; but, unless YOU repent, YOU will all be destroyed in the same way."[e]

6 Then he went on to tell this illustration: "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard,[f] and he came looking for fruit on it,[g] but found none.[h] 7 Then he said to the vinedresser, 'Here it is three years[i] that I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, but have found none. Cut it down![j] Why really should it keep the ground useless?' 8 In reply he said to him, 'Master, let it alone[k] also this year, until I dig around it and put on manure; 9 and if then it produces fruit in the future, [well and good]; but if not, you shall cut it down.'"[l]

10 Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. 11 And, look! a woman with a spirit[m] of weakness for eighteen years, and she was bent double and was unable to raise herself up at all. 12 When he saw her, Jesus addressed her and said to her: "Woman, you are released[n] from your weakness." 13 And he laid his hands on her; and instantly she straightened up,[o] and began to glorify God. 14 But in response the presiding officer of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus did the cure on the sabbath, began to say to the crowd: "There are six days on which work ought to be done;[a] on them, therefore, come and be cured, and not on the sabbath day."[b] 15 However, the Lord answered him and said: "Hypocrites,[c] does not each one of YOU on the sabbath untie his bull or his ass from the stall and lead it away to give it drink?[d] 16 Was it not due, then, for this woman who is a daughter of Abraham,[e] and whom Satan held bound, look! eighteen years, to be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?" 17 Well, when he said these things, all his opposers began to feel shame;[f] but all the crowd began to rejoice at all the glorious things done by him.[g]

18 Therefore he went on to say: "What is the kingdom of God like, and with what shall I compare it?[h] 19 It is like a mustard grain that a man took and put in his garden, and it grew and became a tree, and the birds of heaven[i] took up lodging in its branches."[j]

20 And again he said: "With what shall I compare the kingdom of God? 21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three large measures of flour until the whole mass was fermented."[k]

22 And he journeyed through from city to city and from village to village, teaching and continuing on his journey to Jerusalem.[l] 23 Now a certain man said to him: "Lord, are those who are being saved few?"[m] He said to them: 24 "Exert[n] yourselves vigorously to get in through the narrow door,[o] because many, I tell YOU, will seek to get in but will not be able,[p] 25 when once the householder has got up and locked the door, and YOU start to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Sir, open to us.'[a] But in answer he will say to YOU, 'I do not know where YOU are from.'[b] 26 Then YOU will start saying, 'We ate and drank in front of you, and you taught in our broad ways.'[c] 27 But he will speak and say to YOU, 'I do not know where YOU are from. Get away from me, all YOU workers of unrighteousness!'[d] 28 There is where [YOUR] weeping and the gnashing of [YOUR] teeth[e] will be, when YOU see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God,[f] but yourselves thrown outside. 29 Furthermore, people will come from eastern parts and western, and from north and south,[g] and will recline at the table in the kingdom of God.[h] 30 And, look! there are those last who will be first, and there are those first who will be last."[i]

31 In that very hour certain Pharisees came up, saying to him: "Get out and be on your way from here, because Herod wants to kill you." 32 And he said to them: "Go and tell that fox,[j] 'Look! I am casting out demons and accomplishing healing today and tomorrow, and the third day I shall be finished.'[k] 33 Nevertheless, I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the following day, because it is not admissible for a prophet to be destroyed outside of Jerusalem.[l] 34 Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the killer[m] of the prophets and stoner[n] of those sent forth to her—how often I wanted to gather your children together in the manner that a hen gathers her brood of chicks under her wings,[o] but YOU people did not want [it]![p] 35 Look! YOUR house[q] is abandoned to YOU. I tell YOU, YOU will by no means see me until YOU say, 'Blessed is he that comes in Jehovah's name.'"[r]

14 And on an occasion when he went into the house of a certain one of the rulers of the Pharisees on the sabbath to eat a meal,[a] they were closely watching him.[b] 2 And, look! there was before him a certain man who had dropsy. 3 So in response Jesus spoke to those versed in the Law and to the Pharisees, saying: "Is it lawful on the sabbath to cure or not?"[c] 4 But they kept silent. With that he took hold of [the man], healed him and sent [him] away. 5 And he said to them: "Who of YOU, if his son or bull falls into a well,[d] will not immediately pull him out on the sabbath day?"[e] 6 And they were not able to answer back on these things.[f]

7 He then went on to tell the invited men an illustration, as he marked how they were choosing the most prominent places for themselves, saying to them:[g] 8 "When you are invited by someone to a marriage feast, do not lie down in the most prominent place.[h] Perhaps someone more distinguished than you may at the time have been invited by him, 9 and he that invited you and him will come and say to you, 'Let this man have the place.' And then you will start off with shame to occupy the lowest place.[i] 10 But when you are invited, go and recline in the lowest place,[j] that when the man that has invited you comes he will say to you, 'Friend, go on up higher.' Then you will have honor in front of all your fellow guests.[k] 11 For everyone that exalts himself will be humbled and he that humbles himself will be exalted."[l]

12 Next he proceeded to say also to the man that invited him: "When you spread a dinner or evening meal, do not call your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors. Perhaps sometime they might also invite you in return and it would become a repayment to you. 13 But when you spread a feast, invite poor people, crippled, lame, blind;[a] 14 and you will be happy, because they have nothing with which to repay you. For you will be repaid in the resurrection[b] of the righteous ones."

15 On hearing these things a certain one of the fellow guests said to him: "Happy is he who eats bread in the kingdom of God."[c]

16 [Jesus] said to him: "A certain man was spreading a grand evening meal, and he invited many.[d] 17 And he sent his slave out at the hour of the evening meal to say to the invited ones, 'Come,[e] because things are now ready.' 18 But they all in common started to beg off.[f] The first said to him, 'I bought a field and need to go out and see it; I ask you, Have me excused.'[g] 19 And another said, 'I bought five yoke of cattle and am going to examine them; I ask you, Have me excused.'[h] 20 Still another said, 'I just married[i] a wife and for this reason I cannot come.' 21 So the slave came up and reported these things to his master. Then the householder became wrathful and said to his slave, 'Go out quickly into the broad ways and the lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor and crippled and blind and lame.'[j] 22 In time the slave said, 'Master, what you ordered has been done, and yet there is room.' 23 And the master said to the slave, 'Go out into the roads[k] and the fenced-in places, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.[l] 24 For I say to YOU people, None of those men that were invited shall have a taste of my evening meal.'"[m]

25 Now great crowds were traveling with him, and he turned and said to them: 26 "If anyone comes to me and does not hate his father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own soul,[a] he cannot be my disciple.[b] 27 Whoever is not carrying his torture stake and coming after me cannot be my disciple.[c] 28 For example, who of YOU that wants to build a tower does not first sit down and calculate the expense,[d] to see if he has enough to complete it? 29 Otherwise, he might lay its foundation but not be able to finish it, and all the onlookers might start to ridicule him, 30 saying, 'This man started to build but was not able to finish.' 31 Or what king, marching to meet another king in war, does not first sit down and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand troops to cope with the one that comes against him with twenty thousand?[e] 32 If, in fact, he cannot do so, then while that one is yet far away he sends out a body of ambassadors and sues for peace.[f] 33 Thus, you may be sure, none of YOU that does not say good-bye to all his belongings[g] can be my disciple.

34 "Salt, to be sure, is fine. But if even the salt loses its strength, with what will it be seasoned?[h] 35 It is suitable neither for soil nor for manure. People throw it outside. Let him that has ears to listen, listen."[i]

15 Now all the tax collectors[j] and the sinners[k] kept drawing near to him to hear him. 2 Consequently both the Pharisees and the scribes kept muttering, saying: "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them."[l] 3 Then he spoke this illustration to them, saying: 4 "What man of YOU with a hundred sheep, on losing one of them, will not leave the ninety-nine behind in the wilderness and go for the lost one until he finds it?[m] 5 And when he has found it he puts it upon his shoulders and rejoices.[a] 6 And when he gets home he calls his friends and his neighbors together, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, because I have found my sheep that was lost.'[b] 7 I tell YOU that thus there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner that repents[c] than over ninety-nine righteous ones who have no need of repentance.[d]

8 "Or what woman with ten drachma coins, if she loses one drachma coin, does not light a lamp and sweep her house and search carefully until she finds it? 9 And when she has found it she calls the women who are her friends and neighbors together, saying, 'Rejoice with me, because I have found the drachma coin that I lost.' 10 Thus, I tell YOU, joy arises among the angels of God over one sinner that repents."[e]

11 Then he said: "A certain man had two sons.[f] 12 And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the part of the property that falls to my share.'[g] Then he divided his means of living[h] to them. 13 Later, after not many days, the younger son gathered all things together and traveled abroad into a distant country, and there squandered his property by living a debauched life.[i] 14 When he had spent everything, a severe famine occurred throughout that country, and he started to be in need. 15 He even went and attached himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to herd swine.[j] 16 And he used to desire to be filled with the carob pods which the swine were eating, and no one would give him [anything].[k]

17 "When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many hired men of my father are abounding with bread, while I am perishing here from famine! 18 I will rise and journey[a] to my father and say to him: "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.[b] 19 I am no longer worthy of being called your son. Make me as one of your hired men."' 20 So he rose and went to his father. While he was yet a long way off, his father caught sight of him and was moved with pity, and he ran and fell upon his neck and tenderly kissed him. 21 Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.[c] I am no longer worthy of being called your son. Make me as one of your hired men.'[d] 22 But the father said to his slaves, 'Quick! bring out a robe, the best one, and clothe[e] him with it, and put a ring[f] on his hand and sandals on his feet. 23 And bring the fattened[g] young bull, slaughter it and let us eat and enjoy ourselves, 24 because this my son was dead and came to life[h] again; he was lost and was found.' And they started to enjoy themselves.

25 "Now his older son[i] was in the field; and as he came and got near the house he heard a music concert and dancing. 26 So he called one of the servants to him and inquired what these things meant. 27 He said to him, 'Your brother[j] has come, and your father[k] slaughtered the fattened young bull, because he got him back in good health.' 28 But he became wrathful and was unwilling to go in. Then his father came out and began to entreat him.[l] 29 In reply he said to his father, 'Here it is so many years I have slaved for you and never once did I transgress your commandment, and yet to me you never once gave a kid for me to enjoy myself with my friends.[m] 30 But as soon as this your son[n] who ate up your means of living with harlots[o] arrived, you slaughtered the fattened young bull for him.'[a] 31 Then he said to him, 'Child, you have always been with me, and all the things that are mine are yours;[b] 32 but we just had to enjoy ourselves and rejoice, because this your brother was dead and came to life, and he was lost and was found.'"[c]

16 Then he went on to say also to the disciples: "A certain man was rich and he had a steward,[d] and this one was accused to him as handling his goods wastefully.[e] 2 So he called him and said to him, 'What is this I hear about you? Hand in the account[f] of your stewardship, for you can no longer manage the house.' 3 Then the steward said to himself, 'What am I to do, seeing that my master[g] will take the stewardship away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, I am ashamed to beg. 4 Ah! I know what I shall do, so that, when I am put out of the stewardship, people will receive me into their homes.'[h] 5 And calling to him each one of the debtors of his master he proceeded to say to the first, 'How much are you owing my master?' 6 He said, 'A hundred bath measures of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Take your written agreement back and sit down and quickly write fifty.' 7 Next, he said to another one, 'Now you, how much are you owing?' He said, 'A hundred cor measures of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your written agreement back and write eighty.' 8 And his master commended the steward, though unrighteous, because he acted with practical wisdom;[i] for the sons of this system of things are wiser in a practical way toward their own generation than the sons of the light are.[j]

9 "Also, I say to YOU, Make friends[k] for yourselves by means of the unrighteous riches,[a] so that, when such fail, they may receive YOU into the everlasting dwelling places.[b] 10 The person faithful in what is least is faithful also in much, and the person unrighteous in what is least is unrighteous also in much.[c] 11 Therefore, if YOU have not proved yourselves faithful in connection with the unrighteous riches, who will entrust YOU with what is true?[d] 12 And if YOU have not proved yourselves faithful in connection with what is another's,[e] who will give YOU what is for yourselves? 13 No house servant can be a slave to two masters; for, either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will stick to the one and despise the other. YOU cannot be slaves to God and to riches."[f]

14 Now the Pharisees, who were money lovers, were listening to all these things, and they began to sneer at him.[g] 15 Consequently he said to them: "YOU are those who declare yourselves righteous before men,[h] but God knows YOUR hearts;[i] because what is lofty among men is a disgusting thing in God's sight.[j]

16 "The Law and the Prophets were until John.[k] From then on the kingdom of God is being declared as good news, and every sort of person is pressing forward toward it.[l] 17 Indeed, it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away[m] than for one particle[n] of a letter of the Law to go unfulfilled.[o]

18 "Everyone that divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery, and he that marries a woman divorced from a husband commits adultery.[p]

19 "But a certain man[q] was rich, and he used to deck himself with purple and linen, enjoying himself from day to day with magnificence.[r] 20 But a certain beggar named Laz′a·rus used to be put at his gate, full of ulcers 21 and desiring to be filled with the things dropping from the table of the rich man. Yes, too, the dogs would come and lick his ulcers. 22 Now in course of time the beggar died[a] and he was carried off by the angels to the bosom[b] [position] of Abraham.[c]

"Also, the rich man died[d] and was buried. 23 And in Ha′des he lifted up his eyes, he existing in torments,[e] and he saw Abraham afar off and Laz′a·rus in the bosom [position] with him. 24 So he called and said, 'Father Abraham,[f] have mercy on me and send Laz′a·rus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue,[g] because I am in anguish in this blazing fire.'[h] 25 But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that you received in full your good things in your lifetime, but Laz′a·rus correspondingly the injurious things. Now, however, he is having comfort here but you are in anguish.[i] 26 And besides all these things, a great chasm[j] has been fixed between us and YOU people,[k] so that those wanting to go over from here to YOU people cannot, neither may people cross over from there to us.'[l] 27 Then he said, 'In that event I ask you, father, to send him to the house of my father, 28 for I have five brothers, in order that he may give them a thorough witness, that they also should not get into this place of torment.' 29 But Abraham said, 'They have Moses[m] and the Prophets;[n] let them listen to these.'[o] 30 Then he said, 'No, indeed, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them they will repent.' 31 But he said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses[p] and the Prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone rises from the dead.'"

17 Then he said to his disciples: "It is unavoidable that causes for stumbling should come.[q] Nevertheless, woe to the one through whom they come![a] 2 It would be of more advantage to him if a millstone were suspended from his neck and he were thrown into the sea[b] than for him to stumble one of these little ones.[c] 3 Pay attention to yourselves. If your brother commits a sin give him a rebuke,[d] and if he repents forgive him.[e] 4 Even if he sins seven times a day against you and he comes back to you seven times, saying, 'I repent,' you must forgive him."[f]

5 Now the apostles said to the Lord: "Give us more faith."[g] 6 Then the Lord said: "If YOU had faith the size of a mustard grain, YOU would say to this black mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea!' and it would obey YOU.[h]

7 "Who of YOU is there that has a slave plowing or minding the flock who will say to him when he gets in from the field, 'Come here at once and recline at the table'? 8 Rather, will he not say to him, 'Get something ready for me to have my evening meal, and put on an apron and minister to me until I am through eating and drinking, and afterward you can eat and drink'? 9 He will not feel gratitude to the slave because he did the things assigned, will he? 10 So YOU, also, when YOU have done all the things assigned to YOU, say, 'We are good-for-nothing slaves.[i] What we have done is what we ought to have done.'"

11 And while he was going to Jerusalem he was passing through the midst of Sa·mar′i·a and Gal′i·lee.[j] 12 And as he was entering into a certain village ten leprous[k] men met him, but they stood up afar off. 13 And they raised their voices and said: "Jesus, Instructor, have mercy[l] on us!" 14 And when he got sight of them he said to them: "Go and show yourselves to the priests."[a] Then as they were going off their cleansing occurred.[b] 15 One of them, when he saw he was healed, turned back, glorifying[c] God with a loud voice. 16 And he fell upon his face at [Jesus'] feet,[d] thanking him; furthermore, he was a Sa·mar'i·tan.[e] 17 In reply Jesus said: "The ten were cleansed, were they not? Where, then, are the other nine? 18 Were none found that turned back to give glory to God but this man of another nation?" 19 And he said to him: "Rise and be on your way; your faith has made you well."[f]

20 But on being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming,[g] he answered them and said: "The kingdom of God is not coming with striking observableness, 21 neither will people be saying, 'See here!' or, 'There!'[h] For, look! the kingdom of God is in YOUR midst."[i]

22 Then he said to the disciples: "Days will come when YOU will desire to see one of the days of the Son of man but YOU will not see [it].[j] 23 And people will say to YOU, 'See there!' or, 'See here!'[k] Do not go out or chase after [them].[l] 24 For even as the lightning,[m] by its flashing, shines from one part under heaven to another part under heaven, so the Son of man[n] will be. 25 First, however, he must undergo many sufferings and be rejected by this generation.[o] 26 Moreover, just as it occurred in the days of Noah,[p] so it will be also in the days of the Son of man:[q] 27 they were eating, they were drinking, men were marrying, women were being given in marriage, until that day when Noah entered into the ark, and the flood arrived and destroyed them all.[r] 28 Likewise, just as it occurred in the days of Lot:[s] they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building. 29 But on the day that Lot came out of Sod'om it rained fire and sulphur from heaven and destroyed them all.[a] 30 The same way it will be on that day when the Son of man is to be revealed.[b]

31 "On that day let the person that is on the housetop but whose movable things are in the house not come down to pick these up, and the person out in the field, let him likewise not return to the things behind. 32 REMEMBER the wife of Lot.[c] 33 Whoever seeks to keep his soul safe for himself will lose it, but whoever loses it will preserve it alive.[d] 34 I tell YOU, In that night two [men] will be in one bed; the one will be taken along, but the other will be abandoned.[e] 35 There will be two [women] grinding at the same mill; the one will be taken along, but the other will be abandoned."[f] 36 —— 37 So in response they said to him: "Where, Lord?" He said to them: "Where the body is,[g] there also the eagles will be gathered together."[h]

18 Then he went on to tell them an illustration with regard to the need for them always to pray and not to give up,[i] 2 saying: "In a certain city there was a certain judge that had no fear of God and had no respect for man. 3 But there was a widow in that city and she kept going[j] to him, saying, 'See that I get justice from my adversary at law.' 4 Well, for a while he was unwilling, but afterward he said to himself, 'Although I do not fear God or respect a man, 5 at any rate, because of this widow's continually making me trouble,[k] I will see that she gets justice, so that she will not keep coming and pummeling[l] me to a finish.'" 6 Then the Lord said: "HEAR what the judge, although unrighteous, said! 7 Certainly, then, shall not God cause justice[a] to be done for his chosen ones who cry out to him day and night, even though he is long-suffering[b] toward them? 8 I tell YOU, He will cause justice to be done to them speedily.[c] Nevertheless, when the Son of man arrives, will he really find the faith on the earth?"

9 But he spoke this illustration also to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous[d] and who considered the rest as nothing:[e] 10 "Two men went up into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. 11 The Pharisee stood[f] and began to pray[g] these things to himself, 'O God, I thank you I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unrighteous, adulterers, or even as this tax collector.[h] 12 I fast twice a week, I give the tenth of all things I acquire.'[i] 13 But the tax collector standing at a distance was not willing even to raise his eyes heavenward, but kept beating his breast,[j] saying, 'O God, be gracious to me a sinner.'[k] 14 I tell YOU, This man went down to his home proved more righteous[l] than that man; because everyone that exalts himself will be humiliated, but he that humbles himself will be exalted."[m]

15 Now people began to bring him also their infants for him to touch these; but on seeing it the disciples began to reprimand them.[n] 16 However, Jesus called the [infants] to him, saying: "Let the young children come to me, and do not try to stop them. For the kingdom of God belongs to suchlike ones.[o] 17 Truly I say to YOU, Whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a young child will by no means get into it."[p]

18 And a certain ruler questioned him, saying: "Good Teacher, by doing what shall I inherit everlasting life?"[a] 19 Jesus said to him: "Why do you call me good? Nobody is good, except one, God.[b] 20 You know the commandments,[c] 'Do not commit adultery,[d] Do not murder,[e] Do not steal,[f] Do not bear false witness,[g] Honor your father and mother.'"[h] 21 Then he said: "All these I have kept from youth on."[i] 22 After hearing that, Jesus said to him: "There is yet one thing lacking about you: Sell all the things you have and distribute to poor people, and you will have treasure in the heavens; and come be my follower."[j] 23 When he heard this, he became deeply grieved, for he was very rich.[k]

24 Jesus looked at him and said: "How difficult a thing it will be for those having money to make their way into the kingdom of God![l] 25 It is easier, in fact, for a camel to get through the eye of a sewing needle than for a rich man to get into the kingdom of God."[m] 26 Those who heard this said: "Who possibly can be saved?" 27 He said: "The things impossible with men are possible with God."[n] 28 But Peter said: "Look! We have left our own things and followed you."[o] 29 He said to them: "Truly I say to YOU, There is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God[p] 30 who will not in any way get many times more in this period of time, and in the coming system of things everlasting life."[q]

31 Then he took the twelve aside and said to them: "Look! We are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things written by means of the prophets[r] as to the Son of man will be completed.[s] 32 For instance, he will be delivered up to [men of] the nations and will be made fun[t] of and be treated insolently[a] and spit[b] upon; 33 and after scourging[c] him they will kill[d] him, but on the third day he will rise."[e] 34 However, they did not get the meaning of any of these things; but this utterance was hidden from them, and they were not knowing the things said.[f]

35 Now as he was getting near to Jer′i·cho a certain blind man was sitting beside the road begging.[g] 36 Because he heard a crowd moving through he began to inquire what this might mean. 37 They reported to him: "Jesus the Naz′a·rene′ is passing by!"[h] 38 At that he cried out, saying: "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"[i] 39 And those going in advance began to tell him sternly to keep quiet, but that much more he kept shouting: "Son of David, have mercy on me."[j] 40 Then Jesus stood still and commanded the [man] to be led to him.[k] After he got near, [Jesus] asked him: 41 "What do you want me to do for you?"[l] He said: "Lord, let me recover sight."[m] 42 So Jesus said to him: "Recover your sight; your faith has made you well."[n] 43 And instantly he recovered sight,[o] and he began to follow him, glorifying God.[p] Also, all the people, at seeing [it], gave praise to God.

19 And he entered Jer′i·cho[q] and was going through. 2 Now here there was a man called by the name Zac·chae′us; and he was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. 3 Well, he was seeking to see[r] who this Jesus was, but he could not for the crowd, because he was small in size. 4 So he ran ahead to an advance position and climbed a fig-mulberry tree in order to see him, because he was about to go through that way. 5 Now when Jesus got to the place, he looked up and said to him: "Zac·chae′us, hurry and get down, for today I must stay in your house." 6 With that he hurried and got down and with rejoicing he received him as guest. 7 But when they saw [it], they all fell to muttering,[a] saying: "With a man that is a sinner he went in to lodge." 8 But Zac·chae′us stood up and said to the Lord: "Look! The half of my belongings, Lord, I am giving to the poor, and whatever I extorted from anyone by false accusation[b] I am restoring fourfold."[c] 9 At this Jesus said to him: "This day salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham.[d] 10 For the Son of man came to seek and to save what was lost."[e]

11 While they were listening to these things he spoke in addition an illustration, because he was near Jerusalem and they were imagining that the kingdom of God was going to display itself instantly.[f] 12 Therefore he said: "A certain man of noble birth traveled to a distant land to secure kingly power for himself and to return.[g] 13 Calling ten slaves of his he gave them ten mi′nas and told them, 'Do business till I come.'[h] 14 But his citizens hated[i] him and sent out a body of ambassadors after him, to say, 'We do not want this [man] to become king over us.'[j]

15 "Eventually when he got back after having secured the kingly power, he commanded to be called to him these slaves to whom he had given the silver money, in order to ascertain what they had gained by business activity.[k] 16 Then the first one presented himself, saying, 'Lord, your mi′na gained ten mi′nas.'[l] 17 So he said to him, 'Well done, good slave! Because in a very small matter you have proved yourself faithful, hold authority over ten cities.'[m] 18 Now the second came, saying, 'Your mi′na, Lord, made five mi′nas.'[n] 19 He said to this one also, 'You, too, be in charge of five cities.'[a] 20 But a different one came, saying, 'Lord, here is your mi′na, that I kept laid away in a cloth. 21 You see, I was in fear of you, because you are a harsh man; you take up what you did not deposit and you reap what you did not sow.'[b] 22 He said to him, 'Out of your own mouth[c] I judge you, wicked slave. You knew, did you, that I am a harsh man, taking up what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow?[d] 23 Hence why is it you did not put my silver money in a bank? Then on my arrival I would have collected it with interest.'[e]

24 "With that he said to those standing by, 'Take the mi′na from him and give it to him that has the ten mi′nas.'[f] 25 But they said to him, 'Lord, he has ten mi′nas!'— 26 'I say to YOU, To everyone that has, more will be given; but from the one that does not have, even what he has will be taken away.[g] 27 Moreover, these enemies of mine that did not want me to become king over them BRING here and slaughter them before me.'"[h]

28 So, after he had said these things, he began to go on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.[i] 29 And when he got near to Beth′pha·ge and Beth′a·ny at the mountain called Mount of Olives,[j] he sent forth two of the disciples,[k] 30 saying: "Go into the village that is within sight of YOU, and in it after YOU pass in YOU will find a colt tied, on which none of mankind ever sat. Loose it and bring it.[l] 31 But if anyone asks YOU, 'Why is it YOU are loosing it?' YOU must speak in this way, 'The Lord needs it.'"[m] 32 So those who were sent forth departed and found it just as he said to them.[n] 33 But as they were loosing the colt the owners of it said to them: "Why are YOU loosing the colt?"[a] 34 They said: "The Lord needs it."[b] 35 And they led it to Jesus, and they threw their outer garments upon the colt and set Jesus upon [it].[c]

41 And when he got near-by, he viewed the city and wept over it,[k] 42 saying: "If you, even you, had discerned[l] in this day the things having to do with peace—but now they have been hid from your eyes.[m] 43 Because the days will come upon you when your enemies will build around you a fortification[n] with pointed stakes[o] and will encircle[p] you and distress[q] you from every side, 44 and they will dash you and your children within you to the ground,[r] and they will not leave a stone upon a stone[s] in you, because you did not discern the time of your being inspected."[t]

45 And he entered into the temple and started to throw out those who were selling,[u] 46 saying to them: "It is written, 'And my house will be a house of prayer,'[v] but YOU made it a cave of robbers."[w]

47 Furthermore, he went teaching daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the principal ones of the people were seeking to destroy him;[a] 48 and yet they did not find the effective thing for them to do, for the people one and all kept hanging onto him to hear him.[b]

20 On one of the days while he was teaching the people in the temple and declaring the good news, the chief priests and the scribes with the older men came near,[c] 2 and they spoke up, saying to him: "Tell us by what authority you do these things, or who it is that gave you this authority."[d] 3 In reply he said to them: "I will also ask YOU a question, and YOU tell me:[e] 4 Was the baptism of John from heaven or from men?"[f] 5 Then among themselves they drew conclusions, saying: "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why is it YOU did not believe him?'[g] 6 But if we say, 'From men,' the people one and all will stone us,[h] for they are persuaded that John[i] was a prophet."[j] 7 So they replied that they did not know its source. 8 And Jesus said to them: "Neither am I telling YOU by what authority I do these things."[k]

9 Then he started to tell the people this illustration: "A man planted a vineyard[l] and let it out to cultivators, and he traveled abroad for considerable time.[m] 10 But in due season he sent out a slave[n] to the cultivators,[o] that they might give him some of the fruit of the vineyard.[p] The cultivators, however, sent him away empty,[q] after beating him up. 11 But he repeated and sent them a different slave. That one also they beat up and dishonored and sent away empty.[r] 12 Yet again he sent a third;[s] this one also they wounded and threw out. 13 At this the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my son the beloved.[t] Likely they will respect this one.' 14 When the cultivators caught sight of him they went reasoning with one another, saying, 'This is the heir; let us kill him, that the inheritance may become ours.'[a] 15 With that they threw him outside[b] the vineyard and killed[c] him. What, therefore, will the owner of the vineyard do to them?[d] 16 He will come and destroy these cultivators and will give the vineyard to others."[e]

On hearing [this] they said: "Never may that happen!" 17 But he looked upon them and said: "What, then, does this that is written mean, 'The stone which the builders rejected,[f] this has become the chief cornerstone'?[g] 18 Everyone falling upon that stone will be shattered.[h] As for anyone upon whom it falls,[i] it will pulverize him."[j]

19 The scribes and the chief priests now sought to get their hands on him in that very hour, but they feared the people; for they perceived that he spoke this illustration with them in mind.[k] 20 And, after observing him closely, they sent out men secretly hired to pretend that they were righteous, in order that they might catch[l] him in speech, so as to turn him over to the government and to the authority of the governor.[m] 21 And they questioned him, saying: "Teacher, we know you speak and teach correctly and show no partiality, but you teach the way of God in line with truth:[n] 22 Is it lawful for us to pay tax to Caesar or not?"[o] 23 But he detected their cunning and said to them:[p] 24 "Show me a denar'i·us. Whose image and inscription does it have?" They said: "Caesar's."[q] 25 He said to them: "By all means, then, pay back Caesar's things to Caesar,[r] but God's things to God."[s] 26 Well, they were not able to catch him in this saying before the people, but, in amazement at his answer, they said nothing.[a]

27 However, some of the Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came up[b] and questioned him, 28 saying: "Teacher, Moses[c] wrote us, 'If a man's brother dies having a wife, but this one remained childless, his brother[d] should take the wife and raise up offspring from her for his brother.'[e] 29 Accordingly there were seven brothers; and the first took a wife and died childless.[f] 30 So the second, 31 and the third took her. Likewise even the seven: they did not leave children behind, but died off.[g] 32 Lastly, the woman also died.[h] 33 Consequently, in the resurrection, of which one of them does she become [the] wife? For the seven got her as wife."[i]

34 Jesus said to them: "The children of this system of things marry[j] and are given in marriage, 35 but those who have been counted worthy[k] of gaining that system of things[l] and the resurrection from the dead[m] neither marry nor are given in marriage. 36 In fact, neither can they die[n] anymore, for they are like the angels, and they are God's children by being children of the resurrection.[o] 37 But that the dead are raised up even Moses disclosed, in the account about the thornbush,[p] when he calls Jehovah 'the God of Abraham and God of Isaac and God of Jacob.'[q] 38 He is a God, not of the dead, but of the living, for they are all living to him."[r] 39 In response some of the scribes said: "Teacher, you spoke well." 40 For no longer did they have the courage to ask him a single question.

41 In turn he said to them: "How is it they say that the Christ is David's son?[s] 42 For David himself says in the book of Psalms, 'Jehovah said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand 43 until I place your enemies as a stool for your feet.'[a] 44 David, therefore, calls him 'Lord'; so how is he his son?"

45 Then, while all the people were listening he said to the disciples:[b] 46 "Look out for the scribes who desire to walk around in robes and like greetings in the marketplaces and front seats in the synagogues and most prominent places at evening meals,[c] 47 and who devour the houses of the widows[d] and for a pretext make long prayers. These will receive a heavier judgment."[e]

21 Now as he looked up he saw the rich dropping their gifts into the treasury chests.[f] 2 Then he saw a certain needy widow drop two small coins of very little value there,[g] 3 and he said: "I tell YOU truthfully, This widow, although poor, dropped in more than they all did.[h] 4 For all these dropped in gifts out of their surplus, but this [woman] out of her want dropped in all the means of living she had."[i]

5 Later, as certain ones were speaking concerning the temple, how it was adorned with fine stones and dedicated things,[j] 6 he said: "As for these things that YOU are beholding, the days will come in which not a stone upon a stone will be left here and not be thrown down."[k] 7 Then they questioned him, saying: "Teacher, when will these things actually be, and what will be the sign when these things are destined to occur?"[l] 8 He said: "Look out that YOU are not misled;[m] for many will come on the basis of my name, saying, 'I am he,' and, 'The due time has approached.'[n] Do not go after them. 9 Furthermore, when YOU hear of wars and disorders, do not be terrified.[o] For these things must occur first, but the end does not [occur] immediately."

10 Then he went on to say to them: “Nation will rise against nation,[a] and kingdom against kingdom;[b] 11 and there will be great earthquakes, and in one place after another pestilences and food shortages;[c] and there will be fearful sights and from heaven great signs.[d]

12 “But before all these things people will lay their hands upon YOU and persecute[e] YOU, delivering YOU up to the synagogues and prisons, YOU being haled before kings and governors for the sake of my name.[f] 13 It will turn out to YOU for a witness.[g] 14 Therefore settle it in YOUR hearts not to rehearse beforehand how to make YOUR defense,[h] 15 for I will give YOU a mouth and wisdom, which all YOUR opposers together will not be able to resist or dispute.[i] 16 Moreover, YOU will be delivered up even by parents[j] and brothers and relatives and friends, and they will put some of YOU to death;[k] 17 and YOU will be objects of hatred by all people because of my name.[l] 18 And yet not a hair[m] of YOUR heads will by any means perish. 19 By endurance on YOUR part YOU will acquire YOUR souls.[n]

20 “Furthermore, when YOU see Jerusalem surrounded[o] by encamped armies, then know that the desolating of her has drawn near.[p] 21 Then let those in Ju·de′a begin fleeing to the mountains, and let those in the midst of her withdraw, and let those in the country places not enter into her;[q] 22 because these are days for meting out justice, that all the things written may be fulfilled.[r] 23 Woe to the pregnant women and the ones suckling a baby in those days![s] For there will be great necessity upon the land and wrath on this people; 24 and they will fall by the edge of the sword and be led captive into all the nations;[t] and Jerusalem will be trampled on by the nations, until the appointed times[a] of the nations are fulfilled.

25 “Also, there will be signs in sun[b] and moon and stars, and on the earth anguish of nations, not knowing the way out because of the roaring of the sea[c] and [its] agitation,[d] 26 while men become faint out of fear[e] and expectation of the things coming upon the inhabited earth;[f] for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.[g] 27 And then they will see the Son of man[h] coming in a cloud with power and great glory.[i] 28 But as these things start to occur, raise yourselves erect and lift YOUR heads up, because YOUR deliverance is getting near.”

29 With that he spoke an illustration to them: “Note the fig tree and all the other trees:[j] 30 When they are already in the bud, by observing it YOU know for yourselves that now the summer is near.[k] 31 In this way YOU also, when YOU see these things occurring, know that the kingdom of God is near.[l] 32 Truly I say to YOU, This generation will by no means pass away until all things occur.[m] 33 Heaven and earth will pass away,[n] but my words will by no means pass away.[o]

34 “But pay attention to yourselves that YOUR hearts never become weighed down with overeating and heavy[p] drinking and anxieties[q] of life, and suddenly that day be instantly upon YOU[r] 35 as a snare.[s] For it will come in upon all those dwelling upon the face of all the earth.[t] 36 Keep awake,[u] then, all the time making supplication[v] that YOU may succeed in escaping all these things that are destined to occur, and in standing before the Son of man.”[a]

37 So by day he would be teaching in the temple,[b] but by night he would go out and lodge on the mountain called the Mount of Olives.[c] 38 And all the people[d] would come early in the day to him in the temple to hear him.

22 Now the festival of the unfermented cakes, the so-called Passover,[e] was getting near. 2 Also, the chief priests and the scribes were seeking the effective way for them to get rid of him,[f] for they were in fear of the people.[g] 3 But Satan entered into Judas, the one called Is·car′i·ot, who was numbered among the twelve;[h] 4 and he went off and talked with the chief priests and [temple] captains about the effective way to betray him to them.[i] 5 Well, they rejoiced and agreed to give him silver money.[j] 6 So he consented, and he began to seek a good opportunity to betray him to them without a crowd around.[k]

7 The day of the unfermented cakes now arrived, on which the passover [victim] must be sacrificed;[l] 8 and he dispatched Peter and John, saying: “Go and get the passover ready[m] for us to eat.” 9 They said to him: “Where do you want us to get [it] ready?” 10 He said to them:[n] “Look! When YOU enter into the city a man carrying an earthenware vessel of water will meet YOU. Follow him into the house into which he enters.[o] 11 And YOU must say to the landlord of the house, ‘The Teacher says to you: “Where is the guest room in which I may eat the passover with my disciples?”’[p] 12 And that [man] will show YOU a large upper room furnished. Get [it] ready there.”[q] 13 So they departed and found it just as he had said to them, and they got the passover ready.[r]

14 At length when the hour came, he reclined at the table, and the apostles with him.[a] 15 And he said to them: “I have greatly desired to eat this passover with YOU before I suffer; 16 for I tell YOU, I will not eat it again until it becomes fulfilled in the kingdom of God.”[b] 17 And, accepting a cup,[c] he gave thanks and said: “Take this and pass it from one to the other among yourselves; 18 for I tell YOU, From now on I will not drink again from the product of the vine until the kingdom of God arrives.”[d]

19 Also, he took a loaf,[e] gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to them, saying: “This means my body[f] which is to be given in YOUR behalf.[g] Keep doing this in remembrance of me.”[h] 20 Also, the cup[i] in the same way after they had the evening meal, he saying: “This cup means the new covenant[j] by virtue of my blood,[k] which is to be poured out in YOUR behalf.[l]

21 “But, look! the hand of my betrayer[m] is with me at the table.[n] 22 Because the Son of man is going his way according to what is marked out;[o] all the same, woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!”[p] 23 So they started to discuss among themselves the question of which of them would really be the one that was about to do this.[q]

24 However, there also arose a heated dispute among them over which one of them seemed to be greatest.[r] 25 But he said to them: “The kings of the nations lord it over them, and those having authority over them are called Benefactors.[s] 26 You, though, are not to be that way.[t] But let him that is the greatest among YOU become as the youngest,[u] and the one acting as chief as the one ministering.[a] 27 For which one is greater, the one reclining at the table or the one ministering? Is it not the one reclining at the table? But I am in YOUR midst as the one ministering.[b]

28 "However, YOU are the ones that have stuck[c] with me in my trials;[d] 29 and I make a covenant with YOU, just as my Father has made a covenant[e] with me, for a kingdom,[f] 30 that YOU may eat[g] and drink at my table in my kingdom,[h] and sit on thrones[i] to judge the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 "Simon, Simon, look! Satan[j] has demanded to have YOU men to sift YOU as wheat.[k] 32 But I have made supplication[l] for you that your faith may not give out; and you, when once you have returned, strengthen[m] your brothers." 33 Then he said to him: "Lord, I am ready to go with you both into prison and into death."[n] 34 But he said: "I tell you, Peter, A cock will not crow today until you have three times denied knowing me."[o]

35 He also said to them: "When I sent[p] YOU forth without purse and food pouch and sandals, YOU did not want for anything, did YOU?" They said: "No!" 36 Then he said to them: "But now let the one that has a purse take it up, likewise also a food pouch; and let the one having no sword sell his outer garment and buy one. 37 For I tell YOU that this which is written must be accomplished in me, namely, 'And he was reckoned with lawless ones.'[q] For that which concerns me is having an accomplishment."[r] 38 Then they said: "Lord, look! here are two swords." He said to them: "It is enough."

39 On going out he went as customarily to the Mount of Olives; and the disciples also followed him.[s] 40 Having come to the place he said to them: "Carry on prayer, that YOU do not enter into temptation."[a] 41 And he himself drew away from them about a stone's throw, and bent his knees and began to pray, 42 saying: "Father, if you wish, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, let, not my will,[b] but yours take place."[c] 43 Then an angel from heaven appeared to him and strengthened him.[d] 44 But getting into an agony he continued praying more earnestly;[e] and his sweat became as drops of blood falling to the ground.[f] 45 And he rose from prayer, went to the disciples and found them slumbering from grief;[g] 46 and he said to them: "Why are YOU sleeping? Rise and carry on prayer, that YOU do not enter into temptation."[h]

47 While he was yet speaking, look! a crowd, and the [man] called Judas, one of the twelve, was going before them;[i] and he approached Jesus to kiss him.[j] 48 But Jesus said to him: "Judas, do you betray the Son of man with a kiss?"[k] 49 When those about him saw what was going to happen, they said: "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?"[l] 50 A certain one of them even did strike the slave of the high priest and took off his right ear.[m] 51 But in reply Jesus said: "LET it go as far as this." And he touched the ear and healed him.[n] 52 Jesus then said to the chief priests and captains of the temple and older men that had come there for him: "Did YOU come out with swords and clubs as against a robber?[o] 53 While I was with YOU in the temple[p] day after day YOU did not stretch out YOUR hands against me.[q] But this is YOUR hour[r] and the authority[s] of darkness."[t]

54 Then they arrested him and led[a] him off and brought him into the house of the high priest;[b] but Peter was following at a distance.[c] 55 When they lit a fire in the midst of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter was sitting in among them.[d] 56 But a certain servant girl saw him sitting by the bright fire and looked him over and said: "This man also was with him."[e] 57 But he denied[f] it, saying: "I do not know him, woman."[g] 58 And after a short time another person seeing him said: "You also are one of them." But Peter said: "Man, I am not."[h] 59 And after about an hour intervened a certain other [man] began insisting strongly: "For a certainty this [man] also was with him; for, in fact, he is a Gal·i·le′an!"[i] 60 But Peter said: "Man, I do not know what you are saying." And instantly, while he was yet speaking, a cock crowed.[j] 61 And the Lord turned and looked upon Peter, and Peter recalled the utterance of the Lord when he said to him: "Before a cock crows today you will disown me three times."[k] 62 And he went outside and wept bitterly.[l]

63 Now the men that had him in custody began to make fun[m] of him, hitting[n] him;[o] 64 and after covering him over they would ask and say: "Prophesy. Who is it that struck you?"[p] 65 And they went on saying many other things in blasphemy[q] against him.

66 At length when it became day, the assembly of older men of the people, both chief priests and scribes, gathered together,[r] and they haled him into their San′he·drin hall, saying:[s] 67 "If you are the Christ,[t] tell us." But he said to them: "Even if I told YOU, YOU would not believe it at all.[u] 68 Moreover, if I questioned YOU, YOU would not answer at all.[v] 69 However, from now on the Son of man[a] will be sitting at the powerful right[b] hand of God."[c] 70 At this they all said: "Are you, therefore, the Son of God?" He said to them: "YOU yourselves are saying[d] that I am." 71 They said: "Why do we need further witness?[e] For we ourselves have heard [it] out of his own mouth."[f]

23 So the multitude of them rose, one and all, and led him to Pilate.[g] 2 Then they started to accuse him,[h] saying: "This man we found subverting[i] our nation and forbidding the paying of taxes[j] to Caesar and saying he himself is Christ a king."[k] 3 Now Pilate asked him the question: "Are you the king of the Jews?" In answer to him he said: "You yourself are saying [it]."[l] 4 Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds: "I find no crime in this man."[m] 5 But they began to be insistent, saying: "He stirs up the people by teaching throughout all Ju·de′a, even starting out from Gal′i·lee to here." 6 On hearing that, Pilate asked whether the man was a Gal·i·le′an, 7 and, after ascertaining that he was from the jurisdiction of Herod,[n] he sent him on to Herod, who was also himself in Jerusalem in these days.

8 When Herod saw Jesus he rejoiced greatly, for over a considerable time he was wanting to see[o] him because of having heard[p] about him, and he was hoping to see some sign performed by him. 9 Now he began to question him with a good many words; but he made him no answer.[q] 10 However, the chief priests and the scribes kept standing up and vehemently accusing him.[r] 11 Then Herod together with his soldier guards discredited him,[s] and he made fun[t] of him by clothing him with a bright garment and sent him back to Pilate. 12 Both Herod and Pilate[a] now became friends with each other on that very day; for before that they had continued at enmity between themselves.

13 Pilate then called the chief priests and the rulers and the people together 14 and said to them: "You brought this man to me as one inciting the people to revolt, and, look! I examined him in front of YOU but found in this man no ground[b] for the charges YOU are bringing against him. 15 In fact, neither did Herod, for he sent him back to us; and, look! nothing deserving of death[c] has been committed by him. 16 I will therefore chastise[d] him and release him." 17 —— 18 But with their whole multitude they cried out, saying: "Take this one away,[e] but release Bar·ab′bas to us!"[f] 19 (Which [man] had been thrown into prison for a certain sedition occurring in the city and for murder.) 20 Again Pilate called out to them, because he wanted to release Jesus.[g] 21 Then they began to yell, saying: "Impale! Impale him!"[h] 22 The third time he said to them: "Why, what bad thing did this [man] do? I found nothing deserving of death in him; I will therefore chastise and release him."[i] 23 At this they began to be urgent, with loud voices, demanding that he be impaled; and their voices began to win out.[j] 24 So Pilate gave sentence for their demand to be met:[k] 25 he released[l] the man that had been thrown into prison for sedition and murder and whom they were demanding, but he surrendered Jesus to their will.[m]

26 Now as they led him away, they laid hold of Simon, a certain native of Cy·re′ne, coming from the country, and they placed the torture stake upon him to bear it behind Jesus.[a] 27 But there was following him a great multitude of the people and of women who kept beating themselves in grief and bewailing him. 28 Jesus turned to the women and said: "Daughters of Jerusalem, stop weeping for me. On the contrary, weep for yourselves and for YOUR children;[b] 29 because, look! days are coming in which people will say, 'Happy are the barren women, and the wombs that did not give birth and the breasts that did not nurse!'[c] 30 Then they will start to say to the mountains, 'Fall over us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us over!'[d] 31 Because if they do these things when the tree is moist, what will occur when it is withered?"[e]

32 But two other men, evildoers, were also being led to be executed with him.[f] 33 And when they got to the place called Skull,[g] there they impaled him and the evildoers, one on his right and one on his left.[h] 34 [[But Jesus was saying: "Father, forgive[i] them, for they do not know what they are doing."]] Furthermore, to distribute his garments, they cast lots.[j] 35 And the people stood looking on.[k] But the rulers were sneering, saying: "Others he saved; let him save[l] himself, if this one is the Christ of God, the Chosen One."[m] 36 Even the soldiers made fun[n] of him, coming close and offering him sour wine[o] 37 and saying: "If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself." 38 There was also an inscription over him: "This is the king of the Jews."[p]

39 But one of the hung evildoers began to say abusively[q] to him: "You are the Christ, are you not? Save yourself and us." 40 In reply the other rebuked him and said: "Do you not fear God at all, now that you are in the same judgment?[r] 41 And we, indeed, justly so, for we are receiving in full what we deserve for things we did; but this [man] did nothing out of the way."[a] 42 And he went on to say: "Jesus, remember me when you get into your kingdom."[b] 43 And he said to him: "Truly I tell you today, You will be with me[c] in Paradise."[d]

44 Well, by now it was about the sixth hour, and yet a darkness fell over all the earth until the ninth hour,[e] 45 because the sunlight failed; then the curtain[f] of the sanctuary was rent down the middle.[g] 46 And Jesus called with a loud voice and said: "Father, into your hands I entrust my spirit."[h] When he had said this, he expired.[i] 47 Because of seeing what occurred the army officer began to glorify God, saying: "Really this man was righteous."[j] 48 And all the crowds that were gathered together there for this spectacle, when they beheld the things that occurred, began to return, beating their breasts. 49 Moreover, all those acquainted with him were standing at a distance.[k] Also, women, who together had followed him from Gal′i·lee, were standing beholding these things.[l]

50 And, look! a man named Joseph, who was a member of the Council, a good and righteous man[m]— 51 this [man] had not voted in support of their design and action[n]—he was from Ar·i·ma·the′a, a city of the Ju·de′ans, and was waiting for the kingdom of God;[o] 52 this man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.[p] 53 And he took it down[q] and wrapped it up in fine linen, and he laid him in a tomb[r] carved in the rock, in which no man had yet lain.[s] 54 Now it was the day of Preparation,[t] and the evening light of the sabbath[u] was approaching. 55 But the women, who had come with him out of Gal′i·lee, followed along and took a look at the memorial tomb[a] and how his body was laid;[b] 56 and they went back to prepare spices and perfumed oils.[c] But, of course, they rested on the sabbath[d] according to the commandment.

24 On the first day of the week, however, they went very early to the tomb, bearing the spices they had prepared.[e] 2 But they found the stone rolled away from the memorial tomb,[f] 3 and when they entered they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.[g] 4 While they were in perplexity over this, look! two men in flashing clothing stood by them.[h] 5 As the [women] became frightened and kept their faces turned to the ground, the [men] said to them: "Why are YOU looking for the living One among the dead? 6 [[He is not here, but has been raised up.]][i] Recall how he spoke to YOU while he was yet in Gal′i·lee,[j] 7 saying that the Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be impaled and yet on the third day rise."[k] 8 So they called his sayings to mind,[l] 9 and they returned from the memorial tomb and reported all these things to the eleven and to all the rest.[m] 10 They were the Mag′da·lene Mary, and Jo·an′na,[n] and Mary the [mother] of James. Also, the rest of the women[o] with them were telling the apostles these things. 11 However, these sayings appeared as nonsense to them and they would not believe[p] the [women].

12 [[But Peter rose and ran to the memorial tomb, and, stooping forward, he beheld the bandages alone. So he went off, wondering within himself at what had occurred.]]

13 But, look! on that very day two of them were journeying to a village about seven miles distant from Jerusalem [and] named Em·ma′us,

14 and they were conversing with each other over all these things[a] that had come about.

15 Now as they were conversing and discussing, Jesus himself approached[b] and began walking with them; 16 but their eyes were kept from recognizing him.[c] 17 He said to them: "What are these matters that YOU are debating between yourselves as YOU walk along?" And they stood still with sad faces. 18 In answer the one named Cle'o·pas said to him: "Are you dwelling as an alien by yourself in Jerusalem and so do not know the things that have occurred in her in these days?" 19 And he said to them: "What things?" They said to him: "The things concerning Jesus the Naz·a·rene',[d] who became a prophet[e] powerful in work and word before God and all the people; 20 and how our chief priests and rulers handed him over to the sentence of death and impaled him.[f] 21 But we were hoping that this [man] was the one destined to deliver Israel;[g] yes, and besides all these things, this makes the third day since these things occurred. 22 Moreover, certain women[h] from among us also astonished us, because they had been early to the memorial tomb 23 but did not find his body and they came saying they had also seen a supernatural sight of angels, who said he is alive. 24 Further, some of those with us went off to the memorial tomb;[i] and they found it so, just as the women had said, but they did not see him."

25 So he said to them: "O senseless ones and slow in heart to believe on all the things the prophets spoke![j] 26 Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer[k] these things and to enter into his glory?"[l] 27 And commencing at Moses[m] and all the Prophets[n] he interpreted to them things pertaining to himself in all the Scriptures.

28 Finally they got close to the village where they were journeying, and he made as if he was journeying on farther. 29 But they used pressure upon him, saying: "Stay with us, because it is toward evening and the day has already declined." With that he went in to stay with them. 30 And as he was reclining with them at the meal he took the loaf, blessed it, broke it and began to hand it to them.[a] 31 At that their eyes were fully opened and they recognized him; and he disappeared from them.[b] 32 And they said to each other: "Were not our hearts burning as he was speaking to us on the road, as he was fully opening up the Scriptures to us?" 33 And in that very hour they rose and returned to Jerusalem, and they found the eleven and those with them assembled together, 34 saying: "For a fact the Lord was raised up and he appeared to Simon!"[c] 35 Now they themselves related the [events] on the road and how he became known to them by the breaking of the loaf.[d]

36 While they were speaking of these things he himself stood in their midst [[and said to them: "May YOU have peace."]] 37 But because they were terrified, and had become frightened,[e] they were imagining they beheld a spirit. 38 So he said to them: "Why are YOU troubled, and why is it doubts come up in YOUR hearts? 39 See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself; feel[f] me and see, because a spirit does not have flesh and bones[g] just as YOU behold that I have." 40 [[And as he said this he showed them his hands and his feet.]] 41 But while they were still not believing[h] for sheer joy and were wondering, he said to them: "Do YOU have something there to eat?"[a] 42 And they handed him a piece of broiled fish;[b] 43 and he took it and ate it[c] before their eyes.

44 He now said to them: "These are my words which I spoke to YOU while I was yet with YOU,[d] that all the things written in the law of Moses and in the Prophets[e] and Psalms[f] about me must be fulfilled." 45 Then he opened up their minds fully to grasp the meaning of the Scriptures,[g] 46 and he said to them: "In this way it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from among the dead on the third day,[h] 47 and on the basis of his name repentance for forgiveness of sins[i] would be preached in all the nations[j]—starting out from Jerusalem.[a] 48 YOU are to be witnesses[b] of these things. 49 And, look! I am sending forth upon YOU that which is promised by my Father. YOU, though, abide in the city until YOU become clothed with power from on high."[c]

JOHN

1 In [the] beginning[a] the Word[b] was, and the Word was with God,[c] and the Word was a god.[d] 2 This one was in [the] beginning[e] with God.[f] 3 All things came into existence through him,[g] and apart from him not even one thing came into existence.

What has come into existence 4 by means of him was life,[h] and the life was the light[i] of men. 5 And the light is shining in the darkness,[j] but the darkness has not overpowered it.

6 There arose a man that was sent forth as a representative of God:[k] his name was John.[l] 7 This [man] came for a witness,[m] in order to bear witness about the light,[n] that people of all sorts might believe through him.[o] 8 He was not that light,[p] but he was meant to bear witness[q] about that light.

9 The true light[r] that gives light[s] to every sort of man[t] was about to come into the world. 10 He was in the world,[a] and the world came into existence through him,[b] but the world did not know him. 11 He came to his own home, but his own people did not take him in.[c] 12 However, as many as did receive him,[d] to them he gave authority to become God's children,[e] because they were exercising faith in his name;[f] 13 and they were born, not from blood or from a fleshly will or from man's will, but from God.[g]

14 So the Word became flesh[h] and resided among us, and we had a view of his glory, a glory such as belongs to an only-begotten son[i] from a father; and he was full of undeserved kindness and truth.[a] 15 (John bore witness about him, yes, he actually cried out—this was the one who said [it]—saying: "The one coming behind me has advanced in front of me, because he existed before me.")[b] 16 For we all received from out of his fullness,[c] even undeserved kindness upon undeserved kindness.[d] 17 Because the Law was given through Moses,[e] the undeserved kindness[f] and the truth[g] came to be through Jesus Christ. 18 No man has seen God at any time;[h] the only-begotten god[i] who is in the bosom [position][j] with the Father is the one that has explained him.[k]

19 Now this is the witness of John when the Jews sent forth priests and Levites from Jerusalem to him to ask him: "Who are you?"[l] 20 And he confessed and did not deny, but confessed: "I am not the Christ."[m] 21 And they asked him: "What, then? Are you E·li′jah?"[n] And he said: "I am not." "Are you The Prophet?"[o] And he answered: "No!" 22 Therefore they said to him: "Who are you? that we may give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"[p] 23 He said: "I am a voice of someone crying out in the wilderness, 'MAKE the way of Jehovah straight,' just as Isaiah the prophet said."[q] 24 Now those sent forth were from the Pharisees. 25 So they questioned him and said to him: "Why, then, do you baptize[r] if you yourself are not the Christ or E·li′jah or The Prophet?" 26 John answered them, saying: "I baptize in water. In the midst[s] of YOU one is standing whom YOU do not know,[t] 27 the one coming behind me, but the lace of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie."[u] 28 These things took place in Beth′a·ny across the Jordan, where John was baptizing.[a]

29 The next day he beheld Jesus coming toward him, and he said: "See, the Lamb[b] of God that takes away the sin[c] of the world![d] 30 This is the one about whom I said, Behind me there comes a man who has advanced in front of me, because he existed before me.[e] 31 Even I did not know him, but the reason why I came baptizing in water was that he might be made manifest to Israel."[f] 32 John also bore witness, saying: "I viewed the spirit coming down as a dove out of heaven, and it remained upon him.[g] 33 Even I did not know him, but the very One who sent me[h] to baptize in water said to me, 'Whoever it is upon whom you see the spirit coming down and remaining, this is the one that baptizes in holy spirit.'[i] 34 And I have seen [it], and I have borne witness that this one is the Son of God."[j]

35 Again the next day John was standing with two of his disciples, 36 and as he looked at Jesus walking he said: "See, the Lamb[k] of God!" 37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. 38 Then Jesus turned and, getting a view of them following, he said to them: "What are YOU looking for?" They said to him: "Rabbi, (which means, when translated, Teacher,) where are you staying?" 39 He said to them: "Come, and YOU will see."[l] Accordingly they went and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day; it was about the tenth hour. 40 Andrew[m] the brother of Simon Peter was one of the two that heard what John said and followed [Jesus]. 41 First this one found his own brother, Simon, and said to him: "We have found the Mes·si′ah"[n] (which means, when translated, Christ).[a] 42 He led him to Jesus. When Jesus looked[b] upon him he said: "You are Simon[c] the son of John;[d] you will be called Ce′phas" (which is translated Peter).[e]

43 The next day he desired to depart for Gal′i·lee. So Jesus found Philip[f] and said to him: "Be my follower."[g] 44 Now Philip was from Beth·sa′i·da,[h] from the city of Andrew and Peter. 45 Philip found Na·than′a·el[i] and said to him: "We have found the one of whom Moses, in the Law,[j] and the Prophets[k] wrote, Jesus, the son of Joseph,[l] from Naz′a·reth." 46 But Na·than′a·el said to him: "Can anything good come out of Naz′a·reth?"[m] Philip said to him: "Come and see." 47 Jesus saw Na·than′a·el coming toward him and said about him: "See, an Israelite for a certainty, in whom there is no deceit."[n] 48 Na·than′a·el said to him: "How does it come that you know me?" Jesus in answer said to him: "Before Philip called you, while you were under the fig tree, I saw you." 49 Na·than′a·el answered him: "Rabbi, you are the Son of God,[o] you are King[p] of Israel." 50 Jesus in answer said to him: "Because I told you I saw you underneath the fig tree do you believe? You will see things greater than these." 51 He further said to him: "Most truly I say to YOU men, YOU will see heaven opened up and the angels[q] of God ascending and descending to the Son of man."[r]

2 Now on the third day a marriage feast took place in Ca′na[s] of Gal′i·lee, and the mother[t] of Jesus was there. 2 Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the marriage feast.

3 When the wine ran short the mother[u] of Jesus said to him: "They have no wine." 4 But Jesus said to her: "What have I to do with you, woman?[v] My hour has not yet come."[a] 5 His mother said to those ministering: "Whatever he tells YOU, do."[b] 6 As it was, there were six stone water jars sitting there as required by the purification[c] rules of the Jews, each able to hold two or three liquid measures. 7 Jesus said to them: "Fill the water jars with water." And they filled them to the brim. 8 And he said to them: "Draw some out now and take it to the director of the feast." So they took it. 9 When, now, the director of the feast tasted the water that had been turned into wine[d] but did not know what its source was, although those ministering who had drawn out the water knew, the director of the feast called the bridegroom 10 and said to him: "Every other man puts out the fine wine first,[e] and when people are intoxicated, the inferior. You have reserved the fine wine until now." 11 Jesus performed this in Ca′na of Gal′i·lee as [the] beginning of his signs, and he made his glory[f] manifest; and his disciples put their faith in him.

12 After this he and his mother and brothers[g] and his disciples went down to Ca·per′na·um,[h] but they did not stay there many days.

13 Now the passover[i] of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.[j] 14 And he found in the temple those selling cattle and sheep and doves[k] and the money brokers in their seats. 15 So, after making a whip of ropes, he drove all those with the sheep and cattle out of the temple, and he poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.[l] 16 And he said to those selling the doves: "Take these things away from here! Stop making the house[m] of my Father a house of merchandise!"[n] 17 His disciples called to mind that it is written: "The zeal for your house will eat me up."[a]

18 Therefore, in answer, the Jews said to him: "What sign[b] have you to show us, since you are doing these things?" 19 In answer Jesus said to them: "Break down this temple,[c] and in three days I will raise it up." 20 Therefore the Jews said: "This temple was built in forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?" 21 But he was talking about the temple[d] of his body. 22 When, though, he was raised up from the dead, his disciples called to mind[e] that he used to say this; and they believed the Scripture and the saying that Jesus said.

23 However, when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, at its festival,[f] many people put their faith in his name,[g] viewing his signs that he was performing.[h] 24 But Jesus himself was not entrusting[i] himself to them because of his knowing them all 25 and because he was in no need to have anyone bear witness about man, for he himself knew what was in man.[j]

3 Now there was a man of the Pharisees, Nic·o·de'mus[k] was his name, a ruler of the Jews. 2 This one came to him in the night[l] and said to him: "Rabbi,[m] we know that you as a teacher[n] have come from God;[o] for no one can perform these signs[p] that you perform unless God is with him."[q] 3 In answer Jesus said to him:[r] "Most truly I say to you, Unless anyone is born again,[s] he cannot see the kingdom of God."[t] 4 Nic·o·de'mus said to him: "How can a man be born when he is old? He cannot enter into the womb of his mother a second time and be born, can he?" 5 Jesus answered: "Most truly I say to you, Unless anyone is born from water[u] and spirit,[v] he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. 6 What has been born from the flesh is flesh, and what has been born from the spirit is spirit.[a] 7 Do not marvel because I told you, YOU people must be born again.[b] 8 The wind[c] blows where it wants to, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone that has been born from the spirit."[d]

9 In answer Nic·o·de'mus said to him: "How can these things come about?" 10 In answer Jesus said to him: "Are you a teacher of Israel and yet do not know these things?[e] 11 Most truly I say to you, What we know we speak and what we have seen we bear witness[f] of, but YOU people do not receive the witness we give.[g] 12 If I have told YOU earthly things and yet YOU do not believe, how will YOU believe if I tell YOU heavenly things?[h] 13 Moreover, no man has ascended into heaven[i] but he that descended from heaven,[j] the Son of man.[k] 14 And just as Moses lifted up the serpent[l] in the wilderness, so the Son of man must be lifted up,[m] 15 that everyone believing in him may have everlasting life.[n]

16 "For God loved[o] the world so much that he gave his only-begotten Son,[p] in order that everyone exercising faith[q] in him might not be destroyed[r] but have everlasting life.[s] 17 For God sent forth his Son into the world, not for him to judge[t] the world, but for the world to be saved[u] through him. 18 He that exercises faith in him is not to be judged.[v] He that does not exercise faith has been judged already, because he has not exercised faith in the name of the only-begotten Son of God.[w] 19 Now this is the basis for judgment, that the light[a] has come into the world[b] but men have loved the darkness rather than the light,[c] for their works were wicked. 20 For he that practices vile things[d] hates the light and does not come to the light, in order that his works may not be reproved.[e] 21 But he that does what is true comes to the light,[f] in order that his works may be made manifest as having been worked in harmony with God."

22 After these things Jesus and his disciples went into Ju·de'an country, and there he spent some time with them and did baptizing.[g] 23 But John[h] also was baptizing in Ae'non near Sa'lim, because there was a great quantity of water[i] there, and people kept coming and being baptized;[j] 24 for John had not yet been thrown into prison.[k]

25 Therefore a dispute arose on the part of the disciples of John with a Jew concerning purification.[l] 26 So they came to John and said to him: "Rabbi, the man that was with you across the Jordan, to whom you have borne witness,[m] see, this one is baptizing and all are going to him."[n] 27 In answer John said: "A man cannot receive a single thing unless it has been given him from heaven.[o] 28 You yourselves bear me witness that I said, I am not the Christ,[p] but, I have been sent forth in advance of that one.[q] 29 He that has the bride is the bridegroom.[r] However, the friend of the bridegroom, when he stands and hears him, has a great deal of joy on account of the voice of the bridegroom. Therefore this joy of mine has been made full.[s] 30 That one must go on increasing, but I must go on decreasing."

31 He that comes from above is over all others.[t] He that is from the earth is from the earth and speaks of things of the earth.[a] He that comes from heaven is over all others.[b] 32 What he has seen and heard, of this he bears witness,[c] but no man is accepting his witness.[d] 33 He that has accepted his witness has put his seal to it that God is true.[e] 34 For the one whom God sent forth speaks the sayings of God,[f] for he does not give the spirit by measure.[g] 35 The Father loves[h] the Son and has given all things into his hand.[i] 36 He that exercises faith[j] in the Son has everlasting life;[k] he that disobeys the Son will not see life,[l] but the wrath of God remains upon him.[m]

4 When, now, the Lord became aware that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing[n] more disciples than John— 2 although, indeed, Jesus himself did no baptizing but his disciples did— 3 he left Ju·de'a and departed again for Gal'i·lee. 4 But it was necessary for him to go through Sa·mar'i·a.[o] 5 Accordingly he came to a city of Sa·mar'i·a called Sy'char near the field that Jacob gave to Joseph his son.[p] 6 In fact, Jacob's fountain[q] was there. Now Jesus, tired out from the journey, was sitting at the fountain just as he was. The hour was about the sixth.

7 A woman of Sa·mar'i·a came to draw water. Jesus said to her: "Give me a drink." 8 (For his disciples had gone off into the city to buy foodstuffs.) 9 Therefore the Sa·mar'i·tan woman said to him: "How is it that you, despite being a Jew, ask me for a drink, when I am a Sa·mar'i·tan woman?" (For Jews have no dealings with Sa·mar'i·tans.)[r] 10 In answer Jesus said to her: "If you had known the free gift[s] of God and who[t] it is that says to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."[a] 11 She said to him: "Sir, you have not even a bucket for drawing water, and the well is deep. From what source, therefore, do you have this living water? 12 You are not greater[b] than our forefather Jacob, who gave us the well and who himself together with his sons and his cattle drank out of it, are you?" 13 In answer Jesus said to her: "Everyone drinking from this water will get thirsty again. 14 Whoever drinks from the water that I will give him will never get thirsty at all,[c] but the water that I will give him will become in him a fountain of water[d] bubbling up to impart everlasting life."[e] 15 The woman said to him: "Sir, give me this water, so that I may neither thirst nor keep coming over to this place to draw water."

16 He said to her: "Go, call your husband and come to this place." 17 In answer the woman said: "I do not have a husband." Jesus said to her: "You said well, 'A husband I do not have.' 18 For you have had five husbands, and the [man] you now have is not your husband. This you have said truthfully." 19 The woman said to him: "Sir, I perceive you are a prophet.[f] 20 Our forefathers worshiped in this mountain;[g] but YOU people say that in Jerusalem is the place where persons ought to worship."[h] 21 Jesus said to her: "Believe me, woman, The hour is coming when neither in this mountain nor in Jerusalem[i] will YOU people worship[j] the Father. 22 You worship what YOU do not know;[k] we worship what we know, because salvation originates with the Jews.[l] 23 Nevertheless, the hour is coming, and it is now, when the true worshipers will worship the Father with spirit[m] and truth,[n] for, indeed, the Father is looking for suchlike ones to worship him.[a] 24 God is a Spirit,[b] and those worshiping him must worship with spirit and truth."[c] 25 The woman said to him: "I know that Mes·si′ah[d] is coming, who is called Christ.[e] Whenever that one arrives, he will declare all things to us openly." 26 Jesus said to her: "I who am speaking to you am he."[f]

27 Now at this point his disciples arrived, and they began to wonder because he was speaking with a woman. Of course, no one said: "What are you looking for?" or, "Why do you talk with her?" 28 The woman, therefore, left her water jar and went off into the city and told the men: 29 "Come here, see a man that told me all the things I did. This is not perhaps the Christ,[g] is it?" 30 They went out of the city and began coming to him.

31 Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, saying: "Rabbi,[h] eat." 32 But he said to them: "I have food to eat of which YOU do not know." 33 Therefore the disciples began saying to one another: "No one has brought him anything to eat, has he?" 34 Jesus said to them: "My food[i] is for me to do the will[j] of him that sent me and to finish his work.[k] 35 Do YOU not say that there are yet four months before the harvest comes? Look! I say to YOU: Lift up YOUR eyes and view the fields, that they are white for harvesting.[l] Already 36 the reaper is receiving wages and gathering fruit for everlasting life,[m] so that the sower[n] and the reaper may rejoice together.[o] 37 In this respect, indeed, the saying is true, One is the sower and another the reaper. 38 I dispatched YOU to reap what YOU have spent no labor on. Others have labored,[p] and YOU have entered into the benefit of their labor."

39 Now many of the Sa·mar′i·tans out of that city put faith[a] in him on account of the word of the woman who said in witness: "He told me all the things I did."[b] 40 Therefore when the Sa·mar′i·tans came to him, they began asking him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days.[c] 41 Consequently many more believed on account of what he said,[d] 42 and they began to say to the woman: "We do not believe any longer on account of your talk; for we have heard for ourselves[e] and we know that this man is for a certainty the savior[f] of the world."

43 After the two days he left there for Gal′i·lee.[g] 44 Jesus himself, however, bore witness that in his own homeland a prophet has no honor.[h] 45 When, therefore, he arrived in Gal′i·lee, the Gal·i·le′ans received him, because they had seen all the things he did in Jerusalem at the festival,[i] for they also had gone to the festival.[j]

46 Accordingly he came again to Ca′na[k] of Gal′i·lee, where he had turned the water into wine.[l] Now there was a certain attendant of the king whose son was sick in Ca·per′na·um.[m] 47 When this man heard that Jesus had come out of Ju·de′a into Gal′i·lee, he went off to him and began asking him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of dying. 48 However, Jesus said to him: "Unless YOU people see signs[n] and wonders,[o] YOU will by no means believe." 49 The attendant of the king said to him: "Lord, come down before my young child dies." 50 Jesus said to him: "Go your way;[p] your son lives."[q] The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and went his way. 51 But already while he was on his way down his slaves met him to say that his boy was living.[r] 52 Therefore he began to inquire of them the hour in which he got better in health. Accordingly they said to him: "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever[a] left him." 53 Therefore the father knew it was in the very hour[b] that Jesus said to him: "Your son lives." And he and his whole household believed.[c] 54 Again this was the second sign[d] Jesus performed when he came out of Ju·de′a into Gal′i·lee.

5 After these things there was a festival[e] of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 2 Now in Jerusalem at the sheepgate[f] there is a pool designated in Hebrew Beth-za′tha, with five colonnades. 3 In these a multitude of the sick, blind, lame and those with withered members, was lying down. 4 —— 5 But a certain man was there who had been in his sickness for thirty-eight years. 6 Seeing this man lying down, and being aware that he had already been [sick] a long time,[g] Jesus said to him: "Do you want to become sound in health?"[h] 7 The sick man answered him: "Sir, I do not have a man to put me into the pool when the water is disturbed; but while I am coming another steps down ahead of me." 8 Jesus said to him: "Get up, pick up your cot and walk."[i] 9 With that the man immediately became sound in health, and he picked up his cot and began to walk.

Now on that day it was a sabbath.[j] 10 Therefore the Jews began to say to the cured man: "It is Sabbath, and it is not lawful[k] for you to carry the cot." 11 But he answered them: "The very one that made me sound in health said to me, 'Pick up your cot and walk.'" 12 They asked him: "Who is the man that told you, 'Pick it up and walk'?" 13 But the healed man did not know who he was, for Jesus had turned aside, there being a crowd in the place.

14 After these things Jesus found him in the temple and said to him: "See, you have become sound in health. Do not sin anymore, in order that something worse does not happen to you." 15 The man went away and told the Jews it was Jesus that made him sound in health. 16 So on this account the Jews went persecuting[a] Jesus, because he was doing these things during Sabbath. 17 But he answered them: "My Father has kept working until now, and I keep working."[b] 18 On this account, indeed, the Jews began seeking all the more to kill him,[c] because not only was he breaking the Sabbath but he was also calling God his own Father,[d] making himself equal[e] to God.

19 Therefore, in answer, Jesus went on to say to them: "Most truly I say to YOU, The Son cannot do a single thing of his own initiative, but only what he beholds the Father doing.[f] For whatever things that One does, these things the Son also does in like manner. 20 For the Father has affection for the Son[g] and shows him all the things he himself does, and he will show him works greater than these, in order that YOU may marvel.[h] 21 For just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive,[i] so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to.[j] 22 For the Father judges no one at all, but he has committed all the judging to the Son,[k] 23 in order that all may honor the Son[l] just as they honor the Father. He that does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.[m] 24 Most truly I say to YOU, He that hears my word and believes him that sent me has everlasting life,[n] and he does not come into judgment but has passed over from death to life.[o]

25 "Most truly I say to YOU, The hour is coming, and it is now, when the dead[a] will hear the voice[b] of the Son of God and those who have given heed will live. 26 For just as the Father has life in himself,[c] so he has granted also to the Son to have life in himself.[d] 27 And he has given him authority to do judging,[e] because Son of man[f] he is. 28 Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs[g] will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life,[h] those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.[i] 30 I cannot do a single thing of my own initiative; just as I hear, I judge; and the judgment that I render is righteous,[j] because I seek, not my own will, but the will[k] of him that sent me.

31 "If I alone bear witness[l] about myself, my witness is not true.[m] 32 There is another that bears witness about me, and I know that the witness which he bears[n] about me is true. 33 YOU have dispatched men to John, and he has borne witness to the truth.[o] 34 However, I do not accept the witness from man, but I say these things that YOU may be saved.[p] 35 That man was a burning and shining lamp, and YOU for a short time were willing to rejoice greatly in his light.[q] 36 But I have the witness greater than that of John, for the very works that my Father assigned me to accomplish, the works themselves that I am doing,[r] bear witness about me that the Father dispatched me. 37 Also, the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me.[s] YOU have neither heard his voice at any time nor seen his figure;[t] 38 and YOU do not have his word remaining in YOU, because the very one whom he dispatched YOU do not believe.

39 "YOU are searching the Scriptures,[a] because YOU think that by means of them YOU will have everlasting life; and these are the very ones that bear witness about me.[b] 40 And yet YOU do not want to come to me that YOU may have life.[c] 41 I do not accept glory from men,[d] 42 but I well know that YOU do not have the love of God in YOU.[e] 43 I have come in the name of my Father,[f] but YOU do not receive me; if someone else arrived in his own name, YOU would receive that one. 44 How can YOU believe, when YOU are accepting glory[g] from one another and YOU are not seeking the glory that is from the only God?[h] 45 Do not think that I will accuse YOU to the Father; there is one that accuses YOU, Moses,[i] in whom YOU have put YOUR hope. 46 In fact, if YOU believed Moses YOU would believe me, for that one wrote about me.[j] 47 But if YOU do not believe the writings of that one,[k] how will YOU believe my sayings?"

6 After these things Jesus departed across the sea of Gal′i·lee, or Ti·be′ri·as.[l] 2 But a great crowd kept following him, because they were beholding the signs he was performing upon those who were ill.[m] 3 So Jesus went up into a mountain,[n] and there he was sitting with his disciples. 4 Now the passover,[o] the festival of the Jews, was near. 5 When, therefore, Jesus raised his eyes and observed that a great crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip: "Where shall we buy loaves for these to eat?"[p] 6 However, he was saying this to test him, for he himself knew what he was about to do. 7 Philip answered him: "Two hundred de·nar′i·i worth of loaves is not enough for them, so that each one may get a little."[a] 8 One of his disciples, Andrew the brother of Simon Peter, said to him: 9 "Here is a little boy that has five barley loaves[b] and two small fishes. But what are these among so many?"[c]

10 Jesus said: "HAVE the men recline as at meal."[d] Now there was a lot of grass in the place. Therefore the men reclined, about five thousand in number.[e] 11 So Jesus took the loaves and, after giving thanks, he distributed them to those reclining, likewise also as much of the small fishes as they wanted.[f] 12 But when they had their fill[g] he said to his disciples: "Gather together the fragments that remain over, so that nothing is wasted." 13 Therefore they gathered them together, and they filled twelve baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten.[h]

14 Hence when the men saw the signs he performed, they began to say: "This is for a certainty the prophet[i] that was to come into the world." 15 Therefore Jesus, knowing they were about to come and seize him to make him king, withdrew[j] again into the mountain all alone.

16 When evening fell, his disciples went down to the sea,[k] 17 and, boarding a boat, they set out across the sea for Ca·per′na·um. Well, by now it had grown dark and Jesus had not yet come to them. 18 Also, the sea began to be stirred up because a strong wind was blowing.[l] 19 However, when they had rowed about three or four miles, they beheld Jesus walking upon the sea and getting near the boat; and they became fearful.[m] 20 But he said to them: "It is I; have no fear!"[n] 21 Therefore they were willing to take him into the boat, and directly the boat was at the land to which they were trying to go.[o]

22 The next day the crowd that was standing on the other side of the sea saw that there was no boat there except a little one, and that Jesus had not entered into the boat with his disciples but that only his disciples had left; 23 but boats from Ti·beʹri·as arrived near the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks. 24 Therefore when the crowd saw that neither Jesus was there nor his disciples, they boarded their little boats and came to Ca·perʹna·um to look[a] for Jesus.

25 So when they found him across the sea they said to him: "Rabbi,[b] when did you get here?" 26 Jesus answered them and said: "Most truly I say to YOU, YOU are looking for me, not because YOU saw signs, but because YOU ate from the loaves and were satisfied.[c] 27 Work, not for the food that perishes,[d] but for the food that remains for life everlasting,[e] which the Son of man will give YOU; for upon this one the Father, even God, has put his seal [of approval]."[f]

28 Therefore they said to him: "What shall we do to work the works of God?" 29 In answer Jesus said to them: "This is the work of God, that YOU exercise faith[g] in him whom that One sent forth."[h] 30 Therefore they said to him: "What, then, are you performing as a sign,[i] in order for us to see [it] and believe you? What work are you doing? 31 Our forefathers ate the manna[j] in the wilderness, just as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"[k] 32 Hence Jesus said to them: "Most truly I say to YOU, Moses did not give YOU the bread from heaven, but my Father does give YOU the true bread from heaven.[l] 33 For the bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." 34 Therefore they said to him: "Lord, always give us this bread."[a]

35 Jesus said to them: "I am the bread of life. He that comes to me will not get hungry at all, and he that exercises faith in me will never get thirsty at all.[b] 36 But I have said to YOU, YOU have even seen me and yet do not believe.[c] 37 Everything the Father gives me will come to me, and the one that comes to me I will by no means drive away;[d] 38 because I have come down from heaven[e] to do, not my will, but the will of him that sent me.[f] 39 This is the will of him that sent me, that I should lose nothing out of all that he has given me but that I should resurrect[g] it at the last day. 40 For this is the will of my Father, that everyone that beholds the Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life,[h] and I will resurrect him at the last day."[i]

41 Therefore the Jews began to murmur at him because he said: "I am the bread that came down from heaven";[j] 42 and they began saying:[k] "Is this not Jesus the son of Joseph,[l] whose father and mother we know? How is it that now he says, 'I have come down from heaven'?" 43 In answer Jesus said to them: "Stop murmuring among yourselves. 44 No man can come to me unless the Father, who sent me, draws him;[m] and I will resurrect him in the last day.[n] 45 It is written in the Prophets, 'And they will all be taught by Jehovah.'[o] Everyone that has heard from the Father and has learned comes to me.[p] 46 Not that any man has seen the Father,[q] except he who is from God; this one has seen the Father.[r] 47 Most truly I say to YOU, He that believes has everlasting life.[s]

48 "I am the bread[t] of life. 49 YOUR forefathers ate the manna[u] in the wilderness and yet died. 50 This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that anyone may eat of it and not die. 51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven; if anyone eats of this bread he will live forever; and, for a fact, the bread that I shall give is my flesh[a] in behalf of the life of the world."[b]

52 Therefore the Jews began contending with one another, saying: "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" 53 Accordingly Jesus said to them: "Most truly I say to YOU, Unless YOU eat the flesh[c] of the Son of man and drink his blood,[d] YOU have no life[e] in yourselves. 54 He that feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has everlasting life, and I shall resurrect[f] him at the last day; 55 for my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. 56 He that feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood remains in union with me, and I in union with him.[g] 57 Just as the living[h] Father sent me forth and I live because of the Father, he also that feeds on me, even that one will live because of me.[i] 58 This is the bread that came down from heaven. It is not as when YOUR forefathers ate and yet died. He that feeds on this bread will live forever."[j] 59 These things he said as he was teaching in public assembly at Ca·perʹna·um.

60 Therefore many of his disciples, when they heard this, said: "This speech is shocking; who can listen to it?"[k] 61 But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples were murmuring about this, said to them: "Does this stumble[l] YOU? 62 What, therefore, if YOU should behold the Son of man ascending to where he was before?[m] 63 It is the spirit that is life-giving;[n] the flesh is of no use at all. The sayings that I have spoken to YOU are spirit[o] and are life.[p] 64 But there are some of YOU that do not believe." For from [the] beginning Jesus knew who were the ones not believing and who was the one that would betray him.[a] 65 So he went on to say: "This is why I have said to YOU, No one can come to me unless it is granted him by the Father."[b]

66 Owing to this many of his disciples went off to the things behind[c] and would no longer walk with him.[d] 67 Therefore Jesus said to the twelve: "YOU do not want to go also, do YOU?" 68 Simon Peter[e] answered him: "Lord, whom shall we go away to?[f] You have sayings of everlasting life;[g] 69 and we have believed and come to know that you are the Holy One of God."[h] 70 Jesus answered them: "I chose YOU twelve,[i] did I not? Yet one of YOU is a slanderer."[j] 71 He was, in fact, speaking of Judas [the son] of Simon Is·carʹi·ot; for this one was going to betray[k] him, although one of the twelve.

7 Now after these things Jesus continued walking about in Galʹi·lee, for he did not want to walk about in Ju·deʹa, because the Jews were seeking to kill[l] him. 2 However, the festival of the Jews, the festival of tabernacles,[m] was near. 3 Therefore his brothers[n] said to him: "Pass on over from here and go into Ju·deʹa, in order that your disciples also may behold the works you do. 4 For nobody does anything in secret while himself seeking to be known publicly. If you do these things, manifest yourself to the world." 5 His brothers[o] were, in fact, not exercising faith in him.[p] 6 Therefore Jesus said to them: "My due time is not yet present,[q] but YOUR due time is always at hand. 7 The world has no reason to hate YOU, but it hates me, because I bear witness concerning it that its works are wicked.[r] 8 You go up to the festival; I am not yet going up to this festival, because my due time[a] has not yet fully come."[b] 9 So after he told them these things, he remained in Gal'i·lee.

10 But when his brothers had gone up to the festival, then he also went up himself, not openly but as in secret.[c] 11 Therefore the Jews began looking[d] for him at the festival and saying: "Where is that [man]?" 12 And there was a lot of subdued talk about him among the crowds.[e] Some would say: "He is a good man." Others would say: "He is not, but he misleads the crowd." 13 No one, of course, would speak about him publicly because of the fear of the Jews.[f]

14 When by now the festival was half over, Jesus went up into the temple and began teaching.[g] 15 Therefore the Jews fell to wondering, saying: "How does this man have a knowledge of letters,[h] when he has not studied at the schools?"[i] 16 Jesus, in turn, answered them and said: "What I teach is not mine, but belongs to him that sent me.[j] 17 If anyone desires to do His will, he will know concerning the teaching whether it is from God[k] or I speak of my own originality. 18 He that speaks of his own originality is seeking his own glory; but he that seeks the glory[l] of him that sent him, this one is true, and there is no unrighteousness in him. 19 Moses gave YOU the Law,[m] did he not? But not one of YOU obeys the Law. Why are YOU seeking to kill me?"[n] 20 The crowd answered: "You have a demon.[o] Who is seeking to kill you?" 21 In answer Jesus said to them: "One deed I performed,[p] and YOU are all wondering. 22 For this reason Moses has given YOU the circumcision[q]—not that it is from Moses, but that it is from the forefathers[r]—and YOU circumcise a man on a sabbath. 23 If a man receives circumcision on a sabbath in order that the law of Moses may not be broken, are YOU violently angry at me because I made a man completely sound in health on a sabbath?[a] 24 Stop judging from the outward appearance, but judge with righteous judgment."[b]

25 Therefore some of the inhabitants of Jerusalem began to say: "This is the man they are seeking to kill,[c] is it not? 26 And yet, see! he is speaking in public,[d] and they say nothing to him. The rulers have not come to know for a certainty that this is the Christ, have they?[e] 27 On the contrary, we know where this man is from;[f] yet when the Christ comes, no one is to know where he is from."[g] 28 Therefore Jesus cried out as he was teaching in the temple and said: "YOU both know me and know where I am from.[h] Also, I have not come of my own initiative,[i] but he that sent me is real,[j] and YOU do not know him.[k] 29 I know him,[l] because I am a representative from him, and that One sent me forth."[m] 30 Hence they began seeking to get hold of him,[n] but no one laid a hand upon him, because his hour[o] had not yet come. 31 Still, many of the crowd put faith in him;[p] and they commenced saying: "When the Christ arrives, he will not perform more signs[q] than this man has performed, will he?"

32 The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things about him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees dispatched officers to get hold of him.[r] 33 Therefore Jesus said: "I continue a little while longer with YOU before I go to him that sent me.[s] 34 YOU will look for me,[t] but YOU will not find me, and where I am YOU cannot come."[u] 35 Therefore the Jews said among themselves: "Where does this [man] intend going, so that we shall not find him? He does not intend to go to the [Jews] dispersed[a] among the Greeks and teach the Greeks, does he? 36 What does this saying mean that he said, 'You will look for me, but YOU will not find me, and where I am YOU cannot come'?"

37 Now on the last day, the great day of the festival,[b] Jesus was standing up and he cried out, saying: "If anyone is thirsty,[c] let him come to me and drink. 38 He that puts faith in me,[d] just as the Scripture has said, 'Out from his inmost part streams of living water will flow.'"[e] 39 However, he said this concerning the spirit which those who put faith in him were about to receive; for as yet there was no spirit,[f] because Jesus had not yet been glorified.[g] 40 Therefore some of the crowd that heard these words began saying: "This is for a certainty The Prophet."[h] 41 Others were saying: "This is the Christ."[i] But some were saying: "The Christ[j] is not actually coming out of Gal'i·lee, is he?[k] 42 Has not the Scripture said that the Christ is coming from the offspring of David,[l] and from Beth'le·hem[m] the village where David used to be?"[n] 43 Therefore a division over him developed among the crowd.[a] 44 Some of them, though, were wanting to get hold of him, but no one did lay [his] hands upon him.

45 Therefore the officers went back to the chief priests and Pharisees, and the latter said to them: "Why is it YOU did not bring him in?" 46 The officers replied: "Never has [another] man spoken like this."[b] 47 In turn the Pharisees answered: "YOU have not been misled also, have YOU? 48 Not one of the rulers or of the Pharisees has put faith in him, has he?[c] 49 But this crowd that does not know the Law are accursed people."[d] 50 Nic·o·de'mus, who had come to him previously, and who was one of them, said to them: 51 "Our law does not judge a man unless first it has heard[e] from him and come to know what he is doing, does it?" 52 In answer they said to him: "You are not also out of Gal'i·lee, are you? Search and see that no prophet[f] is to be raised up out of Gal'i·lee."[*]

8 12 Therefore Jesus spoke again to them, saying: "I am the light[g] of the world. He that follows me will by no

[*] Manuscripts ℵBSy^{s} omit verses 53 to chapter 8, verse 11, which read (with some variations in the various Greek texts and versions) as follows:

53 So they went each one to his home.

8 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. 2 At daybreak, however, he again presented himself at the temple, and all the people began coming to him, and he sat down and began to teach them. 3 Now the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman caught at adultery, and, after standing her in their midst, 4 they said to him: "Teacher, this woman has been caught in the act of committing adultery. 5 In the Law Moses prescribed for us to stone such sort of women. What, really, do you say?" 6 Of course, they were saying this to put him to the test, in order to have something with which to accuse him. But Jesus bent down and began to write with his finger in the ground. 7 When they persisted in asking him, he straightened up and said to them: "Let the one of you that is sinless be the first to throw a stone at her." 8 And bending over again he kept on writing in the ground. 9 But those who heard this began going out, one by one, starting with the older men, and he was left alone, and the woman that was in their midst. 10 Straightening up, Jesus said to her: "Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?" 11 She said: "No one, sir." Jesus said: "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way; from now on practice sin no more."

means walk in darkness,[a] but will possess the light of life." 13 Hence the Pharisees said to him: "You bear witness about yourself; your witness is not true." 14 In answer Jesus said to them: "Even if I do bear witness about myself, my witness[b] is true, because I know where I came from and where I am going.[c] But YOU do not know where I came from and where I am going. 15 YOU judge according to the flesh;[d] I do not judge any man at all.[e] 16 And yet if I do judge, my judgment is truthful, because I am not alone, but the Father who sent me is with me.[f] 17 Also, in YOUR own Law it is written, 'The witness of two men is true.'[g] 18 I am one that bears witness about myself, and the Father who sent me bears witness about me."[h] 19 Therefore they went on to say to him: "Where is your Father?" Jesus answered: "YOU know neither me nor my Father.[i] If YOU did know me, YOU would know my Father also."[j] 20 These sayings he spoke in the treasury[k] as he was teaching in the temple. But no one laid hold of him,[l] because his hour[m] had not yet come.

21 Hence he said to them again: "I am going away, and YOU will look[n] for me, and yet YOU will die in YOUR sin.[o] Where I am going YOU cannot come." 22 Therefore the Jews began to say: "He will not kill himself, will he? Because he says, 'Where I am going YOU cannot come.'"[p] 23 So he went on to say to them: "YOU are from the realms below; I am from the realms above.[q] YOU are from this world;[r] I am not from this world.[s] 24 Therefore I said to YOU, YOU will die in YOUR sins.[t] For if YOU do not believe that I am [he], YOU will die in YOUR sins."[u] 25 Therefore they began to say to him: "Who are you?" Jesus said to them: "Why am I even speaking to YOU at all? 26 I have many things to speak concerning YOU and to pass judgment upon. As a matter of fact, he that sent me is true, and the very things I heard from him I am speaking in the world."[a] 27 They did not grasp that he was talking to them about the Father. 28 Therefore Jesus said: "When once YOU have lifted up[b] the Son of man,[c] then YOU will know that I am [he],[d] and that I do nothing of my own initiative;[e] but just as the Father taught me I speak these things.[f] 29 And he that sent me is with me; he did not abandon me to myself, because I always do the things pleasing to him."[g] 30 As he was speaking these things, many put faith in him.[h]

31 And so Jesus went on to say to the Jews that had believed him: "If YOU remain in my word,[i] YOU are really my disciples, 32 and YOU will know the truth,[j] and the truth will set YOU free."[k] 33 They replied to him: "We are Abraham's offspring[l] and never have we been slaves to anybody.[m] How is it you say, 'YOU will become free'?" 34 Jesus answered them: "Most truly I say to YOU, Every doer of sin is a slave of sin.[n] 35 Moreover, the slave does not remain in the household forever; the son remains forever.[o] 36 Therefore if the Son sets YOU free, YOU will be actually free.[p] 37 I know that YOU are Abraham's offspring; but YOU are seeking to kill me,[q] because my word makes no progress among YOU.[r] 38 What things I have seen with my Father[s] I speak;[t] and YOU, therefore, do the things YOU have heard from [YOUR] father." 39 In answer they said to him: "Our father is Abraham."[u] Jesus said to them: "If YOU are Abraham's children,[v] do the works of Abraham. 40 But now YOU are seeking to kill me, a man that has told YOU the truth that I heard from God.[a] Abraham did not do this.[b] 41 YOU do the works of YOUR father." They said to him: "We were not born from fornication; we have one Father,[c] God."

42 Jesus said to them: "If God were YOUR Father, YOU would love me,[d] for from God I came forth and am here.[e] Neither have I come of my own initiative at all, but that One sent me forth.[f] 43 Why is it YOU do not know what I am speaking? Because YOU cannot listen to my word.[g] 44 YOU are from YOUR father the Devil,[h] and YOU wish to do the desires of YOUR father.[i] That one was a manslayer when he began,[j] and he did not stand fast in the truth, because truth is not in him. When he speaks the lie, he speaks according to his own disposition, because he is a liar and the father of [the lie].[k] 45 Because I, on the other hand, tell the truth, YOU do not believe me.[l] 46 Who of YOU convicts me of sin?[m] If I speak truth, why is it YOU do not believe me? 47 He that is from God listens to the sayings of God.[n] This is why YOU do not listen, because YOU are not from God."[o]

48 In answer the Jews said to him: "Do we not rightly say, You are a Sa·mar′i·tan[p] and have a demon?"[q] 49 Jesus answered: "I do not have a demon, but I honor my Father,[r] and YOU dishonor me. 50 But I am not seeking glory for myself;[s] there is One that is seeking and judging.[t] 51 Most truly I say to YOU, If anyone observes my word, he will never see death at all."[u] 52 The Jews said to him: "Now we do know you have a demon.[v] Abraham died,[w] also the prophets;[x] but you say, 'If anyone observes my word, he will never taste[y] death at all.' 53 You are not greater[z] than our father Abraham, who died, are you? Also, the prophets died.[a] Who do you claim to be?" 54 Jesus answered: "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father that glorifies me,[b] he who YOU say is YOUR God; 55 and yet YOU have not known him.[c] But I know him.[d] And if I said I do not know him I should be like YOU, a liar. But I do know him and am observing his word.[e] 56 Abraham YOUR father rejoiced greatly in the prospect of seeing my day,[f] and he saw it and rejoiced."[g] 57 Therefore the Jews said to him: "You are not yet fifty years old, and still you have seen Abraham?" 58 Jesus said to them: "Most truly I say to YOU, Before Abraham came into existence, I have been."[h] 59 Therefore they picked up stones to hurl [them] at him;[i] but Jesus hid and went out of the temple.

9 Now as he was passing along he saw a man blind from birth. 2 And his disciples asked him: "Rabbi,[j] who sinned,[k] this man or his parents,[l] so that he was born blind?" 3 Jesus answered: "Neither this man sinned nor his parents, but it was in order that the works of God might be made manifest in his case.[m] 4 We must work the works of him that sent me while it is day;[n] the night[o] is coming when no man can work. 5 As long as I am in the world, I am the world's light."[p] 6 After he said these things, he spit on the ground and made a clay with the saliva, and put his clay upon the [man's] eyes[q] 7 and said to him: "Go wash[r] in the pool of Si·lo′am"[s] (which is translated 'Sent forth'). And so he went off and washed,[t] and came back seeing.[u]

and those who formerly used to see he was a beggar began to say: "This is the man that used to sit and beg, is it not?"[a] 9 Some would say: "This is he." Others would say: "Not at all, but he is like him." The man would say: "I am [he]." 10 Consequently they began to say to him: "How, then, were your eyes opened?"[b] 11 He answered: "The man called Jesus made a clay and smeared [it] on my eyes and said to me, 'Go to Si·lo′am[c] and wash.' I therefore went and washed and gained sight." 12 At this they said to him: "Where is that [man]?" He said: "I do not know."

13 They led the once-blind man himself to the Pharisees. 14 Incidentally it was Sabbath[d] on the day that Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes.[e] 15 This time, therefore, the Pharisees also took up asking him how he gained sight.[f] He said to them: "He put a clay upon my eyes, and I washed and have sight." 16 Therefore some of the Pharisees began to say: "This is not a man from God, because he does not observe the Sabbath."[g] Others began to say: "How can a man that is a sinner perform signs[h] of that sort?" So there was a division[i] among them. 17 Hence they said to the blind man again: "What do you say about him, seeing that he opened your eyes?" The [man] said: "He is a prophet."[j]

18 However, the Jews did not believe concerning him that he had been blind and had gained sight, until they called the parents of the man that gained sight. 19 And they asked them: "Is this YOUR son who YOU say was born blind? How, then, is it he sees at present?" 20 Then in answer his parents said: "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. 21 But how it is he now sees we do not know, or who opened his eyes we do not know. ASK him. He is of age. He must speak for himself." 22 His parents said these things because they were in fear[a] of the Jews, for the Jews had already come to an agreement that, if anyone confessed him as Christ, he should get expelled from the synagogue.[b] 23 This is why his parents said: "He is of age. QUESTION him."

24 Therefore a second time they called the man that had been blind and said to him: "Give glory to God;[c] we know that this man is a sinner." 25 In turn he answered: "Whether he is a sinner I do not know. One thing I do know, that, whereas I was blind, I see at present." 26 Therefore they said to him: "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" 27 He answered them: "I told YOU already, and yet YOU did not listen. Why do YOU want to hear it again? YOU do not want to become his disciples also, do YOU?" 28 At this they reviled him and said: "You are a disciple of that [man], but we are disciples of Moses. 29 We know that God has spoken to Moses;[d] but as for this [man], we do not know where he is from."[e] 30 In answer the man said to them: "This certainly is a marvel,[f] that YOU do not know where he is from, and yet he opened my eyes. 31 We know that God does not listen to sinners,[g] but if anyone is God-fearing and does his will, he listens to this one.[h] 32 From of old it has never been heard that anyone opened the eyes of one born blind. 33 If this [man] were not from God,[i] he could do nothing at all." 34 In answer they said to him: "You were altogether born in sins,[j] and yet are you teaching us?" And they threw him out![k]

35 Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and, on finding him, he said: "Are you putting faith in the Son[a] of man?" 36 The [man] answered: "And who is he, sir, that I may put faith in him?" 37 Jesus said to him: "You have seen him and, besides, he that is speaking with you is that one."[b] 38 Then he said: "I do put faith [in him], Lord." And he did obeisance[c] to him. 39 And Jesus said: "For [this] judgment[d] I came into this world: that those not seeing might see[e] and those seeing might become blind."[f] 40 Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and they said to him: "We are not blind also,[g] are we?" 41 Jesus said to them: "If YOU were blind, YOU would have no sin. But now YOU say, 'We see.'[h] YOUR sin[i] remains."

10 "Most truly I say to YOU, He that does not enter into the sheepfold through the door[j] but climbs up some other place, that one is a thief and a plunderer.[k] 2 But he that enters through the door[l] is shepherd[m] of the sheep.[n] 3 The doorkeeper[o] opens to this one, and the sheep[p] listen to his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. 4 When he has got all his own out, he goes before them, and the sheep follow[q] him, because they know his voice.[r] 5 A stranger they will by no means follow but will flee[s] from him, because they do not know the voice of strangers."[t] 6 Jesus spoke this comparison to them; but they did not know what the things meant that he was speaking to them.[u]

7 Therefore Jesus said again: "Most truly I say to YOU, I am the door[v] of the sheep. 8 All those that have come in place of me are thieves and plunderers;[w] but the sheep have not listened to them.[x] 9 I am the door;[y] whoever enters through me will be saved, and he will go in and out and find pasturage.[z] 10 The thief[a] does not come unless it is to steal and slay and destroy.[b] I have come that they might have life and might have it in abundance. 11 I am the fine shepherd;[c] the fine shepherd surrenders his soul in behalf of the sheep.[d] 12 The hired[e] man, who is no shepherd and to whom the sheep do not belong as his own, beholds the wolf coming and abandons the sheep and flees—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them[f]— 13 because he is a hired[g] man and does not care for the sheep.[h] 14 I am the fine shepherd, and I know my sheep[i] and my sheep know me,[j] 15 just as the Father knows me and I know the Father;[k] and I surrender my soul in behalf of the sheep.[l]

16 "And I have other sheep,[m] which are not of this fold;[n] those also I must bring, and they will listen to my voice,[o] and they will become one flock, one shepherd.[p] 17 This is why the Father loves me,[q] because I surrender my soul,[r] in order that I may receive it again. 18 No man has taken it away from me, but I surrender it of my own initiative. I have authority to surrender it, and I have authority to receive it again.[s] The commandment[t] on this I received from my Father."

19 Again a division[u] resulted among the Jews because of these words. 20 Many of them were saying: "He has a demon[v] and is mad. Why do YOU listen to him?" 21 Others would say: "These are not the sayings of a demonized man. A demon cannot open blind people's eyes, can it?"

22 At that time the festival of dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was wintertime, 23 and Jesus was walking in the temple in the colonnade of Sol'o·mon.[a] 24 Therefore the Jews encircled him and began to say to him: "How long are you to keep our souls in suspense? If you are the Christ,[b] tell us outspokenly."[c] 25 Jesus answered them: "I told YOU, and yet YOU do not believe. The works that I am doing in the name of my Father, these bear witness about me.[d] 26 But YOU do not believe, because YOU are none of my sheep.[e] 27 My sheep[f] listen to my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.[g] 28 And I give them everlasting life,[h] and they will by no means ever be destroyed,[i] and no one will snatch them out of my hand.[j] 29 What my Father[k] has given me is something greater than all other things,[l] and no one can snatch them out of the hand of the Father.[m] 30 I and the Father are one."[n]

31 Once more the Jews lifted up stones to stone him.[o] 32 Jesus replied to them: "I displayed to YOU many fine works from the Father. For which of those works are YOU stoning me?" 33 The Jews answered him: "We are stoning you, not for a fine work, but for blasphemy,[p] even because you, although being a man, make yourself a god."[q] 34 Jesus answered them: "Is it not written in YOUR Law,[r] 'I said: "YOU are gods"'?[s] 35 If he called 'gods'[t] those against whom the word of God came, and yet the Scripture cannot be nullified,[u] 36 do YOU say to me whom the Father sanctified and dispatched into the world, 'You blaspheme,' because I said, I am God's Son?[v] 37 If I am not doing the works[w] of my Father, do not believe me. 38 But if I am doing them, even though YOU do not believe me, believe the works,[x] in order that YOU may come to know and may continue knowing that the Father is in union with me and I am in union with the Father."[a] 39 Therefore they tried again to seize him;[b] but he got out of their reach.[c]

40 So he went off again across the Jordan to the place where John was baptizing[d] at first, and he stayed there. 41 And many people came to him, and they began saying: "John, indeed, did not perform a single sign, but as many things as John said about this man were all true."[e] 42 And many put faith in him there.[f]

Now there was a certain man sick, Laz'a·rus of Beth'a·ny, of the village of Mary and of Martha[g] her sister. 2 It was, in fact, the Mary that greased the Lord with perfumed oil[h] and wiped his feet dry with her hair,[i] whose brother Laz'a·rus was sick. 3 Therefore his sisters dispatched word to him, saying: "Lord, see! the one for whom you have affection[j] is sick." 4 But when Jesus heard it he said: "This sickness is not with death as its object, but is for the glory of God,[k] in order that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

5 Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Laz'a·rus. 6 However, when he heard that he was sick, then he actually remained two days in the place where he was. 7 Then after this he said to the disciples: "Let us go into Ju·de'a again." 8 The disciples said to him: "Rabbi,[l] just lately the Ju·de'ans were seeking to stone you,[m] and are you going there again?" 9 Jesus answered: "There are twelve hours of daylight, are there not? If anyone walks in daylight[n] he does not bump against anything, because he sees the light of this world. 10 But if anyone walks in the night,[o] he bumps against something, because the light is not in him."

11 He said these things, and after this he said to them: "Laz'a·rus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep."[a] 12 Therefore the disciples said to him: "Lord, if he has gone to rest, he will get well." 13 Jesus had spoken, however, about his death. But they imagined he was speaking about taking rest in sleep. 14 At that time, therefore, Jesus said to them outspokenly: "Laz'a·rus has died,[b] 15 and I rejoice on YOUR account that I was not there, in order for YOU to believe. But let us go to him." 16 Therefore Thomas, who was called The Twin, said to his fellow disciples: "Let us also go, that we may die with him."[c]

17 Consequently when Jesus arrived, he found he had already been four days in the memorial tomb.[d] 18 Now Beth'a·ny was near Jerusalem at a distance of about two miles. 19 Accordingly many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary in order to console[e] them concerning their brother. 20 Therefore Martha, when she heard that Jesus was coming, met him; but Mary[f] kept sitting at home. 21 Martha therefore said to Jesus: "Lord, if you had been here my brother would not have died.[g] 22 And yet at present I know that as many things as you ask God for,[h] God will give you." 23 Jesus said to her: "Your brother will rise."[i] 24 Martha said to him: "I know he will rise in the resurrection[j] on the last day." 25 Jesus said to her: "I am the resurrection and the life.[k] He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life;[l] 26 and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all.[m] Do you believe this?" 27 She said to him: "Yes, Lord; I have believed that you are the Christ the Son of God, the One coming into the world."[n] 28 And when she had said this, she went off and called Mary her sister, saying secretly: "The Teacher[a] is present and is calling you." 29 The latter, when she heard this, got up quickly and was on her way to him.

30 Jesus had not yet, in fact, come into the village, but he was still in the place where Martha met him. 31 Therefore the Jews that were with her in the house[b] and that were consoling her, on seeing Mary rise quickly and go out, followed her, supposing that she was going to the memorial tomb[c] to weep there. 32 And so Mary, when she arrived where Jesus was and caught sight of him, fell at his feet, saying to him: "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."[d] 33 Jesus, therefore, when he saw her weeping and the Jews that came with her weeping, groaned in the spirit and became troubled;[e] 34 and he said: "Where have YOU laid him?" They said to him: "Lord, come and see." 35 Jesus gave way to tears.[f] 36 Therefore the Jews began to say: "See, what affection he used to have for him!"[g] 37 But some of them said: "Was not this [man] that opened the eyes[h] of the blind man able to prevent this one from dying?"

38 Hence Jesus, after groaning again within himself, came to the memorial tomb.[i] It was, in fact, a cave, and a stone[j] was lying against it. 39 Jesus said: "TAKE the stone[k] away." Martha, the sister of the deceased, said to him: "Lord, by now he must smell, for it is four days." 40 Jesus said to her: "Did I not tell you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?"[l] 41 Therefore they took the stone away. Now Jesus raised his eyes heavenward[m] and said: "Father, I thank you that you have heard me.[n] 42 True, I knew that you always hear me; but on account of the crowd[o] standing around I spoke, in order that they might believe that you sent me forth."[a] 43 And when he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice: "Laz'a·rus, come on out!"[b] 44 The [man] that had been dead came out with his feet and hands bound with wrappings,[c] and his countenance was bound about with a cloth. Jesus said to them: "Loose him and let him go."

45 Therefore many of the Jews that had come to Mary and that beheld what he did put faith in him;[d] 46 but some of them went off to the Pharisees and told them the things Jesus did.[e] 47 Consequently the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered the San'he·drin[f] together and began to say: "What are we to do, because this man performs many signs?[g] 48 If we let him alone this way, they will all put faith in him,[h] and the Romans[i] will come and take away both our place[j] and our nation." 49 But a certain one of them, Ca'ia·phas, who was high priest that year,[k] said to them: "You do not know anything at all, 50 and YOU do not reason out that it is to YOUR benefit for one man to die[l] in behalf of the people and not for the whole nation to be destroyed."[m] 51 This, though,
he did not say of his own originality;
but because he was high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was destined to die for the nation, 52 and not for the nation only, but in order that the children of God who are scattered[n] about he might also gather together in one.[o] 53 Therefore from that day on they took counsel to kill him.[p]

54 Hence Jesus no longer walked about publicly[q] among the Jews,[r] but he departed from there to the country near the wilderness, into a city called E'phra·im,[s] and there he remained with the disciples.
55 Now the passover[t] of the Jews was near, and many people went up out of the country to Jerusalem before the passover in order to cleanse themselves ceremonially.[a] 56 Therefore they went looking for Jesus and they would say to one another as they stood around in the temple: "What is YOUR opinion?
That he will not come to the festival at all?" 57 As it was, the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone got to know where he was, he should disclose [it], in order that they might seize him.

12 Accordingly Jesus, six days before the passover, arrived at Beth'a·ny,[b] where Laz'a·rus[c] was whom Jesus had raised up from the dead.
2 Therefore they spread an evening meal for him there, and Martha[d] was ministering,[e] but Laz'a·rus was one of those reclining at the table with him.[f] 3 Mary, therefore, took a pound of perfumed oil, genuine nard,[g] very costly, and she greased the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet dry with her hair.[h] The house became filled with the scent of the perfumed oil. 4 But Judas
Is·car'i·ot,[i] one of his disciples, who was about to betray him,
said: 5 "Why was it this perfumed[j] oil was not sold for three hundred de·nar'i·i and given to the poor[k] people?" 6 He said this, though, not because he was concerned about the poor, but because he was a thief[l] and had the money box[m] and used to carry off the monies put in it.
7 Therefore Jesus said: "Let her alone, that she may keep this observance in view of the day of my burial.[n] 8 For YOU have the poor[o] always with YOU, but me YOU will not have always."

9 Therefore a great crowd of the Jews got to know he was there, and they came, not on account of Jesus only, but also to see Laz'a·rus, whom he raised up from the dead.[p] 10 The chief priests now took counsel to kill Laz'a·rus also,[q] 11 because on account of him many of the Jews were going there and putting faith in Jesus.[a]

12 The next day the great crowd that had come to the festival, on hearing that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 took the branches of palm trees[b] and went out to meet him. And they began to shout:[c] "Save, we pray you![d] Blessed is he that comes in Jehovah's name,[e] even the king[f] of Israel!" 14 But when Jesus had found a young ass,[g]
he sat on it, just as it is written:
15 "Have no fear, daughter of Zion. Look! Your king is coming,[h] seated upon an ass's colt."[i] 16 These things his disciples took no note of at first,[j] but when Jesus became glorified,[k] then they called to mind that these things were written respecting him and that they did these things to him.[l]

17 Accordingly the crowd that was with him when he called Laz'a·rus[m] out of the memorial tomb and raised him up from the dead kept bearing witness.[n] 18 On this account the crowd, because they heard he had performed this sign,[o]
also met him. 19 Therefore the Pharisees[p] said among themselves: "YOU observe YOU are getting absolutely nowhere.
See! The world has gone after him."[q]

20 Now there were some Greeks[r] among those that came up to worship at the festival.
21 These, therefore, approached Philip[s] who was from Beth·sa'i·da of Gal'i·lee, and they began to request him, saying:
"Sir, we want to see Jesus."[t]
22 Philip came and told Andrew.
Andrew and Philip came and told Jesus.

23 But Jesus answered them, saying: "The hour has come for the Son of man to be glorified.[u] 24 Most truly I say to YOU, Unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains just one [grain]; but if it dies,[a] it then bears much fruit. 25 He that is fond of his soul destroys it, but he that hates his soul[b] in this world will safeguard it for everlasting life.[c] 26 If anyone would minister to me, let him follow me, and where I am there my minister will be also.[d] If anyone would minister to me, the Father will honor him.[e] 27 Now my soul is troubled,[f] and what shall I say? Father, save me out of this hour.[g] Nevertheless, this is why I have come to this hour. 28 Father, glorify your name." Therefore a voice[h] came out of heaven: "I both glorified [it] and will glorify [it] again."[i]

29 Hence the crowd that stood about and heard it began to say that it had thundered.
Others began to say: "An angel has spoken to him." 30 In answer Jesus said: "This voice has occurred, not for my sake, but for YOUR sakes.[j] 31 Now there is a judging of this world; now the ruler of this world[k] will be cast out.[l] 32 And yet I, if I am lifted[m] up from the earth, will draw men of all sorts to me."[n] 33 This he was really saying to signify what sort of death he was about to die.[o] 34 Therefore the crowd answered him:
"We heard from the Law that the Christ remains forever;[p] and how is it you say that the Son of man must be lifted up?[q] Who is this Son of man?"[r] 35 Jesus therefore said to them: "The light will be among YOU a little while longer. Walk while YOU have the light, so that darkness[s]
does not overpower YOU;
and he that walks in the darkness does not know where he is going.[t] 36 While YOU have the light, exercise faith in the light, in order to become sons of light."[u]

Jesus spoke these things and went off and hid from them.
37 But although he had performed so many signs before them, they were not putting faith in him, 38 so that the word of Isaiah the prophet was fulfilled which he said: "Jehovah, who has put faith in the thing heard by us?[a] And as for the arm of Jehovah, to whom has it been revealed?"[b] 39 The reason why they were not able to believe is that again Isaiah said: 40 "He has blinded their eyes and he has made their hearts hard,[c] that they should not see with their eyes and get the thought with their hearts and turn around and I should heal them."[d] 41 Isaiah said these things because he saw his glory,[e] and he spoke about him. 42 All the same, many even of the rulers actually put faith in him,[f] but because of the Pharisees they would not confess [him], in order not to be expelled from the synagogue;[g] 43 for they loved the glory of men more than even the glory of God.[h]

44 However, Jesus cried out and said: "He that puts faith in me puts faith, not in me [only], but in him [also] that sent me;[i] 45 and he that beholds me beholds [also] him that sent me.[j] 46 I have come as a light into the world,[k] in order that everyone putting faith in me may not remain in the darkness.[l] 47 But if anyone hears my sayings and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I came, not to judge the world,[m] but to save the world.[n] 48 He that disregards me and does not receive my sayings has one to judge him. The word[o] that I have spoken is what will judge him in the last day; 49 because I have not spoken out of my own impulse, but the Father himself who sent me has given me a commandment as to what to tell and what to speak.[p] 50 Also, I know that his commandment means everlasting life.[q] Therefore the things I speak, just as the Father has told me [them], so I speak [them]."[a]

13 Now, because he knew before the festival of the passover that his hour had come[b] for him to move out of this world to the Father,[c] Jesus, having loved his own that were in the world,[d] loved them to the end. 2 So, while the evening meal was going on, the Devil having already put it into the heart of Judas Is·car'i·ot,[e] the son of Simon, to betray him,[f] 3 he, knowing that the Father had given all things into [his] hands[g] and that he came forth from God and was going to God,[h] 4 got up from the evening meal and laid aside his outer garments. And, taking a towel, he girded himself.[i] 5 After that he put water into a basin and started to wash the feet[j] of the disciples and to dry them off with the towel with which he was girded. 6 And so he came to Simon Peter. He said to him: "Lord, are you washing my feet?"[k] 7 In answer Jesus said to him: "What I am doing you do not understand at present, but you will understand after these things."[l] 8 Peter said to him: "You will certainly never wash my feet." Jesus answered him: "Unless I wash you,[m] you have no part with me." 9 Simon Peter said to him: "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head." 10 Jesus said to him: "He that has bathed[n] does not need to have more than his feet washed, but is wholly clean. And YOU men are clean, but not all." 11 He knew, indeed, the man betraying him.[o] This is why he said: "Not all of YOU are clean."

12 When, now, he had washed their feet and had put his outer garments on and laid himself down at the table again, he said to them: "Do YOU know what I have done to YOU? 13 You address me,

'Teacher,'[a] and, 'Lord,'[b] and YOU speak rightly, for I am such.[c] 14 Therefore, if I, although Lord and Teacher, washed YOUR feet,[d] YOU also ought to wash the feet of one another.[e] 15 For I set the pattern for YOU, that, just as I did to YOU, YOU should do also.[f] 16 Most truly I say to YOU, A slave is not greater than his master, nor is one that is sent forth greater than the one that sent him.[g] 17 If YOU know these things, happy YOU are if YOU do them.[h] 18 I am not talking about all of YOU; I know the ones I have chosen.[i] But it is in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled,[j] 'He that used to feed on my bread has lifted up his heel against me.'[k] 19 From this moment on I am telling YOU before it occurs,[l] in order that when it does occur YOU may believe that I am [he]. 20 Most truly I say to YOU, He that receives anyone I send receives me [also].[m] In turn he that receives me, receives [also] him that sent me."[n]

21 After saying these things, Jesus became troubled in spirit, and he bore witness and said: "Most truly I say to YOU, One of YOU will betray me."[o] 22 The disciples began to look at one another, being at a loss as to which one he was saying [it] about.[p] 23 There was reclining in front of Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, and Jesus loved him.[q] 24 Therefore Simon Peter nodded to this one and said to him: "Tell who it is about whom he is saying [it]." 25 So the latter leaned back upon the breast of Jesus and said to him: "Lord, who is it?"[r] 26 Therefore Jesus answered: "It is that one to whom I shall give the morsel that I dip."[s] And so, having dipped the morsel, he took and gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Is·car'i·ot. 27 And after the morsel then Satan entered into the latter.[t] Jesus, therefore, said to him: "What you are doing get done more quickly." 28 However, none of those reclining at the table knew for what purpose he said this to him. 29 Some, in fact, were imagining, since Judas was holding the money box,[a] that Jesus was telling him: "Buy what things we need for the festival," or that he should give something to the poor.[b] 30 Therefore, after he received the morsel, he went out immediately. And it was night.[c]

31 Hence when he had gone out, Jesus said: "Now the Son of man is glorified,[d] and God is glorified in connection with him. 32 And God will himself glorify him,[e] and he will glorify him immediately. 33 Little children,[f] I am with YOU a little longer. YOU will look for me; and just as I said to the Jews, 'Where I go YOU cannot come,'[g] I say also to YOU at present. 34 I am giving YOU a new commandment, that YOU love one another; just as I have loved YOU,[h] that YOU also love one another.[i] 35 By this all will know that YOU are my disciples, if YOU have love among yourselves."[j]

36 Simon Peter said to him: "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered: "Where I am going you cannot follow me now, but you will follow afterwards."[k] 37 Peter said to him: "Lord, why is it I cannot follow you at present? I will surrender my soul in your behalf."[l] 38 Jesus answered: "Will you surrender your soul in my behalf? Most truly I say to you, A cock will by no means crow until you have disowned me three times."[m]

14 "Do not let YOUR hearts be troubled.[n] Exercise faith in God,[o] exercise faith also in me.[p] 2 In the house of my Father there are many abodes.[q]

Otherwise, I would have told YOU, because I am going my way to prepare a place[a] for YOU. 3 Also, if I go my way and prepare a place for YOU, I am coming again[b] and will receive YOU home to myself,[c] that where I am YOU also may be.[d] 4 And where I am going YOU know the way."

5 Thomas[e] said to him: "Lord, we do not know where you are going.[f] How do we know the way?"

6 Jesus said to him: "I am the way[g] and the truth[h] and the life.[i] No one comes to the Father except through me.[j] 7 If YOU men had known me, YOU would have known my Father also; from this moment on YOU know him and have seen him."[k]

8 Philip said to him: "Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us."

9 Jesus said to him: "Have I been with YOU men so long a time, and yet, Philip, you have not come to know me? He that has seen me has seen the Father[l] [also]. How is it you say, 'Show us the Father'?[m] 10 Do you not believe that I am in union with the Father and the Father is in union with me?[n] The things I say to YOU men I do not speak of my own originality; but the Father who remains in union with me is doing his works.[o] 11 Believe me that I am in union with the Father and the Father is in union with me; otherwise, believe on account of the works themselves.[p] 12 Most truly I say to YOU, He that exercises faith in me, that one also will do the works that I do; and he will do works greater[q] than these, because I am going my way to the Father.[r] 13 Also, whatever it is that YOU ask in my name, I will do this, in order that the Father may be glorified in connection with the Son.[s] 14 If YOU ask anything in my name, I will do it.

15 "If YOU love me, YOU will observe my commandments;[a] 16 and I will request the Father and he will give YOU another helper to be with YOU forever,[b] 17 the spirit of the truth,[c] which the world cannot receive,[d] because it neither beholds it nor knows it. YOU know it, because it remains with YOU and is in YOU.[e] 18 I shall not leave YOU bereaved.[f] I am coming to YOU. 19 A little longer and the world will behold me no more,[g] but YOU will behold me,[h] because I live and YOU will live.[i] 20 In that day YOU will know that I am in union with my Father and YOU are in union with me and I am in union with YOU.[j] 21 He that has my commandments and observes them, that one is he who loves me.[k] In turn he that loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and will plainly show myself to him."

22 Judas,[l] not Is·car′i·ot, said to him: "Lord, what has happened that you intend to show yourself plainly to us and not to the world?"[m]

23 In answer Jesus said to him: "If anyone loves me, he will observe[n] my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our abode with him.[o] 24 He that does not love me does not observe my words; and the word that YOU are hearing is not mine, but belongs to the Father who sent me.[p]

25 "While remaining with YOU I have spoken these things to YOU. 26 But the helper, the holy spirit, which the Father will send in my name, that one will teach YOU all things and bring back to YOUR minds all the things I told YOU.[q] 27 I leave YOU peace, I give YOU my peace.[r] I do not give it to YOU the way that the world gives it. troubled nor let them shrink for fear. 28 YOU heard that I said to YOU, I am going away and I am coming [back] to YOU. If YOU loved me, YOU would rejoice that I am going my way to the Father, because the Father is greater[a] than I am. 29 So now I have told YOU before it occurs,[b] in order that, when it does occur, YOU may believe. 30 I shall not speak much with YOU anymore, for the ruler[c] of the world is coming. And he has no hold on me,[d] 31 but, in order for the world to know that I love the Father, even as the Father has given me commandment[e] [to do], so I am doing. Get up, let us go from here.

15 "I am the true vine,[f] and my Father is the cultivator.[g] 2 Every branch in me not bearing fruit he takes away,[h] and every one bearing fruit he cleans,[i] that it may bear more fruit.[j] 3 YOU are already clean because of the word that I have spoken to YOU.[k] 4 Remain in union with me, and I in union with YOU.[l] Just as the branch cannot bear fruit of itself unless it remains in the vine, in the same way neither can YOU, unless YOU remain in union with me.[m] 5 I am the vine, YOU are the branches. He that remains in union with me, and I in union with him, this one bears much fruit;[n] because apart from me YOU can do nothing at all. 6 If anyone does not remain in union with me, he is cast out as a branch and is dried up; and men gather those branches up and pitch them into the fire and they are burned.[o] 7 If YOU remain in union with me and my sayings remain in YOU, ask whatever YOU wish and it will take place for YOU.[p] 8 My Father is glorified in this, that YOU keep bearing much fruit and prove yourselves my disciples.[q] 9 Just as the Father has loved me[r] and I have loved YOU, remain in my love. 10 If YOU observe my commandments,[a] YOU will remain in my love, just as I have observed the commandments of the Father[b] and remain in his love.

11 "These things I have spoken to YOU, that my joy may be in YOU and YOUR joy may be made full.[c] 12 This is my commandment, that YOU love one another just as I have loved YOU.[d] 13 No one has love greater than this, that someone should surrender his soul in behalf of his friends.[e] 14 YOU are my friends if YOU do what I am commanding YOU.[f] 15 I no longer call YOU slaves, because a slave does not know what his master does. But I have called YOU friends,[g] because all the things I have heard from my Father I have made known to YOU.[h] 16 YOU did not choose me, but I chose YOU, and I appointed YOU to go on and keep bearing fruit[i] and that YOUR fruit should remain; in order that no matter what YOU ask the Father in my name he might give it to YOU.[j]

17 "These things I command YOU, that YOU love one another.[k] 18 If the world hates YOU, YOU know that it has hated me before it hated YOU.[l] 19 If YOU were part of the world, the world would be fond of what is its own.[m] Now because YOU are no part of the world,[n] but I have chosen YOU out of the world, on this account the world hates YOU.[o] 20 Bear in mind the word I said to YOU, A slave is not greater than his master. If they have persecuted me, they will persecute YOU also;[p] if they have observed my word, they will observe YOURS also. 21 But they will do all these things against YOU on account of my name, because they do not know him that sent me.[q] 22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin;[a] but now they have no excuse for their sin.[b] 23 He that hates me hates also my Father.[c] 24 If I had not done among them the works that no one else did,[d] they would have no sin;[e] but now they have both seen and hated me as well as my Father.[f] 25 But it is that the word written in their Law may be fulfilled, 'They hated me without cause.'[g] 26 When the helper arrives that I will send YOU from the Father,[h] the spirit of the truth, which proceeds from the Father, that one will bear witness about me;[i] 27 and YOU, in turn, are to bear witness,[j] because YOU have been with me from when I began.

16 "I have spoken these things to YOU that YOU may not be stumbled.[k] 2 Men will expel YOU from the synagogue.[l] In fact, the hour is coming when everyone that kills YOU will imagine he has rendered a sacred service to God.[m] 3 But they will do these things because they have not come to know either the Father or me.[n] 4 Nevertheless, I have spoken these things to YOU that, when the hour for them arrives, YOU may remember I told them to YOU.[o]

"These things, however, I did not tell YOU at first, because I was with YOU. 5 But now I am going to him that sent me,[p] and yet not one of YOU asks me, 'Where are you going?' 6 But because I have spoken these things to YOU grief[q] has filled YOUR hearts. 7 Nevertheless, I am telling YOU the truth, It is for YOUR benefit I am going away. For if I do not go away, the helper[r] will by no means come to YOU; but if I do go my way, I will send him to YOU. 8 And when that one arrives he will give the world convincing evidence concerning sin and concerning righteousness and concerning judgment:[a] 9 in the first place, concerning sin,[b] because they are not exercising faith in me;[c] 10 then concerning righteousness,[d] because I am going to the Father and YOU will behold me no longer; 11 then concerning judgment,[e] because the ruler of this world has been judged.[f]

12 "I have many things yet to say to YOU, but YOU are not able to bear them at present.[g] 13 However, when that one arrives, the spirit of the truth,[h] he will guide YOU into all the truth, for he will not speak of his own impulse, but what things he hears he will speak, and he will declare to YOU the things coming.[i] 14 That one will glorify me,[j] because he will receive from what is mine and will declare it to YOU.[k] 15 All the things that the Father has are mine.[l] That is why I said he receives from what is mine and declares [it] to YOU. 16 In a little while YOU will behold me no longer,[m] and, again, in a little while YOU will see me."

17 Therefore some of his disciples said to one another: "What does this mean that he says to us, 'In a little while YOU will not behold me, and, again, in a little while YOU will see me,' and, 'because I am going to the Father'?" 18 Hence they were saying: "What does this mean that he says, 'a little while'? We do not know what he is talking about." 19 Jesus knew[n] they were wanting to question him, so he said to them: "Are YOU inquiring among yourselves over this, because I said, In a little while YOU will not behold me, and, again, in a little while YOU will see me? 20 Most truly I say to YOU, YOU will weep and wail, but the world will rejoice; YOU will be grieved,[o] but YOUR grief will be turned into joy.[p] 21 A woman, when she is giving birth, has grief, because her hour has arrived;[a] but when she has brought forth the young child, she remembers the tribulation no more because of the joy that a man has been born into the world. 22 YOU also, therefore, are now, indeed, having grief; but I shall see YOU again and YOUR hearts will rejoice,[b] and YOUR joy no one will take from YOU. 23 And in that day[c] YOU will ask me no question at all. Most truly I say to YOU, If YOU ask the Father for anything[d] he will give it to YOU in my name.[e] 24 Until this present time YOU have not asked a single thing in my name. Ask and YOU will receive, that YOUR joy may be made full.[f]

25 "I have spoken these things to YOU in comparisons.[g] The hour is coming when I will speak to YOU no more in comparisons, but I will report to YOU with plainness concerning the Father. 26 In that day YOU will ask in my name, and I do not say to YOU that I shall make request of the Father concerning YOU. 27 For the Father himself has affection for YOU, because YOU have had affection for me[h] and have believed that I came out as the Father's representative.[i] 28 I came out from the Father and have come into the world. Further, I am leaving the world and am going my way to the Father."[j]

29 His disciples said: "See! Now you are speaking with plainness, and are uttering no comparison. 30 Now we know that you know all things[k] and you do not need to have anyone question you.[l] By this we believe that you came out from God."[m] 31 Jesus answered them: "Do YOU believe at present? 32 Look! The hour is coming, indeed, it has come, when YOU will be scattered each one to his own house[n] and YOU will leave me alone; and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.[a] 33 I have said these things to YOU that by means of me YOU may have peace.[b] In the world YOU are having tribulation, but take courage! I have conquered the world."[c]

17 Jesus spoke these things, and, raising his eyes to heaven,[d] he said: "Father, the hour has come; glorify your son, that your son may glorify you,[e] 2 according as you have given him authority over all flesh,[f] that, as regards the whole [number] whom you have given him,[g] he may give them everlasting life.[h] 3 This means everlasting life,[i] their taking in knowledge[j] of you, the only true God,[k] and of the one whom you sent forth, Jesus Christ.[l] 4 I have glorified[m] you on the earth, having finished the work you have given me to do.[n] 5 So now you, Father, glorify me alongside yourself with the glory that I had alongside you before the world was.[o]

6 "I have made your name manifest to the men you gave me out of the world.[p] They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have observed your word. 7 They have now come to know that all the things you gave me are from you; 8 because the sayings that you gave me I have given to them,[q] and they have received them and have certainly come to know that I came out as your representative,[r] and they have believed that you sent me forth.[s] 9 I make request concerning them; I make request, not concerning the world,[t] but concerning those you have given me; because they are yours, 10 and all my things are yours and yours are mine,[u] and I have been glorified among them.

world[a] and I am coming to you. Holy Father, watch over them[b] on account of your own name which you have given me, in order that they may be one just as we are.[c] 12 When I was with them I used to watch over them[d] on account of your own name which you have given me; and I have kept them, and not one of them is destroyed[e] except the son of destruction,[f] in order that the scripture might be fulfilled.[g] 13 But now I am coming to you, and I am speaking these things in the world in order that they may have my joy in themselves to the full.[h] 14 I have given your word to them, but the world has hated[i] them, because they are no part of the world, just as I am no part of the world.[j]

15 "I request you, not to take them out of the world, but to watch over them because of the wicked one.[k] 16 They are no part of the world,[l] just as I am no part of the world.[m] 17 Sanctify[n] them by means of the truth; your word[o] is truth.[p] 18 Just as you sent me forth into the world, I also sent them forth into the world.[q] 19 And I am sanctifying myself in their behalf, that they also may be sanctified[r] by means of truth.

20 "I make request, not concerning these only, but also concerning those putting faith in me through their word;[s] 21 in order that they may all be one,[t] just as you, Father, are in union with me and I am in union with you,[u] that they also may be in union with us,[v] in order that the world may believe that you sent me forth.[w] 22 Also, I have given them the glory that you have given me, in order that they may be one just as we are one.[x] 23 I in union with them and you in union with me, in order that they may be perfected into one,[y] that the world may have the knowledge that you sent me forth and that you loved them just as you loved me. 24 Father, as to what you have given me, I wish that, where I am, they also may be with me,[a] in order to behold my glory that you have given me, because you loved me before the founding[b] of the world.[c] 25 Righteous[d] Father, the world has, indeed, not come to know you;[e] but I have come to know you, and these have come to know that you sent me forth.[f] 26 And I have made your name known[g] to them and will make it known, in order that the love with which you loved me may be in them and I in union with them."[h]

18 Having said these things, Jesus went out with his disciples across the winter torrent of Kid'ron[i] to where there was a garden, and he and his disciples entered into it.[j] 2 Now Judas, his betrayer, also knew the place, because Jesus had many times met there with his disciples.[k] 3 Therefore Judas took the soldier band and officers of the chief priests and of the Pharisees and came there with torches and lamps and weapons.[l] 4 Jesus, therefore, knowing all the things coming upon him,[m] went forth and said to them: "Whom are YOU looking for?" 5 They answered him: "Jesus the Naz'a·rene'."[n] He said to them: "I am [he]." Now Judas, his betrayer,[o] was also standing with them.

6 However, when he said to them: "I am [he]," they drew back[p] and fell to the ground. 7 Therefore he asked them again: "Whom are YOU looking for?" They said: "Jesus the Naz'a·rene'." 8 Jesus answered: "I told YOU I am [he]. If, therefore, it is I YOU are looking for, let these go"; 9 in order that the word might be fulfilled which he said: "Of those whom you have given me I have not lost a single one."[a]

10 Then Simon Peter, as he had a sword, drew it and struck the slave of the high priest and cut his right ear off.[b] The name of the slave was Malchus. 11 Jesus, however, said to Peter: "Put the sword into [its] sheath.[c] The cup that the Father has given me, should I not by all means drink[d] it?"

12 Then the soldier band and the military commander and the officers of the Jews seized Jesus and bound him, 13 and they led him first to An'nas; for he was father-in-law to Ca'ia·phas, who was high priest that year.[e] 14 Ca'ia·phas was, in fact, the one that counseled the Jews that it was to their benefit for one man to die in behalf of the people.[f]

15 Now Simon Peter as well as another disciple was following Jesus.[g] That disciple was known to the high priest, and he went in with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest, 16 but Peter was standing outside at the door.[h] Therefore the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper and brought Peter in. 17 The servant girl, the doorkeeper, then said to Peter: "You are not also one of this man's disciples, are you?" He said: "I am not."[i] 18 Now the slaves and the officers were standing about, as they had built a charcoal[j] fire, because it was cold, and they were warming themselves. Peter also was standing with them and warming himself.

19 And so the chief priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching. 20 Jesus answered him: "I have spoken to the world publicly. I always taught in a synagogue and in the temple,[k] where all the Jews come together; and I spoke nothing in secret. 21 Why do you question me? Question those who have heard what I spoke to them. See! These know what I said." 22 After he said these things, one of the officers that was standing by gave Jesus a slap[a] in the face and said: "Is that the way you answer the chief priest?" 23 Jesus answered him: "If I spoke wrongly, bear witness concerning the wrong; but if rightly, why do you hit me?" 24 Then An'nas sent him away bound to Ca'ia·phas the high priest.[b]

25 Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. Then they said to him: "You are not also one of his disciples, are you?" He denied it and said: "I am not."[c] 26 One of the slaves of the high priest, being a relative of the man whose ear Peter cut off,[d] said: "I saw you in the garden with him, did I not?" 27 However, Peter denied it again; and immediately a cock crowed.[e]

28 Then they led Jesus from Ca'ia·phas to the governor's palace.[f] It was now early in the day. But they themselves did not enter into the governor's palace, that they might not get defiled[g] but might eat the passover. 29 Therefore Pilate came outside to them and said: "What accusation do YOU bring against this man?"[h] 30 In answer they said to him: "If this man were not a wrongdoer, we would not have delivered him up to you." 31 Hence Pilate said to them: "Take him yourselves and judge him according to YOUR law."[i] The Jews said to him: "It is not lawful for us to kill anyone."[j] 32 This, in order that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled which he said to signify what sort of death he was destined to die.[k]

33 So Pilate entered into the governor's palace again and called Jesus and said to him: "Are you the king of the Jews?"[l]

34 Jesus answered: "Is it of your own originality that you say this, or did others tell you about me?"[a] 35 Pilate answered: "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered you up to me.[b] What did you do?" 36 Jesus answered:[c] "My kingdom is no part of this world.[d] If my kingdom were part of this world, my attendants would have fought[e] that I should not be delivered up to the Jews. But, as it is, my kingdom is not from this source." 37 Therefore Pilate said to him: "Well, then, are you a king?" Jesus answered: "You yourself are saying that I am a king.[f] For this I have been born, and for this I have come into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth.[g] Everyone that is on the side of the truth[h] listens to my voice."[i] 38 Pilate said to him: "What is truth?"

And after saying this, he went out again to the Jews and said to them: "I find no fault in him.[j] 39 Moreover, YOU have a custom that I should release a man to YOU at the passover.[k] Do YOU, therefore, wish me to release to YOU the king of the Jews?" 40 Then they shouted again, saying: "Not this man, but Bar·ab'bas!" Now Bar·ab'bas was a robber.[l]

19 At that time, therefore, Pilate took Jesus and scourged him.[m] 2 And the soldiers braided a crown of thorns and put it on his head and arrayed him with a purple outer garment;[n] 3 and they began coming up to him and saying: "Good day, you King of the Jews!" Also, they would give him slaps in the face.[o] 4 And Pilate went outside again and said to them: "See! I bring him outside to YOU in order for YOU to know I find no fault in him."[p] 5 Accordingly Jesus came outside, wearing the thorny crown and the purple outer garment.

And he said to them: "Look! The man!" 6 However, when the chief priests and the officers saw him, they shouted, saying: "Impale [him]! Impale [him]!"[a] Pilate said to them: "Take him yourselves and impale him, for I do not find any fault in him."[b] 7 The Jews answered him: "We have a law,[c] and according to the law he ought to die, because he made himself God's son."[d]

8 When, therefore, Pilate heard this saying, he became more fearful; 9 and he entered into the governor's palace again and said to Jesus: "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer.[e] 10 Hence Pilate said to him: "Are you not speaking to me?[f] Do you not know I have authority to release you and I have authority to impale you?" 11 Jesus answered him: "You would have no authority at all against me unless it had been granted to you from above.[g] This is why the man that handed me over to you has greater sin."

12 For this reason Pilate kept on seeking how to release him. But the Jews shouted, saying: "If you release this [man], you are not a friend of Caesar. Every man making himself a king speaks against Caesar."[h] 13 Therefore Pilate, after hearing these words, brought Jesus outside, and he sat down on a judgment seat in a place called The Stone Pavement, but, in Hebrew, Gab'ba·tha. 14 Now it was preparation[i] of the passover; it was about the sixth hour. And he said to the Jews: "See! YOUR king!" 15 However, they shouted: "Take [him] away! Take [him] away! Impale him!" Pilate said to them: "Shall I impale YOUR king?" The chief priests answered: "We have no king but Caesar."[j] 16 At that time, therefore, he handed him over to them to be impaled.[k]

Then they took charge of Jesus. 17 And, bearing the torture stake for himself,[a] he went out[b] to the so-called Skull Place, which is called Gol'go·tha in Hebrew;[c] 18 and there they impaled him,[d] and two other [men] with him, one on this side and one on that, but Jesus in the middle.[e] 19 Pilate wrote a title also and put it on the torture stake. It was written: "Jesus the Naz·a·rene' the King of the Jews."[f] 20 Therefore many of the Jews read this title, because the place where Jesus was impaled was near the city;[g] and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, in Greek. 21 However, the chief priests of the Jews began to say to Pilate: "Do not write 'The King of the Jews,' but that he said, 'I am King of the Jews.'" 22 Pilate answered: "What I have written I have written."

23 Now when the soldiers had impaled Jesus, they took his outer garments and made four parts, for each soldier a part, and the inner garment. But the inner garment was without a seam, being woven from the top throughout its length.[h] 24 Therefore they said to one another: "Let us not tear it, but let us determine by lots over it whose it will be." This was that the scripture might be fulfilled: "They apportioned my outer garments among themselves, and upon my apparel they cast lots."[i] And so the soldiers really did these things.

25 By the torture stake of Jesus, however, there were standing his mother[j] and the sister of his mother; Mary[k] the wife of Clo'pas, and Mary Mag'da·lene.[l] 26 Therefore Jesus, seeing his mother and the disciple whom he loved[m] standing by, said to his mother: "Woman, see! Your son!" 27 Next he said to the disciple: "See! Your mother!" And from that hour on the disciple took her to his own home.

28 After this, when Jesus knew that by now all things had been accomplished, in order that the scripture might be accomplished he said: "I am thirsty."[a] 29 A vessel was sitting there full of sour wine. Therefore they put a sponge full of the sour wine upon a hyssop [stalk] and brought it to his mouth.[b] 30 When, now, he had received the sour wine, Jesus said: "It has been accomplished!"[c] and, bowing his head, he delivered up [his] spirit.[d]

31 Then the Jews, since it was Preparation,[e] in order that the bodies might not remain[f] upon the torture stakes on the Sabbath, (for the day of that Sabbath was a great one,)[g] requested Pilate to have their legs broken and the [bodies] taken away. 32 The soldiers came, therefore, and broke the legs of the first [man] and those of the other [man] that had been impaled with him. 33 But on coming to Jesus, as they saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. 34 Yet one of the soldiers jabbed his side with a spear,[h] and immediately blood and water came out. 35 And he that has seen [it] has borne witness, and his witness is true, and that man knows he tells true things, in order that YOU also may believe.[i] 36 In fact, these things took place in order for the scripture to be fulfilled: "Not a bone of his will be crushed."[j] 37 And, again, a different scripture says: "They will look to the One whom they pierced."[k]

38 Now after these things Joseph from Ar·i·ma·the'a, who was a disciple of Jesus but a secret one out of [his] fear of the Jews,[l] requested Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him permission.[m] Therefore he came and took his body away.[n] 39 Nic·o·de'mus also, the man that came to him in the night the first time, came bringing a roll of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds [of it].[a] 40 So they took the body of Jesus and bound it up with bandages with the spices,[b] just the way the Jews have the custom of preparing for burial. 41 Incidentally, at the place where he was impaled there was a garden, and in the garden a new memorial tomb,[c] in which no one had ever yet been laid. 42 There, then, on account of the preparation[d] of the Jews, they laid Jesus, because the memorial tomb was nearby.

20 On the first day[e] of the week Mary Mag'da·lene came to the memorial tomb early, while there was still darkness, and she beheld the stone already taken away from the memorial tomb.[f] 2 Therefore she ran and came to Simon Peter and to the other disciple,[g] for whom Jesus had affection, and she said to them: "They have taken away the Lord out of the memorial tomb,[h] and we do not know where they have laid him."

3 Then Peter[i] and the other disciple went out and started for the memorial tomb. 4 Yes, the two together began to run; but the other disciple ran ahead of Peter with greater speed and reached the memorial tomb first. 5 And, stooping forward, he beheld the bandages lying,[j] yet he did not go in. 6 Then Simon Peter also came following him, and he entered into the memorial tomb. And he viewed the bandages lying,[k] 7 also the cloth that had been upon his head not lying with the bandages but separately rolled up in one place. 8 At that time, therefore, the other disciple who had reached the memorial tomb first also went in, and he saw and believed. 9 For they did not yet discern the scripture that he must rise from the dead.[l] 10 And so the disciples went back to their homes.

11 Mary, however, kept standing outside near the memorial tomb, weeping. Then, while she was weeping, she stooped forward to look into the memorial tomb 12 and she viewed two angels[a] in white sitting one at the head and one at the feet where the body of Jesus had been lying. 13 And they said to her: "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them: "They have taken my Lord away, and I do not know where they have laid him." 14 After saying these things, she turned back and viewed Jesus standing, but she did not discern it was Jesus.[b] 15 Jesus said to her: "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?"[c] She, imagining it was the gardener, said to him: "Sir, if you have carried him off, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." 16 Jesus said to her: "Mary!"[d] Upon turning around, she said to him, in Hebrew: "Rab·bo'ni!"[e] (which means "Teacher!") 17 Jesus said to her: "Stop clinging to me. For I have not yet ascended to the Father. But be on your way to my brothers[f] and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father[g] and YOUR Father and to my God[h] and YOUR God.'"[i] 18 Mary Mag'da·lene came and brought the news to the disciples: "I have seen the Lord!" and that he said these things to her.[j]

19 Therefore, when it was late on that day, the first of the week,[k] and, although the doors were locked where the disciples were for fear[l] of the Jews, Jesus came[m] and stood in their midst and said to them: "May YOU have peace."[n] 20 And after he said this he showed them both his hands and his side.[o] Then the disciples rejoiced[p] at seeing the Lord. 21 Jesus, therefore, said to them again: "May YOU have peace. Just as the Father has sent me forth,[q] I also am sending YOU."[a] 22 And after he said this he blew upon them and said to them: "Receive holy spirit.[b] 23 If YOU forgive the sins of any persons,[c] they stand forgiven to them; if YOU retain those of any persons, they stand retained."[d]

24 But Thomas,[e] one of the twelve, who was called The Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. 25 Consequently the other disciples would say to him: "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them: "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails and stick my finger into the print of the nails and stick my hand into his side,[f] I will certainly not believe."[g]

26 Well, eight days later his disciples were again indoors, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and he stood in their midst and said: "May YOU have peace."[h] 27 Next he said to Thomas: "Put your finger here, and see my hands, and take your hand[i] and stick it into my side, and stop being unbelieving but become believing." 28 In answer Thomas said to him: "My Lord and my God!"[j] 29 Jesus said to him: "Because you have seen me have you believed? Happy are those who do not see and yet believe."[k]

30 To be sure, Jesus performed many other signs also before the disciples, which are not written down in this scroll.[l] 31 But these have been written down[m] that YOU may believe that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God, and that, because of believing,[n] YOU may have life by means of his name.

21 After these things Jesus manifested himself again to the disciples at the sea of Ti·be'ri·as; but he made the manifestation in this way. 2 There were in company Simon Peter and Thomas, who was called The Twin,[o] and Na·than'a·el[p] from Ca'na of Gal'i·lee and the sons of Zeb'e·dee[a] and two others of his disciples. 3 Simon Peter said to them: "I am going fishing." They said to him: "We also are coming with you." Out they went and got aboard the boat, but during that night they caught nothing.[b]

4 However, just as it was getting to be morning, Jesus stood on the beach, but the disciples did not, of course, discern that it was Jesus.[c] 5 Then Jesus said to them: "Young children, YOU do not have anything to eat, do YOU?" They answered "No!" to him. 6 He said to them: "Cast the net on the right side of the boat and YOU will find [some]."[d] Then they cast it, but they were no longer able to draw it in because of the multitude of the fishes.[e] 7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus used to love[f] said to Peter:[g] "It is the Lord!" Hence Simon Peter, upon hearing that it was the Lord, girded about himself his top garment, for he was naked, and plunged into the sea. 8 But the other disciples came in the little boat, for they were not a long way from land, only about three hundred feet away, dragging the net of fishes.

9 However, when they disembarked onto land they beheld lying there a charcoal fire[h] and fish lying upon it and bread. 10 Jesus said to them: "Bring some of the fish YOU just now caught." 11 Simon Peter, therefore, went on board and drew the net to land full of big fishes, one hundred and fifty-three of them. But although there were so many the net did not burst. 12 Jesus said to them: "Come, take YOUR breakfast."[i] Not one of the disciples had the courage to inquire of him: "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. 13 Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them,[j] and the fish likewise. 14 This was now the third time[k] that Jesus appeared to the disciples after his being raised up from the dead.

15 When, now, they had breakfasted, Jesus said to Simon Peter: "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?"[a] He said to him: "Yes, Lord, you know I have affection for you."[b] He said to him: "Feed my lambs."[c] 16 Again he said to him, a second time: "Simon son of John, do you love[d] me?" He said to him: "Yes, Lord, you know I have affection for you." He said to him: "Shepherd my little sheep."[e] 17 He said to him the third time: "Simon son of John, do you have affection for me?" Peter became grieved that he said to him the third time: "Do you have affection for me?" So he said to him: "Lord, you know all things;[f] you are aware that I have affection for you." Jesus said to him: "Feed my little sheep.[g] 18 Most truly I say to you, When you were younger, you used to gird yourself and walk about where you wanted. But when you grow old you will stretch out your hands and another [man] will gird[h] you and bear you where you do not wish."[i] 19 This he said to signify by what sort of death[j] he would glorify God.[k] So, when he had said this, he said to him: "Continue following me."[a]

20 Upon turning about Peter saw the disciple whom Jesus used to love[b] following, the one who at the evening meal had also leaned back upon his breast and said: "Lord, who is the one betraying you?" 21 Accordingly, when he caught sight of him, Peter said to Jesus: "Lord, what will this [man do]?" 22 Jesus said to him: "If it is my will for him to remain until I come,[c] of what concern is that to you? You continue following me." 23 In consequence, this saying went out among the brothers, that that disciple would not die. However, Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but: "If it is my will for him to remain[d] until I come, of what concern is that to you?"

24 This is the disciple[e] that bears witness about these things and that wrote these things, and we know that the witness he gives is true.[f]

25 There are, in fact, many other things also which Jesus did, which, if ever they were written in full detail, I suppose, the world itself could not contain the scrolls written.[g]

ACTS OF APOSTLES

1 The first account, O The·oph'i·lus,[a] I composed about all the things Jesus started both to do and to teach,[b] 2 until the day that he was taken up,[c] after he had given commandment through holy spirit to the apostles whom he chose.[d] 3 To these also by many positive proofs he showed himself alive after he had suffered,[e] being seen by them throughout forty days and telling the things about the kingdom of God.[a] 4 And while he was meeting with them he gave them the orders: "Do not withdraw from Jerusalem,[b] but keep waiting for what the Father has promised,[c] about which YOU heard from me; 5 because John, indeed, baptized with water, but YOU will be baptized in holy spirit[d] not many days after this."

6 When, now, they had assembled, they went asking him: "Lord, are you restoring the kingdom[a] to Israel at this time?" 7 He said to them: "It does not belong to YOU to get knowledge of the times or seasons[b] which the Father has placed in his own jurisdiction;[c] 8 but YOU will receive power[d] when the holy spirit arrives upon YOU, and YOU will be witnesses[e] of me both in Jerusalem[f] and in all Ju·de'a and Sa·mar'i·a[g] and to the most distant part of the earth."[h] 9 And after he had said these things, while they were looking on, he was lifted up[i] and a cloud caught him up from their vision.[j] 10 And as they were gazing into the sky while he was on his way,[k] also, look! two men in white[l] garments stood alongside them, 11 and they said: "Men of Gal'i·lee, why do YOU stand looking into the sky? This Jesus who was received up from YOU into the sky will come thus in the same manner[m] as YOU have beheld him going into the sky."

12 Then they returned[n] to Jerusalem from a mountain called the Mount of Olives, which is near Jerusalem, being a sabbath day's journey away.[o] 13 So, when they had entered, they went up into the upper chamber,[p] where they were staying, Peter as well as John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bar·thol'o·mew and Matthew, James [the son] of Al·phae'us and Simon the zealous one, and Judas [the son] of James.[q] 14 With one accord all these were persisting in prayer,[r] together with some women[s] and Mary the mother of Jesus and with his brothers.[t]

15 Now during these days Peter rose up in the midst of the brothers and said (the crowd of persons was all together about one hundred and twenty): 16 "Men, brothers, it was necessary for the scripture to be fulfilled,[a] which the holy spirit[b] spoke beforehand by David's mouth about Judas,[c] who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus,[d] 17 because he had been numbered among us[e] and he obtained a share in this ministry.[f] 18 (This very man, therefore, purchased[g] a field with the wages for unrighteousness,[h] and pitching head foremost[i] he noisily burst in his midst and all his intestines were poured out. 19 It also became known to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that that field was called in their language A·kel'da·ma, that is, Field of Blood.) 20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, 'Let his lodging place become desolate, and let there be no dweller in it,'[j] and, 'His office of oversight let someone else take.'[k] 21 It is therefore necessary that of the men that assembled with us during all the time in which the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,[l] 22 starting with his baptism by John[m] and until the day he was received up from us,[n] one of these men should become a witness with us of his resurrection."[o]

23 So they put up two, Joseph called Bar'sab·bas, who was surnamed Justus, and Mat·thi'as. 24 And they prayed and said: "You, O Jehovah, who know the hearts of all,[p] designate which one of these two men you have chosen, 25 to take the place of this ministry and apostleship,[q] from which Judas deviated to go to his own place." 26 So they cast lots[r] over them, and the lot fell upon Mat·thi'as; and he was reckoned along with the eleven[s] apostles.

2 Now while the day of the [festival of] Pentecost[t] was in progress they were all together at the same place, 2 and suddenly there occurred from heaven a noise just like that of a rushing stiff breeze, and it filled the whole house in which they were sitting.[a] 3 And tongues as if of fire[b] became visible to them and were distributed about, and one sat upon each one of them, 4 and they all became filled with holy spirit[c] and started to speak with different tongues,[d] just as the spirit was granting them to make utterance.

5 As it was, there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews,[e] reverent men,[f] from every nation of those under heaven. 6 So, when this sound occurred, the multitude came together and were bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. 7 Indeed, they were astonished and began to wonder and say: "See here, all these who are speaking are Gal·i·le′ans,[g] are they not? 8 And yet how is it we are hearing, each one of us, his own language in which we were born? 9 Par′thi·ans and Medes[h] and E′lam·ites,[i] and the inhabitants of Mes·o·po·ta′mi·a, and Ju·de′a[j] and Cap·pa·do′ci·a,[k] Pon′tus[l] and the [district of] Asia,[m] 10 and Phryg′i·a[n] and Pam·phyl′i·a,[o] Egypt and the parts of Lib′y·a, which is toward Cy·re′ne, and sojourners from Rome, both Jews and proselytes,[p] 11 Cre′tans[q] and Arabians,[r] we hear them speaking in our tongues about the magnificent things of God." 12 Yes, they were all astonished and were in perplexity, saying one to another: "What does this thing purport to be?" 13 However, different ones mocked at them and began to say: "They are full of sweet wine."[s]

14 But Peter stood up with the eleven[t] and raised his voice and made this utterance to them: "Men of Ju·de′a and all YOU inhabitants of Jerusalem,[u] let this be known to YOU and give ear to my sayings. 15 These [people] are, in fact, not drunk,[a] as YOU suppose, for it is the third hour of the day. 16 On the contrary, this is what was said through the prophet Joel, 17 '"And in the last days," God says, "I shall pour out some of my spirit[b] upon every sort of flesh, and YOUR sons and YOUR daughters will prophesy and YOUR young men will see visions and YOUR old men will dream dreams;[c] 18 and even upon my men slaves and upon my women slaves I will pour out some of my spirit in those days, and they will prophesy.[d] 19 And I will give portents in heaven above and signs on earth below, blood and fire and smoke mist;[e] 20 the sun[f] will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood before the great and illustrious day of Jehovah arrives.[g] 21 And everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah will be saved."'[h]

22 "Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus the Naz·a·rene′,[i] a man publicly shown by God to YOU through powerful works[j] and portents and signs that God did through him in YOUR midst,[k] just as YOU yourselves know, 23 this [man], as one delivered up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God,[l] YOU fastened to a stake by the hand of lawless men and did away with.[m] 24 But God resurrected[n] him by loosing the pangs of death,[o] because it was not possible for him to continue to be held fast by it.[p] 25 For David says respecting him, 'I had Jehovah constantly before my eyes; because he is at my right hand that I may never be shaken.[q] 26 On this account my heart became cheerful and my tongue rejoiced greatly. Moreover, even my flesh will reside in hope;[r] 27 because you will not leave my soul in Ha′des, neither will you allow your loyal one to see corruption.[a] 28 You have made life's ways known to me, you will fill me with good cheer with your face.'[b]

29 "Men, brothers, it is allowable to speak with freeness of speech to YOU concerning the family head David, that he both deceased[c] and was buried and his tomb is among us to this day. 30 Therefore, because he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn to him with an oath that he would seat one from the fruitage of his loins upon his throne,[d] 31 he saw beforehand and spoke concerning the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he forsaken in Ha′des nor did his flesh see corruption.[e] 32 This Jesus God resurrected, of which fact we are all witnesses.[f] 33 Therefore because he was exalted to the right hand of God[g] and received the promised holy spirit from the Father,[h] he has poured out this which YOU see and hear. 34 Actually David did not ascend to the heavens,[i] but he himself says, 'Jehovah said to my Lord: "Sit at my right hand,[j] 35 until I place your enemies as a stool for your feet."'[k] 36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know for a certainty that God made him both Lord[l] and Christ, this Jesus whom YOU impaled."[m]

37 Now when they heard this they were stabbed to the heart,[n] and they said to Peter and the rest of the apostles: "Men, brothers, what shall we do?"[o] 38 Peter [said] to them: "Repent,[p] and let each one of YOU be baptized[q] in the name[r] of Jesus Christ for forgiveness[s] of YOUR sins, and YOU will receive the free gift[t] of the holy spirit. 39 For the promise[u] is to YOU and to YOUR children and to all those afar off,[v] just as many as Jehovah our God may call to him."[w] 40 And with many other words he bore thorough witness and kept exhorting them, saying: "Get saved from this crooked generation."[a] 41 Therefore those who embraced his word heartily were baptized,[b] and on that day about three thousand souls were added.[c] 42 And they continued devoting themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to sharing [with one another],[d] to taking of meals[e] and to prayers.[f]

43 Indeed, fear began to fall upon every soul, and many portents and signs began to occur through the apostles.[g] 44 All those who became believers were together in having all things in common,[h] 45 and they went selling their possessions[i] and properties and distributing the [proceeds] to all, just as anyone would have the need.[j] 46 And day after day they were in constant attendance at the temple with one accord,[k] and they took their meals in private homes and partook of food with great rejoicing[l] and sincerity of heart, 47 praising God and finding favor with all the people.[m] At the same time Jehovah continued to join[n] to them daily those being saved.[o]

3 Now Peter and John were going up into the temple for the hour of prayer, the ninth hour,[p] 2 and a certain man that was lame from his mother's womb[q] was being carried, and they would daily put him near the temple door that was called Beautiful,[r] in order to ask gifts of mercy from those entering into the temple.[s] 3 When he caught sight of Peter and John about to go into the temple he began requesting to get gifts of mercy.[t] 4 But Peter, together with John, gazed[u] at him and said: "Take a look at us." 5 So he fixed his attention upon them, expecting to get something from them. 6 However,

Peter said: "Silver and gold I do not possess, but what I do have is what I give you:[a] In the name of Jesus Christ the Naz·a·rene′,[b] walk!"[c] 7 With that he took hold of him by the right hand[d] and raised him up. Instantly the soles of his feet and his anklebones were made firm;[e] 8 and, leaping up,[f] he stood up and began walking, and he entered with them into the temple,[g] walking and leaping and praising God. 9 And all the people[h] got sight of him walking and praising God. 10 Moreover, they began to recognize him, that this was the man that used to sit for gifts of mercy at the Beautiful[i] Gate of the temple, and they became filled with astonishment and ecstasy[j] at what had happened to him.

11 Well, as the man was holding onto Peter and John, all the people ran together to them at what was called Sol′o·mon's colonnade,[k] surprised out of their wits. 12 When Peter saw this, he said to the people: "Men of Israel, why are YOU wondering over this, or why are YOU gazing at us as though by personal power or godly devotion we have made him walk?[l] 13 The God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob,[m] the God of our forefathers, has glorified[n] his Servant,[o] Jesus, whom YOU, for YOUR part, delivered up[p] and disowned before Pilate's face, when he had decided to release him.[q] 14 Yes, YOU disowned that holy and righteous one,[r] and YOU asked for a man, a murderer,[s] to be freely granted to YOU, 15 whereas YOU killed the Chief Agent of life.[t] But God raised him up from the dead, of which fact we are witnesses.[u] 16 Consequently his name, by [our] faith in his name, has made this man strong whom YOU behold and know, and the faith that is through him has given the man this complete soundness in the sight of all of YOU. 17 And now, brothers, I know that YOU acted in ignorance,[a] just as YOUR rulers[b] also did. 18 But in this way God has fulfilled the things he announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer.[c]

19 "Repent,[d] therefore, and turn around[e] so as to get YOUR sins blotted out,[f] that seasons of refreshing[g] may come from the person of Jehovah 20 and that he may send forth the Christ appointed for YOU, Jesus, 21 whom heaven, indeed, must hold within itself[h] until the times of restoration[i] of all things of which God spoke through the mouth of his holy prophets[j] of old time. 22 In fact, Moses said, 'Jehovah God will raise up for YOU from among YOUR brothers a prophet like me.[k] You must listen to him according to all the things he speaks to YOU.[l] 23 Indeed, any soul that does not listen to that Prophet will be completely destroyed from among the people.'[m] 24 And all the prophets, in fact, from Samuel on and those in succession, just as many as have spoken, have also plainly declared these days.[n] 25 You are the sons[o] of the prophets and of the covenant which God covenanted with YOUR forefathers, saying to Abraham, 'And in your seed all the families of the earth will be blessed.'[p] 26 To YOU first[q] God, after raising up his Servant, sent him forth to bless YOU by turning each one away from YOUR wicked deeds."

4 Now while the [two] were speaking to the people, the chief priests and the captain of the temple[r] and the Sadducees[s] came upon them, 2 being annoyed because they were teaching the people and were plainly declaring the resurrection from the dead in the case of Jesus;[t] 3 and they laid their hands upon them and put them in custody till the next day,[a] for it was already evening. 4 However, many of those who had listened to the speech believed,[b] and the number of the men became about five thousand.[c]

5 The next day there took place in Jerusalem the gathering together of their rulers and older men and scribes[d] 6 (also An′nas[e] the chief priest and Ca′ia·phas[f] and John and Alexander and as many as were of the chief priest's kinsfolk), 7 and they stood them in their midst and began to inquire: "By what power or in whose name did YOU do this?"[g] 8 Then Peter, filled with holy spirit,[h] said to them:

"Rulers of the people and older men, 9 if we are this day being examined, on the basis of a good deed to an ailing man,[i] as to by whom this man has been made well, 10 let it be known to all of YOU and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ the Naz·a·rene′,[j] whom YOU impaled[k] but whom God raised up from the dead,[l] by this one does this man stand here sound in front of YOU. 11 This is 'the stone that was treated by YOU builders as of no account that has become the head of the corner.'[m] 12 Furthermore, there is no salvation in anyone else, for there is not another name[n] under heaven that has been given among men by which we must get saved."[o]

13 Now when they beheld the outspokenness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were men unlettered and ordinary,[p] they got to wondering. And they began to recognize about them that they used to be with Jesus;[q] 14 and as they were looking at the man that had been cured standing with them,[r] they had nothing to say in rebuttal.[s] 15 So they commanded them to go outside the San′he·drin hall, and they began consulting with one another, 16 saying: "What shall we do with these men?[a] Because, for a fact, a noteworthy sign has occurred through them, one manifest to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem;[b] and we cannot deny it. 17 Nevertheless, in order that it may not be spread abroad further among the people, let us tell them with threats not to speak anymore upon the basis of this name to any man at all."[c]

18 With that they called them and charged them, nowhere to make any utterance or to teach upon the basis of the name of Jesus. 19 But in reply Peter and John said to them: "Whether it is righteous in the sight of God to listen to YOU rather than to God, judge for yourselves. 20 But as for us, we cannot stop speaking about the things we have seen and heard."[d] 21 So, when they had further threatened them, they released them, since they did not find any ground on which to punish them and on account of the people,[e] because they were all glorifying God over what had occurred; 22 for the man upon whom this sign of healing had occurred was more than forty years old.

23 After being released they went to their own people[f] and reported what things the chief priests and the older men had said to them. 24 Upon hearing this they with one accord raised their voices to God[g] and said:

"Sovereign[h] Lord, you are the One who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all the things in them,[i] 25 and who through holy spirit said by the mouth of our forefather David,[j] your servant, 'Why did nations become tumultuous and peoples meditate upon empty things?[k] 26 The kings of the earth took their stand and the rulers massed together as one against Jehovah and against his anointed one.'[a] 27 Even so, both Herod and Pontius Pilate[b] with [men of] nations and with peoples of Israel were in actuality gathered together in this city against your holy[c] servant Jesus, whom you anointed,[d] 28 in order to do what things your hand and counsel had foreordained to occur.[e] 29 And now, Jehovah, give attention to their threats,[f] and grant your slaves to keep speaking your word with all boldness,[g] 30 while you stretch out your hand for healing and while signs and portents[h] occur through the name[i] of your holy servant[j] Jesus."

31 And when they had made supplication, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken;[k] and they were one and all filled with the holy spirit[l] and were speaking the word of God with boldness.[m]

32 Moreover, the multitude of those who had believed had one heart and soul,[n] and not even one would say that any of the things he possessed was his own; but they had all things in common.[o] 33 Also, with great power the apostles continued giving forth the witness concerning the resurrection of the Lord Jesus;[p] and undeserved kindness in large measure was upon them all. 34 In fact, there was not one in need among them;[q] for all those who were possessors of fields or houses would sell them and bring the values of the things sold 35 and they would deposit them at the feet of the apostles.[r] In turn distribution[s] would be made to each one, just as he would have the need. 36 So Joseph, who was surnamed Bar'na·bas[t] by the apostles, which means, when translated, Son of Comfort, a Levite, a native of Cy'prus, 37 possessing a piece of land, sold it and brought the money and deposited it at the feet of the apostles.[a]

5 However, a certain man, An·a·ni'as by name, together with Sap·phi'ra his wife, sold a possession 2 and secretly held back some of the price, his wife also knowing about it, and he brought just a part and deposited it at the feet of the apostles.[b] 3 But Peter said: "An·a·ni'as, why has Satan[c] emboldened you to play false[d] to the holy spirit[e] and to hold back secretly some of the price of the field? 4 As long as it remained with you did it not remain yours, and after it was sold did it not continue in your control? Why was it that you purposed such a deed as this in your heart? You have played false,[f] not to men, but to God."[g] 5 On hearing these words An·a·ni'as fell down and expired.[h] And great fear[i] came over all those hearing of it. 6 But the younger men rose, wrapped him in cloths,[j] and carried him out and buried him.

7 Now after an interval of about three hours his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. 8 Peter said to her: "Tell me, did YOU [two] sell the field for so much?" She said: "Yes, for so much." 9 So Peter said to her: "Why was it agreed upon between YOU [two] to make a test[k] of the spirit of Jehovah? Look! The feet of those who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out." 10 Instantly she fell down at his feet and expired.[l] When the young men came in they found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her alongside her husband. 11 Consequently great fear came over the whole congregation and over all those hearing about these things.

12 Moreover, through the hands of the apostles many signs and portents continued to occur among the people;[m] and they were all with one accord in Sol'o·mon's colonnade.[a] 13 True, not a one of the others had the courage to join himself to them;[b] nevertheless, the people were extolling them.[c] 14 More than that, believers in the Lord kept on being added, multitudes both of men and of women;[d] 15 so that they brought the sick out even into the broad ways and laid them there upon little beds and cots, in order that, as Peter would go by, at least his shadow might fall upon some one of them.[e] 16 Also, the multitude from the cities around Jerusalem kept coming together, bearing sick people and those troubled with unclean spirits, and they would one and all be cured.

17 But the high priest and all those with him, the then existing sect of the Sadducees, rose and became filled with jealousy,[f] 18 and they laid hands upon the apostles and put them in the public place of custody.[g] 19 But during the night Jehovah's angel[h] opened the doors of the prison,[i] brought them out and said: 20 "Be on YOUR way, and, having taken a stand in the temple, keep on speaking to the people all the sayings about this life."[j] 21 After hearing this, they entered into the temple at daybreak and began to teach.

Now when the high priest and those with him arrived, they called together the San'he·drin and all the assembly of older men of the sons of Israel,[k] and they sent out to the jail to have them brought. 22 But when the officers got there they did not find them in the prison. So they returned and made report, 23 saying: "The jail we found locked with all security and the guards standing at the doors, but on opening up we found no one inside." 24 Well, when both the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they fell into a quandary over these matters as to what this would come to.[a] 25 But a certain man arrived and reported to them: "Look! The men YOU put in the prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people."[b] 26 Then the captain went off with his officers and proceeded to bring them, but without violence, as they were afraid[c] of being stoned by the people.

27 So they brought them and stood them in the San'he·drin hall. And the high priest questioned them 28 and said: "We positively ordered[d] YOU not to keep teaching upon the basis of this name, and yet, look! YOU have filled Jerusalem with YOUR teaching,[e] and YOU are determined to bring the blood[f] of this man upon us." 29 In answer Peter and the [other] apostles said: "We must obey God as ruler rather than men.[g] 30 The God of our forefathers raised[h] up Jesus, whom YOU slew, hanging him upon a stake.[i] 31 God exalted this one as Chief Agent[j] and Savior[k] to his right hand,[l] to give repentance[m] to Israel and forgiveness of sins.[n] 32 And we are witnesses of these matters,[o] and so is the holy spirit,[p] which God has given to those obeying him as ruler."

33 When they heard this, they felt deeply cut and were wanting to do away with them.[q] 34 But a certain man rose in the San'he·drin, a Pharisee named Ga·ma'li·el,[r] a Law teacher esteemed by all the people, and gave the command to put the men outside for a little while.[s] 35 And he said to them: "Men of Israel,[t] pay attention to yourselves as to what YOU intend to do respecting these men. 36 For instance, before these days Theu'das rose, saying he himself was somebody,[u] and a number of men, about four hundred, joined his party.[a] But he was done away with, and all those who were obeying him were dispersed and came to nothing. 37 After him Judas the Gal·i·le′an rose in the days of the registration,[b] and he drew off people after him. And yet that man perished, and all those who were obeying him were scattered abroad. 38 And so, under the present circumstances, I say to YOU, Do not meddle with these men, but let them alone; (because, if this scheme or this work is from men, it will be overthrown;[c] 39 but if it is from God,[d] YOU will not be able to overthrow them;)[e] otherwise, YOU may perhaps be found fighters actually against God."[f] 40 At this they gave heed to him, and they summoned the apostles, flogged them,[g] and ordered them to stop speaking upon the basis of Jesus' name,[h] and let them go.

41 These, therefore, went their way from before the San′he·drin, rejoicing[i] because they had been counted worthy to be dishonored in behalf of his name.[j] 42 And every day in the temple and from house to house[k] they continued without letup teaching[l] and declaring the good news about the Christ, Jesus.[m]

6 Now in these days, when the disciples were increasing, a murmuring arose on the part of the Greek-speaking[n] Jews against the Hebrew-speaking Jews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution.[o] 2 So the twelve called the multitude of the disciples to them and said: "It is not pleasing for us to leave the word of God to distribute [food] to tables.[p] 3 So, brothers, search out[q] for yourselves seven certified men from among YOU, full of spirit and wisdom,[r] that we may appoint them over this necessary business; 4 but we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word."[a] 5 And the thing spoken was pleasing to the whole multitude, and they selected Stephen, a man full of faith and holy spirit,[b] and Philip[c] and Proch′o·rus and Ni·ca′nor and Ti′mon and Par′me·nas and Nic·o·la′us, a proselyte of Antioch; 6 and they placed them before the apostles, and, after having prayed, these laid their hands[d] upon them.

7 Consequently the word of God went on growing,[e] and the number of the disciples kept multiplying in Jerusalem very much;[f] and a great crowd of priests[g] began to be obedient[h] to the faith.

8 Now Stephen, full of graciousness and power, was performing great portents and signs[i] among the people. 9 But certain men rose up of those from the so-called Synagogue of the Freedmen, and of the Cy·re′ni·ans and Alexandrians[j] and of those from Ci·li′cia[k] and Asia, to dispute with Stephen; 10 and yet they could not hold their own against the wisdom[l] and the spirit with which he was speaking.[m] 11 Then they secretly induced men to say:[n] "We have heard him speaking blasphemous[o] sayings against Moses and God." 12 And they stirred up the people and the older men and the scribes, and, coming upon him suddenly, they took him by force and led him to the San′he·drin.[p] 13 And they brought forward false witnesses,[q] who said: "This man does not stop speaking things against this holy place and against the Law.[r] 14 For instance, we have heard him say that this Jesus the Naz·a·rene′ will throw down this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us."

15 And as all those sitting in the San′he·drin gazed at him,[s] they saw that his face was as an angel's face.[t]

7 But the high priest said: "Are these things so?" 2 He said: "Men, brothers and fathers, hear. The God of glory[a] appeared to our forefather Abraham while he was in Mes·o·po·ta′mi·a, before he took up residence in Ha′ran,[b] 3 and he said to him, 'Go out from your land and from your relatives and come on into the land I shall show you.'[c] 4 Then he went out from the land of the Chal·de′ans and took up residence in Ha′ran. And from there, after his father died,[d] [God] caused him to change his residence to this land in which YOU now dwell.[e] 5 And yet he did not give him any inheritable possession in it, no, not a footbreadth;[f] but he promised to give it to him as a possession,[g] and after him to his seed,[h] while as yet he had no child.[i] 6 Moreover, God spoke to this effect, that his seed would be alien residents[j] in a foreign land[k] and [the people] would enslave them and afflict [them] for four hundred years.[l] 7 'And that nation for which they will slave I shall judge,'[m] God said, 'and after these things they will come out and will render sacred service to me in this place.'[n]

8 "He also gave him a covenant of circumcision;[o] and thus he became the father of Isaac[p] and circumcised him on the eighth day,[q] and Isaac of Jacob, and Jacob of the twelve family heads.[r] 9 And the family heads became jealous[s] of Joseph and sold him into Egypt.[t] But God was with him,[u] 10 and he delivered him out of all his tribulations and gave him graciousness and wisdom in the sight of Phar′aoh king of Egypt. And he appointed him to govern Egypt and his whole house.[v] 11 But a famine came upon the whole of Egypt and Ca′naan, even a great tribulation; and our forefathers were not finding any provisions.[a] 12 But Jacob heard there were foodstuffs in Egypt[b] and he sent our forefathers out the first time.[c] 13 And during the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers;[d] and the family stock of Joseph became manifest to Phar′aoh.[e] 14 So Joseph sent out and called Jacob his father and all his relatives from that place,[f] to the number of seventy-five souls.[g] 15 Jacob went down into Egypt.[h] And he deceased;[i] and so did our forefathers,[j] 16 and they were transferred to She′chem[k] and were laid in the tomb[l] that Abraham had bought for a price with silver money from the sons of Ha′mor in She′chem.[m]

17 "Just as the time was approaching for [fulfillment of] the promise that God had openly declared to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt,[n] 18 until there rose a different king over Egypt, who did not know of Joseph.[o] 19 This one used statecraft against our race[p] and wrongfully forced the fathers to expose their infants, that they might not be preserved alive.[q] 20 In that particular time Moses was born,[r] and he was divinely beautiful.[s] And he was nursed three months in [his] father's home. 21 But when he was exposed, the daughter of Phar′aoh picked him up and brought him up as her own son.[t] 22 Consequently Moses was instructed in all the wisdom[u] of the Egyptians. In fact, he was powerful in his words[v] and deeds.

23 "Now when the time of his fortieth year was being fulfilled, it came into his heart to make an inspection of his brothers, the sons of Israel.[w] 24 And when he caught sight of a certain one being unjustly treated, he defended him and executed vengeance for the one being abused by striking the Egyptian down.[x] 25 He was supposing his brothers would grasp that God was giving them salvation by his hand,[a] but they did not grasp [it]. 26 And the next day he appeared to them as they were fighting, and he tried to bring them together again in peace,[b] saying, 'Men, YOU are brothers. Why do YOU treat each other unjustly?'[c] 27 But the one that was treating his neighbor unjustly thrust him away, saying, 'Who appointed you ruler and judge over us?[d] 28 You do not want to do away with me in the same manner that you did away with the Egyptian yesterday, do you?'[e] 29 At this speech Moses took to flight and became an alien resident in the land of Mid′i·an,[f] where he became the father of two sons.[g]

30 "And when forty years were fulfilled, there appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Si′nai an angel in the fiery flame of a thornbush.[h] 31 Now when Moses saw it he marveled at the sight.[i] But as he was approaching to investigate, Jehovah's voice came, 32 'I am the God of your forefathers, the God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob.'[j] Seized with trembling, Moses did not dare to investigate further. 33 Jehovah said to him, 'Take the sandals off your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.[k] 34 I have certainly seen the wrongful treatment of my people who are in Egypt,[l] and I have heard their groaning[m] and I have come down to deliver them.[n] And now come, I will send you off to Egypt.'[o] 35 This Moses, whom they disowned, saying, 'Who appointed you ruler and judge?'[p] this man God sent off[q] as both ruler and deliverer by the hand of the angel that appeared to him in the thornbush. 36 This man led them out[r] after doing portents and signs in Egypt[s] and in the Red Sea[a] and in the wilderness for forty years.[b]

37 "This is the Moses that said to the sons of Israel, 'God will raise up for YOU from among YOUR brothers a prophet like me.'[c] 38 This is he[d] that came to be among the congregation[e] in the wilderness with the angel[f] that spoke to him on Mount Si′nai and with our forefathers, and he received living sacred pronouncements[g] to give YOU. 39 To him our forefathers refused to become obedient, but they thrust him aside[h] and in their hearts they turned back to Egypt,[i] 40 saying to Aaron, 'Make gods for us to go ahead of us. For this Moses, who led us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.'[j] 41 So they made a calf in those days[k] and brought up a sacrifice to the idol and began to enjoy themselves in the works of their hands.[l] 42 So God turned and handed them over[m] to render sacred service to the army of heaven, just as it is written in the book of the prophets,[n] 'It was not to me that YOU offered victims and sacrifices for forty years in the wilderness, was it, O house of Israel?[o] 43 But it was the tent of Mo′loch[p] and the star[q] of the god Re′phan that YOU took up, the figures which YOU made to worship them. Consequently I will deport[r] YOU beyond Babylon.'

44 "Our forefathers had the tent of the witness in the wilderness, just as he gave orders when speaking to Moses to make it according to the pattern he had seen.[s] 45 And our forefathers who succeeded to it also brought it in with Joshua[t] into the land possessed by the nations,[u] whom God thrust out from before our forefathers.[v] Here it remained until the days of David. 46 He found favor[w] in the sight of God and asked for [the privilege of] providing a habitation[a] for the God of Jacob. 47 However, Sol′o·mon built a house for him.[b] 48 Nevertheless, the Most High does not dwell in houses made with hands;[c] just as the prophet says, 49 'The heaven is my throne,[d] and the earth is my footstool.[e] What sort of house will YOU build for me? Jehovah says. Or what is the place for my resting?[f] 50 My hand made all these things, did it not?'[g]

51 "Obstinate men and uncircumcised in hearts[h] and ears, YOU are always resisting the holy spirit; as YOUR forefathers did, so YOU do.[i] 52 Which one of the prophets did YOUR forefathers not persecute?[j] Yes, they killed[k] those who made announcement in advance concerning the coming of the righteous One,[l] whose betrayers and murderers YOU have now become,[m] 53 YOU who received the Law as transmitted by angels[n] but have not kept it."

54 Well, at hearing these things they felt cut to their hearts[o] and began to gnash[p] their teeth at him. 55 But he, being full of holy spirit, gazed into heaven and caught sight of God's glory and of Jesus standing at God's right hand,[q] 56 and he said: "Look! I behold the heavens opened[r] up and the Son of man[s] standing at God's right hand."[t] 57 At this they cried out at the top of the voice and put their hands over their ears[u] and rushed upon him with one accord. 58 And after throwing him outside the city,[v] they began casting stones at him.[w] And the witnesses[x] laid down their outer garments at the feet of a young man called Saul.[y] 59 And they went on casting stones at Stephen as he made appeal and said: "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit."[z] 60 Then, bending his knees, he cried out with a strong voice: "Jehovah, do not charge this sin against them."[a] And after saying this he fell asleep [in death].

8 Saul, for his part, was approving of the murder of him.[b]

On that day great persecution[c] arose against the congregation that was in Jerusalem; all except the apostles were scattered[d] throughout the regions of Ju·de′a and Sa·mar′i·a. 2 But reverent men carried Stephen to the burial,[e] and they made a great lamentation[f] over him. 3 Saul, though, began to deal outrageously with the congregation. Invading one house after another and, dragging out both men and women, he would turn them over to prison.[g]

4 However, those who had been scattered went through the land declaring the good news of the word.[h] 5 Philip, for one, went down to the city of Sa·mar′i·a[i] and began to preach the Christ to them. 6 With one accord the crowds were paying attention to the things said by Philip while they listened and looked at the signs he was performing. 7 For there were many that had unclean spirits,[j] and these would cry out with a loud voice and come out. Moreover, many that were paralyzed[k] and lame were cured. 8 So there came to be a great deal of joy in that city.[l]

9 Now in the city there was a certain man named Simon, who, prior to this, had been practicing magical arts[m] and amazing the nation of Sa·mar′i·a, saying he himself was somebody great.[n] 10 And all of them, from the least to the greatest, would pay attention to him and say: "This man is the Power of God, which can be called Great." 11 So they would pay attention to him because of his having amazed them for quite a while by his magical arts. 12 But when they believed Philip, who was declaring the good news of the kingdom of God[a] and of the name of Jesus Christ, they proceeded to be baptized, both men and women.[b] 13 Simon himself also became a believer, and, after being baptized, he was in constant attendance upon Philip;[c] and he was amazed at beholding signs and great powerful works taking place.

14 When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Sa·mar'i·a had accepted the word of God,[d] they dispatched Peter and John to them; 15 and these went down and prayed for them to get holy spirit.[e] 16 For it had not yet fallen upon any one of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.[f] 17 Then they went laying their hands upon them,[g] and they began to receive holy spirit.
18 Now when Simon saw that through the laying on of the hands of the apostles the spirit was given, he offered them money,[h] 19 saying: "Give me also this authority, that anyone upon whom I lay my hands may receive holy spirit." 20 But Peter said to him: "May your silver perish with you, because you thought through money to get possession of the free gift of God.[i] 21 You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not straight in the sight of God.[j] 22 Repent, therefore, of this badness of yours, and supplicate Jehovah[k] that, if possible, the device of your heart may be forgiven you; 23 for I see you are a poisonous gall[l] and a bond of unrighteousness."[m] 24 In answer Simon said: "You men, make supplication for me[n] to Jehovah that none of the things YOU have said may come upon me."
25 Therefore, when they had given the witness thoroughly and had spoken the word of Jehovah, they turned back to Jerusalem, and they went declaring the good news to many villages of the Sa·mar'i·tans.[a] 26 However, Jehovah's angel[b] spoke to Philip, saying:
"Rise and go to the south to the road that runs down from Jerusalem to Ga'za." (This is a desert road.) 27 With that he rose and went, and, look! an E·thi·o'pi·an[c] eunuch,[d] a man in power under Can·da'ce queen of the E·thi·o'pi·ans, and who was over all her treasure. He had gone to Jerusalem to worship,[e] 28 but he was returning and was sitting in his chariot and reading aloud the prophet Isaiah.[f] 29 So the spirit said[g] to Philip:
"Approach and join yourself to this chariot." 30 Philip ran alongside and heard him reading aloud Isaiah the prophet, and he said: "Do you actually know what you are reading?"
31 He said: "Really, how could I ever do so, unless someone guided me?" And he entreated Philip to get on and sit down with him. 32 Now the passage of Scripture that he was reading aloud was this: "As a sheep he was brought to the slaughter, and as a lamb that is voiceless before its shearer, so he does not open his mouth.[h] 33 During his humiliation the judgment was taken away from him.[i] Who will tell the details of his generation? Because his life is taken away from the earth."[j] 34 In answer the eunuch said to Philip: "I beg you, About whom does the prophet say this? About himself or about some other man?" 35 Philip opened his mouth[k] and, starting with this Scripture,[l] he declared to him the good news about Jesus. 36 Now as they were going over the road, they came to a certain body of water, and the eunuch said: "Look! A body of water; what prevents me from getting baptized?"[m] 37 —— 38 With that he commanded the chariot to halt,

and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.
39 When they had come up out of the water, Jehovah's spirit quickly led Philip away,[a] and the eunuch did not see him anymore, for he kept going on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip was found to be in Ash'dod, and he went through the territory and kept on declaring[b]
the good news to all the cities
until he got to Caes·a·re'a.[c]

9 But Saul, still breathing threat and murder[d] against the disciples[e] of the Lord, went to the high priest 2 and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, in order that he might bring bound to Jerusalem any whom he found who belonged to The Way,[f] both men and women.
3 Now as he was traveling he approached Damascus, when suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him,[g] 4 and he fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him: "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?"[h]
5 He said: "Who are you, Lord?"
He said: "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.[i] 6 Nevertheless, rise[j] and enter into the city, and what you must do will be told you." 7 Now the men that were journeying with him[k] were standing speechless,[l] hearing, indeed, the sound of a voice,[m] but not beholding any man. 8 But Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were opened he was seeing nothing.[n] So they led him by the hand and conducted him into Damascus. 9 And for three days he did not see anything,[o] and he neither ate nor drank.
10 There was in Damascus
a certain disciple named An·a·ni'as,[p]
and the Lord said to him in a vision: "An·a·ni'as!"
He said: "Here I am, Lord."
11 The Lord said to him: "Rise, go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man named Saul, from Tarsus.[a] For, look! he is praying, 12 and in a vision he has seen a man named An·a·ni'as come in and lay his hands upon him that he might recover sight."[b] 13 But An·a·ni'as answered: "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how many injurious things he did to your holy ones in Jerusalem.
14 And here he has authority from the chief priests to put in bonds all those calling upon your name."[c] 15 But the Lord said to him: "Be on your way, because this man is a chosen vessel[d] to me to bear my name to the nations[e] as well as to kings[f] and the sons of Israel.
16 For I shall show him plainly how many things he must suffer for my name."[g] 17 So An·a·ni'as went off and entered into the house, and he laid his hands upon him and said: "Saul, brother, the Lord, the Jesus that appeared to you on the road over which you were coming, has sent me forth, in order that you may recover sight and be filled with holy spirit."[h] 18 And immediately there fell from his eyes what looked like scales, and he recovered sight; and he rose and was baptized, 19 and he took food and gained strength.[i]
He got to be for some days with the disciples in Damascus,[j] 20 and immediately in the synagogues he began to preach Jesus,[k] that this One is the Son of God. 21 But all those hearing him gave way to astonishment and would say: "Is this not the man that ravaged[l] those in Jerusalem who call upon this name, and that had come here for this very purpose, that he might lead them bound to the chief priests?"[m] 22 But Saul kept on acquiring power all the more and was confounding the Jews that dwelt in Damascus

as he proved logically that this is the Christ.[a]

23 Now when a good many days were coming to a close, the Jews took counsel together to do away with him.[b] 24 However, their plot against him became known to Saul. But they were closely watching also the gates both day and night in order to do away with him.[c] 25 So his disciples took him and let him down by night through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a basket.[d]

26 On arriving in Jerusalem[e] he made efforts to join himself to the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, because they did not believe he was a disciple. 27 So Bar'na·bas came to his aid[f] and led him to the apostles, and he told them in detail how on the road he had seen the Lord[g] and that he had spoken to him,[h] and how in Damascus[i] he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus. 28 And he continued with them, walking in and out at Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord;[j] 29 and he was talking and disputing with the Greek-speaking Jews. But these made attempts to do away with him.[k] 30 When the brothers detected this, they brought him down to Caes·a·re'a and sent him off to Tarsus.[l]

31 Then, indeed, the congregation[m] throughout the whole of Ju·de'a and Gal'i·lee and Sa·mar'i·a entered into a period of peace, being built up; and as it walked in the fear of Jehovah[n] and in the comfort of the holy spirit[o] it kept on multiplying.

32 Now as Peter was going through all [parts] he came down also to the holy ones that dwelt in Lyd'da.[p] 33 There he found a certain man named Ae·ne'as, who had been lying flat on his cot for eight years, as he was paralyzed. 34 And Peter said to him:[q] "Ae·ne'as, Jesus Christ heals you.[r] Rise and make up your bed." And he rose immediately. 35 And all those who inhabited Lyd'da and the [plain of] Shar'on[a] saw him, and these turned to the Lord.[b]

36 But in Jop'pa[c] there was a certain disciple named Tab'i·tha, which, when translated, means Dor'cas. She abounded in good deeds[d] and gifts of mercy that she was rendering. 37 But in those days she happened to fall sick and die. So they bathed her and laid her in an upper chamber. 38 Now as Lyd'da was near Jop'pa,[e] when the disciples heard that Peter was in this city they dispatched two men to him to entreat [him]: "Please do not hesitate to come on as far as us." 39 At that Peter rose and went with them. And when he arrived, they led him up into the upper chamber; and all the widows presented themselves to him weeping and exhibiting many inner garments and outer garments[f] that Dor'cas used to make while she was with them.[g] 40 But Peter put everybody outside[h] and, bending his knees, he prayed, and, turning to the body, he said: "Tab'i·tha, rise!" She opened her eyes and, as she caught sight of Peter, she sat up.[i] 41 Giving her his hand, he raised her up,[j] and he called the holy ones and the widows and presented her alive.[k] 42 This became known throughout all Jop'pa, and many became believers on the Lord.[l] 43 For quite a few days he remained in Jop'pa[m] with a certain Simon, a tanner.[n]

10 Now in Caes·a·re'a there was a certain man named Cornelius, an army officer[o] of the Italian band,[p] as it was called, 2 a devout man[q] and one fearing[r] God together with all his household, and he made many gifts of mercy to the people[s] and made supplication to God continually.[t] 3 Just about the ninth hour[a] of the day he saw plainly in a vision[b] an angel[c] of God come in to him and say to him: "Cornelius!" 4 The man gazed at him and, becoming frightened, said: "What is it, Lord?" He said to him: "Your prayers[d] and gifts of mercy have ascended as a remembrance before God.[e] 5 So now send men to Jop'pa and summon a certain Simon who is surnamed Peter. 6 This man is being entertained by a certain Simon, a tanner, who has a house by the sea."[f] 7 As soon as the angel that spoke to him had left, he called two of his house servants and a devout soldier from among those who were in constant attendance upon him,[g] 8 and he related everything to them and dispatched them to Jop'pa.[h]

9 The next day as they were pursuing their journey and were approaching the city, Peter went up to the housetop[i] about the sixth hour to pray.[j] 10 But he became very hungry and wanted to eat. While they were preparing, he fell into a trance[k] 11 and beheld heaven opened[l] and some sort of vessel descending like a great linen sheet being let down by its four extremities upon the earth; 12 and in it there were all sorts of four-footed creatures and creeping things of the earth and birds of heaven.[m] 13 And a voice came to him: "Rise, Peter, slaughter and eat!"[n] 14 But Peter said: "Not at all, Lord, because never have I eaten anything defiled and unclean."[o] 15 And the voice [spoke] again to him, the second time: "You stop calling defiled[p] the things God has cleansed." 16 This occurred a third time, and immediately the vessel was taken up into heaven.[q]

17 Now while Peter was in great perplexity inwardly over what the vision he had seen might mean, look! the men dispatched by Cornelius had made inquiries for Simon's house and stood there at the gate.[a] 18 And they called out and inquired whether Simon who was surnamed Peter was being entertained there. 19 As Peter was going over in his mind about the vision, the spirit[b] said: "Look! Three men are seeking you. 20 However, rise, go downstairs and be on your way with them, not doubting at all, because I have dispatched them."[c] 21 So Peter went downstairs to the men and said: "Look! I am the one YOU are seeking. What is the cause for which YOU are present?" 22 They said: "Cornelius, an army officer, a man righteous and fearing God[d] and well reported[e] by the whole nation of the Jews, was given divine instructions by a holy angel to send for you to come to his house and to hear the things you have to say." 23 Therefore he invited them in and entertained them.

The next day he rose and went off with them, and some of the brothers that were from Jop'pa went with him. 24 On the day after that he entered into Caes·a·re'a. Cornelius, of course, was expecting them and had called together his relatives and intimate friends. 25 As Peter entered, Cornelius met him, fell down at his feet and did obeisance to him. 26 But Peter lifted him up, saying: "Rise; I myself am also a man."[f] 27 And as he conversed with him he went in and found many people assembled, 28 and he said to them: "YOU well know how unlawful it is for a Jew to join himself to or approach a man of another race;[g] and yet God has shown me I should call no man defiled or unclean.[h] 29 Hence I came, really without objection, when I was sent for. Therefore I inquire the reason that YOU have sent for me."

30 Accordingly Cornelius said: "Four days ago counting from this hour I was praying in my house at the ninth hour,[a] when, look! a man in bright raiment[b] stood before me 31 and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been favorably heard and your gifts of mercy have been remembered before God.[c] 32 Send, therefore, to Jop'pa and call for Simon, who is surnamed Peter.[d] This man is being entertained in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea.'[e] 33 Therefore I at once sent to you, and you did well in coming here. And so at this time we are all present before God to hear all the things you have been commanded by Jehovah to say."[f]

34 At this Peter opened his mouth and said: "For a certainty
I perceive that God is not partial,[g] 35 but in every nation the man that fears him and works righteousness is acceptable to him.[h] 36 He sent out the word[i] to the sons of Israel to declare to them the good news of peace[j] through Jesus Christ: this One is Lord of all [others].[k] 37 You know the subject that was talked about throughout the whole of Ju·de'a, starting from Gal'i·lee after the baptism that John preached,[l] 38 namely, Jesus who was from Naz'a·reth, how God anointed him with holy spirit[m] and power, and he went through the land doing good and healing all those oppressed by the Devil;[n]
because God was with him.[o] 39 And we are witnesses of all the things he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem;
but they also did away
with him by hanging him on a stake.[p] 40 God raised this One up on the third day and granted him to become manifest,[q] 41 not to all the people, but to witnesses appointed beforehand
by God,[r] to us, who ate and drank with him[s] after his rising from the dead. 42 Also,
he ordered us to preach[a] to the people and to give a thorough witness that this is the One decreed by God to be judge of the living and the dead.[b] 43 To him all the prophets bear witness,[c] that everyone putting faith in him gets forgiveness of sins through his name."[d]

44 While Peter was yet speaking about these matters
the holy spirit fell upon all those hearing the word.[e] 45 And the faithful ones that had come with Peter who were of those circumcised were amazed, because the free gift of the holy spirit was being poured out also upon people of the nations.[f] 46 For they heard them speaking with tongues and magnifying God.[g] Then Peter responded: 47 "Can anyone forbid water so that these might not be baptized[h] who have received the holy spirit even as we have?" 48 With that he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.[i] Then they requested him to remain for some days.

11 Now the apostles and the brothers that were in Ju·de'a heard that people of the nations[j] had also received the word of God. 2 So when Peter came up to Jerusalem, the [supporters] of circumcision[k] began to contend with him, 3 saying he had gone into the house of men that were not circumcised
and had eaten with them.
4 At this Peter commenced and went on to explain the particulars
to them, saying:

5 "I was in the city of Jop'pa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision, some sort of vessel descending like a great linen sheet being let down by its four extremities from heaven, and it came clear to me. 6 Gazing into it, I made observations and saw four-footed creatures of the earth and wild beasts

and creeping things and birds of heaven.[a] 7 I also heard a voice say to me, 'Rise, Peter, slaughter and eat!'[b] 8 But I said, 'Not at all, Lord, because a defiled or unclean thing has never entered into my mouth.'[c] 9 The second time the voice from heaven answered, 'You stop calling defiled the things God has cleansed.'[d] 10 This occurred for a third time, and everything was pulled up again into heaven.[e] 11 Also, look! at that instant there were three men standing at the house in which we were, they having been dispatched from Caes·a·re'a to me.[f] 12 So the spirit[g] told me to go with them, not doubting at all. But these six brothers also went with me, and we entered into the house of the man.[h]

13 "He reported to us how he saw the angel stand in his house and say, 'Dispatch men to Jop'pa and send for Simon who is surnamed Peter,[i] 14 and he will speak those things to you by which you and all your household may get saved.'[j] 15 But when I started to speak, the holy spirit fell upon them just as it did also upon us in [the] beginning.[k] 16 At this I called to mind the saying of the Lord, how he used to say, 'John, for his part, baptized with water,[l] but YOU will be baptized in holy spirit.'[m] 17 If, therefore, God gave the same free gift to them as he also did to us who have believed upon the Lord Jesus Christ,[n] who was I that I should be able to hinder God?"[o]

18 Now when they heard these things, they acquiesced,[p]
and they glorified God,[q] saying:
"Well, then, God has granted repentance for the purpose of life to people of the nations also."[r]

19 Consequently those who had been scattered[s] by the tribulation that arose over Stephen went through as far as Phoe·ni'cia[a]
and Cy'prus[b] and Antioch, but speaking the word to no one except to Jews only.[c] 20 However, out of them there were some men of Cy'prus and Cy·re'ne that came to Antioch and began talking to the Greek-speaking people,[d] declaring the good news of the Lord Jesus.[e] 21 Furthermore, the hand of Jehovah[f] was with them, and a great number that became believers turned to the Lord.[g]

22 The account about them got to the ears of the congregation
that was in Jerusalem, and they sent out Bar'na·bas[h] as far as Antioch. 23 When he arrived and saw the undeserved kindness[i] of God, he rejoiced[j] and began to encourage them all to continue in the Lord with hearty purpose;[k] 24 for he was a good man and full of holy spirit and of faith. And a considerable crowd was added to the Lord.[l] 25 So he went off to Tarsus[m] to make a thorough search for Saul[n] 26 and, after he found him, he brought him to Antioch. It thus came about that for a whole year they gathered together with them in the congregation and taught quite a crowd, and it was first in Antioch that the disciples were by divine providence called Christians.[o]

27 Now in these days prophets[p] came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28 One of them named Ag'a·bus[q] rose and proceeded to indicate through the spirit that a great famine was about to come upon the entire inhabited earth;[r] which, for that matter, did take place in the time of Claudius. 29 So those of the disciples determined, each of them according as anyone could afford it,[s] to send a relief[t] ministration to the brothers dwelling in Ju·de'a; 30 and this they did, dispatching
it to the older men by the hand of Bar'na·bas and Saul.[u]

12 About that particular time Herod the king applied his hands to mistreating[a] some of those of the congregation. 2 He did away with James the brother of John[b] by the sword.[c] 3 As he saw it was pleasing to the Jews,[d] he went on to arrest Peter also. (As it was, those were days of the unfermented cakes.)[e] 4 And laying hold of him, he put him in prison,[f] turning him over to four shifts of four soldiers each to guard him, as he intended to produce him for the people after the passover.[g] 5 Consequently Peter was being kept in the prison; but prayer[h] to God for him was being carried on intensely by the congregation.

6 Now when Herod was about to produce him, that night Peter was sleeping bound with two chains between two soldiers, and guards before the door were keeping the prison. 7 But, look! Jehovah's angel stood[i] by, and a light shone in the prison cell. Striking Peter on the side, he roused him,[j] saying: "Rise quickly!" And his chains fell[k] off his hands. 8 The angel[l] said to him: "Gird yourself and bind your sandals on." He did so. Finally he said to him: "Put your outer garment[m] on and keep following me." 9 And he went out and kept following him, but he did not know that what was happening through the angel was real. In fact, he supposed he was seeing a vision.[n] 10 Going through the first sentinel guard and the second they got to the iron gate leading into the city, and this opened to them of its own accord.[o] And after they went out they advanced down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him. 11 And Peter, coming to himself, said: "Now I actually know that Jehovah sent his angel forth[p] and delivered[q] me out of Herod's hand and from all that the people of the Jews were expecting."

12 And after he considered it, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John who was surnamed Mark,[a] where quite a few were gathered together and praying. 13 When he knocked at the door of the gateway, a servant girl named Rhoda came to attend to the call, 14 and, upon recognizing the voice of Peter, out of joy she did not open the gate, but ran inside and reported that Peter was standing before the gateway. 15 They said to her: "You are mad." But she kept on strongly asserting it was so. They began to say: "It is his angel."[b] 16 But Peter remained there knocking. When they opened, they saw him and were astonished. 17 But he motioned[c] to them with his hand to be silent and told them in detail how Jehovah brought him out of the prison, and he said: "Report these things to James[d] and the brothers." With that he went out and journeyed to another place.

18 Well, when it became day,[e] there was no little stir among the soldiers over what really had become of Peter. 19 Herod[f] made diligent search for him and, when not finding him, he examined the guards and commanded them to be led off [to punishment];[g] and he went down from Ju·de′a to Caes·a·re′a and spent some time there.

20 Now he was in a fighting mood against the people of Tyre and of Si′don. So with one accord they came to him and, after persuading Blastus, who was in charge of the bedchamber of the king, they began suing for peace, because their country was supplied with food[h] from that of the king. 21 But on a set day Herod clothed himself with royal raiment and sat down upon the judgment seat and began giving them a public address. 22 In turn the assembled people began shouting: "A god's voice, and not a man's!"[a] 23 Instantly the angel of Jehovah struck him,[b] because he did not give the glory to God;[c] and he became eaten up with worms and expired.

24 But the word[d] of Jehovah went on growing and spreading.[e]

25 As for Bar′na·bas[f] and Saul, after having fully carried out the relief[g] ministration in Jerusalem, they returned and took along with them John,[h] the one surnamed Mark.

13 Now in Antioch there were prophets[i] and teachers in the local congregation, Bar′na·bas as well as Sym′e·on who was called Ni′ger, and Lucius[j] of Cy·re′ne, and Man′a·en who was educated with Herod the district ruler, and Saul. 2 As they were publicly ministering[k] to Jehovah and fasting, the holy spirit said: "Of all persons set Bar′na·bas and Saul[l] apart for me for the work to which I have called them." 3 Then they fasted and prayed and laid their hands[m] upon them and let them go.

4 Accordingly these men, sent out by the holy spirit, went down to Se·leu′ci·a, and from there they sailed away to Cy′prus. 5 And when they got to be in Sal′a·mis they began publishing the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. They had John[n] also as an attendant.

6 When they had gone through the whole island as far as Pa′phos, they met up with a certain man, a sorcerer, a false prophet,[o] a Jew whose name was Bar-Je′sus, 7 and he was with the proconsul Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. Calling Bar′na·bas and Saul to him, this man earnestly sought to hear the word of God. 8 But El′y·mas the sorcerer (that, in fact, is the way his name is translated) began opposing them,[p] seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith. 9 Saul, who is also Paul, becoming filled with holy spirit, looked at him intently 10 and said: "O man full of every sort of fraud and every sort of villainy, you son of the Devil,[a] you enemy of everything righteous, will you not quit distorting the right ways of Jehovah? 11 Well, then, look! Jehovah's hand is upon you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sunlight for a period of time." Instantly a thick mist and darkness fell upon him, and he went around seeking men to lead him by the hand.[b] 12 Then the proconsul,[c] upon seeing what had happened, became a believer, as he was astounded at the teaching of Jehovah.

13 The men, together with Paul, now put out to sea from Pa′phos and arrived at Perga in Pam·phyl′i·a.[d] But John[e] withdrew from them and returned[f] to Jerusalem. 14 They, however, went on from Perga and came to Antioch in Pi·sid′i·a and, going into the synagogue[g] on the sabbath day, they took a seat. 15 After the public reading of the Law[h] and of the Prophets the presiding officers[i] of the synagogue sent out to them, saying: "Men, brothers, if there is any word of encouragement for the people that YOU have, tell it." 16 So Paul rose, and motioning[j] with his hand, he said:

"Men, Israelites and YOU [others] that fear God, hear.[k] 17 The God of this people Israel chose our forefathers, and he exalted the people during their alien residence in the land of Egypt and brought them out of it with an uplifted arm.[l] 18 And for a period of about forty years[m] he put up with their manner of action in the wilderness. 19 After destroying seven nations in the land of Ca′naan, he distributed the land of them by lot:[n] 20 all that during about four hundred and fifty years.

"And after these things he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet.[a] 21 But from then on they demanded a king,[b] and God gave them Saul son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin,[c] for forty years. 22 And after removing him,[d] he raised up for them David as king,[e] respecting whom he bore witness and said, 'I have found David the son of Jes'se,[f] a man agreeable to my heart,[g] who will do all the things I desire.'[h] 23 From the offspring[i] of this [man] according to his promise God has brought to Israel a savior,[j] Jesus, 24 after John,[k] in advance of the entry of that One,[l] had preached publicly to all the people of Israel baptism [in symbol] of repentance. 25 But as John was fulfilling his course, he would say, 'What do YOU suppose I am? I am not he. But, look! one is coming after me the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.'[m]

26 "Men, brothers, YOU sons of the stock of Abraham and those [others] among YOU who fear God, the word of this salvation has been sent forth to us.[n] 27 For the inhabitants of Jerusalem and their rulers did not know this One,[o] but, when acting as judges, they fulfilled the things voiced by the Prophets,[p] which things are read aloud every Sabbath, 28 and, although they found no cause for death,[q] they demanded of Pilate that he be executed.[r] 29 When, now, they had accomplished all the things written about him,[s] they took him down from the stake[t] and laid him in a memorial tomb.[u] 30 But God raised him up from the dead;[v] 31 and for many days he became visible to those who had gone up with him from Gal'i·lee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses to the people.[w]

32 "And so we are declaring to YOU the good news about the promise made to the forefathers,[a] 33 that God has entirely fulfilled it to us their children in that he resurrected Jesus;[b] even as it is written in the second psalm, 'You are my son, I have become your Father this day.'[c] 34 And that fact that he resurrected him from the dead destined no more to return to corruption, he has stated in this way, 'I will give YOU people the loving-kindnesses to David that are faithful.'[d] 35 Hence he also says in another psalm, 'You will not allow your loyal one to see corruption.'[e] 36 For David,[f] on the one hand, served the express will of God in his own generation and fell asleep [in death] and was laid with his forefathers and did see corruption.[g] 37 On the other hand, he whom God raised up did not see corruption.[h]

38 "Let it therefore be known to YOU, brothers, that through this One a forgiveness of sins is being published to YOU;[i] 39 and that from all the things from which YOU could not be declared guiltless by means of the law of Moses,[j] everyone who believes is declared guiltless by means of this One.[k] 40 Therefore see to it that what is said in the Prophets does not come upon YOU, 41 'Behold it, YOU scorners, and wonder at it, and vanish away, because I am working a work in YOUR days, a work that YOU will by no means believe even if anyone relates it to YOU in detail.'"[l]

42 Now when they were going out, the people began entreating for these matters to be spoken to them on the following sabbath.[m] 43 So after the synagogue assembly was dissolved, many of the Jews and of the proselytes who worshiped [God] followed Paul and Bar'na·bas,[n] who in speaking to them began urging[o] them to continue in the undeserved kindness of God.[a]

44 The next sabbath nearly all the city gathered together to hear the word of Jehovah.[b] 45 When the Jews got sight of the crowds, they were filled with jealousy[c] and began blasphemously contradicting the things being spoken by Paul.[d] 46 And so, talking with boldness, Paul and Bar'na·bas said: "It was necessary for the word of God to be spoken first to YOU.[e] Since YOU are thrusting it away[f] from YOU and do not judge yourselves worthy of everlasting life, look! we turn to the nations.[g] 47 In fact, Jehovah has laid commandment upon us in these words, 'I have appointed you as a light of nations,[h] for you to be a salvation to the extremity of the earth.'"[i]

48 When those of the nations heard this, they began to rejoice and to glorify the word of Jehovah,[j] and all those who were rightly disposed for everlasting life became believers.[k] 49 Furthermore, the word of Jehovah went on being carried throughout the whole country.[l] 50 But the Jews[m] stirred up the reputable women who worshiped [God] and the principal men of the city, and they raised up a persecution[n] against Paul and Bar'na·bas and threw them outside their boundaries. 51 These shook the dust off their feet against them[o] and went to I·co'ni·um. 52 And the disciples continued to be filled with joy[p] and holy spirit.

14 Now in I·co'ni·um[q] they entered together into the synagogue[r] of the Jews and spoke in such a manner that a great multitude of both Jews and Greeks[s] became believers. 2 But the Jews that did not believe stirred up[t] and wrongly influenced the souls of people of the nations against the brothers.[u] 3 Therefore they spent considerable time speaking with boldness by the authority of Jehovah, who bore witness to the word of his undeserved kindness by granting signs and portents to occur through their hands.[a] 4 However, the multitude of the city was split, and some were for the Jews but others for the apostles. 5 Now when a violent attempt took place on the part of both people of the nations and Jews with their rulers, to treat them insolently and pelt them with stones,[b] 6 they, on being informed of it, fled[c] to the cities of Lyc·a·o'ni·a, Lys'tra and Der'be and the country round about; 7 and there they went on declaring the good news.[d]

8 Now in Lys'tra there was sitting a certain man disabled in his feet, lame from his mother's womb,[e] and he had never walked at all. 9 This man was listening to Paul speak, who, on looking at him intently and seeing he had faith[f] to be made well, 10 said with a loud voice: "Stand up erect on your feet." And he leaped up and began walking.[g] 11 And the crowds, seeing what Paul had done, raised their voices, saying in the Lyc·a·o'ni·an tongue: "The gods[h] have become like humans and have come down to us!" 12 And they went calling Bar'na·bas Zeus, but Paul Her'mes, since he was the one taking the lead in speaking. 13 And the priest of Zeus, whose [temple] was before the city, brought bulls and garlands to the gates and was desiring to offer sacrifices[i] with the crowds.

14 However, when the apostles Bar'na·bas and Paul heard of it, they ripped their outer garments and leaped out into the crowd, crying out 15 and saying: "Men, why are YOU doing these things? We also are humans[j] having the same infirmities[k] as YOU do, and are declaring the good news to YOU, for YOU to turn from these vain[l] things to the living God,[a] who made the heaven[b] and the earth and the sea and all the things in them. 16 In the past generations he permitted all the nations to go on in their ways,[c] 17 although, indeed, he did not leave himself without witness in that he did good,[d] giving YOU rains[e] from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling YOUR hearts to the full with food and good cheer."[f] 18 And yet by saying these things they scarcely restrained the crowds from sacrificing to them.

19 But Jews arrived from Antioch and I·co'ni·um and persuaded the crowds,[g] and they stoned Paul and dragged him outside the city, imagining he was dead.[h] 20 However, when the disciples surrounded him, he rose up and entered into the city. And on the next day he left with Bar'na·bas for Der'be.[i] 21 And after declaring the good news to that city and making quite a few disciples,[j] they returned to Lys'tra and to I·co'ni·um and to Antioch, 22 strengthening the souls of the disciples,[k] encouraging them to remain in the faith and [saying]: "We must enter into the kingdom of God through many tribulations."[l] 23 Moreover, they appointed older men[m] for them in each congregation and, offering prayer with fastings,[n] they committed them to Jehovah[o] in whom they had become believers.

24 And they went through Pi·sid'i·a and came into Pam·phyl'i·a,[p] 25 and, after speaking the word in Perga, they went down to At·ta·li'a. 26 And from there they sailed off for Antioch,[q] where they had been entrusted to the undeserved kindness of God for the work they had fully performed.[r]

27 When they had arrived and had gathered the congregation together, they proceeded to relate[a] the many things God had done by means of them, and that he had opened to the nations the door to faith.[b] 28 So they spent not a little time with the disciples.

15 And certain men came down from Ju·de'a[c] and began to teach the brothers: "Unless YOU get circumcised[d] according to the custom of Moses,[e] YOU cannot be saved." 2 But when there had occurred no little dissension and disputing by Paul and Bar'na·bas with them, they arranged for Paul and Bar'na·bas and some others of them to go up to the apostles and older men in Jerusalem[f] regarding this dispute.

3 Accordingly, after being conducted partway by the congregation,[g] these men continued on their way through both Phoe·ni'cia and Sa·mar'i·a, relating in detail the conversion of people of the nations,[h] and they were causing great joy to all the brothers.[i] 4 On arriving in Jerusalem they were kindly received[j] by the congregation and the apostles and the older men, and they recounted the many things God had done by means of them.[k] 5 Yet, some of those of the sect of the Pharisees that had believed rose up from their seats and said: "It is necessary to circumcise them[l] and charge them to observe the law of Moses."[m]

6 And the apostles and the older men gathered together to see about this affair.[n] 7 Now when much disputing[o] had taken place, Peter rose and said to them: "Men, brothers, YOU well know that from early days God made the choice among YOU that through my mouth people of the nations should hear the word of the good news and believe;[p] 8 and God, who knows the heart,[q] bore witness by giving them the holy spirit,[r] just as he did to us also. 9 And he made no distinction at all between us and them,[a] but purified their hearts by faith.[b] 10 Now, therefore, why are YOU making a test of God by imposing upon the neck of the disciples a yoke[c] that neither our forefathers nor we were capable of bearing?[d] 11 On the contrary, we trust to get saved through the undeserved kindness[e] of the Lord Jesus in the same way as those people also."[f]

12 At that the entire multitude became silent, and they began to listen to Bar'na·bas and Paul relate the many signs and portents that God did through them among the nations.[g] 13 After they quit speaking, James answered, saying: "Men, brothers, hear me.[h] 14 Sym'e·on[i] has related thoroughly how God for the first time turned his attention to the nations to take out of them a people for his name.[j] 15 And with this the words of the Prophets agree, just as it is written, 16 'After these things I shall return and rebuild the booth of David that is fallen down; and I shall rebuild its ruins and erect it again,[k] 17 in order that those who remain of the men may earnestly seek Jehovah, together with people of all the nations, people who are called by my name, says Jehovah, who is doing these things,[l] 18 known from of old.'[m] 19 Hence my decision is not to trouble those from the nations who are turning to God,[n] 20 but to write them to abstain from things polluted by idols[o] and from fornication[p] and from what is strangled[q] and from blood.[r] 21 For from ancient times Moses has had in city after city those who preach him, because he is read aloud in the synagogues on every sabbath."[s]

22 Then the apostles and the older men together with the whole congregation favored sending chosen men from among them to Antioch along with Paul and Bar'na·bas, namely, Judas who was called Bar'sab·bas[a] and Silas, leading men among the brothers; 23 and by their hand they wrote:

"The apostles and the older men, brothers, to those brothers in Antioch[b] and Syria and Ci·li'cia[c] who are from the nations: Greetings! 24 Since we have heard that some from among us have caused YOU trouble with speeches,[d] trying to subvert YOUR souls, although we did not give them any instructions,[e] 25 we have come to a unanimous accord[f] and have favored choosing men to send to YOU together with our loved ones, Bar'na·bas and Paul,[g] 26 men that have delivered up their souls for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.[h] 27 We are therefore dispatching Judas and Silas,[i] that they also may report the same things by word.[j] 28 For the holy spirit[k] and we ourselves have favored adding no further burden[l] to YOU, except these necessary things, 29 to keep abstaining from things sacrificed to idols[m] and from blood[n] and from things strangled[o] and from fornication.[p] If YOU carefully keep yourselves from these things,[q] YOU will prosper. Good health to YOU!"

30 Accordingly, when these men were let go, they went down to Antioch, and they gathered the multitude together and handed them the letter.[r] 31 After reading it, they rejoiced over the encouragement.[s] 32 And Judas and Silas, since they themselves were also prophets,[t] encouraged the brothers with many a discourse and strengthened them.[u] 33 So, when they had passed some time, they were let go in peace[v] by the brothers to those who had sent them out. 34 —— 35 However, Paul and Bar′na·bas continued spending time in Antioch[a] teaching and declaring, with many others also, the good news of the word of Jehovah.[b] 36 Now after some days Paul said to Bar′na·bas: "Above all things, let us return and visit the brothers in every one of the cities in which we published the word of Jehovah to see how they are."[c] 37 For his part, Bar′na·bas was determined to take along also John, who was called Mark.[d] 38 But Paul did not think it proper to be taking this one along with them, seeing that he had departed from them from Pam·phyl′i·a[e] and had not gone with them to the work. 39 At this there occurred a sharp burst of anger, so that they separated from each other; and Bar′na·bas[f] took Mark along and sailed away to Cy′prus.[g] 40 Paul selected Silas[h] and went off after he had been entrusted by the brothers to the undeserved kindness of Jehovah.[i] 41 But he went through Syria and Ci·li′cia, strengthening the congregations.[j]

16 So he arrived at Der′be and also at Lys′tra.[k] And, look! a certain disciple was there by the name of Tim′o·thy,[l] the son of a believing Jewish woman but of a Greek father, 2 and he was well reported on by the brothers in Lys′tra and I·co′ni·um. 3 Paul expressed the desire for this man to go out with him, and he took him and circumcised[m] him because of the Jews that were in those places, for one and all knew that his father was a Greek. 4 Now as they traveled on through the cities they would deliver to those there for observance the decrees that had been decided upon by the apostles and older men who were in Jerusalem.[n] 5 Therefore, indeed, the congregations continued to be made firm in the faith[a] and to increase in number from day to day.

6 Moreover, they went through Phryg′i·a and the country of Ga·la′ti·a,[b] because they were forbidden by the holy spirit to speak the word in the [district of] Asia. 7 Further, when getting down to Mys′i·a they made efforts to go into Bi·thyn′i·a,[c] but the spirit of Jesus did not permit them. 8 So they passed Mys′i·a by and came down to Tro′as.[d] 9 And during the night a vision[e] appeared to Paul: a certain Mac·e·do′ni·an man was standing and entreating him and saying: "Step over into Mac·e·do′ni·a and help us." 10 Now as soon as he had seen the vision, we sought to go forth into Mac·e·do′ni·a,[f] drawing the conclusion that God had summoned us to declare the good news to them.

11 Therefore we put out to sea from Tro′as and came with a straight run to Sam′o·thrace, but on the following day to Ne·ap′o·lis, 12 and from there to Phi·lip′pi,[g] a colony, which is the principal city of the district of Mac·e·do′ni·a.[h] We continued in this city, spending some days. 13 And on the sabbath day we went forth outside the gate beside a river, where we were thinking there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and began speaking to the women that had assembled. 14 And a certain woman named Lyd′i·a, a seller of purple, of the city of Thy·a·ti′ra[i] and a worshiper of God, was listening, and Jehovah opened her heart[j] wide to pay attention to the things being spoken by Paul. 15 Now when she and her household got baptized,[k] she said with entreaty: "If YOU men have judged me to be faithful to Jehovah, enter into my house and stay."[l] And she just made us come.[m]

16 And it happened that as we were going to the place of prayer, a certain servant girl with a spirit,[a] a demon of divination,[b] met us. She used to furnish her masters with much gain[c] by practicing the art of prediction. 17 This [girl] kept following Paul and us and crying out[d] with the words: "These men are slaves of the Most High God, who are publishing to YOU the way of salvation." 18 This she kept doing for many days. Finally Paul got tired of it[e] and turned and said to the spirit: "I order you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her."[f] And it came out that very hour.[g]

19 Well, when her masters saw that their hope of gain had left,[h] they laid hold of Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace to the rulers,[i] 20 and, leading them up to the civil magistrates, they said: "These men are disturbing[j] our city very much, they being Jews, 21 and they are publishing customs[k] that it is not lawful for us to take up or practice, seeing we are Romans." 22 And the crowd rose up together against them; and the civil magistrates, after tearing the outer garments off them, gave the command to beat them with rods.[l] 23 After they had inflicted many blows upon them,[m] they threw them into prison, ordering the jailer to keep them securely.[n] 24 Because he got such an order, he threw them into the inner prison[o] and made their feet fast in the stocks.[p]

25 But about the middle of the night[q] Paul and Silas were praying and praising God with song;[r] yes, the prisoners were hearing them. 26 Suddenly a great earthquake occurred, so that the foundations of the jail were shaken. Moreover, all the doors were instantly opened, and the bonds of all were loosened.[s] 27 The jailer, being awakened out of sleep and seeing the prison doors were open, drew his sword and was about to do away with himself,[a] imagining that the prisoners had escaped.[b] 28 But Paul called out with a loud voice, saying: "Do not hurt yourself,[c] for we are all here!" 29 So he asked for lights and leaped in and, seized with trembling, he fell down[d] before Paul and Silas. 30 And he brought them outside and said: "Sirs, what must I do[e] to get saved?" 31 They said: "Believe on the Lord Jesus and you will get saved,[f] you and your household."[g] 32 And they spoke the word of Jehovah to him together with all those in his house.[h] 33 And he took them along in that hour of the night and bathed their stripes; and, one and all, he and his were baptized[i] without delay. 34 And he brought them into his house and set a table before them, and he rejoiced greatly with all his household now that he had believed God.

35 When it became day, the civil magistrates[j] dispatched the constables to say: "Release those men." 36 So the jailer reported their words to Paul: "The civil magistrates have dispatched men that YOU [two] might be released. Now, therefore, come out and go YOUR way in peace." 37 But Paul said to them: "They flogged us publicly uncondemned, men who are Romans,[k] and threw us into prison; and are they now throwing us out secretly? No, indeed! but let them come themselves and bring us out." 38 So the constables reported these sayings to the civil magistrates. These grew fearful when they heard that the men were Romans.[l] 39 Consequently they came and entreated them and, after bringing them out, they requested them to depart from the city. 40 But they came out of the prison and went to the home of Lyd′i·a, and when they saw the brothers they encouraged[m] them and departed.

17 They now journeyed through Am·phip'o·lis and Ap·ol·lo'ni·a and came to Thes·sa·lo·ni'ca,[a] where there was a synagogue of the Jews. 2 So according to Paul's custom[b] he went inside to them, and for three sabbaths he reasoned with them from the Scriptures,[c] 3 explaining and proving by references that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer[d] and to rise from the dead,[e] and [saying]: "This is the Christ,[f] this Jesus whom I am publishing to YOU." 4 As a result some of them became believers[g] and associated themselves with Paul and Silas,[h] and a great multitude of the Greeks who worshiped [God] and not a few of the principal women did so.

5 But the Jews, getting jealous,[i] took into their company certain wicked men of the marketplace idlers and formed a mob and proceeded to throw the city into an uproar.[j] And they assaulted the house of Ja'son[k] and went seeking to have them brought forth to the rabble. 6 When they did not find them they dragged Ja'son and certain brothers to the city rulers, crying out: "These men that have overturned[l] the inhabited earth are present here also, 7 and Ja'son has received them with hospitality. And all these [men] act in opposition to the decrees[m] of Caesar, saying there is another king,[n] Jesus." 8 They indeed agitated the crowd and the city rulers when they heard these things; 9 and first after taking sufficient security from Ja'son and the others they let them go.

10 Immediately by night[o] the brothers sent both Paul and Silas out to Be·roe'a, and these, upon arriving, went into the synagogue of the Jews. 11 Now the latter were more noble-minded than those in Thes·sa·lo·ni'ca, for they received the word with the greatest eagerness of mind, carefully examining[a] the Scriptures[b] daily as to whether these things were so.[c] 12 Therefore many of them became believers, and so did not a few of the reputable[d] Greek women and of the men. 13 But when the Jews from Thes·sa·lo·ni'ca learned that the word of God was published also in Be·roe'a by Paul, they came there also to incite[e] and agitate[f] the masses. 14 Then the brothers immediately sent Paul off to go as far as the sea;[g] but both Silas and Timothy remained behind there. 15 However, those conducting Paul brought him as far as Athens and, after receiving a command for Silas and Timothy[h] to come to him as quickly as possible, they departed.

16 Now while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit within him came to be irritated[i] at beholding that the city was full of idols. 17 Consequently he began to reason in the synagogue with the Jews[j] and the other people who worshiped [God] and every day in the marketplace[k] with those who happened to be on hand. 18 But certain ones of both the Ep·i·cu·re'an and the Sto'ic philosophers[l] took to conversing with him controversially, and some would say: "What is it this chatterer would like to tell?"[m] Others: "He seems to be a publisher of foreign deities." This was because he was declaring the good news of Jesus and the resurrection.[n] 19 So they laid hold of him and led him to the Ar·e·op'a·gus, saying: "Can we get to know what this new teaching[o] is which is spoken by you? 20 For you are introducing some things that are strange to our ears. Therefore we desire to get to know what these things purport to be."[p] 21 In fact, all Athenians and the foreigners sojourning there would spend their leisure time at nothing but telling something or listening to something new. 22 Paul now stood in the midst of the Ar·e·op'a·gus[a] and said:

"Men of Athens, I behold that in all things YOU seem to be more given to the fear of the deities[b] than others are. 23 For instance, while passing along and carefully observing YOUR objects of veneration I also found an altar on which had been inscribed 'To an Unknown God.' Therefore what YOU are unknowingly giving godly devotion to, this I am publishing to YOU. 24 The God that made the world and all the things in it, being, as this One is, Lord of heaven and earth,[c] does not dwell in handmade temples,[d] 25 neither is he attended to by human hands as if he needed anything,[e] because he himself gives to all [persons] life[f] and breath[g] and all things. 26 And he made out of one [man][h] every nation[i] of men, to dwell upon the entire surface of the earth,[j] and he decreed the appointed times[k] and the set limits of the dwelling of [men],[l] 27 for them to seek God,[m] if they might grope for him and really find him,[n] although, in fact, he is not far off from each one of us. 28 For by him we have life and move and exist,[o] even as certain ones of the poets[p] among YOU have said, 'For we are also his progeny.'

29 "Seeing, therefore, that we are the progeny of God,[q] we ought not to imagine that the Divine Being[r] is like gold or silver or stone, like something sculptured by the art and contrivance of man.[s] 30 True, God has overlooked the times of such ignorance,[t] yet now he is telling mankind that they should all everywhere repent.[u] 31 Because he has set a day in which he purposes to judge[v] the inhabited earth in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and he has furnished a guarantee to all men in that he has resurrected[a] him from the dead."

32 Well, when they heard of a resurrection of the dead, some began to mock,[b] while others said: "We will hear you about this even another time." 33 Thus Paul went out from their midst, 34 but some men joined themselves to him and became believers, among whom also were Di·o·nys'i·us, a judge of the court of the Ar·e·op'a·gus,[c] and a woman named Dam'a·ris, and others besides them.

18 After these things he departed from Athens and came to Corinth. 2 And he found a certain Jew named Aq'ui·la,[d] a native of Pon'tus who had recently come from Italy,[e] and Pris·cil'la his wife, because of the fact that Claudius[f] had ordered all the Jews to depart from Rome. So he went to them 3 and on account of being of the same trade he stayed at their home, and they worked,[g] for they were tentmakers by trade. 4 However, he would give a talk in the synagogue[h] every sabbath and would persuade Jews and Greeks.

5 When, now, both Silas[i] and Timothy[j] came down from Mac·e·do'ni·a, Paul began to be intensely occupied with the word, witnessing to the Jews to prove that Jesus is the Christ.[k] 6 But after they kept on opposing and speaking abusively,[l] he shook out his garments[m] and said to them: "Let YOUR blood[n] be upon YOUR own heads. I am clean.[o] From now on I will go to people of the nations."[p] 7 Accordingly he transferred from there and went into the house of a man named Titius Justus, a worshiper of God, whose house was adjoining the synagogue. 8 But Cris'pus[q] the presiding officer of the synagogue became a believer in the Lord, and so did all his household. And many of the Corinthians that heard began to believe and be baptized. 9 Moreover, by night the Lord said to Paul[a] through a vision: "Have no fear, but keep on speaking and do not keep silent, 10 because I am with you[b] and no man will assault you so as to do you injury; for I have many people in this city." 11 So he stayed set there a year and six months, teaching among them the word of God.

12 Now while Gal'li·o was proconsul[c] of A·cha'ia, the Jews rose up with one accord against Paul and led him to the judgment seat,[d] 13 saying: "Contrary to the law this person leads[e] men to another persuasion in worshiping God." 14 But as Paul was going to open his mouth, Gal'li·o said to the Jews: "If it were, indeed, some wrong or a wicked act of villainy, O Jews, I would with reason put up patiently with YOU. 15 But if it is controversies over speech and names[f] and the law[g] among YOU, YOU yourselves must see to it. I do not wish to be a judge of these things." 16 With that he drove them away from the judgment seat. 17 So they all laid hold of Sos'the·nes[h] the presiding officer of the synagogue and went to beating him in front of the judgment seat. But Gal'li·o would not concern himself at all with these things.

18 However, after staying quite some days longer, Paul said good-bye to the brothers and proceeded to sail away for Syria, and with him Pris·cil'la and Aq'ui·la, as he had the hair of his head clipped short[i] in Cen'chre·ae,[j] for he had a vow. 19 So they arrived at Eph'e·sus, and he left them there; but he himself entered into the synagogue[k] and reasoned with the Jews. 20 Although they kept requesting him to remain for a longer time, he would not consent 21 but said good-bye[a] and told them: "I will return to YOU again, if Jehovah is willing."[b] And he put out to sea from Eph'e·sus 22 and came down to Caes·a·re'a. And he went up and greeted the congregation, and went down to Antioch.

23 And when he had passed some time there he departed and went from place to place through the country of Ga·la'ti·a[c] and Phryg'i·a,[d] strengthening[e] all the disciples.

24 Now a certain Jew named A·pol'los,[f] a native of Alexandria, an eloquent man, arrived in Eph'e·sus; and he was well versed in the Scriptures.[g] 25 This [man] had been orally instructed in the way of Jehovah and, as he was aglow with the spirit,[h] he went speaking and teaching with correctness the things about Jesus, but being acquainted with only the baptism[i] of John. 26 And this [man] started to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Pris·cil'la and Aq'ui·la[j] heard him, they took him into their company and expounded the way of God more correctly to him. 27 Further, because he was desiring to go across into A·cha'ia, the brothers wrote the disciples, exhorting them to receive him kindly. So when he got there, he greatly helped[k] those who had believed on account of [God's] undeserved kindness;[l] 28 for with intensity he thoroughly proved the Jews to be wrong publicly, while he demonstrated by the Scriptures[m] that Jesus was the Christ.[n]

19 In the course of events, while A·pol'los[o] was in Corinth, Paul went through the inland parts and came down to Eph'e·sus,[p] and found some disciples; 2 and he said to them: "Did you receive holy spirit[q] when YOU became believers?" They said to him: "Why, we have never heard whether there is a holy spirit."[a] 3 And he said: "In what, then, were YOU baptized?" They said: "In John's baptism."[b] 4 Paul said: "John baptized with the baptism [in symbol] of repentance,[c] telling the people to believe in the one coming after him,[d] that is, in Jesus." 5 On hearing this, they got baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.[e] 6 And when Paul laid his hands[f] upon them, the holy spirit came upon them, and they began speaking with tongues and prophesying.[g] 7 All together, there were about twelve men.

8 Entering into the synagogue,[h] he spoke with boldness for three months, giving talks and using persuasion concerning the kingdom[i] of God. 9 But when some went on hardening themselves and not believing,[j] speaking injuriously about The Way[k] before the multitude, he withdrew from them[l] and separated the disciples from them,[m] daily giving talks in the school [auditorium] of Ty·ran'nus. 10 This took place for two years,[n] so that all those inhabiting the [district of] Asia[o] heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God kept performing extraordinary works of power through the hands of Paul,[p] 12 so that even cloths and aprons were borne from his body to the ailing people,[q] and the diseases left them, and the wicked spirits came out.[r] 13 But certain ones of the roving Jews who practiced the casting out of demons[s] also undertook to name the name of the Lord Jesus[t] over those having the wicked spirits, saying: "I solemnly charge[u] YOU by Jesus whom Paul preaches." 14 Now there were seven sons of a certain Sce'va, a Jewish chief priest, doing this. 15 But in answer the wicked spirit said to them: "I know Jesus[v] and I am acquainted with Paul;[a] but who are YOU?" 16 With that the man in whom the wicked spirit was leaped upon them,[b] got the mastery of one after the other, and prevailed against them, so that they fled naked and wounded out of that house. 17 This became known to all, both the Jews and the Greeks that dwelt in Eph'e·sus; and a fear[c] fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus went on being magnified.[d] 18 And many of those who had become believers would come and confess[e] and report their practices openly. 19 Indeed, quite a number of those who practiced magical[f] arts brought their books together and burned them up before everybody. And they calculated together the prices of them and found them worth fifty thousand pieces of silver. 20 Thus in a mighty way the word of Jehovah kept growing and prevailing.[g]

21 Now when these things had been completed, Paul purposed in his spirit that, after going through Mac·e·do'ni·a[h] and A·cha'ia, he would journey to Jerusalem,[i] saying: "After I get there I must also see Rome."[j] 22 So he dispatched to Mac·e·do'ni·a two of those who ministered to him, Timothy[k] and E·ras'tus,[l] but he himself delayed for some time in the [district of] Asia.

23 At that particular time there arose no little disturbance[m] concerning The Way.[n] 24 For a certain man named De·me'tri·us, a silversmith, by making silver shrines of Ar'te·mis furnished the craftsmen no little gain;[o] 25 and he gathered them and those who worked at such things[p] and said: "Men, YOU well know that from this business we have our prosperity.[q] 26 Also, YOU behold and hear how not only in Eph'e·sus[r] but in nearly all the [district of] Asia this Paul has persuaded a considerable crowd and turned them to another opinion, saying that the ones that are made by hands[a] are not gods. 27 Moreover, the danger exists not only that this occupation of ours will come into disrepute but also that the temple of the great goddess Ar′te·mis[b] will be esteemed as nothing and even her magnificence which the whole [district of] Asia and the inhabited earth worships is about to be brought down to nothing." 28 Hearing this and becoming full of anger, the men began crying out, saying: "Great is Ar′te·mis of the E·phe′sians!"

29 So the city became filled with confusion, and with one accord they rushed into the theater, taking forcibly along with them Ga′ius and Ar·is·tar′chus,[c] Mac·e·do′ni·ans, traveling companions of Paul. 30 For his part, Paul was willing to go inside to the people, but the disciples would not permit him. 31 Even some of the commissioners of festivals and games, who were friendly to him, sent to him and began pleading for him not to risk himself in the theater. 32 The fact is, some were crying out one thing and others another;[d] for the assembly was in confusion, and the majority of them did not know the reason why they had come together. 33 So together they brought Alexander out of the crowd, the Jews thrusting him up front; and Alexander motioned with his hand and was wanting to make his defense to the people. 34 But when they recognized that he was a Jew, one cry arose from them all as they shouted for about two hours: "Great[e] is Ar′te·mis of the E·phe′sians!"

35 When, finally, the city recorder had quieted[f] the crowd, he said: "Men of Eph′e·sus, who really is there of mankind that does not know that the city of the E·phe′sians is the temple keeper of the great Ar′te·mis and of the image that fell from heaven? 36 Therefore since these things are indisputable, it is becoming for YOU to keep calm and not act rashly.[a] 37 For YOU have brought these men who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our goddess. 38 Therefore if De·me′tri·us[b] and the craftsmen with him do have a case against someone, court[c] days are held and there are proconsuls;[d] let them bring charges against one another. 39 If, though, YOU are searching for anything beyond that, it must be decided in a regular assembly. 40 For we are really in danger of being charged with sedition over today's affair, no single cause existing that will permit us to render a reason for this disorderly mob." 41 And when he had said these things,[e] he dismissed the assembly.[f]

20 Now after the uproar had subsided, Paul sent for the disciples, and when he had encouraged them and bidden them farewell,[g] he went forth to journey into Mac·e·do′ni·a.[h] 2 After going through those parts and encouraging the ones there with many a word,[i] he came into Greece. 3 And when he had spent three months there, because a plot[j] was hatched against him by the Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he made up his mind to return through Mac·e·do′ni·a. 4 There were accompanying him Sop′a·ter[k] the son of Pyr′rhus of Be·roe′a, Ar·is·tar′chus[l] and Se·cun′dus of the Thes·sa·lo′ni·ans, and Ga′ius of Der′be, and Timothy,[m] and from the [district of] Asia Tych′i·cus[n] and Troph′i·mus.[o] 5 These went on and were waiting for us in Tro′as;[p] 6 but we put out to sea from Phi·lip′pi after the days of the unfermented cakes,[q] and we came to them in Tro′as[a] within five days; and there we spent seven days.

7 On the first day[b] of the week, when we were gathered together to have a meal, Paul began discoursing to them, as he was going to depart the next day; and he prolonged his speech until midnight. 8 So there were quite a few lamps in the upper chamber[c] where we were gathered together. 9 Seated at the window, a certain young man named Eu′ty·chus fell into a deep sleep while Paul kept talking on, and, collapsing in sleep, he fell down from the third story and was picked up dead. 10 But Paul went downstairs, threw himself upon him[d] and embraced him and said: "STOP raising a clamor, for his soul is in him."[e] 11 He now went upstairs and began the meal and took food, and after conversing for quite a while, until daybreak, he at length departed. 12 So they took the boy away alive and were comforted beyond measure.

13 We now went ahead to the boat and set sail to As′sos, where we were intending to take Paul aboard, for, after giving instructions to this effect, he himself was intending to go on foot. 14 So when he caught up with us in As′sos, we took him aboard and went to Mit·y·le′ne; 15 and, sailing away from there the succeeding day, we arrived opposite Chi′os, but the next day we touched at Sa′mos, and on the following day we arrived at Mi·le′tus. 16 For Paul had decided to sail past Eph′e·sus,[f] in order that he might not spend any time in the [district of] Asia; for he was hastening to get to Jerusalem[g] on the day of the [festival of] Pentecost if he possibly could.

17 However, from Mi·le′tus he sent to Eph′e·sus and called for the older men[h] of the congregation. 18 When they got to him he said to them: "YOU well know how from the first day that I stepped into the [district of] Asia[a] I was with YOU the whole time,[b] 19 slaving[c] for the Lord with the greatest lowliness of mind[d] and tears and trials that befell me by the plots[e] of the Jews; 20 while I did not hold back from telling YOU any of the things that were profitable nor from teaching[f] YOU publicly and from house[g] to house. 21 But I thoroughly bore witness[h] both to Jews and to Greeks about repentance[i] toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus. 22 And now, look! bound in the spirit,[j] I am journeying to Jerusalem, although not knowing the things that will happen to me in it, 23 except that from city to city the holy spirit[k] repeatedly bears witness to me as it says that bonds and tribulations are waiting for me.[l] 24 Nevertheless, I do not make my soul of any account as dear to me,[m] if only I may finish my course[n] and the ministry[o] that I received[p] of the Lord Jesus, to bear thorough witness to the good news of the undeserved kindness of God.[q]

25 "And now, look! I know that all of YOU among whom I went preaching the kingdom will see my face no more. 26 Hence I call YOU to witness this very day that I am clean from the blood[r] of all men, 27 for I have not held back from telling YOU all the counsel[s] of God. 28 Pay attention[t] to yourselves[u] and to all the flock,[v] among which the holy spirit has appointed YOU overseers,[w] to shepherd the congregation of God,[x] which he purchased with the blood[y] of his own [Son]. 29 I know that after my going away oppressive wolves[z] will enter in among YOU and will not treat the flock with tenderness, 30 and from among YOU yourselves men will rise and speak twisted things[a]

to draw away the disciples after themselves.[a]

31 "Therefore keep awake, and bear in mind that for three years,[b] night and day, I did not quit admonishing[c] each one with tears. 32 And now I commit YOU to God[d] and to the word of his undeserved kindness, which [word] can build YOU up[e] and give YOU the inheritance among all the sanctified ones.[f] 33 I have coveted no man's silver or gold or apparel.[g] 34 You yourselves know that these hands have attended to the needs of me[h] and of those with me. 35 I have exhibited to YOU in all things that by thus laboring[i] YOU must assist those who are weak,[j] and must bear in mind the words of the Lord Jesus, when he himself said, 'There is more happiness in giving[k] than there is in receiving.'"

36 And when he had said these things, he kneeled[l] down with all of them and prayed. 37 Indeed, quite a bit of weeping broke out among them all, and they fell upon Paul's neck[m] and tenderly kissed[n] him, 38 because they were especially pained at the word he had spoken that they were going to behold his face[o] no more. So they proceeded to conduct[p] him to the boat.

21 Now when we had torn ourselves away from them and put out to sea, we ran with a straight course and came to Cos, but on the next [day] to Rhodes, and from there to Pat'a·ra. 2 And when we had found a boat that was crossing to Phoe·ni'cia, we went aboard and sailed away. 3 After coming in sight of the island of Cy'prus[q] we left it behind on the left side and sailed on to Syria,[r] and landed at Tyre, for there the boat was to unload [its] cargo.[s] 4 By a search we found the disciples and remained here seven days. But through the spirit[t] they repeatedly told Paul not to set foot in Jerusalem. 5 So when we had completed the days, we went forth and started on our way; but they all, together with the women and children, conducted us as far as outside the city. And kneeling[a] down on the beach we had prayer 6 and said good-bye[b] to one another, and we went up into the boat but they returned to their homes.

7 We then completed the voyage from Tyre and arrived at Ptol·e·ma'is, and we greeted the brothers and stayed one day with them. 8 The next day we set out and arrived in Caes·a·re'a,[c] and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelizer, who was one of the seven men,[d] and we stayed with him. 9 This man had four daughters, virgins, that prophesied.[e] 10 But while we were remaining quite a number of days, a certain prophet named Ag'a·bus[f] came down from Ju·de'a, 11 and he came to us and took up the girdle of Paul, bound his own feet and hands and said: "Thus says the holy spirit, 'The man to whom this girdle belongs the Jews will bind[g] in this manner in Jerusalem and deliver[h] into the hands of people of the nations.'" 12 Now when we heard this, both we and those of that place began entreating him not to go[i] up to Jerusalem. 13 Then Paul answered: "What are you doing by weeping[j] and making me weak at heart?[k] Rest assured, I am ready not only to be bound but also to die[l] at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." 14 When he would not be dissuaded, we acquiesced with the words: "Let the will[m] of Jehovah take place."

15 Now after these days we prepared for the journey and began going up to Jerusalem.[n] 16 But some of the disciples from Caes·a·re'a[o] also went with us, to bring us to the man at whose home we were to be entertained, a certain Mna'son of Cy'prus, an early disciple.

17 When we got into Jerusalem,[a] the brothers received us gladly.[b] 18 But on the following [day] Paul went in with us to James;[c] and all the older men were present. 19 And he greeted them and began giving in detail an account[d] of the things God did among the nations through his ministry.[e]

20 After hearing this they began to glorify God, and they said to him: "You behold, brother, how many thousands of believers there are among the Jews; and they are all zealous for the Law.[f] 21 But they have heard it rumored about you that you have been teaching all the Jews among the nations an apostasy from Moses,[g] telling them neither to circumcise[h] their children nor to walk in the [solemn] customs. 22 What, then, is to be done about it? In any case they are going to hear you have arrived. 23 Therefore do this which we tell you: We have four men with a vow upon themselves. 24 Take these men along[i] and cleanse yourself ceremonially with them and take care of their expenses,[j] that they may have their heads shaved.[k] And so everybody will know that there is nothing to the rumors they were told about you, but that you are walking orderly, you yourself also keeping the Law.[l] 25 As for the believers from among the nations, we have sent out, rendering our decision that they should keep themselves from what is sacrificed to idols[m] as well as from blood[n] and what is strangled[o] and from fornication."[p]

26 Then Paul took the men along the next day and cleansed himself ceremonially with them[q] and went into the temple, to give notice of the days to be fulfilled[a] for the ceremonial cleansing, until the offering[b] should be presented for each one of them.[c]

27 Now when the seven[d] days were about to be concluded, the Jews from Asia on beholding him in the temple began to throw all the crowd into confusion,[e] and they laid their hands upon him, 28 crying out: "Men of Israel, help! This is the man that teaches everybody everywhere against the people[f] and the Law and this place and, what is more, he even brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place."[g] 29 For they had previously seen Troph'i·mus[h] the E·phe'sian in the city with him, but they were imagining Paul had brought him into the temple. 30 And the whole city was set in an uproar,[i] and a running together of the people occurred; and they laid hold of Paul and dragged him outside the temple.[j] And immediately the doors were closed. 31 And while they were seeking to kill him, information came up to the commander of the band that all Jerusalem was in confusion;[k] 32 and he at once took soldiers and army officers and ran down to them.[l] When they caught sight of the military commander[m] and the soldiers, they quit beating Paul.

33 Then the military commander came near and took hold of him and gave command for him to be bound with two chains;[n] and he proceeded to inquire who he might be and what he had done. 34 But some in the crowd began shouting out one thing, and others another.[o] So, being unable himself to learn anything certain because of the tumult, he commanded him to be brought to the soldiers' quarters.[p] 35 But when he got upon the stairs, the situation became such that he was being carried along by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd; 36 for the multitude of the people kept following, crying out: "Take him away!"[a]

37 And as he was about to be led into the soldiers' quarters, Paul said to the military commander: "Am I allowed to say something to you?" He said: "Can you speak Greek? 38 Are you not really the Egyptian who before these days stirred up a sedition[b] and led the four thousand dagger men out into the wilderness?" 39 Then Paul said: "I am, in fact, a Jew,[c] of Tarsus[d] in Ci·li'cia, a citizen of no obscure city. So I beg you, permit me to speak to the people." 40 After he gave permission, Paul, standing on the stairs, motioned[e] with his hand to the people. When a great silence fell, he addressed them in the Hebrew[f] language, saying:

22 "Men, brothers[g] and fathers, hear my defense[h] to you now." 2 (Well, when they heard he was addressing them in the Hebrew language,[i] they kept all the more silent, and he said:) 3 "I am a Jew,[j] born in Tarsus of Ci·li'cia,[k] but educated in this city at the feet of Ga·ma'li·el,[l] instructed according to the strictness[m] of the ancestral Law, being zealous[n] for God just as all of YOU are this day. 4 And I persecuted this Way to the death,[o] binding and handing over to prisons[p] both men and women, 5 as both the high priest and all the assembly of older men[q] can bear me witness. From them I also procured letters[r] to the brothers in Damascus, and I was on my way to bring also those who were there bound to Jerusalem to be punished.

6 "But as I was journeying and drawing close to Damascus, about midday, suddenly out of heaven a great light flashed all around me,[s] 7 and I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?'[a] 8 I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' And he said to me, 'I am Jesus the Naz·a·rene', whom you are persecuting.'[b] 9 Now the men that were with me[c] beheld, indeed, the light but did not hear the voice of the one speaking to me.[d] 10 At that I said, 'What shall I do,[e] Lord?' The Lord said to me, 'Rise, go your way into Damascus, and there you will be told about everything it is appointed for you to do.'[f] 11 But as I could not see anything for the glory of that light, I arrived in Damascus, being led by the hand of those who were with me.[g]

12 "Now An·a·ni'as, a certain man reverent according to the Law, well reported[h] on by all the Jews dwelling there, 13 came to me and, standing by me, he said to me, 'Saul, brother, have your sight again!'[i] And I looked up at him that very hour. 14 He said, 'The God of our forefathers[j] has chosen you[k] to come to know his will and to see[l] the righteous One[m] and to hear the voice of his mouth,[n] 15 because you are to be a witness for him to all men of things you have seen and heard.[o] 16 And now why are you delaying? Rise, get baptized[p] and wash[q] your sins away by your calling upon his name.'[r]

17 "But when I had returned to Jerusalem[s] and was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance[t] 18 and saw him saying to me, 'Hurry up and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not agree[u] to your witness concerning me.' 19 And I said, 'Lord, they themselves well know that I used to imprison[v] and flog in one synagogue after another those believing upon you;[w] 20 and when the blood of Stephen[x] your witness was being spilled, I myself was also standing by and approving[a] and guarding the outer garments of those doing away with him.' 21 And yet he said to me, 'Get on your way, because I shall send you out to nations far off.'"[b]

22 Now they kept listening to him down to this word, and they raised their voices, saying: "Take such a [man] away from the earth, for he was not fit to live!"[c] 23 And because they were crying out and throwing their outer garments about and tossing dust into the air,[d] 24 the military commander ordered him to be brought into the soldiers' quarters and said he should be examined under scourging, that he might know fully for what cause they were shouting[e] against him this way. 25 But when they had stretched him out for the whipping, Paul said to the army officer standing there: "Is it lawful for YOU men to scourge a man that is a Roman[f] and uncondemned?" 26 Well, when the army officer heard this, he went to the military commander and made report, saying: "What are you intending to do? Why, this man is a Roman." 27 So the military commander approached and said to him: "Tell me, Are you a Roman?"[g] He said: "Yes." 28 The military commander responded: "I purchased these rights as a citizen for a large sum [of money]." Paul said: "But I was even born[h] [in them]."

29 Immediately, therefore, the men that were about to examine him with torture withdrew from him; and the military commander became afraid on ascertaining that he was a Roman[i] and that he had bound him.

30 So, the next day, as he desired to know for sure just why he was being accused by the Jews, he let him loose and commanded the chief priests and all the San'he·drin to assemble. And he brought Paul down and stood him among them.[a]

23 Looking intently at the San'he·drin Paul said: "Men, brothers, I have behaved before God with a perfectly clear conscience[b] down to this day." 2 At this the high priest An·a·ni'as ordered those standing by him to strike[c] him on the mouth. 3 Then Paul said to him: "God is going to strike you, you whitewashed[d] wall. Do you at one and the same time sit to judge me in accord with the Law[e] and, transgressing the Law,[f] command me to be struck?" 4 Those standing by said: "Are you reviling the high priest of God?" 5 And Paul said: "Brothers, I did not know he was high priest. For it is written, 'You must not speak injuriously of a ruler of your people.'"[g]

6 Now when Paul took note that the one part was of Sadducees[h] but the other of Pharisees, he proceeded to cry out in the San'he·drin: "Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee,[i] a son of Pharisees. Over the hope of resurrection[j] of the dead I am being judged."[k] 7 Because he said this, a dissension[l] arose between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the multitude was split. 8 For Sadducees[m] say there is neither resurrection[n] nor angel nor spirit, but the Pharisees publicly declare them all. 9 So there broke out a loud screaming,[o] and some of the scribes of the party of the Pharisees rose and began contending fiercely, saying: "We find nothing wrong in this man;[p] but if a spirit or an angel spoke to him,[q]—." 10 Now when the dissension grew great, the military commander became afraid that Paul would be pulled to pieces by them, and he commanded the force of soldiers[r] to go down and snatch him from their midst and bring him into the soldiers' quarters.[s]

11 But the following night the Lord stood by him[a] and said: "Be of good courage![b] For as you have been giving a thorough witness[c] on the things about me in Jerusalem, so you must also bear witness in Rome."[d]

12 Now when it became day, the Jews formed a conspiracy[e] and bound themselves with a curse,[f] saying they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.[g] 13 There were more than forty men that formed this oath-bound conspiracy; 14 and they went to the chief[h] priests and the older men and said: "We have solemnly bound ourselves with a curse not to take a bite of food until we have killed Paul. 15 Now, therefore, you together with the San'he·drin make it clear to the military commander why he should bring him down to you as though you intended to determine more accurately the matters involving him.[i] But before he gets near we will be ready to do away with him."[j]

16 However, the son of Paul's sister heard of their lying in wait,[k] and he came and entered into the soldiers' quarters and reported it to Paul. 17 So Paul called one of the army officers to him and said: "Lead this young man off to the military commander, for he has something to report to him." 18 Therefore this man took him and led him to the military commander and said: "The prisoner Paul called me to him and requested me to lead this young man to you, as he has something to tell you." 19 The military commander took him[l] by the hand and withdrew and began inquiring privately: "What is it you have to report to me?" 20 He said: "The Jews have agreed to request you to bring Paul down to the San'he·drin tomorrow as though intending to learn something more accurate about him.[a] 21 Above all things, do not let them persuade you, for more than forty men of theirs are lying in wait[b] for him, and they have bound themselves with a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they have done away with him;[c] and they are now ready, waiting for the promise from you." 22 Therefore the military commander let the young man go after ordering him: "Do not blab to anyone that you have made these things clear to me."

23 And he summoned a certain two of the army officers and said: "Get two hundred soldiers ready to march clear to Caes·a·re'a, also seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen, at the third hour of the night. 24 Also, provide beasts of burden that they may have Paul ride and convey him safely to Felix the governor." 25 And he wrote a letter having this form:

26 "Claudius Lys'i·as to his excellency, Governor Felix:[d] Greetings! 27 This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be done away with by them, but I came suddenly with a force of soldiers and rescued him,[e] because I learned he was a Roman.[f] 28 And wishing to ascertain the cause for which they were accusing him, I brought him down into their San'he·drin.[g] 29 I found him to be accused about questions of their Law,[h] but not charged with a single thing deserving of death or bonds.[i] 30 But because a plot[j] that is to be laid against the man has been disclosed to me, I am at once sending him to you, and commanding the accusers to speak against him before you."[k]

31 Therefore these soldiers[l] took Paul according to their orders and brought him by night to An·tip'a·tris. 32 The next day they permitted the horsemen men to go on with him, and they returned to the soldiers' quarters. 33 The [horsemen] entered into Caes·a·re'a[a] and delivered the letter to the governor and also presented Paul to him. 34 So he read it and inquired from what province he was, and ascertained[b] that he was from Ci·li'cia.[c] 35 "I shall give you a thorough hearing," he said, "when your accusers arrive also."[d] And he commanded that he be kept under guard in the prae·to'ri·an palace of Herod.

24 Five days later the high priest An·a·ni'as[e] came down with some older men and a public speaker, a certain Ter·tul'lus, and they gave information[f] to the governor[g] against Paul. 2 When he was called, Ter·tul'lus started accusing him, saying:

"Seeing that we enjoy great peace[h] through you and that reforms are taking place in this nation through your forethought, 3 at all times and also in all places we receive it, Your Excellency[i] Felix, with the greatest thankfulness. 4 But that I may not hinder you any further, I beseech you to hear us briefly in your kindliness. 5 For we have found this man a pestilent[j] fellow and stirring up seditions[k] among all the Jews throughout the inhabited earth and a spearhead of the sect of the Naz·a·renes',[l] 6 one who also tried to profane the temple[m] and whom we seized. 7 —— 8 From him you yourself can by examination find out about all these things of which we are accusing him."

9 With that the Jews also joined in the attack, asserting that these things were so. 10 And Paul, when the governor nodded to him to speak, answered:

"Knowing well that this nation has had you as judge for many years, I readily speak in my defense[a] the things about myself, 11 as you are in a position to find out that for me it has not been more than twelve days since I went up to worship[b] in Jerusalem; 12 and they found me neither in the temple[c] arguing with anyone nor causing a mob[d] to rush together, either in the synagogues or throughout the city. 13 Nor can they prove[e] to you the things of which they are accusing me right now. 14 But I do admit this to you, that, according to the way that they call a 'sect,' in this manner I am rendering sacred service to the God of my forefathers,[f] as I believe all the things set forth in the Law[g] and written in the Prophets; 15 and I have hope[h] toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection[i] of both the righteous[j] and the unrighteous.[k] 16 In this respect, indeed, I am exercising myself continually to have a consciousness[l] of committing no offense against God and men. 17 So after quite a number of years I arrived to bring gifts of mercy to my nation, and offerings.[m] 18 While I was at these matters they found me ceremonially cleansed in the temple,[n] but not with a crowd or with a tumult. But there were certain Jews from the [district of] Asia, 19 who ought to be present before you and to accuse me if they might have anything against me.[o] 20 Or, let the [men] here say for themselves what wrong they found as I stood before the San'he·drin, 21 except with respect to this one utterance which I cried out while standing among them, 'Over the resurrection of the dead I am today being judged before you!'"[p]

22 However, Felix,[q] knowing quite accurately the matters concerning this Way,[r] began to put the [men] off and said: "Whenever Lys′i·as[a] the military commander comes down, I shall decide upon these matters involving YOU." 23 And he ordered the army officer that the man be kept and have some relaxation [of custody], and that he forbid no one of his people to wait upon him.[b]

24 Some days later Felix[c] arrived with Dru·sil′la his wife, who was a Jewess,[d] and he sent for Paul and listened to him on the belief in Christ Jesus.[e] 25 But as he talked about righteousness[f] and self-control[g] and the judgment[h] to come, Felix became frightened and answered: "For the present go your way, but when I get an opportune time I shall send for you again." 26 At the same time, though, he was hoping for money[i] to be given him by Paul. On that account he sent for him even more frequently and would converse with him.[j] 27 But, when two years had elapsed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and because Felix desired to gain favor[k] with the Jews, he left Paul bound.

25 Therefore Festus, after entering[l] upon the [government of the] province, went up three days later to Jerusalem from Caes·a·re′a;[m] 2 and the chief priests and the principal men of the Jews gave him information[n] against Paul. So they began to entreat him, 3 asking for themselves as a favor against the [man] that he would send for him to come to Jerusalem, as they were laying an ambush[o] to do away with him along the road. 4 However, Festus answered that Paul was to be kept in Caes·a·re′a and that he himself was about to depart shortly for there. 5 "Hence let those who are in power among YOU," he said, "come down with me and accuse him,[p] if there is anything out of the way about the man."

6 So when he had spent not more than eight or ten days among them, he went down to Caes·a·re′a, and the next day he sat down on the judgment seat[a] and commanded Paul to be brought in. 7 When he arrived, the Jews that had come down from Jerusalem stood round about him, leveling against him many and serious charges[b] for which they were unable to show evidence.

8 But Paul said in defense: "Neither against the Law of the Jews nor against the temple[c] nor against Caesar have I committed any sin."[d] 9 Festus, desiring to gain favor[e] with the Jews, said in reply to Paul: "Do you wish to go up to Jerusalem and be judged there before me concerning these things?"[f] 10 But Paul said: "I am standing before the judgment seat of Caesar,[g] where I ought to be judged. I have done no wrong to the Jews,[h] as you also are finding out quite well. 11 If, on the one hand, I am really a wrongdoer[i] and have committed anything deserving of death,[j] I do not beg off from dying; if, on the other hand, none of those things exists of which these [men] accuse me, no man can hand me over to them as a favor. I appeal to Caesar!"[k] 12 Then Festus, after speaking with the assembly of counselors, replied: "To Caesar you have appealed; to Caesar you shall go."

13 Now when some days had passed, A·grip′pa the king and Ber·ni′ce arrived in Caes·a·re′a for a visit of courtesy to Festus. 14 So, as they were spending a number of days there, Festus laid before the king the matters respecting Paul, saying:

"There is a certain man left prisoner by Felix, 15 and when I was in Jerusalem the chief priests and the older men of the Jews brought information[l] about him, asking a judgment of condemnation against him. 16 But I replied to them that it is not Roman procedure to hand any man over as a favor before the accused man meets his accusers[a] face to face and gets a chance to speak in his defense concerning the complaint. 17 Therefore when they got together here, I made no delay, but the next day I sat down on the judgment seat and commanded the man to be brought in. 18 Taking the stand, the accusers produced no charge[b] of the wicked things I had supposed concerning him. 19 They simply had certain disputes with him concerning their own worship[c] of the deity and concerning a certain Jesus who was dead but who Paul kept asserting was alive.[d] 20 So, being perplexed as to the dispute over these matters, I proceeded to ask if he would like to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters.[e] 21 But when Paul appealed[f] to be kept for the decision by the August One, I commanded him to be kept until I should send him on up to Caesar."

22 Here A·grip′pa [said] to Festus: "I myself would also like to hear the man."[g] "Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him." 23 Therefore, on the next day, A·grip′pa and Ber·ni′ce came with much pompous[h] show and entered into the audience chamber together with military commanders as well as men of eminence in the city, and when Festus gave the command, Paul was brought in. 24 And Festus said: "King A·grip′pa and all YOU men who are present with us, YOU are beholding this man concerning whom all the multitude of the Jews together have applied to me both in Jerusalem and here, shouting that he ought not to live any longer.[i] 25 But I perceived he had committed nothing deserving of death.[a] So when this [man] himself appealed[b] to the August One, I decided to send him. 26 But concerning him I have nothing certain to write to [my] Lord. Therefore I brought him forth before YOU, and especially before you, King A·grip′pa, in order that, after the judicial examination has taken place,[c] I might get something to write. 27 For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner and not also to signify the charges against him."

26 A·grip′pa[d] said to Paul: "You are permitted to speak in behalf of yourself." Then Paul stretched his hand out[e] and proceeded to say in his defense:[f]

2 "Concerning all the things of which I am accused[g] by Jews, King A·grip′pa, I count myself happy that it is before you I am to make my defense this day, 3 especially as you are expert on all the customs[h] as well as the controversies among Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.

4 "Indeed, as to the manner of life[i] from youth up that I led from [the] beginning among my nation and in Jerusalem, all the Jews 5 that have been previously acquainted with me from the first know, if they but wish to bear witness, that according to the strictest sect[j] of our form of worship I lived a Pharisee.[k] 6 And yet now for the hope[l] of the promise[m] that was made by God to our forefathers I stand called to judgment; 7 whereas our twelve tribes are hoping to attain to the fulfillment of this promise by intensely rendering him sacred service night and day.[n] Concerning this hope I am accused[o] by Jews, O king.

8 "Why is it judged unbelievable among YOU men that God raises up the dead?[p] 9 I, for one, really thought within myself I ought to commit many acts of opposition against the name of Jesus the Naz·a·rene′; 10 which, in fact, I did in Jerusalem, and many of the holy ones I locked up in prisons,[a] as I had received authority from the chief priests;[b] and when they were to be executed, I cast my vote against them. 11 And by punishing them many times in all the synagogues[c] I tried to force them to make a recantation; and since I was extremely mad against them, I went so far as to persecuting them even in outside cities.

12 "Amid these efforts as I was journeying to Damascus[d] with authority and a commission from the chief priests, 13 I saw at midday on the road, O king, a light beyond the brilliance of the sun flash from heaven about me and about those journeying with me.[e] 14 And when we had all fallen to the ground I heard a voice say to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? To keep kicking against the goads makes it hard for you.'[f] 15 But I said, 'Who are you, Lord?' And the Lord said, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.[g] 16 Nevertheless, rise and stand on your feet.[h] For to this end I have made myself visible to you, in order to choose you as an attendant and a witness[i] both of things you have seen and things I shall make you see respecting me; 17 while I deliver you from [this] people and from the nations, to whom I am sending you,[j] 18 to open their eyes,[k] to turn them from darkness[l] to light[m] and from the authority of Satan[n] to God, in order for them to receive forgiveness of sins[o] and an inheritance[p] among those sanctified[q] by [their] faith in me.'

19 "Wherefore, King A·grip′pa, I did not become disobedient to the heavenly sight,[r] 20 but both to those in Damascus[a] first and to those in Jerusalem,[b] and over all the country of Ju·de′a, and to the nations[c] I went bringing the message that they should repent and turn to God by doing works that befit repentance.[d] 21 On account of these things Jews seized me in the temple and attempted to slay me.[e] 22 However, because I have obtained the help[f] that is from God I continue to this day bearing witness to both small and great, but saying nothing except things the Prophets[g] as well as Moses[h] stated were going to take place, 23 that the Christ was to suffer[i] and, as the first to be resurrected[j] from the dead, he was going to publish light[k] both to this people and to the nations."[l]

24 Now as he was saying these things in his defense, Festus said in a loud voice: "You are going mad,[m] Paul! Great learning is driving you into madness!" 25 But Paul said: "I am not going mad, Your Excellency Festus, but I am uttering sayings of truth and of soundness of mind. 26 In reality, the king to whom I am speaking with freeness of speech well knows about these things; for I am persuaded that not one of these things escapes his notice, for this thing has not been done in a corner.[n] 27 Do you, King A·grip′pa, believe the Prophets? I know you believe."[o] 28 But A·grip′pa said to Paul: "In a short time you would persuade me to become a Christian." 29 At this Paul said: "I could wish to God that whether in a short time or in a long time not only you but also all those who hear me today would become men such as I also am, with the exception of these bonds."

30 And the king rose and so did the governor and Ber·ni′ce and the men seated with them. 31 But as they withdrew they began talking with one another, saying: "This man practices nothing deserving death[a] or bonds." 32 Moreover, A·grip′pa said to Festus: "This man could have been released if he had not appealed[b] to Caesar."

27 Now as it was decided for us to sail away to Italy,[c] they proceeded to hand both Paul and certain other prisoners over to an army officer named Julius of the band of Au·gus′tus. 2 Going aboard a boat from Ad·ra·myt′ti·um that was about to sail to places along the coast of the [district of] Asia, we set sail, there being with us Ar·is·tar′chus[d] a Mac·e·do′ni·an from Thes·sa·lo·ni′ca. 3 And the next day we landed at Si′don, and Julius treated Paul with human kindness[e] and permitted him to go to his friends and enjoy [their] care.[f]

4 And putting out to sea from there we sailed under the [shelter of] Cy′prus, because the winds were contrary; 5 and we navigated through the open sea along Ci·li′cia and Pam·phyl′i·a and put into port at My′ra in Ly′ci·a. 6 But there the army officer found a boat from Alexandria[g] that was sailing for Italy, and he made us board it. 7 Then, after sailing on slowly quite a number of days and coming to Cni′dus with difficulty, because the wind did not let us get on, we sailed under the [shelter of] Crete at Sal·mo′ne, 8 and coasting along it with difficulty we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near which was the city La·se′a.

9 As considerable time had passed and by now it was hazardous to navigate because even the fast [of atonement[h] day] had already passed by, Paul made a recommendation, 10 saying to them: "Men, I perceive that navigation is going to be with damage and great loss not only of the cargo and the boat but also of our souls."[a] 11 However, the army officer went heeding the pilot and the shipowner rather than the things said by Paul. 12 Now as the harbor was inconvenient for wintering, the majority advised setting sail from there, to see if they could somehow make it to Phoenix to winter, a harbor of Crete that opens toward the northeast and toward the southeast.

13 Moreover, when the south wind blew softly, they thought they had as good as realized their purpose, and they lifted anchor and began coasting inshore along Crete. 14 After no great while, however, a tempestuous wind[b] called Eu·ro·aq′ui·lo rushed down upon it. 15 As the boat was violently seized and was not able to keep its head against the wind, we gave way and were borne along. 16 Now we ran under [the shelter of] a certain small island called Cau′da, and yet we were hardly able to get possession of the skiff[c] at the stern. 17 But after hoisting it aboard they began using helps to undergird the boat; and being in fear of running aground on the Syr′tis, they lowered the gear and thus were driven along. 18 Yet because we were being violently tossed with the tempest, the following [day] they began to lighten[d] the ship; 19 and the third [day], with their own hands, they threw away the tackling of the boat.

20 When, now, neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no little tempest[e] was lying upon us, all hope of our being saved finally began to be cut off. 21 And when there had been a long abstinence from food, then Paul stood up in the midst of them[f] and said: "Men, you certainly ought to have taken my advice and not have put out to sea from Crete and have sustained this damage and loss.[a] 22 Still, now I recommend to you to be of good cheer, for not a soul of YOU will be lost, only the boat will. 23 For this night there stood near me an angel[b] of the God to whom I belong and to whom I render sacred service,[c] 24 saying, 'Have no fear, Paul. You must stand before Caesar,[d] and, look! God has freely given you all those sailing with you.' 25 Therefore be of good cheer, men; for I believe God[e] that it will be exactly as it has been told me. 26 However, we must be cast ashore on a certain island."[f]

27 Now as the fourteenth night fell and we were being tossed to and fro on the [sea of] A'dri·a, at midnight the sailors began to suspect they were drawing near to some land. 28 And they sounded the depth and found it twenty fathoms; so they proceeded a short distance and again made a sounding and found it fifteen fathoms. 29 And because of fearing we might be cast somewhere upon the rocks, they cast out four anchors from the stern and began wishing for it to become day. 30 But when the sailors began seeking to escape from the boat and lowered the skiff into the sea under the pretense of intending to let down anchors from the prow, 31 Paul said to the army officer and the soldiers: "Unless these men remain in the boat, YOU cannot be saved."[g] 32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the skiff[h] and let it fall off.

33 Now close to the approach of day Paul began to encourage one and all to take some food, saying: "Today is the fourteenth day YOU have been on the watch and YOU are continuing without food, having taken nothing for yourselves. 34 Therefore I encourage YOU to take some food, for this is in the interest of YOUR safety; for not a hair[a] of the head of one of YOU will perish." 35 After he said this, he also took a loaf, gave thanks[b] to God before them all and broke it and started eating. 36 So they all became cheerful and themselves began taking some food. 37 Now, all together, we souls in the boat were two hundred and seventy-six. 38 When they had been satisfied with food, they proceeded to lighten[c] the boat by throwing the wheat overboard into the sea.

39 Finally when it became day, they could not recognize the land but they were observing a certain bay with a beach, and on this they were determined, if they could, to beach[d] the boat. 40 So, cutting away the anchors, they let them fall into the sea, at the same time loosing the lashings of the rudder oars and, after hoisting the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. 41 When they lighted upon a shoal washed on each side by the sea, they ran the ship aground and the prow got stuck and stayed immovable, but the stern began to be violently broken to pieces.[e] 42 At this it became the determination of the soldiers to kill the prisoners, that no one might swim away and escape. 43 But the army officer desired to bring Paul safely through and restrained them from their purpose. And he commanded those able to swim to cast themselves into the sea and make it to land first, 44 and the rest to do so, some upon planks and some upon certain things from the boat. And thus it came about that all were brought safely to land.[f]

28 And when we had made it to safety, then we learned that the island was called Malta.[g] 2 And the foreign-speaking people showed us extraordinary human kindness,[h] for they kindled a fire and received all of us helpfully because of the rain that was falling and because of the cold.[a] 3 But when Paul collected a certain bundle of sticks and laid it upon the fire, a viper came out due to the heat and fastened itself on his hand. 4 When the foreign-speaking people caught sight of the venomous creature hanging from his hand, they began saying to one another: "Surely this man is a murderer, and although he made it to safety from the sea, vindictive justice did not permit him to keep on living." 5 However, he shook the venomous creature off into the fire and suffered no harm.[b] 6 But they were expecting he was going to swell up with inflammation or suddenly drop dead. After they waited for a long while and beheld nothing hurtful happen to him, they changed their mind and began saying he was a god.[c]

7 Now in the neighborhood of that place the principal man of the island, named Pub'li·us, had lands; and he received us hospitably and entertained us benevolently three days. 8 But it happened that the father of Pub'li·us was lying down distressed with fever and dysentery, and Paul went in to him and prayed, laid his hands[d] upon him and healed him.[e] 9 After this occurred, the rest of the people on the island who had sicknesses also began to come to him and be cured.[f] 10 And they also honored us with many gifts and, when we were setting sail, they loaded us with things for our needs.

11 Three months later we set sail in a boat from Alexandria[g] that had wintered in the island and with the figurehead "Sons of Zeus." 12 And putting into port at Syracuse we remained three days, 13 from which place we went around and arrived at Rhe'gi·um. And a day later a south wind sprang up and we made it into Pu·te'o·li on the second day. 14 Here we found brothers and were entreated to remain with them seven days; and in this way we came toward Rome. 15 And from there the brothers, when they heard the news about us, came to meet us as far as the Marketplace of Ap'pi·us and Three Taverns and, upon catching sight of them, Paul thanked God and took courage.[a] 16 When, finally, we entered into Rome, Paul was permitted[b] to stay by himself with the soldier guarding him.

17 However, three days later he called together those who were the principal men of the Jews. When they had assembled, he proceeded to say to them: "Men, brothers, although I had done nothing contrary to the people or the customs of our forefathers,[c] I was delivered over as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.[d] 18 And these, after making an examination,[e] were desirous of releasing me,[f] as there was no cause for death[g] in me. 19 But when the Jews kept speaking against it, I was compelled to appeal[h] to Caesar, but not as though I had anything of which to accuse my nation. 20 Really on this account I entreated to see and speak to YOU, for because of the hope[i] of Israel this chain I have around me."[j] 21 They said to him: "Neither have we received letters concerning you from Ju·de'a, nor has anyone of the brothers that has arrived reported or spoken anything wicked about you. 22 But we think it proper to hear from you what your thoughts are, for truly as regards this sect[k] it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against."[l]

23 They now arranged for a day with him, and they came in greater numbers to him in his lodging place. And he explained the matter to them by bearing thorough witness concerning the kingdom of God[a] and by using persuasion with them concerning Jesus from both the law of Moses[b] and the Prophets,[c] from morning till evening. 24 And some began to believe[d] the things said; others would not believe.[e] 25 So, because they were at disagreement with one another, they began to depart, while Paul made this one comment:

"The holy spirit aptly spoke through Isaiah the prophet to YOUR forefathers, 26 saying, 'Go to this people and say: "By hearing, YOU will hear but by no means understand; and, looking, YOU will look but by no means see.[f] 27 For the heart of this people has grown unreceptive, and with their ears they have heard without response, and they have shut their eyes; that they should never see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and turn back, and I should heal them."'[a] 28 Therefore let it be known to YOU that this, the means by which God saves, has been sent out to the nations;[b] they will certainly listen to it."[c] 29 ——

30 So he remained for an entire two years in his own hired house,[d] and he would kindly receive all those who came in to him, 31 preaching the kingdom of God to them and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ with the greatest freeness of speech,[e] without hindrance.

TO THE

ROMANS

1 Paul, a slave[a] of Jesus Christ and called[b] to be an apostle,[c] separated to God's good news,[d] 2 which he promised aforetime through his prophets[e] in the holy Scriptures, 3 concerning his Son, who sprang from the seed of David[f] according to the flesh,[g] 4 but who with power[h] was declared God's Son[i] according to the spirit[j] of holiness by means of resurrection from the dead[k]—yes, Jesus Christ our Lord, 5 through whom we received undeserved kindness[l] and an apostleship[m] in order that there might be obedience of faith among all the nations[n] respecting his name, 6 among which [nations] YOU also are those called to belong to Jesus Christ— 7 to all those who are in Rome as God's beloved ones, called[a] to be holy ones:[b]

May YOU have undeserved kindness and peace[c] from God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ.[d]

8 First of all, I give thanks[e] to my God through Jesus Christ concerning all of YOU, because YOUR faith is talked about[f] throughout the whole world. 9 For God, to whom I render sacred service with my spirit in connection with the good news about his Son, is my witness[g] of how without ceasing I always make mention of YOU in my prayers,[h] 10 begging that if at all possible I may now at last be prospered in the will[i] of God so as to come to YOU. 11 For I am longing to see YOU,[a] that I may impart some spiritual gift[b] to YOU in order for YOU to be made firm; 12 or, rather, that there may be an interchange of encouragement[c] among YOU, by each one through the other's faith,[d] both YOURS and mine.

13 But I do not want YOU to fail to know, brothers,[e] that I many times purposed to come to YOU,[f] but I have been hindered until now, in order that I might acquire some fruitage[g] also among YOU even as among the rest of the nations. 14 Both to Greeks and to Barbarians, both to wise[h] and to senseless ones I am a debtor: 15 so there is eagerness on my part to declare the good news[i] also to YOU there in Rome.[j] 16 For I am not ashamed[k] of the good news; it is, in fact, God's power[l] for salvation to everyone having faith,[m] to the Jew first[n] and also to the Greek;[o] 17 for in it God's righteousness[p] is being revealed by reason of faith[q] and toward faith, just as it is written: "But the righteous one—by means of faith he will live."[r]

18 For God's wrath[s] is being revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness[t] of men who are suppressing the truth[u] in an unrighteous way,[v] 19 because what may be known about God is manifest among them,[w] for God made it manifest to them.[x] 20 For his invisible[y] [qualities] are clearly seen from the world's creation onward,[z] because they are perceived by the things made,[a] even his eternal power[b] and Godship,[c] so that they are inexcusable;[d] 21 because, although they knew God, they did not glorify him as God nor did they thank him,[e] but they became empty-headed[f] in their reasonings and their unintelligent heart became darkened.[g] 22 Although asserting they were wise, they became foolish[a] 23 and turned the glory[b] of the incorruptible God into something like the image[c] of corruptible man and of birds and four-footed creatures and creeping things.[d]

24 Therefore God, in keeping with the desires of their hearts, gave them up to uncleanness,[e] that their bodies[f] might be dishonored among them,[g] 25 even those who exchanged the truth[h] of God for the lie[i] and venerated and rendered sacred service to the creation rather than the One who created, who is blessed forever. Amen. 26 That is why God gave them up to disgraceful sexual appetites,[j] for both their females changed the natural use of themselves into one contrary to nature;[k] 27 and likewise even the males left the natural use of the female[l] and became violently inflamed in their lust toward one another, males with males,[m] working what is obscene[n] and receiving in themselves the full recompense,[o] which was due for their error.[p]

28 And just as they did not approve of holding God in accurate knowledge,[q] God gave them up to a disapproved mental state,[r] to do the things not fitting,[s] 29 filled as they were with all unrighteousness,[t] wickedness,[u] covetousness,[v] badness,[w] being full of envy,[x] murder,[y] strife,[z] deceit,[a] malicious disposition,[b] being whisperers,[c] 30 backbiters,[d] haters of God, insolent,[e] haughty,[f] self-assuming,[g] inventors of injurious things,[h] disobedient to parents,[i] 31 without understanding,[j] false to agreements,[a] having no natural affection,[b] merciless.[c] 32 Although these know full well the righteous decree of God,[d] that those practicing such things are deserving of death,[e] they not only keep on doing them but also consent[f] with those practicing them.

2 Therefore you are inexcusable, O man,[g] whoever you are, if you judge;[h] for in the thing in which you judge another, you condemn yourself, inasmuch as you that judge[i] practice the same things.[j] 2 Now we know that the judgment of God is, in accord with truth,[k] against those who practice such things.

3 But do you have this idea, O man,[l] while you judge those who practice such things and yet you do them, that you will escape the judgment of God?[m] 4 Or do you despise the riches of his kindness[n] and forbearance[o] and long-suffering,[p] because you do not know that the kindly [quality] of God is trying to lead you to repentance?[q] 5 But according to your hardness[r] and unrepentant heart[s] you are storing up wrath[t] for yourself on the day of wrath[u] and of the revealing[v] of God's righteous judgment.[w] 6 And he will render to each one according to his works:[x] 7 everlasting life to those who are seeking glory and honor and incorruptibleness[y] by endurance in work that is good; 8 however, for those who are contentious[z] and who disobey the truth[a] but obey unrighteousness there will be wrath and anger,[b] 9 tribulation and distress, upon the soul of every man who works what is injurious, of the Jew[c] first and also of the Greek;[d] 10 but glory and honor and peace for everyone who works what is good,[e] for the Jew first[f] and also for the Greek.[g] 11 For there is no partiality with God.[h]

12 For instance, all those who sinned without law will also perish without law;[a] but all those who sinned under law[b] will be judged by law.[c] 13 For the hearers of law are not the ones righteous before God, but the doers[d] of law will be declared righteous.[e] 14 For whenever people of the nations[f] that do not have law[g] do by nature the things of the law,[h] these people, although not having law, are a law to themselves. 15 They are the very ones who demonstrate the matter of the law to be written in their hearts,[i] while their conscience[j] is bearing witness with them and, between their own thoughts, they are being accused[k] or even excused. 16 This will be in the day when God through Christ Jesus judges[l] the secret[m] things of mankind,[n] according to the good news I declare.[o]

17 If, now, you are a Jew in name[p] and are resting upon law[q] and taking pride in God,[r] 18 and you know his will[s] and approve of things that are excellent because you are orally instructed out of the Law;[t] 19 and you are persuaded that you are a guide of the blind,[u] a light for those in darkness,[v] 20 a corrector of the unreasonable ones,[w] a teacher of babes,[x] and having the framework[y] of the knowledge and of the truth[z] in the Law— 21 do you, however, the one teaching someone else, not teach yourself?[a] You, the one preaching "Do not steal,"[b] do you steal?[c] 22 You, the one saying "Do not commit adultery,"[d] do you commit adultery? You, the one expressing abhorrence of the idols, do you rob[a] temples? 23 You, who take pride in law, do you by your transgressing of the Law[b] dishonor God? 24 For "the name of God is being blasphemed on account of you people among the nations";[c] just as it is written. 25 Circumcision[d] is, in fact, of benefit only if you practice law;[e] but if you are a transgressor of law, your circumcision[f] has become uncircumcision.[g] 26 If, therefore, an uncircumcised[h] person keeps the righteous requirements[i] of the Law, his uncircumcision will be counted as circumcision, will it not?[j] 27 And the uncircumcised [person] that is such by nature will, by carrying out the Law, judge you[k] who with its written code and circumcision are a transgressor of law. 28 For he is not a Jew who is one on the outside,[l] nor is circumcision that which is on the outside upon the flesh.[m] 29 But he is a Jew who is one on the inside,[n] and [his] circumcision is that of the heart[o] by spirit, and not by a written code.[p] The praise[q] of that one comes, not from men, but from God.[r]

3 What, then, is the superiority of the Jew,[s] or what is the benefit of the circumcision?[t] 2 A great deal in every way. First of all, because they were entrusted with the sacred pronouncements of God.[u] 3 What, then, [is the case]? If some did not express faith,[v] will their lack of faith perhaps make the faithfulness[w] of God without effect?[x] 4 Never may that happen! But let God be found true,[y] though every man be found a liar,[z] even as it is written: "That you might be proved righteous in your words and might win when you are being judged."[a] 5 However, if our unrighteousness brings God's righteousness[b] to the fore, what shall we say? God is not unjust[a] when he vents his wrath, is he? (I am speaking as a man[b] does.) 6 Never may that happen! How, otherwise, will God judge the world?[c]

7 Yet if by reason of my lie the truth of God[d] has been made more prominent to his glory, why am I also yet being judged as a sinner?[e] 8 And [why] not [say], just as it is falsely charged[f] to us and just as some men state that we say: "Let us do the bad things that the good things may come"?[g] The judgment[h] against those [men] is in harmony with justice.[i]

9 What then? Are we in a better position?[j] Not at all! For above we have made the charge that Jews as well as Greeks are all under sin;[k] 10 just as it is written: "There is not a righteous [man], not even one;[l] 11 there is no one that has any insight, there is no one that seeks for God.[m] 12 All [men] have deflected, all of them together have become worthless; there is no one that does kindness, there is not so much as one."[n] 13 "Their throat is an opened grave, they have used deceit with their tongues."[o] "Poison of asps is behind their lips."[p] 14 "And their mouth is full of cursing and bitter expression."[q] 15 "Their feet are speedy to shed blood."[r] 16 "Ruin and misery are in their ways,[s] 17 and they have not known the way of peace."[t] 18 "There is no fear of God before their eyes."[u]

19 Now we know that all the things the Law[v] says it addresses to those under the Law, so that every mouth may be stopped[w] and all the world may become liable[x] to God for punishment.[y] 20 Therefore by works of law no flesh will be declared righteous[a] before him, for by law[b] is the accurate knowledge of sin.[c]

21 But now apart from law God's righteousness[d] has been made manifest, as it is borne witness[e] to by the Law[f] and the Prophets;[g] 22 yes, God's righteousness through the faith in Jesus Christ,[h] for all those having faith.[i] For there is no distinction.[j] 23 For all have sinned[k] and fall short of the glory of God,[l] 24 and it is as a free gift[m] that they are being declared righteous by his undeserved kindness[n] through the release by the ransom[o] [paid] by Christ Jesus. 25 God set him forth as an offering for propitiation[p] through faith in his blood.[q] This was in order to exhibit his own righteousness, because he was forgiving the sins[r] that occurred in the past while God was exercising forbearance;[s] 26 so as to exhibit his own righteousness[t] in this present season, that he might be righteous even when declaring righteous[u] the man that has faith in Jesus.

27 Where, then, is the boasting?[v] It is shut out. Through what law?[w] That of works?[x] No indeed, but through the law of faith.[y] 28 For we reckon that a man is declared righteous by faith apart from works of law.[z] 29 Or is he the God of the Jews only?[a] Is he not also of people of the nations?[b] Yes, of people of the nations also,[c] 30 if truly God is one,[d] who will declare circumcised[e] people righteous as a result of faith and uncircumcised[f] people righteous by means of their faith. 31 Do we, then, abolish law by means of our faith?[g] Never may that happen! On the contrary, we establish law.[h]

4 That being so, what shall we say about Abraham our forefather[i] according to the flesh? 2 If, for instance, Abraham were declared righteous as a result of works,[a] he would have ground for boasting; but not with God. 3 For what does the scripture say? "Abraham exercised faith in Jehovah, and it was counted to him as righteousness."[b] 4 Now to the man that works[c] the pay is counted, not as an undeserved kindness,[d] but as a debt.[e] 5 On the other hand, to the man that does not work but puts faith[f] in him who declares the ungodly one righteous, his faith is counted as righteousness.[g] 6 Just as David also speaks of the happiness of the man to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: 7 "Happy are those whose lawless deeds have been pardoned[h] and whose sins have been covered;[i] 8 happy is the man whose sin Jehovah will by no means take into account."[j]

9 Does this happiness, then, come upon circumcised people or also upon uncircumcised people?[k] For we say: "His faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness."[l] 10 Under what circumstances, then, was it counted? When he was in circumcision or in uncircumcision?[m] Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. 11 And he received a sign,[n] namely, circumcision, as a seal of the righteousness by the faith he had while in his uncircumcised state, that he might be the father[o] of all those having faith[p] while in uncircumcision, in order for righteousness to be counted to them; 12 and a father of circumcised offspring, not only to those who adhere to circumcision, but also to those who walk orderly in the footsteps of that faith while in the uncircumcised state which our father[q] Abraham had.

13 For it was not through law that Abraham or his seed had the promise[a] that he should be heir of a world, but it was through the righteousness by faith.[b] 14 For if those who adhere to law are heirs, faith has been made useless and the promise has been abolished.[c] 15 In reality the Law produces wrath,[d] but where there is no law, neither is there any transgression.[e]

16 On this account it was as a result of faith, that it might be according to undeserved kindness,[f] in order for the promise[g] to be sure to all his seed,[h] not only to that which adheres to the Law, but also to that which adheres to the faith of Abraham. (He is the father[i] of us all, 17 just as it is written: "I have appointed you a father of many nations.")[j] This was in the sight of the One in whom he had faith, even of God, who makes the dead alive[k] and calls the things that are not as though they were.[l] 18 Although beyond hope, yet based on hope he had faith,[m] that he might become the father of many nations[n] in accord with what had been said: "So your seed will be."[o] 19 And, although he did not grow weak in faith, he considered his own body, now already deadened,[p] as he was about one hundred years old,[q] also the deadness of the womb of Sarah.[r] 20 But because of the promise[s] of God he did not waver in a lack of faith,[t] but became powerful by his faith,[u] giving God glory 21 and being fully convinced that what he had promised he was also able to do.[v] 22 Hence "it was counted to him as righteousness."[w]

23 That "it was counted[x] to him" was written, however, not for his sake only,[y] 24 but also for the sake of us to whom it is destined to be counted, because we believe on him who raised Jesus our Lord up from the dead.[a] 25 He was delivered up for the sake of our trespasses[b] and was raised up for the sake of declaring us righteous.[c]

5 Therefore, now that we have been declared righteous as a result of faith,[d] let us enjoy peace[e] with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 through whom also we have gained our approach[f] by faith into this undeserved kindness in which we now stand; and let us exult, based on hope[g] of the glory of God. 3 And not only that, but let us exult while in tribulations,[h] since we know that tribulation produces endurance;[i] 4 endurance, in turn, an approved condition;[j] the approved condition, in turn, hope,[k] 5 and the hope does not lead to disappointment;[l] because the love of God[m] has been poured out into our hearts[n] through the holy spirit,[o] which was given us.

6 For, indeed, Christ, while we were yet weak,[p] died for ungodly men at the appointed time.[q] 7 For hardly will anyone die for a righteous [man];[r] indeed, for the good[s] [man], perhaps, someone even dares to die.[t] 8 But God recommends his own love[u] to us in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.[v] 9 Much more, therefore, since we have been declared righteous now by his blood,[w] shall we be saved through him from wrath.[x] 10 For if, when we were enemies,[y] we became reconciled to God through the death of his Son,[z] much more, now that we have become reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.[a] 11 And not only that, but we are also exulting in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.[a]

12 That is why, just as through one man[b] sin entered into the world and death[c] through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned[d]—. 13 For until the Law sin was in the world, but sin is not charged against anyone when there is no law.[e] 14 Nevertheless, death ruled as king from Adam down to Moses,[f] even over those who had not sinned after the likeness of the transgression by Adam,[g] who bears a resemblance to him that was to come.[h]

15 But it is not with the gift as it was with the trespass. For if by one man's trespass many died, the undeserved kindness of God and his free gift with the undeserved kindness by the one man[i] Jesus Christ abounded much more to many.[j] 16 Also, it is not with the free gift[k] as it was with the way things worked through the one [man] that sinned.[l] For the judgment[m] resulted from one trespass in condemnation,[n] but the gift resulted from many trespasses in a declaration of righteousness.[o] 17 For if by the trespass of the one [man][p] death ruled as king[q] through that one, much more will those who receive the abundance of the undeserved kindness[r] and of the free gift[s] of righteousness rule as kings[t] in life through the one [person], Jesus Christ.[u]

18 So, then, as through one trespass the result to men of all sorts was condemnation,[v] likewise also through one act of justification[w] the result to men of all sorts[x] is a declaring of them righteous for life.[y] 19 For just as through the disobedience of the one man many[z] were constituted sinners, likewise also through the obedience[a] of the one [person] many[b] will be constituted righteous.[c] 20 Now the Law[d] came in beside in order that trespassing might abound.[a] But where sin[b] abounded, undeserved kindness[c] abounded still more. 21 To what end? That, just as sin ruled as king with death,[d] likewise also undeserved kindness[e] might rule as king through righteousness with everlasting life[f] in view through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 Consequently, what shall we say? Shall we continue in sin, that undeserved kindness may abound?[g] 2 Never may that happen! Seeing that we died with reference to sin,[h] how shall we keep on living any longer in it?[i] 3 Or do YOU not know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus[j] were baptized into his death?[k] 4 Therefore we were buried[l] with him through our baptism into his death, in order that, just as Christ was raised up from the dead through the glory of the Father,[m] we also should likewise walk in a newness of life.[n] 5 For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death,[o] we shall certainly also be [united with him in the likeness] of his resurrection;[p] 6 because we know that our old personality was impaled with [him],[q] that our sinful body might be made inactive,[r] that we should no longer go on being slaves to sin.[s] 7 For he who has died has been acquitted from [his] sin.[t]

8 Moreover, if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him.[u] 9 For we know that Christ, now that he has been raised up from the dead,[v] dies no more;[w] death is master over him no more. 10 For [the death] that he died, he died with reference to sin once for all time;[x] but [the life] that he lives, he lives with reference to God.[a] 11 Likewise also YOU: reckon yourselves to be dead[b] indeed with reference to sin but living[c] with reference to God by Christ Jesus.

12 Therefore do not let sin continue to rule as king[d] in YOUR mortal bodies that YOU should obey their desires.[e] 13 Neither go on presenting YOUR members to sin[f] as weapons of unrighteousness,[g] but present yourselves to God as those alive[h] from the dead, also YOUR members to God as weapons[i] of righteousness. 14 For sin must not be master over YOU, seeing that YOU are not under law[j] but under undeserved kindness.[k]

15 What follows? Shall we commit a sin because we are not under law[l] but under undeserved kindness?[m] Never may that happen! 16 Do YOU not know that if YOU keep presenting yourselves to anyone as slaves to obey him, YOU are slaves of him because YOU obey him,[n] either of sin[o] with death in view[p] or of obedience[q] with righteousness[r] in view? 17 But thanks to God that YOU were the slaves of sin but YOU became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching to which YOU were handed over.[s] 18 Yes, since YOU were set free[t] from sin, YOU became slaves[u] to righteousness.[v] 19 I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of YOUR flesh:[w] for even as YOU presented YOUR members[x] as slaves to uncleanness[y] and lawlessness with lawlessness in view, so now present YOUR members as slaves to righteousness with holiness in view.[z] 20 For when YOU were slaves of sin,[a] YOU were free as to righteousness.

21 What, then, was the fruit[b] that YOU used to have at that time? Things[c] of which YOU are now ashamed. For the end of those things is death.[d] 22 However, now, because YOU were set free from sin but became slaves to God,[a] YOU are having YOUR fruit[b] in the way of holiness, and the end everlasting life.[c] 23 For the wages sin pays is death,[d] but the gift[e] God gives is everlasting life[f] by Christ Jesus our Lord.[g]

7 Can it be that YOU do not know, brothers, (for I am speaking to those who know law,) that the Law is master over a man as long as he lives?[h] 2 For instance, a married woman is bound by law to her husband while he is alive; but if her husband dies, she is discharged from the law of her husband.[i] 3 So, then, while her husband is living, she would be styled an adulteress if she became another man's.[j] But if her husband dies, she is free from his law, so that she is not an adulteress if she becomes another man's.[k]

4 So, my brothers, YOU also were made dead to the Law[l] through the body of the Christ, that YOU might become another's,[m] the one's who was raised up from the dead,[n] that we should bear fruit[o] to God. 5 For when we were in accord with the flesh,[p] the sinful passions that were excited by the Law were at work in our members that we should bring forth fruit to death.[q] 6 But now we have been discharged from the Law,[r] because we have died[s] to that by which we were being held fast, that we might be slaves[t] in a new sense by the spirit,[u] and not in the old sense by the written code.[v]

7 What, then, shall we say? Is the Law sin?[w] Never may that become so! Really I would not have come to know sin[x] if it had not been for the Law; and, for example, I would not have known covetousness[y] if the Law had not said: "You must not covet."[z] 8 But sin, receiving an inducement through the commandment,[a] worked out in me covetousness of every sort, for apart from law sin was dead.[b] 9 In fact, I was once alive apart from law;[c] but when the commandment arrived,[d] sin came to life again, but I died.[e] 10 And the commandment which was to life,[f] this I found to be to death.[g] 11 For sin, receiving an inducement through the commandment, seduced[h] me and killed me through it. 12 Wherefore, on its part, the Law is holy,[i] and the commandment is holy and righteous[j] and good.[k]

13 Did, then, what is good become death to me? Never may that happen! But sin did, that it might be shown as sin working out death for me through that which is good;[l] that sin might become far more sinful through the commandment.[m] 14 For we know that the Law is spiritual;[n] but I am fleshly, sold under sin.[o] 15 For what I am working out I do not know. For what I wish, this I do not practice; but what I hate is what I do. 16 However, if what I do not wish is what I do,[p] I agree that the Law is fine.[q] 17 But now the one working it out is no longer I, but sin that resides in me.[r] 18 For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, there dwells nothing good;[s] for ability to wish[t] is present with me, but ability to work out[u] what is fine is not [present]. 19 For the good that I wish I do not do,[v] but the bad that I do not wish is what I practice. 20 If, now, what I do not wish is what I do, the one working it out is no longer I, but the sin dwelling in me.[w]

21 I find, then, this law in my case: that when I wish to do what is right,[x] what is bad is present with me.[y] 22 I really delight[z] in the law of God according to the man[a] I am within, 23 but I behold in my members[b] another law warring[c] against the law of my mind[a] and leading me captive to sin's law[b] that is in my members. 24 Miserable man that I am! Who will rescue me from the body undergoing this death?[c] 25 Thanks to God through Jesus Christ our Lord![d] So, then, with [my] mind I myself am a slave to God's law,[e] but with [my] flesh to sin's law.[f]

8 Therefore those in union with Christ Jesus have no condemnation.[g] 2 For the law[h] of that spirit[i] which gives life[j] in union with Christ Jesus has set you free[k] from the law of sin and of death.[l] 3 For, there being an incapability on the part of the Law,[m] while it was weak[n] through the flesh, God, by sending his own Son[o] in the likeness of sinful flesh[p] and concerning sin,[q] condemned sin in the flesh, 4 that the righteous requirement of the Law might be fulfilled[r] in us who walk, not in accord with the flesh, but in accord with the spirit.[s] 5 For those who are in accord with the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh,[t] but those in accord with the spirit on the things of the spirit.[u] 6 For the minding of the flesh means death,[v] but the minding of the spirit[w] means life and peace; 7 because the minding of the flesh means enmity[x] with God, for it is not under subjection[y] to the law of God, nor, in fact, can it be. 8 So those who are in harmony with the flesh[z] cannot please God.

9 However, YOU are in harmony, not with the flesh, but with the spirit,[a] if God's spirit truly dwells in YOU.[b] But if anyone does not have Christ's spirit,[c] this one does not belong to him. 10 But if Christ is in union with YOU,[d] the body indeed is dead on account of sin, but the spirit is life[a] on account of righteousness. 11 If, now, the spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in YOU, he that raised up Christ Jesus from the dead[b] will also make YOUR mortal bodies alive[c] through his spirit that resides in YOU.

12 So, then, brothers, we are under obligation, not to the flesh to live in accord with the flesh;[d] 13 for if YOU live in accord with the flesh YOU are sure to die;[e] but if YOU put the practices of the body to death[f] by the spirit, YOU will live. 14 For all who are led by God's spirit, these are God's sons.[g] 15 For YOU did not receive a spirit of slavery causing fear[h] again, but YOU received a spirit[i] of adoption[j] as sons, by which spirit we cry out: "Abba,[k] Father!" 16 The spirit[l] itself bears witness[m] with our spirit[n] that we are God's children.[o] 17 If, then, we are children, we are also heirs: heirs indeed of God, but joint heirs[p] with Christ, provided we suffer[q] together that we may also be glorified together.[r]

18 Consequently I reckon that the sufferings[s] of the present season do not amount to anything in comparison with the glory[t] that is going to be revealed in us. 19 For the eager expectation[u] of the creation[v] is waiting for the revealing of the sons of God.[w] 20 For the creation was subjected to futility,[x] not by its own will but through him that subjected it, on the basis of hope[y] 21 that the creation[z] itself also will be set free[a] from enslavement to corruption and have the glorious freedom of the children of God. 22 For we know that all creation keeps on groaning together and being in pain together until now. 23 Not only that, but we ourselves also who have the firstfruits,[b] namely, the spirit, yes, we ourselves groan[a] within ourselves, while we are earnestly waiting for adoption as sons,[b] the release from our bodies by ransom. 24 For we were saved in [this] hope;[c] but hope that is seen is not hope, for when a man sees a thing, does he hope for it? 25 But if we hope[d] for what we do not see,[e] we keep on waiting for it with endurance.[f]

26 In like manner the spirit[g] also joins in with help for our weakness;[h] for the [problem of] what we should pray for as we need to we do not know,[i] but the spirit[j] itself pleads for us with groanings unuttered. 27 Yet he who searches the hearts[k] knows what the meaning of the spirit[l] is, because it is pleading in accord with God for holy ones.[m]

28 Now we know that God makes all his works[n] cooperate together for the good of those who love God, those who are the ones called according to his purpose;[o] 29 because those whom he gave his first recognition[p] he also foreordained[q] to be patterned[r] after the image[s] of his Son, that he might be the firstborn[t] among many brothers.[u] 30 Moreover, those whom he foreordained[v] are the ones he also called;[w] and those whom he called are the ones he also declared to be righteous.[x] Finally those whom he declared righteous are the ones he also glorified.[y]

31 What, then, shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who will be against us?[z] 32 He who did not even spare his own Son[a] but delivered him up for us all,[b] why will he not also with him kindly give us all other things?[c] 33 Who will file accusation against God's chosen ones?[a] God is the One who declares [them] righteous.[b] 34 Who is he that will condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died, yes, rather the one who was raised up from the dead, who is on the right hand[c] of God, who also pleads for us.[d]

35 Who will separate us from the love of the Christ?[e] Will tribulation or distress or persecution or hunger or nakedness or danger or sword?[f] 36 Just as it is written: "For your sake we are being put to death all day long, we have been accounted as sheep for slaughtering."[g] 37 To the contrary, in all these things we are coming off completely victorious[h] through him that loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life[i] nor angels[j] nor governments[k] nor things now here nor things to come nor powers[l] 39 nor height nor depth nor any other creation will be able to separate us from God's love that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.[m]

9 I am telling the truth[n] in Christ; I am not lying,[o] since my conscience bears witness with me in holy spirit, 2 that I have great grief and unceasing pain in my heart.[p] 3 For I could wish that I myself were separated as the cursed one from the Christ in behalf of my brothers,[q] my relatives according to the flesh,[r] 4 who, as such, are Israelites,[s] to whom belong the adoption as sons[t] and the glory[u] and the covenants[v] and the giving of the Law[w] and the sacred service[x] and the promises;[y] 5 to whom the forefathers[z] belong and from whom the Christ [sprang] according to the flesh:[a] God,[b] who is over all, [be] blessed forever. Amen.

6 However, it is not as though the word of God had failed.[c] For not all who [spring] from Israel are really "Israel."[a] 7 Neither because they are Abraham's seed are they all children,[b] but: "What will be called 'your seed' will be through Isaac."[c] 8 That is, the children in the flesh[d] are not really the children of God,[e] but the children by the promise[f] are counted as the seed. 9 For the word of promise was as follows: "At this time I will come and Sarah will have a son."[g] 10 Yet not that case alone, but also when Re·bek′ah conceived twins[h] from the one [man], Isaac our forefather: 11 for when they had not yet been born nor had practiced anything good or vile,[i] in order that the purpose of God respecting the choosing might continue dependent, not upon works, but upon the One who calls,[j] 12 it was said to her: "The older will be the slave of the younger."[k] 13 Just as it is written: "I loved Jacob, but E′sau I hated."[l]

14 What shall we say, then? Is there injustice with God?[m] Never may that become so! 15 For he says to Moses: "I will have mercy upon whomever I do have mercy, and I will show compassion to whomever I do show compassion."[n] 16 So, then, it depends, not upon the one wishing nor upon the one running, but upon God,[o] who has mercy.[p] 17 For the Scripture says to Phar′aoh: "For this very cause I have let you remain, that in connection with you I may show my power, and that my name may be declared in all the earth."[q] 18 So, then, upon whom he wishes he has mercy,[r] but whom he wishes he lets become obstinate.[s]

19 You will therefore say to me: "Why does he yet find fault? For who has withstood his express will?"[t] 20 O man,[u] who, then, really are you to be answering back to God?[v] Shall the thing molded say to him that molded it, "Why did you make me this way?"[a] 21 What? Does not the potter[b] have authority over the clay to make from the same lump one vessel for an honorable use, another for a dishonorable use?[c] 22 If, now, God, although having the will to demonstrate his wrath and to make his power known, tolerated with much long-suffering vessels of wrath made fit for destruction,[d] 23 in order that he might make known the riches[e] of his glory upon vessels[f] of mercy, which he prepared beforehand for glory,[g] 24 namely, us, whom he called not only from among Jews but also from among nations,[h] [what of it]? 25 It is as he says also in Ho·se′a: "Those not my people[i] I will call 'my people,' and her who was not beloved 'beloved';[j] 26 and in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' there they will be called 'sons of the living God.'"[k]

27 Moreover, Isaiah cries out concerning Israel: "Although the number of the sons of Israel may be as the sand of the sea,[l] it is the remnant that will be saved.[m] 28 For Jehovah will make an accounting on the earth, concluding it and cutting it short."[n] 29 Also, just as Isaiah had said aforetime: "Unless Jehovah of armies[o] had left a seed to us, we should have become just like Sod′om, and we should have been made just like Go·mor′rah."[p]

30 What shall we say, then? That people of the nations, although not pursuing righteousness, caught up with righteousness,[q] the righteousness that results from faith;[r] 31 but Israel, although pursuing a law of righteousness, did not attain to the law.[s] 32 For what reason? Because he pursued it, not by faith, but as by works.[t] They stumbled on the "stone of stumbling";[u] 33 as it is written: "Look! I am laying in Zion a stone[a] of stumbling and a rock-mass of offense,[b] but he that rests his faith on it will not come to disappointment."[c]

10 Brothers, the goodwill of my heart and my supplication to God for them are, indeed, for their salvation.[d] 2 For I bear them witness that they have a zeal[e] for God; but not according to accurate knowledge;[f] 3 for, because of not knowing the righteousness of God[g] but seeking to establish their own,[h] they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God.[i] 4 For Christ is the end of the Law,[j] so that everyone exercising faith may have righteousness.[k]

5 For Moses writes that the man that has done the righteousness of the Law will live by it.[l] 6 But the righteousness resulting from faith speaks in this manner: "Do not say in your heart,[m] 'Who will ascend into heaven?'[n] that is, to bring Christ[o] down; 7 or, 'Who will descend into the abyss?'[p] that is, to bring Christ up from the dead."[q] 8 But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your own mouth and in your own heart";[r] that is, the "word"[s] of faith, which we are preaching.[t] 9 For if you publicly declare that 'word in your own mouth,'[u] that Jesus is Lord,[v] and exercise faith in your heart that God raised him up from the dead,[w] you will be saved.[x] 10 For with the heart[y] one exercises faith for righteousness, but with the mouth one makes public declaration[z] for salvation.

11 For the Scripture says: "None that rests[a] his faith on him will be disappointed."[b] 12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek,[c] for there is the same Lord over all, who is rich[d] to all those calling upon him. 13 For "everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah will be saved."[a] 14 However, how will they call on him in whom they have not put faith?[b] How, in turn, will they put faith in him of whom they have not heard? How, in turn, will they hear without someone to preach?[c] 15 How, in turn, will they preach unless they have been sent forth?[d] Just as it is written: "How comely are the feet of those who declare good news of good things!"[e]

16 Nevertheless, they did not all obey the good news.[f] For Isaiah says: "Jehovah, who put faith in the thing heard from us?"[g] 17 So faith follows the thing heard.[h] In turn the thing heard is through the word about Christ.[i] 18 Nevertheless I ask, They did not fail to hear, did they? Why, in fact, "into all the earth their sound went out,[j] and to the extremities of the inhabited earth their utterances."[k] 19 Nevertheless I ask, Israel did not fail to know, did they?[l] First Moses says: "I will incite YOU people to jealousy through that which is not a nation; I will incite YOU to violent anger through a stupid nation."[m] 20 But Isaiah becomes very bold and says: "I was found by those who were not seeking me;[n] I became manifest to those who were not asking for me."[o] 21 But as respects Israel he says: "All day long I have spread out my hands toward a people that is disobedient[p] and talks back."[q]

11 I ask, then, God did not reject his people, did he?[r] Never may that happen! For I also am an Israelite,[s] of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.[t] 2 God did not reject his people, whom he first recognized.[u] Why, do YOU not know what the Scripture says in connection with E·li′jah, as he pleads with God against Israel?[a] 3 "Jehovah, they have killed your prophets, they have dug up your altars, and I alone am left, and they are looking for my soul."[b] 4 Yet, what does the divine pronouncement[c] say to him? "I have left seven thousand men over for myself, [men] who have not bent the knee to Ba′al."[d] 5 In this way, therefore, at the present season also a remnant[e] has turned up according to a choosing[f] due to undeserved kindness. 6 Now if it is by undeserved kindness,[g] it is no longer due to works;[h] otherwise, the undeserved kindness no longer proves to be undeserved kindness.[i]

7 What, then? The very thing Israel is earnestly seeking he did not obtain,[j] but the ones chosen[k] obtained it. The rest had their sensibilities blunted;[l] 8 just as it is written: "God has given them a spirit of deep sleep,[m] eyes so as not to see and ears so as not to hear, down to this very day."[n] 9 Also, David says: "Let their table become for them a snare and a trap and a stumbling block and a retribution;[o] 10 let their eyes become darkened so as not to see, and always bow down their back."[p]

11 Therefore I ask, Did they stumble so that they fell[q] completely? Never may that happen! But by their false step[r] there is salvation to people of the nations,[s] to incite them to jealousy.[t] 12 Now if their false step means riches to the world, and their decrease means riches to people of the nations,[u] how much more will the full number[v] of them mean it!

13 Now I speak to YOU who are people of the nations. Forasmuch as I am, in reality, an apostle[w] to the nations,[x] I glorify[y] my ministry,[z] 14 if I may by any means incite [those who are] my own flesh to jealousy and save[a] some from among them.[b] 15 For if the casting of them away[c] means reconciliation[d] for the world, what will the receiving of them mean but life from the dead? 16 Further, if the [part taken as] firstfruits[e] is holy, the lump is also; and if the root is holy,[f] the branches are also.

17 However, if some of the branches were broken off but you, although being a wild olive, were grafted in among them[g] and became a sharer of the olive's[h] root of fatness,[i] 18 do not be exulting over the branches. If, though, you are exulting over them,[j] it is not you that bear the root,[k] but the root [bears] you.[l] 19 You will say, then: "Branches were broken off[m] that I might be grafted in."[n] 20 All right! For [their] lack of faith[o] they were broken off, but you are standing by faith.[p] Quit having lofty ideas,[q] but be in fear.[r] 21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you.[s] 22 See, therefore, God's kindness[t] and severity.[u] Toward those who fell there is severity,[v] but toward you there is God's kindness, provided you remain[w] in his kindness; otherwise, you also will be lopped off.[x] 23 They also, if they do not remain in their lack of faith, will be grafted in;[y] for God is able to graft them in again. 24 For if you were cut out of the olive tree that is wild by nature and were grafted[z] contrary to nature into the garden olive tree, how much rather will these who are natural be grafted into their own olive tree![a]

25 For I do not want YOU, brothers, to be ignorant of this sacred secret,[b] in order for YOU not to be discreet in your own eyes: that a dulling of sensibilities[c] has happened in part to Israel until the full number[d] of people of the nations has come in,[e] 26 and in this manner all Israel[a] will be saved. Just as it is written: "The deliverer will come out of Zion[b] and turn away ungodly practices from Jacob.[c] 27 And this is the covenant on my part with them, when I take their sins away."[d] 28 True, with reference to the good news they are enemies for YOUR sakes,[e] but with reference to [God's] choosing they are beloved for the sake of their forefathers.[f] 29 For the gifts and the calling of God are not things he will regret.[g] 30 For just as YOU were once disobedient[h] to God but have now been shown mercy[i] because of their disobedience,[j] 31 so also these now have been disobedient with mercy resulting to YOU,[k] that they themselves also may now be shown mercy. 32 For God has shut them all up together in disobedience,[l] that he might show all of them mercy.[m]

33 O the depth of God's riches[n] and wisdom[o] and knowledge![p] How unsearchable his judgments[q] [are] and past tracing out his ways [are]! 34 For "who has come to know Jehovah's mind,[r] or who has become his counselor?"[s] 35 Or, "Who has first given to him, so that it must be repaid to him?"[t] 36 Because from him and by him and for him are all things.[u] To him be the glory forever.[v] Amen.

12 Consequently I entreat YOU by the compassions of God, brothers, to present YOUR bodies[w] a sacrifice[x] living,[y] holy,[z] acceptable to God,[a] a sacred service[b] with YOUR power of reason.[c] 2 And quit being fashioned[d] after this system of things, but be transformed by making YOUR mind over,[e] that YOU may prove to yourselves[f] the good and acceptable and perfect will[a] of God.

3 For through the undeserved kindness given to me I tell everyone there among YOU not to think more of himself than it is necessary to think;[b] but to think so as to have a sound mind,[c] each one as God has distributed to him a measure[d] of faith.[e] 4 For just as we have in one body many members,[f] but the members do not all have the same function, 5 so we, although many, are one body[g] in union with Christ, but members belonging individually to one another.[h] 6 Since, then, we have gifts differing[i] according to the undeserved kindness[j] given to us, whether prophecy, [let us prophesy] according to the faith proportioned [to us]; 7 or a ministry, [let us be] at this ministry;[k] or he that teaches,[l] [let him be] at his teaching;[m] 8 or he that exhorts, [let him be] at his exhortation;[n] he that distributes, [let him do it] with liberality;[o] he that presides,[p] [let him do it] in real earnest; he that shows mercy,[q] [let him do it] with cheerfulness.

9 Let [YOUR] love[r] be without hypocrisy.[s] Abhor what is wicked,[t] cling to what is good.[u] 10 In brotherly love[v] have tender affection for one another. In showing honor[w] to one another take the lead. 11 Do not loiter at YOUR business.[x] Be aglow with the spirit.[y] Slave for Jehovah.[z] 12 Rejoice in the hope.[a] Endure under tribulation.[b] Persevere in prayer.[c] 13 Share with the holy ones according to their needs.[d] Follow the course of hospitality.[e] 14 Keep on blessing those who persecute;[f] be blessing[g] and do not be cursing.[h] 15 Rejoice with people who rejoice;[i] weep with people who weep. 16 Be minded the same way toward others as to yourselves;[j] do not be minding lofty things,[k] but be led along with the lowly things.[a] Do not become discreet in YOUR own eyes.[b]

17 Return evil for evil[c] to no one. Provide fine things in the sight of all men. 18 If possible, as far as it depends upon YOU, be peaceable[d] with all men. 19 Do not avenge[e] yourselves, beloved, but yield place to the wrath;[f] for it is written: "Vengeance is mine; I will repay, says Jehovah."[g] 20 But, "if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink;[h] for by doing this you will heap fiery coals upon his head."[i] 21 Do not let yourself be conquered by the evil, but keep conquering the evil with the good.[j]

13 Let every soul be in subjection[k] to the superior authorities,[l] for there is no authority[m] except by God;[n] the existing authorities stand placed in their relative[o] positions by God.[p] 2 Therefore he who opposes the authority has taken a stand against the arrangement of God; those who have taken a stand against it will receive judgment to themselves.[q] 3 For those ruling are an object of fear, not to the good deed, but to the bad.[r] Do you, then, want to have no fear of the authority? Keep doing good,[s] and you will have praise from it; 4 for it is God's minister to you for your good.[t] But if you are doing what is bad,[u] be in fear: for it is not without purpose that it bears the sword; for it is God's minister, an avenger[v] to express wrath upon the one practicing what is bad.

5 There is therefore compelling reason for YOU people to be in subjection, not only on account of that wrath but also on account of [YOUR] conscience.[a] 6 For that is why YOU are also paying taxes; for they are God's public servants[b] constantly serving this very purpose. 7 Render to all their dues, to him who [calls for] the tax, the tax;[c] to him who [calls for] the tribute, the tribute; to him who [calls for] fear, such fear;[d] to him who [calls for] honor, such honor.[e]

8 Do not YOU people be owing anybody a single thing,[f] except to love one another;[g] for he that loves his fellowman has fulfilled [the] law.[h] 9 For the [law code], "You must not commit adultery,[i] You must not murder,[j] You must not steal,[k] You must not covet,"[l] and whatever other commandment there is, is summed up in this word, namely, "You must love your neighbor as yourself."[m] 10 Love[n] does not work evil to one's neighbor;[o] therefore love is the law's[p] fulfillment.

11 [Do] this, too, because YOU people know the season, that it is already the hour for YOU to awake[q] from sleep, for now our salvation is nearer than at the time when we became believers.[r] 12 The night is well along; the day[s] has drawn near. Let us therefore put off the works belonging to darkness[t] and let us put on the weapons[u] of the light. 13 As in the daytime let us walk decently,[v] not in revelries and drunken bouts,[w] not in illicit intercourse and loose conduct,[x] not in strife[y] and jealousy. 14 But put on the Lord Jesus Christ,[z] and do not be planning ahead for the desires of the flesh.[a]

14 Welcome the [man] having weaknesses[b] in [his] faith, but not to make decisions on inward[c] questionings. 2 One [man] has faith to eat everything,[d] but the [man] who is weak eats vegetables. 3 Let the one eating not look down on the one not eating,[e] and let the one not eating not judge the one eating, for God has welcomed that one. 4 Who are you to judge the house servant of another?[a] To his own master he stands or falls.[b] Indeed, he will be made to stand, for Jehovah can make him stand.[c]

5 One [man] judges one day as above another;[d] another [man] judges one day as all others;[e] let each [man] be fully convinced in his own mind. 6 He who observes the day observes it to Jehovah. Also, he who eats, eats to Jehovah,[f] for he gives thanks to God;[g] and he who does not eat does not eat to Jehovah,[h] and yet gives thanks to God.[i] 7 None of us, in fact, lives with regard to himself only,[j] and no one dies with regard to himself only; 8 for both if we live, we live to Jehovah,[k] and if we die, we die to Jehovah.[l] Therefore both if we live and if we die, we belong to Jehovah.[m] 9 For to this end Christ died and came to life again,[n] that he might be Lord over both the dead[o] and the living.[p]

10 But why do you judge your brother?[q] Or why do you also look down on your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment[r] seat of God; 11 for it is written: "'As I live,' says Jehovah,[s] 'to me every knee will bend down, and every tongue will make open acknowledgment to God.'"[t] 12 So, then, each of us will render an account for himself to God.[u]

13 Therefore let us not be judging[v] one another any longer, but rather make this YOUR decision,[w] not to put before a brother[x] a stumbling block[y] or a cause for tripping. 14 I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is defiled in itself;[z] only where a man considers something to be defiled, to him it is defiled.[a] 15 For if because of food your brother is being grieved, you are no longer walking in accord with love.[b] Do not by your food ruin that one for whom Christ died.[c] 16 Do not, therefore, let the good YOU people do be spoken of with injury to YOU. 17 For the kingdom of God[d] does not mean eating and drinking,[e] but [means] righteousness[f] and peace[g] and joy[h] with holy spirit. 18 For he who in this regard slaves for Christ is acceptable to God and has approval with men.[i]

19 So, then, let us pursue the things making for peace[j] and the things that are upbuilding to one another.[k] 20 Stop tearing down the work of God just for the sake of food.[l] True, all things are clean, but it is injurious to the man who with an occasion for stumbling eats.[m] 21 It is well not to eat flesh or to drink wine or do anything over which your brother stumbles.[n] 22 The faith that you have, have it in accord with yourself in the sight of God.[o] Happy is the man that does not put himself on judgment by what he approves. 23 But if he has doubts, he is already condemned if he eats,[p] because [he does] not [eat] out of faith. Indeed, everything that is not out of faith is sin.[q]

15 We, though, who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of those not strong,[r] and not to be pleasing ourselves.[s] 2 Let each of us please [his] neighbor in what is good for [his] upbuilding.[t] 3 For even the Christ did not please himself;[u] but just as it is written: "The reproaches of those who were reproaching you have fallen upon me."[v] 4 For all the things that were written aforetime were written[w] for our instruction,[x] that through our endurance[y] and through the comfort[z] from the Scriptures we might have hope.[a] 5 Now may the God who supplies endurance and comfort grant YOU to have among yourselves the same mental attitude[a] that Christ Jesus had, 6 that with one accord[b] YOU may with one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Therefore welcome one another,[c] just as the Christ also welcomed us,[d] with glory to God in view. 8 For I say that Christ actually became a minister[e] of those who are circumcised[f] in behalf of God's truthfulness,[g] so as to verify the promises[h] He made to their forefathers, 9 and that the nations[i] might glorify God for his mercy.[j] Just as it is written: "That is why I will openly acknowledge you among the nations and to your name I will make melody."[k] 10 And again he says: "Be glad, YOU nations, with his people."[l] 11 And again: "Praise Jehovah, all YOU nations, and let all the peoples praise him."[m] 12 And again Isaiah says: "There will be the root of Jes'se,[n] and there will be one arising to rule nations;[o] on him nations will rest their hope."[p] 13 May the God who gives hope fill YOU with all joy and peace by YOUR believing, that YOU may abound in hope with power of holy spirit.[q]

14 Now I myself also am persuaded about YOU, my brothers, that YOU yourselves are also full of goodness, as YOU have been filled with all knowledge,[r] and that YOU can also admonish one another.[s] 15 However, I am writing YOU the more outspokenly on some points, as if reminding[t] YOU again, because of the undeserved kindness given to me from God[u] 16 for me to be a public servant of Christ Jesus to the nations,[v] engaging in the holy work of the good news[w] of God, in order that the offering,[x] namely,

these nations, might prove to be acceptable,[a] it being sanctified with holy spirit.[b]

17 Therefore I have cause for exulting in Christ Jesus[c] when it comes to things pertaining to God.[d] 18 For I will not venture to tell one thing if it is not of those things which Christ worked through me[e] for the nations to be obedient,[f] by [my] word[g] and deed, 19 with the power of signs and portents,[h] with the power of holy spirit; so that from Jerusalem and in a circuit[i] as far as Il·lyr'i·cum I have thoroughly preached the good news about the Christ.[j] 20 In this way, indeed, I made it my aim not to declare the good news where Christ had already been named, in order that I might not be building on another man's foundation;[k] 21 but, just as it is written: "Those to whom no announcement has been made about him will see, and those who have not heard will understand."[l]

22 Therefore also I was many times hindered from getting to YOU.[m] 23 But now that I no longer have [untouched] territory in these regions, and for some years having had a longing to get to YOU[n] 24 whenever I am on my way to Spain,[o] I hope, above all, when I am on the journey there, to get a look at YOU and to be escorted[p] partway there by YOU after I have first in some measure been satisfied with your company. 25 But now I am about to journey to Jerusalem to minister to the holy ones.[q] 26 For those in Mac·e·do'ni·a and A·cha'ia[r] have been pleased to share up their things by a contribution[s] to the poor of the holy ones in Jerusalem. 27 True, they have been pleased to do so, and yet they were debtors to them; for if the nations have shared in their spiritual things,[t] they also owe it to minister publicly to these with things for the fleshly body.[u] 28 Hence after I have finished with this and have got this fruit[a] securely to them, I shall depart by way of YOU for Spain.[b] 29 Moreover, I know that when I do come to YOU I shall come with a full measure of blessing from Christ.[c]

30 Now I exhort YOU, brothers, through our Lord Jesus Christ and through the love of the spirit,[d] that YOU exert yourselves with me in prayers to God for me,[e] 31 that I may be delivered[f] from the unbelievers in Ju·de'a and that my ministry which is for Jerusalem[g] may prove to be acceptable to the holy ones,[h] 32 so that when I get to YOU with joy by God's will I shall be refreshed[i] together with YOU. 33 May the God who gives peace be with all of YOU.[j] Amen.

16 I recommend to YOU Phoe'be our sister, who is a minister[k] of the congregation that is in Cen'chre·ae,[l] 2 that YOU may welcome[m] her in [the] Lord in a way worthy of the holy ones, and that YOU may assist her in any matter where she may need YOU,[n] for she herself also proved to be a defender of many, yes, of me myself.

3 Give my greetings to Pris'ca and Aq'ui·la[o] my fellow workers[p] in Christ Jesus, 4 who have risked their own necks[q] for my soul, to whom not only I but also all the congregations of the nations render thanks;[r] 5 and [greet] the congregation that is in their house.[s] Greet my beloved E·pae'ne·tus, who is a firstfruits[t] of Asia for Christ. 6 Greet Mary, who has performed many labors for YOU. 7 Greet An·dron'i·cus and Ju'ni·as my relatives[u] and my fellow captives,[v] who are men of note among the apostles and who have been in union[w] with Christ longer than I have.

8 Give my greetings[x] to Am·pli·a'tus my beloved in [the] Lord. 9 Greet Ur·ba'nus our fellow worker in Christ, and my beloved Sta'chys. 10 Greet[a] A·pel'les, the approved one in Christ. Greet those from the household of A·ris·tob'u·lus. 11 Greet He·ro'di·on my relative.[b] Greet those from the household of Nar·cis'sus who are in [the] Lord.[c] 12 Greet Try·phae'na and Try·pho'sa, [women] who are working hard in [the] Lord. Greet Per'sis our beloved one, for she performed many labors in [the] Lord. 13 Greet Ru'fus the chosen one in [the] Lord, and his mother and mine. 14 Greet A·syn'cri·tus, Phle'gon, Her'mes, Pat'ro·bas, Her'mas, and the brothers with them. 15 Greet Phi·lol'o·gus and Julia, Ne'reus and his sister, and O·lym'pas, and all the holy ones with them.[d] 16 Greet one another with a holy kiss.[e] All the congregations of the Christ greet YOU.

17 Now I exhort YOU, brothers, to keep your eye on those who cause divisions[f] and occasions for stumbling contrary to the teaching[g] that YOU have learned, and avoid them.[h] 18 For men of that sort are slaves, not of our Lord Christ, but of their own bellies;[i] and by smooth talk[j] and complimentary speech[k] they seduce the hearts of guileless ones. 19 For YOUR obedience has come to the notice of all.[a] I therefore rejoice over YOU. But I want YOU to be wise[b] as to what is good, but innocent[c] as to what is evil.[d] 20 For his part, the God who gives peace[e] will crush Satan[f] under YOUR feet shortly. May the undeserved kindness of our Lord Jesus be with YOU.[g]

21 Timothy my fellow worker greets YOU, and so do Lucius and Ja'son and So·sip'a·ter my relatives.[h]

22 I, Ter'tius, who have done the writing of this letter, greet YOU in [the] Lord.

23 Ga'ius,[i] my host and that of all the congregation, greets YOU. E·ras'tus the city[j] steward greets YOU, and so does Quar'tus his brother. 24 ——

25 Now to him[k] who can make YOU firm in accord with the good news I declare and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the sacred secret[l] which has been kept in silence for long-lasting times 26 but has now been made manifest[m] and has been made known through the prophetic scriptures among all the nations in accord with the command of the everlasting God to promote obedience by faith;[n] 27 to God, wise alone,[o] be the glory[p] through Jesus Christ[q] forever. THE FIRST TO THE

CORINTHIANS

1 Paul, called to be an apostle[a] of Jesus Christ through God's will,[b] and Sos'the·nes[c] our brother 2 to the congregation of God that is in Corinth,[d] to YOU who have been sanctified[e] in union with Christ Jesus, called to be holy ones,[f] together with all who everywhere are calling upon the name[g] of our Lord, Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours:[a]

3 May YOU have undeserved kindness[b] and peace[c] from God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ.[d]

4 I always thank God for YOU in view of the undeserved kindness[a] of God given to YOU in Christ Jesus;[b] 5 that in everything YOU have been enriched[c] in him, in full ability to speak and in full knowledge,[d] 6 even as the witness about the Christ[e] has been rendered firm among YOU, 7 so that YOU do not fall short in any gift[f] at all, while YOU are eagerly waiting for the revelation[g] of our Lord Jesus Christ. 8 He will also make YOU firm[h] to the end, that YOU may be open to no accusation[i] in the day[j] of our Lord Jesus Christ.[k] 9 God is faithful,[l] by whom YOU were called into a sharing[m] with his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I exhort[n] YOU, brothers, through the name[o] of our Lord Jesus Christ that YOU should all speak in agreement,[p] and that there should not be divisions[q] among YOU, but that YOU may be fitly united in the same mind and in the same line of thought.[r] 11 For the disclosure[s] was made to me about YOU, my brothers, by those of [the house of] Chlo'e, that dissensions exist among YOU. 12 What I mean is this, that each one of YOU says: "I belong to Paul," "But I to A·pol'los,"[t] "But I to Ce'phas," "But I to Christ." 13 The Christ exists divided.[u] Paul was not impaled for YOU, was he? Or were YOU baptized[v] in the name of Paul? 14 I am thankful I baptized none of YOU except Cris'pus[w] and Ga'ius,[x] 15 so that no one may say that YOU were baptized in my name. 16 Yes, I also baptized the household of Steph'a·nas.[y] As for the rest, I do not know whether I baptized anybody else. 17 For Christ dispatched me,[z] not to go baptizing, but to go declaring the good news, not with wisdom of speech,[a] that the torture stake of the Christ should not be made useless.

18 For the speech about the torture stake is foolishness[a] to those who are perishing,[b] but to us who are being saved[c] it is God's power.[d] 19 For it is written: "I will make the wisdom of the wise [men] perish,[e] and the intelligence of the intellectual[f] [men] I will shove aside."[g] 20 Where is the wise man? Where the scribe?[h] Where the debater[i] of this system of things?[j] Did not God make the wisdom of the world foolish?[k] 21 For since, in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom[l] did not get to know God,[m] God saw good through the foolishness[n] of what is preached to save those believing.

22 For both the Jews ask for signs[o] and the Greeks look for wisdom;[p] 23 but we preach Christ impaled,[q] to the Jews a cause for stumbling[r] but to the nations foolishness;[s] 24 however, to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power[t] of God and the wisdom[u] of God. 25 Because a foolish thing of God is wiser than men, and a weak thing of God is stronger than men.[v]

26 For YOU behold his calling of YOU, brothers, that not many wise[w] in a fleshly way were called,[x] not many powerful,[y] not many of noble birth; 27 but God chose the foolish things of the world,[z] that he might put the wise men to shame; and God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put the strong things to shame;[a] 28 and God chose the ignoble things of the world and the things looked down upon, the things that are not,[b] that he might bring to nothing[c] the things that are, 29 in order that no flesh might boast[d] in the sight of God. 30 But it is due to him that YOU are in union with Christ Jesus, who has become to us wisdom[a] from God, also righteousness[b] and sanctification[c] and release by ransom;[d] 31 that it may be just as it is written: "He that boasts, let him boast in Jehovah."[e]

2 And so I, when I came to YOU, brothers, did not come with an extravagance of speech[f] or of wisdom declaring the sacred secret[g] of God to YOU. 2 For I decided not to know anything among YOU except Jesus Christ,[h] and him impaled. 3 And I came to YOU in weakness and in fear and with much trembling;[i] 4 and my speech and what I preached were not with persuasive words of wisdom but with a demonstration of spirit and power,[j] 5 that YOUR faith might be, not in men's wisdom,[k] but in God's power.[l]

6 Now we speak wisdom among those who are mature,[m] but not the wisdom[n] of this system of things nor that of the rulers of this system of things,[o] who are to come to nothing.[p] 7 But we speak God's wisdom in a sacred secret,[q] the hidden wisdom, which God foreordained before the systems[r] of things for our glory. 8 This [wisdom] not one of the rulers[s] of this system of things came to know,[t] for if they had known [it] they would not have impaled[u] the glorious Lord. 9 But just as it is written: "Eye has not seen and ear has not heard, neither have there been conceived in the heart of man the things that God has prepared for those who love him."[v] 10 For it is to us God has revealed[w] them through his spirit,[x] for the spirit[y] searches into all things, even the deep[z] things of God.

11 For who among men knows the things of a man except the spirit[a] of man that is in him? So, too, no one has come to know the things of God, except the spirit[a] of God. 12 Now we received, not the spirit[b] of the world, but the spirit[c] which is from God, that we might know the things that have been kindly given us by God.[d] 13 These things we also speak, not with words taught by human wisdom,[e] but with those taught by [the] spirit,[f] as we combine spiritual [matters] with spiritual [words].[g]

14 But a physical man does not receive the things of the spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; and he cannot get to know [them],[h] because they are examined spiritually. 15 However, the spiritual[i] man examines indeed all things, but he himself is not examined[j] by any man. 16 For "who has come to know the mind of Jehovah,[k] that he may instruct him?"[l] But we do have the mind[m] of Christ.

3 And so, brothers, I was not able to speak to YOU as to spiritual men,[n] but as to fleshly men, as to babes[o] in Christ. 2 I fed YOU milk, not something to eat,[p] for YOU were not yet strong enough. In fact, neither are YOU strong enough now,[q] 3 for YOU are yet fleshly.[r] For whereas there are jealousy and strife among YOU,[s] are YOU not fleshly and are YOU not walking as men do?[t] 4 For when one says: "I belong to Paul," but another says: "I to A·pol'los,"[u] are YOU not simply men?

5 What, then, is A·pol'los?[v] Yes, what is Paul? Ministers[w] through whom YOU became believers, even as the Lord granted each one. 6 I planted,[x] A·pol'los watered,[y] but God kept making [it] grow;[z] 7 so that neither is he that plants anything[a] nor is he that waters, but God who makes [it] grow.[b] 8 Now he that plants and he that waters are one,[c] but each [person] will receive his own reward according to his own labor.[d] 9 For we are God's fellow workers.[e] YOU people are God's field under cultivation,[f] God's building.[g]

10 According to the undeserved kindness[h] of God that was given to me, as a wise director of works I laid a foundation,[i] but someone else is building on it. But let each one keep watching how he is building on it.[j] 11 For no man can lay any other foundation[k] than what is laid, which is Jesus Christ.[l] 12 Now if anyone builds on the foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood materials, hay, stubble, 13 each one's work will become manifest, for the day will show it up, because it will be revealed by means of fire;[m] and the fire itself will prove what sort of work each one's is. 14 If anyone's work that he has built on it remains,[n] he will receive a reward;[o] 15 if anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved;[p] yet, if so, [it will be] as through fire.[q]

16 Do YOU not know that YOU people are God's temple,[r] and that the spirit of God dwells in YOU?[s] 17 If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him;[t] for the temple of God is holy,[u] which [temple][v] YOU people are.[w]

18 Let no one be seducing himself: If anyone among YOU thinks he is wise[x] in this system of things, let him become a fool, that he may become wise.[y] 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God;[z] for it is written: "He catches the wise in their own cunning."[a] 20 And again: "Jehovah knows that the reasonings of the wise men are futile."[b] 21 Hence let no one be boasting in men; for all things belong to YOU,[a] 22 whether Paul or A·pol'los[b] or Ce'phas or the world or life or death or things now here or things to come,[c] all things belong to YOU; 23 in turn YOU belong to Christ;[d] Christ, in turn, belongs to God.[e]

4 Let a man so appraise us as being subordinates[f] of Christ and stewards[g] of sacred secrets[h] of God. 2 Besides, in this case, what is looked for in stewards[i] is for a man to be found faithful.[j] 3 Now to me it is a very trivial matter that I should be examined by YOU or by a human tribunal.[k] Even I do not examine myself. 4 For I am not conscious[l] of anything against myself. Yet by this I am not proved righteous, but he that examines me is Jehovah.[m] 5 Hence do not judge[n] anything before the due time, until the Lord comes,[o] who will both bring the secret things of darkness to light[p] and make the counsels of the hearts manifest,[q] and then each one will have his praise come to him from God.[r]

6 Now, brothers, these things I have transferred so as to apply to myself and A·pol'los[s] for YOUR good, that in our case YOU may learn the [rule]: "Do not go beyond the things that are written,"[t] in order that YOU may not be puffed up[u] individually in favor of the one against the other.[v] 7 For who makes you to differ[w] from another? Indeed, what do you have that you did not receive?[x] If, now, you did indeed receive [it],[y] why do you boast[z] as though you did not receive [it]?

8 YOU men already have YOUR fill, do YOU? YOU are rich already, are YOU?[a] YOU have begun ruling as kings[a] without us, have YOU? And I wish indeed that YOU had begun ruling as kings, that we also might rule with YOU as kings.[b] 9 For it seems to me that God has put us the apostles last on exhibition[c] as men appointed to death,[d] because we have become a theatrical spectacle[e] to the world, and to angels,[f] and to men.[g] 10 We are fools[h] because of Christ, but YOU are discreet[i] in Christ; we are weak,[j] but YOU are strong;[k] YOU are in good repute,[l] but we are in dishonor.[m] 11 Down to this very hour we continue to hunger[n] and also to thirst[o] and to be scantily clothed[p] and to be knocked[q] about and to be homeless[r] 12 and to toil,[s] working with our own hands.[t] When being reviled, we bless;[u] when being persecuted, we bear up;[v] 13 when being defamed, we entreat;[w] we have become as the refuse of the world, the offscouring of all things, until now.[x]

14 I am writing these things, not to shame YOU, but to admonish YOU as my beloved children.[y] 15 For though YOU may have ten thousand tutors[z] in Christ, [YOU] certainly [do] not [have] many fathers;[a] for in Christ Jesus I have become YOUR father through the good news.[b] 16 I entreat YOU, therefore, become imitators of me.[c] 17 That is why I am sending Timothy to YOU,[d] as he is my beloved and faithful child[e] in [the] Lord; and he will put YOU in mind of my methods in connection with Christ Jesus,[f] just as I am teaching everywhere in every congregation.

18 Some are puffed up[g] as though I were in fact not coming to YOU. 19 But I will come to YOU shortly, if Jehovah wills,[h] and I shall get to know, not the speech of those who are puffed up, but [their] power. 20 For the kingdom of God [lies] not in speech, but in power.[a] 21 What do YOU want? Shall I come to YOU with a rod,[b] or with love and mildness of spirit?[c]

5 Actually fornication[d] is reported among YOU, and such fornication as is not even among the nations, that a wife a certain [man] has of [his] father.[e] 2 And are YOU puffed up,[f] and did YOU not rather mourn,[g] in order that the man that committed this deed should be taken away from YOUR midst?[h] 3 I for one, although absent in body but present in spirit, have certainly judged already,[i] as if I were present, the man who has worked in such a way as this, 4 that in the name of our Lord Jesus, when YOU are gathered together, also my spirit with the power of our Lord Jesus,[j] 5 YOU hand such a man over to Satan[k] for the destruction of the flesh, in order that the spirit[l] may be saved in the day of the Lord.[m]

6 YOUR [cause for] boasting[n] is not fine. Do YOU not know that a little leaven ferments[o] the whole lump?[p] 7 Clear away the old leaven, that YOU may be a new lump,[q] according as YOU are free from ferment. For, indeed, Christ[r] our passover[s] has been sacrificed.[t] 8 Consequently let us keep the festival,[u] not with old leaven,[v] neither with leaven[w] of badness and wickedness,[x] but with unfermented cakes of sincerity and truth.[y]

9 In my letter I wrote YOU to quit mixing in company with fornicators, 10 not [meaning] entirely with the fornicators[z] of this world[a] or the greedy persons and extortioners or idolaters. Otherwise, YOU would actually have to get out of the world.[a] 11 But now I am writing YOU to quit mixing in company[b] with anyone called a brother that is a fornicator or a greedy[c] person or an idolater or a reviler or a drunkard[d] or an extortioner, not even eating with such a man. 12 For what do I have to do with judging those outside?[e] Do YOU not judge those inside,[f] 13 while God judges those outside?[g] "Remove the wicked [man] from among yourselves."[h]

6 Does anyone of YOU that has a case[i] against the other dare to go to court before unrighteous men,[j] and not before the holy ones?[k] 2 Or do YOU not know that the holy ones will judge[l] the world?[m] And if the world is to be judged by YOU, are YOU unfit to try very trivial[n] matters? 3 Do YOU not know that we shall judge angels?[o] Why, then, not matters of this life? 4 If, then, YOU do have matters of this life to be tried,[p] is it the men looked down upon in the congregation that YOU put in as judges?[q] 5 I am speaking to move YOU to shame.[r] Is it true that there is not one wise man[s] among YOU that will be able to judge between his brothers, 6 but brother goes to court with brother, and that before unbelievers?[t]

7 Really, then, it means altogether a defeat for YOU that YOU are having lawsuits[u] with one another. Why do YOU not rather let yourselves be wronged?[v] Why do YOU not rather let yourselves be defrauded?[w] 8 To the contrary, YOU wrong and defraud, and YOUR brothers at that.[x]

9 What! Do YOU not know that unrighteous persons will not inherit God's kingdom?[y] Do not be misled. Neither fornicators,[z] nor idolaters,[a] nor adulterers,[b] nor men kept for unnatural purposes,[c] nor men who lie with men,[d] 10 nor thieves, nor greedy[a] persons, nor drunkards,[b] nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit God's kingdom.[c] 11 And yet that is what some of YOU were.[d] But YOU have been washed clean,[e] but YOU have been sanctified,[f] but YOU have been declared righteous[g] in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ[h] and with the spirit of our God.[i]

12 All things are lawful for me; but not all things are advantageous.[j] All things are lawful[k] for me; but I will not let myself be brought under authority by anything.[l] 13 Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods;[m] but God will bring both it and them to nothing.[n] Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord;[o] and the Lord is for the body.[p] 14 But God both raised up the Lord[q] and will raise us up out of [death][r] through his power.[s]

15 Do YOU not know that YOUR bodies are members[t] of Christ?[u] Shall I, then, take the members of the Christ away and make them members of a harlot?[v] Never may that happen! 16 What! Do YOU not know that he who is joined to a harlot is one body? For, "The two," says he, "will be one flesh."[w] 17 But he who is joined to the Lord is one[x] spirit.[y] 18 Flee from fornication.[z] Every other sin that a man may commit is outside his body, but he that practices fornication is sinning against his own body.[a] 19 What! Do YOU not know that the body of YOU people is [the] temple[b] of the holy spirit within YOU,[c] which YOU have from God? Also, YOU do not belong to yourselves,[d] 20 for YOU were bought with a price.[e] By all means, glorify God[f] in the body[g] of YOU people.

7 Now concerning the things about which YOU wrote, it is well for a man not to touch[a] a woman; 2 yet, because of prevalence of fornication,[b] let each man have his own wife[c] and each woman have her own husband. 3 Let the husband render to [his] wife her due;[d] but let the wife also do likewise to [her] husband.[e] 4 The wife does not exercise authority over her own body, but her husband does;[f] likewise, also, the husband does not exercise authority over his own body, but his wife does.[g] 5 Do not be depriving each other [of it],[h] except by mutual consent for an appointed time,[i] that YOU may devote time to prayer and may come together again, that Satan may not keep tempting[j] YOU for YOUR lack of self-regulation.[k] 6 However, I say this by way of concession,[l] not in the way of a command.[m] 7 But I wish all men were as I myself am.[n] Nevertheless, each one has his own gift[o] from God, one in this way, another in that way.

8 Now I say to the unmarried persons[p] and the widows, it is well for them that they remain even as I am.[q] 9 But if they do not have self-control,[r] let them marry, for it is better to marry[s] than to be inflamed [with passion].[t]

10 To the married people I give instructions, yet not I but the Lord,[u] that a wife should not depart from her husband;[v] 11 but if she should actually depart, let her remain unmarried or else make up again with her husband; and a husband should not leave his wife.

12 But to the others I say, yes, I, not the Lord:[w] If any brother has an unbelieving wife, and yet she is agreeable to dwelling with him, let him not leave her; 13 and a woman who has an unbelieving husband, and yet he is agreeable to dwelling with her, let her not leave her husband. 14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in relation to [his] wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in relation to the brother; otherwise, YOUR children would really be unclean,[a] but now they are holy.[b] 15 But if the unbelieving one proceeds to depart,[c] let him depart; a brother or a sister is not in servitude under such circumstances, but God has called YOU to peace.[d] 16 For, wife, how do you know but that you will save [your] husband?[e] Or, husband, how do you know but that you will save [your] wife?[f]

17 Only, as Jehovah has given each one a portion,[g] let each one so walk as God has called him.[h] And thus I ordain[i] in all the congregations. 18 Was any man called circumcised?[j] Let him not become uncircumcised. Has any man been called in uncircumcision?[k] Let him not get circumcised.[l] 19 Circumcision[m] does not mean a thing, and uncircumcision[n] means not a thing, but observance of God's commandments [does].[o] 20 In whatever state each one was called,[p] let him remain in it.[q] 21 Were you called when a slave? Do not let it worry you;[r] but if you can also become free, rather seize the opportunity. 22 For anyone in [the] Lord that was called when a slave is the Lord's freedman;[s] likewise he that was called when a freeman[t] is a slave[u] of Christ. 23 You were bought with a price;[v] stop becoming slaves[w] of men. 24 In whatever condition[x] each one was called, brothers, let him remain in it associated with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have no command from the Lord, but I give my opinion[y] as one who had mercy shown him by the Lord[z] to be faithful.[a] 26 Therefore I think this to be well in view of the necessity here with us, that it is well for a man to continue as he is.[a] 27 Are you bound to a wife?[b] Stop seeking a release.[c] Are you loosed from a wife? Stop seeking a wife. 28 But even if you did marry, you would commit no sin.[d] And if a virgin [person] married, such one would commit no sin. However, those who do will have tribulation in their flesh.[e] But I am sparing YOU.

29 Moreover, this I say, brothers, the time left is reduced.[f] Henceforth let those who have wives be as though they had none,[g] 30 and also those who weep be as those who do not weep, and those who rejoice as those who do not rejoice, and those who buy as those not possessing, 31 and those making use of the world[h] as those not using it to the full; for the scene of this world is changing.[i] 32 Indeed, I want YOU to be free from anxiety.[j] The unmarried man is anxious for the things of the Lord, how he may gain the Lord's approval. 33 But the married man is anxious[k] for the things of the world, how he may gain the approval of his wife,[l] 34 and he is divided. Further, the unmarried woman, and the virgin, is anxious for the things of the Lord,[m] that she may be holy both in her body and in her spirit. However, the married woman is anxious for the things of the world, how she may gain the approval of her husband.[n] 35 But this I am saying for YOUR personal advantage, not that I may cast a noose upon YOU, but to move YOU to that which is becoming[o] and that which means constant attendance upon the Lord without distraction.[p]

36 But if anyone thinks he is behaving improperly toward his virginity,[q] if that is past the bloom of youth, and this is the way it should take place, let him do what he wants; he does not sin. Let them marry.[a] 37 But if anyone stands settled in his heart, having no necessity, but has authority over his own will and has made this decision in his own heart, to keep his own virginity, he will do well.[b] 38 Consequently he also that gives his virginity in marriage does well,[c] but he that does not give it in marriage will do better.[d]

39 A wife is bound during all the time her husband is alive.[e] But if her husband should fall asleep [in death], she is free to be married to whom she wants, only in [the] Lord.[f] 40 But she is happier if she remains as she is,[g] according to my opinion. I certainly think I also have God's spirit.[h]

8 Now concerning foods offered to idols:[i] we know we all have knowledge.[j] Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.[k] 2 If anyone thinks he has acquired knowledge of something,[l] he does not yet know [it] just as he ought to know [it].[m] 3 But if anyone loves God,[n] this one is known by him.[o]

4 Now concerning the eating[p] of foods offered to idols, we know that an idol is nothing[q] in the world, and that there is no God but one.[r] 5 For even though there are those who are called "gods,"[s] whether in heaven[t] or on earth,[u] just as there are many "gods" and many "lords,"[v] 6 there is actually to us one God[w] the Father,[x] out of whom all things are, and we for him;[y] and there is one Lord,[z] Jesus Christ,[a] through whom all things are,[b] and we through him.

7 Nevertheless, there is not this knowledge in all persons;[c] but some, being accustomed until now to the idol, eat food as something sacrificed to an idol,[d] and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.[a] 8 But food will not commend us to God;[b] if we do not eat, we do not fall short, and, if we eat, we have no credit to ourselves.[c] 9 But keep watching that this authority of YOURS does not somehow become a stumbling block to those who are weak.[d] 10 For if anyone should see you, the one having knowledge, reclining at a meal in an idol temple, will not the conscience of that one who is weak be built up to the point of eating foods offered to idols?[e] 11 Really, by your knowledge, the man that is weak is being ruined, [your] brother for whose sake Christ died.[f] 12 But when YOU people thus sin against YOUR brothers and wound their conscience[g] that is weak, YOU are sinning against Christ. 13 Therefore, if food makes my brother stumble,[h] I will never again eat flesh at all, that I may not make my brother stumble.[i]

9 Am I not free?[j] Am I not an apostle?[k] Have I not seen Jesus our Lord?[l] Are not YOU my work in [the] Lord? 2 If I am not an apostle to others, I most certainly am to YOU, for YOU are the seal confirming[m] my apostleship in relation to [the] Lord.

3 My defense to those who examine me is as follows:[n] 4 We have authority to eat[o] and drink, do we not? 5 We have authority to lead about a sister as a wife,[p] even as the rest of the apostles and the Lord's brothers[q] and Ce'phas,[r] do we not? 6 Or is it only Bar'nabas[s] and I that do not have authority to refrain from [secular] work?[t] 7 Who is it that ever serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit?[u] Or who shepherds a flock and does not eat some of the milk of the flock?[v]

8 Am I speaking these things by human standards?[w] Or does not the Law[a] also say these things? 9 For in the law of Moses it is written: "You must not muzzle a bull when it is threshing out the grain."[b] Is it bulls God is caring for? 10 Or is it altogether for our sakes he says it? Really for our sakes it was written,[c] because the man who plows ought to plow in hope and the man who threshes ought to do so in hope of being a partaker.[d]

11 If we have sown spiritual things[e] to YOU, is it something great if we shall reap things for the flesh from YOU?[f] 12 If other men partake of this authority over YOU,[g] do we not much more so? Nevertheless, we have not made use of this authority,[h] but we are bearing all things, in order that we might not offer any hindrance to the good news[i] about the Christ. 13 Do YOU not know that the men performing sacred duties eat[j] the things of the temple, and those constantly attending[k] at the altar have a portion for themselves with the altar? 14 In this way, too, the Lord ordained[l] for those proclaiming the good news to live by means of the good news.[m]

15 But I have not made use of a single one of these [provisions].[n] Indeed, I have not written these things that it should become so in my case, for it would be finer for me to die than—no man is going to make my reason for boasting[o] void! 16 If, now, I am declaring the good news,[p] it is no reason for me to boast, for necessity[q] is laid upon me. Really, woe[r] is me if I did not declare the good news! 17 If I perform this willingly,[s] I have a reward;[t] but if I do it against my will, all the same I have a stewardship[u] entrusted to me. 18 What, then, is my reward? That while declaring the good news I may furnish the good news without cost,[v] to the end that I may not abuse my authority in the good news.

19 For, though I am free from all persons, I have made myself the slave[a] to all, that I may gain[b] the most persons. 20 And so to the Jews I became as a Jew,[c] that I might gain Jews; to those under law I became as under law,[d] though I myself am not under law,[e] that I might gain those under law. 21 To those without law[f] I became as without law,[g] although I am not without law toward God but under law[h] toward Christ,[i] that I might gain those without law. 22 To the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak.[j] I have become all things to people of all sorts,[k] that I might by all means save some. 23 But I do all things for the sake of the good news, that I may become a sharer[l] of it with [others].

24 Do YOU not know that the runners[m] in a race all run, but only one receives the prize?[n] Run[o] in such a way that YOU may attain it.[p] 25 Moreover, every man taking part in a contest exercises self-control[q] in all things. Now they, of course, do it that they may get a corruptible crown,[r] but we an incorruptible one.[s] 26 Therefore, the way I am running[t] is not uncertainly; the way I am directing my blows is so as not to be striking the air;[u] 27 but I pummel my body[v] and lead it as a slave, that, after I have preached to others, I myself should not become disapproved[w] somehow.

10 Now I do not want YOU to be ignorant, brothers, that our forefathers were all under the cloud[x] and all passed through the sea[y] 2 and all got baptized into Moses[z] by means of the cloud and of the sea; 3 and all ate the same spiritual food[a] 4 and all drank the same spiritual drink.[b] For they used to drink from the spiritual rock-mass[a] that followed them, and that rock-mass[b] meant the Christ.[c] 5 Nevertheless, on most of them God did not express his approval,[d] for they were laid low[e] in the wilderness.

6 Now these things became our examples, for us not to be persons desiring injurious things,[f] even as they desired them. 7 Neither become idolaters, as some of them did;[g] just as it is written: "The people sat down to eat and drink, and they got up to have a good time."[h] 8 Neither let us practice fornication, as some of them committed fornication,[i] only to fall, twenty-three thousand [of them] in one day.[j] 9 Neither let us put Jehovah[k] to the test, as some of them put [him] to the test,[l] only to perish by the serpents.[m] 10 Neither be murmurers, just as some of them murmured,[n] only to perish by the destroyer.[o] 11 Now these things went on befalling them as examples, and they were written for a warning[p] to us upon whom the ends of the systems of things[q] have arrived.

12 Consequently let him that thinks he is standing beware that he does not fall.[r] 13 No temptation has taken YOU except what is common to men.[s] But God is faithful,[t] and he will not let YOU be tempted beyond what YOU can bear,[u] but along with the temptation he will also make the way out[v] in order for YOU to be able to endure it.

14 Therefore, my beloved ones, flee[w] from idolatry.[x] 15 I speak as to men with discernment;[y] judge for yourselves what I say. 16 The cup[z] of blessing which we bless, is it not a sharing in the blood of the Christ? The loaf which we break,[a] is it not a sharing in the body of the Christ?[b] 17 Because there is one loaf, we, although many,[c] are one body,[d] for we are all partaking of that one loaf.[e]

18 LOOK at that which is Israel in a fleshly way:[f] Are not those who eat the sacrifices sharers with the altar?[g] 19 What, then, am I to say? That what is sacrificed to an idol is anything, or that an idol is anything?[h] 20 No; but I say that the things which the nations sacrifice they sacrifice to demons,[i] and not to God; and I do not want YOU to become sharers with the demons.[j] 21 YOU cannot be drinking the cup of Jehovah[k] and the cup of demons; YOU cannot be partaking of "the table of Jehovah"[l] and the table of demons. 22 Or "are we inciting Jehovah to jealousy"?[m] We are not stronger[n] than he is, are we?

23 All things are lawful; but not all things are advantageous.[o] All things are lawful;[p] but not all things build up.[q] 24 Let each one keep seeking, not his own [advantage],[r] but that of the other person.[s]

25 Everything that is sold in a meat market keep eating,[t] making no inquiry on account of YOUR conscience;[u] 26 for "to Jehovah[v] belong the earth and that which fills it."[w] 27 If anyone of the unbelievers invites YOU and YOU wish to go, proceed to eat everything that is set before YOU,[x] making no inquiry on account of YOUR conscience.[y] 28 But if anyone should say to YOU: "This is something offered in sacrifice," do not eat on account of the one that disclosed it and on account of conscience.[z] 29 "Conscience," I say, not your own, but that of the other person. For why should it be that my freedom is judged by another person's conscience?[a] 30 If I am partaking with thanks, why am I to be spoken of abusively over that for which I give thanks?[a]

31 Therefore, whether YOU are eating or drinking or doing anything else, do all things for God's glory.[b] 32 Keep from becoming causes for stumbling[c] to Jews as well as Greeks and to the congregation of God, 33 even as I am pleasing all people in all things,[d] not seeking my own advantage[e] but that of the many, in order that they might get saved.[f]

11 Become imitators of me, even as I am of Christ.[g]

2 Now I commend YOU because in all things YOU have me in mind and YOU are holding fast the traditions[h] just as I handed [them] on to YOU. 3 But I want YOU to know that the head of every man is the Christ;[i] in turn the head of a woman is the man;[j] in turn the head of the Christ is God.[k] 4 Every man that prays or prophesies having something on his head shames his head;[l] 5 but every woman that prays or prophesies[m] with her head uncovered shames her head,[n] for it is one and the same as if she were a [woman] with a shaved head.[o] 6 For if a woman does not cover herself, let her also be shorn; but if it is disgraceful for a woman to be shorn or shaved,[p] let her be covered.[q]

7 For a man ought not to have his head covered, as he is God's image[r] and glory;[s] but the woman is man's glory.[t] 8 For man is not out of woman, but woman out of man;[u] 9 and, what is more, man was not created for the sake of the woman, but woman for the sake of the man.[v] 10 That is why the woman ought to have a sign of authority upon her head[w] because of the angels.[x]

11 Besides, in connection with [the] Lord neither is woman without man nor man without woman.[a] 12 For just as the woman is out of the man,[b] so also the man is through the woman;[c] but all things are out of God.[d] 13 Judge for YOUR own selves: Is it fitting for a woman to pray uncovered to God? 14 Does not nature itself teach YOU that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him; 15 but if a woman has long hair, it is a glory[e] to her? Because her hair is given her instead of a headdress.[f] 16 However, if any man seems to dispute[g] for some other custom,[h] we have no other, neither do the congregations of God.

17 But, while giving these instructions, I do not commend YOU because it is, not for the better, but for the worse that YOU meet together.[i] 18 For first of all, when YOU come together in a congregation, I hear divisions exist among YOU;[j] and in some measure I believe it. 19 For there must also be sects[k] among YOU, that the persons approved may also become manifest among YOU.[l]

20 Therefore, when YOU come together to one place, it is not possible to eat the Lord's evening meal.[m] 21 For, when YOU eat [it], each one takes his own evening meal beforehand, so that one is hungry but another is intoxicated. 22 Certainly YOU do have houses for eating and drinking, do YOU not?[n] Or do YOU despise the congregation of God and make those who have nothing[o] ashamed? What shall I say to YOU? Shall I commend YOU? In this I do not commend YOU.

23 For I received from the Lord that which I also handed on to YOU, that the Lord Jesus in the night[p] in which he was going to be handed over took a loaf 24 and, after giving thanks, he broke it[a] and said: "This means my body[b] which is in YOUR behalf. Keep doing this in remembrance[c] of me." 25 He did likewise respecting the cup[d] also, after he had the evening meal, saying: "This cup means the new covenant[e] by virtue of my blood.[f] Keep doing this, as often as YOU drink it, in remembrance[g] of me." 26 For as often[h] as YOU eat this loaf and drink this cup, YOU keep proclaiming the death[i] of the Lord, until he arrives.[j]

27 Consequently whoever eats the loaf or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily will be guilty[k] respecting the body and the blood[l] of the Lord. 28 First let a man approve himself after scrutiny,[m] and thus let him eat of the loaf and drink of the cup. 29 For he that eats and drinks eats and drinks judgment[n] against himself if he does not discern the body. 30 That is why many among YOU are weak and sickly, and quite a few are sleeping[o] [in death]. 31 But if we would discern what we ourselves are, we would not be judged.[p] 32 However, when we are judged,[q] we are disciplined by Jehovah,[r] that we may not become condemned[s] with the world.[t] 33 Consequently, my brothers, when YOU come together to eat [it],[u] wait for one another. 34 If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home,[v] that YOU may not come together for judgment.[w] But the remaining matters I will set in order when I get there.

12 Now concerning the spiritual gifts,[x] brothers, I do not want YOU to be ignorant. 2 YOU know that when YOU were people of the nations,[y] YOU were being led away to those voiceless[z] idols[a] just as YOU happened to be led. 3 Therefore I would have YOU know that nobody when speaking by God's spirit says: "Jesus is accursed!"[a] and nobody can say: "Jesus is Lord!" except by holy spirit.[b]

4 Now there are varieties of gifts,[c] but there is the same spirit;[d] 5 and there are varieties of ministries,[e] and yet there is the same Lord;[f] 6 and there are varieties of operations,[g] and yet it is the same God[h] who performs all the operations in all persons.[i] 7 But the manifestation of the spirit is given to each one for a beneficial purpose.[j] 8 For example, to one there is given through the spirit speech of wisdom,[k] to another speech of knowledge[l] according to the same spirit, 9 to another faith[m] by the same spirit, to another gifts of healings[n] by that one spirit, 10 to yet another operations of powerful works,[o] to another prophesying,[p] to another discernment[q] of inspired utterances,[r] to another different tongues,[s] and to another interpretation[t] of tongues. 11 But all these operations the one and the same spirit performs,[u] making a distribution[v] to each one respectively just as it wills.[w]

12 For just as the body is one but has many members, and all the members of that body, although being many, are one body,[x] so also is the Christ.[y] 13 For truly by one spirit we were all baptized[z] into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink[a] one spirit.

14 For the body, indeed, is not one member, but many.[b] 15 If the foot should say: "Because I am not a hand, I am no part of the body," it is not for this reason no part of the body.[c] 16 And if the ear should say: "Because I am not an eye, I am no part of the body," it is not for this reason no part of the body.[d] 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the [sense of] hearing be? If it were all hearing, where would the smelling be? 18 But now God has set the members in the body, each one of them, just as he pleased.[a]

19 If they were all one member,[b] where would the body be? 20 But now they are many members,[c] yet one body. 21 The eye cannot say to the hand: "I have no need of you"; or, again, the head [cannot say] to the feet: "I have no need of YOU." 22 But much rather is it the case that the members of the body which seem to be weaker[d] are necessary, 23 and the parts of the body which we think to be less honorable, these we surround with more abundant honor,[e] and so our unseemly parts have the more abundant comeliness, 24 whereas our comely parts do not need anything. Nevertheless, God compounded the body, giving honor more abundant to the part which had a lack, 25 so that there should be no division in the body, but that its members should have the same care for one another.[f] 26 And if one member suffers, all the other members suffer[g] with it; or if a member is glorified,[h] all the other members rejoice with it.[i]

27 Now YOU are Christ's body, and members individually.[j] 28 And God has set the respective ones in the congregation,[k] first, apostles;[l] second, prophets;[m] third, teachers;[n] then powerful works;[o] then gifts of healings;[p] helpful services,[q] abilities to direct,[r] different tongues.[s] 29 Not all are apostles, are they? Not all are prophets, are they? Not all are teachers, are they? Not all perform powerful works, do they? 30 Not all have gifts of healings, do they? Not all speak in tongues,[t] do they? Not all are translators,[u] are they? 31 But keep zealously seeking the greater gifts.[a] And yet I show YOU a surpassing way.[b]

13 If I speak in the tongues[c] of men and of angels but do not have love, I have become a sounding [piece of] brass or a clashing cymbal.[d] 2 And if I have the gift of prophesying[e] and am acquainted with all the sacred secrets[f] and all knowledge,[g] and if I have all the faith so as to transplant mountains,[h] but do not have love, I am nothing.[i] 3 And if I give all my belongings to feed others,[j] and if I hand over my body,[k] that I may boast, but do not have love,[l] I am not profited at all.

4 Love[m] is long-suffering[n] and kind.[o] Love is not jealous,[p] it does not brag,[q] does not get puffed up,[r] 5 does not behave indecently,[s] does not look for its own interests,[t] does not become provoked.[u] It does not keep account of the injury.[v] 6 It does not rejoice over unrighteousness,[w] but rejoices with the truth.[x] 7 It bears all things,[y] believes all things,[z] hopes all things,[a] endures all things.[b]

8 Love never fails.[c] But whether there are [gifts of] prophesying, they will be done away with; whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will be done away with.[d] 9 For we have partial knowledge[e] and we prophesy partially;[f] 10 but when that which is complete arrives,[g] that which is partial will be done away with. 11 When I was a babe, I used to speak as a babe, to think as a babe, to reason as a babe; but now that I have become a man,[h] I have done away with the [traits] of a babe. 12 For at present we see in hazy outline by means of a metal mirror,[i] but then it will be face to face.[j] At present I know partially, but then I shall know accurately even as I am accurately known.[k] 13 Now, however, there remain faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.[a]

14 Pursue love, yet keep zealously seeking the spiritual gifts,[b] but preferably that YOU may prophesy.[c] 2 For he that speaks in a tongue speaks, not to men, but to God, for no one listens,[d] but he speaks sacred secrets[e] by the spirit. 3 However, he that prophesies upbuilds[f] and encourages and consoles men by his speech. 4 He that speaks in a tongue upbuilds himself, but he that prophesies upbuilds a congregation. 5 Now I would like for all of YOU to speak in tongues,[g] but I prefer that YOU prophesy.[h] Indeed, he that prophesies is greater than he that speaks in tongues,[i] unless, in fact, he translates, that the congregation may receive upbuilding. 6 But at this time, brothers, if I should come speaking to YOU in tongues, what good would I do YOU unless I spoke to YOU either with a revelation[j] or with knowledge[k] or with a prophecy or with a teaching?

7 As it is, the inanimate things give off sound,[l] whether a flute or a harp; unless it makes an interval to the tones, how will it be known what is being played on the flute or on the harp? 8 For truly, if the trumpet sounds an indistinct call, who will get ready for battle?[m] 9 In the same way also, unless YOU through the tongue utter speech easily understood,[n] how will it be known what is being spoken? YOU will, in fact, be speaking into the air.[o] 10 It may be that there are so many kinds of speech sounds in the world, and yet no [kind] is without meaning. 11 If, then, I do not understand the force of the speech sound, I shall be a foreigner[p] to the one speaking, and the one speaking will be a foreigner to me. 12 So also YOU yourselves, since YOU are zealously desirous of [gifts of the] spirit,[a] seek to abound in them for the upbuilding of the congregation.[b]

13 Therefore let the one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may translate.[c] 14 For if I am praying in a tongue, it is my [gift of the] spirit that is praying,[d] but my mind is unfruitful. 15 What is to be done, then? I will pray with the [gift of the] spirit, but I will also pray with [my] mind. I will sing praise[e] with the [gift of the] spirit, but I will also sing praise with [my] mind.[f] 16 Otherwise, if you offer praise with a [gift of the] spirit, how will the man occupying the seat of the ordinary person say "Amen"[g] to your giving of thanks, since he does not know what you are saying? 17 True, you give thanks in a fine way, but the other man is not being built up.[h] 18 I thank God, I speak in more tongues than all of YOU do.[i] 19 Nevertheless, in a congregation I would rather speak five words with my mind, that I might also instruct others orally, than ten thousand words in a tongue.[j]

20 Brothers, do not become young children in powers of understanding,[k] but be babes as to badness;[l] yet become full-grown in powers of understanding.[m] 21 In the Law it is written: "'With the tongues of foreigners and with the lips of strangers[n] I will speak to this people,[o] and yet not even then will they give heed to me,' says Jehovah."[p] 22 Consequently tongues are for a sign,[q] not to the believers, but to the unbelievers,[r] whereas prophesying is, not for the unbelievers, but for the believers.[s] 23 Therefore, if the whole congregation comes together to one place and they all speak in tongues,[t] but ordinary people or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are mad? 24 But if YOU are all prophesying and any unbeliever or ordinary person comes in, he is reproved by them all,[a] he is closely examined by all; 25 the secrets of his heart become manifest,[b] so that he will fall upon [his] face and worship God, declaring: "God is really among YOU."[c]

26 What is to be done, then, brothers? When YOU come together, one has a psalm, another has a teaching, another has a revelation, another has a tongue, another has an interpretation.[d] Let all things take place for upbuilding.[e] 27 And if someone speaks in a tongue, let it be limited to two or three at the most, and in turns; and let someone translate.[f] 28 But if there be no translator, let him keep silent in the congregation and speak to himself[g] and to God. 29 Further, let two or three prophets[h] speak, and let the others discern the meaning.[i] 30 But if there is a revelation to another[j] one while sitting there, let the first one keep silent. 31 For YOU can all prophesy[k] one by one, that all may learn and all be encouraged.[l] 32 And [gifts of] the spirit of the prophets are to be controlled by the prophets. 33 For God is [a God], not of disorder,[m] but of peace.[n]

As in all the congregations of the holy ones, 34 let the women keep silent[o] in the congregations, for it is not permitted for them to speak, but let them be in subjection,[p] even as the Law[q] says. 35 If, then, they want to learn something, let them question their own husbands at home, for it is disgraceful[r] for a woman to speak in a congregation.

36 What? Was it from YOU that the word of God came forth,[s] or was it only as far as YOU that it reached?

37 If anyone thinks he is a prophet or gifted with the spirit, let him acknowledge the things I am writing to YOU, because they are the Lord's commandment.[a] 38 But if anyone is ignorant, he continues ignorant. 39 Consequently, my brothers, keep zealously seeking the prophesying,[b] and yet do not forbid the speaking in tongues.[c] 40 But let all things take place decently and by arrangement.[d]

15 Now I make known to YOU, brothers, the good news[e] which I declared to YOU,[f] which YOU also received, in which YOU also stand,[g] 2 through which YOU are also being saved,[h] with the speech with which I declared the good news to YOU, if YOU are holding it fast, unless, in fact, YOU became believers to no purpose.[i]

3 For I handed on to YOU, among the first things, that which I also received,[j] that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures;[k] 4 and that he was buried,[l] yes, that he has been raised[m] up the third day[n] according to the Scriptures;[o] 5 and that he appeared to Ce'phas,[p] then to the twelve.[q] 6 After that he appeared to upward of five hundred brothers at one time, the most of whom remain to the present,[r] but some have fallen asleep [in death]. 7 After that he appeared to James,[s] then to all the apostles;[t] 8 but last of all he appeared also to me[u] as if to one born prematurely.

9 For I am the least[v] of the apostles, and I am not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted[w] the congregation of God. 10 But by God's undeserved kindness[x] I am what I am. And his undeserved kindness that was toward me did not prove to be in vain,[y] but I labored in excess of them all,[z] yet not I but the undeserved kindness of God that is with me.[a] 11 However, whether it is I or they, so we are preaching and so YOU have believed.[b]

12 Now if Christ is being preached that he has been raised up from the dead,[c] how is it some among YOU say there is no resurrection of the dead?[d] 13 If, indeed, there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised up.[e] 14 But if Christ has not been raised up, our preaching is certainly in vain, and our faith is in vain.[f] 15 Moreover, we are also found false witnesses of God,[g] because we have borne witness[h] against God that he raised up the Christ,[i] but whom he did not raise up if the dead are really not to be raised up.[j] 16 For if the dead are not to be raised up, neither has Christ been raised up. 17 Further, if Christ has not been raised up, YOUR faith is useless; YOU are yet in YOUR sins.[k] 18 In fact, also, those who fell asleep [in death] in union[l] with Christ perished.[m] 19 If in this life only we have hoped in Christ,[n] we are of all men most to be pitied.

20 However, now Christ has been raised up from the dead,[o] the firstfruits[p] of those who have fallen asleep [in death].[q] 21 For since death[r] is through a man, resurrection[s] of the dead is also through a man. 22 For just as in Adam all are dying,[t] so also in the Christ all will be made alive.[u] 23 But each one in his own rank: Christ the firstfruits,[v] afterward those who belong to the Christ during his presence.[w] 24 Next, the end, when he hands over the kingdom to his God and Father, when he has brought to nothing all government and all authority and power.[x] 25 For he must rule as king until [God] has put all enemies under his feet.[y] 26 As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing.[z] 27 For [God] "subjected all things under his feet."[a] But when he says that 'all things have been subjected,'[b] it is evident that it is with the exception of the one who subjected all things to him.[c] 28 But when all things will have been subjected to him,[d] then the Son himself will also subject himself to the One[e] who subjected all things to him, that God may be all things to everyone.[f]

29 Otherwise, what will they do who are being baptized for the purpose of [being] dead ones?[g] If the dead are not to be raised up at all,[h] why are they also being baptized[i] for the purpose of [being] such? 30 Why are we also in peril every hour?[j] 31 Daily I face death.[k] This I affirm by the exultation[l] over YOU, brothers, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. 32 If, like men, I have fought with wild beasts at Eph'e·sus,[m] of what good is it to me? If the dead are not to be raised up, "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we are to die."[n] 33 Do not be misled. Bad associations spoil useful habits.[o] 34 Wake up to soberness[p] in a righteous way and do not practice sin, for some are without knowledge of God.[q] I am speaking to move YOU to shame.[r]

35 Nevertheless, someone will say: "How are the dead to be raised up? Yes, with what sort of body are they coming?"[s] 36 You unreasonable person! What you sow is not made alive unless first it dies;[t] 37 and as for what you sow, you sow, not the body that will develop, but a bare grain,[u] it may be, of wheat or any one of the rest; 38 but God gives it a body[v] just as it has pleased him,[w] and to each of the seeds its own body. 39 Not all flesh is the same flesh, but there is one of mankind, and there is another flesh of cattle, and another flesh of birds, and another of fish.[x] 40 And there are heavenly[a] bodies, and earthly bodies;[b] but the glory[c] of the heavenly bodies is one sort, and that of the earthly bodies is a different sort. 41 The glory of the sun[d] is one sort, and the glory of the moon[e] is another, and the glory of the stars[f] is another; in fact, star differs from star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead.[g] It is sown in corruption, it is raised up in incorruption.[h] 43 It is sown in dishonor,[i] it is raised up in glory.[j] It is sown in weakness,[k] it is raised up in power.[l] 44 It is sown a physical body,[m] it is raised up a spiritual body.[n] If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual one. 45 It is even so written: "The first man Adam became a living soul."[o] The last Adam became a life-giving[p] spirit.[q] 46 Nevertheless, the first is, not that which is spiritual, but that which is physical, afterward that which is spiritual.[r] 47 The first man is out of the earth and made of dust;[s] the second man is out of heaven.[t] 48 As the one made of dust[u] [is], so those made of dust [are] also; and as the heavenly one[v] [is], so those who are heavenly [are] also.[w] 49 And just as we have borne the image[x] of the one made of dust, we shall bear also the image[y] of the heavenly one.

50 However, this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit God's kingdom,[z] neither does corruption inherit incorruption.[a] 51 Look! I tell YOU a sacred secret: We shall not all fall asleep [in death], but we shall all be changed,[b] 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, during the last trumpet. For the trumpet[c] will sound, and the dead will be raised up incorruptible, and we shall be changed. 53 For this which is corruptible must put on incorruption,[d] and this which is mortal[a] must put on immortality. 54 But when [this which is corruptible puts on incorruption and] this which is mortal puts on immortality, then the saying will take place that is written: "Death[b] is swallowed up forever."[c] 55 "Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?"[d] 56 The sting[e] producing death is sin, but the power for sin is the Law.[f] 57 But thanks to God, for he gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ![g]

58 Consequently, my beloved brothers, become steadfast,[h] unmovable, always having plenty to do in the work of the Lord,[i] knowing that YOUR labor is not in vain[j] in connection with [the] Lord.

16 Now concerning the collection[k] that is for the holy ones,[l] just as I gave orders to the congregations of Ga·la'ti·a,[m] do that way also yourselves. 2 Every first day of the week let each of YOU at his own house set something aside in store as he may be prospering, so that when I arrive collections will not take place then. 3 But when I get there, whatever men YOU approve of by letters,[n] these I shall send to carry YOUR kind gift to Jerusalem. 4 However, if it is fitting for me to go there also, they will go there with me.

5 But I shall come to YOU when I have gone through Mac·e·do'ni·a, for I am going through Mac·e·do'ni·a;[o] 6 and perhaps I shall stay or even pass the winter with YOU, that YOU may conduct[p] me partway to where I may be going. 7 For I do not want to see YOU just now on [my] passing through, for I hope to remain some time with YOU,[q] if Jehovah[r] permits.[s] 8 But I am remaining in Eph'e·sus[t] until the [festival of] Pentecost; 9 for a large door that leads to activity has been opened to me,[u] but there are many opposers.

10 However, if Timothy[a] arrives, see that he becomes free of fear among YOU, for he is performing the work of Jehovah,[b] even as I am. 11 Let no one, therefore, look down upon him.[c] Conduct him partway in peace, that he may get here to me, for I am waiting for him with the brothers.

12 Now concerning A·pol'los[d] our brother, I entreated him very much to come to YOU with the brothers, and yet it was not his will at all to come now; but he will come when he has the opportunity.

13 Stay awake,[e] stand firm in the faith,[f] carry on as men,[g] grow mighty.[h] 14 Let all YOUR affairs take place with love.[i]

15 Now I exhort YOU, brothers: YOU know that the household of Steph'a·nas is the firstfruits[j] of A·cha'ia and that they set themselves to minister to the holy ones.[k] 16 May YOU also keep submitting yourselves to persons of that kind and to everyone cooperating and laboring.[l] 17 But I rejoice over the presence of Steph'a·nas[m] and For·tu·na'tus and A·cha'i·cus, because they have made up for YOUR not being here. 18 For they have refreshed my spirit[n] and YOURS. Therefore recognize men of that sort.[o]

19 The congregations of Asia send YOU their greetings.[p] Aq'ui·la and Pris'ca together with the congregation that is in their house[q] greet YOU heartily in [the] Lord. 20 All the brothers greet YOU. Greet one another with a holy kiss.[r]

21 [Here is] my greeting, Paul's, in my own hand.[s]

22 If anyone has no affection for the Lord, let him be accursed.[t] O our Lord, come![u] 23 May the undeserved kindness of the Lord Jesus be with YOU. 24 May my love be with all of YOU in union with Christ Jesus.

THE SECOND TO THE

CORINTHIANS

1 Paul, an apostle[a] of Christ Jesus through God's will, and Timothy[b] [our] brother to the congregation of God that is in Corinth, together with all the holy ones[c] who are in all of A·cha'ia:[d]

2 May YOU have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ.[e]

3 Blessed be the God and Father[f] of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies[g] and the God of all comfort,[h] 4 who comforts us in all our tribulation,[i] that we may be able to comfort[j] those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God.[k] 5 For just as the sufferings for the Christ abound in us,[l] so the comfort we get also abounds through the Christ.[m] 6 Now whether we are in tribulation, it is for YOUR comfort and salvation;[n] or whether we are being comforted, it is for YOUR comfort that operates to make YOU endure the same sufferings that we also suffer.[o] 7 And so our hope for YOU is unwavering, knowing as we do that, just as YOU are sharers of the sufferings, in the same way YOU will also share the comfort.[p]

8 For we do not wish YOU to be ignorant, brothers, about the tribulation that happened to us in the [district of] Asia,[q] that we were under extreme pressure beyond our strength, so that we were very uncertain even of our lives.[r] 9 In fact, we felt within ourselves that we had received the sentence of death. This was that we might have our trust,[s] not in ourselves, but in the God who raises up the dead.[a] 10 From such a great thing as death he did rescue us and will rescue us;[b] and our hope is in him that he will also rescue us further.[c] 11 You also can help along by YOUR supplication for us,[d] in order that thanks[e] may be given by many in our behalf for what is kindly given to us due to many [prayerful] faces.[f]

12 For the thing we boast of is this, to which our conscience bears witness,[g] that with holiness and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom[h] but with God's undeserved kindness, we have conducted ourselves in the world, but more especially toward YOU. 13 For we are really not writing YOU things except those which YOU well know or also recognize; and which I hope YOU will continue to recognize to the end,[i] 14 just as YOU have also recognized, to an extent, that we are a cause for YOU to boast,[j] just as YOU will also be for us in the day of our Lord Jesus.[k]

15 So, with this confidence, I was intending before to come to YOU,[l] that YOU might have a second[m] [occasion for] joy, 16 and after a stopover with YOU to go to Mac·e·do'ni·a,[n] and to come back from Mac·e·do'ni·a to YOU[o] and be conducted[p] partway by YOU to Ju·de'a. 17 Well, when I had such an intention, I did not indulge in any lightness,[q] did I? Or what things I purpose, do I purpose [them] according to the flesh,[r] that with me there should be "Yes, Yes" and "No, No"?[s] 18 But God can be relied upon that our speech addressed to YOU is not Yes and yet No. 19 For the Son of God,[t] Christ Jesus, who was preached among YOU through us, that is, through me and Sil·va'nus and Timothy,[a] did not become Yes and yet No, but Yes has become Yes in his case.[b] 20 For no matter how many the promises[c] of God are, they have become Yes by means of him.[d] Therefore also through him is the "Amen"[e] [said] to God for glory through us. 21 But he who guarantees that YOU and we belong to Christ and he who has anointed[f] us is God. 22 He has also put his seal[g] upon us and has given us the token[h] of what is to come, that is, the spirit,[i] in our hearts.

23 Now I call upon God as a witness[j] against my own soul that it is to spare YOU[k] that I have not yet come to Corinth. 24 Not that we are the masters[l] over YOUR faith, but we are fellow workers[m] for YOUR joy, for it is by [YOUR] faith[n] that YOU are standing.[o]

2 For this is what I have decided for myself, not to come to YOU again in sadness.[p] 2 For if I make YOU sad,[q] who indeed is there to cheer me except the one that is made sad by me? 3 And so I wrote this very thing, that, when I come, I may not get sad[r] because of those over whom I ought to rejoice;[s] because I have confidence[t] in all of YOU that the joy I have is that of all of YOU. 4 For out of much tribulation and anguish of heart I wrote YOU with many tears,[u] not that YOU might be saddened,[v] but that YOU might know the love that I have more especially for YOU.

5 Now if anyone has caused sadness,[w] he has saddened, not me, but all of YOU to an extent—not to be too harsh in what I say. 6 This rebuke[x] given by the majority is sufficient for such a man, 7 so that, on the contrary now, YOU should kindly forgive[y] and comfort [him], that somehow such a man may not be swallowed up by his being overly sad.[z] 8 Therefore I exhort YOU to confirm YOUR love[a] for him. 9 For to this end also I write to ascertain the proof of YOU, whether YOU are obedient in all things.[b] 10 Anything YOU kindly forgive anyone, I do too.[c] In fact, as for me, whatever I have kindly forgiven, if I have kindly forgiven anything, it has been for YOUR sakes in Christ's sight; 11 that we may not be overreached by Satan,[d] for we are not ignorant of his designs.[e]

12 Now when I arrived in Tro'as[f] to declare the good news about the Christ, and a door was opened to me in [the] Lord,[g] 13 I got no relief in my spirit on account of not finding Titus[h] my brother, but I said good-bye to them and departed for Mac·e·do'ni·a.[i]

14 But thanks be to God who always leads[j] us in a triumphal procession in company[k] with the Christ and makes the odor of the knowledge of him perceptible through us in every place![l] 15 For to God we are a sweet odor[m] of Christ among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing;[n] 16 to the latter ones an odor issuing from death to death,[o] to the former ones an odor issuing from life to life. And who is adequately qualified for these things?[p] 17 [We are;] for we are not peddlers of the word of God[q] as many men are,[r] but as out of sincerity, yes, as sent from God, under God's view, in company with Christ, we are speaking.[s]

3 Are we starting again to recommend ourselves?[t] Or do we, perhaps, like some men, need letters[u] of recommendation to YOU or from YOU? 2 You yourselves are our letter,[v] inscribed on our hearts and known and being read by all mankind.[w] 3 For YOU are shown to be a letter of Christ written by us as ministers,[x] inscribed not with ink but with spirit[a] of a living God, not on stone tablets,[b] but on fleshly tablets, on hearts.[c]

4 Now through the Christ we have this sort of confidence[d] toward God. 5 Not that we of ourselves are adequately qualified to reckon anything as issuing from ourselves,[e] but our being adequately qualified issues from God,[f] 6 who has indeed adequately qualified us to be ministers of a new covenant,[g] not of a written code,[h] but of spirit;[i] for the written code condemns[j] to death, but the spirit makes alive.[k]

7 Moreover, if the code which administers death[l] and which was engraved in letters in stones[m] came about in a glory,[n] so that the sons of Israel could not gaze intently at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face,[o] [a glory] that was to be done away with, 8 why should not the administering of the spirit[p] be much more with glory?[q] 9 For if the code administering condemnation[r] was glorious,[s] much more does the administering of righteousness[t] abound with glory.[u] 10 In fact, even that which has once been made glorious has been stripped of glory in this respect,[v] because of the glory that excels it.[w] 11 For if that which was to be done away with was brought in with glory,[x] much more would that which remains be with glory.[y]

12 Therefore, as we have such a hope,[z] we are using great freeness of speech, 13 and not doing as when Moses would put a veil[a] upon his face, that the sons of Israel might not gaze intently at the end[b] of that which was to be done away with. 14 But their mental powers were dulled.[c] For to this present day the same veil remains unlifted at the reading of the old covenant,[d] because it is done away with by means of Christ.[e] 15 In fact, down till today whenever Moses is read,[f] a veil lies upon their hearts.[a] 16 But when there is a turning to Jehovah, the veil is taken away.[b] 17 Now Jehovah is the Spirit;[c] and where the spirit[d] of Jehovah[e] is, there is freedom.[f] 18 And all of us,[g] while we with unveiled faces reflect like mirrors the glory of Jehovah,[h] are transformed[i] into the same image[j] from glory to glory,[k] exactly as done by Jehovah[l] [the] Spirit.

4 That is why, since we have this ministry[m] according to the mercy that was shown us,[n] we do not give up; 2 but we have renounced the underhanded things of which to be ashamed,[o] not walking with cunning, neither adulterating the word of God,[p] but by making the truth manifest recommending ourselves to every human conscience in the sight of God.[q] 3 If, now, the good news we declare is in fact veiled, it is veiled among those who are perishing,[r] 4 among whom the god of this system of things[s] has blinded the minds of the unbelievers,[t] that the illumination[u] of the glorious good news[v] about the Christ, who is the image[w] of God, might not shine through.[x] 5 For we are preaching, not ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord,[y] and ourselves as YOUR slaves[z] for Jesus' sake. 6 For God is he who said: "Let the light shine out of darkness,"[a] and he has shone on our hearts to illuminate[b] [them] with the glorious knowledge[c] of God by the face of Christ.[d]

7 However, we have this treasure[e] in earthen[f] vessels,[g] that the power[h] beyond what is normal may be God's[i] and not that out of ourselves.[j] 8 We are pressed in every way,[k] but not cramped beyond movement; we are perplexed, but not absolutely with no way out;[a] 9 we are persecuted, but not left in the lurch;[b] we are thrown down,[c] but not destroyed.[d] 10 Always we endure everywhere in our body the death-dealing treatment given to Jesus,[e] that the life of Jesus may also be made manifest in our body.[f] 11 For we who live are ever being brought face to face with death[g] for Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus may also be made manifest in our mortal flesh.[h] 12 Consequently death is at work in us, but life in YOU.[i]

13 Now because we have the same spirit of faith as that of which it is written: "I exercised faith, therefore I spoke,"[j] we too exercise faith and therefore we speak, 14 knowing that he who raised Jesus up will raise us up also together with Jesus and will present us together with YOU.[k] 15 For all things are for YOUR sakes,[l] in order that the undeserved kindness which was multiplied should abound because of the thanksgiving of many more to the glory of God.[m]

16 Therefore we do not give up, but even if the man we are outside is wasting away, certainly the man we are inside[n] is being renewed from day to day. 17 For though the tribulation is momentary[o] and light, it works out for us a glory that is of more and more surpassing weight and is everlasting;[p] 18 while we keep our eyes, not on the things seen, but on the things unseen.[q] For the things seen are temporary,[r] but the things unseen are everlasting.[s]

5 For we know that if our earthly house,[t] this tent,[u] should be dissolved,[v] we are to have a building from God, a house not made with hands,[w] everlasting[x] in the heavens. 2 For in this dwelling house we do indeed groan,[y] earnestly desiring to put on the one for us from heaven,[a] 3 so that, having really put it on, we shall not be found naked.[b] 4 In fact, we who are in this tent groan, being weighed down; because we want, not to put it off, but to put on the other,[c] that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.[d] 5 Now he that produced us for this very thing is God,[e] who gave us the token[f] of what is to come, that is, the spirit.[g]

6 We are therefore always of good courage and know that, while we have our home in the body, we are absent from the Lord,[h] 7 for we are walking by faith, not by sight.[i] 8 But we are of good courage and are well pleased rather to become absent from the body and to make our home with the Lord.[j] 9 Therefore we are also making it our aim that, whether having our home with him or being absent from him,[k] we may be acceptable to him.[l] 10 For we must all be made manifest before the judgment seat of the Christ,[m] that each one may get his award for the things done through the body, according to the things he has practiced, whether it is good or vile.[n]

11 Knowing, therefore, the fear[o] of the Lord, we keep persuading[p] men, but we have been made manifest to God. However, I hope that we have been made manifest also to YOUR consciences.[q] 12 We are not again recommending[r] ourselves to YOU, but giving YOU an inducement for boasting in respect to us,[s] that YOU may have [an answer] for those who boast over the outward appearance[t] but not over the heart.[u] 13 For if we were out of our mind,[v] it was for God; if we are sound in mind,[w] it is for YOU. 14 For the love the Christ has compels us, because this is what we have judged, that one man died for all;[x] so, then, all had died; 15 and he died for all that those who live might live no longer for themselves,[a] but for him[b] who died for them and was raised up.[c]

16 Consequently from now on we know no man according to the flesh.[d] Even if we have known Christ according to the flesh,[e] certainly we now know him so no more.[f] 17 Consequently if anyone is in union with Christ, he is a new creation;[g] the old things passed away,[h] look! new things have come into existence.[i] 18 But all things are from God, who reconciled[j] us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry[k] of the reconciliation, 19 namely, that God was by means of Christ[l] reconciling a world[m] to himself,[n] not reckoning to them their trespasses,[o] and he committed the word[p] of the reconciliation to us.[q]

20 We[r] are therefore ambassadors[s] substituting for Christ,[t] as though God were making entreaty through us.[u] As substitutes for Christ we beg:[v] "Become reconciled to God." 21 The one who did not know sin[w] he made to be sin[x] for us, that we might become God's righteousness[y] by means of him.

6 Working together with him,[z] we also entreat YOU not to accept the undeserved kindness of God and miss its purpose.[a] 2 For he says: "In an acceptable time I heard you, and in a day of salvation I helped you."[b] Look! Now is the especially acceptable time.[c] Look! Now is the day of salvation.[d]

3 In no way are we giving any cause for stumbling,[e] that our ministry might not be found fault with;[f] 4 but in every way we recommend[g] ourselves as God's ministers, by the endurance of much, by tribulations, by cases of need, by difficulties,[h] 5 by beatings, by prisons,[i] by disorders, by labors, by sleepless nights, by times without food,[a] 6 by purity, by knowledge, by long-suffering,[b] by kindness,[c] by holy spirit, by love free from hypocrisy,[d] 7 by truthful speech, by God's power;[e] through the weapons[f] of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, 8 through glory and dishonor, through bad report and good report; as deceivers[g] and yet truthful, 9 as being unknown and yet being recognized,[h] as dying and yet, look! we live,[i] as disciplined[j] and yet not delivered to death,[k] 10 as sorrowing but ever rejoicing, as poor but making many rich, as having nothing and yet possessing all things.[l]

11 Our mouth has been opened to YOU, Corinthians, our heart[m] has widened out. 12 YOU are not cramped for room within us,[n] but YOU are cramped for room in YOUR own tender affections.[o] 13 So, as a recompense in return—I speak as to children[p]—YOU, too, widen out.

14 Do not become unevenly yoked with unbelievers.[q] For what fellowship do righteousness and lawlessness have?[r] Or what sharing does light have with darkness?[s] 15 Further, what harmony is there between Christ and Be'li·al?[t] Or what portion[u] does a faithful person have with an unbeliever? 16 And what agreement does God's temple have with idols?[v] For we are a temple[w] of a living God; just as God said: "I shall reside among them[x] and walk among [them], and I shall be their God, and they will be my people."[y] 17 "'Therefore get out from among them, and separate yourselves,' says Jehovah, 'and quit touching the unclean thing'";[z] "'and I will take YOU in.'"[a] 18 "'And

I shall be a father to YOU,[a] and YOU will be sons and daughters to me,'[b] says Jehovah the Almighty."[c]

7 Therefore, since we have these promises,[d] beloved ones, let us cleanse[e] ourselves of every defilement of flesh and spirit,[f] perfecting holiness in God's fear.[g]

2 ALLOW room for us.[h] We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have taken advantage of no one.[i] 3 I do not say this to condemn YOU. For I have said before that YOU are in our hearts to die and to live with us.[j] 4 I have great freeness of speech toward YOU. I have great boasting in regard to YOU.[k] I am filled with comfort,[l] I am overflowing with joy in all our affliction.[m]

5 In fact, when we arrived in Mac·e·do'ni·a,[n] our flesh got no relief,[o] but we continued to be afflicted[p] in every manner—there were fights without, fears within. 6 Nevertheless God, who comforts[q] those laid low, comforted us by the presence of Titus; 7 yet not alone by his presence, but also by the comfort with which he had been comforted over YOU, as he brought us word[r] again of YOUR longing, YOUR mourning, YOUR zeal for me; so that I rejoiced yet more.

8 Hence even if I saddened YOU by my letter,[s] I do not regret it. Even if I did at first regret it, (I see that that letter saddened YOU, though but for a little while,) 9 now I rejoice, not because YOU were just saddened, but because YOU were saddened into repenting;[t] for YOU were saddened in a godly way,[u] that YOU might suffer no damage in anything due to us. 10 For sadness in a godly way makes for repentance to salvation that is not to be regretted;[v] but the sadness of the world produces death.[w] 11 For, look! this very thing, YOUR being saddened in a godly way,[a] what a great earnestness it produced in YOU, yes, clearing of yourselves, yes, indignation, yes, fear, yes, longing, yes, zeal, yes, righting of the wrong![b] In every respect YOU demonstrated yourselves to be chaste in this matter. 12 Certainly, although I wrote YOU, I did it, neither for the one who did the wrong,[c] nor for the one who was wronged, but that YOUR earnestness for us might be made manifest among YOU in the sight of God. 13 That is why we have been comforted.

However, in addition to our comfort we rejoiced still more abundantly due to the joy of Titus, because his spirit[d] has been refreshed by all of YOU. 14 For if I have made any boast to him about YOU, I have not been put to shame; but as we have spoken all things to YOU in truth, so also our boasting[e] before Titus has proved to be true. 15 Also, his tender affections are more abundant toward YOU, while he calls to mind the obedience[f] of all of YOU, how YOU received him with fear and trembling. 16 I rejoice that in every way I may have good courage by reason of YOU.[g]

8 Now we let YOU know, brothers, about the undeserved kindness of God that has been bestowed upon the congregations of Mac·e·do'ni·a,[h] 2 that during a great test under affliction their abundance of joy and their deep poverty made the riches of their generosity abound.[i] 3 For according to their actual ability,[j] yes, I testify, beyond their actual ability this was, 4 while they of their own accord kept begging us with much entreaty for the [privilege of] kindly giving and for a share in the ministry destined for the holy ones.[k] 5 And not merely as we had hoped, but first they gave themselves to the Lord[a] and to us through God's will. 6 This led us to encourage Titus[b] that, just as he had been the one to initiate it among YOU, so too he should complete this same kind giving on YOUR part. 7 Nevertheless, just as YOU are abounding in everything,[c] in faith and word and knowledge[d] and all earnestness and in this love of ours to YOU, may YOU also abound in this kind giving.

8 It is not in the way of commanding YOU,[e] but in view of the earnestness of others and to make a test of the genuineness of YOUR love, that I am speaking. 9 For YOU know the undeserved kindness of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich he became poor for YOUR sakes,[f] that YOU might become rich[g] through his poverty.

10 And in this I render an opinion:[h] for this matter is of benefit to YOU,[i] seeing that already a year ago YOU initiated not only the doing but also the wanting [to do];[j] 11 now, then, finish up also the doing of it, in order that, just as there was a readiness to want to do, so also there should be a finishing up of it out of what YOU have. 12 For if the readiness is there first, it is especially acceptable according to what a person has,[k] not according to what a person does not have. 13 For I do not mean for it to be easy for others,[l] but hard on YOU; 14 but that by means of an equalizing YOUR surplus just now might offset their deficiency, in order that their surplus might also come to offset YOUR deficiency, that an equalizing might take place.[m] 15 Just as it is written: "The person with much did not have too much, and the person with little did not have too little."[n]

16 Now thanks be to God for putting the same earnestness for YOU in the heart of Titus,[o] 17 because he has indeed responded to the encouragement, but, being very earnest, he is going forth of his own accord to YOU. 18 But we are sending along with him the brother whose praise in connection with the good news has spread through all the congregations. 19 Not only that, but he was also appointed[a] by the congregations to be our traveling companion in connection with this kind gift to be administered by us for the glory[b] of the Lord and in proof of our ready mind.[c] 20 Thus we are avoiding having any man find fault[d] with us in connection with this liberal contribution[e] to be administered by us. 21 For we "make honest provision, not only in the sight of Jehovah, but also in the sight of men."[f]

22 Moreover, we are sending with them our brother whom we have often proved in many things to be earnest, but now much more earnest due to his great confidence in YOU. 23 If, though, there is any question about Titus, he is a sharer with me and a fellow worker[g] for YOUR interests; or if about our brothers, they are apostles of congregations and a glory of Christ. 24 Therefore demonstrate to them the proof of YOUR love[h] and of what we boasted[i] about YOU, before the face of the congregations.

9 Now concerning the ministry[j] that is for the holy ones, it is superfluous for me to write YOU, 2 for I know YOUR readiness of mind of which I am boasting to the Mac·e·do′ni·ans about YOU, that A·cha′ia has stood ready now for a year,[k] and YOUR zeal has stirred up the majority of them. 3 But I am sending the brothers, that our boasting about YOU might not prove empty in this respect, but that YOU may really be ready,[l] just as I used to say YOU would be. 4 Otherwise, in some way, if Mac·e·do′ni·ans should come with me and find YOU not ready, we—not to say YOU—should be put to shame in this assurance of ours.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to encourage the brothers to come to YOU in advance and to get ready in advance YOUR bountiful gift previously promised,[a] that thus this might be ready as a bountiful gift and not as something extorted.[b]

6 But as to this, he that sows sparingly[c] will also reap sparingly; and he that sows bountifully[d] will also reap bountifully. 7 Let each one do just as he has resolved in his heart, not grudgingly[e] or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.[f]

8 God, moreover, is able to make all his undeserved kindness abound toward YOU, that, while YOU always have full self-sufficiency in everything, YOU may have plenty for every good work.[g] 9 (Just as it is written: "He has distributed widely, he has given to the poor ones, his righteousness continues forever."[h] 10 Now he that abundantly supplies seed to the sower and bread for eating[i] will supply and multiply the seed for YOU to sow and will increase the products of YOUR righteousness.)[j] 11 In everything YOU are being enriched for every sort of generosity, which produces through us an expression of thanks to God;[k] 12 because the ministry of this public service is not only to supply abundantly the wants of the holy ones[l] but also to be rich with many expressions of thanks to God. 13 Through the proof that this ministry gives, they glorify God because YOU are submissive to the good news about the Christ,[m] as YOU publicly declare YOU are, and because YOU are generous in YOUR contribution to them and to all;[n] 14 and with supplication for YOU they long for YOU because of the surpassing undeserved kindness[a] of God upon YOU.

15 Thanks be to God for his indescribable free gift.[b]

10 Now I myself, Paul, entreat YOU by the mildness[c] and kindness[d] of the Christ, lowly though I am in appearance[e] among YOU, whereas when absent I am bold toward YOU.[f] 2 Indeed I beg that, when present, I may not use boldness with that confidence with which I am counting on taking bold measures[g] against some who appraise us as if we walked according to [what we are in the] flesh. 3 For though we walk in the flesh,[h] we do not wage warfare according to [what we are in the] flesh.[i] 4 For the weapons of our warfare are not fleshly,[j] but powerful by God[k] for overturning strongly entrenched things. 5 For we are overturning reasonings and every lofty thing raised up against the knowledge of God;[l] and we are bringing every thought into captivity to make it obedient to the Christ; 6 and we are holding ourselves in readiness to inflict punishment for every disobedience,[m] as soon as YOUR own obedience has been fully carried out.[n]

7 You look at things according to their face value.[o] If anyone trusts in himself that he belongs to Christ, let him again take this fact into account for himself, that, just as he belongs to Christ, so do we also.[p] 8 For even if I should boast[q] a bit too much about the authority that the Lord gave us to build YOU up and not to tear YOU down,[r] I would not be put to shame, 9 that I may not seem to want to terrify YOU by [my] letters. 10 For, say they: "[His] letters are weighty and forceful, but [his] presence in person is weak[s] and [his] speech contemptible."[t] 11 Let such a man take this into account, that what we are in our word

by letters when absent, such we shall also be in action when present.[a] 12 For we do not dare to class ourselves among some or compare ourselves with some who recommend themselves.[b] Certainly they in measuring themselves by themselves and comparing themselves with themselves have no understanding.[c]

13 For our part we will boast, not outside our assigned boundaries,[d] but according to the boundary of the territory that God apportioned to us by measure, making it reach even as far as YOU.[e] 14 Really we are not overstretching ourselves as if we did not reach to YOU, for we were the first to come even as far as YOU in declaring the good news about the Christ.[f] 15 No, we are not boasting outside our assigned boundaries in the labors of someone else,[g] but we entertain hope that, as YOUR faith is being increased,[h] we may be made great among YOU with reference to our territory.[i] Then we will abound still more, 16 to declare the good news to the countries beyond YOU,[j] so as not to boast in someone else's territory where things are already prepared. 17 "But he that boasts, let him boast in Jehovah."[k] 18 For not the one who recommends himself is approved,[l] but the man whom Jehovah[m] recommends.[n]

11 I wish YOU would put up with me in some little unreasonableness.[o] But, in fact, YOU are putting up with me! 2 For I am jealous over YOU with a godly jealousy,[p] for I personally promised YOU in marriage[q] to one husband[r] that I might present YOU as a chaste[s] virgin to the Christ.[t] 3 But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent seduced Eve[u] by its cunning, YOUR minds might be corrupted[v] away from the sincerity and the chastity that are due the Christ.[w] 4 For, as it is, if someone comes and preaches a Jesus other than the one we preached,[a] or YOU receive a spirit other than what YOU received,[b] or good news[c] other than what YOU accepted, YOU easily put up [with him].[d] 5 For I consider that I have not in a single thing proved inferior[e] to YOUR superfine[f] apostles. 6 But even if I am unskilled in speech,[g] I certainly am not in knowledge;[h] but in every way we manifested [it] to YOU in all things.[i]

7 Or did I commit a sin by humbling myself[j] that YOU might be exalted, because without cost[k] I gladly declared the good news of God to YOU? 8 Other congregations I robbed by accepting provisions in order to minister to YOU;[l] 9 and yet when I was present with YOU and I fell in need, I did not become a burden to a single one,[m] for the brothers that came from Mac·e·do'ni·a[n] abundantly supplied my deficiency. Yes, in every way I kept myself unburdensome to YOU and will keep myself so.[o] 10 It is a truth[p] of Christ in my case that no stop shall be put to this boasting[q] of mine in the regions of A·cha'ia. 11 For what reason? Because I do not love YOU? God knows [I do].[r]

12 Now what I am doing I will still do,[s] that I may cut off the pretext from those who are wanting a pretext for being found equal to us in the office of which they boast. 13 For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers,[t] transforming themselves into apostles of Christ.[u] 14 And no wonder, for Satan himself keeps transforming himself into an angel of light.[v] 15 It is therefore nothing great if his ministers[w] also keep transforming themselves into ministers of righteousness. But their end shall be according to their works.[x]

16 I say again, Let no man think I am unreasonable. Still, if YOU really do, accept me even if as unreasonable, that I too may do some little boasting.[a] 17 What I speak I speak, not after the Lord's example, but as in unreasonableness, in this cocksureness peculiar to boasting.[b] 18 Since many are boasting according to the flesh,[c] I too will boast. 19 For YOU gladly put up with the unreasonable persons, seeing YOU are reasonable. 20 In fact, YOU put up with whoever enslaves YOU,[d] whoever devours [what YOU have], whoever grabs [what YOU have], whoever exalts himself over [YOU], whoever strikes YOU in the face.[e]

21 I say this to [our] dishonor, as though our position had been weak.

But if anyone else acts bold in something—I am talking unreasonably[f]—I too am acting bold in it. 22 Are they Hebrews? I am one also.[g] Are they Israelites? I am one also. Are they Abraham's seed? I am also.[h] 23 Are they ministers of Christ? I reply like a madman, I am more outstandingly one:[i] in labors more plentifully,[j] in prisons more plentifully,[k] in blows to an excess, in near-deaths often.[l] 24 By Jews I five times received forty strokes[m] less one, 25 three times I was beaten with rods,[n] once I was stoned,[o] three times I experienced shipwreck,[p] a night and a day I have spent in the deep; 26 in journeys often, in dangers from rivers, in dangers from highwaymen,[q] in dangers from [my own] race,[r] in dangers from the nations,[s] in dangers in the city,[t] in dangers in the wilderness, in dangers at sea, in dangers among false brothers, 27 in labor and toil, in sleepless nights[u] often, in hunger and thirst,[v] in abstinence from food[w] many times, in cold and nakedness.

28 Besides those things of an external kind, there is what rushes in on me from day to day, the anxiety for all the congregations.[a] 29 Who is weak,[b] and I am not weak? Who is stumbled, and I am not incensed?

30 If boasting there must be, I will boast[c] of the things having to do with my weakness. 31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, even the One who is to be praised forever, knows I am not lying. 32 In Damascus the governor under A·re'tas the king was guarding the city of the Dam·a·scenes' to seize me,[d] 33 but through a window in the wall I was lowered in a wicker basket[e] and escaped his hands.

12 I have to boast. It is not beneficial; but I shall pass on to supernatural visions[f] and revelations of [the] Lord. 2 I know a man in union with Christ who, fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or out of the body I do not know; God knows—was caught away[g] as such to the third heaven. 3 Yes, I know such a man—whether in the body or apart from the body,[h] I do not know, God knows— 4 that he was caught away into paradise[i] and heard unutterable words which it is not lawful for a man to speak. 5 Over such a man I will boast, but I will not boast over myself, except as respects [my] weaknesses.[j] 6 For if I ever do want to boast,[k] I shall not be unreasonable, for I shall say the truth. But I abstain, in order that no one should put to my credit more than what he sees I am or he hears from me, 7 just because of the excess of the revelations.

Therefore, that I might not feel overly exalted,[l] there was given me a thorn in the flesh,[m] an angel of Satan, to keep slapping me, that I might not be overly exalted. 8 In this behalf I three times entreated[n] the Lord that it might depart from me; 9 and yet he really said to me: "My undeserved kindness is sufficient[a] for you; for [my] power is being made perfect in weakness."[b] Most gladly, therefore, will I rather boast as respects my weaknesses,[c] that the power of the Christ may like a tent remain over me. 10 Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in insults, in cases of need, in persecutions and difficulties, for Christ. For when I am weak, then I am powerful.[d]

11 I have become unreasonable. YOU compelled me[e] to, for I ought to have been recommended by YOU. For I did not prove to be inferior to [YOUR] superfine[f] apostles in a single thing, even if I am nothing.[g] 12 Indeed, the signs of an apostle[h] were produced among YOU by all endurance,[i] and by signs and portents and powerful works.[j] 13 For in what respect is it that YOU became less than the rest of the congregations, except that I myself did not become a burden to YOU?[k] Kindly forgive me this wrong.

14 Look! This is the third time[l] I am ready to come to YOU, and yet I will not become a burden. For I am seeking, not YOUR possessions,[m] but YOU; for the children[n] ought not to lay up for [their] parents, but the parents for [their] children.[o] 15 For my part I will most gladly spend and be completely spent for YOUR souls.[p] If I love YOU the more abundantly, am I to be loved the less? 16 But be that as it may, I did not burden YOU down.[q] Nevertheless, YOU say, I was "crafty" and I caught YOU "by trickery."[r] 17 As for any one of those I have dispatched to YOU, I did not take advantage of YOU through him, did I? 18 I urged Titus and I dispatched the brother with him. Titus did not take advantage of YOU at all, did he?[s] We walked in the same spirit,[t] did we not? In the same footsteps, did we not?

19 Have YOU been thinking all this while that we have been making our defense to YOU? It is before God that we are speaking in connection with Christ. But, beloved ones, all things are for YOUR upbuilding.[a] 20 For I am afraid that somehow, when I arrive,[b] I may find YOU not as I could wish and I may prove to be to YOU not as YOU could wish, but, instead, there should somehow be strife, jealousy,[c] cases of anger, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, cases of being puffed up, disorders.[d] 21 Perhaps, when I come again, my God might humiliate me among YOU, and I might mourn over many of those who formerly sinned[e] but have not repented over their uncleanness and fornication[f] and loose conduct[g] that they have practiced.

13 This is the third time[h] I am coming to YOU. "At the mouth of two witnesses or of three every matter must be established."[i] 2 I have said previously and, as if present the second time and yet absent now, I say in advance to those who have sinned before and to all the rest, that if ever I come again I will not spare,[j] 3 since YOU are seeking a proof of Christ speaking in me,[k] [Christ] who is not weak toward YOU but is powerful among YOU. 4 True, indeed, he was impaled[l] owing to weakness,[m] but he is alive owing to God's power.[n] True, also, we are weak with him, but we shall live together with him[o] owing to God's power[p] toward YOU.

5 Keep testing whether YOU are in the faith, keep proving what YOU yourselves are.[q] Or do YOU not recognize that Jesus Christ is in union with YOU?[r] Unless YOU are disapproved. 6 I truly hope YOU will come to know we are not disapproved.

7 Now we pray[s] to God that YOU may do nothing wrong, not that we ourselves may appear approved, but that YOU may be doing what is fine, though we ourselves may appear disapproved. 8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but only for the truth.[a] 9 We certainly rejoice whenever we are weak but YOU are powerful;[b] and for this we are praying,[c] YOUR being readjusted. 10 That is why I write these things while absent, that, when I am present, I may not act with severity[d] according to the authority that the Lord gave me, to build up[e] and not to tear down.

11 Finally, brothers, continue to rejoice, to be readjusted, to be comforted,[a] to think in agreement,[b] to live peaceably;[c] and the God of love and of peace[d] will be with YOU. 12 Greet one another with a holy kiss.[e] 13 All the holy ones send YOU their greetings.

TO THE

GALATIANS

1 Paul,[a] an apostle,[b] neither from men nor through a man, but through Jesus Christ[c] and God the Father,[d] who raised him up from the dead,[e] 2 and all the brothers with me,[f] to the congregations of Ga·la′ti·a:[g]

3 May YOU have undeserved kindness and peace[h] from God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ. 4 He gave himself for our sins[i] that he might deliver us from the present wicked system of things[j] according to the will[k] of our God and Father, 5 to whom be the glory forever and ever.[l] Amen.

6 I marvel that YOU are being so quickly removed from the One[m] who called YOU with Christ's undeserved kindness[n] over to another sort of good news.[o] 7 But it is not another; only there are certain ones who are causing YOU trouble[p] and wanting to pervert the good news about the Christ.[q] 8 However, even if we or an angel out of heaven were to declare to YOU as good news something beyond what we declared to YOU as good news, let him be accursed.[r] 9 As we have said above, I also now say again, Whoever it is that is declaring to YOU as good news something beyond what YOU accepted,[a] let him be accursed.

10 Is it, in fact, men I am now trying to persuade or God? Or am I seeking to please men?[b] If I were yet pleasing men,[c] I would not be Christ's slave.[d] 11 For I put YOU on notice, brothers, that the good news which was declared by me as good news is not something human;[e] 12 for neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught [it], except through revelation by Jesus Christ.[f]

13 YOU, of course, heard about my conduct formerly in Ju′da·ism,[g] that to the point of excess I kept on persecuting[h] the congregation of God and devastating it,[i] 14 and I was making greater progress in Ju′da·ism than many of my own age in my race,[j] as I was far more zealous[k] for the traditions[l] of my fathers. 15 But when God, who separated me from my mother's womb and called[m] [me] through his undeserved kindness,[a] thought good 16 to reveal his Son in connection with me,[b] that I might declare the good news about him to the nations,[c] I did not go at once into conference with flesh and blood.[d] 17 Neither did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles previous to me,[e] but I went off into Arabia, and I came back again to Damascus.[f]

18 Then three years later I went up to Jerusalem[g] to visit Ce'phas,[h] and I stayed with him for fifteen days. 19 But I saw no one else of the apostles, only James[i] the brother[j] of the Lord. 20 Now as to the things
I am writing YOU, look! in the sight of God, I am not lying.[k]

21 After that I went[l] into the regions of Syria and of Ci·li'cia.
22 But I was unknown
by face to the congregations of Ju·de'a that were in union with Christ;[m] 23 they only used to hear: "The man that formerly persecuted[n] us is now declaring the good news about the faith which he formerly devastated."[o]
24 So they began glorifying[p]
God because of me.

2 Then after fourteen years
I again went up to Jerusalem[q] with Bar'na·bas,[r] taking also Titus along with me.
2 But I went up as a result of a revelation.[s] And I laid before them[t] the good news which I am preaching among the nations, privately, however, before those who were outstanding men, for fear that somehow I was running[u] or had run in vain.[v] 3 Nevertheless, not even Titus,[w] who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised,[x] although he was a Greek. 4 But because of the false brothers[y] brought in quietly,[z] who sneaked in to spy upon our freedom[a] which we have in union with Christ Jesus, that they might completely enslave[b] us— 5 to these we did not yield by way of submission,[a] no, not for an hour, in order that the truth[b] of the good news might continue with YOU.

6 But on the part of those who seemed to be something[c]
—whatever sort of men they formerly were makes no difference to me[d]—God does not go by a man's outward appearance[e]
—to me, in fact, those outstanding men imparted nothing
new. 7 But, on the contrary, when they saw that I had entrusted[f]
to me the good news
for those who are uncircumcised,[g] just as Peter [had it] for those who are circumcised[h]— 8 for He who gave Peter powers necessary for an apostleship to those who are circumcised gave powers also to me[i] for those who are of the nations;
9 yes, when they came to know the undeserved kindness[j] that was given me,[k] James[l] and Ce'phas and John, the ones who seemed to be pillars,[m] gave me and Bar'na·bas[n] the right hand of sharing together,[o] that we should go to the nations, but they to those who are circumcised.
10 Only we should keep the poor in mind.[p] This very thing I have also earnestly endeavored to do.[q]

11 However, when Ce'phas[r] came to Antioch,[s] I resisted him face to face, because he stood condemned.[t] 12 For before the arrival of certain men from James,[u] he used to eat[v] with people of the nations;
but when they arrived,
he went withdrawing and separating himself, in fear[w] of those of the circumcised class.[x] 13 The rest of the Jews also joined him in putting on this pretense,[y] so that even Bar'na·bas[z] was led along with them in their pretense. 14 But when I saw they were not walking straight according to the truth of the good news,[a] I said to Ce'phas before them all:[b] "If you, though you are a Jew, live as the nations do, and not as Jews do, how is it that you are compelling people of the nations to live according to Jewish practice?"[a] 15 We who are Jews by nature,[b] and not sinners[c] from the nations, 16 knowing as we do that a man is declared righteous,[d]

not due to works of law, but only through faith[e] toward Christ Jesus, even we have put our faith in Christ Jesus, that we may be declared righteous due to faith toward Christ,[f]
and not due to works of law, because due to works of law
no flesh will be declared righteous.[g] 17 Now if we, in seeking to be declared righteous
by means of Christ,[h] have also ourselves been found sinners,[i] is Christ in reality sin's minister?[j]
May that never happen!
18 For if the very things that I once threw down I build up again,[k] I demonstrate myself to be a transgressor.[l] 19 As for me, through law I died toward law,[m] that I might become alive toward God.[n] 20 I am impaled along with Christ.[o]
It is no longer I that live,[p] but it is Christ that is living in union with me.[q] Indeed, the life that I now live[r] in flesh I live by the faith that is toward the Son of God, who loved me and handed himself over for me.[s] 21 I do not shove aside the undeserved kindness of God;[t] for if righteousness is through law,[u] Christ actually died for nothing.[v]

3 O senseless Ga·la'tians, who is it that brought YOU under evil influence,[w] YOU before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly portrayed impaled?[x]
2 This alone I want to learn from YOU: Did YOU receive the spirit[y] due to works of law[z]
or due to a hearing[a] by faith?
3 Are YOU so senseless? After starting in spirit[b] are YOU now being completed in flesh?[c] 4 Did YOU undergo so many sufferings to no purpose?[a] If it really was to no purpose. 5 He, therefore, who supplies YOU the spirit[b] and performs powerful works[c] among YOU, does he do it owing to works of law or owing to a hearing by faith?
6 Just as Abraham "put faith in Jehovah, and it was counted to him as righteousness."[d]

7 Surely YOU know that those who adhere to faith[e] are the ones who are sons of Abraham.[f] 8 Now the Scripture, seeing in advance that God would declare people of the nations righteous due to faith, declared the good news beforehand to Abraham, namely: "By means of you all the nations will be blessed."[g] 9 Consequently those who adhere to faith are being blessed[h]
together with faithful Abraham.[i]

10 For all those who depend upon works of law are under a curse; for it is written: "Cursed is every one that does not continue in all the things written in the scroll of the Law in order to do them."[j] 11 Moreover, that by law no one is declared righteous[k] with God is evident, because "the righteous one will live by reason of faith."[l] 12 Now the Law does not adhere to faith, but "he that does them shall live by means of them."[m] 13 Christ by purchase[n] released[o] us from the curse of the Law by becoming a curse[p] instead of us, because it is written: "Accursed is every man hanged upon a stake."[q] 14 The purpose was that the blessing of Abraham might come to be by means of Jesus Christ for the nations,[r] that we might receive the promised spirit[s] through our faith.[t]

15 Brothers, I speak with a human illustration: A validated covenant, though it is a man's,

no one sets aside or attaches additions to it.[a] 16 Now the promises were spoken to Abraham[b] and to his seed.[c] It says, not: "And to seeds," as in the case of many such, but as in the case of one:[d] "And to your seed,"[e] who is Christ.[f] 17 Further, I say this: As to the covenant previously validated by God,[g] the Law that has come into being four hundred and thirty years[h] later does not invalidate it, so as to abolish the promise.[i] 18 For if the inheritance is due to law, it is no longer due to promise;[j] whereas God has kindly given it to Abraham through a promise.[k]

19 Why, then, the Law? It was added to make transgressions manifest,[l] until the seed should arrive[m] to whom the promise had been made; and it was transmitted through angels[n] by the hand of a mediator.[o] 20 Now there is no mediator where only one person is concerned, but God is only one.[p] 21 Is the Law, therefore, against the promises of God?[q] May that never happen! For if a law had been given that was able to give life,[r] righteousness would actually have been by means of law.[s] 22 But the Scripture[t] delivered up all things together to the custody of sin,[u] that the promise resulting from faith toward Jesus Christ might be given to those exercising faith.[v]

23 However, before the faith arrived,[w] we were being guarded under law,[x] being delivered up together into custody, looking to the faith that was destined to be revealed.[y] 24 Consequently the Law has become our tutor leading to Christ,[z] that we might be declared righteous[a] due to faith. 25 But now that the faith has arrived,[b] we are no longer under a tutor.[c]

26 You are all, in fact, sons[d] of God through YOUR faith in Christ Jesus. 27 For all of YOU who were baptized into Christ[e] have put on Christ.[a] 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek,[b] there is neither slave nor freeman,[c] there is neither male nor female;[d] for YOU are all one [person] in union with Christ Jesus.[e] 29 Moreover, if YOU belong to Christ, YOU are really Abraham's seed,[f] heirs with reference to a promise.[g]

4 Now I say that as long as the heir is a babe he does not differ at all from a slave,[h] lord of all things though he is, 2 but he is under men in charge[i] and under stewards until the day his father appointed beforehand. 3 Likewise we also, when we were babes, continued enslaved by the elementary[j] things belonging to the world. 4 But when the full limit of the time arrived,[k] God sent forth his Son,[l] who came to be out of a woman[m] and who came to be under law,[n] 5 that he might release by purchase[o] those under law,[p] that we, in turn, might receive the adoption as sons.[q]

6 Now because YOU are sons, God has sent forth the spirit[r] of his Son into our hearts and it cries out: "Abba, Father!"[s] 7 So, then, you are no longer a slave but a son; and if a son, also an heir through God.[t]

8 Nevertheless, when YOU did not know God,[u] then it was that YOU slaved for those who by nature are not gods.[v] 9 But now that YOU have come to know God, or rather now that YOU have come to be known by God,[w] how is it that YOU are turning back again to the weak[x] and beggarly elementary[y] things and want to slave for them over again?[z] 10 You are scrupulously observing days[a] and months[b] and seasons and years. 11 I fear for YOU, that somehow I have toiled to no purpose[a] respecting YOU.

12 Brothers, I beg YOU, Become as I am,[b] because I used to be also as YOU are.[c] You did me no wrong.[d] 13 But YOU know that it was through a sickness of my flesh I declared the good news to YOU the first time.[e] 14 And what was a trial to YOU in my flesh, YOU did not treat with contempt or spit at in disgust; but YOU received me like an angel[f] of God, like Christ Jesus.[g] 15 Where, then, is that happiness YOU had?[h] For I bear YOU witness that, if it had been possible, YOU would have gouged out YOUR eyes and given them to me.[i] 16 Well, then, have I become YOUR enemy[j] because I tell YOU the truth?[k] 17 They zealously seek YOU,[l] not in a fine way, but they want to shut YOU off [from me], that YOU may zealously seek them.[m] 18 However, it is fine for YOU to be zealously sought for in a fine cause[n] at all times, and not only when I am present[o] with YOU, 19 my little children,[p] with whom I am again in childbirth pains until Christ is formed in YOU.[q] 20 But I could wish to be present with YOU just now[r] and to speak in a different way, because I am perplexed[s] over YOU.

21 Tell me, YOU who want to be under law,[t] Do YOU not hear the Law?[u] 22 For example, it is written that Abraham acquired two sons, one by the servant girl[v] and one by the free woman;[w] 23 but the one by the servant girl was actually born in the manner of flesh,[x] the other by the free woman through a promise.[y] 24 These things stand as a symbolic drama;[z] for these [women] mean two covenants,[a] the one from Mount Si′nai,[b] which brings forth children for slavery, and which is Ha′gar. 25 Now this Ha′gar means Si′nai,[c] a mountain in Arabia, and she corresponds with the Jerusalem today, for she is in slavery[a] with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem[b] above is free, and she is our mother.[c]

27 For it is written: "Be glad, you barren woman who does not give birth; break out and cry aloud, you woman who does not have childbirth pains; for the children of the desolate woman are more numerous than [those] of her who has the husband."[d] 28 Now we, brothers, are children belonging to the promise the same as Isaac was.[e] 29 But just as then the one born in the manner of flesh began persecuting[f] the one born in the manner of spirit, so also now.[g] 30 Nevertheless, what does the Scripture say? "Drive out the servant girl and her son, for by no means shall the son of the servant girl be an heir with the son of the free woman."[h] 31 Wherefore, brothers, we are children, not of a servant girl,[i] but of the free woman.[j]

5 For such freedom Christ set us free.[k] Therefore stand fast,[l] and do not let yourselves be confined again in a yoke of slavery.[m]

2 See! I, Paul, am telling YOU that if YOU become circumcised,[n] Christ will be of no benefit to YOU. 3 Moreover, I bear witness again to every man getting circumcised that he is under obligation to perform the whole Law.[o] 4 You are parted from Christ, whoever YOU are that try to be declared righteous by means of law;[p] YOU have fallen away from his undeserved kindness.[q] 5 For our part we by spirit are eagerly waiting for the hoped-for righteousness as a result of faith.[r] 6 For as regards Christ Jesus neither circumcision is of any value nor is uncircumcision,[s] but faith[t] operating through love[u] [is].

7 You were running well.[v]

Who hindered YOU from keeping on obeying the truth?[a] 8 This sort of persuasion is not from the One calling YOU.[b] 9 A little leaven ferments the whole lump.[c] 10 I am confident[d] about YOU who are in union[e] with [the] Lord that YOU will not come to think otherwise; but the one who is causing YOU trouble[f] will bear [his] judgment,[g] no matter who he may be. 11 As for me, brothers, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? Then, indeed, the stumbling block[h] of the torture stake[i] has been abolished.[j] 12 I wish the men who are trying to overturn YOU[k] would even get themselves emasculated.[l]

13 YOU were, of course, called for freedom,[m] brothers; only do not use this freedom as an inducement for the flesh,[n] but through love slave for one another.[o] 14 For the entire Law stands fulfilled[p] in one saying, namely: “You must love your neighbor as yourself.”[q] 15 If, though, YOU keep on biting and devouring one another,[r] look out that YOU do not get annihilated by one another.[s]

16 But I say, Keep walking by spirit[t] and YOU will carry out no fleshly desire at all.[u] 17 For the flesh is against the spirit[v] in its desire, and the spirit against the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, so that the very things that YOU would like to do YOU do not do.[w] 18 Furthermore, if YOU are being led by spirit,[x] YOU are not under law.[y]

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest,[z] and they are fornication,[a] uncleanness, loose conduct,[b] 20 idolatry, practice of spiritism,[c] enmities, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, contentions, divisions, sects, 21 envies, drunken[d] bouts, revelries, and things like these. As to these things I am forewarning YOU, the same way as I did forewarn YOU, that those who practice[a] such things will not inherit God's kingdom.[b]

22 On the other hand, the fruitage[c] of the spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness,[d] faith, 23 mildness, self-control.[e] Against such things there is no law.[f] 24 Moreover, those who belong to Christ Jesus impaled the flesh together with its passions and desires.[g]

25 If we are living by spirit, let us go on walking orderly also by spirit.[h] 26 Let us not become egotistical, stirring up competition[i] with one another, envying one another.[j]

6 Brothers, even though a man takes some false step[k] before he is aware of it, YOU who have spiritual[l] qualifications try to readjust such a man in a spirit of mildness,[m] as you each keep an eye on yourself,[n] for fear you also may be tempted.[o] 2 Go on carrying the burdens[p] of one another, and thus fulfill the law of the Christ.[q] 3 For if anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing,[r] he is deceiving his own mind. 4 But let each one prove what his own work is,[s] and then he will have cause for exultation in regard to himself alone, and not in comparison[t] with the other person. 5 For each one will carry his own load.[u]

6 Moreover, let anyone who is being orally[v] taught the word share[w] in all good things with the one who gives such oral teaching.[x]

7 Do not be misled:[y] God is not one to be mocked.[z] For whatever a man is sowing, this he will also reap;[a] 8 because he who is sowing with a view to his flesh will reap corruption from his flesh,[a] but he who is sowing with a view to the spirit[b] will reap everlasting life from the spirit.[c] 9 So let us not give up in doing what is fine,[d] for in due season we shall reap if we do not tire out.[e] 10 Really, then, as long as we have time favorable for it,[f] let us work what is good toward all, but especially toward those related to [us] in the faith.[g]

11 SEE with what large letters I have written YOU with my own hand.[h]

12 All those who want to make a pleasing appearance in the flesh are the ones that try to compel YOU to get circumcised,[i] only that they may not be persecuted for the torture stake of the Christ,[j] Jesus. 13 For not even do those who are getting circumcised keep the Law themselves,[k] but they want YOU to be circumcised that they may have cause for boasting in YOUR flesh. 14 Never may it occur that I should boast, except in the torture stake[a] of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world has been impaled to me[b] and I to the world. 15 For neither is circumcision anything nor is uncircumcision,[c] but a new creation[d] [is something]. 16 And all those who will walk orderly by this rule of conduct, upon them be peace and mercy, even upon the Israel of God.[e]

17 Henceforth let no one be making trouble for me, for I am carrying on my body the brand marks[f] [of a slave] of Jesus.[g]

TO THE

EPHESIANS

1 Paul, an apostle[a] of Christ Jesus through God's will,[b] to the holy ones who are [in Eph'e·sus] and faithful ones[c] in union[d] with Christ Jesus:

2 May YOU have undeserved kindness[e] and peace[f] from God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,[g] for he has blessed us[h] with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places[i] in union with Christ, 4 just as he chose[j] us in union with him before the founding[k] of the world, that we should be holy and without blemish[l] before him in love.[m] 5 For he foreordained[n] us to the adoption[o] through Jesus Christ as sons[p] to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,[q] 6 in praise[r] of his glorious undeserved kindness[a] which he kindly conferred upon us by means of [his] loved one.[b] 7 By means of him we have the release by ransom through the blood[c] of that one, yes, the forgiveness[d] of [our] trespasses, according to the riches of his undeserved kindness.[e]

8 This he caused to abound toward us in all wisdom[f] and good sense, 9 in that he made known to us the sacred secret[g] of his will. It is according to his good pleasure which he purposed in himself[h] 10 for an administration[i] at the full limit of the appointed times,[j] namely, to gather[k] all things together again in the Christ,[l] the things in the heavens[a] and the things on the earth.[b] [Yes,] in him, 11 in union with whom we were also assigned as heirs,[c] in that we were foreordained according to the purpose of him who operates all things according to the way his will counsels,[d] 12 that we should serve for the praise of his glory,[e] we who have been first to hope in the Christ.[f] 13 But YOU also hoped in him after YOU heard the word of truth,[g] the good news about YOUR salvation.[h] By means of him also, after YOU believed, YOU were sealed[i] with the promised holy spirit,[j] 14 which is a token[k] in advance of our inheritance,[l] for the purpose of releasing by a ransom[m] [God's] own possession,[n] to his glorious praise.

15 That is why I also, since I have heard of the faith YOU have in the Lord Jesus and toward all the holy ones,[o] 16 do not cease giving thanks for YOU. I continue mentioning YOU in my prayers,[p] 17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give YOU a spirit of wisdom[q] and of revelation in the accurate knowledge of him;[r] 18 the eyes[s] of YOUR heart having been enlightened,[t] that YOU may know what is the hope[u] to which he called YOU, what the glorious riches[v] are which he holds as an inheritance for the holy ones,[w] 19 and what the surpassing greatness of his power[x] is toward us believers. It is according to the operation[y] of the mightiness of his strength, 20 with which he has operated in the case of the Christ when he raised him up from the dead[z] and seated him at his right hand[a] in the heavenly places,[b] 21 far above every government and authority and power and lordship[c] and every name named,[d] not only in this system of things,[e] but also in that to come.[f] 22 He also subjected all things under his feet,[g] and made him head over all things[a] to the congregation, 23 which is his body,[b] the fullness[c] of him who fills up all things in all.[d]

2 Furthermore, [it is] YOU [God made alive] though YOU were dead in YOUR trespasses and sins,[e] 2 in which YOU at one time walked according to the system[f] of things of this world, according to the ruler[g] of the authority of the air, the spirit[h] that now operates in the sons of disobedience.[i] 3 Yes, among them we all at one time conducted ourselves in harmony with the desires of our flesh,[j] doing the things willed by the flesh[k] and the thoughts, and we were naturally children of wrath[l] even as the rest. 4 But God, who is rich in mercy,[m] for his great love with which he loved us,[n] 5 made us alive together with the Christ, even when we were dead in trespasses[o]—by undeserved kindness YOU have been saved[p]— 6 and he raised us up[q] together and seated us together in the heavenly places[r] in union with Christ Jesus, 7 that in the coming[s] systems of things there might be demonstrated the surpassing riches[t] of his undeserved kindness in his graciousness toward us in union[u] with Christ Jesus.

8 By this undeserved kindness, indeed, YOU have been saved through faith;[v] and this not owing to YOU,[w] it is God's gift.[x] 9 No, it is not owing to works,[y] in order that no man should have ground for boasting.[z] 10 For we are a product of his work[a] and were created[b] in union[c] with Christ Jesus for good works,[d] which God prepared in advance[e] for us to walk in them.

11 Therefore keep bearing in mind that formerly YOU were people of the nations as to flesh;[a] "uncircumcision" YOU were called by that which is called "circumcision" made in the flesh with hands[b]— 12 that YOU were at that particular time without Christ,[c] alienated[d] from the state of Israel and strangers to the covenants of the promise,[e] and YOU had no hope[f] and were without God in the world.[g] 13 But now in union with Christ Jesus YOU who were once far off have come to be near by the blood[h] of the Christ. 14 For he is our peace,[i] he who made the two parties[j] one[k] and destroyed the wall[l] in between that fenced[m] them off. 15 By means of his flesh[n] he abolished the enmity,[o] the Law of commandments consisting in decrees,[p] that he might create the two peoples[q] in union with himself into one new man[r] and make peace; 16 and that he might fully reconcile[s] both peoples in one body[t] to God through the torture[u] stake, because he had killed off the enmity[v] by means of himself. 17 And he came and declared the good news of peace[w] to YOU, the ones far off, and peace to those near,[x] 18 because through him we, both peoples,[y] have the approach[z] to the Father by one spirit.[a]

19 Certainly, therefore, YOU are no longer strangers[b] and alien residents,[c] but YOU are fellow citizens[d] of the holy ones[e] and are members of the household[f] of God, 20 and YOU have been built up upon the foundation[g] of the apostles[h] and prophets,[i] while Christ Jesus himself is the foundation cornerstone.[j] 21 In union with him the whole building, being harmoniously joined together,[k] is growing into a holy temple for Jehovah.[l] 22 In union with him[m] YOU, too, are being built up together into a place for God to inhabit by spirit.[n]

3 On account of this I, Paul, the prisoner[a] of Christ Jesus in behalf of YOU, the people of the nations[b]— 2 if, really, YOU have heard about the stewardship[c] of the undeserved kindness of God that was given me with YOU in view, 3 that by way of a revelation the sacred secret was made known to me,[d] just as I wrote previously in brief. 4 In the face of this YOU, when YOU read this, can realize the comprehension[e] I have in the sacred secret[f] of the Christ. 5 In other generations this [secret][g] was not made known to the sons of men as it has now been revealed[h] to his holy apostles and prophets[i] by spirit, 6 namely, that people of the nations should be joint heirs and fellow members of the body[j] and partakers with us of the promise[k] in union with Christ Jesus through the good news. 7 I became a minister[l] of this according to the free gift of the undeserved kindness of God that was given me according to the way his power operates.[m]

8 To me, a man less than the least[n] of all holy ones, this undeserved kindness[o] was given, that I should declare to the nations[p] the good news about the unfathomable riches[q] of the Christ 9 and should make men see how the sacred secret[r] is administered[s] which has from the indefinite past been hidden in God, who created all things.[t] 10 [This was] to the end that now to the governments and the authorities[u] in the heavenly places there might be made known through the congregation[v] the greatly diversified wisdom of God,[w] 11 according to the eternal purpose that he formed in connection with the Christ,[x] Jesus our Lord, 12 by means of whom we have this freeness of speech and an approach[a] with confidence through our faith in him. 13 Wherefore I ask YOU not to give up on account of these tribulations[b] of mine in YOUR behalf, for these mean glory for YOU.

14 On account of this I bend my knees[c] to the Father,[d] 15 to whom every family[e] in heaven and on earth owes its name,[f] 16 to the end that he may grant YOU according to the riches[g] of his glory to be made mighty in the man YOU are inside[h] with power through his spirit,[i] 17 to have the Christ dwell through [YOUR] faith in YOUR hearts with love;[j] that YOU may be rooted[k] and established on the foundation,[l] 18 in order that YOU may be thoroughly able to grasp mentally[m] with all the holy ones what is the breadth and length and height and depth,[n] 19 and to know the love of the Christ[o] which surpasses knowledge, that YOU may be filled with all the fullness[p] that God gives.

20 Now to the one who can, according to his power which is operating[q] in us, do more than superabundantly beyond all the things we ask or conceive,[r] 21 to him be the glory by means of the congregation and by means of Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever.[s] Amen.

4 I, therefore, the prisoner[t] in [the] Lord, entreat YOU to walk worthily[u] of the calling with which YOU were called,[v] 2 with complete lowliness of mind[w] and mildness, with long-suffering,[x] putting up with one another in love,[y] 3 earnestly endeavoring to observe the oneness of the spirit in the uniting bond of peace.[z] 4 One body[a] there is, and one spirit,[b] even as YOU were called in the one hope[c] to which YOU were called; 5 one Lord,[d] one faith,[e] one baptism;[f] 6 one God[g] and Father of all [persons], who is over all and through all and in all.

7 Now to each one of us undeserved kindness[a] was given according to how the Christ measured out the free gift.[b] 8 Wherefore he says: "When he ascended on high he carried away captives; he gave gifts [in] men."[c] 9 Now the expression "he ascended,"[d] what does it mean but that he also descended into the lower regions, that is, the earth?[e] 10 The very one that descended is also the one that ascended[f] far above all the heavens,[g] that he might give fullness[h] to all things.

11 And he gave some as apostles,[i] some as prophets,[j] some as evangelizers,[k] some as shepherds and teachers,[l] 12 with a view to the readjustment[m] of the holy ones, for ministerial work, for the building up of the body of the Christ,[n] 13 until we all attain to the oneness in the faith and in the accurate knowledge of the Son of God, to a full-grown[o] man, to the measure of stature that belongs to the fullness of the Christ;[p] 14 in order that we should no longer be babes, tossed about[q] as by waves and carried hither and thither by every wind of teaching[r] by means of the trickery[s] of men, by means of cunning in contriving error. 15 But speaking the truth,[t] let us by love grow up[u] in all things into him who is the head,[v] Christ. 16 From him all the body,[w] by being harmoniously joined together and being made to cooperate through every joint that gives what is needed, according to the functioning of each respective member in due measure, makes for the growth of the body for the building up of itself in love.[x]

ing just as the nations[a] also walk in the unprofitableness of their minds,[b] 18 while they are in darkness mentally,[c] and alienated[d] from the life that belongs to God, because of the ignorance[e] that is in them, because of the insensibility[f] of their hearts. 19 Having come to be past all moral sense,[g] they gave themselves over to loose[h] conduct to work uncleanness[i] of every sort with greediness.[j]

20 But YOU did not learn the Christ to be so,[k] 21 provided, indeed, that YOU heard him and were taught by means of him,[l] just as truth[m] is in Jesus, 22 that YOU should put away the old personality[n] which conforms to YOUR former course of conduct and which is being corrupted[o] according to his deceptive desires;[p] 23 but that YOU should be made new in the force actuating YOUR mind,[q] 24 and should put on[r] the new personality[s] which was created[t] according to God's will in true righteousness[u] and loyalty.

25 Wherefore, now that YOU have put away falsehood,[v] speak truth each one of YOU with his neighbor,[w] because we are members belonging to one another.[x] 26 Be wrathful, and yet do not sin;[y] let the sun not set with YOU in a provoked state,[z] 27 neither allow place for the Devil.[a] 28 Let the stealer steal no more,[b] but rather let him do hard work, doing with his hands what is good work,[c] that he may have something to distribute to someone in need.[d] 29 Let a rotten saying not proceed out of YOUR mouth,[e] but whatever saying is good for building up as the need may be, that it may impart what is favorable to the hearers.[f] 30 Also, do not be grieving God's holy spirit,[g] with which YOU have been sealed[h] for a day of releasing by ransom.[i]

31 Let all malicious bitterness[j] and anger and wrath and screaming and abusive speech[a] be taken away from YOU along with all badness.[b] 32 But become kind[c] to one another, tenderly compassionate,[d] freely forgiving one another just as God also by Christ freely forgave YOU.[e]

5 Therefore, become imitators of God,[f] as beloved children, 2 and go on walking in love,[g] just as the Christ also loved YOU[h] and delivered himself up for YOU as an offering[i] and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling odor.[j]

3 Let fornication[k] and uncleanness of every sort or greediness[l] not even be mentioned among YOU,[m] just as it befits holy people;[n] 4 neither shameful conduct[o] nor foolish talking nor obscene[p] jesting, things which are not becoming, but rather the giving of thanks.[q] 5 For YOU know this, recognizing it for yourselves, that no fornicator[r] or unclean person or greedy person[s]—which means being an idolater—has any inheritance in the kingdom of the Christ and of God.[t]

6 Let no man deceive YOU with empty words,[u] for because of the aforesaid things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience.[v] 7 Therefore do not become partakers with them;[w] 8 for YOU were once darkness,[x] but YOU are now light[y] in connection with [the] Lord. Go on walking as children of light, 9 for the fruitage of the light consists of every sort of goodness and righteousness and truth.[z] 10 Keep on making sure of what is acceptable[a] to the Lord; 11 and quit sharing[b] with [them] in the unfruitful works that belong to the darkness,[c] but, rather, even be reproving[a] [them], 12 for the things that take place in secret by them it is shameful even to relate.[b] 13 Now all the things that are being reproved[c] are made manifest by the light, for everything that is being made manifest[d] is light. 14 Wherefore he says: "Awake,[e] O sleeper, and arise from the dead,[f] and the Christ will shine[g] upon you."

15 So keep strict watch that how YOU walk[h] is not as unwise but as wise [persons], 16 buying out the opportune time[i] for yourselves, because the days are wicked.[j] 17 On this account cease becoming unreasonable, but go on perceiving[k] what the will[l] of Jehovah is. 18 Also, do not be getting drunk[m] with wine, in which there is debauchery,[n] but keep getting filled with spirit,[o] 19 speaking to yourselves with psalms[p] and praises[q] to God and spiritual songs, singing[r] and accompanying yourselves with music[s] in YOUR hearts to Jehovah, 20 in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ giving thanks[t] always for all things to our God and Father.

21 Be in subjection to one another[u] in fear of Christ. 22 Let wives be in subjection[v] to their husbands as to the Lord, 23 because a husband is head of his wife[w] as the Christ also is head of the congregation,[x] he being a savior of [this] body. 24 In fact, as the congregation is in subjection to the Christ, so let wives also be to their husbands in everything.[y] 25 Husbands, continue loving YOUR wives,[z] just as the Christ also loved the congregation and delivered up himself for it,[a] 26 that he might sanctify it,[b] cleansing it with the bath of water by means of the word,[c] 27 that he might present the congregation to himself in its splendor,[d] not having a spot or a wrinkle or any of such things, but that it should be holy and without blemish.[a]

28 In this way husbands ought to be loving their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself, 29 for no man ever hated his own flesh; but he feeds and cherishes it,[b] as the Christ also does the congregation, 30 because we are members of his body.[c] 31 "For this reason a man will leave [his] father and [his] mother and he will stick to his wife, and the two will become one flesh."[d] 32 This sacred secret[e] is great. Now I am speaking with respect to Christ and the congregation.[f] 33 Nevertheless, also, let each one of YOU individually so love his wife[g] as he does himself; on the other hand, the wife should have deep respect[h] for her husband.

6 Children, be obedient to YOUR parents[i] in union[j] with [the] Lord, for this is righteous:[k] 2 "Honor your father and [your] mother";[l] which is the first command with a promise:[m] 3 "That it may go well with you and you may endure a long time on the earth."[n] 4 And YOU, fathers, do not be irritating YOUR children,[o] but go on bringing them up[p] in the discipline[q] and mental-regulating[r] of Jehovah.

5 YOU slaves, be obedient to those who are [YOUR] masters in a fleshly sense,[s] with fear and trembling[t] in the sincerity of YOUR hearts, as to the Christ, 6 not by way of eye-service as men pleasers,[u] but as Christ's slaves, doing the will of God whole-souled.[v] 7 Be slaves with good inclinations, as to Jehovah,[w] and not to men, 8 for YOU know that each one, whatever good he may do, will receive this back from Jehovah,[a] whether he be slave or freeman.[b] 9 Also, YOU masters, keep doing the same things to them, letting up on the threatening,[c] for YOU know that the Master of both them and YOU[d] is in the heavens, and there is no partiality[e] with him.

10 Finally, go on acquiring power[f] in [the] Lord and in the mightiness[g] of his strength. 11 Put on the complete suit of armor[h] from God that YOU may be able to stand firm against the machinations[i] of the Devil; 12 because we have a wrestling,[j] not against blood and flesh, but against the governments,[k] against the authorities,[l] against the world rulers[m] of this darkness, against the wicked spirit[n] forces in the heavenly places. 13 On this account take up the complete suit of armor from God,[o] that YOU may be able to resist in the wicked day and, after YOU have done all things thoroughly, to stand firm.[p]

14 Stand firm, therefore, with YOUR loins girded[q] about with truth,[r] and having on the breastplate of righteousness,[s] 15 and with YOUR feet[t] shod with the equipment of the good news of peace.[u] 16 Above all things, take up the large shield of faith,[v] with which YOU will be able to quench all the wicked one's burning missiles.[a] 17 Also, accept the helmet[b] of salvation, and the sword[c] of the spirit,[d] that is, God's word,[e] 18 while with every form of prayer[f] and supplication YOU carry on prayer on every occasion in spirit.[g] And to that end keep awake with all constancy and with supplication in behalf of all the holy ones, 19 also for me, that ability to speak[h] may be given me with the opening of my mouth, with freeness of speech[i] to make known the sacred secret of the good news,[j] 20 for which I am acting as an ambassador[k] in chains; that I may speak in connection with it with boldness as I ought to speak.[l]

21 Now in order that YOU may also know about my affairs, as to how I am doing, Tych'i·cus,[m] a beloved brother and faithful minister in [the] Lord, will make everything known to YOU.[n] 22 I am sending him to YOU for this very purpose, that YOU may know of the things having to do with us and that he may comfort YOUR hearts.[o]

23 May the brothers have peace and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 24 May the undeserved kindness[p] be with all those loving our Lord Jesus Christ in incorruptness.

TO THE

PHILIPPIANS

1 Paul and Timothy, slaves[a] of Christ Jesus, to all the holy ones in union with Christ Jesus who are in Phi·lip'pi,[b] along with overseers and ministerial servants:[c]

2 May YOU have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ.[d]

3 I thank my God always upon every remembrance of YOU[a] 4 in every supplication of mine for all of YOU,[b] as I offer my supplication with joy, 5 because of the contribution[c] YOU have made to the good news from the first day until this moment. 6 For I am confident of this very thing, that he who started a good work in YOU will carry it to completion[a] until the day[b] of Jesus Christ. 7 It is altogether right for me to think this regarding all of YOU, on account of my having YOU in my heart,[c] all of YOU being sharers[d] with me in the undeserved kindness, both in my [prison][e] bonds and in the defending[f] and legally[g] establishing of the good news.

8 For God is my witness of how I am yearning for all of YOU in such tender affection[h] as Christ Jesus has. 9 And this is what I continue praying, that YOUR love may abound[i] yet more and more with accurate knowledge[j] and full discernment;[k] 10 that YOU may make sure of the more important things,[l] so that YOU may be flawless[m] and not be stumbling[n] others up to the day of Christ, 11 and may be filled with righteous fruit,[o] which is through Jesus Christ, to God's glory and praise.[p]

12 Now I desire YOU to know, brothers, that my affairs have turned out for the advancement of the good news[q] rather than otherwise, 13 so that my bonds[r] have become public knowledge[s] in association with Christ among all the Prae·to′ri·an Guard and all the rest;[t] 14 and most of the brothers in [the] Lord, feeling confidence by reason of my [prison] bonds, are showing all the more courage to speak the word of God fearlessly.[u]

15 True, some are preaching the Christ through envy and rivalry,[v] but others also through goodwill.[w] 16 The latter are publicizing the Christ out of love, for they know I am set here for the defense[x] of the good news; 17 but the former do it out of contentiousness,[y] not with a pure motive, for they are supposing to stir up tribulation[z] [for me] in my [prison] bonds. 18 What then? [Nothing,] except that in every way, whether in pretense[a] or in truth, Christ is being publicized,[b] and in this I rejoice. In fact, I will also keep on rejoicing, 19 for I know this will result in my salvation through YOUR supplication[c] and a supply of the spirit of Jesus Christ,[d] 20 in harmony with my eager expectation[e] and hope[f] that I shall not be ashamed[g] in any respect, but that in all freeness of speech[h] Christ will, as always before, so now be magnified by means of my body,[i] whether through life or through death.[j]

21 For in my case to live is Christ,[k] and to die,[l] gain. 22 Now if it be to live on in the flesh, this is a fruitage of my work[m]—and yet which thing to select I do not make known. 23 I am under pressure from these two things;[n] but what I do desire is the releasing and the being with Christ,[o] for this, to be sure, is far better.[p] 24 However, for me to remain in the flesh is more necessary on YOUR account.[q] 25 So, being confident of this, I know I shall remain[r] and shall abide with all of YOU for YOUR advancement[s] and the joy that belongs to [YOUR] faith, 26 so that YOUR exultation may overflow in Christ Jesus by reason of me through my presence again with YOU.

27 Only behave in a manner worthy[t] of the good news about the Christ, in order that, whether I come and see YOU or be absent, I may hear about the things which concern YOU, that YOU are standing firm in one spirit, with one soul[u] striving side by side for the faith of the good news, 28 and in no respect being frightened by YOUR opponents.[v] This very thing is a proof of destruction for them, but of salvation for YOU;[w] and this [indication] is from God, 29 because to YOU the privilege was given in behalf of Christ, not only to put YOUR faith[x] in him, but also to suffer[y] in his behalf. 30 For YOU have the same struggle as YOU saw in my case[a] and as YOU now hear about in my case.[b]

2 If, then, there is any encouragement in Christ,[c] if any consolation of love, if any sharing of spirit,[d] if any tender affections[e] and compassions, 2 make my joy full in that YOU are of the same mind[f] and have the same love, being joined together in soul, holding the one thought in mind,[g] 3 doing nothing out of contentiousness[h] or out of egotism,[i] but with lowliness of mind considering that the others are superior[j] to YOU, 4 keeping an eye, not in personal interest upon just YOUR own matters,[k] but also in personal interest upon those of the others.[l]

5 Keep this mental attitude in YOU that was also in Christ Jesus,[m] 6 who, although he was existing in God's form,[n] gave no consideration to a seizure, namely, that he should be equal to God.[o] 7 No, but he emptied himself and took a slave's form[p] and came to be in the likeness of men.[q] 8 More than that, when he found himself in fashion as a man,[r] he humbled himself and became obedient as far as death,[s] yes, death on a torture stake.[t] 9 For this very reason also God exalted him to a superior position[u] and kindly gave him the name that is above every [other] name,[v] 10 so that in the name of Jesus every knee should bend of those in heaven and those on earth and those under the ground,[w] 11 and every tongue should openly acknowledge[x] that Jesus Christ is Lord[y] to the glory of God the Father.[z]

12 Consequently, my beloved ones, in the way that YOU have always obeyed,[a] not during my presence only, but now much more readily during my absence, keep working out YOUR own salvation with fear[b] and trembling; 13 for God is the one that, for the sake of [his] good pleasure, is acting within YOU[a] in order for YOU both to will and to act.[b] 14 Keep doing all things free from murmurings[c] and arguments,[d] 15 that YOU may come to be blameless[e] and innocent, children[f] of God without a blemish in among a crooked and twisted generation,[g] among whom YOU are shining as illuminators in the world,[h] 16 keeping a tight grip on the word of life,[i] that I may have cause for exultation in Christ's day,[j] that I did not run in vain or work hard in vain.[k] 17 Notwithstanding, even if I am being poured out like a drink offering[l] upon the sacrifice[m] and public service to which faith has led YOU,[n] I am glad and I rejoice[o] with all of YOU. 18 Now in the same way YOU yourselves also be glad and rejoice with me.[p]

19 For my part I am hoping in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to YOU shortly, that I may be a cheerful soul[q] when I get to know about the things pertaining to YOU. 20 For I have no one else of a disposition like his who will genuinely care[r] for the things pertaining to YOU. 21 For all the others are seeking their own interests,[s] not those of Christ Jesus. 22 But YOU know the proof he gave of himself, that like a child[t] with a father he slaved with me in furtherance of the good news. 23 This, therefore, is the man I am hoping to send just as soon as I have seen how things stand concerning me. 24 Indeed, I am confident in [the] Lord that I myself shall also come shortly.[u]

25 However, I consider it necessary to send to YOU E·paph·ro·di′tus,[v] my brother and fellow worker[w] and fellow soldier,[a] but YOUR envoy and private servant for my need, 26 since he is longing to see all of YOU and is depressed because YOU heard he had fallen sick. 27 Yes, indeed, he fell sick nearly to the point of death; but God had mercy[b] on him, in fact, not only on him, but also on me, that I should not get grief upon grief. 28 Therefore with the greater haste I am sending him, that on seeing him YOU may rejoice again and I may be the more free from grief. 29 Therefore give him the customary welcome[c] in [the] Lord with all joy; and keep holding men of that sort dear,[d] 30 because on account of the Lord's work he came quite near to death, exposing his soul to danger,[e] that he might fully make up for YOUR not being here to render private service to me.[f]

3 Finally, my brothers, continue rejoicing in [the] Lord.[g] To be writing the same things to YOU is not troublesome for me, but it is of safety to YOU.

2 Look out for the dogs,[h] look out for the workers of injury, look out for those who mutilate the flesh.[i] 3 For we are those with the real circumcision,[j] who are rendering sacred service by God's spirit[k] and have our boasting in Christ Jesus[l] and do not have our confidence in the flesh,[m] 4 though I, if anyone, do have grounds for confidence also in the flesh.

If any other man thinks he has grounds for confidence in the flesh, I the more so:[n] 5 circumcised the eighth day,[o] out of the family stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin,[p] a Hebrew [born] from Hebrews;[q] as respects law, a Pharisee;[r] 6 as respects zeal, persecuting the congregation;[s] as respects righteousness that is by means of law, one who proved himself blameless. 7 Yet what things were gains to me, these I have considered loss on account of the Christ.[a] 8 Why, for that matter, I do indeed also consider all things to be loss on account of the excelling value of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord.[b] On account of him I have taken the loss of all things and I consider them as a lot of refuse,[c] that I may gain Christ 9 and be found in union with him, having, not my own righteousness, which results from law,[d] but that which is through faith[e] in Christ, the righteousness that issues from God on the basis of faith,[f] 10 so as to know him and the power of his resurrection[g] and a sharing in his sufferings,[h] submitting myself to a death like his,[i] 11 [to see] if I may by any means attain to the earlier resurrection[j] from the dead.

12 Not that I have already received it or am already made perfect,[k] but I am pursuing[l] to see if I may also lay hold[m] on that for which I have also been laid hold[n] on by Christ Jesus. 13 Brothers, I do not yet consider myself as having laid hold on [it]; but there is one thing about it: Forgetting the things behind[o] and stretching forward to the things ahead,[p] 14 I am pursuing down toward the goal[q] for the prize[r] of the upward call[s] of God by means of Christ Jesus. 15 Let us, then, as many of us as are mature,[t] be of this mental attitude;[u] and if YOU are mentally inclined otherwise in any respect, God will reveal the above [attitude] to YOU. 16 At any rate, to what extent we have made progress, let us go on walking orderly[v] in this same routine.

17 Unitedly become imitators[w] of me, brothers, and keep YOUR eye on those who are walking in a way that accords with the example YOU have in us.[x] 18 For there are many, I used to mention them often but now I mention them also with weeping, who are walking as the enemies of the torture stake of the Christ,[a] 19 and their finish is destruction,[b] and their god is their belly,[c] and their glory consists in their shame,[d] and they have their minds upon things on the earth.[e] 20 As for us, our citizenship[f] exists in the heavens,[g] from which place also we are eagerly waiting[h] for a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ,[i] 21 who will refashion our humiliated body[j] to be conformed to his glorious body[k] according to the operation[l] of the power that he has, even to subject[m] all things to himself.

4 Consequently, my brothers beloved and longed for, my joy and crown,[n] stand firm[o] in this way in [the] Lord, beloved ones.

2 Eu·o'di·a I exhort and Syn'ty·che I exhort to be of the same mind[p] in [the] Lord. 3 Yes, I request you too, genuine yokefellow,[q] keep assisting these [women] who have striven side by side with me[r] in the good news along with Clement as well as the rest of my fellow workers,[s] whose names[t] are in the book of life.[u]

4 Always rejoice in [the] Lord.[v] Once more I will say, Rejoice![w] 5 Let YOUR reasonableness[x] become known to all men. The Lord is near.[y] 6 Do not be anxious over anything,[z] but in everything by prayer and supplication[a] along with thanksgiving let YOUR petitions be made known to God;[b] 7 and the peace[c] of God that excels all thought will guard YOUR hearts[d] and YOUR mental powers by means of Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are of serious concern, whatever things are righteous, whatever things are chaste,[e] whatever things are lovable, whatever things are well spoken of, whatever virtue there is and whatever praiseworthy thing there is, continue considering these things.[a] 9 The things that YOU learned as well as accepted and heard and saw in connection with me, practice these;[b] and the God of peace[c] will be with YOU.

10 I do rejoice greatly in [the] Lord that now at last YOU have revived YOUR thinking in my behalf,[d] to which YOU were really giving thought, but YOU lacked opportunity. 11 Not that I am speaking with regard to being in want, for I have learned, in whatever circumstances I am, to be self-sufficient.[e] 12 I know indeed how to be low [on provisions],[f] I know indeed how to have an abundance. In everything and in all circumstances I have learned the secret of both how to be full and how to hunger, both how to have an abundance and how to suffer want.[g] 13 For all things I have the strength by virtue of him who imparts power to me.[h]

14 Nevertheless, YOU acted well in becoming sharers[i] with me in my tribulation.[j] 15 In fact, YOU Phi·lip'pi·ans, also know that at [the] start of declaring the good news, when I departed from Mac·e·do'ni·a, not a congregation took a share with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except YOU alone;[k] 16 because, even in Thes·sa·lo·ni'ca, YOU sent something to me both once and a second time for my need. 17 Not that I am earnestly seeking the gift,[l] but that I am earnestly seeking the fruitage[m] that brings more credit to YOUR account. 18 However, I have all things in full and have an abundance. I am filled, now that I have received from E·paph·ro·di'tus[n] the things from YOU, a sweet-smelling odor,[o] an acceptable sacrifice,[p] well-pleasing to God. 19 In turn, my God[q] will fully supply all YOUR need[r] to the

TO THE COLOSSIANS

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through God's will,[a] and Timothy[b] [our] brother 2 to the holy ones and faithful brothers in union[c] with Christ
at Co·los′sae:

May YOU have undeserved kindness and peace from God
our Father.[d]

3 We thank[e] God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ always when we pray for YOU,[f]
4 since we heard of YOUR faith in connection with Christ Jesus and the love YOU have for all the holy ones[g] 5 because of the hope[h] that is being reserved for YOU in the heavens.[i] This [hope] YOU heard of before by the telling of the truth of that good news[j] 6 which has presented itself to YOU, even as it is bearing fruit[k] and increasing[l] in all the world[m] just as [it is doing] also among YOU, from the day YOU heard and accurately knew the undeserved kindness[n] of God in truth.[o] 7 That is what YOU have learned from Ep′a·phras[p] our beloved fellow slave, who is a faithful minister of the Christ on our behalf, 8 who also disclosed to us YOUR love[q] in a spiritual way.

9 That is also why we, from the day we heard [of it], have not ceased praying for YOU[r] and asking that YOU may be filled with the accurate knowledge[s]
of his will in all wisdom[t]
and spiritual comprehension,[u] 10 in order to walk worthily[v] of Jehovah[a] to the end of fully pleasing [him] as YOU go on bearing fruit in every good work[b] and increasing in the accurate[c] knowledge of God, 11 being made powerful with all power to the extent of his glorious might[d] so as to endure[e] fully and be long-suffering with joy, 12 thanking the Father who rendered YOU suitable for YOUR participation in the inheritance[f] of the holy ones[g] in the light.[h]

13 He delivered us from the authority[i] of the darkness and transferred[j] us into the kingdom[k]
of the Son of his love,[l] 14 by means of whom we have our release by ransom, the forgiveness of our sins.[m] 15 He is the image[n] of the invisible[o] God,
the firstborn[p] of all creation;
16 because by means of him[q] all [other] things were created in the heavens and upon the earth, the things visible and the things invisible, no matter whether they are thrones or lordships or governments or authorities.[r] All [other] things have been created through him[s] and for him.
17 Also, he is before all [other] things[t] and by means of him all [other] things were made to exist,[u] 18 and he is the head of the body, the congregation.[v] He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead,[w] that he might become the one who is first[a] in all things; 19 because [God] saw good for all fullness[b] to dwell in him, 20 and through him to reconcile[c] again to himself all [other] things[d] by making peace[e] through the blood[f] [he shed] on the torture stake,[g] no matter whether they are the things upon the earth or the things in the heavens.

21 Indeed, YOU who were once alienated[h] and enemies because YOUR minds were on the works that were wicked,[i] 22 he now has again reconciled[j]
by means of that one's fleshly body through [his] death,[k] in order to present YOU holy and unblemished[l] and open to no accusation[m] before him, 23 provided, of course, that YOU continue in the faith,[n] established on the foundation[o] and steadfast[p] and not being shifted away from the hope of that good news which YOU heard,[q] and which was preached[r] in all creation[s] that is under heaven.
Of this [good news] I Paul became a minister.[t]

24 I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for YOU,[u] and I, in my turn, am filling up what is lacking of the tribulations[v] of the Christ in my flesh on behalf of his body, which is the congregation.[w] 25 I became a minister[x] of this [congregation] in accordance with the stewardship[y]
from God which was given me in YOUR interest to preach the word of God fully, 26 the sacred secret[z] that was hidden from the past systems of things[a]
and from the past generations.
But now it has been made manifest[b] to his holy ones, 27 to whom God has been pleased to make known what are the glorious riches[c] of this sacred secret[d] among the nations. It is Christ[e] in union with YOU, the hope of [his] glory.[f] 28 He is the one we are publicizing,[g] admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom,[h] that we may present every man complete[a] in union with Christ. 29 To this end I am indeed working hard, exerting myself[b] in accordance with the operation[c] of him and which is at work in me with power.[d]

2 For I want YOU to realize how great a struggle[e] I am having in behalf of YOU and of those at La·o·di·ce′a[f] and of all those who have not seen my face in the flesh, 2 that their hearts may be comforted,[g] that they may be harmoniously joined together in love[h] and with a view to all the riches of the full assurance of [their] understanding,[i] with a view to an accurate knowledge of the sacred secret of God, namely, Christ.[j] 3 Carefully concealed in him are all the treasures of wisdom and of knowledge.[k] 4 This I am saying that no man may delude YOU with persuasive arguments.[l] 5 For though I am absent in the flesh, all the same I am with YOU in the spirit,[m] rejoicing and beholding
YOUR good order[n] and the firmness of YOUR faith[o] toward Christ.

6 Therefore, as YOU have accepted Christ Jesus the Lord, go on walking in union[p] with him, 7 rooted[q] and being built up[r]
in him and being stabilized in the faith,[s] just as YOU were taught, overflowing with [faith]
in thanksgiving.[t]

8 Look out: perhaps there may be someone who will carry[u]
YOU off as his prey through the philosophy[v] and empty deception[w] according to the tradition of men, according to the elementary[x] things of the world and not according to Christ; 9 because it is in him that all the fullness[y] of the divine[z] quality[a] dwells bodily. 10 And so YOU are possessed of a fullness by means of him, who is the head of all government and authority.[a] 11 By relationship[b] with him YOU were also circumcised[c] with a circumcision performed without hands by the stripping off the body of the flesh,[d] by the circumcision that belongs to the Christ, 12 for YOU were buried with him in [his] baptism,[e] and by relationship with him YOU were also raised[f] up together through [YOUR] faith[g] in the operation[h] of God, who raised him up from the dead.[i]

13 Furthermore, though YOU were dead in YOUR trespasses and in the uncircumcised state of YOUR flesh, [God] made YOU alive together with him.[j] He kindly forgave us all our trespasses[k] 14 and blotted[l] out the handwritten document[m] against us, which consisted of decrees[n] and which was in opposition to us;[o] and He has taken it out of the way by nailing[p] it to the torture stake.[q] 15 Stripping the governments and the authorities[r] bare, he exhibited them in open public as conquered,[s] leading them in a triumphal procession[t] by means of it.

16 Therefore let no man judge[u] YOU in eating and drinking[v] or in respect of a festival[w] or of an observance of the new moon[x] or of a sabbath;[y] 17 for those things are a shadow[z] of the things to come, but the reality[a] belongs to the Christ.[b] 18 Let no man deprive[c] YOU of the prize[d] who takes delight in a [mock] humility and a form of worship of the angels, "taking his stand on" the things he has seen, puffed up without proper cause by his fleshly frame of mind, 19 whereas he is not holding fast to the head,[e] to the one from whom all the body, being supplied and harmoniously joined together[f] by means of its joints and ligaments, goes on growing with the growth that God gives.[g]

20 If YOU died[h] together with Christ toward the elementary[i] things of the world,[a] why do YOU, as if living in the world, further subject yourselves to the decrees:[b] 21 "Do not handle, nor taste,[c] nor touch,"[d] 22 respecting things that are all destined to destruction by being used up, in accordance with the commands and teachings of men?[e] 23 Those very things are, indeed, possessed of an appearance of wisdom in a self-imposed form of worship and [mock] humility, a severe treatment of the body;[f] but they are of no value in combating the satisfying of the flesh.[g]

3 If, however, YOU were raised up[h] with the Christ, go on seeking the things above,[i] where the Christ is seated at the right hand of God.[j] 2 Keep YOUR minds fixed on the things above,[k] not on the things upon the earth.[l] 3 For YOU died,[m] and YOUR life[n] has been hidden with the Christ in union[o] with God. 4 When the Christ, our life,[p] is made manifest, then YOU also will be made manifest[q] with him in glory.[r]

5 Deaden,[s] therefore, YOUR body members[t] that are upon the earth as respects fornication, uncleanness, sexual appetite,[u] hurtful desire, and covetousness,[v] which is idolatry. 6 On account of those things the wrath of God is coming.[w] 7 In those very things YOU, too, once walked when YOU used to live in them.[x] 8 But now really put them all away from YOU,[y] wrath, anger, badness, abusive speech,[z] and obscene[a] talk out of YOUR mouth. 9 Do not be lying to one another.[b] Strip off the old personality[c] with its practices, 10 and clothe yourselves with the new[d] [personality], which through accurate knowledge is being made new according to the image[a] of the One who created it, 11 where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, foreigner, Scyth′i·an, slave, freeman,[b] but Christ is all things and in all.[c]

12 Accordingly, as God's chosen ones,[d] holy and loved, clothe yourselves with the tender affections of compassion,[e] kindness, lowliness of mind,[f] mildness,[g] and long-suffering.[h] 13 Continue putting up with one another and forgiving one another freely[i] if anyone has a cause for complaint[j] against another. Even as Jehovah freely forgave YOU,[k] so do YOU also. 14 But, besides all these things, [clothe yourselves with] love,[l] for it is a perfect bond[m] of union.

15 Also, let the peace[n] of the Christ control in YOUR hearts,[o] for YOU were, in fact, called to it in one body.[p] And show yourselves thankful. 16 Let the word of the Christ reside in YOU richly in all wisdom.[q] Keep on teaching[r] and admonishing one another with psalms,[s] praises to God, spiritual songs[t] with graciousness, singing in YOUR hearts to Jehovah.[u] 17 And whatever it is that YOU do in word or in work,[v] do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus,[w] thanking[x] God the Father through him.

18 You wives, be in subjection[y] to [your] husbands, as it is becoming in [the] Lord. 19 You husbands, keep on loving [your] wives[z] and do not be bitterly angry with them.[a] 20 You children, be obedient[b] to [your] parents in everything, for this is well-pleasing in [the] Lord. 21 You fathers, do not be exasperating your children,[c] so that they do not become downhearted. 22 You slaves, be obedient in everything to those who are [your] masters in a fleshly sense,[d] not with acts of eye-service, as men pleasers,[e] but with sincerity of heart, with fear of Jehovah.[a] 23 Whatever YOU are doing, work at it whole-souled[b] as to Jehovah,[c] and not to men, 24 for YOU know that it is from Jehovah[d] YOU will receive the due reward of the inheritance.[e] SLAVE for the Master, Christ.[f] 25 Certainly the one that is doing wrong will receive back[g] what he wrongly did, and there is no partiality.[h]

4 YOU masters, keep dealing out what is righteous and what is fair to [your] slaves,[i] knowing that YOU also have a Master in heaven.[j]

2 Be persevering in prayer,[k] remaining awake in it with thanksgiving,[l] 3 at the same time praying also for us,[m] that God may open a door[n] of utterance to us, to speak the sacred secret[o] about the Christ, for which, in fact, I am in prison bonds;[p] 4 so that I shall make it manifest as I ought to speak.[q]

5 Go on walking in wisdom toward those on the outside,[r] buying out the opportune[s] time for yourselves. 6 Let YOUR utterance be always with graciousness,[t] seasoned with salt,[u] so as to know how YOU ought to give an answer[v] to each one.

7 All my affairs Tych′i·cus,[w] [my] beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow slave in [the] Lord, will make known to YOU. 8 For the very purpose of YOUR knowing the things having to do with us and that he may comfort YOUR hearts,[x] I am sending him to YOU 9 along with O·nes′i·mus,[y] my faithful and beloved brother, who is from among YOU. All the things here they will make known to YOU.

10 Ar·is·tar′chus[z] my fellow captive sends YOU his greetings, and so does Mark[a] the cousin of Bar′na·bas, (concerning whom

YOU received commands to welcome[a] him if ever he comes to YOU,) 11 and Jesus who is called Justus, these being of those circumcised. Only these are my fellow workers for the kingdom of God, and these very ones have become a strengthening aid to me. 12 Ep'a·phras,[b] who is from among YOU, a slave of Christ Jesus, sends YOU his greetings, always exerting himself in YOUR behalf in [his] prayers, that YOU may finally stand complete[c] and with firm conviction in all the will of God. 13 I indeed bear him witness that he puts himself to great effort in behalf of YOU and of those at La·o·di·ce'a[d] and of those at Hi·e·rap'o·lis.

14 Luke[a] the beloved physician sends YOU his greetings, and so does De'mas.[b] 15 Give my greetings to the brothers at La·o·di·ce'a and to Nym'pha and to the congregation at her house.[c] 16 And when this letter has been read among YOU, arrange that it also be read[d] in the congregation of the La·o·di·ce'ans and that YOU also read the one from La·o·di·ce'a. 17 Also, tell Ar·chip'pus:[e] "Keep watching the ministry which you accepted in [the] Lord, that you fulfill it."

18 [Here is] my greeting, Paul's, in my own hand.[f] Continue bearing my [prison] bonds[g] in mind. The undeserved kindness be with YOU.

THE FIRST TO THE

THESSALONIANS

1 Paul and Sil·va'nus[a] and Timothy[b] to the congregation of the Thes·sa·lo'ni·ans in union[c] with God the Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ:

May YOU have undeserved kindness and peace.[d]

2 We always thank God when we make mention concerning all of YOU in our prayers,[e] 3 for we bear incessantly in mind YOUR faithful work[f] and [your] loving labor and [your] endurance due to [your] hope[g] in our Lord Jesus Christ before our God and Father. 4 For we know, brothers loved by God, his choosing of YOU,[h] 5 because the good news we preach did not turn up among YOU with speech alone but also with power[i] and with holy spirit and strong conviction,[j] just as YOU know what sort of men we became to YOU for YOUR sakes;[k] 6 and YOU became imitators[l] of us and of the Lord,[a] seeing that YOU accepted the word under much tribulation[b] with joy of holy spirit,[c] 7 so that YOU came to be an example to all the believers in Mac·e·do'ni·a and in A·cha'ia.

8 The fact is, not only has the word of Jehovah[d] sounded forth from YOU in Mac·e·do'ni·a and A·cha'ia, but in every place YOUR faith[e] toward God has spread abroad,[f] so that we do not need to say anything. 9 For they themselves keep reporting about the way we first entered in among YOU and how YOU turned to God from [YOUR] idols[g] to slave for a living[h] and true[i] God, 10 and to wait[j] for his Son from the heavens,[k] whom he raised up from the dead,[l] namely, Jesus, who delivers us from the wrath which is coming.[m]

2 To be sure, YOU yourselves know, brothers, how our visit[a] to YOU has not been without results,[b] 2 but how, after we had first suffered[c] and been insolently treated[d] (just as YOU know) in Phi·lip'pi,[e] we mustered up boldness by means of our God to speak[f] to YOU the good news of God with a great deal of struggling. 3 For the exhortation we give does not arise from error or from uncleanness[g] or with deceit, 4 but, just as we have been proved by God as fit to be entrusted[h] with the good news, so we speak, as pleasing,[i] not men, but God, who makes proof of our hearts.[j]

5 In fact, at no time have we turned up either with flattering speech,[k] (just as YOU know) or with a false front[l] for covetousness,[m] God is witness! 6 Neither have we been seeking glory from men,[n] no, either from YOU or from others, though we could be an expensive burden[o] as apostles of Christ. 7 To the contrary, we became gentle in the midst of YOU, as when a nursing mother cherishes[p] her own children. 8 So, having a tender affection for YOU,[q] we were well pleased to impart to YOU, not only the good news of God, but also our own souls,[r] because YOU became beloved[s] to us.

9 Certainly YOU bear in mind, brothers, our labor and toil. It was with working[t] night and day, so as not to put an expensive burden upon any one of YOU,[u] that we preached the good news of God to YOU. 10 YOU are witnesses, God is also, how loyal and righteous and unblamable[v] we proved to be to YOU believers. 11 In harmony with that YOU well know how, as a father[w] does his children, we kept exhorting[x] each one of YOU, and consoling and bearing witness to YOU, 12 to the end that YOU should go on walking[y] worthily of God who is calling[z] YOU to his kingdom[a] and glory.

13 Indeed, that is why we also thank God incessantly,[b] because when YOU received God's word,[c] which YOU heard from us, YOU accepted it, not as the word of men,[d] but, just as it truthfully is, as the word of God, which is also at work in YOU believers.[e] 14 For YOU became imitators, brothers, of the congregations of God that are in Ju·de'a in union with Christ Jesus, because YOU also began suffering[f] at the hands of YOUR own countrymen the same things as they also [are suffering] at the hands of the Jews, 15 who killed even the Lord Jesus[g] and the prophets[h] and persecuted us.[i] Furthermore, they are not pleasing God, but are against [the interests of] all men, 16 as they try to hinder[j] us from speaking to people of the nations that these might be saved,[k] with the result that they always fill up the measure[l] of their sins. But his wrath has at length come upon them.[m]

17 As for ourselves, brothers, when we were bereaved of YOU for but a short time, in person, not in heart, we endeavored far more than is usual to see YOUR faces with great desire.[n] 18 For this reason we wanted to come to YOU, yes, I Paul, both once and a second time, but Satan cut across our path. 19 For what is our hope or joy or crown[o] of exultation—why, is it not in fact YOU?—before our Lord Jesus at his presence?[p] 20 YOU certainly are our glory and joy.

3 Hence, when we could bear it no longer, we saw good to be left alone in Athens;[q] 2 and we sent Timothy,[r] our brother and God's minister in the good news[s] about the Christ, in order to make YOU firm and comfort YOU in behalf of YOUR faith, 3 that no one might be swayed by these tribulations.[t] For YOU yourselves know we are appointed to this very thing.[a] 4 In fact, too, when we were with YOU, we used to tell YOU beforehand[b] that we were destined to suffer tribulation,[c] just as it has also happened and as YOU know.[d] 5 That is why, indeed, when I could bear it no longer, I sent to know of YOUR faithfulness,[e] as perhaps in some way the Tempter[f] might have tempted YOU, and our labor might have turned out to be in vain.[g]

6 But Timothy has just now come to us from YOU[h] and given us the good news about YOUR faithfulness and love,[i] and that YOU continue having good remembrance of us always, yearning to see us in the same way, indeed, as we also do YOU.[j] 7 That is why, brothers, we have been comforted[k] over YOU in all our necessity and tribulation through the faithfulness YOU show,[l] 8 because now we live if YOU stand firm in [the] Lord.[m] 9 For what thanksgiving can we render to God concerning YOU in return for all the joy with which we are rejoicing[n] on YOUR account before our God, 10 while night and day we make more than extraordinary supplications[o] to see YOUR faces and to make good the things that are lacking about YOUR faith?[p]

11 Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus[q] direct our way prosperously to YOU. 12 Moreover, may the Lord cause YOU to increase,[r] yes, make YOU abound, in love[s] to one another and to all, even as we also do to YOU; 13 to the end that he may make YOUR hearts firm, unblamable[t] in holiness before our God and Father at the presence[u] of our Lord Jesus with all his holy ones.[v]

Finally, brothers, we request YOU and exhort YOU by the Lord Jesus, just as YOU received [the instruction] from us on how YOU ought to walk[a] and please God, just as YOU are in fact walking, that YOU would keep on doing it more fully.[b] 2 For YOU know the orders[c] we gave YOU through the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is what God wills, the sanctifying of YOU,[d] that YOU abstain from fornication;[e] 4 that each one of YOU should know how to get possession of his own vessel[f] in sanctification[g] and honor, 5 not in covetous sexual appetite[h] such as also those nations[i] have which do not know God;[j] 6 that no one go to the point of harming and encroach upon the rights of his brother in this matter,[k] because Jehovah is one who exacts punishment for all these things,[l] just as we told YOU beforehand and also gave YOU a thorough witness.[m] 7 For God called us, not with allowance for uncleanness, but in connection with sanctification.[n] 8 So, then, the man that shows disregard[o] is disregarding, not man, but God,[p] who puts his holy spirit[q] in YOU.

9 However, with reference to brotherly love,[r] YOU do not need us to be writing YOU, for YOU yourselves are taught by God[s] to love one another;[t] 10 and, in fact, YOU are doing it to all the brothers in all of Mac·e·do′ni·a. But we exhort YOU, brothers, to go on doing it in fuller measure, 11 and to make it YOUR aim to live quietly[u] and to mind YOUR own business[v] and work with YOUR hands,[w] just as we ordered YOU; 12 so that YOU may be walking decently[x] as regards people outside[y] and not be needing anything.[z]

13 Moreover, brothers, we do not want YOU to be ignorant concerning those who are sleeping[a] [in death]; that YOU may not sorrow just as the rest also do who have no hope.[a] 14 For if our faith is that Jesus died and rose again,[b] so, too, those who have fallen asleep [in death] through Jesus God will bring with him.[c] 15 For this is what we tell YOU by Jehovah's word,[d] that we the living who survive to the presence of the Lord[e] shall in no way precede those who have fallen asleep [in death]; 16 because the Lord himself will descend from heaven[f] with a commanding call, with an archangel's[g] voice and with God's trumpet,[h] and those who are dead in union with Christ will rise first.[i] 17 Afterward we the living who are surviving will, together with them,[j] be caught away[k] in clouds[l] to meet[m] the Lord in the air; and thus we shall always be with [the] Lord.[n] 18 Consequently keep comforting one another with these words.

Now as for the times and the seasons,[o] brothers, YOU need nothing to be written to YOU. 2 For YOU yourselves know quite well that Jehovah's day[p] is coming exactly as a thief in the night.[q] 3 Whenever it is that they[r] are saying: "Peace[s] and security!" then sudden destruction[t] is to be instantly upon them just as the pang of distress upon a pregnant woman;[u] and they will by no means escape.[v] 4 But YOU, brothers, YOU are not in darkness,[w] so that that day should overtake YOU as it would thieves,[x] 5 for YOU are all sons of light[y] and sons of day.[z] We belong neither to night nor to darkness.[a]

6 So, then, let us not sleep[b] on as the rest do,[c] but let us stay awake[d] and keep our senses.[e] 7 For those who sleep[f] are accustomed to sleep at night,[g] and those who get drunk are usually drunk at night. 8 But as for us who belong to the day, let us keep our senses and have on the breastplate[h] of faith[i] and love and as a helmet[a] the hope of salvation;[b] 9 because God assigned us, not to wrath,[c] but to the acquiring of salvation[d] through our Lord Jesus Christ.[e] 10 He died for us,[f] that, whether we stay awake or are asleep, we should live together with him.[g] 11 Therefore keep comforting one another and building one another up,[h] just as YOU are in fact doing.[i]

12 Now we request YOU, brothers, to have regard for those who are working hard among YOU and presiding[j] over YOU in [the] Lord and admonishing YOU; 13 and to give them more than extraordinary consideration in love because of their work.[k] Be peaceable with one another.[l] 14 On the other hand, we exhort YOU, brothers, admonish the disorderly,[m] speak consolingly to the depressed souls,[n] support the weak, be long-suffering[o] toward all. 15 See that no one renders injury for injury to anyone else,[p] but always pursue what is good toward one another and to all others.[q]

16 Always be rejoicing.[r] 17 Pray incessantly.[s] 18 In connection with everything give thanks.[t] For this is the will of God in union with Christ Jesus respecting YOU. 19 Do not put out the fire of the spirit.[u] 20 Do not treat prophesyings with contempt.[v] 21 Make sure of all things;[w] hold fast to what is fine.[x] 22 Abstain from every form of wickedness.[y]

23 May the very God of peace[z] sanctify YOU completely.[a] And sound in every respect may the spirit and soul and body of YOU [brothers] be preserved in a blameless manner at the presence of our Lord Jesus

THE SECOND TO THE

THESSALONIANS

1 Paul and Sil·va'nus and Timothy[a] to the congregation of the Thes·sa·lo'ni·ans in union with God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ:

2 May YOU have undeserved kindness and peace from God the Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ.[b]

3 We are obligated to give God thanks always for YOU,[c] brothers, as it is fitting, because YOUR faith is growing[d] exceedingly and the love of each and all of YOU is increasing one toward the other.[e] 4 As a result we ourselves take pride[f] in YOU among the congregations of God because of YOUR endurance and faith in all YOUR persecutions and the tribulations that YOU are bearing.[g] 5 This is a proof of the righteous judgment of God,[h] leading to YOUR being counted worthy of the kingdom of God,[i] for which YOU are indeed suffering.[j]

6 This takes into account that it is righteous on God's part to repay tribulation to those who make tribulation for YOU,[k] 7 but, to YOU who suffer tribulation, relief along with us at the revelation[l] of the Lord Jesus from heaven with his powerful angels[m] 8 in a flaming fire, as he brings vengeance[n] upon those who do not know God[o] and those who do not obey[p] the good news about our Lord Jesus.[q] 9 These very ones will undergo the judicial punishment[a] of everlasting destruction[b] from before the Lord and from the glory of his strength,[c] 10 at the time he comes to be glorified in connection with his holy ones[d] and to be regarded in that day with wonder in connection with all those who exercised faith, because the witness we gave met with faith among YOU.

11 To that very end indeed we always pray for YOU, that our God may count YOU worthy of [his] calling[e] and perform completely all he pleases of goodness and the work of faith with power; 12 in order that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in YOU,[f] and YOU in union[g] with him, in accord with the undeserved kindness[h] of our God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 However, brothers, respecting the presence[i] of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him,[j] we request of YOU 2 not to be quickly shaken from YOUR reason nor to be excited either through an inspired expression[k] or through a verbal message[l] or through a letter[m] as though from us, to the effect that the day[n] of Jehovah is here.

3 Let no one seduce YOU in any manner, because it will not come unless the apostasy[a] comes first and the man of lawlessness[b] gets revealed,[c] the son of destruction.[d] 4 He is set in opposition[e] and lifts himself up over everyone who is called "god" or an object of reverence, so that he sits down in the temple of The God, publicly showing himself to be a god.[f] 5 Do YOU not remember that, while I was yet with YOU, I used to tell[g] YOU these things?

6 And so now YOU know the thing[h] that acts as a restraint,[i] with a view to his being revealed in his own due time.[j] 7 True, the mystery of this lawlessness is already at work;[k] but only till he who is right now acting as a restraint gets to be out of the way.[l] 8 Then, indeed, the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will do away with by the spirit of his mouth[m] and bring to nothing by the manifestation[n] of his presence.[o] 9 But the lawless one's presence is according to the operation[p] of Satan with every powerful work and lying signs and portents[q] 10 and with every unrighteous deception[r] for those who are perishing,[s] as a retribution because they did not accept the love[t] of the truth that they might be saved.[u] 11 So that is why God lets an operation of error go to them, that they may get to believing the lie,[v] 12 in order that they all may be judged because they did not believe the truth[w] but took pleasure in unrighteousness.[x]

13 However, we are obligated to thank God always for YOU, brothers loved by Jehovah, because God selected YOU[y] from [the] beginning for salvation by sanctifying[z] YOU with spirit[a] and by YOUR faith in the truth.[b] 14 To this very destiny he called YOU through the good news we declare,[c] for the purpose of acquiring the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.[d] 15 So, then, brothers, stand firm[e] and maintain YOUR hold on the traditions[a] that YOU were taught, whether it was through a verbal message or through a letter of ours. 16 Moreover, may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved[b] us and gave everlasting comfort and good hope[c] by means of undeserved kindness, 17 comfort YOUR hearts and make YOU firm in every good deed and word.[d]

3 Finally, brothers, carry on prayer for us,[e] that the word of Jehovah[f] may keep moving speedily[g] and being glorified just as it is in fact with YOU; 2 and that we may be delivered from harmful and wicked men,[h] for faith is not a possession of all people.[i] 3 But the Lord is faithful, and he will make YOU firm and keep YOU from the wicked one.[j] 4 Moreover, we have confidence[k] in [the] Lord regarding YOU, that YOU are doing and will go on doing the things we order.[l] 5 May the Lord continue directing YOUR hearts successfully into the love[m] of God and into the endurance[n] for the Christ.

6 Now we are giving YOU orders,[o] brothers, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, to withdraw[p] from every brother walking disorderly[q] and not according to the tradition YOU received from us.[r] 7 For YOU yourselves know the way YOU ought to imitate us,[s] because we did not behave disorderly among YOU[t] 8 nor did we eat food from anyone free.[u] To the contrary, by labor and toil[v] night and day we were working so as not to impose an expensive burden upon any one of YOU.[w] 9 Not that we do not have authority,[x] but in order that we might offer ourselves as an example to YOU to imitate us.[a] 10 In fact, also, when we were with YOU, we used to give YOU this order:[b] "If anyone does not want to work, neither let him eat."[c] 11 For we hear certain ones are walking disorderly[d] among YOU, not working at all but meddling with what does not concern them.[e] 12 To such persons we give the order and exhortation in [the] Lord Jesus Christ that by working with quietness they should eat food they themselves earn.[f]

13 For YOUR part, brothers, do not give up in doing right.[g] 14 But if anyone is not obedient to our word[h] through this letter, keep this one marked,[a] stop associating with him,[b] that he may become ashamed.[c] 15 And yet do not be considering him as an enemy, but continue admonishing[d] him as a brother.

16 Now may the Lord of peace himself give YOU peace constantly in every way.[e] The Lord be with all of YOU.

17 [Here is] my greeting, Paul's, in my own hand,[f] which is a sign in every letter; this is the way I write.

18 The undeserved kindness[g] of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of YOU.

THE FIRST TO

TIMOTHY

1 Paul, an apostle[a] of Christ Jesus under command of God[b] our Savior[c] and of Christ Jesus, our hope,[d] 2 to Timothy,[e] a genuine child[f] in the faith:

May there be undeserved kindness, mercy, peace from God [the] Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.[g]

3 Just as I encouraged you to stay in Eph'e·sus when I was about to go my way into Mac·e·do'ni·a,[h] so I do now, that you might command[i] certain ones not to teach different doctrine,[j] 4 nor to pay attention to false stories[k] and to genealogies, which end up in nothing,[l] but which furnish questions for research rather than a dispensing of anything by God in connection with faith. 5 Really the objective of this mandate is love[m] out of a clean heart[n] and out of a good conscience[o] and out of faith without hypocrisy.[p] 6 By deviating from these things certain ones have been turned aside[a] into idle talk,[b] 7 wanting to be teachers[c] of law,[d] but not perceiving either the things they are saying or the things about which they are making strong assertions.

8 Now we know that the Law is fine[e] provided one handles it lawfully[f] 9 in the knowledge of this fact, that law is promulgated, not for a righteous man, but for persons lawless[g] and unruly,[h] ungodly and sinners, lacking loving-kindness,[i] and profane, murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, manslayers, 10 fornicators,[j] men who lie with males, kidnappers, liars, false swearers,[k] and whatever other thing is in opposition[l] to the healthful teaching[m] 11 according to the glorious good news of the happy[n] God, with which I was entrusted.[o]

12 I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who imparted power to me, because he considered me faithful[a] by assigning me to a ministry,[b] 13 although formerly I was a blasphemer and a persecutor[c] and an insolent[d] man. Nevertheless, I was shown mercy,[e] because I was ignorant[f] and acted with a lack of faith. 14 But the undeserved kindness of our Lord abounded exceedingly[g] along with faith and love that is in connection with Christ Jesus.[h] 15 Faithful and deserving of full acceptance is the saying[i] that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.[j] Of these I am foremost.[k] 16 Nevertheless, the reason why I was shown mercy[l] was that by means of me as the foremost case Christ Jesus might demonstrate all his long-suffering for a sample of those who are going to rest their faith[m] on him for everlasting life.[n]

17 Now to the King of eternity,[o] incorruptible,[p] invisible,[q] [the] only God,[r] be honor and glory forever and ever.[s] Amen.

18 This mandate[t] I commit to you, child, Timothy, in accord with the predictions[u] that led directly on to you, that by these you may go on waging the fine warfare;[v] 19 holding faith and a good conscience,[w] which some have thrust aside[x] and have experienced shipwreck concerning [their] faith.[y] 20 Hy·me·nae'us[z] and Alexander[a] belong to these, and I have handed them over to Satan[b] that they may be taught by discipline not to blaspheme.[c]

2 I therefore exhort, first of all, that supplications, prayers,[d] intercessions, offerings of thanks, be made concerning all sorts of men,[e] 2 concerning kings[f] and all those who are in high station;[g] in order that we may go on leading a calm and quiet life with full godly devotion and seriousness.[a] 3 This is fine and acceptable[b] in the sight of our Savior, God,[c] 4 whose will is that all sorts of men[d] should be saved[e] and come to an accurate knowledge[f] of truth.[g] 5 For there is one God,[h] and one mediator[i] between God[j] and men,[k] a man, Christ Jesus,[l] 6 who gave himself a corresponding ransom for all[m]—[this is] what is to be witnessed to at its own particular times. 7 For the purpose of this witness[n] I was appointed a preacher and an apostle[o]—I am telling the truth,[p] I am not lying—a teacher of nations[q] in the matter of faith[r] and truth.

8 Therefore I desire that in every place the men carry on prayer, lifting up loyal hands,[s] apart from wrath[t] and debates.[u] 9 Likewise I desire the women to adorn themselves in well-arranged dress, with modesty[v] and soundness of mind, not with styles of hair braiding and gold or pearls or very expensive garb,[w] 10 but in the way that befits women professing to reverence God,[x] namely, through good works.[y]

11 Let a woman learn in silence with full submissiveness.[z] 12 I do not permit a woman to teach,[a] or to exercise authority over a man,[b] but to be in silence. 13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve.[c] 14 Also, Adam was not deceived,[d] but the woman was thoroughly deceived[e] and came to be in transgression.[f] 15 However, she will be kept safe through childbearing,[g] provided they continue in faith and love and sanctification along with soundness of mind.[h]

3 That statement is faithful.[a] If any man is reaching out for an office of overseer,[b] he is desirous of a fine work. 2 The overseer should therefore be irreprehensible,[c] a husband of one wife, moderate[d] in habits, sound in mind,[e] orderly,[f] hospitable,[g] qualified to teach,[h] 3 not a drunken brawler,[i] not a smiter,[j] but reasonable,[k] not belligerent,[l] not a lover of money,[m] 4 a man presiding over his own household in a fine manner,[n] having children in subjection with all seriousness;[o] 5 (if indeed any man does not know how to preside over his own household, how will he take care of God's congregation?) 6 not a newly converted man,[p] for fear that he might get puffed up [with pride][q] and fall into the judgment passed upon the Devil.[r] 7 Moreover, he should also have a fine testimony from people on the outside,[s] in order that he might not fall into reproach and a snare[t] of the Devil.

8 Ministerial servants[u] should likewise be serious, not double-tongued, not giving themselves to a lot of wine, not greedy of dishonest gain,[v] 9 holding the sacred secret[w] of the faith with a clean conscience.[x]

10 Also, let these be tested[y] as to fitness first, then let them serve as ministers, as they are free from accusation.[z]

11 Women should likewise be serious, not slanderous,[a] moderate[b] in habits, faithful in all things.[c]

12 Let ministerial servants be husbands of one wife,[d] presiding in a fine manner over children and their own households.[e] 13 For the men who minister in a fine manner are acquiring for themselves a fine standing[f] and great freeness of speech[g] in the faith in connection with Christ Jesus.

14 I am writing you these things, though I am hoping to come to you shortly,[a] 15 but in case I am delayed, that you may know how you ought to conduct yourself in God's household,[b] which is the congregation of [the] living God, a pillar and support[c] of the truth. 16 Indeed, the sacred secret[d] of this godly devotion is admittedly great: 'He was made manifest in flesh,[e] was declared righteous in spirit,[f] appeared to angels,[g] was preached about among nations,[h] was believed upon in [the] world,[i] was received up in glory.'[j]

4 However, the inspired utterance says definitely that in later periods of time[k] some will fall away[l] from the faith, paying attention to misleading inspired utterances[m] and teachings of demons,[n] 2 by the hypocrisy of men who speak lies,[o] marked in their conscience[p] as with a branding iron; 3 forbidding to marry,[q] commanding to abstain from foods[r] which God created[s] to be partaken of with thanksgiving by those who have faith[t] and accurately know the truth. 4 The reason for this is that every creation of God is fine,[u] and nothing is to be rejected[v] if it is received with thanksgiving,[w] 5 for it is sanctified through God's word and prayer over [it].

6 By giving these advices to the brothers you will be a fine minister of Christ Jesus, one nourished with the words of the faith and of the fine teaching[x] which you have followed closely.[y] 7 But turn down the false stories[z] which violate what is holy and which old women tell. On the other hand, be training yourself with godly devotion as your aim.[a] 8 For bodily training is beneficial for a little; but godly devotion[a] is beneficial for all things,[b] as it holds promise of the life now and that which is to come.[c] 9 Faithful and deserving of full acceptance is that statement.[d] 10 For to this end we are working hard and exerting ourselves,[e] because we have rested our hope[f] on a living God, who is a Savior[g] of all sorts of men,[h] especially of faithful ones.[i]

11 Keep on giving these commands[j] and teaching them.[k] 12 Let no man ever look down on your youth.[l] On the contrary, become an example[m] to the faithful ones[n] in speaking, in conduct, in love, in faith, in chasteness.[o] 13 While I am coming, continue applying yourself to public[p] reading,[q] to exhortation, to teaching. 14 Do not be neglecting the gift[r] in you that was given you through a prediction[s] and when the body of older men laid their hands[t] upon you. 15 Ponder over these things;[u] be absorbed in them, that your advancement[v] may be manifest to all [persons]. 16 Pay constant attention to yourself[w] and to your teaching.[x] Stay by these things, for by doing this you will save both yourself and those who listen to you.[y]

5 Do not severely criticize an older man.[z] To the contrary, entreat him as a father, younger men as brothers, 2 older women[a] as mothers, younger women as sisters[b] with all chasteness.

3 Honor widows that are actually widows.[c] 4 But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let these learn first to practice godly devotion in their own household[d] and to keep paying a due compensation to their parents[e] and grandparents, for this is acceptable in God's sight.[f] 5 Now the woman who is actually a widow and left destitute[g] has put her hope in God[h] and persists in supplications and prayers night and day.[a] 6 But the one that goes in for sensual gratification[b] is dead[c] though she is living. 7 So keep on giving these commands,[d] that they may be irreprehensible.[e] 8 Certainly if anyone does not provide for those who are his own,[f] and especially for those who are members of his household,[g] he has disowned[h] the faith[i] and is worse than a person without faith.

9 Let a widow be put on the list who has become not less than sixty years old, a wife of one husband,[j] 10 having a witness borne to her for fine works,[k] if she reared children,[l] if she entertained strangers,[m] if she washed the feet of holy ones,[n] if she relieved those in tribulation,[o] if she diligently followed every good work.[p]

11 On the other hand, turn down younger widows, for when their sexual impulses have come between them and the Christ,[q] they want to marry, 12 having a judgment because they have disregarded their first [expression of] faith.[r] 13 At the same time they also learn to be unoccupied, gadding about to the houses; yes, not only unoccupied, but also gossipers and meddlers in other people's affairs,[s] talking of things they ought not. 14 Therefore I desire the younger widows to marry,[t] to bear children,[u] to manage a household, to give no inducement to the opposer to revile.[v] 15 Already, in fact, some have been turned aside to follow Satan. 16 If any believing woman has widows, let her relieve them,[w] and let the congregation not be under the burden. Then it can relieve those who are actually widows.[x]

17 Let the older men who preside[y] in a fine way be reckoned worthy of double honor,[a] especially those who work hard in speaking and teaching.[b] 18 For the scripture says: "You must not muzzle a bull when it threshes out the grain";[c] also: "The workman is worthy of his wages."[d] 19 Do not admit an accusation against an older man, except only on the evidence of two or three witnesses.[e] 20 Reprove[f] before all onlookers persons who practice sin,[g] that the rest also may have fear.[h] 21 I solemnly charge you before God and Christ Jesus[i] and the chosen angels to keep these things without prejudgment, doing nothing according to a biased leaning.[j]

22 Never lay your hands[k] hastily upon any man;[l] neither be a sharer in the sins of others;[m] preserve yourself chaste.[n]

23 Do not drink water any longer, but use a little wine[o] for the sake of your stomach and your frequent cases of sickness.

24 The sins of some men are publicly manifest,[p] leading directly to judgment, but as for other men [their sins] also become manifest later.[q] 25 In the same way also the fine works are publicly manifest[r] and those that are otherwise cannot be kept hid.[s]

6 Let as many as are slaves under a yoke keep on considering their owners worthy of full honor,[t] that the name of God and the teaching may never be spoken of injuriously.[u] 2 Moreover, let those having believing owners[v] not look down on them,[w] because they are brothers.[x] On the contrary, let them the more readily be slaves, because those receiving the benefit of their good service are believers and beloved.

Keep on teaching these things[y] and giving these exhortations. 3 If any man teaches other doctrine[z] and does not assent to healthful[a] words, those of our Lord Jesus Christ, nor to the teaching that accords with godly devotion,[a] 4 he is puffed up [with pride],[b] not understanding anything,[c] but being mentally[d] diseased over questionings and debates about words.[e] From these things spring envy,[f] strife, abusive[g] speeches, wicked suspicions, 5 violent disputes about trifles on the part of men corrupted in mind[h] and despoiled of the truth,[i] thinking that godly devotion is a means of gain.[j] 6 To be sure, it is a means of great gain,[k] [this] godly devotion[l] along with self-sufficiency.[m] 7 For we have brought nothing into the world, and neither can we carry anything out.[n] 8 So, having sustenance and covering, we shall be content with these things.[o]

9 However, those who are determined to be rich fall into temptation[p] and a snare and many senseless and hurtful desires,[q] which plunge men into destruction and ruin.[r] 10 For the love[s] of money is a root[t] of all sorts of injurious things,[u] and by reaching out for this love some have been led astray from the faith and have stabbed themselves all over with many pains.[v]

11 However, you, O man of God, flee from these things.[w] But pursue righteousness, godly devotion, faith, love, endurance, mildness of temper.[x] 12 Fight the fine fight of the faith,[y] get a firm hold on the everlasting life for which you were called and you offered the fine public declaration[z] in front of many witnesses.

THE SECOND TO

TIMOTHY

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through God's will[a] according to the promise of the life[b] that is in union with Christ Jesus,[c] 2 to Timothy, a beloved child:[d]

May there be undeserved kindness, mercy, peace from God [the] Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.[e]

3 I am grateful to God, to whom I am rendering sacred service[f] as my forefathers[g] did and with a clean conscience,[h] that I never leave off remembering you in my supplications,[i] night and day 4 longing to see you,[j] as I remember your tears, that I may get filled with joy. 5 For I recollect the faith[k] which is in you without any hypocrisy,[l] and which dwelt first in your grandmother Lo'is and your mother Eu'nice, but which I am confident is also in you.

6 For this very cause I remind you to stir up like a fire[a] the gift[b] of God which is in you through the laying of my hands upon you.[c] 7 For God gave us not a spirit of cowardice,[d] but that of power[e] and of love and of soundness of mind.[f] 8 Therefore do not become ashamed of the witness about our Lord,[g] neither of me a prisoner for his sake,[h] but take your part in suffering[i] evil for the good news according to the power of God.[j] 9 He saved[k] us and called us with a holy calling,[l] not by reason of our works,[m] but by reason of his own purpose and undeserved kindness. This was given us in connection with Christ Jesus before times long lasting,[a] 10 but now it has been made clearly evident through the manifestation[b] of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who has abolished death[c] but has shed light[d] upon life[e] and incorruption[f] through the good news,[g] 11 for which I was appointed a preacher and apostle and teacher.[h]

12 For this very cause I am also suffering[i] these things, but I am not ashamed.[j] For I know the one whom I have believed, and I am confident he is able to guard[k] what I have laid up in trust with him until that day.[l] 13 Keep holding the pattern of healthful[m] words that you heard from me with the faith and love that are in connection with Christ Jesus.[n] 14 This fine trust[o] guard through the holy spirit which is dwelling in us.[p]

15 You know this, that all the men in the [district of] Asia[q] have turned away from me.[r] Phy·gel′us and Her·mog′e·nes are of that number. 16 May the Lord grant mercy to the household of On·e·siph′o·rus,[s] because he often brought me refreshment,[t] and he did not become ashamed of my chains.[u] 17 On the contrary, when he happened to be in Rome, he diligently looked for me and found me.[v] 18 May the Lord grant him to find mercy[w] from Jehovah in that day.[x] And all the services he rendered in Eph′esus you know well enough.

2 You, therefore, my child,[y] keep on acquiring power[z] in the undeserved kindness[a] that is in connection with Christ Jesus, 2 and the things you heard from me with the support of many witnesses,[b] these things commit to faithful men, who, in turn, will be adequately qualified to teach others.[c] 3 As a fine soldier[d] of Christ Jesus take your part in suffering evil.[e] 4 No man serving as a soldier[f] involves himself in the commercial businesses of life,[a] in order that he may gain the approval of the one who enrolled him as a soldier. 5 Moreover, if anyone contends even in the games,[b] he is not crowned unless he has contended according to the rules. 6 The hardworking farmer must be the first to partake of the fruits.[c] 7 Give constant thought to what I am saying; the Lord will really give you discernment[d] in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ was raised up from the dead[e] and was of David's seed,[f] according to the good news I preach;[g] 9 in connection with which I am suffering evil to the point of [prison] bonds[h] as an evildoer. Nevertheless, the word of God is not bound.[i] 10 On this account I go on enduring all things for the sake of the chosen ones,[j] that they too may obtain the salvation that is in union with Christ Jesus along with everlasting glory.[k] 11 Faithful is the saying:[l] Certainly if we died together, we shall also live together;[m] 12 if we go on enduring, we shall also rule together as kings;[n] if we deny,[o] he also will deny us; 13 if we are unfaithful, he remains faithful,[p] for he cannot deny himself.

14 Keep reminding[q] them of these things, charging[r] them before God as witness,[s] not to fight about words,[t] a thing of no usefulness at all because it overturns those listening. 15 Do your utmost to present yourself approved[u] to God, a workman[v] with nothing to be ashamed of,[w] handling the word of the truth aright.[x] 16 But shun empty speeches that violate what is holy;[y] for they will advance to more and more ungodliness,[z] 17 and their word will spread like gangrene.[a] Hy·me·nae′us and Phi·le′tus are of that number.[b] 18 These very [men] have deviated from the truth,[c] saying that the resurrection has already occurred;[d] and they are subverting the faith of some.[e] 19 For all that, the solid foundation of God stays standing,[f] having this seal: "Jehovah knows those who belong to him,"[g] and: "Let everyone naming the name of Jehovah[h] renounce unrighteousness."[i]

20 Now in a large house there are vessels not only of gold and silver but also of wood and earthenware, and some for an honorable purpose but others for a purpose lacking honor.[j] 21 If, therefore, anyone keeps clear of the latter ones, he will be a vessel for an honorable purpose, sanctified, useful to his owner, prepared for every good work.[k] 22 So, flee from the desires incidental to youth,[l] but pursue righteousness,[m] faith, love, peace,[n] along with those who call upon the Lord out of a clean heart.[o]

23 Further, turn down foolish and ignorant questionings,[p] knowing they produce fights.[q] 24 But a slave of the Lord does not need to fight,[r] but needs to be gentle toward all,[s] qualified to teach,[t] keeping himself restrained under evil,[u] 25 instructing with mildness those not favorably disposed;[v] as perhaps God may give them repentance[w] leading to an accurate knowledge of truth,[x] 26 and they may come back to their proper senses out from the snare[y] of the Devil, seeing that they have been caught alive[z] by him for the will of that one.

3 But know this, that in the last days[a] critical times hard to deal with will be here.[b] 2 For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, self-assuming, haughty, blasphemers, disobedient to parents,[a] unthankful, disloyal,[b] 3 having no natural affection,[c] not open to any agreement,[d] slanderers,[e] without self-control, fierce,[f] without love of goodness,[g] 4 betrayers,[h] headstrong, puffed up [with pride],[i] lovers of pleasures rather than lovers of God,[j] 5 having a form of godly devotion[k] but proving false to its power;[l] and from these turn away.[m] 6 For from these arise those men who slyly work their way into households[n] and lead as their captives weak women loaded down with sins, led by various desires,[o] 7 always learning and yet never able to come to an accurate knowledge of truth.[p]

8 Now in the way that Jan′nes and Jam′bres[q] resisted Moses, so these also go on resisting the truth,[r] men completely corrupted in mind,[s] disapproved as regards the faith.[t] 9 Nevertheless, they will make no further progress, for their madness will be very plain to all, even as the [madness] of those [two men] became.[u] 10 But you have closely followed my teaching, my course of life,[v] my purpose, my faith, my long-suffering, my love, my endurance, 11 my persecutions, my sufferings, the sort of things that happened to me in Antioch,[w] in I·co′ni·um,[x] in Lys′tra,[y] the sort of persecutions I have borne; and yet out of them all the Lord delivered me.[z] 12 In fact, all those desiring to live with godly devotion in association with Christ Jesus will also be persecuted.[a] 13 But wicked men and impostors will advance from bad to worse, misleading and being misled.[b]

14 You, however, continue in the things that you learned and were persuaded to believe,[c]

knowing from what persons you learned them[a] 15 and that from infancy[b] you have known the holy writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation[c] through the faith in connection with Christ Jesus.[d] 16 All Scripture is inspired of God[e] and beneficial for teaching,[f] for reproving,[g] for setting things straight,[h] for disciplining[i] in righteousness, 17 that the man of God may be fully competent,[j] completely equipped for every good work.[k]

4 I solemnly charge you before God and Christ Jesus, who is destined to judge[l] the living and the dead,[m] and by his manifestation[n] and his kingdom,[o] 2 preach the word,[p] be at it urgently in favorable season,[q] in troublesome season,[r] reprove,[s] reprimand, exhort, with all long-suffering[t] and [art of] teaching. 3 For there will be a period of time when they will not put up with the healthful teaching,[u] but, in accord with their own desires, they will accumulate teachers for themselves to have their ears tickled;[v] 4 and they will turn their ears away from the truth, whereas they will be turned aside to false stories.[w] 5 You, though, keep your senses[x] in all things, suffer evil,[y] do [the] work of an evangelizer,[z] fully accomplish your ministry.[a]

6 For I am already being poured out like a drink offering,[b] and the due time for my releasing[c] is imminent. 7 I have fought the fine fight,[d] I have run the course to the finish,[e] I have observed the faith.[f] 8 From this time on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness,[g] which the Lord, the righteous judge,[h] will give me as a reward[i] in that day,[j] yet not only to me, but also to all those who have loved his manifestation.

9 Do your utmost to come to me shortly.[k] 10 For De′mas[a] has forsaken me because he loved the present system[b] of things, and he has gone to Thes·sa·lo·ni′ca; Cres′cens to Ga·la′ti·a,[c] Titus to Dal·ma′ti·a. 11 Luke alone is with me. Take Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful[d] to me for ministering. 12 But I have sent Tych′i·cus[e] off to Eph′e·sus. 13 When you come, bring the cloak I left at Tro′as[f] with Carpus, and the scrolls, especially the parchments.

14 Alexander[g] the coppersmith did me many injuries—Jehovah will repay him according to his deeds[h]— 15 and you too be on guard against him, for he resisted our words to an excessive degree.

16 In my first defense no one came to my side, but they all proceeded to forsake me[i]—may it not be put to their account[j]— 17 but the Lord stood near me[k] and infused power into me,[l] that through me the preaching might be fully accomplished and all the nations might hear it;[m] and I was delivered from the lion's mouth.[n] 18 The Lord will deliver me from every wicked work[o] and will save [me] for his heavenly kingdom.[p] To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

19 Give my greetings to Pris′ca[q] and Aq′ui·la and the household of On·e·siph′o·rus.[r]

20 E·ras′tus[s] stayed in Corinth,[t] but I left Troph′i·mus[u] sick at Mi·le′tus.[v] 21 Do your utmost to arrive before winter.

Eu·bu′lus sends you his greetings, and [so do] Pu′dens and Li′nus and Clau′di·a and all the brothers.

22 The Lord [be] with the spirit you [show].[w] His undeserved kindness [be] with YOU people.

TO TITUS

1 Paul, a slave[a] of God and an apostle[b] of Jesus Christ according to the faith of God's chosen[c] ones and the accurate knowledge[d] of the truth[e] which accords with godly devotion[f] 2 upon the basis of a hope of the everlasting life[g] which God, who cannot lie,[h] promised before times long lasting,[i] 3 whereas in his own due times he made his word manifest in the preaching with which I was entrusted,[j] under command of our Savior,[k] God; 4 to Titus, a genuine child[l] according to a faith shared in common:

May there be undeserved kindness and peace from God [the] Father[m] and Christ Jesus our Savior.[n]

5 For this reason I left you in Crete,[o] that you might correct the things that were defective and might make appointments[p] of older men in city after city, as I gave you orders;[q] 6 if there is any man free from accusation,[r] a husband of one wife,[s] having believing children that were not under a charge of debauchery nor unruly.[t] 7 For an overseer must be free from accusation[u] as God's steward,[v] not self-willed,[w] not prone to wrath,[x] not a drunken brawler,[y] not a smiter,[z] not greedy of dishonest gain,[a] 8 but hospitable,[b] a lover of goodness, sound in mind,[c] righteous, loyal,[d] self-controlled,[e] 9 holding firmly to the faithful word as respects his [art of] teaching,[f] that he may be able both to exhort by the teaching that is healthful[g] and to reprove[h] those who contradict.

10 For there are many unruly men, profitless talkers,[i] and deceivers of the mind, especially those men who adhere to the circumcision.[a] 11 It is necessary to shut the mouths of these, as these very men keep on subverting entire households[b] by teaching things they ought not for the sake of dishonest gain.[c] 12 A certain one of them, their own prophet, said: "Cre′tans are always liars, injurious[d] wild beasts, unemployed gluttons."

13 This witness is true. For this very cause keep on reproving them with severity,[e] that they may be healthy[f] in the faith, 14 paying no attention to Jewish fables[g] and commandments of men[h] who turn themselves away from the truth.[i] 15 All things are clean to clean [persons].[j] But to [persons] defiled[k] and faithless[l] nothing is clean, but both their minds and their consciences[m] are defiled. 16 They publicly declare they know God,[n] but they disown him by their works,[o] because they are detestable and disobedient and not approved[p] for good work of any sort.

2 You, however, keep on speaking what things are fitting for healthful[q] teaching. 2 Let the aged men[r] be moderate in habits, serious,[s] sound in mind, healthy in faith,[t] in love, in endurance.[u] 3 Likewise let the aged women[v] be reverent in behavior, not slanderous,[w] neither enslaved to a lot of wine, teachers of what is good; 4 that they may recall the young women to their senses to love their husbands,[x] to love their children,[y] 5 to be sound in mind, chaste,[a] workers at home, good, subjecting[b] themselves to their own husbands, so that the word of God may not be spoken of abusively.[c]

6 Likewise keep on exhorting the younger men to be sound in mind,[d] 7 in all things showing yourself an example of fine works;[e] showing uncorruptness[f] in your teaching,[g] seriousness, 8 wholesome speech which cannot be condemned;[h] so that the man on the opposing side may get ashamed, having nothing vile to say about us.[i] 9 Let slaves[j] be in subjection to their owners in all things,[k] and please them well, not talking back,[l] 10 not committing theft,[m] but exhibiting good fidelity to the full,[n] so that they may adorn the teaching of our Savior,[o] God, in all things.

11 For the undeserved kindness[p] of God which brings salvation[q] to all sorts of men[r] has been manifested,[s] 12 instructing us to repudiate ungodliness[t] and worldly desires[u] and to live with soundness of mind and righteousness and godly devotion[v] amid this present system of things,[w] 13 while we wait for the happy hope[x] and glorious[y] manifestation of the great God and of [the] Savior of us, Christ Jesus, 14 who gave himself[z] for us that he might deliver[a] us from every sort of lawlessness and cleanse[b] for himself a people peculiarly his own,[c] zealous for fine works.[d]

15 Keep on speaking these things and exhorting and reproving with full authority to command.[e] Let no man ever despise[f] you.

3 Continue reminding them to be in subjection[g] and be obedient to governments and authorities as rulers,[h] to be ready for every good work,[i] 2 to speak injuriously of no one, not to be belligerent,[j] to be reasonable,[a] exhibiting all mildness toward all men.[b] 3 For even we were once senseless, disobedient, being misled, being slaves to various desires and pleasures, carrying on in badness and envy, abhorrent, hating one another.[c]

4 However, when the kindness[d] and the love for man on the part of our Savior,[e] God, was manifested,[f] 5 owing to no works[g] in righteousness that we had performed,[h] but according to his mercy[i] he saved us through the bath[j] that brought us to life[k] and through the making of us new by holy spirit.[l] 6 This [spirit] he poured out richly upon us through Jesus Christ our Savior,[m] 7 that, after being declared righteous[n] by virtue of the undeserved kindness of that one,[o] we might become heirs[p] according to a hope of everlasting life.[q]

8 Faithful is the saying,[r] and concerning these things I desire you to make firm assertions constantly, in order that those who have believed God may keep their minds on maintaining fine works.[s] These things are fine and beneficial to men.

9 But shun foolish questionings[t] and genealogies[u] and strife[v] and fights over the Law,[w] for they are unprofitable and futile. 10 As for a man that promotes a sect,[x] reject[y] him after a first and a second admonition;[z] 11 knowing that such a man has been turned out of the way and is sinning, he being self-condemned.[a]

12 When I send Ar'te·mas or Tych'i·cus[b] to you, do your utmost to come to me at Ni·cop'o·lis, for there is where I have decided to winter.[c] 13 Carefully supply Ze'nas, who is versed in the Law, and A·pol'los for

TO

PHILEMON

1 Paul, a prisoner[a] for the sake of Christ Jesus, and Timothy,[b] [our] brother, to Phi·le'mon, our beloved one and fellow worker,[c] 2 and to Ap'phi·a, our sister, and to Ar·chip'pus,[d] our fellow soldier,[e] and to the congregation that is in your house:[f]

3 May you people have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ.[g]

4 I always thank my God when I make mention of you in my prayers,[h] 5 as I keep hearing of your love and faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all the holy ones;[i] 6 in order that the sharing of your faith[j] may go into action by your acknowledging of every good thing among us as related to Christ. 7 For I got much joy and comfort over your love,[k] because the tender affections of the holy ones have been refreshed[l] through you, brother.

8 For this very reason, though I have great freeness of speech in connection with Christ to order[m] you to do what is proper, 9 I am exhorting you rather on the basis of love,[n] seeing that I am such as I am, Paul an aged man, yes, now also a prisoner[o] for the sake of Christ Jesus; 10 I am exhorting you concerning my child,[p] to whom I became a father[q] while in my [prison] bonds, O·nes'i·mus,[r] 11 formerly useless to you but now useful to you and to me.[a] 12 This very one I am sending back to you, yes, him, that is, my own tender affections.[b]

13 I would like to hold him back for myself that in place of you[c] he might keep on ministering to me in the [prison] bonds[d] I bear for the sake of the good news. 14 But without your consent I do not want to do anything, so that your good act may be, not as under compulsion, but of your own free will.[e] 15 Perhaps really on this account he broke away for an hour, that you may have him back forever, 16 no longer as a slave[f] but as more than a slave,[g] as a brother beloved,[h] especially so to me, yet how much more so to you both in fleshly relationship and in [the] Lord. 17 If, therefore, you consider me a sharer,[i] receive[j] him kindly the way you would me. 18 Moreover, if he did you any wrong or owes you anything, keep this charged to my account. 19 I Paul am writing with my own hand:[k] I will pay it back—not to be telling you that, besides, you owe me even yourself. 20 Yes, brother, may I derive profit from you in connection with [the] Lord: refresh my tender affections[l] in connection with Christ.

21 Trusting in your compliance, I am writing you, knowing

TO THE

HEBREWS

1 God, who long ago spoke on many occasions[a] and in many ways to our forefathers by means of the prophets,[b] 2 has at the end of these days[c] spoken to us by means of a Son,[d] whom he appointed heir of all things,[e] and through whom he made[f] the systems of things. 3 He is the reflection of [his] glory[g] and the exact representation of his very being,[h] and he sustains all things by the word of his power;[i] and after he had made a purification for our sins[j] he sat down on the right hand[k] of the Majesty in lofty places.[l] 4 So he has become better than the angels,[m] to the extent that he has inherited a name[n] more excellent than theirs.

5 For example, to which one of the angels did he ever say: "You are my son; I, today, I have become your father"?[o] And again: "I myself shall become his father, and he himself will become my son"?[p] 6 But when he again brings his Firstborn[q] into the inhabited earth, he says: "And let all God's angels[r] do obeisance to him."[s]

7 Also, with reference to the angels he says: "And he makes his angels spirits, and his public servants a flame of fire."[t] 8 But with reference to the Son: "God is your throne forever[u] and ever, and [the] scepter of your kingdom[a] is the scepter of uprightness.[b] 9 You loved righteousness, and you hated lawlessness. That is why God, your God, anointed[c] you with [the] oil of exultation more than your partners."[d] 10 And: "You at [the] beginning, O Lord, laid the foundations of the earth itself, and the heavens are [the] works of your hands.[e] 11 They themselves will perish, but you yourself are to remain continually; and just like an outer garment[f] they will all grow old, 12 and you will wrap them up just as a cloak,[g] as an outer garment; and they will be changed, but you are the same, and your years will never run out."[h]

13 But with reference to which one of the angels has he ever said: "Sit at my right hand, until I place your enemies as a stool for your feet"?[i] 14 Are they not all spirits[j] for public service,[k] sent forth to minister for those who are going to inherit[l] salvation?

2 That is why it is necessary for us to pay more than the usual attention to the things heard[m] by us, that we may never drift away.[a] 2 For if the word spoken through angels[b] proved to be firm, and every transgression and disobedient act received a retribution in harmony with justice;[c] 3 how shall we escape[d] if we have neglected[e] a salvation of such greatness[f] in that it began to be spoken through [our] Lord[g] and was verified[h] for us by those who heard him, 4 while God joined in bearing witness with signs as well as portents and various powerful works[i] and with distributions[j] of holy spirit according to his will?[k]

5 For it is not to angels that he has subjected the inhabited earth to come,[l] about which we are speaking. 6 But a certain witness has given proof somewhere, saying: "What is man that you keep him in mind,[m] or [the] son of man that you take care of him?[n] 7 You made him a little lower than angels; with glory and honor[o] you crowned him, and appointed him over the works of your hands.[p] 8 All things you subjected under his feet."[q] For in that he subjected all things to him[r] [God] left nothing that is not subject to him.[s] Now, though, we do not yet see all things in subjection to him;[t] 9 but we behold Jesus, who has been made a little lower than angels,[u] crowned with glory[v] and honor for having suffered death,[w] that he by God's undeserved kindness might taste death for every [man].[x]

10 For it was fitting for the one for whose sake all things are[y] and through whom all things are, in bringing many sons to glory,[z] to make the Chief Agent[a] of their salvation perfect through sufferings.[b] 11 For both he who is sanctifying and those who are being sanctified[c] all [stem] from one,[d] and for this cause he is not ashamed to call them "brothers,"[e] 12 as he says: "I will declare your name to my brothers; in the middle of [the] congregation I will praise you with song."[a] 13 And again: "I will have my trust in him."[b] And again: "Look! I and the young children, whom Jehovah gave me."[c]

14 Therefore, since the "young children" are sharers of blood and flesh, he also similarly partook of the same things,[d] that through his death[e] he might bring to nothing[f] the one having the means to cause death,[g] that is, the Devil;[h] 15 and [that] he might emancipate[i] all those who for fear of death[j] were subject to slavery all through their lives.[k] 16 For he is really not assisting angels at all, but he is assisting Abraham's seed.[l] 17 Consequently he was obliged to become like his "brothers" in all respects,[m] that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God,[n] in order to offer propitiatory[o] sacrifice for the sins of the people.[p] 18 For in that he himself has suffered when being put to the test,[q] he is able to come to the aid of those who are being put to the test.[r]

3 Consequently, holy brothers, partakers of the heavenly calling,[s] consider the apostle[t] and high priest whom we confess[u]—Jesus. 2 He was faithful[v] to the One that made him such, as Moses[w] was also in all the house of that One.[x] 3 For the latter is counted worthy of more glory[y] than Moses, inasmuch as he[z] who constructs it has more honor than the house.[a] 4 Of course, every house is constructed by someone, but he that constructed all things is God.[b] 5 And Moses as an attendant[a] was faithful in all the house of that One as a testimony of the things that were to be spoken afterwards,[b] 6 but Christ [was faithful] as a Son[c] over the house of that One. We are the house of that One,[d] if we make fast our hold on our freeness of speech and our boasting over the hope firm to the end.[e]

7 For this reason, just as the holy spirit[f] says: "Today if YOU people listen to his own voice,[g] 8 do not harden YOUR hearts as on the occasion of causing bitter anger,[h] as in the day of making the test[i] in the wilderness,[j] 9 in which YOUR forefathers made a test of me with a trial, and yet they had seen my works[k] for forty years.[l] 10 For this reason I became disgusted with this generation and said, 'They always go astray in their hearts,[m] and they themselves have not come to know my ways.'[n] 11 So I swore in my anger, 'They shall not enter[o] into my rest.'"[p]

12 Beware, brothers, for fear there should ever develop in any one of YOU a wicked heart lacking faith by drawing away from the living God;[q] 13 but keep on exhorting[r] one another each day, as long as it may be called "Today,"[s] for fear any one of YOU should become hardened by the deceptive[t] power of sin. 14 For we actually become partakers of the Christ[u] only if we make fast our hold on the confidence we had at the beginning firm to the end,[v] 15 while it is being said: "Today if YOU people listen to his own voice,[w] do not harden YOUR hearts as on the occasion of causing bitter anger."[x]

16 For who were they that heard and yet provoked to bitter anger?[y] Did not, in fact, all do so who went out of Egypt under Moses?[z] 17 Moreover, with whom did [God] become disgusted for forty years?[a] Was it not with those who sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?[a] 18 But to whom did he swear[b] that they should not enter into his rest except to those who acted disobediently?[c] 19 So we see that they could not enter in because of lack of faith.[d]

4 Therefore, since a promise is left of entering into his rest,[e] let us fear that sometime someone of YOU may seem to have fallen short of it.[f] 2 For we have had the good news declared to us also,[g] even as they also had;[h] but the word which was heard did not benefit them,[i] because they were not united by faith[j] with those who did hear.[k] 3 For we who have exercised faith do enter into the rest, just as he has said: "So I swore[l] in my anger, 'They shall not enter[m] into my rest,'"[n] although his works were finished[o] from the founding of the world.[p] 4 For in one place he has said of the seventh day as follows: "And God rested on the seventh day from all his works,"[q] 5 and again in this place: "They shall not enter into my rest."[r]

6 Since, therefore, it remains for some to enter into it, and those to whom the good news[s] was first declared did not enter in because of disobedience,[t] 7 he again marks off a certain day by saying after so long a time in David's [psalm] "Today"; just as it has been said above: "Today if YOU people listen to his own voice,[u] do not harden YOUR hearts."[v] 8 For if Joshua[w] had led them into a place of rest,[x] [God] would not afterward have spoken[y] of another day. 9 So there remains a sabbath resting for the people of God.[z] 10 For the man that has entered into [God's] rest[a] has also himself rested from his own works,[b]

just as God did from his own.

11 Let us therefore do our utmost to enter into that rest, for fear anyone should fall in the same pattern of disobedience.[a] 12 For the word[b] of God is alive[c] and exerts power[d] and is sharper than any two-edged sword[e] and pierces even to the dividing of soul[f] and spirit,[g] and of joints and [their] marrow, and [is] able to discern thoughts and intentions of [the] heart.[h] 13 And there is not a creation that is not manifest to his sight,[i] but all things are naked and openly exposed to the eyes of him with whom we have an accounting.[j]

14 Seeing, therefore, that we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens,[k] Jesus the Son of God,[l] let us hold onto [our] confessing of [him].[m] 15 For we have as high priest, not one who cannot sympathize[n] with our weaknesses, but one who has been tested in all respects like ourselves, but without sin.[o] 16 Let us, therefore, approach[p] with freeness of speech[q] to the throne of undeserved kindness, that we may obtain mercy and find undeserved kindness for help at the right time.[r]

5 For every high priest taken from among men is appointed in behalf of men over the things pertaining to God,[s] that he may offer gifts and sacrifices for sins.[t] 2 He is able to deal moderately with the ignorant and erring ones since he also is surrounded with his own weakness,[u] 3 and on its account he is obliged to make offerings for sins as much for himself as for the people.[v]

4 Also, a man takes this honor, not of his own accord,[w] but only when he is called by God,[x] just as Aaron[y] also [was]. 5 So too the Christ did not glorify himself[z] by becoming a high priest,[a] but [was glorified[b] by him] who spoke with reference to him: "You are my son; I, today, I have become your father."[a] 6 Just as he says also in another place: "You are a priest forever according to the manner of Mel·chiz′e·dek."[b]

7 In the days of his flesh [Christ] offered up supplications and also petitions[c] to the One who was able to save him out of death, with strong[d] outcries and tears, and he was favorably heard for his godly fear.[e] 8 Although he was a Son, he learned obedience from the things he suffered;[f] 9 and after he had been made perfect[g] he became responsible for everlasting salvation[h] to all those obeying him,[i] 10 because he has been specifically called by God a high priest according to the manner of Mel·chiz′e·dek.[j]

11 Concerning him we have much to say and hard to be explained, since YOU have become dull in YOUR hearing.[k] 12 For, indeed, although YOU ought to be teachers[l] in view of the time, YOU again need someone to teach YOU from the beginning the elementary things[m] of the sacred pronouncements of God;[n] and YOU have become such as need milk, not solid food.[o] 13 For everyone that partakes of milk is unacquainted with the word of righteousness, for he is a babe.[p] 14 But solid food belongs to mature people, to those who through use have their perceptive powers[q] trained to distinguish both right and wrong.[r]

6 For this reason, now that we have left the primary[s] doctrine about the Christ,[t] let us press on to maturity,[u] not laying a foundation again,[v] namely, repentance from dead works,[w] and faith toward God,[x] 2 the teaching on baptisms[y]

and the laying on of the hands,[a] the resurrection of the dead[b] and everlasting judgment.[c] 3 And this we will do, if God indeed permits.[d]

4 For it is impossible as regards those who have once for all been enlightened,[e] and who have tasted the heavenly free gift,[f] and who have become partakers of holy spirit,[g] 5 and who have tasted[h] the fine word of God and powers of the coming system of things,[i] 6 but who have fallen away,[j] to revive them again to repentance,[k] because they impale the Son of God afresh for themselves and expose him to public shame.[l] 7 For example, the ground that drinks in the rain which often comes upon it, and that then brings forth vegetation suitable to those for whom it is also cultivated,[m] receives in return a blessing from God. 8 But if it produces thorns and thistles, it is rejected and is near to being cursed;[n] and it ends up with being burned.[o]

9 However, in YOUR case, beloved ones, we are convinced of better things and things accompanied with salvation, although we are speaking in this way. 10 For God is not unrighteous so as to forget YOUR work and the love YOU showed for his name,[p] in that YOU have ministered to the holy ones[q] and continue ministering. 11 But we desire each one of YOU to show the same industriousness so as to have the full assurance[r] of the hope[s] down to the end,[t] 12 in order that YOU may not become sluggish,[u] but be imitators[v] of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.[w]

13 For when God made his promise to Abraham,[x] since he could not swear by anyone greater, he swore[y] by himself, 14 saying: "Assuredly in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply you."[z] 15 And thus after [Abraham] had shown patience, he obtained [this] promise.[a] 16 For men swear by the one greater,[b] and their oath is the end of every dispute, as it is a legal guarantee to them.[c] 17 In this manner God, when he purposed to demonstrate more abundantly to the heirs[d] of the promise the unchangeableness[e] of his counsel, stepped in with an oath, 18 in order that, through two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie,[f] we who have fled to the refuge may have strong encouragement to lay hold on the hope[g] set before us. 19 This [hope][h] we have as an anchor for the soul, both sure and firm, and it enters in within the curtain,[i] 20 where a forerunner has entered in our behalf,[j] Jesus, who has become a high priest according to the manner of Mel·chiz′e·dek forever.[k]

7 For this Mel·chiz′e·dek, king of Sa′lem, priest of the Most High God,[l] who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him[m] 2 and to whom Abraham apportioned a tenth from all things,[n] is first of all, by translation, "King of Righteousness," and is then also king of Sa′lem,[o] that is, "King of Peace." 3 In being fatherless, motherless, without genealogy, having neither a beginning of days[p] nor an end of life, but having been made like the Son of God,[q] he remains a priest perpetually.[r]

4 BEHOLD, then, how great this man was to whom Abraham, the family head, gave a tenth out of the chief spoils.[s] 5 True, the men from the sons of Le′vi[t] who receive their priestly office have a commandment to collect tithes[u] from the people[v] according to the Law, that is, from their brothers, even if these have issued from the loins of Abraham;[w]

6 but the man who did not trace his genealogy[a] from them took tithes from Abraham[b] and blessed him who had the promises.[c] 7 Now without any dispute, the less is blessed by the greater.[d] 8 And in the one case it is men who are dying that receive tithes,[e] but in the other case it is someone of whom it is witnessed that he lives.[f] 9 And, if I may use the expression, through Abraham even Le′vi who receives tithes has paid tithes, 10 for he was still in the loins[g] of his forefather when Mel·chiz′e·dek met him.[h]

11 If, then, perfection[i] were really through the Levitical priesthood,[j] (for with it as a feature the people were given the Law,)[k] what further need would there be[l] for another priest to arise according to the manner of Mel·chiz′e·dek[m] and not said to be according to the manner of Aaron? 12 For since the priesthood is being changed,[n] there comes to be of necessity a change also of the law.[o] 13 For the man respecting whom these things are said has been a member of another tribe,[p] from which no one has officiated at the altar.[q] 14 For it is quite plain that our Lord has sprung up out of Judah,[r] a tribe about which Moses spoke nothing concerning priests.

15 And it is still more abundantly clear that with a similarity to Mel·chiz′e·dek[s] there arises another priest,[t] 16 who has become such, not according to the law of a commandment depending upon the flesh,[u] but according to the power of an indestructible life,[v] 17 for in witness it is said: "You are a priest forever according to the manner of Mel·chiz′e·dek."[w]

18 Certainly, then, there occurs a setting aside of the preceding commandment on account of its weakness[x] and ineffectiveness.[y] 19 For the Law made nothing perfect,[z] but the bringing in besides of a better hope[a] did, through which we are drawing near to God.[b] 20 Also, to the extent that it was not without a sworn oath, 21 (for there are indeed men that have become priests without a sworn oath, but there is one with an oath sworn by the One who said respecting him: "Jehovah has sworn[c] (and he will feel no regret), 'You are a priest forever,'")[d] 22 to that extent also Jesus has become the one given in pledge of a better covenant.[e] 23 Furthermore, many had to become priests [in succession][f] because of being prevented by death[g] from continuing as such, 24 but he because of continuing alive forever[h] has his priesthood without any successors. 25 Consequently he is able also to save completely those who are approaching God through him, because he is always alive to plead for them.[i]

26 For such a high priest as this was suitable for us,[j] loyal,[k] guileless,[l] undefiled,[m] separated from the sinners,[n] and become higher than the heavens.[o] 27 He does not need daily,[p] as those high priests do, to offer up sacrifices, first for his own sins[q] and then for those of the people:[r] (for this he did once[s] for all time when he offered[t] himself up;) 28 for the Law appoints men high priests[u] having weakness,[v] but the word of the sworn oath[w] that came after the Law appoints a Son, who is perfected[x] forever.

8 Now as to the things being discussed this is the main point: We have such a high priest[y] as this, and he has sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,[z] 2 a public servant of the holy place[a] and of the true tent, which Jehovah[a] put up, and not man.[b] 3 For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices;[c] wherefore it was necessary for this one also to have something to offer.[d] 4 If, now, he were upon earth, he would not be a priest,[e] there being [men] who offer the gifts according to the Law, 5 but which [men] are rendering sacred service in a typical representation[f] and a shadow[g] of the heavenly things; just as Moses, when about to make the tent[h] in completion, was given the divine command:[i] For says he: "See that you make all things after [their] pattern that was shown to you in the mountain."[j] 6 But now [Jesus] has obtained a more excellent public service, so that he is also the mediator[k] of a correspondingly better covenant,[l] which has been legally established upon better promises.[m]

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, no place would have been sought for a second;[n] 8 for he does find fault with the people when he says: "'Look! There are days coming,' says Jehovah, 'and I will conclude with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah a new covenant;[o] 9 not according to the covenant[p] that I made with their forefathers in [the] day of my taking hold of their hand to bring them forth out of the land of Egypt,[q] because they did not continue in my covenant,[r] so that I stopped caring for them,' says Jehovah."[s]

10 "'For this is the covenant that I shall covenant with the house of Israel after those days,' says Jehovah. 'I will put my laws in their mind, and in their hearts[t] I shall write them. And I will become their God,[u] and they themselves will become my people.[v]

11 "'And they will by no means teach each one his fellow citizen and each one his brother, saying: "Know Jehovah!"[a] For they will all know me,[b] from [the] least one to [the] greatest one of them. 12 For I shall be merciful to their unrighteous deeds, and I shall by no means call their sins[c] to mind anymore.'"[d]

13 In his saying "a new [covenant]" he has made the former one obsolete.[e] Now that which is made obsolete and growing old is near to vanishing away.[f]

9 For its part, then, the former [covenant] used to have ordinances of sacred service[g] and [its] mundane holy place.[h] 2 For there was constructed a first tent [compartment][i] in which were the lampstand[j] and also the table[k] and the display of the loaves;[l] and it is called "the Holy Place."[m] 3 But behind the second curtain[n] was the tent [compartment] called "the Most Holy."[o] 4 This had a golden censer[p] and the ark of the covenant[q] overlaid all around with gold,[r] in which were the golden jar having the manna[s] and the rod of Aaron that budded[t] and the tablets[u] of the covenant; 5 but up above it were the glorious cherubs[v] overshadowing the propitiatory [cover].[w] But now is not the time to speak in detail concerning these things.

6 After these things had been constructed this way, the priests enter the first tent [compartment][x] at all times to perform the sacred services;[y] 7 but into the second [compartment] the high priest alone enters once a year,[z] not without blood,[a] which he offers for himself[b] and for the sins of ignorance of the people.[c] 8 Thus the holy spirit makes it plain that the way[d] into the holy place had not yet been made manifest while the first tent was standing.[e] 9 This very [tent] is an illustration[f] for the appointed time that is now here,[a] and in keeping with it both gifts and sacrifices are offered.[b] However, these are not able to make the [man] doing sacred service perfect[c] as respects his conscience,[d] 10 but have to do only with foods[e] and drinks[f] and various baptisms.[g] They were legal requirements pertaining to the flesh[h] and were imposed until the appointed time to set things straight.[i]

11 However, when Christ came as a high priest[j] of the good things that have come to pass, through the greater and more perfect tent not made with hands, that is, not of this creation,[k] 12 he entered, no, not with the blood[l] of goats and of young bulls, but with his own blood,[m] once for all time into the holy place and obtained an everlasting deliverance [for us].[n] 13 For if the blood of goats[o] and of bulls[p] and the ashes[q] of a heifer sprinkled on those who have been defiled[r] sanctifies to the extent of cleanness of the flesh,[s] 14 how much more will the blood[t] of the Christ, who through an everlasting spirit offered[u] himself without blemish to God, cleanse[v] our consciences from dead works[w] that we may render sacred service[x] to [the] living God?

15 So that is why he is a mediator[y] of a new covenant, in order that, because a death has occurred for [their] release by ransom[z] from the transgressions under the former covenant,[a] the ones who have been called might receive the promise of the everlasting inheritance.[b] 16 For where there is a covenant,[c] the death of the [human] covenanter needs to be furnished. 17 For a covenant is valid over dead [victims], since it is not in force at any time while the [human] covenanter is living. 18 Consequently neither was the former [covenant][d] inaugurated without blood.[e] 19 For when every commandment according to the Law had been spoken by Moses to all the people,[a] he took the blood of the young bulls and of the goats with water and scarlet wool and hyssop[b] and sprinkled the book itself and all the people, 20 saying: "This is the blood of the covenant that God has laid as a charge upon YOU."[c] 21 And he sprinkled the tent[d] and all the vessels of the public service likewise with the blood.[e] 22 Yes, nearly all things are cleansed with blood[f] according to the Law, and unless blood is poured out[g] no forgiveness takes place.[h]

23 Therefore it was necessary that the typical representations[i] of the things in the heavens should be cleansed by these means,[j] but the heavenly things themselves with sacrifices that are better than such sacrifices. 24 For Christ entered, not into a holy place made with hands,[k] which is a copy of the reality,[l] but into heaven itself,[m] now to appear before the person of God for us.[n] 25 Neither is it in order that he should offer himself often, as indeed the high priest enters into the holy place[o] from year to year[p] with blood not his own. 26 Otherwise, he would have to suffer often from the founding[q] of the world. But now he has manifested himself[r] once[s] for all time at the conclusion of the systems of things[t] to put sin away through the sacrifice of himself.[u] 27 And as it is reserved for men[v] to die once for all time, but after this a judgment,[w] 28 so also the Christ was offered once[x] for all time to bear the sins of many;[y] and the second time[z] that he appears[a] it will be apart from sin[b] and to those earnestly looking for him for [their] salvation.[c]

10 For since the Law has a shadow[a] of the good things to come, but not the very substance of the things, [men] can never with the same sacrifices from year to year which they offer continually make those who approach perfect.[b] 2 Otherwise, would the [sacrifices] not have stopped being offered, because those rendering sacred service who had been cleansed once for all time would have no consciousness of sins anymore?[c] 3 To the contrary, by these sacrifices there is a reminding of sins from year to year,[d] 4 for it is not possible for the blood of bulls and of goats to take sins away.[e]

5 Hence when he comes into the world he says: "'Sacrifice and offering you did not want,[f] but you prepared a body for me.[g] 6 You did not approve of whole burnt offerings and sin [offering].'[h] 7 Then I said, 'Look! I am come (in the roll of the book it is written about me)[i] to do your will, O God.'"[j] 8 After first saying: "You did not want nor did you approve of sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sin [offering]"[k]—[sacrifices] that are offered according to the Law[l]— 9 then he actually says: "Look! I am come to do your will."[m] He does away with what is first that he may establish what is second.[n] 10 By the said "will"[o] we have been sanctified[p] through the offering[q] of the body of Jesus Christ once[r] for all time.

11 Also, every priest takes his station[s] from day to day[t] to render public service and to offer the same sacrifices often, as these are at no time able to take sins away completely.[u] 12 But this [man] offered one sacrifice for sins perpetually[v] and sat down at the right hand of God,[w] 13 from then on awaiting until his enemies should be placed as a stool for his feet.[a] 14 For it is by one [sacrificial] offering[b] that he has made those who are being sanctified perfect[c] perpetually. 15 Moreover, the holy spirit[d] also bears witness to us, for after it has said: 16 "'This is the covenant that I shall covenant toward them after those days,' says Jehovah. 'I will put my laws in their hearts, and in their minds I shall write them,'"[e] 17 [it says afterwards:] "And I shall by no means call their sins and their lawless deeds to mind anymore."[f] 18 Now where there is forgiveness[g] of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.[h]

19 Therefore, brothers, since we have boldness for the way of entry[i] into the holy place[j] by the blood of Jesus, 20 which he inaugurated for us as a new and living way through the curtain,[k] that is, his flesh,[l] 21 and since we have a great priest over the house of God,[m] 22 let us approach with true hearts in the full assurance of faith, having had our hearts sprinkled from a wicked conscience[n] and our bodies bathed with clean water.[o] 23 Let us hold fast the public declaration of our hope[p] without wavering,[q] for he is faithful[r] that promised. 24 And let us consider one another to incite[s] to love and fine works,[t] 25 not forsaking the gathering of ourselves together,[u] as some have the custom, but encouraging[v] one another, and all the more so as YOU behold the day drawing near.[w]

26 For if we practice sin willfully[x] after having received the accurate knowledge of the truth,[y] there is no longer any sacrifice for sins left,[z] 27 but [there is] a certain fearful expectation of judgment[a] and [there is] a fiery jealousy that is going to consume those in opposition.[a] 28 Any man that has disregarded the law of Moses dies without compassion, upon the testimony of two or three.[b] 29 Of how much more severe a punishment,[c] do YOU think, will the man be counted worthy who has trampled[d] upon the Son of God and who has esteemed as of ordinary value the blood[e] of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and who has outraged the spirit[f] of undeserved kindness with contempt? 30 For we know him that said: "Vengeance is mine; I will recompense";[g] and again: "Jehovah will judge his people."[h] 31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of [the] living God.[i]

32 However, keep on remembering the former days in which, after YOU were enlightened,[j] YOU endured a great contest under sufferings,[k] 33 sometimes while YOU were being exposed as in a theater[l] both to reproaches and tribulations, and sometimes while YOU became sharers with those who were having such an experience.[m] 34 For YOU both expressed sympathy for those in prison and joyfully took the plundering[n] of YOUR belongings, knowing YOU yourselves have a better and an abiding possession.[o]

35 Do not, therefore, throw away YOUR freeness of speech,[p] which has a great reward[q] to be paid it. 36 For YOU have need of endurance,[r] in order that, after YOU have done the will of God,[s] YOU may receive the [fulfillment of the] promise.[t] 37 For yet "a very little while,"[u] and "he who is coming will arrive and will not delay."[v] 38 "But my righteous one will live by reason of faith,"[w] and, "if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him."[x] 39 Now we are not the sort that shrink back to destruction,[y] but the sort that have faith to the preserving alive of the soul.[z]

11 Faith[a] is the assured expectation of things hoped[b] for, the evident demonstration of realities though not beheld.[c] 2 For by means of this the men of old times had witness borne to them.[d]

3 By faith we perceive that the systems of things[e] were put in order by God's word,[f] so that what is beheld has come to be out of things that do not appear.[g]

4 By faith Abel offered God a sacrifice of greater worth than Cain,[h] through which [faith] he had witness borne to him that he was righteous, God bearing witness[i] respecting his gifts; and through it he, although he died, yet speaks.[j]

5 By faith E′noch[k] was transferred so as not to see death, and he was nowhere to be found because God had transferred him;[l] for before his transference he had the witness that he had pleased God well.[m] 6 Moreover, without faith[n] it is impossible to please [him] well,[o] for he that approaches God must believe that he is[p] and that he becomes the rewarder[q] of those earnestly seeking him.[r]

7 By faith Noah,[s] after being given divine warning of things not yet beheld,[t] showed godly fear and constructed an ark[u] for the saving of his household; and through this [faith] he condemned the world,[v] and he became an heir of the righteousness[w] that is according to faith.

8 By faith Abraham,[x] when he was called, obeyed in going out into a place he was destined to receive as an inheritance; and he went out, although not knowing where he was going.[y] 9 By faith he resided as an alien in the land of the promise as in a foreign land,[z] and dwelt in tents[a] with Isaac[b] and Jacob,[c]

the heirs with him of the very same promise.[a] 10 For he was awaiting the city[b] having real foundations, the builder and maker of which [city] is God.[c]

11 By faith also Sarah[d] herself received power to conceive seed, even when she was past the age limit,[e] since she esteemed him faithful who had promised.[f] 12 Hence also from one [man],[g] and him as good as dead,[h] there were born [children] just as the stars of heaven for multitude and as the sands that are by the seaside, innumerable.[i]

13 In faith all these died,[j] although they did not get the [fulfillment of the] promises,[k] but they saw them afar off[l] and welcomed them and publicly declared that they were strangers and temporary residents in the land.[m] 14 For those who say such things give evidence that they are earnestly seeking a place of their own.[n] 15 And yet, if they had indeed kept remembering that [place] from which they had gone forth,[o] they would have had opportunity to return.[p] 16 But now they are reaching out for a better [place], that is, one belonging to heaven.[q] Hence God is not ashamed of them, to be called upon as their God,[r] for he has made a city[s] ready for them.

17 By faith Abraham, when he was tested,[t] as good as offered up Isaac, and the man that had gladly received the promises attempted to offer up [his] only-begotten [son],[u] 18 although it had been said to him: "What will be called 'your seed' will be through Isaac."[v] 19 But he reckoned that God was able to raise him up even from the dead;[w] and from there he did receive him also in an illustrative way.[x]

20 By faith also Isaac blessed Jacob[y] and E'sau[z] concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when about to die,[a] blessed each of the sons of Joseph[a] and worshiped leaning upon the top of his staff.[b]

22 By faith Joseph, nearing his end, made mention of the exodus[c] of the sons of Israel; and he gave a command concerning his bones.[d]

23 By faith Moses was hid for three months by his parents after his birth,[e] because they saw the young child was beautiful[f] and they did not fear the order[g] of the king. 24 By faith Moses, when grown up,[h] refused to be called the son of the daughter of Phar'aoh,[i] 25 choosing to be ill-treated with the people of God rather than to have the temporary enjoyment of sin, 26 because he esteemed the reproach[j] of the Christ as riches greater than the treasures of Egypt; for he looked intently toward the payment of the reward.[k] 27 By faith he left Egypt,[l] but not fearing the anger of the king,[m] for he continued steadfast as seeing the One who is invisible.[n] 28 By faith he had celebrated the passover[o] and the splashing of the blood,[p] that the destroyer might not touch their firstborn ones.[q]

29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea as on dry land,[r] but on venturing out upon it the Egyptians were swallowed up.[s]

30 By faith the walls of Jer'i·cho fell down after they had been encircled for seven days.[t] 31 By faith Ra'hab[u] the harlot did not perish with those who acted disobediently, because she received the spies in a peaceable way.[v]

32 And what more shall I say? For the time will fail me if I go on to relate about Gid'e·on,[w] Ba'rak,[x] Samson,[y] Jeph'thah,[z] David[a] as well as Samuel[b] and the [other] prophets,[c] 33 who through faith defeated kingdoms in conflict,[d] effected righteousness,[e] obtained promises,[f] stopped the mouths of lions,[a] 34 stayed the force of fire,[b] escaped the edge of the sword,[c] from a weak state were made powerful,[d] became valiant in war,[e] routed the armies of foreigners.[f] 35 Women received their dead by resurrection;[g] but other [men] were tortured because they would not accept release by some ransom, in order that they might attain a better resurrection. 36 Yes, others received their trial by mockings and scourgings, indeed, more than that, by bonds[h] and prisons.[i] 37 They were stoned,[j] they were tried,[k] they were sawn asunder, they died[l] by slaughter with the sword, they went about in sheepskins,[m] in goatskins, while they were in want,[n] in tribulation,[o] under ill-treatment;[p] 38 and the world was not worthy of them. They wandered about in deserts and mountains and caves[q] and dens of the earth.

39 And yet all these, although they had witness borne to them through their faith, did not get the [fulfillment of the] promise,[r] 40 as God foresaw something better[s] for us,[t] in order that they[u] might not be made perfect[v] apart from us.[w]

12 So, then, because we have so great a cloud of witnesses[x] surrounding us, let us also put off every weight[y] and the sin that easily entangles us,[z] and let us run with endurance[a] the race[b] that is set before us,[c] 2 as we look intently at the Chief Agent[d] and Perfecter of our faith,[e] Jesus. For the joy that was set before him he endured[f] a torture stake, despising shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.[g] 3 Indeed, consider closely the one who has endured such contrary talk[h] by sinners against their own interests, that YOU may not get tired and give out in YOUR souls.[i]

4 In carrying on YOUR contest against that sin YOU have never yet resisted as far as blood,[a] 5 but YOU have entirely forgotten the exhortation which addresses YOU as sons:[b] "My son, do not belittle [the] discipline from Jehovah, neither give out when you are corrected by him;[c] 6 for whom Jehovah loves he disciplines; in fact, he scourges every one whom he receives as a son."[d]

7 It is for discipline[e] YOU are enduring. God is dealing with YOU as with sons.[f] For what son is he that a father does not discipline?[g] 8 But if YOU are without the discipline of which all have become partakers, YOU are really illegitimate children,[h] and not sons. 9 Furthermore, we used to have fathers who were of our flesh to discipline us,[i] and we used to give them respect. Shall we not much more subject ourselves to the Father of our spiritual life and live?[j] 10 For they for a few days used to discipline us according to what seemed good to them,[k] but he does so for our profit that we may partake of his holiness.[l] 11 True, no discipline seems for the present to be joyous, but grievous;[m] yet afterward to those who have been trained by it it yields peaceable fruit,[n] namely, righteousness.[o]

12 Hence straighten up the hands that hang down[p] and the enfeebled knees,[q] 13 and keep making straight paths for YOUR feet,[r] that what is lame may not be put out of joint, but rather that it may be healed.[s] 14 Pursue peace with all people,[t] and the sanctification[u] without which no man will see the Lord,[v] 15 carefully watching that no one may be deprived of the undeserved kindness of God;[w] that no poisonous root[x] may spring up and cause trouble and that many may not be defiled by it;[a] 16 that there may be no fornicator nor anyone not appreciating sacred things, like E′sau,[b] who in exchange for one meal gave away his rights as firstborn.[c] 17 For YOU know that afterward also when he wanted to inherit the blessing[d] he was rejected,[e] for, although he earnestly sought a change of mind with tears,[f] he found no place for it.[g]

18 For YOU have not approached that which can be felt[h] and which has been set aflame with fire,[i] and a dark cloud and thick darkness and a tempest,[j] 19 and the blare of a trumpet[k] and the voice of words;[l] on hearing which voice the people implored that no word should be added to them.[m] 20 For the command was not bearable to them: "And if a beast touches the mountain, it must be stoned."[n] 21 Also, the display was so fearsome that Moses said: "I am fearful and trembling."[o] 22 But YOU have approached a Mount Zion[p] and a city[q] of [the] living God, heavenly Jerusalem,[r] and myriads of angels,[s] 23 in general assembly,[t] and the congregation of the firstborn[u] who have been enrolled[v] in the heavens, and God the Judge of all,[w] and the spiritual lives[x] of righteous ones who have been made perfect,[y] 24 and Jesus the mediator[z] of a new covenant,[a] and the blood of sprinkling,[b] which speaks in a better way than Abel's [blood].[c]

25 See that YOU do not beg off from him who is speaking.[d] For if they did not escape who begged off from him who was giving divine warning upon earth,[e] much more shall we not if we turn away from him who speaks from the heavens.[f] 26 At that time his voice shook the earth,[g] but now he has promised, saying: "Yet once more I will set in commotion not only the earth but also the heaven."[a] 27 Now the expression "Yet once more" signifies the removal of the things being shaken as things that have been made,[b] in order that the things not being shaken may remain.[c] 28 Wherefore, seeing that we are to receive a kingdom that cannot be shaken,[d] let us continue to have undeserved kindness, through which we may acceptably render God sacred service with godly fear and awe.[e] 29 For our God is also a consuming fire.[f]

Let YOUR brotherly love continue.[g] 2 Do not forget hospitality,[h] for through it some, unknown to themselves, entertained angels.[i] 3 Keep in mind those in prison bonds[j] as though YOU have been bound with them,[k] and those being ill-treated,[l] since YOU yourselves also are still in a body. 4 Let marriage be honorable among all, and the marriage bed be without defilement,[m] for God will judge fornicators and adulterers.[n] 5 Let [YOUR] manner of life be free of the love of money,[o] while YOU are content[p] with the present things.[q] For he has said: "I will by no means leave you nor by any means forsake you."[r] 6 So that we may be of good courage[s] and say: "Jehovah is my helper; I will not be afraid. 10 We have an altar from which those who do sacred service at the tent have no authority to eat.[b] 11 For the bodies of those animals whose blood is taken into the holy place by the high priest for sin are burned up outside the camp.[c] 12 Hence Jesus also, that he might sanctify[d] the people with his own blood,[e] suffered outside the gate.[f] 13 Let us, then, go forth to him outside the camp, bearing the reproach he bore,[g] 14 for we do not have here a city that continues,[h] but we are earnestly seeking the one to come.[i] 15 Through him let us always offer to God a sacrifice of praise,[j] that is, the fruit of lips[k] which make public declaration to his name.[l] 16 Moreover, do not forget the doing of good[m] and the sharing of things with others, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.[n]

1

James,[a] a slave[b] of God and of [the] Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes[c] that are scattered[d] about:

Greetings!

2 Consider it all joy, my brothers, when YOU meet with various trials,[e] 3 knowing as YOU do that this tested quality of YOUR faith works out endurance.[f] 4 But let endurance have its work complete, that YOU may be complete[a] and sound in all respects, not lacking in anything.[b]

5 So, if any one of YOU is lacking in wisdom,[c] let him keep on asking God,[d] for he gives generously to all and without re-

proaching;[a] and it will be given him.[b] 6 But let him keep on asking[c] in faith, not doubting at all,[d] for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven by the wind[e] and blown about. 7 In fact, let not that man suppose that he will receive anything from Jehovah;[f] 8 he is an indecisive[g] man, unsteady[h] in all his ways.

9 But let the lowly brother exult over his exaltation,[i] 10 and the rich one[j] over his humiliation, because like a flower of the vegetation he will pass away.[k] 11 For the sun rises with its burning heat and withers the vegetation, and its flower drops off and the beauty of its outward appearance perishes. So, too, the rich man will fade away in his ways of life.[l]

12 Happy is the man that keeps on enduring trial,[m] because on becoming approved he will receive the crown of life,[n] which Jehovah promised to those who continue loving him.[o] 13 When under trial,[p] let no one say: "I am being tried by God." For with evil things God cannot be tried nor does he himself try anyone. 14 But each one is tried by being drawn out and enticed by his own desire.[q] 15 Then the desire, when it has become fertile, gives birth to sin;[r] in turn, sin, when it has been accomplished, brings forth death.[s]

16 Do not be misled,[t] my beloved brothers. 17 Every good gift[u] and every perfect present is from above,[v] for it comes down from the Father of the [celestial] lights,[w] and with him there is not a variation of the turning of the shadow.[x] 18 Because he willed[y] it, he brought us forth by the word of truth,[z] for us to be certain firstfruits[a] of his creatures.

19 Know this, my beloved brothers. Every man must be swift about hearing, slow about speaking,[b] slow about wrath;[c] 20 for man's wrath does not work out God's righteousness.[a] 21 Hence put away all filthiness and that superfluous thing, badness,[b] and accept with mildness the implanting of the word[c] which is able to save YOUR souls.[d]

22 However, become doers of the word,[e] and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves with false reasoning.[f] 23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word, and not a doer,[g] this one is like a man looking at his natural face in a mirror. 24 For he looks at himself, and off he goes and immediately forgets what sort of man he is. 25 But he who peers into the perfect law[h] that belongs to freedom and who persists in [it], this [man], because he has become, not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work,[i] will be happy[j] in his doing [it].

26 If any man seems to himself to be a formal worshiper[k] and yet does not bridle his tongue,[l] but goes on deceiving his own heart,[m] this man's form of worship is futile.[n] 27 The form of worship that is clean[o] and undefiled[p] from the standpoint of our God and Father is this: to look after orphans[q] and widows[r] in their tribulation,[s] and to keep oneself without spot[t] from the world.[u]

2 My brothers, YOU are not holding the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, our glory,[v] with acts of favoritism,[w] are YOU? 2 For, if a man with gold rings on his fingers and in splendid clothing enters into a gathering[x] of YOU, but a poor [man] in filthy clothing also enters,[y] 3 yet YOU look with favor[z] upon the one wearing the splendid clothing and say: "You take this seat here in a fine place," and YOU say to the poor one: "You keep standing," or: "Take that seat there under my footstool." 4 YOU have class distinctions among yourselves[a] and YOU have become judges[b] rendering wicked decisions,[c] is that not so?

5 Listen, my beloved brothers. God chose the ones who are poor[d] respecting the world to be rich[e] in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he promised to those who love him,[f] did he not? 6 YOU, though, have dishonored the poor [man]. The rich oppress[g] YOU, and they drag YOU before law courts,[h] do they not? 7 They blaspheme[i] the fine name by which YOU were called,[j] do they not? 8 If, now, YOU practice carrying out the kingly law[k] according to the scripture: "You must love your neighbor as yourself,"[l] YOU are doing quite well. 9 But if YOU continue showing favoritism,[m] YOU are working a sin, for YOU are reproved by the law[n] as transgressors.

10 For whoever observes all the Law but makes a false step in one point, he has become an offender against them all.[o] 11 For he who said: "You must not commit adultery,"[p] said also: "You must not murder."[q] If, now, you do not commit adultery but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of law. 12 Keep on speaking in such a way and keep on doing in such a way as those do who are going to be judged by the law of a free people.[r] 13 For the one that does not practice mercy will have [his] judgment without mercy.[s] Mercy exults triumphantly over judgment.

14 Of what benefit is it, my brothers, if a certain one says he has faith[t] but he does not have works?[u] That faith cannot save him, can it?[v] 15 If a brother or a sister is in a naked state and lacking the food sufficient for the day,[w] 16 yet a certain one of YOU says to them: "Go in peace, keep warm and well fed," but YOU do not give them the necessities for [their] body, of what benefit is it?[a] 17 Thus, too, faith, if it does not have works,[b] is dead in itself.

18 Nevertheless, a certain one will say: "You have faith, and I have works. Show me your faith apart from the works, and I shall show you my faith by my works."[c] 19 You believe there is one God, do you?[d] You are doing quite well. And yet the demons believe and shudder.[e] 20 But do you care to know, O empty man, that faith apart from works is inactive? 21 Was not Abraham our father[f] declared righteous by works after he had offered up Isaac his son upon the altar?[g] 22 You behold that [his] faith worked along with his works and by [his] works [his] faith was perfected,[h] 23 and the scripture was fulfilled which says: "Abraham put faith in Jehovah, and it was counted to him as righteousness,"[i] and he came to be called "Jehovah's friend."[j]

24 You see that a man is to be declared righteous[k] by works,[l] and not by faith alone.[m] 25 In the same manner was not also Ra'hab[n] the harlot declared righteous by works, after she had received the messengers hospitably and sent them out by another way?[o] 26 Indeed, as the body without spirit is dead,[p] so also faith without works is dead.[q]

3 Not many of YOU should become teachers,[r] my brothers, knowing that we shall receive heavier judgment.[s] 2 For we all stumble many times.[t] If anyone does not stumble in word,[u] this one is a perfect man,[v] able to bridle also [his] whole body. 3 If we put bridles[w] in the mouths of horses for them to obey us,[x] we manage also their whole body. 4 Look! Even boats, although they are so big and are driven by hard winds, are steered by a very small rudder[a] to where the inclination of the man at the helm wishes.

5 So, too, the tongue is a little member and yet makes great brags.[b] Look! How little a fire it takes to set so great a woodland on fire! 6 Well, the tongue is a fire.[c] The tongue is constituted a world of unrighteousness
among our members, for it spots up all the body[d] and sets the wheel of natural life aflame and it is set aflame by Gehen'na.
7 For every species of wild beast as well as bird and creeping thing and sea creature is to be tamed and has been tamed by humankind.[e] 8 But the tongue, not one of mankind can get it tamed. An unruly injurious thing, it is full of death-dealing poison.[f] 9 With it we bless Jehovah,[g] even [the] Father,[h] and yet with it we curse[i] men who have come into existence
"in the likeness of God."[j] 10 Out of the same mouth come forth blessing and cursing.
It is not proper, my brothers,
for these things to go on occurring this way.[k] 11 A fountain[l] does not cause the sweet and the bitter to bubble out of the same opening, does it?
12 My brothers, a fig tree cannot produce olives or a vine figs, can it?[m] Neither can salt water produce sweet water.
13 Who is wise and understanding among YOU? Let him show out of his fine conduct his works[n] with a mildness that belongs to wisdom.
14 But if YOU have bitter jealousy[o]
and contentiousness[p] in YOUR hearts, do not be bragging[q] and lying against the truth.[r] 15 This is not the wisdom that comes down from above,[s] but is [the] earthly,[t] animal, demonic.[u] 16 For where jealousy[v] and contentiousness are, there disorder and every vile thing are.[w] 17 But the wisdom[x] from above is first of all chaste,[a] then peaceable,[b] reasonable,[c] ready to obey, full of mercy and good fruits,[d] not making partial distinctions,[e] not hypocritical.[f] 18 Moreover, the fruit[g] of righteousness[h] has its seed sown
under peaceful[i] conditions for those who are making peace.[j]

4 From what source are there wars and from what source are there fights among YOU?
Are they not from this source,[k] namely, from YOUR cravings for sensual pleasure that carry on a conflict in YOUR members?[l] 2 YOU desire, and yet YOU do not have. YOU go on murdering[m] and coveting,[n] and yet YOU are not able to obtain. YOU go on fighting[o] and waging war. YOU do not have because of YOUR not asking. 3 YOU do ask, and yet YOU do not receive, because YOU are asking for a wrong purpose,[p] that YOU may expend [it] upon YOUR cravings for sensual pleasure.[q]
4 Adulteresses,[r] do YOU not know that the friendship with the world is enmity with God?[s] Whoever, therefore, wants to be a friend[t] of the world is constituting himself an enemy of God.[u] 5 Or does it seem to YOU that the scripture says to no purpose: "It is with a tendency to envy that the spirit[v] which has taken up residence within us keeps longing"? 6 However,
the undeserved kindness
which he gives is greater.[w] Hence it says: "God opposes the haughty ones,[x] but he gives undeserved kindness to the humble ones."[y]
7 Subject yourselves,[z] therefore, to God; but oppose the Devil,[a] and he will flee from YOU.[b] 8 Draw close to God, and he will draw close to YOU.[c] Cleanse YOUR hands, YOU sinners,[d]
and purify YOUR hearts,[e]
YOU indecisive[f] ones. 9 Give way to misery and mourn and weep.[a] Let YOUR laughter

be turned into mourning, and [YOUR] joy into dejection.[b] 10 Humble yourselves in the eyes of Jehovah,[c] and he will exalt YOU.[d]
11 Quit speaking against one another, brothers.[e] He who speaks against a brother or judges[f] his brother speaks against law and judges law.
Now if you judge law, you are,
not a doer of law, but a judge.[g] 12 One there is that is lawgiver and judge,[h] he who is able to save and to destroy.[i] But you, who are you to be judging [your] neighbor?[j]
13 Come, now, YOU who say:
"Today or tomorrow we will journey to this city and will spend a year there, and we will engage in business and make profits,"[k] 14 whereas YOU do not know what YOUR life will be tomorrow.[l] For YOU are a mist appearing for a little while and then disappearing.[m] 15 Instead, YOU ought to say:
"If Jehovah wills,[n] we shall live and also do this or that."[o] 16 But now YOU take pride in YOUR self-assuming brags.[p] All such taking of pride is wicked.
17 Therefore, if one knows how to do what is right and yet does not do it,[q] it is a sin[r] for him.

5 Come, now, YOU rich [men],[s] weep, howling over YOUR miseries that are coming upon YOU.[t] 2 YOUR riches have rotted, and YOUR outer garments
have become moth-eaten.[u] 3 YOUR gold and silver are rusted away, and their rust will be as a witness against YOU and will eat YOUR fleshy parts.
Something like fire[v] is what YOU have stored up[w] in the last days.[x] 4 Look! The wages due the workers who harvested
YOUR fields but which are held up by YOU,[y] keep crying out,[z] and the calls for help[a] on the part of the reapers have entered into the ears[b] of Jehovah of armies. 5 YOU have lived in luxury upon the earth and have gone in for sensual pleasure.[a]
YOU have fattened YOUR hearts on the day of slaughter.[b] 6 YOU have condemned,
YOU have murdered the righteous
one. Is he not opposing
YOU?[c]
7 Exercise patience, therefore, brothers, until the presence[d]
of the Lord. Look! The farmer keeps waiting for the precious fruit of the earth, exercising patience over it until he gets the early rain and the late rain.[e] 8 YOU too exercise patience;[f] make YOUR hearts firm, because the presence of the Lord has drawn close.[g] 9 Do not heave sighs against one another, brothers, so that YOU do not get judged.[h] Look!
The Judge is standing before the doors.[i] 10 Brothers, take as a pattern[j] of the suffering of evil[k] and the exercising of patience[l] the prophets,[m] who spoke in the name of Jehovah.[n] 11 Look! We pronounce happy those who have endured.[o] YOU have heard of the endurance of Job[p] and have seen the outcome Jehovah gave,[q] that Jehovah is very tender in affection and merciful.[r]
12 Above all things, though,
my brothers, stop swearing, yes,
either by heaven or by earth or by any other oath.[s] But let YOUR Yes mean Yes, and YOUR No, No, so that YOU do not fall under judgment.[t]
13 Is there anyone suffering evil among YOU? Let him carry on prayer.[u] Is there anyone in good spirits? Let him sing psalms.[v] 14 Is there anyone sick among YOU?[w] Let him call the older men[x] of the congregation to [him], and let them pray over him, greasing [him] with oil[y] in the name of Jehovah.
15 And the prayer of faith will make the indisposed one well,[z]
and Jehovah will raise him up.[a]

16 Therefore openly confess[b] YOUR sins to one another and pray for one another, that YOU may get healed.[c] A righteous man's supplication, when it is at work, has much force.[d] 17 E·li′jah was a man with feelings like ours,[e] and yet in prayer he prayed for it not to rain;[f] and it did not rain upon the land for three years and six months. 18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the land put forth its fruit.[a]

PETER

1 Peter, an apostle[a] of Jesus Christ, to the temporary residents[b] scattered about[c] in Pon′tus, Ga·la′ti·a, Cap·pa·do′ci·a,[d] Asia, and Bi·thyn′i·a, to the ones chosen[e] 2 according to the foreknowledge of God the Father,[f] with sanctification by the spirit,[g] for the purpose of their being obedient and sprinkled[h] with the blood of Jesus Christ:[i]

May undeserved kindness and peace be increased to YOU.[j]

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,[k] for according to his great mercy he gave us a new birth[l] to a living hope[m] through the resurrection[n] of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 to an incorruptible and undefiled and unfading inheritance.[o] It is reserved in the heavens for YOU,[p] 5 who are being safeguarded by God's power through faith[q] for a salvation[r] ready to be revealed[s] in the last period of time.[t] 6 In this fact YOU are greatly rejoicing, though for a little while at present, if it must be, YOU have been grieved by various trials,[u] 7 in order that the tested quality of YOUR faith,[v] of much greater value than gold that perishes despite its being proved by fire,[a] may be found a cause for praise and glory and honor at the revelation[b] of Jesus Christ. 8 Though YOU never saw him, YOU love him.[c] Though YOU are not looking upon him at present, yet YOU exercise faith in him and are greatly rejoicing with an unspeakable and glorified joy, 9 as YOU receive the end of YOUR faith, the salvation of YOUR souls.[d]

10 Concerning this very salvation a diligent inquiry and a careful search[e] were made by the prophets who prophesied[f] about the undeserved kindness meant for YOU.[g] 11 They kept on investigating what particular season[h] or what sort of [season] the spirit[i] in them was indicating concerning Christ[j] when it was bearing witness beforehand about the sufferings for Christ[k] and about the glories[l] to follow these. 12 It was revealed to them that, not to themselves,[m] but to YOU, they were ministering the things that have now been announced[n] to YOU through those who have declared the good news to YOU with holy spirit[a] sent forth from heaven. Into these very things angels are desiring to peer.[b]

13 Hence brace up YOUR minds for activity,[c] keep YOUR senses completely;[d] set YOUR hope upon the undeserved kindness[e] that is to be brought to YOU at the revelation[f] of Jesus Christ. 14 As obedient children, quit being fashioned[g] according to the desires YOU formerly had in YOUR ignorance, 15 but, in accord with the Holy One who called YOU, do YOU also become holy yourselves in all [YOUR] conduct,[h] 16 because it is written: "YOU must be holy, because I am holy."[i]

17 Furthermore, if YOU are calling upon the Father who judges impartially[j] according to each one's work, conduct yourselves with fear[k] during the time of YOUR alien residence.[l] 18 For YOU know that it was not with corruptible things,[m] with silver or gold, that YOU were delivered[n] from YOUR fruitless form of conduct received by tradition from YOUR forefathers. 19 But it was with precious blood,[o] like that of an unblemished and spotless lamb,[p] even Christ's.[q] 20 True, he was foreknown before the founding[r] of the world, but he was made manifest at the end of the times for the sake of YOU[s] 21 who through him are believers in God,[t] the one who raised him up from the dead[u] and gave him glory;[v] so that YOUR faith and hope might be in God.[w]

22 Now that YOU have purified[x] YOUR souls by [YOUR] obedience to the truth with unhypocritical brotherly affection[y] as the result, love one another intensely from the heart.[z] 23 For YOU have been given a new birth,[a] not by corruptible,[b] but by incorruptible[c] [reproductive] seed,[d] through the word[e] of [the] living and enduring[f] God. 24 For "all flesh is like grass, and all its glory is like a blossom of grass;[a] the grass becomes withered, and the flower falls off,[b] 25 but the saying of Jehovah endures forever."[c] Well, this is the "saying,"[d] this which has been declared[e] to YOU as good news.

2 Accordingly, put away all badness[f] and all deceitfulness and hypocrisy and envies and all sorts of backbiting,[g] 2 [and,] as newborn infants,[h] form a longing for the unadulterated milk[i] belonging to the word, that through it YOU may grow to salvation,[j] 3 provided YOU have tasted that the Lord is kind.[k]

4 Coming to him as to a living stone,[l] rejected,[m] it is true, by men,[n] but chosen, precious, with God,[o] 5 YOU yourselves also as living stones are being built up a spiritual house[p] for the purpose of a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices[q] acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.[r] 6 For it is contained in Scripture: "Look! I am laying in Zion a stone, chosen, a foundation cornerstone, precious; and no one exercising faith in it will by any means come to disappointment."[s]

7 It is to YOU, therefore, that he is precious, because YOU are believers; but to those not believing, "the identical stone that the builders rejected[t] has become [the] head of [the] corner,"[u] 8 and "a stone of stumbling and a rock-mass of offense."[v] These are stumbling because they are disobedient to the word. To this very end they were also appointed.[w] 9 But YOU are "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation,[x] a people for special possession,[y] that YOU should declare abroad the excellencies"[z] of the one that called YOU out of darkness into his wonderful light.[a] 10 For YOU were once not a people, but are now God's people;[b]

YOU were those who had not been shown mercy, but are now those who have been shown mercy.[c]

11 Beloved, I exhort YOU as aliens and temporary residents[d]
to keep abstaining from fleshly desires,[e] which are the very ones that carry on a conflict against the soul.[f] 12 Maintain YOUR conduct fine among the nations,[g] that, in the thing in which they are speaking against YOU as evildoers, they may as a result of YOUR fine works[h] of which they are eyewitnesses glorify God in the day for [his] inspection.[i]

13 For the Lord's sake subject[j] yourselves to every human creation:[k] whether to a king[l] as being superior 14 or to governors as being sent by him to inflict punishment on evildoers
but to praise doers of good.[m] 15 For so the will of God is, that by doing good YOU may muzzle the ignorant talk of the unreasonable men.[n] 16 Be as free people,[o] and yet holding YOUR freedom, not as a blind for badness,[p] but as slaves of God.[q] 17 Honor [men] of all sorts,[r] have love for the whole association of brothers,[s] be in fear of God,[t] have honor for the king.[u]

18 Let house servants be in subjection[v] to [their] owners with all [due] fear,[w] not only to the good and reasonable, but also to those hard to please.
19 For if someone, because of conscience toward God, bears up under grievous things and suffers unjustly, this is an agreeable thing.[x] 20 For what merit is there in it if, when YOU are sinning and being slapped,
YOU endure it?[y] But if, when YOU are doing good and YOU suffer,[z] YOU endure it, this is a thing agreeable with God.[a]

21 In fact, to this [course]
YOU were called, because even Christ suffered for YOU,[a] leaving YOU a model for YOU to follow his steps closely.[b] 22 He committed no sin,[c] nor was deception found in his mouth.[d] 23 When he was being reviled,[e]
he did not go reviling in return.[f]
When he was suffering,[g] he did not go threatening, but kept on committing himself to the one[h] who judges righteously.
24 He himself bore our sins[i] in his own body upon the stake,[j]
in order that we might be done with sins[k] and live to righteousness.
And "by his stripes
YOU were healed."[l] 25 For YOU were like sheep, going astray;[m] but now YOU have returned to the shepherd[n] and overseer of YOUR souls.

3 In like manner,[o] YOU wives, be in subjection[p] to YOUR own husbands, in order that, if any are not obedient[q] to the word, they may be won[r] without a word through the conduct of [their] wives,[s] 2 because of having been eyewitnesses of YOUR chaste conduct[t] together with deep respect. 3 And do not let YOUR adornment be that of the external braiding of the hair[u] and of the putting on of gold ornaments[v] or the wearing of outer garments, 4 but let it be the secret person[w]
of the heart in the incorruptible [apparel][x] of the quiet and mild spirit,[y] which is of great value in the eyes of God. 5 For so, too, formerly the holy women who were hoping in God used to adorn themselves, subjecting themselves to their own husbands, 6 as Sarah used to obey Abraham, calling him "lord."[z] And YOU have become her children, provided YOU keep on doing good and not fearing any cause for terror.[a]

7 You husbands, continue dwelling in like manner[b] with them according to knowledge,[a] assigning them honor[b] as to a weaker vessel, the feminine one, since YOU are also heirs[c] with them of the undeserved favor of life, in order for YOUR prayers not to be hindered.[d]

8 Finally, all of YOU be likeminded,[e] showing fellow feeling,
having brotherly affection,
tenderly compassionate,[f] humble in mind,[g] 9 not paying back injury for injury[h] or reviling for reviling,[i] but, to the contrary, bestowing a blessing,[j] because YOU were called to this [course], so that YOU might inherit a blessing.

10 For, "he that would love life and see good days,[k] let him restrain his tongue[l] from what is bad and [his] lips from speaking deception,[m] 11 but let him turn away from what is bad[n] and do what is good; let him seek peace and pursue it.[o] 12 For [the] eyes[p] of Jehovah are upon the righteous ones, and his ears are toward their supplication;[q] but [the] face of Jehovah is against those doing bad things."[r]

13 Indeed, who is the man that will harm YOU if YOU become zealous for what is good?[s] 14 But even if YOU should suffer for the sake of righteousness,
YOU are happy.[t] However, the object of their fear do not YOU fear,[u] neither become agitated.[v] 15 But sanctify the Christ as Lord in YOUR hearts,[w] always ready to make a defense[x] before everyone that demands of YOU a reason for the hope in YOU,
but doing so together with a mild temper[y] and deep respect.

16 Hold a good conscience,[z]
so that in the particular in which YOU are spoken against they may get ashamed[a] who are speaking slightingly of YOUR good conduct in connection with Christ.[b] 17 For it is better to suffer because YOU are doing good,[c] if the will of God wishes it, than because YOU are doing evil.[d] 18 Why, even Christ died once for all time concerning sins,[a] a righteous [person] for unrighteous ones,[b] that he might lead YOU to God,[c] he being put to death in the flesh,[d] but being made alive in the spirit.[e] 19 In this [state] also he went his way and preached to the spirits in prison,[f] 20 who had once been disobedient[g] when the patience of God[h] was waiting in Noah's days, while the ark was being constructed,[i] in which a few people, that is, eight souls, were carried safely through the water.[j]

21 That which corresponds to this is also now saving YOU,[k] namely, baptism, (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the request made to God for a good conscience,)[l]
through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.[m] 22 He is at God's right hand,[n] for he went his way to heaven; and angels[o] and authorities and powers were made subject to him.[p]

4 Therefore since Christ suffered in the flesh,[q] YOU too arm yourselves with the same mental disposition;[r] because the person that has suffered in the flesh has desisted from sins,[s] 2 to the end that he may live the remainder of [his] time in the flesh,[t] no more for the desires of men, but for God's will.[u] 3 For the time[v] that has passed by is sufficient for YOU to have worked out the will of the nations[w] when YOU proceeded in deeds of loose conduct,[x] lusts, excesses with wine,[y] revelries, drinking matches, and illegal idolatries.[z] 4 Because YOU do not continue running with them in this course to the same low sink of debauchery,[a] they are puzzled and go on speaking abusively of YOU.[b] 5 But these people will render an account to the one[a] ready to judge those living and those dead.[b] 6 In fact, for this purpose the good news was declared also to the dead,[c] that they might be judged as to the flesh from the standpoint of men[d] but might live as to the spirit[e] from the standpoint of God.

7 But the end of all things has drawn close.[f] Be sound in mind,[g] therefore, and be vigilant with a view to prayers.[h] 8 Above all things, have intense love for one another,[i] because love covers a multitude of sins.[j] 9 Be hospitable to one another without grumbling.[k] 10 In proportion as each one has received a gift, use it in ministering to one another as fine stewards of God's undeserved kindness expressed in various ways.[l] 11 If anyone speaks, [let him speak] as it were [the] sacred pronouncements[m] of God; if anyone ministers,[n] [let him minister] as dependent on the strength that God supplies;[o] so that in all things God may be glorified[p] through Jesus Christ. The glory[q] and the might are his forever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved ones, do not be puzzled at the burning among YOU, which is happening to YOU for a trial,[r] as though a strange thing were befalling YOU. 13 On the contrary, go on rejoicing[s] forasmuch as YOU are sharers in the sufferings of the Christ,[t] that YOU may rejoice and be overjoyed also during the revelation[u] of his glory. 14 If YOU are being reproached for the name of Christ,[v] YOU are happy,[w] because the [spirit] of glory, even the spirit of God, is resting upon YOU.[x]

15 However, let none of YOU suffer[y] as a murderer or a thief or an evildoer or as a busybody[z] in other people's matters. 16 But if [he suffers][a] as a Christian, let him not feel shame,[b] but let him keep on glorifying God in this name. 17 For it is the appointed time for the judgment to start with the house of God.[a] Now if it starts first with us,[b] what will the end be of those who are not obedient to the good news of God?[c] 18 "And if the righteous [man] is being saved with difficulty,[d] where will the ungodly [man] and the sinner make a showing?"[e] 19 So, then, also let those who are suffering in harmony with the will of God keep on commending their souls to a faithful Creator while they are doing good.[f]

5 Therefore, to the older men among YOU I give this exhortation, for I too am an older man[g] with [them] and a witness[h] of the sufferings of the Christ, a sharer even of the glory that is to be revealed:[i] 2 Shepherd[j] the flock of God[k] in YOUR care, not under compulsion, but willingly;[l] neither for love of dishonest gain,[m] but eagerly; 3 neither as lording[n] it over those who are God's inheritance,[o] but becoming examples to the flock.[p] 4 And when the chief shepherd[q] has been made manifest, YOU will receive the unfadable[r] crown of glory.[s]

5 In like manner, YOU younger men, be in subjection[t] to the older men. But all of YOU gird yourselves with lowliness of mind toward one another,[u] because God opposes the haughty ones, but he gives undeserved kindness to the humble ones.[v]

6 Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt YOU in due time;[w] 7 while YOU throw all YOUR anxiety[x] upon him, because he cares for YOU.[y] 8 Keep YOUR senses, be watchful.[z] YOUR adversary, the Devil, walks about like a roaring lion, seeking to devour [someone].[a]

9 But take YOUR stand against him,[a] solid in the faith, knowing that the same things in the way of sufferings are being accomplished in the entire association of YOUR brothers in the world.[b] 10 But, after YOU have suffered a little while,[c] the God of all undeserved kindness, who called YOU to his everlasting glory[d] in union[e] with Christ, will himself finish YOUR training, he will make YOU firm,[f] he will make YOU strong.[g] 11 To him be the might[h] forever. Amen.

12 Through Sil·va′nus,[a] a faithful brother, as I account him, I have written YOU in few [words],[b] to give encouragement and an earnest witness that this is the true undeserved kindness of God; in which stand firm.[c] 13 She who is in Babylon,[d] a chosen one like [YOU], sends YOU her greetings, and so does Mark[e] my son. 14 Greet one another with a kiss of love.[f]

May all of YOU who are in union with Christ have peace.[g]

THE SECOND OF PETER

1 Simon Peter, a slave[a] and apostle[b] of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained a faith, held in equal privilege with ours,[c] by the righteousness[d] of our God and [the] Savior Jesus Christ:[e]

2 May undeserved kindness and peace be increased to YOU[f] by an accurate knowledge[g] of God and of Jesus our Lord, 3 forasmuch as his divine power has given us freely all the things that concern life[h] and godly devotion,[i] through the accurate knowledge of the one who called[j] us through glory[k] and virtue. 4 Through these things he has freely given us the precious and very grand promises,[l] that through these YOU may become sharers in divine[m] nature,[n] having escaped from the corruption that is in the world[o] through lust.

5 Yes, for this very reason, by YOUR contributing in response all earnest effort,[p] supply to YOUR faith virtue,[q] to [YOUR] virtue knowledge,[r] 6 to [YOUR] knowledge self-control, to [YOUR] self-control[s] endurance, to [YOUR] endurance godly devotion,[t] 7 to [YOUR] godly devotion brotherly affection, to [YOUR] brotherly affection love.[a] 8 For if these things exist in YOU and overflow, they will prevent YOU from being either inactive or unfruitful[b] regarding the accurate knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 For if these things are not present in anyone, he is blind, shutting his eyes [to the light],[c] and has become forgetful[d] of his cleansing[e] from his sins of long ago. 10 For this reason, brothers, all the more do YOUR utmost to make the calling[f] and choosing[g] of YOU sure for yourselves; for if YOU keep on doing these things YOU will by no means ever fail.[h] 11 In fact, thus there will be richly supplied to YOU the entrance[i] into the everlasting[j] kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.[k]

12 For this reason I shall be disposed always to remind[l] YOU of these things, although YOU know [them] and are firmly set in the truth[m] that is present [in YOU].[n] 13 But I consider it right, as long as I am in this tabernacle,[a] to rouse YOU up by way of reminding YOU,[b] 14 knowing as I do that the putting off of my tabernacle is soon to be,[c] just as also our Lord Jesus Christ signified to me.[d] 15 So I will do my utmost also at every time that, after my departure,[e] YOU may be able to make mention of these things for yourselves.

16 No, it was not by following artfully contrived false stories[f] that we acquainted YOU with the power and presence of our Lord Jesus Christ,[g] but it was by having become eyewitnesses of his magnificence.[h] 17 For he received from God the Father honor and glory,[i] when words such as these were borne to him by the magnificent glory: “This is my son, my beloved, whom I myself have approved.”[j] 18 Yes, these words we heard[k] borne from heaven while we were with him in the holy mountain.[l]

19 Consequently we have the prophetic word[m] [made] more sure;[n] and YOU are doing well in paying attention to it as to a lamp[o] shining in a dark place, until day dawns and a daystar[p] rises, in YOUR hearts. 20 For YOU know this first, that no prophecy of Scripture springs from any private interpretation.[q] 21 For prophecy was at no time brought by man's will,[r] but men spoke from God[s] as they were borne along by holy spirit.[t]

2 However, there also came to be false prophets among the people, as there will also be false teachers among YOU.[u] These very ones will quietly bring in destructive sects and will disown even the owner that bought them,[v] bringing speedy destruction upon themselves. 2 Furthermore, many will follow[w] their acts of loose conduct,[x] and on account of these the way of the truth will be spoken of abusively.[y] 3 Also, with covetousness they will exploit YOU with counterfeit words.[a] But as for them, the judgment from of old[b] is not moving slowly, and the destruction of them is not slumbering.[c]

4 Certainly if God did not hold back from punishing the angels[d] that sinned, but, by throwing them into Tar′ta·rus,[e] delivered them to pits of dense darkness to be reserved for judgment;[f] 5 and he did not hold back from punishing an ancient world,[g] but kept Noah, a preacher of righteousness,[h] safe with seven others[i] when he brought a deluge[j] upon a world of ungodly people; 6 and by reducing the cities Sod′om and Go·mor′rah to ashes he condemned them,[k] setting a pattern for ungodly persons of things to come;[l] 7 and he delivered righteous Lot,[m] who was greatly distressed by the indulgence of the law-defying people in loose conduct[n]— 8 for that righteous man by what he saw and heard while dwelling among them from day to day was tormenting his righteous soul by reason of their lawless deeds— 9 Jehovah knows how to deliver people of godly devotion out of trial,[o] but to reserve unrighteous people for the day of judgment to be cut off,[p] 10 especially, however, those who go on after flesh with the desire to defile [it][q] and who look down on lordship.[r]

Daring, self-willed, they do not tremble at glorious ones but speak abusively,[s] 11 whereas angels, although they are greater in strength and power, do not bring against them an accusation in abusive terms,[t] [not doing so] out of respect for Jehovah.[u] 12 But these [men], like unreasoning animals born naturally to be caught and destroyed, will, in the things of which they are ignorant and speak abusively,[v] even suffer destruction in their own [course of] destruction, 13 wronging themselves[a] as a reward for wrongdoing.[b]

They consider luxurious living in the daytime a pleasure.[c] They are spots and blemishes, indulging with unrestrained delight in their deceptive teachings while feasting together with YOU.[d] 14 They have eyes full of adultery[e] and unable to desist from sin,[f] and they entice unsteady souls. They have a heart trained in covetousness.[g] They are accursed children.[h] 15 Abandoning the straight path, they have been misled. They have followed the path of Ba′laam,[i] [the son] of Be′or, who loved the reward of wrongdoing,[j] 16 but got a reproof for his own violation of what was right.[k] A voiceless beast of burden, making utterance with the voice of a man,[l] hindered the prophet's mad course.[m]

17 These are fountains without water,[n] and mists driven by a violent storm, and for them the blackness of darkness has been reserved.[o] 18 For they utter swelling expressions of no profit, and by the desires of the flesh[p] and by loose habits they entice[q] those who are just escaping[r] from people who conduct themselves in error. 19 While they are promising them freedom,[s] they themselves are existing as slaves of corruption.[t] For whoever is overcome by another is enslaved by this one.[u] 20 Certainly if, after having escaped from the defilements of the world[v] by an accurate knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they get involved again with these very things and are overcome,[w] the final conditions have become worse for them than the first.[x] 21 For it would have been better for them not to have accurately known the path of righteousness[y] than after knowing it accurately to turn away from the holy commandment delivered to them.[z] 22 The saying of the true proverb has happened to them: “The dog[a] has returned to its own vomit, and the sow that was bathed to rolling in the mire.”[b]

3 Beloved ones, this is now the second letter I am writing YOU, in which, as in my first one,[c] I am arousing YOUR clear thinking faculties by way of a reminder,[d] 2 that YOU should remember the sayings previously spoken by the holy prophets[e] and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through YOUR apostles.[f] 3 For YOU know this first, that in the last days[g] there will come ridiculers[h] with their ridicule, proceeding according to their own desires[i] 4 and saying:[j] “Where is this promised presence of his?[k] Why, from the day our forefathers fell asleep [in death], all things are continuing exactly as from creation's beginning.”[l]

5 For, according to their wish, this fact escapes their notice, that there were heavens[m] from of old and an earth standing compactly out of water[n] and in the midst of water[o] by the word of God; 6 and by those [means] the world of that time suffered destruction when it was deluged with water.[p] 7 But by the same word the heavens[q] and the earth[r] that are now are stored up for fire[s] and are being reserved to the day of judgment[t] and of destruction of the ungodly men.[u]

8 However, let this one fact not be escaping YOUR notice, beloved ones, that one day is with Jehovah as a thousand years and a thousand years as one day.[v] 9 Jehovah is not slow respecting his promise,[w] as some people consider slowness, but he is patient with YOU because he does not desire any to be destroyed but desires all to attain to repentance.[x] 10 Yet Jehovah's day[y] will come as a thief,[z] in which the heavens will pass away[a] with a hissing noise,[b] but the elements being intensely hot will be dissolved,[c] and earth[d] and the works in it will be discovered.[e]

11 Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of persons ought YOU to be in holy acts of conduct and deeds of godly devotion, 12 awaiting[f] and keeping close in mind the presence of the day of Jehovah,[g] through which [the] heavens being on fire will be dissolved[h] and [the] elements being intensely hot will melt! 13 But there are new heavens[i] and a new earth[j] that we are awaiting according to his promise, and in these righteousness is to dwell.[k]

14 Hence, beloved ones, since YOU are awaiting these things, do YOUR utmost to be found finally by him spotless[l] and unblemished and in peace.[m] 15 Furthermore, consider the patience of our Lord as salvation, just as our beloved brother Paul according to the wisdom[a] given him also wrote YOU,[b] 16 speaking about these things as he does also in all [his] letters. In them, however, are some things hard to understand, which the untaught and unsteady are twisting, as [they do] also the rest of the Scriptures,[c] to their own destruction.

17 YOU, therefore, beloved ones, having this advance knowledge,[d] be on YOUR guard that YOU may not be led away with them by the error of the law-defying people and fall from YOUR own steadfastness.[e] 18 No, but go on growing in the undeserved kindness and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.[f] To him [be] the glory both now and to the day of eternity.[g]

THE FIRST OF

1 That which was from [the] beginning,[a] which we have heard,[b] which we have seen with our eyes,[c] which we have viewed[d] attentively and our hands felt,[e] concerning the word of life,[f] 2 (yes, the life was made manifest,[g] and we have seen and are bearing witness[h] and reporting to YOU the everlasting life[i] which was with the Father and was made manifest to us,) 3 that which we have seen and heard we are reporting also to YOU,[j] that YOU too may be having a sharing with us.[k] Furthermore, this sharing[l] of ours is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ.[m] 4 And so we are writing these things that our joy may be in full measure.[n]

5 And this is the message which we have heard from him and are announcing to YOU,[a] that God is light[b] and there is no darkness at all in union with him.[c] 6 If we make the statement: “We are having a sharing with him,” and yet we go on walking in the darkness,[d] we are lying and are not practicing the truth.[e] 7 However, if we are walking in the light as he himself is in the light,[f] we do have a sharing with one another,[g] and the blood[h] of Jesus his Son cleanses[i] us from all sin.[j]

8 If we make the statement: “We have no sin,”[k] we are misleading ourselves[a] and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins,[b] he is faithful and righteous so as to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.[c] 10 If we make the statement: “We have not sinned,” we are making him a liar, and his word is not in us.[d]

2 My little children, I am writing YOU these things that YOU may not commit a sin.[e] And yet, if anyone does commit a sin, we have a helper[f] with the Father, Jesus Christ, a righteous one.[g] 2 And he is a propitiatory[h] sacrifice[i] for our sins,[j] yet not for ours[k] only but also for the whole world’s.[l] 3 And by this we have the knowledge that we have come to know him, namely, if we continue observing his commandments.[m] 4 He that says: “I have come to know him,”[n] and yet is not observing his commandments,[o] is a liar, and the truth is not in this [person].[p] 5 But whoever does observe his word,[q] truthfully in this [person] the love of God has been made perfect.[r] By this we have the knowledge that we are in union with him.[s] 6 He that says he remains in union[t] with him is under obligation himself also to go on walking just as that one walked.[u]

7 Beloved ones, I am writing YOU, not a new commandment, but an old commandment[v] which YOU have had from [the] beginning.[w] This old commandment is the word which YOU heard. 8 Again, I am writing YOU a new commandment, a fact that is true in his case and in YOURS, because the darkness[x] is passing away and the true light[y] is already shining.

9 He that says he is in the light and yet hates[z] his brother is in the darkness up to right now.[a] 10 He that loves his brother remains in the light,[b] and there is no cause for stumbling in his case.[c] 11 But he that hates his brother is in the darkness and is walking in the darkness,[a] and he does not know where he is going,[b] because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

12 I am writing YOU, little children, because YOUR sins have been forgiven YOU for the sake of his name.[c] 13 I am writing YOU, fathers, because YOU have come to know him who is from [the] beginning.[d] I am writing YOU, young men,[e] because YOU have conquered the wicked one.[f] I write YOU, young children,[g] because YOU have come to know the Father.[h] 14 I write YOU, fathers,[i] because YOU have come to know him who is from [the] beginning.[j] I write YOU, young men, because YOU are strong[k] and the word of God remains in YOU[l] and YOU have conquered the wicked one.[m]

15 Do not be loving either the world or the things in the world.[n] If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him;[o] 16 because everything in the world[p]—the desire of the flesh[q] and the desire of the eyes[r] and the showy display of one’s means of life[s]—does not originate with the Father, but originates with the world.[t] 17 Furthermore, the world is passing away and so is its desire,[u] but he that does the will[v] of God remains forever.[w]

18 Young children, it is the last hour,[x] and, just as YOU have heard that antichrist is coming,[y] even now there have come to be many antichrists;[z] from which fact we gain the knowledge that it is the last hour. 19 They went out from us, but they were not of our sort;[a] for if they had been of our sort, they would have remained with us.[a] But [they went out] that it might be shown up that not all are of our sort.[b] 20 And YOU have an anointing from the holy one;[c] all of YOU have knowledge.[d] 21 I write YOU, not because YOU do not know the truth,[e] but because YOU know it,[f] and because no lie originates with the truth.[g]

22 Who is the liar if it is not the one that denies that Jesus is the Christ?[h] This is the antichrist,[i] the one that denies the Father and the Son.[j] 23 Everyone that denies the Son does not have the Father either.[k] He that confesses[l] the Son has the Father also.[m] 24 As for YOU, let that which YOU have heard from [the] beginning remain in YOU.[n] If that which YOU have heard from [the] beginning remains in YOU, YOU will also abide in union[o] with the Son and in union with the Father.[p] 25 Furthermore, this is the promised thing that he himself promised us, the life everlasting.[q]

26 These things I write YOU about those who are trying to mislead YOU.[r] 27 And as for YOU, the anointing[s] that YOU received from him remains in YOU, and YOU do not need anyone to be teaching YOU;[t] but, as the anointing from him is teaching YOU about all things,[u] and is true[v] and is no lie, and just as it has taught YOU, remain in union[w] with him. 28 So now, little children,[x] remain in union[y] with him, that when he is made manifest[z] we may have freeness of speech[a] and not be shamed away from him at his presence.[b] 29 If YOU know that he is righteous,[c] YOU gain the knowledge that everyone who practices righteousness has been born from him.[d]

3 See what sort of love[e] the Father has given us, so that we should be called children of God;[f] and such we are. That is why the world[a] does not have a knowledge of us, because it has not come to know him.[b] 2 Beloved ones, now we are children of God,[c] but as yet it has not been made manifest what we shall be.[d] We do know that whenever he is made manifest[e] we shall be like him,[f] because we shall see him just as he is.[g] 3 And everyone who has this hope set upon him purifies[h] himself just as that one is pure.[i]

4 Everyone who practices sin[j] is also practicing lawlessness,[k] and so sin[l] is lawlessness. 5 YOU know too that that one was made manifest to take away [our] sins,[m] and there is no sin[n] in him. 6 Everyone remaining in union[o] with him does not practice sin;[p] no one that practices sin has either seen him or come to know him.[q] 7 Little children, let no one mislead YOU; he who carries on righteousness is righteous, just as that one is righteous.[r] 8 He who carries on sin originates with the Devil, because the Devil has been sinning from [the] beginning.[s] For this purpose the Son of God was made manifest,[t] namely, to break up the works of the Devil.[u]

9 Everyone who has been born from God does not carry on sin,[v] because His [reproductive] seed remains in such one, and he cannot practice sin, because he has been born from God.[w] 10 The children of God and the children of the Devil are evident by this fact: Everyone who does not carry on righteousness[x] does not originate with God, neither does he who does not love his brother.[y] 11 For this is the message which YOU have heard from [the] beginning,[z] that we should have love for one another;[a] 12 not like Cain, who originated with the wicked one and slaughtered[a] his brother. And for the sake of what did he slaughter him? Because his own works were wicked,[b] but those of his brother [were] righteous.[c]

13 Do not marvel, brothers, that the world hates YOU.[d] 14 We know we have passed over from death to life,[e] because we love the brothers.[f] He who does not love remains in death.[g] 15 Everyone who hates[h] his brother is a manslayer,[i] and YOU know that no manslayer[j] has everlasting life remaining in him.[k] 16 By this we have come to know love,[l] because that one surrendered his soul for us;[m] and we are under obligation to surrender [our] souls for [our] brothers.[n] 17 But whoever has this world's means for supporting life[o] and beholds his brother having need[p] and yet shuts the door of his tender compassions upon him,[q] in what way does the love of God remain in him?[r] 18 Little children, let us love,[s] neither in word nor with the tongue,[t] but in deed[u] and truth.[v]

19 By this we shall know that we originate with the truth,[w] and we shall assure our hearts before him 20 as regards whatever our hearts may condemn us in,[x] because God is greater than our hearts and knows all things.[y] 21 Beloved ones, if [our] hearts do not condemn [us], we have freeness of speech toward God;[z] 22 and whatever we ask we receive from him,[a] because we are observing his commandments and are doing the things that are pleasing in his eyes.[b] 23 Indeed, this is his commandment, that we have faith in the name of his Son Jesus Christ[c] and be loving one another,[d] just as he gave us commandment. 24 Moreover, he who observes his commandments remains in union with him, and he in union with such one;[e] and by this we gain the knowledge that he is remaining in union with us,[a] owing to the spirit[b] which he gave us.

4 Beloved ones, do not believe every inspired expression,[c] but test the inspired expressions to see whether they originate with God,[d] because many false prophets have gone forth into the world.[e]

2 You gain the knowledge of the inspired expression from God[f] by this: Every inspired expression that confesses Jesus Christ as having come in the flesh originates with God,[g] 3 but every inspired expression that does not confess Jesus does not originate with God.[h] Furthermore, this is the antichrist's [inspired expression] which YOU have heard was coming,[i] and now it is already in the world.[j]

4 YOU originate with God, little children, and YOU have conquered those [persons],[k] because he that is in union[l] with YOU is greater[m] than he that is in union with the world.[n] 5 They originate with the world;[o] that is why they speak [what proceeds] from the world and the world listens to them.[p] 6 We originate with God.[q] He that gains the knowledge of God listens to us;[r] he that does not originate with God does not listen to us.[s] This is how we take note of the inspired expression of truth and the inspired expression of error.[t]

7 Beloved ones, let us continue loving one another,[u] because love[v] is from God, and everyone who loves has been born from God[w] and gains the knowledge of God.[x] 8 He that does not love has not come to know God, because God is love.[y] 9 By this the love of God was made manifest in our case,[z] because God sent forth his only-begotten Son[a] into the world that we might gain life through him.[b] 10 The love is in this respect, not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent forth his Son as a propitiatory[c] sacrifice[d] for our sins.[e]

11 Beloved ones, if this is how God loved us, then we are ourselves under obligation to love one another.[f] 12 At no time has anyone beheld God.[g] If we continue loving one another, God remains in us and his love is made perfect in us.[h] 13 By this we gain the knowledge that we are remaining in union[i] with him and he in union with us,[j] because he has imparted his spirit to us.[k] 14 In addition, we ourselves have beheld[l] and are bearing witness[m] that the Father has sent forth his Son as Savior of the world.[n] 15 Whoever makes the confession that Jesus Christ is the Son of God,[o] God remains in union with such one and he in union with God.[p] 16 And we ourselves have come to know and have believed the love[q] that God has in our case.

God is love,[r] and he that remains in love[s] remains in union with God and God remains in union[t] with him. 17 This is how love has been made perfect with us, that we may have freeness of speech[u] in the day of judgment,[v] because, just as that one is, so are we ourselves in this world.[w] 18 There is no fear in love,[x] but perfect love throws fear outside,[y] because fear exercises a restraint. Indeed, he that is under fear has not been made perfect in love.[z] 19 As for us, we love, because he first loved us.[a]

20 If anyone makes the statement: "I love God," and yet is hating his brother, he is a liar.[b] For he who does not love his brother,[c] whom he has seen, cannot be loving God, whom he has not seen.[d] 21 And this commandment we have from him,[a] that the one who loves God should be loving his brother also.[b]

5 Everyone believing that Jesus is the Christ has been born from God,[c] and everyone who loves the one that caused to be born loves him who has been born from that one.[d] 2 By this we gain the knowledge that we are loving[e] the children of God,[f] when we are loving God and doing his commandments.[g] 3 For this is what the love[h] of God means, that we observe his commandments;[i] and yet his commandments are not burdensome,[j] 4 because everything that has been born[k] from God conquers the world.[l] And this is the conquest[m] that has conquered[n] the world, our faith.[o]

5 Who is the one that conquers[p] the world[q] but he who has faith[r] that Jesus is the Son of God?[s] 6 This is he that came by means of water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with the water[t] only, but with the water and with the blood.[u] And the spirit[v] is that which is bearing witness, because the spirit is the truth. 7 For there are three witness bearers, 8 the spirit[w] and the water[x] and the blood,[y] and the three are in agreement.[z]

9 If we receive the witness men give,[a] the witness God gives is greater, because this is the witness God gives, the fact that he has borne witness[b] concerning his Son. 10 The [person] putting his faith in the Son of God has the witness[c] given in his own case. The [person] not having faith in God has made him a liar,[d] because he has not put his faith in the witness given,[e] which God as witness[f] has given concerning his

13 I write YOU these things that YOU may know that YOU have life everlasting,[d] YOU who put YOUR faith in the name of the Son of God.[e] 14 And this is the confidence that we have toward him,[f] that, no matter what it is that we ask according to his will, he hears us.[g] 15 Further, if we know he hears us respecting whatever we are asking,[h] we know we are to have the things asked since we have asked them of him.[i]

16 If anyone catches sight of his brother sinning a sin that does not incur death,[j] he will ask, and he will give life to him,[k] yes, to those not sinning so as to incur death.[l] There is a sin that does incur death. It is concerning that sin that I do not tell him to make request.[a] 17 All unrighteousness is sin;[b] and yet there is a sin that does not incur death.

18 We know that every [person] that has been born from God[c] does not practice sin, but the One[d] born from God watches him, and the wicked one does not fasten his hold on him.[e] 19 We know we originate with God,[f] but the whole world is lying in the [power of the] wicked one.[g] 20 But we know that the Son of God has come,[h] and he has given us intellectual[i] capacity that we may gain the knowledge of the true one.[j] And we are in union[k] with the true one, by means of his Son Jesus Christ. 1 The older man[a] to the chosen lady[b] and to her children, whom I truly love,[c] and not I alone, but all those also who have come to know the truth,[d] 2 because of the truth that remains in us,[e] and it will be with us forever.[f] 3 There will be with us undeserved kindness,[g] mercy [and] peace from God the Father[h] and from Jesus Christ the Son of the Father, with truth and love.[i]

4 I rejoice very much because I have found certain ones of your children[j] walking in the truth,[k] just as we received commandment from the Father.[l] 5 So now I request you, lady, as [a person] writing you, not a new commandment,[m] but one which we had from [the] beginning,[a] that we love one another.[b] 6 And this is what love means,[c] that we go on walking according to his commandments.[d] This is the commandment, just as YOU people have heard from [the] beginning, that YOU should go on walking in it.[e] 7 For many deceivers have gone forth into the world,[f] persons not confessing Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh.[g] This is the deceiver[h] and the antichrist.[i]

THE THIRD OF

JOHN

1 The older man[a] to Ga'ius, the beloved, whom I truly love.[b]

2 Beloved[c] one, I pray that in all things you may be prospering[d] and having good health,[e] just as your soul is prospering.[f] 3 For I rejoiced very much when brothers came and bore witness to the truth you hold, just as you go on walking in the truth.[g] 4 No greater cause for thankfulness do I have than these things, that I should be hearing that my children go on walking in the truth.[h]

5 Beloved one, you are doing a faithful work in whatever you do for the brothers,[i] and strangers at that,[j] 6 who have borne witness to your love before the congregation. These you will please send on their way in a manner worthy of God.[k] 7 For it was in behalf of [his] name that they went forth, not taking anything[l] from the people of the nations. 8 We, therefore, are under obligation to receive such persons hospitably,[m] that we may become fellow workers in the truth.[n]

9 I wrote something to the congregation, but Di·ot're·phes, who likes to have the first place[o] among them, does not receive anything[a] from us with respect.[b] 10 That is why, if I come, I will call to remembrance his works which he goes on doing,[c] chattering about us with wicked words.[d] Also, not being content with these things, neither does he himself receive the brothers[e] with respect, and those who are wanting to receive[f] them he tries to hinder[g] and to throw out[h] of the congregation.

11 Beloved one, be an imitator, not of what is bad, but of what is good.[i] He that does good originates with God.[j] He that does bad has not seen God.[k] 12 De·me'tri·us has had witness borne to him by them all[l] and by the truth itself. In fact, we, also, are bearing witness,[m] and you know that the witness we give is true.[n]

13 I had many things to write you, yet I do not wish to go on writing you with ink and pen.[o] 14 But I am hoping to see you directly, and we shall speak face to face.[p]

May you have peace.[q]

THE LETTER OF

JUDE

1 Jude, a slave of Jesus Christ, but a brother of James,[a] to the called ones[b] who are loved in relationship with God [the] Father[c] and preserved[d] for Jesus Christ:

2 May mercy[e] and peace[f] and love[g] be increased to YOU.[h]

3 Beloved ones,[i] though I was making every effort to write YOU about the salvation we hold in common,[j] I found it necessary to write YOU to exhort YOU to put up a hard fight for the faith[k] that was once for all time delivered to the holy ones.[l] 4 My reason is that certain men have slipped in[m] who have long ago been appointed[n] by the Scriptures to this judgment,[o] ungodly men,[p] turning the undeserved kindness of our God into an excuse for loose conduct[q] and proving false[r] to our only Owner[s] and Lord,[t] Jesus Christ.

5 I desire to remind YOU, despite YOUR knowing all things[u] once for all time, that Jehovah, although he saved a people out of the land of Egypt,[v] afterwards destroyed those not showing faith.[w] 6 And the angels that did not keep their original position but forsook their own proper dwelling place[x] he has reserved with eternal bonds[y] under dense darkness for the judgment of the great day.[z] 7 So too Sod'om and Go·mor'rah and the cities about them,[a] after they in the same manner as the foregoing ones had committed fornication excessively and gone out after flesh for unnatural use,[b] are placed before [us] as a [warning] example[c] by undergoing the judicial punishment of everlasting fire.[d]

8 In like manner, notwithstanding, these men, too, indulging in dreams,[e] are defiling the flesh and disregarding lordship[a] and speaking abusively of glorious ones.[b] 9 But when Mi'cha·el[c] the archangel[d] had a difference[e] with the Devil and was disputing about Moses' body,[f] he did not dare to bring a judgment against him in abusive terms,[g] but said: "May Jehovah rebuke you."[h] 10 Yet these [men] are speaking abusively of all the things they really do not know;[i] but all the things that they do understand naturally like the unreasoning animals,[j] in these things they go on corrupting[k] themselves.

11 Too bad for them, because they have gone in the path of Cain,[l] and have rushed into the erroneous course of Ba'laam[m] for reward, and have perished in the rebellious talk[n] of Ko'rah![o] 12 These are the rocks hidden below water in YOUR love feasts[p] while they feast with YOU, shepherds that feed themselves without fear;[q] waterless clouds carried this way[r] and that by winds;[s] trees in late autumn, [but] fruitless, having died twice, having been uprooted;[t] 13 wild waves of the sea that foam up their own causes for shame;[u] stars with no set course, for which the blackness of darkness stands reserved forever.[v]

14 Yes, the seventh one [in line] from Adam, E'noch,[w] prophesied also regarding them, when he said: "Look! Jehovah came with his holy myriads,[a] 15 to execute judgment against all,[b] and to convict all the ungodly concerning all their ungodly deeds that they did in an ungodly way, and concerning all the shocking things that ungodly sinners spoke against him."[c]

16 These men are murmurers,[d] complainers about their lot in life, proceeding according to their own desires,[e] and their mouths speak swelling things,[f] while they are admiring personalities[g] for the sake of [their own] benefit.

17 As for YOU, beloved ones, call to mind the sayings that have been previously spoken by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ,[h] 18 how they used to say to YOU: "In the last time there will be ridiculers, proceeding according to their own desires for ungodly things."[i] 19 These are the ones that make separations,[j] animalistic [men],[k] not having spirituality.[l] 20 But YOU, beloved ones, by building up yourselves[m] on YOUR most holy faith,[n] and praying with holy spirit,[a] 21 keep yourselves in God's love,[b] while YOU are waiting for the mercy[c] of our Lord Jesus Christ with everlasting life in view.[d] 22 Also, continue showing mercy[e] to some that have doubts;[f] 23 save [them][g] by snatching [them] out of the fire.[h] But continue showing mercy to others, doing so with fear, while YOU hate even the inner garment that has been stained by the flesh.[i]

24 Now to the one who is able to guard[j] YOU from stumbling and to set YOU unblemished[k] in the sight of his glory with great joy, 25 to [the] only God our Savior[l] through Jesus Christ[m] our Lord, be glory,[n] majesty, might[o] and authority[p] for all past eternity[q] and now and into all eternity.[r] Amen.[s]

A REVELATION

TO JOHN

1 A revelation[a] by Jesus Christ, which God gave him,[b] to show his slaves[c] the things that must shortly take place.[d] And he sent forth his angel[e] and presented [it] in signs[f] through him to his slave John,[g] 2 who bore witness to the word God gave[h] and to the witness Jesus Christ gave,[i] even to all the things he saw. 3 Happy[j] is he who reads aloud[k] and those who hear the words of this prophecy,[l] and who observe the things written in it;[m] for the appointed time is near.[n]

4 John to the seven congregations[a] that are in the [district of] Asia:

May YOU have undeserved kindness and peace from "The One who is and who was and who is coming,"[b] and from the seven spirits[c] that are before his throne, 5 and from Jesus Christ, "the Faithful Witness,"[d] "The firstborn from the dead,"[e] and "The Ruler of the kings of the earth."[f]

To him that loves us[g] and that loosed us from our sins

by means of his own blood[a]— 6 and he made us to be a kingdom,[b] priests[c] to his God and Father—yes, to him be the glory and the might forever.[d] Amen.

8 "I am the Al′pha and the O·me′ga,"[i] says Jehovah God, "the One who is and who was and who is coming,[j] the Almighty."[k]

9 I John, YOUR brother and a sharer with YOU in the tribulation[l] and kingdom[m] and endurance[n] in company with Jesus,[o] came to be in the isle that is called Pat′mos for speaking about God and bearing witness to Jesus.[p] 10 By inspiration[q] I came to be[r] in the Lord's day,[s] and I heard behind me a strong voice[t] like that of a trumpet, 11 saying: "What you see write[u] in a scroll and send it to the seven congregations,[v] in Eph′e·sus[w] and in Smyr′na[x] and in Per′ga·mum[y] and in Thy·a·ti′ra[z] and in Sar′dis[a] and in Philadelphia[b] and in La·o·di·ce′a."[c]

12 And I turned to see the voice that was speaking with me, and, having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands,[d] 13 and in the midst of the lampstands someone like a son of man,[e] clothed with a garment that reached down to the feet, and girded at the breasts with a golden girdle. 14 Moreover, his head and his hair were white[f] as white wool, as snow, and his eyes as a fiery flame;[g] 15 and his feet were like fine copper[h] when glowing in a furnace; and his voice[i] was as the sound of many waters. 16 And he had in his right hand seven stars,[j] and out of his mouth a sharp, long two-edged sword[k] was protruding, and his countenance was as the sun when it shines in its power.[a] 17 And when I saw him, I fell as dead at his feet.

And he laid his right hand upon me and said: "Do not be fearful.[b] I am the First[c] and the Last,[d] 18 and the living one;[e] and I became dead,[f] but, look! I am living forever and ever,[g] and I have the keys of death[h] and of Ha′des.[i] 19 Therefore write down the things you saw, and the things that are and the things that will take place after these.[j] 20 As for the sacred secret of the seven stars[k] that you saw upon my right hand, and [of] the seven golden lampstands:[l] The seven stars mean [the] angels of the seven congregations, and the seven lampstands mean seven congregations.[m]

2 "To the angel[n] of the congregation in Eph′e·sus[o] write: These are the things that he says who holds the seven stars[p] in his right hand, he who walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands,[q] 2 'I know your deeds,[r] and your labor and endurance, and that you cannot bear bad men, and that you put those to the test[s] who say they are apostles,[t] but they are not, and you found them liars. 3 You are also showing endurance,[u] and you have borne up for my name's[v] sake and have not grown weary.[w] 4 Nevertheless, I hold [this] against you, that you have left the love you had at first.[x]

5 "'Therefore remember from what you have fallen, and repent[y] and do the former deeds. If you do not, I am coming to you,[z] and I will remove your lampstand[a] from its place, unless you repent. 6 Still, you do have this, that you hate[b] the deeds of the sect of Nic·o·la′us,[c] which I also hate. 7 Let the one who has an ear hear what the spirit[a] says to the congregations: To him that conquers[b] I will grant to eat of the tree of life,[c] which is in the paradise of God.’

8 “And to the angel[d] of the congregation in Smyr′na write: These are the things that he says, ‘the First and the Last,’[e] who became dead and came to life [again],[f] 9 ‘I know your tribulation and poverty—but you are rich[g]—and the blasphemy by those who say they themselves are Jews,[h] and yet they are not but are a synagogue of Satan.[i] 10 Do not be afraid of the things you are about to suffer.[j] Look! The Devil[k] will keep on throwing some of YOU into prison that YOU may be fully put to the test,[l] and that YOU may have tribulation[m] ten days. Prove yourself faithful even to death,[n] and I will give you the crown of life.[o] 11 Let the one who has an ear hear[p] what the spirit[q] says to the congregations: He that conquers[r] will by no means be harmed by the second death.’[s]

12 “And to the angel of the congregation in Per′ga·mum write: These are the things that he says who has the sharp, long two-edged sword,[t] 13 ‘I know where you are dwelling, that is, where the throne of Satan is; and yet you keep on holding fast my name,[u] and you did not deny your faith in me[v] even in the days of An′ti·pas, my witness,[w] the faithful one, who was killed[x] by YOUR side, where Satan is dwelling.

14 “‘Nevertheless, I have a few things against you, that you have there those holding fast the teaching of Ba′laam,[y] who went teaching Ba′lak[z] to put a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit fornication.[a] 15 So you, also, have those holding fast the teaching of the sect of Nic·o·la′us[b] likewise. 16 Therefore repent.[a] If you do not, I am coming to you quickly, and I will war[b] with them with the long sword of my mouth.[c]

17 “‘Let the one who has an ear hear what the spirit says to the congregations:[d] To him that conquers[e] I will give some of the hidden manna,[f] and I will give him a white pebble, and upon the pebble a new name[g] written which no one knows except the one receiving it.’[h]

18 “And to the angel of the congregation in Thy·a·ti′ra[i] write: These are the things that the Son[j] of God says, he who has his eyes like a fiery flame,[k] and his feet are like fine copper,[l] 19 ‘I know your deeds, and your love[m] and faith and ministry and endurance, and that your deeds[n] of late are more than those formerly.[o]

20 “‘Nevertheless, I do hold [this] against you, that you tolerate that woman Jez′e·bel,[p] who calls herself a prophetess, and she teaches[q] and misleads my slaves[r] to commit fornication[s] and to eat things sacrificed to idols.[t] 21 And I gave her time to repent,[u] but she is not willing to repent of her fornication.[v] 22 Look! I am about to throw her into a sickbed, and those committing adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of her deeds. 23 And her children I will kill with deadly plague, so that all the congregations will know that I am he who searches the kidneys and hearts, and I will give to YOU individually according to YOUR deeds.[w]

24 “‘However, I say to the rest of YOU who are in Thy·a·ti′ra, all those who do not have this teaching, the very ones who did not get to know the “deep things of Satan,”[x] as they say: I am not putting upon YOU any other burden.[y]

you say: "I am rich[a] and have acquired riches and do not need anything at all," but you do not know you are miserable and pitiable and poor and blind[b] and naked, 18 I advise you to buy from me gold[c] refined by fire that you may become rich, and white outer garments that you may become dressed and that the shame of your nakedness may not become manifested,[d]
and eyesalve to rub in your eyes[e] that you may see.
19 "'All those for whom I have affection I reprove and discipline.[f] Therefore be zealous and repent.[g] 20 Look! I am standing at the door[h] and knocking. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door,[i] I will come into his [house] and take the evening meal with him and he with me. 21 To the one that conquers[j] I will grant to sit down with me on my throne,[k]
even as I conquered and sat down[l] with my Father on his throne.[m] 22 Let the one who says to the congregations.'"[o]

4 After these things I saw,
and, look! an opened door
in heaven, and the first voice that I heard was as of a trumpet,[p] speaking with me, saying:
"Come on up here,[q] and I shall show you the things that must take place."[r] 2 After these things I immediately came to be in [the power of the] spirit: and, look! a throne[s] was in its position in heaven,[t] and there is one seated upon the throne.[u] 3 And the one seated is, in appearance,[v] like a jasper stone[w] and a precious red-colored stone, and round about the throne [there is] a rainbow[x]
like an emerald[y] in appearance.
4 And round about the throne [there are] twenty-four thrones, and upon these thrones[z] [I saw] seated twenty-four[a] elders[b] dressed in white outer garments,[c] and upon their heads golden crowns.[d] 5 And out of the throne there are proceeding lightnings[a] and voices and thunders;[b] and [there are] seven lamps[c] of fire burning before the throne, and these mean the seven spirits[d] of God.
6 And before the throne there is, as it were, a glassy sea[e] like crystal.
And in the midst of the throne and around the throne [there are] four living creatures[f] that are full of eyes in front and behind. 7 And the first living creature is like a lion,[g] and the second living creature is like a young bull,[h] and the third living creature[i] has a face like a man's,
and the fourth living creature[j] is like a flying eagle.[k] 8 And as for the four living creatures,[l] each one of them respectively has six wings;[m] round about and underneath they are full of eyes.[n] And they have no rest day and night as they say: "Holy, holy, holy is Jehovah[o] God, the Almighty,[p] who was and who is[q] and who is coming."
9 And whenever the living creatures offer glory and honor and thanksgiving[r] to the one seated upon the throne,[s]
the one that lives forever and ever,[t] 10 the twenty-four elders[u] fall down before the One seated upon the throne and worship[v] the One that lives forever and ever, and they cast their crowns before the throne, saying: 11 "You are worthy, Jehovah, even our God, to receive the glory[w] and the honor[x]
and the power,[y] because you created all things,[z] and because of your will[a] they existed and were created."[b]

5 And I saw in the right hand of the One seated upon the throne[c] a scroll written within and on the reverse side,[d] sealed[e] tight with seven seals. 2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice: "Who is worthy to open the scroll and loose its seals?" 3 But neither in heaven nor upon earth nor underneath the earth was there a single one able to open the scroll or to look into it. 4 And I gave way to a great deal of weeping because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it.[a] 5 But one of the elders says to me: "Stop weeping. Look! The Lion that is of the tribe of Judah,[b] the root[c] of David,[d] has conquered[e] so as to open the scroll and its seven seals."

6 And I saw standing in the midst of the throne[f] and of the four living creatures and in the midst of the elders[g] a lamb[h] as though it had been slaughtered,[i] having seven horns and seven eyes, which [eyes] mean the seven spirits[j] of God that have been sent forth into the whole earth. 7 And he went and at once took [it] out of the right hand of the One seated on the throne.[k] 8 And when he took the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders[l] fell down before the Lamb, having each one a harp[m] and golden bowls that were full of incense, and the [incense][n] means the prayers[o] of the holy ones. 9 And they sing a new song,[p] saying: "You are worthy to take the scroll and open its seals, because you were slaughtered and with your blood[q] you bought[r] persons for God[s] out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation, 10 and you made them to be a kingdom[t] and priests[u] to our God,[v] and they are to rule as kings[w] over the earth."
11 And I saw, and I heard a voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders, and the number of them was myriads of myriads[x] and thousands of thousands,[y] 12 saying with a loud voice: "The Lamb that was slaughtered[a] is worthy to receive the power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing."[b] 13 And every creature that is in heaven and on earth and underneath the earth[c] and on the sea, and all the things in them, I heard saying: "To the One sitting on the throne[d] and to the Lamb[e] be the blessing and the honor[f] and the glory[g]
and the might forever and ever." 14 And the four living creatures went saying: "Amen!"
and the elders[h] fell down and worshiped.[i]

6 And I saw when the Lamb[j] opened one of the seven seals,[k] and I heard one of the four living creatures[l] say with a voice as of thunder: "Come!"[m] 2 And I saw, and, look! a white horse;[n] and the one seated[o]
upon it had a bow;[p] and a crown was given him,[q] and he went forth conquering[r] and to complete his conquest.[s]
3 And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature[t] say: "Come!"
4 And another came forth, a fiery-colored horse; and to the one seated upon it there was granted to take peace away from the earth so that they should slaughter one another;
and a great sword was given him.[u]
5 And when he[v] opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature[w] say: "Come!"
And I saw, and, look! a black horse; and the one seated upon it had a pair of scales[x] in his hand. 6 And I heard a voice as if in the midst[y] of the four living creatures[z] say: "A quart of wheat for a de·nar'i·us,[a] and three quarts of barley for a de·nar'i·us;
and do not harm the olive oil and the wine."[b]

fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature[a] say: "Come!" 8 And I saw, and, look! a pale horse; and the one seated upon it had the name Death. And Ha′des[b] was closely following him. And authority was given them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with a long sword[c] and with food shortage[d] and with deadly plague and by the wild beasts[e] of the earth.

9 And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar[f] the souls[g] of those slaughtered[h] because of the word of God and because of the witness[i] work that they used to have. 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying: "Until when, Sovereign[j] Lord holy and true,[k] are you refraining from judging[l] and avenging our blood[m] upon those who dwell on the earth?" 11 And a white[n] robe was given to each of them; and they were told to rest a little while longer, until the number was filled also of their fellow slaves and their brothers who were about to be killed[o] as they also had been.

12 And I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and a great earthquake occurred; and the sun became black as sackcloth[p] of hair, and the entire moon became as blood,[q] 13 and the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as when a fig tree shaken by a high wind casts its unripe figs. 14 And the heaven departed as a scroll that is being rolled up,[r] and every mountain and [every] island were removed from their places.[s] 15 And the kings of the earth and the top-ranking ones and the military commanders and the rich and the strong ones and every slave and [every] free person hid themselves in the caves and in the rock-masses[t] of the mountains. 16 And they keep saying to the mountains and to the rock-masses: "Fall over us[u] and hide us from the face of the One seated on the throne[a] and from the wrath of the Lamb,[b] 17 because the great day[c] of their wrath[d] has come, and who is able to stand?"[e]

7 After this I saw four angels[f] standing upon the four corners of the earth, holding tight the four winds[g] of the earth, that no wind might blow upon the earth or upon the sea or upon any tree.[h] 2 And I saw another angel ascending from the sunrising,[i] having a seal of [the] living God;[j] and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, 3 saying: "Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees, until after we have sealed[k] the slaves of our God in their foreheads."[l]

4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed, a hundred and forty-four thousand,[m] sealed out of every tribe[n] of the sons of Israel:[o]

5 Out of the tribe of Judah[p] twelve thousand sealed;
out of the tribe of Reu′ben[q] twelve thousand;

of all nations[a] and tribes and peoples[b] and tongues,[c] standing before the throne[d] and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes;[e] and there were palm branches[f] in their hands. 10 And they keep on crying with a loud voice, saying: "Salvation [we owe] to our God,[g] who is seated on the throne,[h] and to the Lamb."[i]

11 And all the angels[j] were standing around the throne and the elders[k] and the four living creatures,[l] and they fell upon their faces before the throne and worshiped God,[m] 12 saying: "Amen! The blessing and the glory and the wisdom and the thanksgiving and the honor and the power[n] and the strength [be] to our God forever and ever. Amen."[o]

13 And in response one of the elders[p] said to me: "These who are dressed in the white robes,[q] who are they and where did they come from?" 14 So right away I said to him: "My lord, you are the one that knows." And he said to me: "These are the ones that come out of the great tribulation,[r] and they have washed their robes and made them white[s] in the blood[t] of the Lamb. 15 That is why they are before[u] the throne of God; and they are rendering him sacred service[v] day and night in his temple; and the One seated on the throne[w] will spread his tent[x] over them. 16 They will hunger no more nor thirst anymore, neither will the sun beat down upon them nor any scorching heat,[y] 17 because the Lamb,[z] who is in the midst of the throne, will shepherd[a] them, and will guide them to fountains of waters[b] of life. seven angels[a] that stand before God, and seven trumpets were given them.

3 And another angel arrived and stood at the altar,[b] having a golden incense vessel; and a large quantity of incense[c] was given him to offer it with the prayers of all the holy ones upon the golden altar that was before the throne. 4 And the smoke of the incense ascended from the hand of the angel with the prayers[d] of the holy ones before God. 5 But right away the angel took the incense vessel, and he filled it with some of the fire[e] of the altar and hurled it to the earth.[f] And thunders[g] occurred and voices and lightnings[h] and an earthquake.[i] 6 And the seven angels with the seven[j] trumpets[k] prepared to blow them.

7 And the first one blew his trumpet. And there occurred a hail and fire[l] mingled with blood, and it was hurled to the earth; and a third of the earth was burned[m] up, and a third of the trees was burned up, and all the green vegetation[n] was burned up.

8 And the second angel blew his trumpet. And something like a great mountain[o] burning with fire was hurled into the sea.[p] And a third of the sea became blood;[q] 9 and a third of the creatures that are in the sea which have souls died,[r] and a third of the boats were wrecked.

10 And the third angel blew his trumpet. And a great star burning as a lamp fell from heaven,[s] and it fell upon a third of the rivers and upon the fountains of waters.[t] 11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood. And a third of the waters turned into wormwood, and many of the men died from the waters, because these had been made bitter.[u]

12 And the fourth angel blew his trumpet. And a third of the sun was smitten and a third of the moon and a third of the stars, in order that a third of them might be darkened[a] and the day might not have illumination for a third[b] of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I saw, and I heard an eagle[c] flying in midheaven[d] say with a loud voice: "Woe, woe, woe[e] to those dwelling on the earth because of the rest of the trumpet blasts of the three angels who are about to blow their trumpets!"[f]

9 And the fifth angel blew his trumpet.[g] And I saw a star[h] that had fallen from heaven to the earth, and the key[i] of the pit of the abyss[j] was given him. 2 And he opened the pit of the abyss, and smoke[k] ascended out of the pit as the smoke of a great furnace,[l] and the sun was darkened,[m] also the air, by the smoke of the pit. 3 And out of the smoke locusts[n] came forth upon the earth; and authority was given them, the same authority as the scorpions[o] of the earth have. 4 And they were told to harm no vegetation of the earth nor any green thing nor any tree, but only those men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.[p]

5 And it was granted the [locusts], not to kill them, but that these should be tormented[q] five months, and the torment upon them was as torment by a scorpion[r] when it strikes a man. 6 And in those days the men will seek death[s] but will by no means find it, and they will desire to die but death keeps fleeing from them.

7 And the likenesses of the locusts resembled horses[t] prepared for battle; and upon their heads [were] what seemed to be crowns like gold, and their faces [were] as men's faces,[u] 8 but they had hair as women's hair.[v] And their teeth were as those of lions;[a] 9 and they had breastplates[b] like iron breastplates. And the sound of their wings [was] as the sound of chariots[c] of many horses running into battle.[d] 10 Also, they have tails and stings like scorpions;[e] and in their tails is their authority to hurt the men five months. 11 They have over them a king, the angel of the abyss.[f] In Hebrew his name is A·bad′don, but in Greek he has the name A·pol′ly·on.[g]

12 The one woe is past. Look! Two more woes[h] are coming after these things.

13 And the sixth angel[i] blew his trumpet.[j] And I heard one voice[k] out of the horns of the golden altar[l] that is before God 14 say to the sixth angel, who had the trumpet: "Untie the four angels[m] that are bound[n] at the great river Eu·phra′tes."[o] 15 And the four angels were untied, who have been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, to kill a third of the men.

16 And the number of the armies of cavalry was two myriads of myriads: I heard the number of them. 17 And this is how I saw the horses in the vision, and those seated on them: they had fire-red and hyacinth-blue and sulphur-yellow breastplates; and the heads of the horses were as heads of lions,[p] and out of their mouths fire and smoke and sulphur[q] issued forth. 18 By these three plagues a third of the men were killed, from the fire and the smoke and the sulphur which issued forth from their mouths. 19 For the authority of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents[r] and have heads, and with these they do harm.

20 But the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues did not repent of the works of their hands,[s] so that they should not worship the demons[a] and the idols of gold and silver[b] and copper and stone and wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk;[c] 21 and they did not repent of their murders[d] nor of their spiritistic practices[e] nor of their fornication nor of their thefts.

10 And I saw another strong angel[f] descending from heaven, arrayed with a cloud,[g] and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as the sun,[h] and his feet[i] were as fiery pillars, 2 and he had in his hand a little scroll opened. And he set his right foot upon the sea, but his left one upon the earth,[j] 3 and he cried out with a loud voice just as when a lion[k] roars. And when he cried out, the seven thunders[l] uttered their own voices.

4 Now when the seven thunders spoke, I was at the point of writing; but I heard a voice out of heaven[m] say: "Seal up the things[n] the seven thunders spoke, and do not write them down." 5 And the angel that I saw standing on the sea and on the earth raised his right hand to heaven,[o] 6 and by the One who lives[p] forever and ever,[q] who created the heaven and the things in it and the earth[r] and the things in it and the sea and the things in it,[s] he swore: "There will be no delay[t] any longer; 7 but in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel,[u] when he is about to blow his trumpet,[v] the sacred secret[w] of God according to the good news which he declared to his own slaves the prophets[x] is indeed brought to a finish."

8 And the voice[y] that I heard out of heaven is speaking again with me and saying: "Go, take the opened scroll that is in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the earth."[z] 9 And I went away to the angel and told him to give me the little scroll. And he said to me: "Take it and eat it up,[a] and it will make your belly bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey." 10 And I took the little scroll out of the hand of the angel and ate it up,[a] and in my mouth it was sweet as honey;[b] but when I had eaten it up, my belly was made bitter. 11 And they say to me: "You must prophesy again with regard to peoples and nations and tongues and many kings."[c]

11 And a reed like a rod[d] was given me as he said: "Get up and measure the temple[e] [sanctuary] of God and the altar and those worshiping in it. 2 But as for the courtyard that is outside[f] the temple [sanctuary], cast it clear out and do not measure it, because it has been given to the nations,[g] and they will trample the holy city[h] underfoot for forty-two months.[i] 3 And I will cause my two[j] witnesses to prophesy[k] a thousand two hundred and sixty days dressed in sackcloth."[l] 4 These are [symbolized by] the two olive trees[m] and the two lampstands[n] and are standing before the Lord of the earth.[o]

5 And if anyone wants to harm them, fire issues forth from their mouths and devours their enemies;[p] and if anyone should want to harm them, in this manner he must be killed. 6 These have the authority to shut up heaven[q] that no rain should fall[r] during the days of their prophesying, and they have authority over the waters to turn them into blood[s] and to strike the earth with every sort of plague as often as they wish.

7 And when they have finished their witnessing, the wild beast that ascends out of the abyss[t] will make war with them and conquer them and kill them.[u] 8 And their corpses will be on the broad way of the great city which is in a spiritual sense called Sod'om[a] and Egypt, where their Lord was also impaled.[b] 9 And those of the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations[c] will look at their corpses for three and a half days,[d] and they do not let their corpses be laid in a tomb. 10 And those dwelling on the earth rejoice[e] over them and enjoy themselves, and they will send gifts to one another,[f] because these two prophets tormented those dwelling on the earth.

11 And after the three and a half days[g] spirit of life from God entered into them,[h] and they stood upon their feet, and great fear fell upon those beholding them. 12 And they heard a loud voice[i] out of heaven say to them: "Come on up here."[j] And they went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies beheld them. 13 And in that hour a great earthquake occurred, and a tenth[k] of the city fell; and seven thousand persons were killed by the earthquake, and the rest became frightened and gave glory to the God of heaven.[l]

14 The second woe[m] is past. Look! The third woe is coming quickly.

15 And the seventh angel blew his trumpet.[n] And loud voices occurred in heaven, saying: "The kingdom of the world did become the kingdom of our Lord[o] and of his Christ,[p] and he will rule as king forever and ever."[q]

16 And the twenty-four elders[r] who were seated before God upon their thrones fell upon their faces[s] and worshiped God,[t] 17 saying: "We thank you,[u] Jehovah God, the Almighty,[v] the One who is[w] and who was, because you have taken your great power[x] and begun ruling as king.[y] 18 But the nations became wrathful, and your own wrath came, and the appointed time for the dead to be judged, and to give [their] reward[a] to your slaves the prophets[b] and to the holy ones and to those fearing your name, the small and the great,[c] and to bring to ruin[d] those ruining the earth."[e]

19 And the temple [sanctuary] of God that is in heaven[f] was opened, and the ark[g] of his covenant was seen in his temple [sanctuary].[h] And there occurred lightnings and voices and thunders and an earthquake and a great hail.

And a great sign[i] was seen in heaven, a woman[j] arrayed with the sun, and the moon was beneath her feet, and on her head was a crown of twelve stars, 2 and she was pregnant. And she cries out in her pains[k] and in her agony to give birth.

3 And another sign was seen in heaven, and, look! a great fiery-colored dragon,[l] with seven heads and ten horns and upon its heads seven diadems; 4 and its tail[m] drags a third of the stars[n] of heaven, and it hurled them down to the earth.[o] And the dragon kept standing before the woman[p] who was about to give birth,[q] that, when she did give birth, it might devour[r] her child.

5 And she gave birth to a son,[s] a male, who is to shepherd all the nations with an iron rod.[t] And her child was caught away to God and to his throne.[u] 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness,[v] where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed[w] her there a thousand two hundred and sixty days.[x]

7 And war broke out in heaven: Mi'cha·el[y] and his angels battled with the dragon, and the dragon and its angels battled 8 but it did not prevail, neither was a place found for them any longer in heaven. 9 So down the great dragon[a] was hurled, the original serpent,[b] the one called Devil[c] and Satan,[d] who is misleading the entire inhabited earth;[e] he was hurled down to the earth,[f] and his angels were hurled down with him. 10 And I heard a loud voice in heaven say:

"Now have come to pass the salvation[g] and the power[h] and the kingdom of our God[i] and the authority of his Christ,[j] because the accuser of our brothers has been hurled down, who accuses them day and night before our God![k] 11 And they conquered him[l] because of the blood of the Lamb[m] and because of the word of their witnessing,[n] and they did not love their souls[o] even in the face of death. 12 On this account be glad, you heavens and you who reside in them![p] Woe[q] for the earth and for the sea,[r] because the Devil has come down to you, having great anger, knowing he has a short period of time."[s]

13 Now when the dragon saw that it was hurled down to the earth,[t] it persecuted the woman[u] that gave birth to the male child. 14 But the two wings of the great eagle[v] were given the woman, that she might fly into the wilderness[w] to her place; there is where she is fed[x] for a time and times and half a time[y] away from the face of the serpent.[z]

15 And the serpent disgorged water[a] like a river from its mouth after the woman, to cause her to be drowned by the river.[b] 16 But the earth came to the woman's help,[c] and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river that the dragon disgorged from its mouth. 17 And the dragon grew wrathful at the woman,[d] and went off to wage war with the remaining ones of her seed, who observe the commandments of God and have the work of bearing witness[a] to Jesus.

And it stood still upon the sand[b] of the sea.

And I saw a wild beast[c] ascending out of the sea,[d] with ten horns[e] and seven heads,[f] and upon its horns ten diadems, but upon its heads blasphemous[g] names. 2 Now the wild beast that I saw was like a leopard,[h] but its feet were as those of a bear,[i] and its mouth was as a lion's[j] mouth. And the dragon[k] gave to [the beast] its power and its throne and great authority.[l]

3 And I saw one of its heads as though slaughtered to death, but its death-stroke[m] got healed, and all the earth followed the wild beast with admiration. 4 And they worshiped the dragon because it gave the authority to the wild beast, and they worshiped the wild beast with the words: "Who is like the wild beast, and who can do battle with it?" 5 And a mouth speaking great things[n] and blasphemies was given it,[o] and authority to act forty-two months[p] was given it. 6 And it opened its mouth in blasphemies[q] against God, to blaspheme his name and his residence, even those residing in heaven.[r] 7 And there was granted[s] it to wage war with the holy ones and conquer them,[t] and authority was given it over every tribe and people and tongue and nation. 8 And all those who dwell on the earth will worship it; the name of not one of them stands written in the scroll[u] of life of the Lamb who was slaughtered,[v] from the founding of the world.[w]

9 If anyone has an ear, let him hear.[a] 10 If anyone [is meant] for captivity, he goes away into captivity.[b] If anyone will kill with the sword, he must be killed with the sword.[c] Here is where it means the endurance[d] and faith[e] of the holy ones.[f]

11 And I saw another wild beast[g] ascending out of the earth,[h] and it had two horns like a lamb, but it began speaking as a dragon.[i] 12 And it exercises all the authority of the first wild beast[j] in its sight. And it makes the earth and those who dwell in it worship the first wild beast, whose death-stroke got healed.[k] 13 And it performs great signs,[l] so that it should even make fire come down out of heaven to the earth in the sight of mankind.

14 And it misleads those who dwell on the earth, because of the signs that were granted it to perform in the sight of the wild beast, while it tells those who dwell on the earth to make an image[m] to the wild beast that had the sword-stroke[n] and yet revived. 15 And there was granted it to give breath to the image of the wild beast, so that the image of the wild beast should both speak and cause to be killed all those who would not in any way worship the image[o] of the wild beast.

16 And it puts under compulsion all persons,[p] the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the slaves, that they should give these a mark in their right hand or upon their forehead,[q] 17 and that nobody might be able to buy or sell except a person having the mark, the name[r] of the wild beast or the number of its name.[s] 18 Here is where wisdom comes in: Let the one that has intelligence calculate the number of the wild beast, for it is a man's[t] number; and its number is six hundred and sixty-six.[u]

14 And I saw, and, look! the Lamb[a] standing upon the Mount Zion,[b] and with him a hundred and forty-four thousand[c] having his name and the name of his Father[d] written on their foreheads. 2 And I heard a sound out of heaven as the sound of many waters[e] and as the sound of loud thunder; and the sound that I heard was as of singers who accompany themselves on the harp[f] playing on their harps. 3 And they are singing[g] as if a new song[h] before the throne and before the four living creatures[i] and the elders;[j] and no one was able to master that song but the hundred and forty-four thousand,[k] who have been bought[l] from the earth. 4 These are the ones that did not defile themselves with women;[m] in fact, they are virgins.[n] These are the ones that keep following the Lamb no matter where he goes.[o] These were bought[p] from among mankind as firstfruits[q] to God and to the Lamb, 5 and no falsehood was found in their mouths;[r] they are without blemish.[s]

6 And I saw another angel flying in midheaven,[t] and he had everlasting good news[u] to declare as glad tidings to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation and tribe and tongue and people,[v] 7 saying in a loud voice: "FEAR God[w] and give him glory,[x] because the hour of the judgment by him has arrived,[y] and so worship the One who made[z] the heaven and the earth and sea and fountains of waters."[a]

8 And another, a second angel, followed, saying: "She has fallen! Babylon[b] the Great has fallen,[c] she who made all the nations drink of the wine[d] of the anger of her fornication!"[e]

9 And another angel, a third, followed them, saying in a loud voice: "If anyone worships the wild beast[a] and its image,[b] and receives a mark on his forehead or upon his hand,[c] 10 he will also drink of the wine of the anger of God that is poured out undiluted into the cup of his wrath,[d] and he shall be tormented[e] with fire and sulphur[f] in the sight of the holy angels and in the sight of the Lamb. 11 And the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever,[g] and day and night they have no rest, those who worship the wild beast and its image, and whoever receives the mark[h] of its name. 12 Here is where it means endurance for the holy ones,[i] those who observe the commandments of God[j] and the faith[k] of Jesus."

13 And I heard a voice out of heaven say: "Write: Happy are the dead[l] who die in union with [the] Lord[m] from this time onward.[n] Yes, says the spirit, let them rest from their labors, for the things they did go right with them."

14 And I saw, and, look! a white cloud, and upon the cloud someone seated like a son of man,[o] with a golden crown[p] on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand.

15 And another angel emerged from the temple [sanctuary], crying with a loud voice to the one seated on the cloud: "Put your sickle in and reap,[q] because the hour has come to reap, for the harvest[r] of the earth is thoroughly ripe."[s] 16 And the one seated on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And still another angel emerged from the temple [sanctuary] that is in heaven,[t] he, too, having a sharp sickle.

18 And still another angel emerged from the altar and he had authority over the fire.[u] And he called out with a loud voice to the one that had the sharp sickle, saying: "Put your sharp sickle in and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth,[a] because its grapes have become ripe." 19 And the angel[b] thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine[c] of the earth, and he hurled it into the great winepress of the anger of God.[d] 20 And the winepress was trodden outside the city,[e] and blood came out of the winepress as high up as the bridles of the horses,[f] for a distance of a thousand six hundred furlongs.[g]

15 And I saw in heaven another sign,[h] great and wonderful, seven angels[i] with seven plagues.[j] These are the last ones, because by means of them the anger[k] of God is brought to a finish.[l]

2 And I saw what seemed to be a glassy sea[m] mingled with fire, and those who come off victorious[n] from the wild beast and from its image[o] and from the number[p] of its name standing by the glassy sea,[q] having harps[r] of God. 3 And they are singing the song of Moses[s] the slave of God and the song of the Lamb,[t] saying:

"Great and wonderful are your works,[u] Jehovah God, the Almighty.[v] Righteous and true are your ways,[w] King of eternity.[x] 4 Who will not really fear you,[y] Jehovah,[z] and glorify your name,[a] because you alone are loyal?[b] For all the nations will come and worship before you,[c] because your righteous decrees have been made manifest."[d]

5 And after these things I saw, and the sanctuary of the tent[e] of the witness[f] was opened in heaven,[g] 6 and the seven angels[h] with the seven plagues[i] emerged from the sanctuary, clothed with clean, bright linen[a] and girded about their breasts with golden girdles. 7 And one of the four living creatures[b] gave the seven angels seven golden bowls that were full of the anger of God,[c] who lives forever and ever.[d] 8 And the sanctuary became filled with smoke because of the glory of God[e] and because of his power, and no one was able to enter into the sanctuary until the seven plagues[f] of the seven angels were finished.

16 And I heard a loud voice[g] out of the sanctuary say to the seven angels: "Go and pour out the seven bowls of the anger[h] of God into the earth."

2 And the first one[i] went off and poured out his bowl into the earth.[j] And a hurtful and malignant ulcer[k] came to be upon the men that had the mark of the wild beast[l] and that were worshiping its image.[m]

3 And the second one[n] poured out his bowl into the sea.[o] And it became blood[p] as of a dead man, and every living soul died, [yes,] the things in the sea.[q]

4 And the third one[r] poured out his bowl into the rivers[s] and the fountains of the waters. And they became blood.[t] 5 And I heard the angel over the waters say: "You, the One who is and who was,[u] the loyal[v] One, are righteous, because you have rendered these decisions,[w] 6 because they poured out the blood of holy ones and of prophets,[x] and you have given them blood[y] to drink. They deserve it."[z] 7 And I heard the altar say: "Yes, Jehovah God, the Almighty,[a] true and righteous are your judicial decisions."[b]

8 And the fourth one[c] poured out his bowl upon the sun; and to [the sun] it was granted to scorch[d] the men with fire. 9 And the men were scorched with great heat, but they blasphemed the name[e] of God, who has the authority[a] over these plagues, and they did not repent so as to give glory[b] to him.

10 And the fifth one poured out his bowl upon the throne of the wild beast.[c] And its kingdom became darkened,[d] and they began to gnaw their tongues for [their] pain, 11 but they blasphemed[e] the God of heaven for their pains and for their ulcers, and they did not repent of their works.

12 And the sixth one[f] poured out his bowl upon the great river Eu·phra'tes,[g] and its water was dried up,[h] that the way might be prepared for the kings[i] from the rising of the sun.

13 And I saw three unclean inspired expressions[j] [that looked] like frogs[k] come out of the mouth of the dragon[l] and out of the mouth of the wild beast[m] and out of the mouth of the false prophet.[n] 14 They are, in fact, expressions inspired[o] by demons and perform signs,[p] and they go forth to the kings[q] of the entire inhabited earth,[r] to gather them together to the war[s] of the great day[t] of God the Almighty.[u]

15 "Look! I am coming as a thief.[v] Happy is the one that stays awake[w] and keeps his outer garments, that he may not walk naked and people look upon his shamefulness."[x]

16 And they gathered them together to the place that is called in Hebrew Har–Ma·ged'on.[y]

17 And the seventh one poured out his bowl upon the air.[z] At this a loud voice[a] issued out of the sanctuary from the throne, saying: "It has come to pass!" 18 And lightnings and voices and thunders occurred, and a great earthquake[b] occurred such as had not occurred since men came to be on the earth,[a] so extensive an earthquake,[b] so great. 19 And the great city[c] split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell; and Babylon the Great[d] was remembered in the sight of God, to give her the cup of the wine of the anger of his wrath.[e] 20 Also, every island fled, and mountains were not found.[f] 21 And a great hail[g] with every stone about the weight of a talent descended out of heaven upon the men, and the men blasphemed[h] God due to the plague of hail,[i] because the plague of it was unusually great.

17 And one of the seven angels that had the seven bowls[j] came and spoke with me, saying: "Come, I will show you the judgment upon the great harlot[k] who sits on many waters,[l] 2 with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication,[m] whereas those who inhabit the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication."[n]

3 And he carried me away in [the power of the] spirit[o] into a wilderness. And I caught sight of a woman sitting upon a scarlet-colored wild beast[p] that was full of blasphemous names[q] and that had seven heads[r] and ten horns. 4 And the woman was arrayed in purple[s] and scarlet,[t] and was adorned with gold and precious stone and pearls[u] and had in her hand a golden cup[v] that was full of disgusting things[w] and the unclean things of her fornication.[x] 5 And upon her forehead was written a name, a mystery:[y] "Babylon the Great, the mother of the harlots[z] and of the disgusting things of the earth."[a] 6 And I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood[b] of the holy ones and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus.[c]

Well, on catching sight of her I wondered with great wonderment.[d] 7 And so the angel said to me: "Why is it you wondered? I will tell you the mystery of the woman[a] and of the wild beast that is carrying her and that has the seven heads and the ten horns:[b] 8 The wild beast that you saw was,[c] but is not, and yet is about to ascend out of the abyss,[d] and it is to go off into destruction. And when they see how the wild beast was, but is not, and yet will be present, those who dwell on the earth will wonder admiringly, but their names have not been written upon the scroll of life[e] from the founding of the world.[f]

9 "Here is where the intelligence that has wisdom comes in:[g] The seven heads[h] mean seven mountains,[i] where the woman sits on top. 10 And there are seven kings: five have fallen,[j] one is,[k] the other has not yet arrived,[l] but when he does arrive he must remain a short while.[m] 11 And the wild beast that was but is not,[n] it is also itself an eighth [king], but springs from the seven, and it goes off into destruction.

12 "And the ten horns that you saw mean ten kings,[o] who have not yet received a kingdom, but they do receive authority as kings one hour with the wild beast. 13 These have one thought, and so they give their power and authority to the wild beast.[p] 14 These will battle with the Lamb,[q] but, because he is Lord of lords and King of kings,[r] the Lamb will conquer them.[s] Also, those called and chosen and faithful with him [will do so]."[t]

15 And he says to me: "The waters that you saw, where the harlot is sitting, mean peoples and crowds and nations and tongues.[u] 16 And the ten horns[v] that you saw, and the wild beast,[w] these will hate the harlot[x] and will make her devastated and naked, and will eat up her fleshy parts and will completely burn her with fire.[a] 17 For God put [it] into their hearts to carry out his thought,[b] even to carry out [their] one thought by giving their kingdom to the wild beast,[c] until the words of God will have been accomplished.[d] 18 And the woman[e] whom you saw means the great city that has a kingdom over the kings of the earth."[f]

18 After these things I saw another angel descending from heaven, with great authority;[g] and the earth was lighted up from his glory.[h] 2 And he cried out with a strong voice,[i] saying: "She has fallen! Babylon the Great has fallen,[j] and she has become a dwelling place of demons and a lurking place of every unclean exhalation[k] and a lurking place of every unclean and hated bird![l] 3 For because of the wine of the anger of her fornication all the nations have fallen [victim],[m] and the kings of the earth committed fornication[n] with her, and the traveling merchants[o] of the earth became rich due to the power of her shameless luxury."[p]

4 And I heard another voice out of heaven say: "Get out of her, my people,[q] if YOU do not want to share with her in her sins,[r] and if YOU do not want to receive part of her plagues. 5 For her sins have massed together clear up to heaven,[s] and God has called her acts of injustice to mind.[t] 6 Render to her even as she herself rendered,[u] and do to her twice as much, yes, twice the number of the things she did;[v] in the cup[w] in which she put a mixture put twice[x] as much of the mixture for her.[y] 7 To the extent that she glorified herself and lived in shameless luxury, to that extent give her torment and mourning.[z] For in her heart she keeps saying, 'I sit a queen,[a] and I am no widow,[b] and I shall never see mourning.'[c] 8 That is why in one day her plagues[d] will come, death and mourning and famine, and she will be completely burned with fire,[e] because Jehovah God, who judged her, is strong.[f]

9 "And the kings[g] of the earth who committed fornication with her and lived in shameless luxury will weep and beat themselves in grief over her,[h] when they look at the smoke[i] from the burning of her, 10 while they stand at a distance because of their fear of her torment and say,[j] 'Too bad, too bad, you great city,[k] Babylon you strong city, because in one hour your judgment has arrived!'[l]

11 "Also, the traveling merchants[m] of the earth are weeping and mourning over her,[n] because there is no one to buy their full stock anymore, 12 a full stock[o] of gold and silver and precious stone and pearls and fine linen and purple and silk and scarlet; and everything in scented wood and every sort of ivory object and every sort of object out of most precious wood and of copper and of iron and of marble;[p] 13 also cinnamon and Indian spice and incense and perfumed oil and frankincense and wine and olive oil and fine flour and wheat and cattle and sheep, and horses and coaches and slaves and human souls.[q] 14 Yes, the fine fruit that your soul desired[r] has departed from you, and all the dainty things and the gorgeous things have perished from you, and never again will people find them.[s]

15 "The traveling merchants[t] of these things, who became rich from her, will stand at a distance because of [their] fear of her torment and will weep and mourn,[u] 16 saying, 'Too bad, too bad—the great city,[v] clothed with fine linen and purple and scarlet, and richly adorned with gold ornament and precious stone and pearl,[a] 17 because in one hour such great riches have been devastated!'[b]

"And every ship captain and every man that voyages anywhere,[c] and sailors and all those who make a living by the sea, stood at a distance[d] 18 and cried out as they looked at the smoke from the burning of her and said, 'What city is like the great city?'[e] 19 And they threw dust upon their heads[f] and cried out, weeping and mourning,[g] and said, 'Too bad, too bad—the great city, in which all those having boats at sea[h] became rich[i] by reason of her costliness, because in one hour she has been devastated!'[j]

20 "Be glad over her, O heaven,[k] also YOU holy ones[l] and YOU apostles[m] and YOU prophets, because God has judicially exacted punishment for YOU from her!"[n]

21 And a strong angel lifted up a stone like a great millstone[o] and hurled it into the sea,[p] saying: "Thus with a swift pitch will Babylon the great city be hurled down, and she will never be found again.[q] 22 And the sound of singers who accompany themselves on the harp and of musicians and of flutists and of trumpeters will never be heard in you again,[r] and no craftsman of any trade will ever be found in you again, and no sound of a millstone will ever be heard in you again, 23 and no light of a lamp will ever shine in you again, and no voice of a bridegroom and of a bride will ever be heard in you again;[s] because your traveling merchants[t] were the top-ranking men[u] of the earth, for by your spiritistic[v] practice all the nations were misled. 24 Yes, in her was found the blood[w] of prophets[x] and of holy ones[y] and of all those who have been slaughtered on the earth."[z]

19 After these things I heard what was as a loud voice of a great crowd in heaven.[a] They said: "Praise Jah, YOU people![b] The salvation[c] and the glory and the power belong to our God,[d] 2 because his judgments are true and righteous.[e] For he has executed judgment upon the great harlot who corrupted the earth with her fornication, and he has avenged the blood of his slaves at her hand."[f] 3 And right away for the second time they said: "Praise Jah, YOU people![g] And the smoke from her goes on ascending forever and ever."[h]

4 And the twenty-four elders[i] and the four living creatures[j] fell down and worshiped God seated[k] upon the throne, and said: "Amen! Praise Jah,[l] YOU people!"

5 Also, a voice issued forth from the throne and said: "Be praising our God, all YOU his slaves,[m] who fear him, the small ones and the great."[n]

6 And I heard what was as a voice of a great crowd and as a sound of many waters and as a sound of heavy thunders. They said: "Praise Jah,[o] YOU people, because Jehovah our God, the Almighty,[p] has begun to rule as king.[q] 7 Let us rejoice and be overjoyed, and let us give him the glory,[r] because the marriage[s] of the Lamb has arrived[t] and his wife has prepared herself.[u] 8 Yes, it has been granted to her to be arrayed in bright, clean, fine linen, for the fine linen stands for the righteous acts of the holy ones."[v]

9 And he tells me: "Write: Happy are those invited[w] to the evening meal of the Lamb's marriage."[x] Also, he tells me: "These are the true sayings of God."[y] 10 At that I fell down before his feet to worship him.[z] But he tells me: "Be careful! Do not do that![a] All I am is a fellow slave of you and of your brothers who have the work of witnessing to Jesus.[a] Worship God;[b] for the bearing witness to Jesus is what inspires prophesying."[c]

11 And I saw the heaven opened, and, look! a white horse.[d] And the one seated upon it is called Faithful[e] and True,[f] and he judges and carries on war in righteousness.[g] 12 His eyes are a fiery flame,[h] and upon his head are many diadems.[i] He has a name[j] written that no one knows but he himself, 13 and he is arrayed with an outer garment sprinkled with blood,[k] and the name he is called is The Word[l] of God. 14 Also, the armies that were in heaven were following him on white horses, and they were clothed in white, clean, fine linen. 15 And out of his mouth there protrudes a sharp long sword,[m] that he may strike the nations with it, and he will shepherd them with a rod of iron.[n] He treads too the winepress[o] of the anger of the wrath of God[p] the Almighty. 16 And upon his outer garment, even upon his thigh, he has a name written, King of kings and Lord of lords.[q]

17 I saw also an angel standing in the sun, and he cried out with a loud voice and said to all the birds[r] that fly in midheaven: "Come here, be gathered together to the great evening meal of God, 18 that YOU may eat the fleshy[s] parts of kings and the fleshy parts of military commanders and the fleshy parts of strong men[t] and the fleshy parts of horses[u] and of those seated upon them, and the fleshy parts of all, of freemen as well as of slaves and of small ones and great."

19 And I saw the wild beast[v] and the kings[w] of the earth and their armies gathered together to wage the war[x] with the one seated on the horse[y] and with his army. 20 And the wild beast[z] was caught, and along with it the false prophet[a] that performed in front of it the signs[b] with which he misled those who received the mark[c] of the wild beast and those who render worship to its image.[d] While still alive, they both were hurled into the fiery lake that burns with sulphur.[e] 21 But the rest were killed off with the long sword of the one seated on the horse,[f] which [sword] proceeded out of his mouth.[g] And all the birds[h] were filled[i] from the fleshy parts of them.[j]

20 And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven with the key of the abyss[k] and a great chain in his hand. 2 And he seized the dragon,[l] the original serpent,[m] who is the Devil[n] and Satan,[o] and bound him for a thousand years. 3 And he hurled him into the abyss[p] and shut [it] and sealed [it] over him, that he might not mislead the nations anymore until the thousand years were ended. After these things he must be let loose for a little while.[q]

4 And I saw thrones,[r] and there were those who sat down on them, and power of judging was given them.[s] Yes, I saw the souls of those executed with the ax for the witness they bore to Jesus and for speaking about God, and those who had worshiped neither the wild beast[t] nor its image[u] and who had not received the mark upon their forehead and upon their hand.[v] And they came to life and ruled as kings[w] with the Christ for a thousand years. 5 (The rest of the dead[x] did not come to life until the thousand years were ended.)[y] This is the first[z] resurrection. 6 Happy[a] and holy[b] is anyone having part in the first resurrection; over these the second death[c] has no authority,[d]

but they will be priests[a] of God and of the Christ, and will rule as kings with him for the thousand years.[b]

7 Now as soon as the thousand years have been ended, Satan will be let loose out of his prison, 8 and he will go out to mislead those nations in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Ma'gog, to gather them together for the war. The number of these is as the sand of the sea.[c] 9 And they advanced over the breadth of the earth and encircled the camp of the holy ones[d] and the beloved city.[e] But fire came down out of heaven and devoured them.[f] 10 And the Devil[g] who was misleading them was hurled into the lake of fire and sulphur, where both the wild beast[h] and the false prophet [already were];[i] and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne and the one seated on it.[j] From before him the earth and the heaven fled away,[k] and no place was found for them. 12 And I saw the dead, the great and the small,[l] standing before the throne, and scrolls were opened. But another scroll was opened; it is the scroll of life.[m] And the dead were judged out of those things written in the scrolls according to their deeds.[n] 13 And the sea gave up those dead in it, and death and Ha'des gave up those dead[o] in them, and they were judged individually according to their deeds.[p] 14 And death[q] and Ha'des were hurled into the lake of fire. This means the second death,[r] the lake of fire.[s] 15 Furthermore, whoever was not found written in the book of life[t] was hurled into the lake of fire.[u]

21 And I saw a new heaven[v] and a new earth;[w] for the former heaven[x] and the former earth[y] had passed away, and the sea[a] is no more. 2 I saw also the holy city,[b] New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven[c] from God and prepared as a bride[d] adorned for her husband.[e] 3 With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent[f] of God is with mankind, and he will reside[g] with them, and they will be his peoples.[h] And God himself will be with them.[i] 4 And he will wipe out every tear[j] from their eyes, and death will be no more,[k] neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.[l] The former things have passed away."[m]

5 And the One seated on the throne[n] said: "Look! I am making all things new."[o] Also, he says: "Write, because these words are faithful and true." 6 And he said to me: "They have come to pass! I am the Al'pha and the O·me'ga, the beginning and the end.[p] To anyone thirsting I will give from the fountain of the water of life free.[q] 7 Anyone conquering will inherit these things, and I shall be his God[r] and he will be my son.[s] 8 But as for the cowards and those without faith[t] and those who are disgusting in their filth[u] and murderers[v] and fornicators[w] and those practicing spiritism and idolaters[x] and all the liars,[y] their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire[z] and sulphur.[a] This means the second death."[b]

9 And there came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls which were full of the seven last plagues,[c] and he spoke with me and said: "Come here, I will show you the bride, the Lamb's wife."[d] 10 So he carried me away in [the power of the] spirit to a great and lofty mountain,[e] and he showed me

the holy city[a] Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God[b] 11 and having the glory of God.[c] Its radiance was like a most precious stone, as a jasper stone shining crystal-clear.[d] 12 It had a great and lofty wall[e] and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names were inscribed which are those of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel.[f] 13 On the east were three gates, and on the north three gates, and on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.[g] 14 The wall of the city also had twelve foundation[h] stones, and on them the twelve names of the twelve apostles[i] of the Lamb.

15 Now the one who was speaking with me was holding as a measure a golden reed,[j] that he might measure the city and its gates and its wall.[k] 16 And the city lies foursquare, and its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city[l] with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs; its length and breadth and height are equal. 17 Also, he measured its wall, one hundred and forty-four cubits, according to a man's measure, at the same time an angel's. 18 Now the structure of its wall was jasper,[m] and the city was pure gold like clear glass. 19 The foundations[n] of the city's wall were adorned with every sort of precious stone:[o] the first foundation was jasper,[p] the second sapphire,[q] the third chal·ced′o·ny, the fourth emerald,[r] 20 the fifth sar′do·nyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrys′o·lite,[s] the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz,[t] the tenth chrys′o·prase, the eleventh hyacinth, the twelfth amethyst.[u] 21 Also, the twelve gates were twelve pearls; each one of the gates was made of one pearl.[v] And the broad way of the city was pure gold, as transparent glass.

22 And I did not see a temple in it,[a] for Jehovah[b] God the Almighty[c] is its temple,[d] also the Lamb [is].[e] 23 And the city has no need of the sun nor of the moon to shine upon it, for the glory of God lighted it up,[f] and its lamp was the Lamb.[g] 24 And the nations will walk by means of its light,[h] and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it.[i] 25 And its gates will not be closed at all by day,[j] for night will not exist there.[k] 26 And they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it.[l] 27 But anything not sacred and anyone that carries on a disgusting[m] thing and a lie[n] will in no way enter into it;[o] only those written in the Lamb's scroll of life [will].[p]

22 And he showed me a river of water of life,[q] clear as crystal, flowing out from the throne of God and of the Lamb[r] 2 down the middle of its broad way. And on this side of the river and on that side [there were] trees[s] of life producing twelve crops of fruit, yielding their fruits each month.[t] And the leaves of the trees [were] for the curing of the nations.[u]

3 And no more will there be any curse.[v] But the throne of God[w] and of the Lamb[x] will be in [the city], and his slaves will render him sacred service;[y] 4 and they will see his face,[z] and his name will be on their foreheads.[a] 5 Also, night will be no more,[b] and they have no need of lamplight nor [do they have] sunlight, because Jehovah God will shed light[c] upon them, and they will rule as kings forever and ever.[d]

6 And he said to me: "These words are faithful and true;[e] yes, Jehovah the God of the inspired expressions[f] of the prophets[g] sent his angel forth to show his slaves the things that must shortly take place.[a] 7 And, look! I am coming quickly.[b] Happy is anyone observing the words of the prophecy of this scroll."[c]

8 Well, I John was the one hearing and seeing these things. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship[d] before the feet of the angel that had been showing me these things. 9 But he tells me: "Be careful! Do not do that! All I am is a fellow slave of you and of your brothers who are prophets[e] and of those who are observing the words of this scroll. Worship God."[f]

10 He also tells me: "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this scroll, for the appointed time is near.[g] 11 He that is doing unrighteousness, let him do unrighteousness still;[h] and let the filthy one be made filthy still;[i] but let the righteous[j] one do righteousness still, and let the holy one be made holy still.[k]

20 "He that bears witness of these things says, 'Yes; I am coming quickly.'"[p]

"Amen! Come, Lord Jesus."

The Divine Name in the Hebrew Scriptures and in the Christian Greek Scriptures

“Jehovah.” Hebrew, יהוה (YHWH or JHVH)

“Jehovah” (Heb., יהוה, YHWH), God’s personal name, first occurs in Ge 2:4. The divine name is a verb, the causative form, the imperfect state, of the Hebrew verb הוה (ha·wah′, “to become”). Therefore, the divine name means “He Causes to Become.” This reveals Jehovah as the One who, with progressive action, causes himself to become the Fulfiller of promises, the One who always brings his purposes to realization.

The greatest indignity that modern translators render to the Divine Author of the Holy Scriptures is the removal or the concealing of his peculiar personal name. Actually his name occurs in the Hebrew text 6,828 times as יהוה (YHWH or JHVH), generally referred to as the Tetragrammaton (literally meaning “having four letters”). By using the name “Jehovah,” we have held closely to the original-language texts and have not followed the practice of substituting titles such as “Lord,” “the Lord,” “Adonai” or “God” for the divine name, the Tetragrammaton.

The name “Jehovah” occurs 6,973 times in the text of the Hebrew Scriptures of the New World Translation. Actually the Tetragrammaton occurs 6,828 times in the Hebrew text, including three combination names (Ge 22:14; Ex 17:15; Jg 6:24) and six occurrences in the superscriptions of the Psalms (7; 18 [3 times]; 36; 102). We rendered the Tetragrammaton as “Jehovah” in all 6,828 occurrences except Jg 19:18, where the first-person singular pronoun “my” was read instead of the divine name. Further, based on the readings in the Septuagint, we have restored the Tetragrammaton in De 30:16; 2Sa 15:20 and 2Ch 3:1. We also restored the divine name in Isa 34:16 and Zec 6:8 where “Jehovah” should be read instead of the first-person singular pronoun “my.” An additional 141 restorations were made where the Sopherim altered the divine name to read ’Adho·nai′ or ’Elo·him′.

To avoid overstepping the bounds of a translator into the field of exegesis, we have been most cautious about rendering the divine name in the Christian Greek Scriptures, always carefully considering the Hebrew Scriptures as a background. We have looked for agreement from available Hebrew versions of the Christian Greek Scriptures to confirm our rendering.

The Tetragrammaton in Hebrew characters (יהוה) was used in both the Hebrew text and the Greek Septuagint. Therefore, whether Jesus and his disciples read the Scriptures in either Hebrew or Greek, they would come across the divine name. In the synagogue at Nazareth, when Jesus rose and accepted the book of Isaiah and read 61:1, 2 where the Tetragrammaton is used, he pronounced the divine name. This was in accordance with his determination to make Jehovah’s name known as can be seen from his prayer to his Father: “I have made your name manifest to the men you gave me out of the world. . . . I have made your name known to them and will make it known.” —Joh 17:6, 26.

Thus, out of the 237 times that we have rendered the divine name in the body of our translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures, there is only one instance where we have no agreement from the Hebrew versions. But in this one instance, namely, 1Co 7:17, the context and related texts strongly support rendering the divine name.

“Gehenna”—Symbol of Complete Destruction

Hebrew, גי הנם (geh hin·nom′, “valley of Hinnom”); Greek, γέεννα (ge′en·na); Latin, ge·hen′na

“Gehenna” means “valley of Hinnom,” for it is the Greek form of the Hebrew geh hin·nom′. In Jos 18:16, where “valley of Hinnom” occurs, the Greek Septuagint reads “Gehenna.” It occurs 12 times in the Christian Greek Scriptures, first appearing in Mt 5:22. The New World Translation renders it “Gehenna” in all its occurrences, namely, in Mt 5:22, 29, 30; 10:28; 18:9; 23:15, 33; Mr 9:43, 45, 47; Lu 12:5; Jas 3:6.

The valley of Hinnom became the dumping place and incinerator for the filth of Jerusalem. Bodies of dead animals were thrown in to be consumed in the fires to which sulphur, or brimstone, was added to assist the burning. Also bodies of executed criminals, who were considered undeserving of a decent burial in a memorial tomb, were thrown in. If such dead bodies landed in the fire they were consumed, but if their carcasses landed upon a ledge of the deep ravine their putrefying flesh became infested with worms, or maggots, which did not die until they had consumed the fleshy parts, leaving only the skeletons.

No living animals or human creatures were pitched into Gehenna to be burned alive or tormented. Hence, the place could never symbolize an invisible region where human souls are tormented eternally in literal fire or attacked forever by undying worms. Because the dead criminals cast there were denied a decent burial in a memorial tomb, the symbol of the hope of a resurrection, Gehenna was used by Jesus and his disciples to symbolize everlasting destruction, annihilation from God’s universe, or “second death,” an eternal punishment.

"Soul"—A Living Creature, Human or Animal; Life as an Intelligent Person; Other Uses

Hebrew, נפש (ne′phesh); Greek, ψυχή (psy·khe′)

In the Hebrew Scriptures the Hebrew word ne′phesh occurs 754 times, first in Ge 1:20.

In the Christian Greek Scriptures the Greek word psy·khe′ occurs by itself 102 times, first in Mt 2:20. This includes Eph 6:6 and Col 3:23, where it is in the expression "whole-souled."

Animals are souls

Ge 1:20, 21, 24, 30; 2:19; 9:10, 12, 15, 16; Le 11:10, 46, 46; 24:18; Nu 31:28; Job 41:21; Eze 47:9.

A living person or individual is a soul

"Sheol," "Hades"

The Common Grave of Mankind; Gravedom

Hebrew, שאול (she′ohl′); Greek, ᾅδης (hai′des); Latin, in·fer′nus; Syriac, shiul

The Sixty-Six Occurrences of Sheol

"Sheol" occurs 66 times in the New World Translation of the Hebrew Scriptures, namely, in Ge 37:35; 42:38; 44:29, 31; Nu 16:30, 33; De 32:22; 1Sa 2:6; 2Sa 22:6; 1Ki 2:6, 9; Job 7:9; 11:8; 14:13; 17:13, 16; 21:13; 24:19; 26:6; Ps 6:5; 9:17; 16:10; 18:5; 30:3; 31:17; 49:14, 14, 15; 55:15; 86:13; 88:3; 89:48; 116:3; 139:8; 141:7; Pr 1:12; 5:5; 7:27; 9:18; 15:11, 24; 23:14; 27:20; 30:16; Ec 9:10; Ca 8:6; Isa 5:14; [7:11]; 14:9, 11, 15; 28:15, 18; 38:10, 18; 57:9; Eze 31:15, 16, 17; 32:21, 27; Ho 13:14, 14; Am 9:2; Jon 2:2; Hab 2:5.

The occurrences of "Sheol" in the Hebrew Scriptures cover the 65 times it occurs in the Hebrew Masoretic text, as well as one instance in Isa 7:11, where the text has she′a′lah, "do ask," but by a slight change in vowel pointing and in agreement with various ancient translations it reads she′o′lah, "Sheolward," or, "to Sheol." In all cases the New World Translation uses "Sheol" for the Hebrew word she′ohl′. The Greek Septuagint generally renders she′ohl′ as hai′des.

The derivation of the Hebrew word she′ohl′ is uncertain. According to one derivation, it means the "place of inquiry"; according to another, the "hollow place" or "resting-place"; according to still another, "the place that asks for and demands all without distinction of persons." It is in the earth and is always associated with the dead, and plainly means the common grave of mankind, gravedom, or the earthly (not sea) region of the dead. In contrast, the Hebrew word qe′ver means an individual grave or burial place.—Ge 23:4, 6, 9, 20.

The Ten Occurrences of Hades

"Hades," perhaps meaning "the unseen place," occurs ten times in the New World Translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures, namely, in Mt 11:23; 16:18; Lu 10:15; 16:23; Ac 2:27, 31; Re 1:18; 6:8; 20:13, 14.

In Ac 2:27, Peter's quotation of Ps 16:10 shows Hades is the equivalent of Sheol and is applied to the common grave of mankind (in contrast with the Greek word ta′phos, an individual grave). The Latin word corresponding to Hades is in·fer′nus (sometimes in′fe·rus). It means "that which lies beneath; the lower region," and well applies to the grave. It is thus a fitting approximation of the Greek and Hebrew terms.

In the inspired Scriptures these words are associated with death and the dead, not with life and the living. (Re 20:13) In themselves the words "Sheol" and "Hades" contain no thought or hint of pleasure or pain.
